FOR STARTERS...

Missouri will take the road in the Big 12 Conference for just the second time this season, traveling to College Station, Texas to face Texas A&M this weekend.

Game one of the three-game set will get underway at 7 p.m. on Friday.

The Tigers enter the weekend with a 24-14-1 overall record and are 4-8 in the Big 12 this season.

Texas A&M is 31-12 on the year and has a conference record of 7-8.

The Aggies hold a 27-18-1 lead in the all-time series with Mizzou and last year took two-of-three in Columbia. The last time the two teams met in College Station, in 2002, MU won the series with two wins in the three-game series.

Following this weekend, Missouri will prepare for the annual "Wood Bat Classic" against Saint Louis on Wednesday in O'Fallon, Mo. The Tigers will host Texas next weekend.

LAST TIME OUT

COLUMBIA, Mo.-- Six days after Mizzou defeated SMS 5-4, the Tigers fell to the Bears by the same score on Tuesday at Taylor Stadium. A rain delay of more than two hours in the bottom of the eighth inning, put the time of the game at 5 hours and 14 minutes, as the final out was recorded at 11:47 p.m. .

Mizzou got on the board first with a run in the bottom of the second inning as senior Jeremy Hernandez scored on a sacrifice fly by junior Cosme Caballero.

The Bears took the lead in the third inning, scoring four of their five runs in the inning to take a 4-1 lead.

Freshman John McKee tied the game at four with a three-run home run in the bottom of the fifth inning on what was the first hit of McKee's career. He entered the game with just three at-bats on the year. McKee was 2-for-4 in the game.

SMS took the lead in the top of the seventh inning as Jake Manning drew a bases loaded walk, forcing in Toby Gardenhire for the go-ahead run.

With two outs in the bottom of the eighth, senior Ryan Rallo walked and advanced to third on a single by sophomore James Boone. At that point, with senior Cody Ehlers at the plate, the game was delayed as heavy rains entered the Columbia area.

The game was delayed for 2 hours and 10 minutes before the rain let up, allowing both teams to take the field at 11:34 p.m. to finish off the final inning and a half with Mizzou unable to get a run across the plate.

The 5-4 outcome was the 13th one-run game of the season for the Tigers, who drop to 8-5 in those games.

THE TEXAS A&M AGGIES

Texas A&M enters the weekend with a 31-12 overall record and a 7-8 Big 12 Conference mark. The Aggies are ranked in three of the four major polls with the highest being No. 14 in the Sports Weekly/ESPN Top 25.

The Aggies have lost three straight heading into the series with Missouri. After taking game one of the series against Oklahoma last weekend, they dropped the next two to the Sooners and then fell to Texas-Arlington by a score of 5-4 on Tuesday.

Texas A&M holds a 27-18-1 lead in the all-time series with Mizzou. Last year the Aggies took two of the three games against MU in Columbia.

CLOSE CALLS

Missouri has had its share of close games this season, as 13 of its 39 games have been one-run games and six more have been decided by two runs. Mizzou is 8-5 in one-run games and has a 2-4 record in the two-run decisions.

Six of the Tigers' last eight games have been decided by one run, including Wednesday's 5-4 defeat to SMS which came just six days after MU recorded a 5-4 win over SMS.

Two games last weekend against Nebraska were one-run games. MU took Friday's opener 3-2 but dropped Sunday's contest 11-10. Sunday's game was the 10th game this season to be decided in the final at bat for MU, which has a 5-5 record in those games.

A TOUGH ROAD AHEAD

Not that there is ever an easy portion of the Big 12 Conference schedule, but for Mizzou, the stretch of conference games it is in the midst of is definitely not easy. This weekend's series against Texas A&M is the second of three straight conference opponents that is ranked in the top 15 in the nation.

The Tigers got off to a good start taking two-of-three in its series with No. 15 Nebraska last weekend. After winning the first two games, MU could not record the sweep as the Huskers took Sunday's game 11-10 by scoring three runs in the ninth inning.

The Aggies are ranked as high as No. 14 in the latest polls. Following that, Texas, which is ranked No. 1 in all four polls, will be at Taylor Stadium for a series beginning on April 30.

