LEADING OFF

No. 11 Mizzou heads to No. 19 Kentucky (35-14, 10-8 SEC) for a three-game Southeastern Conference series from Friday, April 26-Sunday, April 28, at the UK Softball Complex in Lexington, Ky. Friday's opener begins at 4 p.m. CDT., before Saturday's noon start. The Sunday, April 28, finale at noon will be televised live by Fox Sports South. Head coach Ehren Earleywine leads the Tigers against UK for the first time at the helm of the Mizzou program.

RECENT SWINGS

• Mizzou split a mid-week doubleheader against Western Kentucky on Wednesday, April 24, with the Tigers taking a 7-1 win in the second game. The Tigers were led in the doubleheader with two-hit outings from both sophomore SS Corrin Genovese and senior catcher Jenna Marston. Senior Nicole Hudson, the all-time program leader with 135 walks, set a career best for walks in a season with her 36th of 2013, passing her previous best of 35 from last season.

• Missouri finished a series win at No. 11 LSU on Sunday, April 21, with a 3-2 victory over LSU that was powered by Hudson's two home runs. The two-run shot in the third inning and solo long ball in the fifth were all that was needed to top LSU. Mizzou previously took a 6-1 win in the series opener on Friday, April 19. Hudson batted 6-for-10 over the weekend.

• Senior pitcher Chelsea Thomas earned Southeastern Conference Pitcher of the Week on Monday, April 22, for her efforts against LSU. In the Friday and Sunday wins, Thomas struck out 23 batters for a rate of 1.64 strikeouts per inning. She walked just one batter in the two victories. Thomas struck out 13 batters and allowed just two hits in Mizzou's initial 6-1 win on Friday before leading the Tigers to a 3-2 victory on Sunday, in which she fanned 10 batters and scattered five hits.

MIZZOU MILESTONES

• Thomas became Mizzou's all-time winningest pitcher with her performance in the 6-1 win at LSU (April 19), her 103rd career victory. She surpassed the 30-year old record of 102 set by Teresa Wilson from 1980-83. She earned win No. 104 with the 3-2 victory at LSU (April 21).

• Marston and Hudson are working their way up the all-time hits chart at Mizzou. Marston currently has 206 hits, good for No. 6 in Mizzou's record book. Hudson is just outside the top 10 with 196 base knocks, needing just one more to match Leanne Bowers (2004-07) for 10th all-time. Marston additionally moved into the school's top 10 for career at-bats, where she currently ranks 10th all-time with 636.

• Hudson and Marston are in a tight race to be Mizzou's all-time walks leader by season's end. Hudson is currently Mizzou's all-time leader with 135 walks after recording 36 so far in 2013, while Marston follows at 128 with 19 this season. Marston originally surpassed former standout Jen Bruck's former No. 1 mark of 115 (2005-08) with her 116th walk in the fifth inning of Mizzou's 12-0 (5) win at Ole Miss on March 17.

• Hudson's season total of 36 walks, a career best, currently ranks fourth all-time at Mizzou. The program record of 46 was set by Marston last season.

• Sophomore 1B Kelsea Roth recently matched former Mizzou standout Mary McGrane (1999-2002) for No. 1 in career fielding percentage all-time in program history with her .995 mark.

REWRITING THE RECORD BOOKS

• Thomas became Mizzou's all-time winningest pitcher with her performance in the 6-1 win at LSU (April 19), her 103rd career victory. She surpassed the 30-year old record of 102 set by Teresa Wilson from 1980-83.
• Thomas is in the all-time top 5 of the following Mizzou pitching categories: career appearances (tied for fourth,149), complete games (fourth, 89), innings pitched (third, 861.0) and shutouts (third, 41).
• For season records at MU, Thomas is tops in both season strikeouts and season wins. Her marks of 397 (2011) and 306 (2012) strikeouts are the two largest totals in school history. Thomas' 32 victories in 2011 is tied with Wilson's stellar campaign in 1981.

