FIRST PITCH - WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

The Mizzou baseball team will close its regular season schedule with a trip to Lawrence, Kan., for a three-game series with its archrival Kansas this week, beginning Thursday (May 17) at 6 p.m. The series will resume Friday at 6 p.m. before the series finale is contested at 1 p.m. on Saturday. Of course, this weekend's series marks the final time that Mizzou and Kansas will play each other as members of the Big 12 in any varsity sport. The baseball series between the two schools dates back to 1901 as the two teams have met 345 times in those 110 years.

Series History • As the two teams prepare to meet for what could be the final time this weekend, Mizzou leads the all-time series, 213-130-2, despite dropping seven of the last eight meetings to Kansas. In fact, since Mizzou has not won a weekend series over Kansas since 2009 and the Tigers have not won in Lawrence since 2008. Since 2008, Kansas leads the series 11-5.

Mizzou Notables vs. Kansas

- The Tigers have lost seven of the last eight meetings with KU.
- In the last 11 games vs. KU, Mizzou has scored three or less runs in six of those games.
- The only time that the current senior class won a weekend series from Kansas was in 2009.
- Mizzou's 345 meetings with Kansas are the most among any Tiger opponent in school history.
- Mizzou's 213 wins over Kansas are the most over any opponent in school history.
- Eric Garcia is a .333 career hitter in eight games vs. KU with five RBI, a homer and five runs scored.
- Ben Turner is a .400 career hitter in four games against KU with a run and an RBI.
- Andreas Plackis is hitting .500 in three career games vs. KU with a double, two runs and two RBI.

Last Time Out • Mizzou lost a three-game series to Memphis last weekend in what was a highly competitive series. Mizzou dropped the Friday night game, 6-4, despite 4.2 innings of shutout baseball from the Tiger bullpen, allowing just five hits in that span. On Saturday, Mizzou recognized its seniors before drubbing Memphis, 9-1. Mizzou then dropped the finale of the three games series on Sunday, 8-7, despite taking a 6-4 lead due in large part to a three-run homer from Dane Opel. The series was Mizzou's final non-conference series of the season.

JAMIESON COULD REACH 600 WINS THIS WEEKEND

With a win Saturday against Memphis, Mizzou head coach Tim Jamieson is now within striking distance of his 600th career win as he sits just two back of that mark with 598 in his career. Now in his 18th season, he is second on Mizzou's all-time win list trailing only Gene McArtor. He is the Big 12's longest-tenured baseball coach (along with Baylor's Steve Smith) and he has been part of Mizzou baseball since 1988 when he was an assistant coach for six seasons under McArtor.

In all, Jamieson has been part of 836 wins at Mizzou including his six seasons as an assistant for McArtor. That number means that Coach Jamieson has been a part of nearly 40-percent of the programs 2,154 wins. To put that into perspective, baseball has been a varsity sport at Mizzou for 121 years. Should he win his 600th career game this season, he would be one of just three coaches (UT's Augie Garrido and Baylor's Smith) in the Big 12 to amass 600 wins at their current Big 12 school and just five to do so in their careers. Mizzou has had just four losing seasons in the 24 seasons in which Jamieson has been involved with the program.

LAST YEAR'S SERIES AGAINST KANSAS

Kansas took three of four games from Mizzou last season, including two of three games in Columbia at Taylor Stadium. The other win for Kansas came at Kauffman Stadium, the home of the Kansas City Royals, where the Tigers were one-hit by the Jayhawks in a 7-1 decision. That was the first game of the season series last year and Blake Brown led off the game with a single before the rest of the order went hitless through nine innings. Nine days later, the series moved to Columbia where Mizzou lost the Friday night game, 8-3, as Rob Zastryzny who was just a freshman then, gave up five earned runs over 5.1 innings. That loss extended Mizzou's losing streak to nine games.

The Tigers then snapped their losing streak the next day as Blake Brown hit a walk-off single in the bottom of the ninth off of Colton Murray to secure the win, 3-2. Mizzou was then shutout, 6-0, as Kansas starter Alex Cox went 5.2 innings and allowed just six hits.