AMONG THE NATION'S BEST

In the latest NCAA statistics, released on Monday, the Mizzou pitching staff's ERA of 3.66 is the 27th best in the nation. Missouri is also ranked No. 21 in fielding percentage with a .972 mark.

THE HITS KEEP ON COMING

Five Tigers have had double-digit hitting streaks during the season. Sophomore RF James Boone had a 16-game streak snapped against Oklahoma. That streak matches the streak of senior DH Lee Laskowski, who had a 16-game hitting streak snapped on March 28 against Kansas State. The 16-game streaks are the longest of the year for MU.

Senior 1B Cody Ehlers had a 15-game hitting streak at one point during the year and fellow senior Ryan Rallo had hits in 14 straight games earlier this season.

Sophomore 2B Zane Taylor had a 13-game hitting streak snapped against Oklahoma and had an eight-game streak earlier in the season.

CHECKING THE RECORD BOOKS

A trio of MU seniors are making their way up the charts in the Mizzou Baseball record books.

Cody Ehlers is currently tied for fourth place all-time in career doubles at MU with 48. He has 15 doubles this season, marking the third straight year he has had at least 15 doubles. Ehlers is also seventh on the career home runs lists with 31 heading into the weekend. His 12 home runs this season is a career best for Ehlers, who had nine in each of the previous two years.

Ehlers is also fifth in career extra base hits (83) and seventh in career RBI (164).

Fellow senior Ryan Rallo is also climbing the career home runs chart. He enters the Texas A&M series 11th with 25 career homers and has tied his career high with nine this season.

Relief pitcher Mark Alexander has recorded five saves this season and is in a tie for 10th for saves in a season at Missouri. He is in a tie with current teammate Travis Wendte who had five saves as a freshman in 2002.

AN AFOR EHLERS

Mizzou senior 1B Cody Ehlers leads the Tigers in nearly every offensive category. He has started all but one game at first base for the Tigers this season and has a team-best .364 batting average.

Ehlers also leads the team in home runs (12), RBI (46), runs scored (37), hits (55), doubles (15) and total bases (108).

He hit the game-winning home run for MU on April 14 against SMS, a solo shot with two outs in the top of the tenth inning. He finished 3-for-5 with the homer and a pair of doubles in the win over SMS.

Earlier in the season, Ehlers put together a 15-game hitting streak, which was snapped against Baylor. He opened the year by recording at least one hit in each of the first six games of the season. Ehlers has had more than one hit in 18 of MU's 39 games this year and has had at least four hits in two games this year.

HELLO RALLO

In last weekend's three-games series with Nebraska, Missouri senior Ryan Rallo hit .636 with seven hits, six runs, a .727 slugging percentage and a .714 on base percentage.

He is hitting .326 on the year with 35 RBI and 37 runs scored.

Rallo had three home runs in two days in the Tigers' series with Baylor earlier this month and is second on the team with nine homers on the year.

He homered twice in MU's 12-4 win over Baylor on April 2, driving in four runs in the game. The following day, he connected for his ninth homer of the year.

Rallo had a 14-game hitting streak snapped at the Easton/USA Challenge in Millington, Tenn. against Memphis. During the streak, Rallo had a .353 batting average, five home runs, four doubles and 18 RBI. The streak was snapped as Rallo was 0-for-1, with four walks, against Memphis.

TIGERS REACH 20-WIN MARK AGAINST KSU

With its 12-0 win over Kansas State on March 28, Missouri notched its 20th win of the year in its 27th game of 2004. It is the quickest that the Tigers have reached the 20-win mark since the 1998 team won 20 of its first 26 games.

BOONE ALREADY EARNING HONORS

Sophomore RF James Boone is second on the team with a .348 batting average and had a 16-game hitting streak snapped against Oklahoma. The 16-game streak is tied for the longest of the season for Missouri. Lee Laskowski had a 16-game streak snapped against Kansas State on March 28.

During the streak, which started against Wake Forest on March 12, Boone had a batting average of .466 with 27 hits, 17 runs scored and six RBI.

