

Mizzou Men's Basketball Postgame Notes vs. Tennessee

Thompson-Boling Arena - Knoxville, Tenn.

Final Score: No. 4/4 Tennessee 85, No. 15/16 Mizzou 81

- The Tigers made 10 triples and lost for the first time with eight 3-pointers in a game (entered with a 13-0 record).
- Tamar Bates led the Tigers with 22 points, all of which coming in the second half. The game marked Bates' team-leading seventh time leading MU in scoring.
- Tony Perkins scored or assisted on each of Mizzou's first 13 points, including three quick 3-pointers to set a season-high.
- Perkins wound up logging 16 points – his most in a conference game – and five assists which matched a season-high and led Mizzou in the contest. Perkins has led Missouri in assists on eight separate occasions this season.
- Perkins added five rebounds, making it his sixth career game with at least 15 points, five rebounds and five assists and first in the Black & Gold.
- Josh Gray collected 10 rebounds, his second-straight game with double-digit boards and fifth overall this season (four in nine SEC games).
- Caleb Grill recorded 11 points, reaching double figures for the seventh time in the last eight games.
- Missouri's three turnovers equal its fewest in a season (3 vs. Jacksonville State, 12/18).
- The loss is Mizzou's first this season when reaching 80 points.
- Mizzou falls to 10-13 in the all-time series with Tennessee.
- The home team won for the first time in seven regular-season meetings between the schools.