• Hudson ranks fifth all-time with 159 career RBI. Mary Babb (1994-97) is No. 1 with 199.
• Hudson hit her 40th home run at Missouri State (April 3), making her the fifth Tiger to hit 40 or more in her career. She currently is fourth all-time with 42 long balls, with Jenn Bruck (2005-08) holding the all-time No. 1 mark of 47.
• Marston ranks second all-time at Mizzou with 179 runs scored. Three-time All-American Rhea Taylor (2008-11) is No. 1 in school history with 234.
• Hudson and Marston are in a tight race to be Mizzou's all-time walks leader by season's end. Hudson is currently Mizzou's all-time leader with 135 walks after recording 36 so far in 2013, while Marston follows at 128 with 19 this season. Marston originally surpassed former standout Jen Bruck's former No. 1 mark of 115 (2005-08) with her 116th walk in the fifth inning of Mizzou's 12-0 (5) win at Ole Miss on March 17.
• Marston has broken into the top-10 all-time in hits with her 206 career knocks, ranking seventh all-time. Hudson follows her with 196 for her career.

WELCOME TO TIGER PARK, NICOLE HUDSON!

Senior 3B Nicole Hudson did the heavy lifting in Mizzou's 3-2 win to clinch the series at LSU on April 21, hitting two home runs in a game for the third time in her career. Her two-run shot in the third inning and the following solo long ball in the fifth pushed her season total to 12 and her career amount to 42. The second home run hit the top of Tiger Park's scoreboard beyond the right field wall. Hudson batted 6-for-9 in the two wins at LSU.

ANOTHER STRONG PERFORMANCE FOR THOMAS

Senior pitcher Chelsea Thomas struck out 13 and 10 batters, respectively, in her two wins at No.11 LSU (April 19, 21). She also recently fanned 10 batters in the middle contest of the Arkansas series (April 13), pitching 11.0 innings. The number of games that the Pleasantville, Iowa, native has struck out 10+ batters has risen to 46 games out of 149 career appearances, essentially once every three times Thomas steps into the circle. Mizzou's record in those games is 38-8.

• Thomas earned her fourth SEC Pitcher of the Week award for her efforts at LSU. With the recognition, Thomas leads all SEC players in weekly awards this season, as well as distancing herself from the rest of the conference's pitchers, with three league pitchers having two honors apiece.

THOMAS IN FINAL 25 FOR PLAYER OF THE YEAR
Thomas, a two-time All-American, was named a Top 25 finalist for the 2013 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year award, the ASA and USA Softball announced April 10. Thomas' inclusion in the 2013 Top 25 marks her third career USA Softball Top 25 recognition. Thomas was one of three overall finalists for the award in 2011 and also advanced to the final 25 finalists last season.

ROTH AND SYKES GO BACK-TO-BACK
Sophomore 1B Kelsea Roth and junior OF Mackenzie Sykes helped the Tigers distance themselves from the fourth-ranked Crimson Tide in its 9-4 victory (April 6), hitting back-to-back home runs in the top of the seventh inning. Roth's shot straight out to center field was a two-run blast that also scored senior IF Princess Krebs. Sykes followed with the freshly clean bases and laced a sharp, solo long ball out over the right center field wall, setting the score at 9-0.

RADICAL RANDAZZO!
• Randazzo made it five home runs in a four-game span with her two long balls in the Missouri State doubleheader (April 3). In game one, she batted 2-for-3 with four RBI from a three-run home run and RBI double in the incredible 10-run top of the fifth for Mizzou. She batted 2-for-3 again in game two, hitting a solo home run and single.

• The three run-rule wins for Mizzou in the South Carolina series (March 29-30) had help from Randazzo, who batted 5-for-7 with three home runs, one double and nine RBI for the weekend. Her two home runs and five RBI in the five-inning, 12-3 victory over the Gamecocks (March 30) both set new career-bests. Her back-to-back two-hit outings in the doubleheader also matched career-bests.