OPEL LEADS THE BIG 12 IN HOME RUNS

Mizzou junior outfielder Dane Opel is leading the Big 12 in home runs this season after launching two last week. He is one ahead of OSU's Wade Hinkle in that category as he is one of only two players in the Big 12 to amass double-digit home run numbers. Not only that, but he is fifth in the Big 12 in slugging (.554). Should Opel finish the regular season atop the Big 12 standings in home runs, he would become the first Tiger since Ryan Fry (27 in 1998) to lead the Big 12 in home runs.

OPEL WITH A BIG WEEK

As mentioned above, Tiger junior Dane Opel hit a pair of home runs in what was huge week for him in games against Missouri State and Memphis. He hit .333 with five runs, seven RBI and a pair of homeruns while slugging .917 with an OBP of .529 (1.446 OPS) with five walks in four games last week. Opel opened his week against Missouri State by going 3-for-4 with four RBI and three runs scored, including a two-run homer in the fourth and an RBI double in the sixth inning as he sparked a comeback from down 4-0 with his homer as Mizzou won the game, 10-5. He then drew three walks in the first two games against Memphis, scoring a run, before going 1-for-3 with a three-run homer in the series finale with Memphis to complete his week.

HOME SWEET HOME

Now that Mizzou has wrapped up its home schedule this season, it is worth noting that the Tigers were very good at home this season. In fact, the Tigers boast a 21-11 overall record at home, which is their best overall home record since 2009 when the team finished 20-8 at Taylor Stadium. The 21 wins are the most home games that Mizzou has won since 2008 (23).

Mizzou Notables at Home This Season

- The Tigers are hitting .291 as a team at home this season, up from their .269 season average
- 21 of the Tigers' 28 home runs this season have come at home
- 52 of the Tigers' 78 doubles this season have come at home
- Blake Brown is a .339 hitter at home (.339/.407/.576) against just a .212 average on the road
- Conner Mach is hitting .331 at home against just .227 on the road
- At home, Mizzou's top 9 hitters are batting at least .276 - Only two Tigers have done that on the road
- Every Tiger regular has at least 12 RBI at home while no player has more than eight RBI on the road
- Mizzou has a 4.08 ERA at home against a 4.52 ERA on the road

YUENGEL HAS BEEN SHARP

Mizzou reliever Ryan Yuengel is quietly putting together a very successful season in 2012 as he has arguably been the Tigers' top relief arm as of late. In his last eight appearances he is second on the team with a 1.98 ERA over 13.2 innings pitched with an 14/5 strikeout/walk ratio, allowing just nine hits. In fact, if you discount three early season appearances (vs. Nebraska-Omaha, Central Arkansas and UALR) he has a 1.86 ERA with just four earned runs in 19.1 innings pitched and a 21/7 strikeout/walk ratio.

MILES SHINES IN FIRST WEEKEND START

Freshman righty John Miles made his second start of the season and his first weekend start on Saturday against Memphis. He dazzled in the start, going 7.0 innings while allowing just six hits and a walks with one earned run (a solo homer to lead off the second inning). He threw 86 pitches over the 7.0 innings as both were career-bests. In two career starts, Miles has a 0.82 ERA with six strikeouts and two walks over 11.0 innings.

MILES NAMED BIG 12 NEWCOMER OF THE WEEK

Mizzou freshman righty John Miles (Columbia, Mo.) was named Big 12 Newcomer of the Week as announced by the league office on May 7. Miles is the second Tiger this season to earn Big 12 Newcomer of the Week and the fourth Tiger this season to earn a Big 12 weekly award. The last Tiger to take home Big 12 Newcomer of the Week was lefty Blake Holovach on March 26.

