FIRST PITCH

Mizzou will open up its Big 12 Conference schedule this weekend with a three-game series against Texas A&M in College Station, Texas. The series will begin at 6:35 p.m. on Friday, with games to follow at 2:05 p.m. on Saturday and 1:05 p.m. on Sunday. The Tigers enter the weekend on a five-game winning streak and have won eight of their last nine games. They are 12-6 on the year, while Texas A&M is 15-5 on the season and has already begun conference play, standing at 2-1 in the Big 12. Following the weekend series at Texas A&M, Missouri will return home to host Purdue in a two-game midweek set, followed by a three-game series against Baylor next weekend in Columbia.

LAST TIME OUT

Mizzou swept a two-game midweek series against Arkansas-Pine Bluff, taking victories by scores of 9-0 and 28-2. Tuesday's game was the Tigers' second-straight shutout. Senior Aaron Senne had two hits in that game, as did a trio of freshmen in Blake Brown, Brannon Champagne and Eric Garcia. On Wednesday, Missouri used a seven-run first inning and a 10-run fourth to blow out UAPB, 28-2. The 28 runs were the most scored by the Tigers since April of 2008 against Texas. Thirteen different Mizzou batters had hits in the game and four had multiple-hit games led by junior Jonah Schmidt, who was 3-for-4 with a career-high six RBI. Senne homered and drove in four runs in the game.

MIZZOU-TEXAS A&M SERIES HISTORY

Texas A&M leads the all-time series between the Tigers and Aggies, 36-28. The two teams met four times last year, including once at the Big 12 Championships. The Tigers won three of the four meetings in 2009. They claimed the series victory, taking two of the three games played in Columbia. Mizzou also won the matchup at the Big 12 Championships, as the two teams met on the opening day of play with MU taking a 5-2 win. [See page six for more on last year's series.]

NICHOLAS ADAPTS QUICKLY TO MIZZOU

Junior Brett Nicholas had an eight-game hitting streak snapped last Tuesday against Arkansas-Pine Bluff. During the streak, he hit .522 with three home runs and 12 RBI. He has recorded a hit in 12 of the 18 games in which he's had an at-bat this year and he has six multi-hit games. Nicholas is hitting .351 with four home runs and is tied for the team lead with 21 RBI. Nicholas hit .444 with a slugging percentage of 1.444 in the three games against North Dakota. He had a home run in Thursday's series opener, then hit two homers in the first game of last Friday's doubleheader. Nicholas hit .625 (5-for-8) in the Xavier series (March 12-14). He opened the series by going 3-for-4 with a double and an RBI in Friday's extra-inning victory, then drove in two runs on Saturday, finishing 1-for-2 with a single and a walk. On Sunday he was 1-for-2 and drew two walks.

LIBERTO LEADS MIZZOU AT THE PLATE

Michael Liberto, one of just two seniors on the 2010 squad, leads the Tigers with a .458 average after the first 18 games of the season and is the leading hitter in the Big 12 heading into the weekend. Liberto opened up the year by hitting .692 at the Collegiate Cactus Classic in Tucson. He was 9-for-13 in the three games with a double, a triple and three RBI. Liberto matched his career best with four hits in a 4-for-5 performance against Gonzaga in the season opener, with a triple and two RBI. He has had at least one hit in all but three games in which he has had an at-bat this season and has had multiple hits in nine of the 16 games on the year.

BULLPEN STRONG IN EARLY SEASON ACTION

The Mizzou bullpen has produced several strong outings in the first month of the season. Through 18 games, the bullpen has an ERA of 3.40, picking up eight wins and two saves. The Tigers' relievers have struck out 52 batters in 82 innings pitched and opponents are hitting .250. Junior Kelly Fick leads the team with an ERA of 0.66, as he gave up his first (and only) run of season last Thursday against North Dakota. He has appeared in eight games, pitching 13.2 innings. He turned in 5.2 innings of work in relief on March 13 against Xavier, not allowing a run on three hits. Junior Tyler Clark has made 11 appearances and has 14 strikeouts in 11 innings pitched. Junior Phil McCormick has pitched in 11 of Mizzou's 18 games this season and has recorded two victories. Sophomore Jeff Emens has one save on the year and picked up the win in the Tigers' 13-inning victory over Xavier on March 12, when he pitched a career-long 4.1 innings out of the bullpen. Sophomore Ryan Clubb picked up wins in back-to-back games, pitching a scoreless inning in each of the first two games of the series with North Dakota. Below is a rundown of some of the top outings by the bullpen this season:

SENNE CLIMBING SEVERAL LISTS IN MU RECORD BOOK

Aaron Senne returned to Mizzou this year for his senior year, passing up a chance to join his hometown Minnesota Twins organization. Senne, a native of Rochester, Minn., was drafted by Minnesota in last June's Major League Baseball Draft, but chose to return to Missouri. At the Auburn Classic, Senne hit three home runs in a span of two games and leads the team with seven homers on the year. He has 33 home runs for his career, which puts him eighth all-time at Missouri. He is two away from moving into a tie with Ryan Stegall (1999-2001) and Dave Silvestri (1986-88) for sixth place. Senne ranks eighth in school history with 174 RBI. He moved into the top-10 in career hits last week, currently standing 10th with 233 career hits, which is 41 behind the career record holder (Jayce Tingler, 2000-03). He is tied for third in the MU record books with 53 doubles, three away from breaking the record (Ryan Fry, 1995-98).

