MIZZOU WELCOMES PURDUE IN WEEK THREE

- Mizzou Football (1-1 overall) plays host to the Purdue Boilermakers (1-1) Saturday, with kickoff set for 3 p.m. (CT). The game, which will be broadcast on the SEC Network, is the third of four straight contests at Faurot Field/Memorial Stadium to begin the season for Mizzou.
- Mizzou is looking to rebound from a 31-13 loss Saturday evening in its SEC opener against South Carolina. The Tigers took a 10-0 lead early with 13:07 left in the second quarter on a 61-yard touchdown pass from junior QB Drew Lock to senior TE Jason Reese, but Carolina seized momentum like a bolt of lightning, as it scored 14 points in just 30 seconds of clock time to take a lead it never relinquished. The first blow came on the kickoff following Reese's score, when USC WR Deebo Samuel returned the ensuing kick 97 yards for a touchdown that quieted the Black & Gold clad crowd. On Mizzou's first snap following that, Lock was intercepted, and the Gamecocks were in the endzone one play later, on an end around by Samuel at the 12:37 mark that made it 14-10, which is where the score stood at half. Carolina drew first blood in the second half on an 80-yard touchdown drive, but a short field goal by sophomore PK Tucker McCann (his second of the game) got Mizzou back to within one score, at 21-13, midway through the third. But Carolina drove for a field goal and played keep-away in the fourth quarter to prevent Mizzou's quick-strike offense from coming back.
- Mizzou outgained South Carolina by a 423-to-359 margin in total offense, but the Tigers were done in by losing the turnover battle, 3-0 (two interceptions, one fumble that USC converted into 21 points), while the Gamecocks owned the ball for 37:36 of possession time. Mizzou was also hurt by numerous miscues on special teams that likely played a deciding factor in the game – including a blocked field goal, a fumbled punt giving Carolina an extra possession in the fourth quarter that it converted into a TD, Samuel's long kickoff return score, and a handful of penalties that went against MU and hurt the field position battle.

Senior TE
Jason Reese

- Hauled in a pair of catches for a career-best 88 yards and a score last week
- Had TDs in back-to-back games for the second time in his career after snagging a 61-yard TD last week vs. South Carolina, a career-long
- Part of a Mizzou TE group that has seven catches for 191 yards and three scores through two weeks ... Mizzou had just five TDs from its TE group a year ago (Reese has two of the three scores)

WEEK 3 STORYLINES

- Purdue comes to CoMo fresh off a solid 44-21 home-opener win last Friday over Ohio. The Boilermakers broke open a 10-7 game with a 24-point second quarter and never looked back as it evened its season record to 1-1, following a season-opening 35-28 loss to 16th-ranked Louisville on Sept. 2.
- Mizzou and Purdue have not met since the 1980 Liberty Bowl (Purdue won, 28-25) while the Tigers and Boilermakers have met eight times over the years. Purdue leads the all-time series, 6-2, and has won three straight since Mizzou's 14-7 win in 1953.
- Through two weeks of action, Mizzou is fourth in the nation in total offense (619.0 yards per game) and is averaging 8.60 yards per play, the nation's second-best mark.
- The Tigers are also coming off of a strong defensive performance last week as the 31 points allowed is somewhat misleading as many of South Carolina's scores came with the aid of turnovers and special teams miscues. Mizzou's defense allowed just 359 total yards last week, the fewest it has allowed to an FBS team since Nov. 27, 2015, when it held Arkansas to just 310 yards in the season finale that year. It is the fewest total yards allowed since holding Delaware State to 140 in a 79-0 win on Sept. 24 of last year.
- Mizzou is again limiting the amount of negative plays allowed this year with just four through two weeks, tied for the nation's best mark. Mizzou led the nation in that stat a year ago (just 2.92 per game).
- Mizzou has been sacked just twice through two games this season as well.

Junior QB Drew Lock

Became just the eighth Mizzou QB to throw for more than 5,000 yards in a career. His seven TDs vs. MO State moved him to sixth on Mizzou's all-time pass TD list as well.

SHOW ME

A DYNAMIC BACKFIELD

- As Mizzou enters week three of action, it will do so with one of the nation's most dynamic backfields. Through two weeks of play, Lock has thrown for 766 total yards while Crockett has rushed for 299, giving the duo a combined 1,065 total yards through two weeks. That's the top mark in the nation for any backfield duo.
- Lock ranks seventh nationally in passing yards per game while Crockett ranks ninth in rushing yards per game as Mizzou is the only team in the nation with a passer and a rusher ranked in the top 10 nationally.

Sophomore RB Damarea Crockett

Ran for 97 yards on 18 carries last week and now has 1,116 yards over his last eight games dating back to last season. He had a streak of three straight games over 100 yards snapped last week.

MIZZOU OWNS NATION'S TOP BACKFIELD

- Through two weeks of play, Mizzou's backfield duo of Drew Lock and Damarea Crockett has been the most explosive of any group in FBS. Lock has 766 passing yards while Crockett has 299 rushing yards, giving them a combined mark of 1,065, the most in the nation (technically Colorado State leads the nation, but it has played three games and has 1,168 yards). Among teams that have played three games, Mizzou just edged Louisville, which has 1,010 through two weeks with reigning Heisman winner Lamar Jackson at the helm.
- Mizzou is the only team in the nation with a passer and a rusher ranked in the national top 10 in passing/rushing yards per game. Below is a look at the nation's top backfields by yardage:

Rank	Passer	Yds.	Rusher	Yds.	Total
1. Mizzou	Drew Lock	766	D. Crockett	299	1,065
2. Louisville	L. Jackson	771	L. Jackson	239	1,010
3. Ole Miss	S. Patterson	918	Jordan Wilkins	65	983
4. NM State	Tyler Rogers	799	Larry Rose	159	958
5. Oregon	Justin Herbert	646	Royce Freeman	303	949

- Lock checks in at seventh nationally in passing yards per game (383.0), and fifth among QBs who have played two games. He is second in the SEC behind only Shea Patterson. Crockett is ninth nationally with his 149.5 yards per game, the top mark in the SEC.

MIZZOU AGAIN LIMITING NEGATIVE PLAYS

- Mizzou led the nation in tackles for loss allowed last season, allowing just 2.92 per game, the lowest mark in FBS since the NCAA began tracking the stat. Mizzou is off to a similar start this year, allowing just four total tackles for loss through the first two weeks (2.0 per game). To put that mark into perspective, Mizzou has 16.0 tackles for loss through two weeks.
- A big key to that is Mizzou's offensive line, which has thrived under second-year OL coach Glen Elarbee. The group checks in at the biggest in the SEC, averaging 6-5.5 and 326 pounds. The Kansas City Chiefs offensive line averages 6-6 and 316 to offer a little perspective.
- The group has allowed just two sacks this season as well. Last year, Mizzou allowed just 14 total sacks for an average of 1.15 per game, the 16th-best mark in the NCAA and the best mark in the SEC and fourth among Power 5 teams.

LOCK AMONG ELITE QBs IN MU HISTORY

- Entering week three, junior QB Drew Lock has thrown for 5,497 total yards, which is already sixth in school history. He has a ways to go to catch fifth-place Blaine Gabbert (6,822). Should he pass for the same amount of yards as he did a year ago, Lock would rank third in school history at the end of 2017, trailing only legends Chase Daniel (12,515) and Brad Smith (8,799). It would be the second-best three-year total in school history if he did that, trailing only Daniel. Daniel threw for 8,180 yards in his first three seasons. Below is a breakdown.