Miles put together one of his best weeks as a Tiger and had a career-best outing in his first-ever start at No. 18 Arkansas on Wednesday. For the week, the Columbia native and Rock Bridge High School graduate posted a 1.17 ERA over 7.2 innings against a pair of ranked opponents (Arkansas and Texas) while striking out six batters. Last Wednesday, he made his first career start at No. 18 Arkansas and went a career-best 4.0 innings while not allowing a run and striking out five Razorbacks against just one walk. He then came back over the weekend to pitch against No. 25 Texas and went 3.2 innings, allowing just one earned run and just three hits.

PLACKIS WITH 13-GAME HITTING STREAK

Heading into the series opener on Thursday, Tiger first baseman Andreas Plackis is carrying a 13-game hitting streak as he has hit safely in all but one game since being inserted into the starting lineup 16 games ago in the series opener against Kansas State. Currently, his streak is the fourth-best streak in the Big 12 and the best active streak. During those 16 games since being inserted into the starting lineup, Plackis is hitting a team-best .355 with five extra-base hits (.452 slugging) with 10 RBI and nine runs scored. He has also played very well at first base, not committing an error while registering 168 put-outs with four assists.

BULLPEN IMPRESSES

The Tiger bullpen has been very impressive over the last 15 games as it has given up just 15 earned runs in that span (64.2 innings), good for an ERA of just 2.10. The highlight of that span may have come at Missouri State on April 25 when the Tiger pen pitched the final 8.0 innings of an 11-inning game while allowing just one earned run against the Bears. The Tigers also got a very impressive bullpen outing from senior Jeff Emens who went 6.1 innings without allowing a run at Texas Tech in a losing effort in the Saturday game of that series. He gave up just five hits in the outing. The 15-game streak began on April 21 against Kansas State when the pen threw 4.0 innings of shutout baseball. Over the weekend against Memphis, the Tiger bullpen allowed just four earned runs in 12.2 innings of work.

EMENS CONTINUES TO IMPRESS

A key reason for the bullpen success lately has been senior do-it-all pitcher Jeff Emens, who continues to have a career-year in his final year in Black & Gold. In fact, over his last 10 outings, the senior has gone 27.2 innings and allowed just six earned runs (good for a 1.95 ERA). He has 22 strikeouts in that span as well, against just three walks in that span. In all, he is 10th in the Big 12 in ERA at 2.53 this season.

CHAMPAGNE MATCHES SCHOOL RECORD

Despite seeing his streak of reaching base safely at Texas Tech, Tiger center fielder Brannon Champagne matched the school record at Texas Tech last Friday. He went 1-for-5 in the Friday night win which marked his 32nd straight game reaching base safely, tying him with Aaron Senne for the school record. Senne completed the feat just two seasons ago in 2010. His streak is the second-best by any player in the Big 12 this season (Texas' Mark Payton reach in 34 straight games earlier this season).

SOMMER TIME

Tiger junior outfielder Scott Sommerfeld had struggled before the Kansas State series and was actually replaced in the starting lineup for three straight games. After starting on the bench in the Tigers' game at Missouri State on April 25, he entered the game as a pinch hitter and delivered a huge hit that eventually led to the game winning sacrifice fly from Andreas Plackis. In fact, since that game (13 games), Sommerfeld is hitting .325 with a .550 slugging percentage. He has seven RBI and three doubles and two home runs in that span as well. He tallied a four-hit night (the first of his career) in the Tigers' 9-0 win over Texas Tech.

BROWN HAS BIG 12-BEST STREAK SNAPPED

Mizzou right fielder Blake Brown had a very impressive streak snapped during the Oklahoma series as his 21-game hit streak came to an end. The 21-game hit streak is the longest by any player in the Big 12 this season and just five shy of the school record (26 by Grant Ingram in 1994 and Shane Fairbanks in 1981). His streak still sits atop the Big 12 this season as no player with a current streak is even within eight games of his total. Below is a look at the top hitting streaks in the Big 12 this season.

