CURRENT TIGER STORYLINES

ARMS RACE

» Despite losing two pitchers, the Tigers return dominant ace, Tori Finucane. The sophomore was named the 2014 SEC Freshman of the Year and grabbed two SEC Pitcher of the Week honors last season. Finucane recorded 21 wins in 32 appearances, tossing 19 complete games and six shutouts. She enters her second campaign with a 1.73 career ERA while limiting opposing batters to a combined .223 batting average. Finucane's nod as SEC Freshman of the Year bares a fair amount of distinction, as she became just the second player in program history to receive such an honor. She joins former three-time All-American Rhea Taylor, who earned Freshman of the Year in 2008 when Mizzou was a member of the Big 12 Conference.

» Finucane is joined by newcomers freshman Paige Lowary and sophomore transfer from Nebraska-Omaha, Cheyenne Baxter. Lowary was named the Gatorade Iowa Softball Player of the Year twice in high school. She led her high school to an Iowa 4A State title in her final season, allowing only four runs in 191 innings in the circle. Lowary finished her senior season with a 21-1 with a 0.18 ERA. She and Finucane will be an electric 1-2 punch for Mizzou in 2015. Baxter joins the Tigers after securing a 4-1 record as a freshman at the University of Nebraska-Omaha. She adds depth to Mizzou's pitching staff following the departure of senior Alora Marble.

BATTLE TESTED

» Mizzou has one of the toughest schedules in the country in 2015. The Tigers are slated to face 10 schools that are currently ranked in the ESPN.com/USA Softball preseason Top 25 poll (No. 25 Texas, No. 21 Notre Dame, No. 19 Auburn, No. 18 LSU, No. 15 Minnesota, No. 14 Tennessee, No. 12 Arizona, No. 10 Georgia, No. 6 UCLA and No. 1 Florida). Mizzou will face five of those teams in SEC play, with three of the series being featured (Florida, LSU and Auburn) at University Field. Last season, Mizzou finished 19-13 against teams that clinched NCAA Tournament berths.

DOT RICHARDSON OPPONENTS

» The Tigers begin play in the Dot Richardson Invititational against Louisville. The Cardinals finished 36-22 last season and clinched their 11th straight NCAA Tournament appearance by winning the American Athletic Conference tournament.

» Chattanooga also made the NCAA Tournament in 2014, bowing out following back-to-back losses to open its NCAA regional. The Mocs were selected as 2015 preseason favorites to win the Southern Conference championship.

» Mizzou faces South Dakota State to begin day two action. The Jackrabbits posted an 11-36 record in 2014. The Tigers are 2-0 all-time against SDSU.

» The Tigers also take on Cleveland State on day two. Mizzou won the only meeting between the two schools. CSU finished 24-20 last season.

» Mizzou's final opponent, UCF, won the American Athletic Conference regular season title last year. The Golden Knights were selected to repeat as league champions in 2015. UCF finished runner-up in the NCAA Tournament's Gainesville Regional and ended its 2014 season with a 43-18 record.

SEASONED SQUAD

» Mizzou returns 12 student-athletes from last season's squad that won 43 games. Five returnees (Emily Crane, Sami Fagan, Corrin Genovese, Angela Randazzo, and Kelsea Roth) have more than 100 starts under their belts. All of the familiar faces have big-game experience as Mizzou shoots for its ninth consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance this May

RACKING UP HONORS

» Four of Ehren Earleywine's players were honored on May 6, 2014, when the Southeastern Conference announced its All-SEC teams, which are voted on by the league's coaches. in additon to freshman P Tori Finucane's highest recognition (SEC Freshman of the Year), she also earned First Team All-SEC and Freshman All-SEC honors.