THE BALL HAS LEFT THE BUILDING
In Mizzou's five-inning, 12-0 win over Missouri State on Wednesday, April 3, the Tigers hit four home runs. Mizzou also matched that feat in the 16-0 victory over Georgia Tech on March 23. The long ball total was the most in a game since Mizzou hit five in the squad's season-opening, five-inning, 11-3 win at UC Santa Barbara on Feb. 15.

RUNAWAY TIGERS
The previously mentioned 16-run total for Mizzou in its closing victory of the Georgia Tech doubleheader on Saturday, March 23, was a significant amount. The Tigers' 16 runs were the most in a game since Mizzou won 16-0 over Drake on April 2, 2008.

MIZZOU IN TOP 10 FOR 10-STRAIGHT POLLS, MATCHING PROGRAM-BEST
Mizzou was ranked eighth and ninth in the country by the USA Today/NFCA Division I Top 25 and ESPN.com/USA Softball Collegiate Top 25 polls, respectively, on Tuesday, April 9, putting the squad in the Top 10 for the 10th-straight poll to match a program best. Head coach Ehren Earleywine also led Mizzou to a 10-poll stay in the Top 10 rankings from the final poll of the 2009 season (June 9 - No. 8/8) to the Week 8 poll of the 2010 season (April 6 - No. 7/8).

WHAT A STREAK!
Mizzou put together a 12-game winning streak from March 13-April 13, beginning with a 3-1 win the first game of the Evansville doubleheader and ending with a 7-0 shutout in the second game of the Missouri State doubleheader , the longest current streak in the SEC, outscoring its opponents 109-10 in that stretch. During the twelve wins, Mizzou built the following statistical advantages:

- Outhit its opponents 109-38
- Blasted 49 extra-base hits against seven for its foes
- Hit 21 home runs to just one opponent long ball
- Earned 59 walks, while Tiger opponents have walked 12 times
- Struck out 80 opposing batters, while Tigers have struck out only 20 times (Chelsea Thomas fanned 64 of those batters)

CLEAR THE BASES
• Sophomore 1B Kelsea Roth hit her second grand slam of the season in the first inning of Mizzou's six-inning, 10-2 win over South Carolina (March 29). The blast, her ninth home run of the season, opened the scoring for the game.

• In back-to-back games of the Georgia Tech doubleheader (March 23), a Tiger hit a grand slam. In the five-inning, 8-0 win to start the day, sophomore 3B Angela Randazzo hit her grand slam during the six-run second inning. The blast was her third home run of the season. Senior Rachel Hay's grand slam, her second home run of the season, came in Mizzou's six-run second inning of the five-inning, 16-0 victory in the second game.

• Roth hit Mizzou's first grand slam of the 2013 season came in the five-inning, 13-1 victory over Maryland (Feb. 21). The four-run shot helped power a nine-run second inning that distanced the Tigers from the Terrapins. Coincidentally, Roth was previously the last Mizzou player to hit a grand slam in 2012. Her second-to-last long ball of her seven-home run freshman campaign cleared the bases at Iowa State on April 28.

DOUBLES? WE'VE GOT YOUR DOUBLES
In Mizzou's 6-1 victory at Ole Miss on March 16, the Tigers smacked six doubles as a team. It was the squad's best double-hitting performance in more than one year, with Mizzou hitting six against Alcorn State on March 9, 2012.

COMBINED NO-HITTERS

Two-time All-American pitcher Chelsea Thomas received a helping hand from fellow seniors Nicole Hudson and Lindsey Muller to complete two combined no-hitters in Mizzou's first and third wins of the Ole Miss series, both five-inning affairs. In the 11-0 win on March 15, Thomas threw 2.0 innings and struck out four Rebels to start the game, with Hudson pitching 3.0 innings for the win, fanning four. To close the series on March 17, Thomas completed 3.0 innings of work for the win, again striking out four. Muller finished the Rebels off with 2.0 innings pitched and three strikeouts. The two combined efforts were Thomas' 12th and 13th no-hitters of her outstanding Tiger career. The two results were the 36th and 37th no-hitters in Mizzou history.