- Blake Brown - Mizzou - 21
- Alex Silver - Texas - 16
- Zach Fish - OSU - 14
- Barrett Barnes - Texas Tech - 13
- Andreas Plackis - Mizzou - 13

FOUR SCORE

Looking at the stats this season, it is clear that the Tigers have enjoyed the most success in the fourth inning. In fact, Mizzou has scored 52 runs in fourth inning this season. Looking deeper into the runs scored by inning summary, the Tigers appear to like the fourth-fifth innings, outscoring their opponents, 90-44, in those two frames this season.

BROWN EIGHTH IN CAREER STEALS AT MIZZOU

Tiger outfielder Blake Brown stole his 37th career base against K-State earlier, which ranks him seventh all-time in program history. He is now just three back of Ryan Lollis for sixth all-time. Just as a note, Eric Garcia (28 steals) and Brannon Champagne (28 steals) are also threatening to break the career top-10 at Mizzou (two players are tied for 10th with 29 career steals).

ROB Z BIG 12 PITCHER OF THE WEEK

Mizzou Friday night starter Rob Zastryzny did something that few Tigers have done – throw a complete game shutout in league play – at Texas Tech on April. He threw 9.0 innings, allowing just seven hits and two walks while striking out five batters. He becomes the first Tiger since Kyle Gibson (now the top pitching prospect for the Minnesota Twins) against Kansas State in 2009 to throw a complete game shutout in league play. It was the first time in his career that he pitching in the ninth inning. He earned Big 12 Pitcher of the Week for his efforts in that start. He is slated to start against the Longhorns on Friday.

Zastryzny is the first Tiger pitcher to earn Big 12 Pitcher of the Week since Nick Tepesch in 2010 and he is the third Tiger to take home a Big 12 weekly honor this season. Dane Opel was named Big 12 Player of the Week following the opening weekend at Auburn and Blake Holovach was the league's Newcomer of the Week following his dominant start against Oklahoma State earlier this season.

EMENS CLOSING IN ON ALL-TIME BIG 12 TOP 10

With 97 career appearances on the mound, Tiger senior Jeff Emens is closing in on the all-time Big 12 top 10 in career appearances. He is the league's active leader in that category, four ahead of Texas A&M's Estevan Uriegas (93). In all, Emens needs eight more appearances on the mound to earn a spot in the all-time top-10 (Huston Street, 105). He has appeared in 26 of the Tigers' 51 games this season and is on pace to crack the top 10 should the Tigers reach the postseason. His single season career-best in appearances was 25 in 2009, before this season. Not only that, but Emens' 97 career appearances are the fourth-best total in school history, ahead of Bunky Moeller (1988-1991). He needs a few more appearances to catch former teammate Phil McCormick (106).

TURNER CATCHES NEARLY EVERY INNING

Senior catcher Ben Turner has caught nearly every inning (409.2 of 448.1, 90-percent) for the Tigers so far this season and will likely continue that pace all season. Turner is tops on a depth chart at the catcher position that includes three newcomers and a redshirt freshman. Something to track will be the amount of innings that Turner will catch this season. Since 2004, no Tiger catcher has started more than 54 games (JC Field in 2006) and Turner has started all 18 this season. Turner's 44 starts at catcher last season are the most since Trevor Coleman started 53 games in 2008. Turner has 36 starts at catcher this season.

TOPPLING TEXAS

Mizzou defeated Texas earlier in May, marking the first time since 2008 that Mizzou has won a regular season series against the Texas Longhorns. In fact, with the Tigers impending move to the SEC next season, the win secured a positive all-time record against the Longhorns at 17 wins against just 16 losses. Also, the series loss for Texas marked just its third in Big 12 play in the last 27 Big 12 weekend series. Mizzou has now defeated Texas in football, men's basketball (three times), softball and baseball this season. As of right now, Mizzou is the only Big 12 school to beat Texas in all of those sports this season (Baylor has yet to play Texas in baseball and has one remaining game in softball but has defeated Texas in football and men's basketball).

SIX TIGERS SET TO GRADUATE THIS SEMESTER

Mizzou baseball saw six of its student-athletes graduate last weekend from the University of Missouri. Below is a list of the graduating Tigers.