» Redshirt sophomore OF Taylor Gadbois and junior IF Corrin Genovese joined Finucane with First Team All-SEC nods. Gadbois finished second all-time in school history for hits in a season with 85 and tied for third all-time for steals in a season with an SEC-best 46 swipes. Genovese torched opponents, combining a sizzling .410 batting average with a slick glove in the field. She anchored the infield at shortstop with a team-high 104 assists.

» A pair of Tigers were named to the annual Preseason All-SEC squad. Freshman pitcher Tori Finucane was one of the only three pitchers on the team. Finucane was also placed on USA Softball's Preseason Top 50 Player of the Year Watch List.. Additonally, junior OF Taylor Gadbois joined three other SEC outfielders on the list. In 2014, Gadbois became Ehren Earleywine's 11th All-American following a dominant sophomore campaign on the base paths. The Preseason All-SEC Team was voted on by the league's coaches.

THE THIEF IS BACK

» Gadbois led the SEC in stolen bases with her 46 swipes in 2014. Her success ranked her in Mizzou's single-season Top 10 for stolen bases at third, all-time. The speedy junior patented the Gadbois' Double: get on base by any means necessary and immediately steal second. Gadbois put together a 29-game hitting streak at one point in 2014, which is the longest in Mizzou history. She subsequently led the team in runs scored with 55.

TIGERS TAMED CHAMPION GATORS

» Mizzou's statement victories last season occured at No. 3 Florida (April 25-April 27), when the Tigers took two out of three games from the Gators to win a fifth-straight SEC series. Earleywine's squad picked up the series-opening win, 5-3 (April 25), before taking the series finale (April 27) by a 5-4 score.

» Finucane anchored both victories over the Gators (April 25, 27) from the circle and was recognized nationally for her efforts. The Tiger hurler became the second player in Mizzou history (Chelsea Thomas) to receive both national player of the week honors on April 29 (Louisville Slugger/NFCA & USA Softball).

» The Gators ended up tearing through the NCAA Tournament before winning the National Championship at the Women's College World Series. Florida is ranked No. 1 in the nation heading into 2015 and the Gators were picked to win the SEC.

NO FLY ZONE

» Despite the graduation of former standout Mackenzie Sykes, who manned left field, the Tigers welcome back Emily Crane and Taylor Gadbois to handle right field and center field, respectively. The two help maintain University Field outfield's as the No Fly Zone. Since shifting to the outfield during her sophomore campaign, Crane has yet to commit an error. Gadbois' trailed only 1B Kelsea Roth and catchers Kirsten Mack and Sami Fagn with 87 putots.

SECOND TIME THROUGH

» Mizzou dominated the third and fourth innings in 2014, outscoring opponents 121-66 (+61 run differential) in those frames. The Tigers took advantage if they struck early. The squad was 29-3 when leading after the third inning and 30-2 when leading after the fourth.

BLACK & GOLD

» Juniors Sami Fagan and Emily Crane combined for seven hits during an intrasquad scrimmage last Saturday. Crane accounted for five RBI as the Black Team posted a 16-1 victory. Senior Kelsea Roth added a monster home run over the right centerfield wall. In the circle, the pitchers rotated teams and innings throughout the afternoon. Sophomore Tori Finucane tossed four frames with the Black Team behind her defensively, giving up only one run.

DID YOU KNOW?

Three-time First Team All-American Chelsea Thomas (2009-13) finished her Mizzou career with 17 weekly conference honors. That total includes five in 2013, which was her final season as a Tiger, but first in the SEC. Her five recognitions not only led the conference handily (three other SEC pitchers had two), but it tied the conference record for weekly awards in a single season (matching Tennessee's Monica Abbott, 2005).