Hudson finished Mizzou's season-opening 11-3 victory over UCSB (Feb. 15) batting 3-for-3 with four RBI. She also knocked a single through the middle in her third at-bat of the contest. EHREN EARLEYWINE

Head Coach | Seventh Season

In just six seasons, Tiger Head Coach Ehren Earleywine has led the Missouri softball program to almost unheard of levels of success in such a short amount of time. In his first season, he took a team that posted just 26 wins and had a losing record the year before and turned them into a 40-win squad that finished the year with a regional bid and a top-20 national ranking. After 2007, Earleywine led the program to an even more success on the national stage, as his Missouri squads have captured five regional championships in a row, two Big 12 titles, the first three 50-win seasons in Missouri history and three Women's College World Series appearances, making him the first Tiger coach ever to earn consecutive berths to the pinnacle of college softball. Batting averages, ERA's and fielding percentages have all improved dramatically, while Tiger players are earning national recognition on a now annual basis. Missouri's top-ranked softball squad has Earleywine to credit for its rise to national prominence.

Named Missouri's head coach in August of 2006, Earleywine's rapid success was rewarded a seven year contract extension on August 31, 2011, making him the first Olympic coach in Missouri history to receive an extension greater than five years. In his six seasons at Missouri, Earleywine has managed a record of 288-90, amassing the second most wins of the Tiger's eight all-time softball coaches and becoming the fastest Missouri softball coach to reach 200 victories. Since beginning his head coaching career in 2003 at Georgia Tech, Earleywine has turned in a .750 winning percentage, the eighth-best amongst active Division I coaches, and is averaging 48 wins per season. He is the fifth fastest coach to reach 100 wins in NCAA Division I softball history.

As successful as the 2009 campaign was, somehow the 2010 Missouri softball season topped it. While that may not have been a surprise when you looked at the team going into the season, Mizzou definitely shocked plenty of people after what happened in the middle of the season. At the end of March, Missouri was flying high, sitting at No. 3 in the country and considered a legitimate contender to win the Women's College World Series. However, word then broke of a season-ending injury to ace pitcher Chelsea Thomas, and suddenly Missouri became an afterthought. What people seemed to forget, however, is that this was an Ehren Earleywine coached team, and they wouldn't be allowed to roll over and die without a fight.

After a brief adjustment period in early April, the Tigers finally got it all together. They ended the season with 51 wins, breaking the school record mark of 50 set the previous year. They hosted the regional round for the second straight year, where they used a seventh inning comeback over Creighton and two straight wins over Illinois to capture their third consecutive regional championship. Then, Missouri played host to the NCAA Super Regional round for the first time in school history, sweeping the Oregon Ducks in two games to move on to their second straight and fifth overall Women's College World Series. Missouri had their fourth All-American awarded under Earleywine, and finished the year ranked No. 8, tying for the highest end of the year ranking in program history. For their work, Earleywine and his staff were selected as the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) Midwest Staff of the Year for the second consecutive season.

In 2011, the Tigers once again entered the season with incredible expectations, and again they lived up to the hype, inching ever closer to their goal of a national championship. They broke the school record for wins for the third straight season, finishing with a record of 53-10. During the middle of the season, they won 24 straight games, a school record as well. They captured their first regular season Big 12 Championship since 1997 after finishing the year at 15-3 in league play. For the third straight year, Columbia played host to the NCAA Regional round, where the Tigers captured their fourth consecutive regional title despite falling into the loser's bracket on the first day of action. Missouri hosted Washington for the NCAA Super Regionals the following week, the second straight year the Tigers have hosted Supers, and swept the Huskies in two games to advance to their third straight Women's College World Series. Mizzou won their first WCWS game since 1991, defeating rival Oklahoma by a 4-1 score to eliminate the Sooners. Despite losing a 13 inning heartbreaker later that night to end their season, the Tigers finished the year with a 53-10 record and a No. 6 national ranking, the highest finish ever for the Missouri softball program. Redshirt sophomore Chelsea Thomas was one of three finalists for USA Softball's Player of the Year award and was named Big 12 Pitcher of the Year after leading the nation in ERA, while the squad also had three All-Americans and six All-Big 12 selections.