Graduating Tigers

- Dusty Ross - College of Agriculture, Food and Natural Resources
- Kyle Barbeck - College of Arts & Science
- Andreas Plackis - College of Arts & Science
- Jeff Emens - College of Arts & Science
- Ryan Clubb - College of Business
- Ben Turner - College of Engineering

GAVIN STARK LANDS ON TOP PLAYS

Mizzou first baseman Gavin Stark did something that no other Tiger baseball player had done - earn a spot on ESPN's SportsCenter Top 10 Plays. In the seventh inning of the Tigers' 4-1 victory over Oklahoma State last Saturday, Stark tracked a foul ball into the OSU dugout and flipped head over heels into the dugout while making the catch. That earned him the No. 5 spot on SportsCenter's Top 10 plays that night.

THREE TIGERS HAVE 5-RBI GAMES

The Tigers had just one five-RBI game last season (Blake Brown vs. Texas A&M on April 30) but already have three such games this season. Brannon Champagne was the first to so against North Dakota on March 13 and then both Conner Mach and Brown did so the following day against North Dakota.

PREPARING FOR THE FUTURE

Mizzou opened its 2012 campaign by taking two of three games from SEC foe Auburn in the opening weekend. The series win for the Tigers holds significance because Mizzou will make the move from the Big 12 to the SEC next season. With the two wins, the Tigers are now 38-36-1 against teams currently in the SEC. Mizzou lost a series at No. 18 Arkansas last week, but will still carry a positive record against SEC schools into its first season next year.

JAMIESON LEADS TEAM USA

Mizzou head baseball coach Tim Jamieson wrapped up his stint as the USA Baseball Collegiate National Team head coach last summer. In all, Jamieson led the club to an 11-2-1 overall record. Jamieson's .821 winning percentage this summer is the eighth-best in Collegiate National Team history, which dates back to 1984 (28 seasons). The team's two losses are its fewest since 2008, when the team went 24-0. Mizzou assistant coach Dan Pietroburgo was an auxiliary coach with the team as well this summer.

ANDERSON PITCHES FOR TEAM USA

Team USA had another Mizzou connection this summer as well. Tiger junior Eric Anderson was one of the team's top pitchers over the summer. He led the team in ERA (0.00) and wins (two), while ranking second in innings pitched (12.0). He allowed just eight hits and two walks in his 12.0 innings of work and did not allow a run while striking out seven batters. Prior to his stint with USA Baseball, Anderson threw two games with Falmouth in the Cape Cod League, posting a 1.50 ERA.

TIGERS RAISE MONEY FOR JOPLIN

Mizzou baseball raised $12,796 for the Joplin, Mo., Little Leagues with its Joplin Relief Games against Iowa in the fall. The baseball program partnered with Daniel Boone Little League, the Diamond Council, BC Baseball and The Callaway Bank to create a welcoming atmosphere for fans at Taylor Stadium. The money will go directly to helping Joplin Little League rebuild its fields that were ravaged by a tornado on May 22, 2011.

PLACKIS NAMED MIZZOU '39

Mizzou baseball redshirt junior Andreas Plackis has been honored by the Mizzou Alumni Association as a recipient of the 2012 Mizzou '39 Award, an award given to 39 seniors at the University of Missouri based on their outstanding service, academic achievement and leadership. Plackis has been a model student during his time at Mizzou and he will graduate in May with a degree in Biological Sciences as he will pursue a medical degree following his undergraduate studies.

SIMMONS FIELD AT TAYLOR STADIUM NAMED FIELD OF THE YEAR

Simmons Field at Taylor Stadium, the home of the Mizzou baseball team, was named 2011 College and University Baseball Field of the Year by the Sports Turf Managers Association (STMA). The field is maintained and cared for by Mizzou Turf Specialist Josh McPherson and his staff. The STMA Field of the Year Award program began in 1992. There are five field types for which awards may be given: Baseball, Football, Soccer, Softball and Sporting Grounds. For each field type, awards may be given in three categories: Professional, College and University, and Schools and Parks. This year there were a total of eleven awards presented.