Rank	Yds	Att	Comp	INT	Pct.	TD
1. Chase Daniel (2005-08)	12515	1609	1094	41	.680	101
2. Brad Smith (2002-05)	8799	1484	835	33	.563	56
3. James Franklin (2010-13)	6962	943	586	25	.621	51
4. Jeff Handy (1991-94)	6959	1058	618	30	.584	39
5. Blaine Gabbert (2008-10)	6822	933	568	18	.609	40
6. Drew Lock (2015-17)	5497	763	401	21	.526	35
7. Phil Bradley (1977-80)	5352	798	437	29	.548	32

- Worth noting is that of the company on the list above, Lock has the highest yards per completion average at 13.7 yards per completion. Lock is averaging 21.9 yards per completion this season.

LOOK BACK AT LOCK'S CAREER DAY

- In Mizzou's season-opener against Missouri State, QB Drew Lock threw for 521 and seven touchdowns, both school records. The seven TDs tied the SEC record and he is just the sixth SEC QB to ever throw seven TDs in a single game. His 521 yards are the sixth-most ever thrown in a single game by an SEC quarterback. Lock earned Walter Camp National Player of the Week honors and took home SEC Offensive Player of the Week for his efforts in that game. Lock is second in the SEC in passing through two weeks of play.

SHOW ME

A PAIR OF EXPLOSIVE PLAYERS

- Mizzou has a pair of play-makers at skill positions this year in sophomore RB Damarea Crockett and senior WR J'Mon Moore.
- Crockett ranks ninth in FBS in rushing yards per game (149.5) and has a pair of scores to his credit this season.
- Crockett leads the SEC in rushing through the first two weeks.
- Moore ranks 25th nationally in receiving yards per game (108.0) and has a pair of scores as well.
- He ranks second in the SEC through two weeks.

DC IS UNSTOPPABLE

- Mizzou sophomore running back Damarea Crockett has been unstoppable. He ran for 202 yards, the second-best mark of his career, in the opener vs. Missouri State, and nearly had his fourth consecutive 100-yard performance last week vs. South Carolina. He tallied 97 yards on 18 carries before sitting out the entire fourth quarter with a bruised tail bone. He was three yards shy of becoming the first Tiger with four consecutive 100-yard games since Henry Josey in 2011.
- His 202-yard performance in the opener made him the first Mizzou player ever to run for 200+ yards in consecutive games after rushing for a career-high 225 at Tennessee in his finale a year ago.
- Since taking over as Mizzou's featured running back midway through 2016, Crockett has arguably been one of the nation's top running backs. In eight games dating back to last year's contest at Florida on Oct. 15 (Crockett missed Mizzou's finale vs. Arkansas in 2016) he is averaging 139.5 yards per game on the ground on just 149 carries, averaging 7.5 per tote. In those eight games alone, he has rushed for 1,116 yards
- Last year, Crockett put together one of the best freshman seasons in Mizzou history. He broke Mizzou's freshman records for rushing yards in a season (1,062), rushing TDs in a season (10), rushing yards in a game (225) and 100-yard games in a freshman season (five). He also matched the school record with four rushing TDs against Middle Tennessee. Crockett's final game of 2016 (at Tennessee) was the eighth-best rushing performance in school history as he torched the Vols for a career-best 225 yards on just 24 carries (9.38 avg.) with a score. That is the sixth-most rushing yards by a Mizzou running back in program history and he is one of only four Mizzou RBs to post at least 225 yards in a game. It was the second-most yards ever against Tennessee, trailing only Ole Miss' Dexter McCluster in 2009 (282). It was Mizzou's first 200-yard game against an FBS school since Tony Temple ran for 281 in the 2008 Cotton Bowl against Arkansas.
- Crockett, who was named to the 2017 Doak Walker Award Preseason Watch List, is currently ninth in FBS in rushing yards per game (149.5) and leads the SEC. The next-best back in the SEC is Texas A&M's Trayveon Williams, who has run for 256 yards through the first two games this season.

QUICK STRIKE

- Mizzou's lone TD last Saturday came on a one-play, 61-yard strike to from QB Drew Lock to TE Jason Reese that put the Tigers up 10-0 at the time. That was Mizzou's second one-play scoring drive of 2017 and 10th dating back to last season. To put that mark into perspective, Mizzou had 10 total one-play scoring drives from 2013-15, which included seven alone in 2013.

TIGHT END PASSING GAME

- Mizzou's whirlwind offensive attack under Offensive Coordinator Josh Heupel uses the entire field horizontally and vertically, and in his short time at MU, the tight ends have benefited greatly. Under the direction of TE Coach Joe Jon Finley, Mizzou boasts a group of big-bodied, strong blocking, and athletic pass catchers who create sizable mismatches all over the field.
- If the first two weeks of play are any indication, Mizzou's tight ends will loom large in the Tiger offense in 2017. The trio of redshirt freshman Albert Okwuegbunam (or Albert O for anyone who has to say it aloud), junior Kendall Blanton and senior Jason Reese have combined for seven catches, 191 yards and three scores. It's just a two-game sample size of course, but that's a pace for 42 catches, 1,146 yards and 18 touchdowns over a 12-game regular-season schedule. That might not be a realistic pace, but the point is Mizzou has some weapons in the middle of the field it hasn't seen in awhile.
- Against Missouri State, Albert O led the way with two grabs for 51 yards and a beautiful 27-yard TD down the seam in the third quarter in his first collegiate game. Blanton also had two catches, going for 41 yards, with both coming on third down snaps, including a 24-yard catch on a 3rd-and-11, as well as a 17-yard snag on a 3rd-and-6. Both catches extended Mizzou drives which ended in touchdowns. Reese had one grab, but it was also a big one, as he got free in the endzone for an 11-yard score midway through the second quarter on a 3rd-and-10 play that gave Mizzou a 34-28 lead at the time.
- Reese then hauled in two catches for a career-high 88 yards and a score last week vs. South Carolina, including a career-long 61-yard TD grab.
- The increase in production is no surprise really, as Finley's tight end group played a much bigger role in the passing game in 2016, with a combined 48 catches for 540 yards and five touchdowns. It was the most catches and yards for Mizzou's tight ends collectively since 2010, and the most TDs by the group since 2008. Here's a look at the increased production from Mizzou's tight ends since joining the SEC:

Year	Catches	Yards	TDs
2017 (2 gms)	7	191	3
2016 (12 gms)	48	540	5
2015 (12 gms)	33	276	1
2014 (14 gms)	21	186	1
2013 (14 gms)	9	78	0
2012 (12 gms)	4	27	0

MOORE FIREPOWER

- Through two games this season, Mizzou senior WR J'Mon Moore ranks second in the SEC and 25th nationally in receiving yards with 216. His two TD grabs tie for 20th nationally as well.
- Last year, Moore became Mizzou's seventh 1,000-yard receiver with 1,012 yards, and looks primed to repeat that feat in 2017. He opened his senior season with 187 yards on just four catches vs. Missouri State, including a pair of scores, averaging 46.8 yards per catch. The 187 yards were the 11th-best single-game total in school history and the second-best of his career, trailing only his 196 yards against Georgia a year ago.
- Over his last five games dating back to last season, Moore has 623 receiving yards (124.6 per game). He had a streak of four consecutive games over 130 yards snapped last week vs. South Carolina. He was the first Mizzou player to accomplish that feat since All-American Danario Alexander in 2009 when he did so in the final five games that year.
- During his last five games, Moore is averaging 21.4 yards per catch and has four TDs.