WESTMINSTER, 1994
2007 BIG 12 COACH OF THE YEAR
2011 BIG 12 COACH OF THE YEAR
369-122 (.752) AT MIZZOU | 515-177 (.744) CAREER

Mizzou Head Coach Ehren Earleywine has built a national power for Tiger fans to be proud of by striving for excellence in all phases of the game. Shut-down pitching, consistent fielding and explosive offense have been constants during Earleywine's tenure in Columbia. In his eight seasons at the helm of the Missouri softball program, the Tigers have made three Women's College World Series appearances, recorded the first three 50-win seasons in school history, clinched eight consectuvie NCAA Tournament berths and advanced to six NCAA Super Regionals. These accomplishments have come while building an incredible .752 winning percentage to rank as one of the winningest programs in the nation since 2007.

Mizzou Softball has competed at the highest level during Earleywine's time leading the Tigers, including the capture of two of the programs' seven all-time conference championships. As part of a stellar 50-12 overall record in 2009, Mizzou won the 2009 Big 12 Conference Tournament. The Tigers followed that up with a Big 12 Regular Season Championship in 2011, posting a stout 53-10 overall record. In Mizzou's first season of Southeastern Conference action in 2013, Earleywine's squad left an immediate impression. The Tigers placed third in the league's regular season standings before finishing as runners-up at the SEC Tournament.

Big offense led to success in Earleywine's first season in 2007, in which he took a team that posted just 26 wins and had a losing record the year before and turned them into a 40-win squad that finished the year with a regional bid and a Top 20 national ranking. Named Missouri's head coach in August of 2006, Earleywine's model for winning was rewarded with a seven-year contract extension on Aug. 31, 2011, making him the first Olympic coach in Missouri history to receive an extension greater than five years. In his seven seasons at Missouri, Earleywine has managed a record of 326-102 and became the fastest Missouri softball coach to reach 300 victories. Since beginning his head coaching career in 2003 at Georgia Tech, Earleywine has turned in an outstanding .748 winning percentage. He was the fifth fastest coach to reach 100 wins in NCAA Division I softball history.

In seven seasons, the three-time conference coach of the year has become the first Missouri softball coach to lead his squad to six-straight NCAA Regional titles, doing so on the road in 2008 and again at home in Columbia, Mo., from 2009-13. In fact, Mizzou is currently one of only three schools in the country to win six-straight regional titles. The Tigers are joined by Arizona State and Florida in achieving that feat.

Since Earleywine took the reins, Missouri's batting averages have been on the rise, which includes a .313 mark in 2009 and a .304 mark in 2013, while the team ERA has been on the decline, highlighted by 2011's 1.40 mark, the Tigers' best end of the year ERA since 1998. Mizzou's entire softball staff has received deserved recognition while helping the program ascend to the upper echelon of college softball. Earleywine and crew were named NFCA Midwest Region Staff of the Year three times in a four-year span (2009, 10, 12).

In addition to the success Missouri has seen on the field, Earleywine's squad has received exemplary marks in the classroom. Mizzou posted a 994 NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) for the 2011-12 academic year, the second highest mark for an SEC softball program. In 2011, Missouri led the Big 12 with a 997 APR rate for the softball team, while 10 Tigers were named to the Academic All-Big 12 list, the most in the league. They followed that up with eight in 2012. In a new league of competition, Mizzou's book smarts were apparent again. Ten Tigers were honored to the SEC's Academic Honor Roll. Additionally, the team grade point average (GPA) under Earleywine has never fallen below the adept mark of 3.0.

A 1994 graduate of Westminster College, Earleywine played baseball at Missouri State University (formerly Southwest Missouri State) for one year before transferring to the Fulton, Mo., school for the remainder of his collegiate career. Earleywine served as an assistant coach at Westminster through the 1997 campaign under the guidance of former Major League Baseball outfielder and former Tiger, Phil Bradley, then took the reigns as head coach until 1999. Following his time at Westminster, Earleywine was named assistant baseball coach at Texas A&M-Corpus Christi in 2000, remaining there until 2002 before taking the head assistant coaching position at Georgia Tech.

Earleywine is a graduate of Jefferson City High School and is married to Linn, Mo., native Lisa. The two have two children, son, Connor, and daughter, Duran.