TIGERS HAVE STRONG PRESENCE IN THE PROS

Mizzou baseball has seen plenty of success over the last decade and proof of that is the number of players that the Tigers have sent to the major league. Since 2000, the Tigers have seen 50 players sign professional contracts and 59 Tigers have done so under the direction of Tim Jamieson. Some notable Tigers in the professional ranks include All-Star second baseman Ian Kinsler of the Texas Rangers and Max Scherzer of the Detroit Tigers and Aaron Crow of the Royals.

In addition, six Tigers were selected in last year's MLB Draft. Newcomers Brandon Platts and Brett Graves were both drafted out of high school. Platts was a 13th-round pick by the Pittsburgh Pirates while Graves went in the 26th round to the St. Louis Cardinals. Matt Stites was picked in the 17th round by the San Diego Padres while three more Tigers - Phil McCormick, Conner Mach and Zack Hardoin - were picked on the second day of the draft.

ON THE AIR

Once again this year, KTGR ESPN Radio is the radio home of the Tigers, with all of the game being broadcast on 100.5-FM and 1580-AM. The games can also be heard online at KTGR.com. Tex Little is in his 22nd season of calling Tiger Baseball and is joined in the booth by Hunter Mense, who is in his second year as part of the MU broadcast team.

MIZZOU NETWORK

Video webcast for all Missouri Baseball home games in 2012 is available at mutigers.tv as part of the Mizzou Network. Mizzou Network is the Tiger fans home for live and archived games, along with coaches' shows, press conferences and more. For more information, visit mutigers.tv and click on the Mizzou Network icon.

UP NEXT

Mizzou will head to Oklahoma City for the Big 12 Tournament. The tournament will begin Wednesday (May 23) at 9 a.m. at Bricktown Ballpark. For all the latest on Mizzou baseball, stay tuned to MUTigers.com and follow the team on twitter @MUTigerBaseball.

OFF THE BENCH: QUICK HITTERS

NOTABLE BATTERS

#39 Blake Brown • Junior • OF • Normal, Ill.

Had his Big 12-best 21-game hitting streak snapped in the Sunday game at Oklahoma, leaving him just five games shy of matching the school record ... Hitting .293 and second on the team with nine home runs and leads the team 42 runs and is second with 36 RBI ... Also second on the team in slugging (.500) ... Hit .400 with four home runs and 10 RBI while scoring another eight runs in a week against North Dakota and High Point ... Launched his first home run of the season - a solo shot - in the season-opener at Auburn ... Had another home run - a three-run shot - in the middle game of the Ball State series, good for his second of the season ... Hit .429 with a 1.000 slugging percentage and two walks while driving in five runs and scoring four more against Ball State ... Hit his team-leading seventh home run of the season at Texas A&M of off Ross Stripling in the fourth inning ... Had 20 steals last season, the fourth-best mark in program history ... Ranks seventh in school history in stolen bases (37) as well as he leads the team with 14 this season ... Hit .500 with four runs and four RBI in the K-State series ... Had his eighth homer in the Friday night game at Texas Tech, a two run shot off of starter John Neely ... Hit .455 with a homer, a double, three runs and three RBI against Memphis last weekend.

#6 Brannon Champagne • Junior • OF • St. Charles, Mo.

Is the Tigers' top returning hitter at .294 ... Started 57 of 58 games last season ... Hit .455 at Auburn ... Third on the team with 12 steals ... Hitting .277 with 23 RBI and 25 runs scored this season ... Tallied five RBI against North Dakota, a career-high ... Had reached base in 32 straight games, a school record, before seeing that streak snapped on Saturday against Texas Tech ... Went 3-for-5 at Missouri State ... Hit .364 with two doubles and a run and RBI against Memphis.