HOME RUN THREAT

- Staying on the topic of J'Mon Moore, the redshirt senior wideout hopes to continue the trend of being a home run threat for QB Drew Lock this week.
- On the opening Saturday vs. Missouri State, Moore had catches of 35 yards, 50 yards (TD), 50 yards (TD) and 52 yards.
- Mizzou leads the nation with six plays of 50+ yards after week one and Moore has three of them.
- Five of Moore's eight TDs from Lock a year ago came on one-play drives, averaging 36.4 yards per catch on those drives.
- Moore was sixth among players from Power 5 teams with eight plays of 40+ yards and he had TDs of 79 yards and 82 yards last season.
- In Mizzou's season-ending win over Arkansas, Moore had two of the biggest catches in the game during the second half, both going for 40+ yards. On a key third-and-11 on Mizzou's opening drive in the second half, Lock found Moore for 48 yards which set up a TD to bring the score to 24-14 as Mizzou began its second-half comeback.
- Again in a similar spot during Mizzou's first drive of the fourth quarter, Lock found Moore for 49 yards on a third-and-five from its own 38 to extend the drive, which Mizzou scored on three plays later to take a 28-24 lead that it would not relinquish.

SHOWOME

THE NEW KINGS OF #DLINZOU

- Mizzou has a long tradition of developing NFL-talent along the trenches of the defensive line and 2017 appears to be no different as a pair of standouts are primed for breakout seasons.
- Both senior DE Marcell Frazier and junior DT Terry Beckner, Jr., earned Preseason All-SEC honors from the league's coaches and give Mizzou forces up front.
- Frazier finished his season with a flurry of production a year ago, totaling 7.5 of his 8.5 tackles for loss over the final three games, including 6.5 of his 7.5 sacks. He has four tackles with a half sack so far this season.
- Beckner saw his season cut short due to a knee injury for the second straight season in 2017. The former No. 1 overall recruit is back and fully healthy this year and looked dominant during fall camp. He has five tackles and a half sack through two weeks and had four stops last week.

LOTS OF NEW FACES

- The old sales pitch of "You can't tell the players without the program" has seemed to ring true in Mizzou's first two weeks of 2017, as Barry Odom's team has featured 23 players who have seen the field for the first time in a Mizzou uniform.
- Included in that total were nine true freshmen who saw the field: S Joshuah Bledsoe, LB Jamal Brooks, S Tyree Gillespie, LB Aubrey Miller, RB Larry Rountree, CB Adam Sparks, DE Chris Turner, S Jordan Ulmer and DT Kobie Whiteside. Ulmer started at safety, making him the first true freshman defender to start Mizzou's season-opener since NFL standout Justin Smith in 1998.
- Ulmer was part of three Tigers seeing action for the first time ever who made starts, as he was joined by redshirt freshman C Trystan Castillo, and junior LB Kaleb Prewett. In all, there were six Tigers in the season-opener who made their first-ever start at Mizzou, with the aforementioned trio being joined by sophomore RG Tre'Vour Simms, sophomore DT Markell Utsey and junior LB Terez Hall. Five of those six players again made starts last week against South Carolina.

#DLINENEW

- Mizzou's proud tradition of producing top-notch defensive linemen should continue in 2017, with senior DE Marcell Frazier and junior DT Terry Beckner, Jr. receiving the lion's share of pre-season accolades, and rightfully so.
- In Mizzou's first two weeks of play, there has been every indication that they'll be joined quite nicely by some new faces who should make an impact, including a trio of junior college transfers in juniors Nate Anderson, Rashad Brandon and Walter Palmore.
- That trio has been impressive for Mizzou through two weeks of play. They have combined for 14 total tackles with 4.5 of those going for a loss (18 total yards lost) with 2.0 sacks. Brandon has five stops with 2.5 TFLs and a sack to his credit while Palmore has seven tackles with 1.0 tackles for loss. Anderson has a sack as well, coming in Mizzou's season-opener against Missouri State.
- Mizzou also has a fresh face leading #DLineZOU this season in first-year DL coach Brick Haley. In all, Haley — an outstanding recruiter and developer of talent — has logged 26 years as a full-time defensive coach, including three as defensive coordinator, and two as an assistant in the National Football League. This is his 20th as a defensive line coach.

HALL OF A PERFORMANCE THIS YEAR

- As mentioned above, junior LB Terez Hall made his first career start in the opener vs. Missouri State and through the first two weeks of play has been one of the Tigers' most consistent defenders.

- Hall ranks tied for second on the team with 12.0 tackles with a team-high 4.0 tackles for loss from his linebacking position. He also boasts a sack and a QB hurry to his credit.
- Hall led Mizzou with six tackles (all solo stops) and also tallied a sack and 2.0 TFLs with a QB hurry in week one and again had six tackles with 2.0 TFLs last week.
- The six tackles in each of the first two games for Hall match his career-high, which he also set against Vanderbilt last year.
- Hall had just 2.0 tackles for loss a year ago as he has already doubled that production from a year ago through the first two weeks.

GARRETT A TACKLING MACHINE

- The quarterback of Mizzou's defense this season has been true sophomore MLB Cale Garrett, who is leading the team with 16 total tackles through two weeks and is coming off of a 10-tackle performance last weekend against South Carolina. The 10 tackles for Garrett match his career-high.
- He has added a TFL and a fumble recovery to his stat line this season.
- Over his last three games, Garrett has been a tackling machine with 26 tackles dating back to last year's finale against Arkansas.

PREWETT IS AN IMPACT TRANSFER

- Mizzou has inserted a new hybrid linebacking/nickelback position to its defense to adjust to the developing trends in college football.
- A key to Mizzou's hybrid linebacking position working this season will be Kansas State transfer Kaleb Prewett, who moves from safety to the new position. At 6-1, 210-pounds, Prewett fits the bill as far as size and athleticism are concerned as he is a great blend of size and speed needed to play the position.
- He had five tackles with a TFL in the season-opener against Missouri State. He followed that with seven tackles against South Carolina during week two, the most he has had in a single game since posting a career-high 12 while playing safety at Kansas State against Texas Tech on Nov. 14, 2015.
- Prewett sat out last season due to NCAA transfer rules but was productive during his time at Kansas State. Before breaking his wrist in 2015, he was emerging as one of the Wildcats' top defenders, totaling 49 stops through eight games, including a career-best 12 tackles against Texas Tech on Nov. 14, 2015. In 10 career games, he has posted at least five tackles in eight of them.

SHERRILS A STALWART IN SECONDARY

- While Mizzou's defense will feature a lot of first-year starters this season, one face should be familiar to Mizzou fans and that is senior S Anthony Sherrills. The Kansas City native actually leads all active Mizzou players in career games played (40) and has played in 40 consecutive games, the longest active streak of any Mizzou player. He has also started 22 games, the top mark of any player on Mizzou's defense.
- Sherrills has 139 career tackles, the most of any player on Mizzou's roster, with 5.0 for loss and two career picks.
- Sherrills is playing in 2017 as a graduate student, as he received his sociology degree from Mizzou in May.

