CONFERENCE NOTES

Weekly Honors

• Co-Players of the Week: Auburn's Honesty Scott-Grayson scored 21 points to help the Tigers pull off one of the season's biggest upsets as Auburn defeated No. 7/4 LSU 67-62 Sunday at home, ending the 16-game win streak of the defending national champions. She hit clutch shot after clutch shot – three of her made field goals in the second half flipped the lead in Auburn's favor, including a layup at the 6:34 mark to give Auburn the lead for good. With a pair of steals, she helped lead an Auburn defense that held LSU to its lowest point total of the season. For the week, Scott-Grayson averaged 18.5 points over Auburn's two games, adding a 16-point effort at Ole Miss as the Tigers rallied from an 18-point deficit to get within a point in the final minute before falling just short. For the season, Scott-Grayson averages a team-leading 15.8 points per game, and she has scored in double-figures in 15 of the 16 games she has played. For the week, she averaged 18.5 points, 4.0 rebounds, 1.5 assists and 1.0 steals.

Mississippi State's Jessica Carter averaged 22.5 points, 12.0 rebounds, 2.0 assists and 2.0 blocks on 64.5 percent from the field in 34.5 minutes over two contests last week. Carter was the leading scorer in both contests and turned in consecutive 20-point performances for the first time this season. Carter finished with 22 points, 19 rebounds, three assists and two blocks in 32 minutes in a 66-63 road win at Arkansas – the last block which came on the Razorbacks' final possession in its attempt to tie or take the lead. The 19 rebounds for Carter surpassed her previous SEC high total. With her 22 points and 19 rebound effort at Arkansas on Jan. 11, Carter now has 35 career double-doubles which ranks second among active SEC players and third in program history. The Arkansas effort also marked her 11th career 20-plus points and 10-plus rebounds performance. Carter followed up that performance with 22 points, five rebounds and two blocks in 37 minutes in a 69-57 home win over rival Ole Miss on Jan. 14. It marked the third 20-plus point contest of the season and the 17th of her career.

• Freshman of the Week: Vanderbilt's Khamil Pierre averaged 16.0 points and 9.0 rebounds per game in a pair of SEC contests this week. The highlight of Pierre's career-best week came in Sunday's contest against Missouri, where she recorded the first double-double of her career with a 16-point, 12-rebound performance off the bench. Pierre opened the week by scoring a career-high 16 points in a 95-73 win at Kentucky. She had shot 72.7 percent from the field in the win over the Wildcats, while she pulled down six rebounds and had two assists. The freshman rounded out the week with her best performance in a Commodore uniform against Missouri. Pierre matched her career-best in points with 16 and pulled down a career-high 12 rebounds to record the first double-double of her career. The forward shot 50 percent from the field against the Tigers and had two steals. Her back-to-back 16-point performances against Kentucky and Missouri this week mark the first time that Pierre has scored 10 or more points in back-to-back games in her collegiate career.

Around the League

• Honesty Scott-Grayson was honored by the USBWA as one of the five Ann Meyers Drysdale national honorees.

• Tennessee's win over Vanderbilt marked Kellie Harper's 100th triumph while leading the program at her alma mater.

• In the first and fourth quarters, Auburn outscored Alabama 50-20, defeating their in-state rival for the first time in their past 10 meetings.

• Dropping a career-tying best of 22 points, Ole Miss' Kennedy Todd-Williams drained a career-best 10 field goals as well as dishing out a season-high five assists.

• Eniya Russell came off bench to lead Kentucky with 20 points. Russell added seven rebounds in the game.
