LSU TIGERS

THE MATCHUP

MIZZOU

2015 Record: 2-1, 0-1 SEC
Head Coach: Shannon Welker
Mizzou Record: 8-15 (2 yrs)

NOTABLES

- Scored a season best 195.225 at Georgia.
- Freshman Shauna Miller won the all-around crowns in both Tiger meets in 2015.
- Friday's meet marks Mizzou's debut on the SEC Network (tape delayed on Jan. 26).

No. 3 LSU

2015 Record: 3-0, 1-0 SEC
Head Coach: D-D Breau
LSU Record: 653-404-8 (38 yrs)

NOTABLES

- The Tigers currently rank third nationally.
- Jessie Jordan has claimed both SEC Gymnast of the Week honors in 2015.
- LSU also ranks second nationally on beam, third on bars and seventh on vault/floor.

TIGER TIDBITS

- The Mizzou gymnastics team continues its three-meet road stretch on Friday, Jan. 23 when the squad travels to Baton Rouge, La., to face No. 3 LSU at 7:30 p.m.
- The meet will be broadcast live on SEC Network + and tape delayed on SEC Network on Monday, Jan. 26 at 6 p.m. CT. Holly Rowe, Alicia Sacramone-Quinn and Ashley Lee will be on the call for the meet.
- In a close loss to then-No. 7 Georgia on Jan. 16, the Tigers posted a season best score of 195.225, more than 1.3 points higher than their opening meet score of 193.900.
- The Tigers' vault (48.950) and beam (48.925) scores against the Gymdogs were higher than any score the team posted during the 2014 season on those events.
- Mizzou is just out the most recent Gyminfo top-25 poll at 27. The team also ranks 22nd on both vault and bars in the national rankings.
- Freshman Shauna Miller, who was the first SEC Freshman of the Week honoree in 2015, claimed her second consecutive all-around title at Georgia. She totaled a score of 39.200 against the Gymdogs after opening her college career with a 39.325. Miller stands as the only Mizzou gymnast to score at least a 39.200 in the all-around in her opening two meets.
- Miller also tied Missouri's freshman vault record with a 9.950 against Kent State and Towson. The score included a 10.0 from one judge.
- Head Coach Shannon Welker is in his second season at the helm of the Tiger program. Welker led Missouri to a 6-7 regular season mark a year ago and an RQS of 194.770.
- 2015 marks the 35th season of the Mizzou gymnastics program, with the Tigers boasting an all-time regular season record of 373-302-1.
- The 2015 roster features nine returners from last year's squad and six newcomers.
- The March 6 home meet against Alabama will make history for the program, as the Tigers will compete at Mizzou Arena for the first time in the facility's 10-year history.

MORE ABOUT THE TIGERSLAST TIME OUT

Mizzou improved its opening meet score by 1.325 points as the team posted a 195.225 in a loss at No. 7 Georgia (195.800) on Jan. 16 at Stegeman Coliseum in Athens, Ga. Freshman Shauna Miller claimed her second all-around title in as many meets after tallying a 39.200 on the night.

Missouri's scores of 48.950 on vault and 48.925 on beam were both better event scores than the team recorded all of last season.

The Tigers opened the meet with a team score of 48.650 on bars, highlighted by Miller and senior Becca Johnson's 9.750s.

A strong second rotation on vault followed, as the squad notched a 48.950, with every gymnast receiving at least a 9.750. Miller led the way with a 9.850 to finish second on the event. Senior Laura Kappler was solid once again with a 9.800, while freshmen Kennedi Harris and Becca Schugel each received a 9.775 and sophomore Angie Kern posted a 9.750.

On floor, Miller earned a second-place finish with a 9.850 to lead the squad a team tally of 48.700 in the third rotation. Harris posted Mizou's second highest score on the event with a 9.800, and Kappler had a 9.725.

The Tigers closed the meet in impressive fashion with a 48.925 to finish the meet with a 195.225. Senior Briana Conkle and Schugel had team best scores of 9.825 to tie for third overall on the event. Kappler concluded her night with a 9.800, followed closely behind by Miller (9.750) and freshman Tia Allbritten (9.725).