OTHER NOTES FROM LAST WEEK

- Mizzou's defense held South Carolina's QB Jake Bentley to just 187 yards passing. This marked the first time Mizzou has held an opposing QB under 200 yards passing since doing so against Delaware State last season (Sept. 24, 2017).
- Mizzou's defense held South Carolina to 359 yards, marking the first time since the same Delaware State game that Mizzou has held a team under 400 yards of offense.
- With 10 tackles, sophomore LB Cale Garrett matched his career high for tackles in a game. Garrett also recorded 10 tackles last season against Arkansas (Nov. 25, 2016).
- Junior DT Walter Palmore made his first career TFL in the first quarter.
- RS Senior DE Jordan Harold set a new career high in tackles, accumulating six in the game. His previous high was two, which he had done three times in his career.
- Junior LB Terez Hall matched his career high for tackles-for-loss with two. Hall had two tackles-for-loss to open the season against Missouri State last week.
- Sophomore CB DeMarkus Acy tied his career high in tackles, matching last week's five against Missouri State.
- Mizzou's defense was able to hold the Gamecocks to just 14 points in the first half, the least in a first half since the Tigers played at Vanderbilt on November 12, 2016. They allowed only 10 points in the first half of that game.

SHOW ME

HALL DISRUPTIVE IN BACKFIELD

- Through the first two weeks of play, Mizzou junior LB Terez Hall has made the first two starts of his career and he has filled up the stat sheet.
- He has 12 tackles on the year with half of those eight coming behind the line of scrimmage as he leads the team with 4.0 tackles for loss.
- Hall has also added a sack and a QB hurry on the year and is coming off of a six-tackles performance last week against South Carolina.
- Two of his six stops were for a loss.

SPREADING THE LOVE

- Mizzou's offense has plenty of playmakers at the skill positions and that shows in the number of players who have made a catch through the first two weeks of play. In all, 11 different Tigers have hauled in a pass this year (six WRs, three TEs and two RBs). No player has more than seven catches this year as Mizzou's 35 receptions have truly been spread pretty evenly over Mizzou's 11 pass catchers.
- Mizzou has a strong two-deep at all three of the WR spots and is three deep with quality options at TE. Backing up J'Mon Moore is Dominic Collins who caught his first career TD vs. MO State. In the slot, Richaud Floyd is backing up Johnathon Johnson and he hauled in a pair of catches for 35 yards in the season opener. Junior Emanuel Hall is backing up All-SEC Freshman honoree Dimetrios Mason and had three catches for 66 yards last week, the latter of which was second-best on the team.

MIZZOU PILING UPTFLs

- Mizzou tallied 12.0 tackles for loss in the season-opener against Missouri State. That was the most for a Mizzou team since Sept. 12, 2015, at Arkansas State when it tallied 15.0. The Tigers finished that year with 106.0 TFLs, which was one of the nation's top marks, ranking eighth.
- Last year, Mizzou struggled by its standards, forcing only 72.0 tackles for loss. But, toward the end of the season, Mizzou seemed to find its footing in that category, posting 35 of those 72 TFLs over the final four games (8.75 per game) after posting just 37.0 in the first eight games (4.63 per game).
- Mizzou closed the season last year against Arkansas with 11.0 tackles for loss and posted 12.0 in the season opener this year and had 4.0 last week, giving the Tigers 27.0 in the last three games. Mizzou is averaging 8.5 TFLs per game over the last six games, dating back to Nov. 5, 2016.
- With 16.0 tackles for loss on the year, Mizzou is 28th nationally and fourth in the SEC.

SHOW ME

OH CAPTAIN, MY CAPTAIN

- One of the best stories on the team in 2017 comes from RS senior DE Jordan Harold. After not getting a single Division I offer out of high school, Harold wound up at Division II Powerhouse Northwest Missouri State but wanted to play Division I, so he transferred to Mizzou as a walk-on.
- Harold, who is without a doubt one of the hardest workers on the team, earned a starting spot last year and was named a team captain in 2017.

SHOW ME

A STACKED OFFENSIVE LINE

- Mizzou's projected starting O-line averages 6-foot-5.5 and 326 pounds.
- To put that mark into perspective, the NFL's Kansas City Chiefs, who are right down the I-70 about two hours from Columbia, average 6-foot-6 and 316 pounds as Mizzou's offensive line checks in at about the same average height and about 10 more pounds per player.
- The group boasts 65 career starts and all seven O-linemen who made starts a year ago.
- Mizzou led the nation in fewest tackles for loss allowed last season, the best mark in college football history since the NCAA began archiving that statistic in 2005.

DIFFERENT LOOK FOR O-LINE

- What a year a difference makes for the Tiger offensive line. Going into Barry Odom's first season as head coach in 2016, the Tigers featured the least experienced offensive line in the nation, with a collective three career starts on the roster (all by Alec Abeln in 2015). Despite the new faces and the uncertainty in a brand new Josh Heupel scheme, MU's offensive line was a revelation as it developed under the guidance of OL Coach Glen Elarbee into one of the nation's best.
- Heading into 2017, the line presented a completely different feel. Elarbee's group returned all 60 starts from last year, and all seven players who started at least once in 2016 – a stark contrast to the meager total of three returning career starts going into last season.

Pos.-Name (Year)	Ht.	Wt	Career Starts
LT – Tyler Howell (Sr.)	6-8	330	13
LG – Kevin Pendleton (Jr.)	6-4	330	13
C – Trystan Castillo (RS-Fr.)	6-4	315	1
RG – Tre'Vour Simms (So.)	6-5	340	1
RT – Paul Adams (Jr.)	6-6	315	13

- Adams turned in an outstanding sophomore season as a first-time starter in 2016. According to Pro Football Focus, he ranked ninth nationally among all tackles in highest pass block efficiency, at 98.6%, which was the best mark among SEC tackles.
- Coaches always preach about the importance of depth, and the Tigers have that luxury on the front line in 2017, as four players can come off the bench who have started previously, including senior C/G Alec Abeln (9 career starts), junior T/G Samson Bailey (9), senior G Adam Ploudre (7) and sophomore C Jonah Dubinski (2).
- Dubinski is a former walk-on who earned a scholarship during the early stages of fall camp after being a key cog up front for the Tigers. He earned a pair of starts later in 2016 and has spent plenty of time running in the two deep at center during fall camp.

SERIES VS. PURDUE

- Mizzou and Purdue have played eight times previously, but the midwestern programs haven't played recently, in fact they haven't met since the 1980 Liberty Bowl in Memphis, Tenn., when the Boilermakers prevailed by a 28-25 score. Prior to that, the teams met three times in the 1950s, with the last matchup in Columbia, in 1956, in what eventually was the last season for MU's legendary coach, Don Faurot. Purdue won a 16-7 game at Memorial Stadium in what served as game number two of the season for Faurot's final Tiger team.
- In all, Purdue owns a 6-2 advantage in the series, and it has won the last three games overall, dating back to 1954. In games played in Columbia, the series is even at one-win apiece, while Purdue is a perfect 3-0 against Mizzou in West Lafayette, Ind. Here's a quick look at the series history:

Year	Result	Location
1895	Mizzou, 16-6	St. Louis
1897	Purdue, 30-12	West Lafayette
1904	Purdue, 11-0	St. Louis
1905	Purdue, 24-0	West Lafayette
1953	Mizzou, 14-7	Columbia
1954	Purdue, 31-0	West Lafayette
1956	Purdue, 16-7	Columbia
1980	Purdue, 28-25*	Memphis
*-1980 Liberty Bowl

RECAP OF 1980 LIBERTY BOWL

- Here's a recap of the last time Mizzou and Purdue met on the gridiron:
- An 8-3 Tigers squad earned its second Liberty Bowl berth in three years under Coach Warren Powers following a 31-6 shellacking of Kansas, also the third-straight year Mizzou had downed the Jayhawks.