Boone was named the Big 12 Conference Player of the Week on March 16, after going 10-for-15, good for a .667 batting average, in the four games at the Easton/USA Challenge leading MU to the tournament title. He had two doubles, two RBI, two stolen bases, three runs scored, a slugging percentage of .800 and an on base percentage of .722 for the weekend.

He opened the tournament with a 4-for-5 performance against Wake Forest. He followed that with two hits in each of the next three games. He was 2-for-3 with a double, two RBI and a run scored against Indiana State. He then went 2-for-3 against Memphis and was 2-for-4 with a run scored against Tennessee-Martin.

NOW APPEARING

Senior RHP Mark Alexander leads the Tigers with 18 appearances this season and has recorded five saves. In three previous season with Mizzou, Alexander had not recorded a single save.

His five saves this season already have him in a tie for tenth for most saves in a season in MU history.

Sophomore LHP Taylor Parker is second on the team with 17 appearances. He has allowed just four walks in 25.1 innings pitched and has recorded two saves.

Junior RHP Dustin Braud (pronounced 'Bro') has 16 appearances and a 3-2 record out of the bullpen.

ON THE HILL

Senior RHP Danny Hill has been the Tigers' No. 1 starter since the opening day of the season. Hill, who started the season opener, has a 3-2 record and a 3.72 ERA.

After going 4.2 innings in the opener and pitching 5.0 innings against Coastal Carolina in his second start of the year on Feb. 19, he has gone at least six innings in his last eight starts, including five seven-inning outings.

Hill pitched 7.2 innings, his longest outing of the year, last Friday against Nebraska, allowing just one run on five hits and striking out five.

He leads Mizzou with 65 strikeouts on the season and has a team-high 65.1 innings pitched.

LEE LEADS THE WAY

Senior OF Lee Laskowski had a 16-game hitting streak snapped on March 28 against Kansas State. The streak is tied for the longest of the season for any Tiger and is the longest of Laskowski's career.

During the 16-games streak, he hit .391, with five doubles, two triples and five home runs. He drove in 19 runs and scored 10 times.

Laskowski has had 12 multi-hit games and is third on the team with a .331 batting average.

He was hampered by injuries and finished with just two home runs last year, but has already past that mark in 2004. Actually, he matched that total in one weekend as he homered in back-to-back games against Youngstown State.

ISN'T IT GRAND

Although senior Brad Flanders' six home runs are just third best on the team, his homers have probably made the most news.

On April 2, against Baylor, he hit his sixth home run of the season and the 35th homer by Mizzou this season, but the first grand slam for the Tigers since Kyle Johnson did it last April, also against Baylor.

On Feb. 21, Flanders became just the second Mizzou player ever to hit three home runs in one game as he did it against Coastal Carolina. Jerry Schoonmaker hit three homers as part of the 1954 National Championship team at Missouri. Flanders three-HR game also tied a Big 12 record. He was 4-for-5 on the day with seven RBI and three runs scored.

He recorded another multi-home run game of the year, as he went 4-for-5 with two home runs and five RBI against Chicago State on March 19.

BROSHUIS BRUSHES OPPONENTS AWAY

Junior RHP Garrett Broshuis recorded his first career complete-game shutout on March 28 (albeit a seven-inning game) in MU's 12-0 win over Kansas State. He allowed just two hits and struck out seven to move to 6-0 on the year.

Broshuis is tied for the team lead with his six wins on the year. He took the win in his first three starts and was the starter in the game with Washington on March 7 which ended in a tie, a game in which the Tigers' led when Broshuis left the game.

He broke the string of four straight six-inning outings by going seven innings against Tennessee-Martin on March 14 in his fifth start. He allowed only one run on four hits and did not give up a hit until the fifth inning.

Broshuis turned in his longest outing of the season, going eight-plus innings against Oklahoma, a game in which he left with the score tied and took a no decision.

Broshuis is second on the team with 59 strikeouts and has had a season-high eight K's three times this year (Portland, Coastal Carolina and Baylor). He has an ERA of 3.21 and has allowed just one run in four of his 10 starts to go along with the shutout of KSU.