#10 Eric Garcia • Junior • Infielder • Pflugerville, Texas

Played at shortstop all season ... Hitting .247 with 29 RBI and has 33 runs scored ... Also 13-16 in the stolen base department ... Hit his first home run of the season against Central Arkansas ... Had a huge game against UALR, going 2-4 with two runs and a season-best three RBI in the game ... He hit .381 with seven RBI and six runs scored in games at Busch and Oklahoma ... Tallied his second home run of the season in the Friday night game at Kansas State ... Had a game-winning double in the bottom of the eighth inning with two outs off of Corey Knebel against Texas in the Saturday game of that series.

#28 Conner Mach • Senior • Infielder • Chesterfield, Mo.

Hitting .289 with 25 RBI and 35 runs scored this season ... Tallied a .474 average with his first home run of the season and five RBI and seven runs scored in wins over North Dakota and High Point ... Hit .385 with two RBI and a run scored in the Ball State series ... Tallied a five-RBI night against North Dakota ... Has started every game at third base this season ... Had a four-hit night for the Tigers against Missouri State on May 9, good for the second four-hit game by a Tiger this season.

#18 Ben Turner • Senior • Catcher • St. Charles, Mo.

Hit .273 while catching all three games - including an entire doubleheader - at Auburn ... Had a pair of RBI and three hits while leading the team with 13 putouts in the series at Auburn ... Is hitting .275 on the season and has 23 RBI and 31 runs ... Hit .286 with five walks in the Ball State series, good for a .583 OBP ... Drove in two runs and scored five more in the Ball State series ... Hit .600 with his first career home run and his first career game-winning hit in the High Point series ... He also owns a team-best 23 walks this season ... He had an OBP of .778 against Indiana State and High Point and raised his average from .225 to .300 in that week alone.

#47 Dane Opel • Junior • Outfielder • Edwardsville, Ill.

Named Big 12 Player of the Week after hitting .500 with two home runs, four RBI, two runs scored and an intentional walk while slugging 1.000 with a .538 OBP at Auburn ... He became the first Tiger to hit two home runs in the same game since 2010 as he tallied two dingers - a two-run shot and a solo shot that turned out to be the game-winning run - in the middle game of the three-game series at Auburn ... He drove in four runs in that game as well and nearly missed his third home run as he hit one to the warning track ... Also tallied 11 putouts on the weekend, including some very good running catches ... Battled a quad injury at San Francisco, limiting his playing time ... Came back and hit .222 with an RBI in the Ball State series ... Went 2-4 with a run and three RBI in the Tigers' win over UNO ... Hitting .292 and has a team- and Big 12-best 11 homers and nine doubles ... Hit a three-run homer in the Tigers' Sunday game against Texas, a game that they won 7-6 in 11 innings ... Homered again on May 9 - a two-run shot - against Missouri State ... Hit his second homer of the week against Memphis.

#49 Scott Sommefeld • Junior • Outfielder • Manchester, Mo.

Hitting .300 on the season and has 22 RBI and 23 runs scored this season ... Walked three times and hit .333 in the Ball State series with a double and an RBI ... Hit .400 with three RBI and a run scored last week ... Hit .444 with three RBI and two runs scored against UCA ... Went 1-4 with two RBI against UALR ... Hit .500 last week with two doubles, two RBI and a run ... Tallied his first career four-hit game against Texas Tech on Friday ... Hit his first homer of the season against Texas ... Had a two-run double on May 9 against Missouri State to break the game open ... Homered against Memphis and drove in a pair of runs in the series.

#55 Andreas Plackis • RS Junior • First Base • St. Charles, Mo.

Hitting .317 this season with 11 RBI and 10 runs scored while posting six doubles in just 82 at-bats ... Has hit safely in all but one game since being inserted into the starting lineup 16 games ago in the series opener against Kansas State ... His streak is the fifth-best streak in the Big 12 and the best active streak ... During those 16 games since being inserted into the starting lineup, Plackis is hitting a team-best .355 with five extra-base hits (.452 slugging) with 10 RBI and nine runs scored. He has also played very well at first base, not committing an error while registering 168 put-outs with four assists.