SHOW ME

SERIES HISTORY VS. PURDUE

- Mizzou trails, 6-2
- The Boilermakers have won the last three meetings between the two programs, dating back to 1954
- Saturday's matchup will be the first between the two teams since 1980, a 28-25 Purdue win in the Liberty Bowl
- Mizzou is 1-1 all-time vs. Purdue in Columbia, Mo., but the Boilermakers won the last meeting between the two in CoMo, 16-7, in 1956.

- The Tigers started the 1980 season quickly, at 6-1, but in the Liberty Bowl it was a slow start which doomed Mizzou and allowed Purdue to walk away with a 28-25 victory. Purdue's All-America quarterback Mark Hermann started anything but slowly in leading Purdue to a 21-12 halftime lead with three touchdown passes, covering eight, 43 and five yards in the first half.
- By the time Mizzou had its second first down of the game, the Tigers trailed, 14-0. Powers then called a reverse on the ensuing kickoff and Ron Fellows turned it into a 92-yard touchdown. The extra point was no good and the Tigers trailed, 14-6. MU back James Wilder scored from a yard out, but when the two-point conversion missed, the Tigers lost their only chance to draw even in the game, but still trailed, 14-12.
- After halftime, Hermann threw his last touchdown, his second to Bart Burrell and the Boilermakers were up, 28-12. With just under 13 minutes left, Mizzou had a chance to cut the deficit to six with first and goal at the six. Wilder, though, was stopped short on fourth down at the one and the Tigers came away empty. Mizzou managed a 10-point flurry late in the quarter which included a safety and were within 28-25 with 5:05 to play. But the next time Phil Bradley and the offense touched the ball, it was on their own six with just 1:16 to play, and they could not force a rally.
- The Boilermakers sent the Tigers home at 8-4, thus spoiling Mizzou's chance at its first nine-win season in 11 years.

NOTABLES ON RB DAMAREA CROCKETT

Debuted in 2017 with a 202-yard performance that included a pair of scores and an 11.2-yards-per-carry average ... He became the first Missouri player ever to rush for 200 yards in back-to-back games after he closed his season against Tennessee a year ago with 226 yards ... Also had a career-long 73-yard run that would have been a 74-yard TD run had he not been flagged for diving into the endzone at the 1-yardline... Followed with 97 rushing yards on 18 carries vs. South Carolina

Set Missouri freshman records for rushing yards in a season (1,062), rushing yards in a single game (225), rushing touchdowns in a season (10) and tied the school record with four rushing TDs in a single game vs. Middle Tennessee (10/22)

Finished the regular season ranked sixth in the SEC in rushing yards per game (105.8), tops among SEC freshmen ... His 7.3 yards per carry ranked third among all qualified rushers in SEC games and tops among freshmen ... Ended the regular season ranked first in the nation among freshmen in rushing (96.5 yards per game)

Was the first SEC true freshman to rush for more than 1,000 yards since Georgia's Nick Chubb and LSU's Leonard Fournette did so in 2014 ... He was also Missouri's first 1,000-yard rusher since Russell Hansbrough in 2014

NOTABLES ON WR J'MON MOORE - PRESEASON ALL-SEC SECONDTEAM (COACHES)

Caught four passes for 187 yards and two scores vs. Missouri State (9/2) ... It was the second-best game in his career, trailing only his 196-yard performance against Georgia in 2016 ... Flew the Texas State Flag to honor those from his hometown of Houston (Missouri City, Texas) who have suffered with flooding caused by Hurricane Harvey

Has accumulated at least 130 yards in four straight games dating back to last year, making him the first Missouri WR to accomplish that feat since All-American Danario Alexander in 2009

Coming off a breakout season that saw him lead the SEC in receiving yards during the regular season ... Became just the eighth Missouri player with more than 1,000 receiving yards after posting a career-high 1,012 on 62 catches (16.3 average) ... His 1,012 yards on the year rank as the seventh-most in school history as he was Missouri's first 1,000-yard receiver since Bud Sasser in 2014 ... His 1,012 yards led the SEC (32nd nationally) while his 84.3 yards per game ranked second in the league and tops among players who played in every game ... Opened his season with three 100-yard performances in his first four games and closed the year with three consecutive games over 100 yards

NOTABLES ON WR JOHNNATHON JOHNSON

Scored on the first play of Missouri's season (the first time that has been accomplished at Missouri), taking a 65-yard out pass to the house ... That was part of a five-catch, 116-yard performance that included a pair of scores ... His 116 yards were a career-high ... Also returned one punt for 10 yards

Finished the season averaging 17.6 yards per touch and was a big play threat for Missouri all season, posting Missouri's longest rush, catch, kick return and punt return on the season ... His 435 receiving yards are the fourth-most ever by a Missouri freshman ... Added 114 yards on just four rushes on the year and boasted Missouri's only punt return TD on the season

All-SEC Freshman Team in 2016 at both WR/KR and earned SEC Freshman of the Week following the Eastern Michigan game during which he hauled in a career-high five passes for 115 yards and one touchdown with a career long 87-yard TD reception

NOTABLES ON WR DIMETRIOS MASON

One of the SEC's top rookie playmakers a year ago who is back looking to provide more big plays for the Tiger offense ... Showed an ability to make plays in the middle of the field or on the edge, and has great speed to pull away from defenders

Totaled one catch for 11 yards in the season-opener vs. Missouri State (9/2) but had a key block to spring the opening TD of the game from WR Johnathon Johnson ... Also returned four kicks for 129 yards, including a career-long of 51 yards and ran the ball once for 19 yards ... Followed with a season-high four receptions for a season-best 48 yards, including a 19-yard strike against South Carolina (9/9)

Recorded 587 receiving yards, the most ever by a Missouri true freshman and the second-most ever by any Missouri freshman, trailing only All-American Jeremy Maclin who had 1,055 in 2007

Hauled in three TD grabs and averaged 12.5 yards per catch ... His 47 catches were also the most ever by a Missouri true freshman

Carried the ball 11 times in his collegiate debut, collecting his first career TD while going for 41 yards in Mizzou's season-opening win vs. Missouri State (9/2) ... TD came on Mizzou's final scoring drive, a two-yard plunge in the fourth quarter
Tough, physical runner with a great burst who gets to full speed quickly and is a challenge for defenders to bring down on first contact
Downhill style halfback with good agility to work in and out of traffic ... Has good instincts and vision, and uses his blockers well by showing patience
Sets up blocks to create angles and then shows a good burst to hit the hole that is there
Rivals.com rated him as the No. 31 overall prospect in the state of North Carolina
Had an impressive senior season as he ran for 21 touchdowns for the Wildcats, going for 1,147 yards on 201 carries (5.7 average)