ABOUT LSU

LSU is a perfect 3-0 on the season, including a 1-0 SEC mark after a win over Kentucky on Jan. 16. The Tigers sit third in the national rankings with an average score of 196.863, including a high 197.125 against Iowa in the season opener. LSU also ranks second nationally on beam (49.325), third on bars (49.338) and seventh on vault (49.238) and floor (49.138).

Senior Jessie Jordan has claimed both SEC Gymnast of the Week honors in 2015, after all-around totals of 39.550 against Iowa and 39.525 against Kentucky and Arizona State. Jordan ranks first on floor, second on beam, third in the all-around and 11th on bars in the national rankings. Additionally, senior Rheagan Courville is second nationally on bars and ninth in the all-around.

UP NEXT

Mizzou heads down to Cape Girardeau, Mo., on Friday, Jan. 30 for the State of Missouri Meet against Lindenwood and Host SEMO. Competition will begin at 6:30 p.m.

MISSOURI SEES STRONG IMPROVEMENT IN WEEK TWO

After opening the season with a 193.900 on Jan. 9, the Tigers responded with a team score of 195.225 at Georgia on Jan. 16. Mizou's score improved 1.325 points in just one week, one of the biggest improvements in the nation.

The Tigers also saw season best scores on three of four events, including a huge 1.325 improvement on beam along. Mizzou posted scores of 48.950 on vault, 48.925 on beam, 48.700 on floor and 48.650 on bars, where all but the bars score was a season high. The team score of 195.225 was higher than all but one score posted by the Tigers during the 2014 season, when the squad went 195.725 against George Washington on Feb. 21.

VAULT, BEAM SCORES AT GEORGIA HIGHEST SINCE AT LEAST 2013

Mizzou's strong vault and beam rotations at Georgia marked the highest scores for the team on those events since at least the 2013 season. Incredibly, Mizzou's 48.950 on vault was the highest the squad has posted on the event since March 24, 2012, when the Tigers went 49.000 at the Big 12 Championships.

Missouri also posted a score of 48.925 on beam, the best score on the event since it went 49.250 against Arizona on March 16, 2013.

Last year's season highs on the events were 48.875 on vault (against Lindenwood and Air Force on Feb. 23) and 48.825 on beam (at Auburn on March 7).

MILLER TWO-FOR-TWO IN ALL-AROUND WINS

Freshman Shauna Miller is making quite a name for herself after just two collegiate meets. The Knoxville, Tenn., native has claimed both all-around titles in her only two college meets. She started the season with a 39.325 against Towson and Kent State on Jan. 9, then followed that up with a winning 39.200 at Georgia on Jan. 16.

Miller stands as the first Tiger gymnast to post all-around scores of at least 39.200 in her first two college meets.

MISSOURI JUST OUTSIDE THE GYMINFO TOP-25

The second GymInfo in-season team rankings were released on Jan. 19, with the Tigers clocking in at No. 27, just missing out at a spot in the top-25. Missouri's score average of 194.563 is just 0.112 points George Washington and New Hampshire, both of which are tied for 24th with an average of 194.675.

The rankings are based on total season average for the first seven weeks of the season. Starting Feb. 23, the rankings will be based on Regional Qualifying Score (RQS).

On an individual event level, the Tigers rank 22nd on both vault and bars, with averages of 48.913 and 48.763, respectively.

INDIVIDUALS IN THE NATIONAL RANKINGS

Two meets into the 2015 season, freshman Shauna Miller finds herself nationally ranked on one event and in the all-around.

Miller ranks tied for 10th in the vault with an average score of 9.900, while also ranking tied for 10th in the all-around with a 39.263.

KAPPLER STARTS SENIOR SEASON STRONG

Senior Laura Kappler opened her final season in black and gold with strong performances in both the season opener and the SEC opener at Georgia.

Kappler has tallied at least a 9.800 on both vault and beam in the opening two weeks, with scores of 9.825 and 9.800 on vault and 9.800 on beam in both meets. Just two meets into the season, Kappler has been within 0.25 points of her career highs on all three of her events so far this year.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE NAMES MILLER FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK

Freshman Shauna Miller started her career on a high note as the Southeastern Conference named her the SEC Freshman of the Week on Jan. 13. Miller made history, as she became the first Tiger gymnast to earn SEC weekly gymnastics honors since the Missouri joined the league in 2012-13.