JOINING THE 300 CLUB

With Mizzou's 3-2 win over Memphis on March 13, Head Coach Tim Jamieson picked up his 300th career victory. He currently has a record of 310-230-2 in his 10 season with MU.

Jamieson's first win came on Feb. 27, 1995 with a 12-2 MU victory over Lincoln University. He recorded his 100th win on March 14, 1998 by defeating Eastern Michigan 3-0, and his 200th win came against Wichita State, a 9-8 victory on March 7, 2001.

He is the third coach in Missouri history to record 300 wins, joining John "Hi" Simmons (481 wins) and Gene McArtor (733 wins).

SHUT DOWN COMPLETE

Mizzou has recorded three shutouts this season, just one short of its total from 2003.

On March 28, junior RHP Garrett Broshuis recorded the first complete game shutout of his career with a 12-0 seven-inning win over Kansas State. Broshuis gave up just two hits and struck out seven to get his sixth win of the year.

In each of the first two shutouts this season, junior RHP Erik Dessau started on the mound and senior RHP Mark Alexander relieved Dessau and preserved the shutout.

Mizzou's shutout of Portland (13-0) on Feb. 14 in Phoenix, Ariz. was the first shutout by a MU team since April 29, 2003 when the Tigers defeated St. Louis in the "Wood Bat Classic" by a score of 9-0.

Dessau started and pitched six innings, allowing seven hits to record the win. Alexander came on in relief, giving up just one hit and striking out five in three innings of work to record the save.

On Feb. 28 against Indiana State, Dessau pitched seven innings of shutout work, giving up just three hits and striking out eight. Alexander came on for the final two innings and allowed just one hit in the 7-0 MU victory.

BO KNOWS TRIPLES

Junior Bo Davis had pinch-hit for the Tigers in 10 games prior to getting his first start of the season on March 21, at first base. Davis took advantage of the spot in the lineup, going 4-for-6 with two triples, three RBI and a three runs scored.

Davis led off the game by getting hit by a pitch and had singles in the second and fifth innings. With two outs in the sixth inning, he tripled down the right field line, driving in a run. He would then score on a wild pitch.

In the eighth inning, Davis again tripled to right, driving in another run. He would later score on an error by the third baseman.

Davis is the first Tiger to have two triples in a game since Kyle Johnson did it against Northern Iowa in 2002.

AMAGIC NUMBER

Mizzou has scored 21 runs in two games this season and both have taken place on the 21st of the month.

On Feb. 21, the Tigers defeated Coastal Carolina 21-4 at the Beach Blast in Myrtle Beach. It was the most runs the Tigers have scored since putting 23 on the board against Baylor last April in a 23-18 win. Against Coastal, Mizzou banged out 18 hits, six home runs, six doubles and one triple.

A month later, on March 21, Mizzou picked up a 21-1 win in the last game of the three-game series with Chicago State. That came two days after the Tigers scored 19 on, yes, the 19th of the March.

Looking ahead, MU will host Oklahoma State on May 21.

ALL TIED UP

For just the 20th time in 3,069 games, Mizzou had a game end in a tie on March 7 against Washington. After the two teams split the first two games of the series, game three was to be the rubber game of the series.

Due to Missouri's travel arrangements, a curfew was placed on the game and was called after 10 innings in order for the Tigers to catch their flight out of Seattle.

The tie was the first time since the first game of the 2001 season against San Jose State. That game was called after the sixth inning due to rain with the score tied at zero.

The Tigers have had back-to-back ties once before, in 1914 when MU and Kansas State tied 9-9 and 2-2 in consecutive games.

UP NEXT

Next Wednesday, Mizzou will travel to O'Fallon, Mo. for the annual "Wood Bat Classic" against Saint Louis. Each year the Tigers have played at least one game in its season with wood bats in place of the normal collegiate aluminum versions. The game with Saint Louis will again be played at T.R. Hughes Ballpark in O'Fallon, Mo. at 7 p.m.

MU will get the aluminum bats back out next weekend as Texas visits Columbia for a three-game series beginning at 6:30 p.m. on Friday at Taylor Stadium.