#77 PAUL ADAMS

Franklin, Tenn. // Christ Presbyterian HS
RS Junior // 6-6 // 315

NOTABLES ON OT PAUL ADAMS - 2017 TEAM CAPTAIN

- Preseason All-SEC Second Team (coaches)
- Proven veteran performer looking to anchor the right side of the offensive line, where he started all 12 games at right tackle a year ago for the SEC's most productive offense
- Part of an offensive line that was the nation's most improved group despite boasting just three career starts as a unit heading into the season
- The group finished first nationally in tackles for loss allowed (2.92), the lowest in the nation for any team since at least 2005, a remarkable note considering Mizou ranked 15th nationally in plays
- Offensive line group also led the SEC in sacks allowed (16th nationally) and paved the way for a Mizou offense that led the SEC and ranked 15th nationally (500.5 yards per game and 205.1 on the ground)

#76 TYLER HOWELL

Bonner Springs, Kan. // Bonner Springs HS // Butler CC

NOTABLES ON OT TYLER HOWELL

- Blind side protector for Tiger quarterbacks at the left tackle position, is the returning starter there from a year ago when Mizou's offensive line was among the nation's most improved ... is expected to hold that spot down for another year
- Was an instant-impact junior college addition, as he started all 12 games at left tackle for Mizou
- Part of an offensive line that was the nation's most improved group despite boasting just three career starts as a unit heading into the season
- The group finished first nationally in tackles for loss allowed (2.92), the lowest in the nation for any team since at least 2005, a remarkable note considering Mizou ranked 15th nationally in plays

NOTABLES ON OT TRE'VOUR SIMMS

- Up-and-coming lineman who has a big upside as he continues to develop under the tutelage of OL Coach Glen Elarbee
- Got his feet wet in 2016 as a true freshman mostly on special teams units, but is expected to challenge for scrimmage snaps in his second year with the program

#55 TRYSTAN CASTILLO

Webb City, Mo. // Webb City HS
RS Freshman // 6-4 // 315

NOTABLES ON C TRYSTAN CASTILLO

- One of the strongest members of the team who is coming off a redshirt season and looking to challenge for significant snaps on an offensive line which returns all five starters from a year ago
- Most likely to line up at center, but is versatile enough to contribute at several spots

#67 JONAH DUBINSKI

Columbia, Mo. // Rock Bridge HS
RS Sophomore // 6-2 // 295

NOTABLES ON C JONAH DUBINSKI

- Home-town kid who realized a dream when he worked his way into the starting lineup late last season, and performed very well as Mizou's offense hit another gear in its final few games
- Spent most of his spring camp lining up at center, and he'll be a primary candidate to compete for the starting job in the fall
- Earned a scholarship during fall camp after starting his career as a walk-on

#57 ALEC ABELN

St. Louis, Mo. // University HS
RS Senior // 6-3 // 305

NOTABLES ON OG ALEC ABELN

- Veteran lineman who can contribute at any of the three interior spots, where he has nine career starts to his credit
- Likely to enter fall camp battling for position on the depth chart at left guard
- Saw action in 10 games, and made a career-high six starts

#66 ADAM PLOUDRE

Ballywin, Mo. // Marquette HS
RS Senior // 6-4 // 315

NOTABLES ON OG ADAM PLOUDRE

- One of the great comeback stories on the Mizou roster, who overcame severe and potential career-ending leg injuries in high school which derailed his college plans, but who has overcome those and has now developed himself into a key contributor on the Tiger offensive line
- Received a prestigious honor in April when he was named the 2016-17 winner of Mizou Athletics' Courage Award at the annual ROARS event
- Emerged as a key contributor during the season, and not only played his way onto the field for the first time in his Tiger career, but he earned seven starts for an offensive line that was one of the most improved in the nation despite having just three combined career starts as a unit heading into the season

NOTABLES ON DE MARCELL FRAZIER - PRESEASON ALL-SEC THIRD TEAM (COACHES)

Had three tackles and a half sack in Mizzou's season-opener against Missouri State (9/2)
The heir apparent to be the latest in a long line of standout defensive ends for #DLineZOU ... Came on strong late last season, and is primed to be one of the SEC's most disruptive rush ends ... Missed the last week of spring camp after breaking a bone in his right forearm in a scrimmage, but was 100% when fall camp rolled around in August
Preseason All-SEC Third Team honoree
Played in 12 games (five starts) and totaled 33 tackles (19 solo) with 8.5 tackles for loss and 7.5 sacks as a junior
Added two pass break-ups and four QB hurries
His 8.5 tackles for loss and 7.5 sacks were the second-most on the team, trailing only DE Charles Harris

NOTABLES ON DT TERRY BECKNER, JR. - PRESEASON ALL-SEC THIRD TEAM (COACHES)

Tallied a half sack in the season-opener vs. Missouri State (9/2) and recorded a season-best three tackles vs. South Carolina (9/9)
All-Star candidate who has the ability to be a game-changer on any given snap in the trenches ... Has battled the injury bug each of his first two seasons, but will be full go this year, when he hopes to show that he's one of the SEC's top defensive tackles ... Participated in spring drills but only in non-contact situations, as he continued to get back to health
Had the misfortune of having a second-straight season ended early due to a knee injury ... Injury was to his other knee, and came in game #7 against Middle Tennessee, just as he was beginning to come into his own while getting back from the previous year's setback ... Prior to the injury, came off the bench as he was working his way back into the feel of the game, and amassed 24 tackles in seven games, including 2.0 TFLs, while adding three QB pressures and recovering one fumble

BARRY ODOM2nd Season as Mizzou Head Coach*Mizzou, 1999*Career Record: 5-9

- ▶ 15 Years of Experience at Mizzou
- ▶ Mizzou Linebacker (1996-99) under Mizzou head coach Larry Smith
- ▶ Spent Four Years as a Defensive Coordinator (3 at Memphis, 1 at Mizzou)
- ▶ Safeties Coach at Mizzou from 2009-11
- ▶ Mizzou Football Operations from 2006-08
- ▶ Head Coach of Rock Bridge High School (Columbia) from 2001-02
- ▶ True Son who Graduated from Mizzou in 1999
- ▶ Native of Maysville, Okla.

A longtime fixture at Mizzou, Barry Odom, 40, is in his second year guiding a program he has been immersed in at every level for some 15 years – including six in an administrative capacity (2003-08), four as a coach (2009-11, 2015) and four as a highly-successful student-athlete (1996-99). The 2016 season was his first as Mizzou's head coach, and came after he had spent the previous four seasons as a defensive coordinator, including three at Memphis (2012-14) and one at Missouri, where his units were considered among the nation's best.

Highly-respected among his coaching peers for his integrity and for his championship vision, Odom has his Tigers pointed in the right direction after a rebuilding year in 2016 that saw Mizzou win four games. They closed the season out in strong fashion, with wins in two of their final three games - with both coming against bowl teams in Arkansas and Vanderbilt. Those victories sent Mizzou into the off-season with a lot of momentum that Odom expects to capitalize on in his second year in command.

Odom was named the 32nd head football coach in program history in December of 2015, and his undeniable passion for Mizzou, coupled with his strong track record of success at each level of his career pointed to him being the right man to lead the Tigers into the future in the nation's toughest conference.