NOTABLE PITCHERS

#8 Rob Zastryzny • Sophomore • LHP • Corpus Christi, Texas

Threw 5.0 innings of no-hit baseball in his start against Ball State ... Threw 6.0 innings against Charlotte, striking out three and giving up just one earned run en-route to his second win ... Leads the Tigers with 66 Ks in 82.1 innings of work this season and has allowed just 86 hits in those 82.1 innings ... Now has a 4.26 ERA and a 4-4 record ... Threw 8.0 innings with 12 Ks on 128 pitches in the Big 12 opener against Oklahoma State, all of which were career highs at the time ... Threw 8.0 innings and allowed just three earned runs while striking out three against Baylor ... Allowed just one earned run over 8.0 IP with just five hits, two walks and six strikeouts against Kansas State on Friday ... Threw his first career complete game shutout at Texas Tech last Friday, allowing just seven hits and striking out five ... Named Big 12 Pitcher of the Week for his performance as he was the first Tiger to throw a complete game shutout in Big 12 play since 2009 (Kyle Gibson vs. Kansas State) ... Named Big 12 Pitcher of the Week for the first time in his career for that start.

#35 Jake Walsh • Redshirt Sophomore • LHP • Plano, Texas

Has eight saves, which is more than halfway to the school record (12 by Ryan Stegall in 2000) ... Earned a pair of saves and boasted a perfect ERA in three appearances at Auburn, spanning 2.2 innings ... He allowed just two hits in that span and struck out two batters with just one walk ... Picked up another save in the Ball State series and two more against Charlotte and another against UND ... Earned his first career win against High Point ... Picked up two more saves in the OSU series despite blowing a save in the series opener ... Earned the win against UALR ... Pitched in two games against Kansas State and did not allow an earned run ... Owns a 3.48 ERA this season, the third-best mark on the team ... Leads the team with 30 appearances this season and has a shot to threaten Phil McCormick's school record of 36 set last season.

#20 Jeff Emens • Senior • RHP • Plano, Texas

Has 26 appearances and has two wins so far this season and is first on the team with a 2.53 ERA ... Big 12 active leader in appearances with 97 in his career ... Has pitched 67.1 innings of baseball this season, allowing just 19 earned runs ... Did not allow a hit in three relief appearances at USF ... Earned a win against Charlotte, going 4.1 innings in relief of Eric Anderson, allowing just one earned run ... Started on Sunday against Oklahoma State and threw 5.1 innings of one-run baseball while the only run charged to him was unearned ... Earned a save against Texas A&M, his first of the season and sixth career and added his seventh career save against Illinois at Busch Stadium ... Threw 2.1 innings of shutout baseball against K-State last Saturday and started on Wednesday at Missouri State, going 3.0 IP with just one hit (a home run) ... He had a great relief outing Saturday at Texas Tech, throwing 6.1 innings while allowing just five hits, no walk, no runs and striking out five ... 10th in the Big 12 in ERA (2.53).

#25 Blake Holovach • Junior • LHP • Overland Park, Kan.

Pitched a then career-best 5.0 innings and fanned eight Cardinal batters in his first career start against Ball State on Sunday ... He had struggled out of the bullpen this season but showed great poise as a starter on the hill ... Started again against Charlotte and went a career-best 6.2 innings while allowing just five hits and two earned runs ... Became the first Tiger since Kyle Gibson in 2009 to throw a complete game shutout as he blanked High Point while fanning four batters and walking just one ... He allowed just four hits in that outing as just one hit left the infield ... Named Big 12 Newcomer of the Week last week after nearly throwing his second straight complete game, going 8.2 IP with just one unearned run and four strikeouts and just five hits ... Came back and fired five hitless innings and extended his streak to 24.0 IP without an earned run until Texas A&M scored three off of him last Saturday in the sixth inning ... He is 5-4 on the season and was tagged with his first loss against Baylor ... Threw 5.0 innings against K-State, allowing three runs.