Last season, the Tigers said goodbye to the most successful class in school history, and welcomed in 10 freshmen, completely revamping the face of the program. While anyone around the program would say it was a disappointing year, making it clear all season that they were "reloading" and not "rebuilding," the Tigers still finished one win away from going to their fourth consecutive Women's College World Series, falling in the final game of the best-of-three Super Regional series to LSU.

Mizzou also finished second in the Big 12, going 17-7 in league play. Thomas was again named Big 12 Pitcher of the Year for the second straight season, becoming the second pitcher in conference history to do so, while freshman Corrin Genovese earned the program's second consecutive Defensive Player of the Year Award. Ashley Fleming earned All-America honors for the second time in her career, while the Tiger staff was named NFCA Midwest Region Staff of the Year for the third time in four years.

In six seasons, the two-time Big 12 Coach of the Year has become the first Missouri softball coach to lead his squad to five straight NCAA Regional titles, doing so in 2008 and again at home in Columbia, Mo., from 2009-12. Since taking the reins, Missouri's batting averages have been on the rise, which includes a .313 mark in 2009, while the team ERA has been on the decline, highlighted by 2011's 1.40 mark, the Tiger's best end of the year ERA since 1998. The 2011 team set a new program best with 539 strikeouts, more than 100 more than the previous record set in 2004. With Earleywine at the helm, the Tigers have stolen a total of 683 bases and managed an 83 percent success rate on stolen bags since 2007.

In addition to the success Missouri has seen on the field, Earleywine's squad has received record marks in the classroom, finishing the 2008 campaign with a combined 3.36 grade-point average, the highest GPA since the creation of the program in 1975. In 2011, Missouri led the Big 12 with a 997 APR rate for the softball team, while 10 Tigers were named to the Academic All-Big 12 list, the most in the league. They followed that up with eight in 2012, and went on to have three Academic All-Americans crowned in Fleming, Thomas and Jenna Marston, tying the program record for most in a year, set in 1991.

Prior to his career at Missouri, Earleywine spent five seasons at Georgia Tech, of which he served as head coach for the final three. Earleywine's teams made five consecutive appearances in the NCAA Regional Tournament, finishing runner-up on three occasions. The Ramblin' Wreck claimed Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) regular season and tournament titles in 2005 and to his credit, Earleywine was named the 2005 ACC Coach of the Year.

A 1994 graduate of Westminster College, Earleywine played baseball at Missouri State University (formerly Southwest Missouri State) for one year before transferring to the Fulton, Mo., school for the remainder of his collegiate career. Earleywine served as an assistant coach at Westminster through the 1997 campaign under the guidance of former Major League Baseball outfielder and former Tiger, Phil Bradley, then took the reigns as head coach until 1999. Following his time at Westminster, Earleywine was named assistant baseball coach at Texas A&M-Corpus Christi in 2000, remaining there until 2002 before taking the Head Assistant Coaching position at Georgia Tech.

A standout in men's major fastpitch softball, Earleywine was a four-time member of Team USA (2000, 2001, 2002, 2003) including being named captain for his final two seasons with the national team. In 2002, Team USA captured its first-ever gold medal in the Pan Am Qualifier, where Earleywine hit .429. During his career, Earleywine collected four medals, one gold, two silver and one bronze. At the 2003 Pan Am Games, hosted by the Dominican Republic, Earleywine helped lead Team USA to a silver medal, doing so again in the 1999 Pan Am Games held in Winnipeg, Canada. Earleywine and his team earned bronze in Valencia, Venezuela, at the 1998 Pan Am Qualifier.

A six-time American Softball Association (ASA) All-American, Earleywine was an All-World selection in 1999 by the International Softball Congress (ISC). As a member of the Decatur Pride, Earleywine's team earned the ASA Softball National Championship title in 1999 taking World Championship honors in 2001 with the ISC.

Earleywine is a graduate of Jefferson City High School and is married to Linn, Mo., native Lisa. The two have two children, son, Connor and daughter, Duran.