In 2015, Odom turned in an outstanding season as first-year defensive coordinator for Mizzou under coach Gary Pinkel (who retired after that season), as his Tigers ranked ninth in the nation in total defense, allowing just 302.0 yards per game. Since the NCAA began tracking defensive statistics in 1978, that marked the first time in MU history that Mizzou had produced a top-10 defense. Odom's defense was also ranked seventh nationally in scoring defense (16.2 avg.), seventh in pass defense (169.2 avg.) and second in tackles for loss (8.8 avg.).

Prior to that, Odom became one of the more highly sought-after coordinators in the country due to three stellar years directing Memphis' defense from 2012-14. His 2014 defense was a key component of Memphis' 10-3 season, as his unit finished the regular season ranked fifth nationally in scoring defense (17.1 avg.) and 22nd in total defense (343.3 avg.). That marked an impressive incremental improvement under Odom's watch, as Memphis ranked 117th nationally in total defense the season prior to his arrival. In his first season at Memphis, the defense improved to 50th nationally (383.6 avg.), followed by a jump to 39th in 2013 (370.7 avg.). Memphis earned a share of the 2014 American Athletic Conference title, giving them a conference title for the first time since 1971.

Odom, a Maysville, Okla., native, played at Mizzou under former Coach Larry Smith, and starred as a linebacker from 1996-99. He ended his playing career with 362 tackles, which still ranks as seventh-most in school history. Odom was a captain for his senior year of 1999, and was a key figure on the Missouri teams which reached bowl games in 1997 and 1998, ending a 14-year postseason drought for Tiger fans.

Success followed Odom's career path at each future stop after his playing days. After earning his undergraduate degree in December of 1999, he served as an intern with Mizzou's Tiger Scholarship Fund while he worked on his Master's in Education from the University of Missouri (which he would earn in May of 2004). He returned to his home state of Oklahoma in July of that year to serve as an assistant football coach for his alma mater Ada High School, which finished that season as runners-up for a state title.

Born Nov. 26, 1976, in Lawton, Okla., Odom and his wife Tiritia (Tia) were married in July of 2000. Tia is a native of Kahoka, Mo., and is a graduate of MU's College of Human Environmental Sciences. The couple has three children – sons James Trump and Garyt Robert, and daughter Anna Lockwood.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING...*FORMER MIZZOU HEAD COACH GARY PINKEL ON BARRY ODOM

"I'm so happy for Barry, he's absolutely the right guy for the job. You saw the reaction he got from the team last Thursday, and that says it all. He's got a great plan to take the MizzouMade legacy and make it even better, and I know he'll work extremely hard to do that and make our fans proud. Barry is a man's man, he's a person of great integrity who treats people the right way. He's got exceptional leadership skills and people skills, and he will run a tough, disciplined program. At the same time, he cares very much for his players, and it will show. I know he expects to come in and take Mizzou Football to a higher level, and I look forward to watching that happen."

VIRGINIA TECH HEAD COACH JUSTIN FUENTE ON BARRY ODOM

"The University of Missouri has selected an outstanding coach and leader in Barry Odom. Not only does Barry possess a great defensive mind, he has a unique ability to connect with and motivate kids. I've always known that it was not a matter of if, but when, Barry would be a head coach. I have no doubt he'll do a great job with the opportunity he's been given."

OKLAHOMA ATHLETIC DIRECTOR JOE CASTIGLIONE ON BARRY ODOM

"From the moment I met him on his official visit as a prospective student-athlete, through watching his playing years as a Tiger, it was clearly evident that Barry Odom's character, leadership skills and intent to make everyone around him better would position him for success in everything he pursued. I've followed his career journey ever since with great interest. I'm absolutely thrilled for him as he realizes his dream of becoming Head football Coach at Mizzou. He has taken every opportunity to properly prepare for this moment and I firmly believe he will lead Missouri to a lot of success."

NOTABLES ON OC JOSH HEUPEL

The first hire made by Barry Odom after taking over as Mizzou's 32nd head coach was Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks Coach Josh Heupel. The move paid immediate dividends for Odom's program, as Heupel transformed Mizzou's offense in short time into arguably the nation's most improved attack a year ago. The improvement Mizzou saw on offense under Heupel's direction was eye-popping in 2016. Mizzou led the SEC and ranked 13th nationally in total offense last year (500.5 ypg), a year after Mizzou ranked 124th in 2015 (280.9 ypg). Other huge statistical spikes of improvement came in passing offense (20th nationally in 2016; Mizzou was 113th in 2015), rushing offense (38th in 2016; 119th in 2015) and scoring (48th in 2016; 126th in 2015). Additionally, Heupel oversaw the continued development of sophomore QB Drew Lock into one of the SEC's top signal callers. In only his first full year as a starter, Lock took to Heupel's comprehensive coaching and blossomed into a 3,000-yard passer. Lock led the SEC with his 283.2 yards per game average, and finished with 3,399 yards and 23 touchdowns. Heupel brought with him to Mizzou an impressive track record of success, including four national championship game appearances, seven BCS bowl games and coaching oversight of two Heisman Trophy winning quarterbacks. Including the 2016 at Mizzou, he has 14 years of coaching and recruiting experience at the highest level, including the last six seasons as offensive coordinator and play caller at Mizzou, Oklahoma and Utah State. Heupel finished his first season as assistant head coach/offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach in 2015 with Utah State.

NOTABLES ON CO-DC RYAN WALTERS

In his third year with the Mizzou coaching staff is Ryan Walters, who came to MU with Barry Odom in February of 2015 when Odom was announced as the defensive coordinator. When he was named Mizzou's head coach, Odom kept Walters on board to continue coaching the Tiger safeties. Thanks to his outstanding work on the field, as well as in recruiting circles, Odom named Walters Co-Defensive Coordinator prior to the 2016 season, and now in 2017, Walters will coach the entire secondary, as he brings the cornerbacks into his position room. Walters was a key factor in Mizzou's 2015 defense that finished in the top 10 nationally in total defense, scoring defense and pass defense. He also developed senior Ian Simon and sophomore Anthony Sherrills into two of the top safeties in the SEC in 2015. Walters, 31, came to Mizzou after spending the 2014 season as cornerbacks coach at Memphis, where he worked with Odom. At Memphis, the pair oversaw a defense that was among the most improved in the nation. Memphis went 10-3 in 2014, thanks in large part to its defense which ranked fifth nationally in points allowed (17.1 ppg) and 22nd in total defense (343.3 ypg) in the regular season.

NOTABLES ON WR COACH ANDY HILL

Andy Hill has coached 21 seasons at the University of Missouri, making him the longest-tenured coach on the Tiger football staff. In fact, only one other assistant coach in MU football history ever enjoyed a longer tenure at Mizzou: Clay Cooper (29 seasons). Hill's 21st season on the MU sideline in 2016 tied him for second place on the longevity list with Chauncey Simpson (1934-54). In 2016, Hill transitioned back to coaching the wide receivers, a role that gained him some well-deserved recognition from 1996-2012, coaching some of the best players in Mizzou history. He spent 2013-15 coaching Mizzou's quarterbacks, including mentoring freshman starter Drew Lock in 2015.