She captured the all-around, vault, bars and beam crowns in Missouri's season opening tri-meet against Kent State and Towson. The freshman's vault score tied Mizzou's freshman vault record, while her 39.325 in the all-around stands seventh on the Tigers' freshman list.

The last Tiger gymnast to win a conference weekly award was Rachel Updike in 2012 in the Big 12.

TIGERS RECORD HIGHEST OPENING MEET SCORE SINCE 2010

Mizzou's solid team score of 193.900 in the opening tri-meet against Kent State and Towson marked the team's highest opening meet score since the 2010 season, when the Tigers started with a 194.725.

In fact, the 193.900 stands as the fifth-highest opening meet score in program history. Below is a list of the top five scores to open a season.

TIGERS ON TV

The Mizzou gymnastics team will have five televised meets in 2015, including a live home meet against Auburn on Feb. 20. Four of the meets will be televised on the SEC Network, while another will be aired on ESPN2.

The Tigers make their 2015 TV debut on tape delay against LSU. The SEC Network will air the meet on Monday, Jan. 26 at 6 p.m. CT.

On Sunday, Feb. 15, ESPN2 will televise Mizzou's Friday, Feb. 13 meet against the defending national champion Florida Gators at 6 p.m. CT.

Missouri will make its live television debut on Friday, Feb. 20 against Auburn on the SEC Network. The two Tiger programs will square off at 8 p.m. CT at the Hearnes Center in Columbia, Mo.

The Tigers then will appear on the SEC Network on consecutive Mondays in March. On Monday, March 2 at 6 p.m. CT, the Network will air Mizzou's Feb. 27 meet at Arkansas. Missouri's final regular season TV appearance comes on Monday, March 9, when the SEC Network will air the Tigers' March 6 meet against Alabama at Mizzou Arena at 10 p.m. CT.

Additionally, the 2015 SEC Championship, schedule for Saturday, March 21, will be tape delayed on ESPN2 on Saturday, March 28 at Noon CT.

TIGER GREAT ALISHA ROBINSON NAMED TO MIZZOU INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

Former Missouri All-American Alisha Robinson was named to the Mizzou Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame 2014 induction class, announced by Mizzou Athletics on Dec. 18. Robinson, who competed for the Tigers from 2002-05, will officially be inducted into the Hall of Fame on Feb. 13.

Robinson becomes the fourth gymnastics representative in the Hall of Fame, joining former head coach Jake Jacobson (1979-99) and gymnasts Julie Dorn (1988-91) and Mary Houghton (1985-89).

One of the most decorated athletes in Mizzou Gymnastics history, Robinson etched her name all over the program's record books during her Tiger tenure. She was a two-time All-American (2002 and 2005) and was a two-time NCAA Regional Champion, winning the Regional all-around title in 2002 as a freshman, and claiming the Regional vault crown in 2003. She currently owns or shares the top mark in Mizzou history in three events - vault (9.975, twice), bars (9.950, twice) and floor (9.975), and currently stands third on the all-around school chart (39.650, twice), and ninth on the beam (9.925).

Over her four-year career, Robinson won 69 event titles in all at Mizzou, including the Big 12 vault title in 2004. Other honors won included being named Big 12 Freshman of the Year in 2002 and All-Big 12 first team in 2003 and 2004.

TIGERS SIGN FIVE FOR 2016

Mizzou signed five student-athletes to National Letters of Intent, Head Coach Shannon Welker announced on Thursday, Nov. 13. Allison Bower (Mesa, Ariz.), Madeleine Huber (St. Louis, Mo.), Brooke Kelly (Leeds, Ala.), Morgan Porter (Overland, Mo.) and Michaellee Turner (Parkville, Mo.) will all join the Tigers for the 2016 campaign.

"We are so impressed with all of these young ladies," Welker said. "I think what makes this class so special is that every one of them has the ability to be competitive on every event. We are so impressed with both their passion and character. These are the type of young women that perpetuate the Championship Culture we're building here."