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH CORNELL FORD // RB

17th Season at Mizzou
Hometown: Gary, Ind.
Alma Mater: Toledo, 1991

RB

NOTABLES ON RB COACH CORNELL FORD

Cornell Ford is in his 17th season at Mizzou and in his second with the title of assistant head coach and working with the Tiger running backs. The 2016 season saw Ford switch to the offensive staff, and his first season mentoring the backfield couldn't have gone better, as his backs were a key reason why Mizzou's offense was one of the most improved in the nation. Before working with the running backs, Ford spent 12 years coaching the Tiger cornerbacks, after he focused on MU's outside safeties his first three years. Ford is also the Tigers' chief recruiter in St. Louis, where he has signed some of the very best players in the state who have been critical to Mizzou's success over the years.

ASSISTANT COACH GLEN ELARBEE // OL

2nd Season
Hometown: Carrollton, Ga.
Alma Mater: Middle Tennessee, 2003, 2004

OL

NOTABLES ON OL GLEN ELARBEE

In his second year with Barry Odom's program is Offensive Line Coach Glen Elarbee. In his first year with Mizzou, Elarbee proved that he is undoubtedly one of the top line coaches in the nation, as he took the nation's youngest and most inexperienced group (with just three combined career returning games started from 2015) and molded them into one of the nation's most improved lines. In 2016, the improvement Mizzou saw on offense with Elarbee's help was eye-popping. Mizzou led the SEC and ranked 13th nationally in total offense last year (500.5 ypg), a year after Mizzou ranked 124th in 2015 (280.9 ypg). Other huge statistical spikes of improvement came in passing offense (20th nationally in 2016; Mizzou was 113th in 2015), rushing offense (38th in 2016; 119th in 2015) and scoring (48th in 2016; 126th in 2015). His line finished first in the nation in tackles for loss allowed (2.92), the lowest in the nation for any team since at least 2005.

ASSISTANT COACH JOE JON FINLEY // TE

2nd Season at Mizzou
Hometown: Arlington, Texas
Alma Mater: Oklahoma, 2008

TE

NOTABLES ON TE COACH JOE JON FINLEY

One of the top young position coaches in the country is second-year Mizzou tight ends coach Joe Jon Finley. Finley joined Barry Odom's first staff at Mizzou prior to the 2016 season, and his tight ends played a vital role in MU's offense becoming one of the most improved in the nation. Senior Sean Culkin enjoyed a career year in 2016, as he had career-bests in receptions (24), and yardage (282), while he and fellow tight ends Kendall Blanton (Soph.), Jason Reese (Junior) and Tyler Hanneke (Senior) also all contributed heavily in Mizzou's much-improved run game. Following the 2017 NFL Draft, Culkin signed a free agent contract with the Los Angeles Chargers. Finley coaches a position in which he was an all-conference performer in his playing days for the Oklahoma Sooners.

ASSISTANT COACH BRICK HALEY // DL

1st Season
Hometown: Gadsden, Ala.
Alma Mater: Alabama A&M, 1988

DL

NOTABLES ON DL BRICK HALEY

University of Missouri Head Football Coach Barry Odom added longtime defensive line coach and Southeastern Conference veteran Brick Haley to his coaching staff in the offseason. Haley will serve as Mizzou's defensive line coach, a position he has coached with great success for 19 years overall, including the last 13 straight. In all, Haley – an outstanding recruiter and developer of talent – has logged 26 years as a full-time defensive coach, including three as defensive coordinator, and two as an assistant in the National Football League. Haley comes to Mizzou after spending the past two seasons at Texas, where he coached the Longhorn defensive line. This past season, Texas' defense led the Big 12 Conference in both quarterback sacks (3.42 per game) and tackles for loss (7.6 per game), while ranking 5th and 16th nationally in those categories, respectively. In 2015, Texas ranked fifth in the NCAA in sacks.

ASSISTANT COACH BRIAN ODOM // OUTSIDE LBs

1st Season at Mizzou
Hometown: Ada, Okla.
Alma Mater: Southeastern Oklahoma, 2004

NOTABLES ON OLB COACH BRIAN ODOM

Brian Odom, who is in his first season as outside linebackers coach at Mizzou, is actually in his second tour of duty with the Tigers. He began his career in athletics as an administrative and defensive graduate assistant coach on Gary Pinkel's staff in 2005. He comes to Mizzou from Washington State, where he was the defensive quality control assistant for the 2015 and 2016 seasons. At WSU, Brian was instrumental in the Cougars' defensive turnaround, working under Defensive Coordinator and former Mizzou assistant coach Alex Grinch. Prior to Washington State, Brian spent three years running the football strength and conditioning program at the University of Houston (2012-14), after spending seven years working with the football performance program at the University of Arizona (2005-11).

THE $98M FUTURE OF #TheZOU

▼ The University of Missouri Board of Curators unanimously voted on Aug. 25 to approve construction of Mizzou Athletics' $98 million south end zone facility at Faurot Field/Memorial Stadium. This project will provide state-of-the-art training facilities for Mizzou Football, create additional premium seating opportunities and game-day enhancements for all Tiger fans to enjoy, and bring new jobs to Columbia.

▼ The Board of Curators' total approved project budget is $98 million; to consist of campus infrastructure funds totaling $800,000, long-term debt financing not to exceed $57 million and private gifts covering the remainder of the project costs.

▼ The Tigers' new football operations area will include team and staff locker rooms, an enhanced sports medicine facility featuring a Hydrotherapy area with recovery pools, Hyroworx and lap pools, a weight room, nutrition oasis and equipment room, as well as team and position meeting rooms, and coaches offices. A grand lobby entrance at field level showcasing Mizzou's proud football tradition will greet visitors, and a recruiting lounge will allow the Tigers' staff to host recruits

- ▼ Since the athletics department received its first pledge toward the new facility last September, the generosity of 42 individuals, coupled with Sterk's visionary leadership, has generated more than $50 million in pledges over the last 11 months to help this game-changing project come to fruition. Construction of the nearly 200,000-square foot facility, which includes more than 150,000 square feet of enclosed space, is expected to start in early 2018 with the demolition of the stadium's south end zone grandstands, and be completed ahead of the 2019 campaign.
- ▼ Memorial Stadium's capacity, currently listed at 71,168, will be around 65,000 when the largest capital project in Mizzou Athletics history is complete, according to school officials.
- ▼ Coach Odom: "Missouri is making a bold statement with today's announcement and I am confident that it not only will pay big dividends in recruiting, but it will help improve our game-day atmosphere throughout the stadium," he added. "I can't wait to get the shovels in the ground and get going. I am thankful to lead the Mizzou Football program and represent our University and State, and am pleased we have undertaken a project of this stature."

LUXURY SEATING

- ▼ 16 Suites
- ▼ 750-person field-level club
- ▼ 1,254-seat indoor club
- ▼ General seating area for 1,324 fans
- ▼ A full kitchen will also be constructed in the facility to service the new premium areas, and new video boards will further enhance the Mizzou game-day experience.
- ▼ AD Jim Sterk: "Our goal is to build one of college football's premier facilities for our student-athletes and coaches to utilize on a daily basis, and we are confident that we can achieve that within the project's budget and scope," he added. "When this facility is completed, not only will it be an incredible asset in recruiting, but our expectations are that it will enhance the game-day environment for our fans at Memorial Stadium, too."