NEWCOMERS MAKE A QUICK IMPACT

The roster for Missouri is loaded with new names in 2010. Through the first 18 games of the season, a total of 18 players have seen their first playing time for Missouri. Freshman Brannon Champagne, Dane Opel, Blake Brown, Kale Gaden and Eric Garcia have combined to make 50 starts and junior college transfer Brett Nicholas has started 17 of MU's 18 games on the year. Garcia is the team's second leading hitter with a .410 average, while Nicholas is fourth on the squad with a .351 average with a team-leading 21 RBI. On the mound, freshman Eric Anderson has started four games for the Tigers and is 1-1 on the season with 19 strikeouts. He picked up a win in his first collegiate start against Florida Atlantic on Feb. 28 when he struck out five and did not allow a run in five innings pitched. Junior Zack Hardoin, a transfer from Blinn College, has made 10 appearances, which is second on the team. He picked up the win on Feb. 20 against Washington with a scoreless inning of work in relief and started the first game of the March 19 doubleheader with North Dakota.

Below is a rundown of the first five weeks for the MU newcomers:

TEPESCH LOOKS TO LEAD TIGER PITCHING STAFF

Nick Tepesch won six games last year, striking out 84 batters in 114.1 innings pitched. He picked up a win against Auburn on Feb. 27, his eighth career victory. He struck out five in 6.1 innings pitched against TCU on March 6, but took a no decision in a 10-inning win by TCU. Tepesch allowed three runs, two of which were earned, on six hits in the game. After allowing a single to open the game, Tepesch retired six of the next seven batters he faced, with the only base runner reaching on an error. In the fifth inning, TCU put one run on the board and had runners on second and third before Tepesch struck out the next two batters to end the inning. In his start against Xavier, he left following just one inning of work after he was hit by a batted ball in the top of the first inning. Tepesch returned last Friday against North Dakota and struck out eight in six innings pitched. He did not allow a run and gave up just three hits to earn the win and move to 2-0 on the year.

SENNE NAMED BIG 12 PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Senior Aaron Senne was named the Big 12 Conference Player of the Week on March 1. Senne hit .462 (6-for-13) in the Tigers' three games at the Auburn Classic, including three home runs and two doubles. He drove in six runs on the week and had a slugging percentage of 1.308. Senne had a double in the opener of the Auburn Classic against Florida Atlantic, driving in one run. Against Auburn, Senne hit two home runs and had four RBI. His first homer was a two-run shot in the third inning and his second was the second of back-to-back home runs for Mizzou in the fifth. He closed the weekend with a 2-for-4 performance against Boston College, with a home run and a double.

TIGERS PICKED EIGHTH IN BIG 12 POLL

The Big 12 Conference Preseason Coaches' poll was released prior to the season with Missouri coming in tied for eighth in the voting conducted by the league's coaches. The Tigers tied with Nebraska with 22 points in the poll. Texas was atop the poll, garnering 81 points and nine first place votes. The last time the Tigers were picked eighth in the preseason poll was in 2007. They finished second that season and hosted an NCAA Regional. Mizzou was also picked eighth in the 2005 preseason poll, but finished fourth place that year.

TIGERS TO PLAY IN THREE MAJOR LEAGUE STADIUMS IN 2010

Missouri has games scheduled in three Major League stadiums during the 2010 season, starting with Houston College Classic at Minute Maid Park, home of the Houston Astros, earlier this year. In addition, the Tigers will play in both of the MLB stadiums in Missouri, starting with an April 7 contest against Illinois at Busch Stadium, home of the St. Louis Cardinals. Two weeks after that, MU will face Kansas in a non-conference game at Kauffman Stadium, home of the Kansas City Royals on April 21. This will mark the second-straight year that Missouri has played at Busch Stadium (defeating Saint Louis University 19-6 in 2009) and the third year MU and KU will meet at Kauffman Stadium.

JAMIESON STANDS SECOND ON MU'S ALL-TIME WINS LIST

Mizzou Head Coach Tim Jamieson stands in second place on Mizzou's all-time wins list with a career record of 527-362-2 in his 16th year as the Tigers' head coach. His 527 wins put him ahead of legendary former head coach John "Hi" Simmons. Simmons compiled a record of 481-294-3 from 1937-1973, while Gene McArtor is the all-time winningest coach at Missouri with a record of 733-430-3 from 1974-1994. Jamieson, who served as an assistant coach under McArtor from 1988-94, has led the Tigers to seven NCAA Regionals, including each of the last six and is a two-time Conference Coach of the Year. In 2008, the University of Missouri extended Jamieson's contract, keeping him in the MU dugout through at least the 2013 season. Jamieson and Baylor coach Steve Smith are now the longest tenured coaches in the Big 12 Conference, as each is in his 16th year as head coach of the respective programs. In addition, with the resignation of Mizzou Swimming Coach Brian Hoffer and the upcoming retirement of MU Track & Field Coach Rick McGuire, Jamieson will become the longest tenured head coach at the University of Missouri.

MIZZOU MAKES IT SEVEN-STRAIGHT NCAA TOURNAMENTS

Mizzou has advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the seventh-straight season, becoming one of just 14 schools in the nation to qualify for the postseason in the last seven years. Only two Big 12 teams (MU and Texas) can make that claim.

TAYLOR STADIUM SPORTS A NEW LOOK IN 2010

During the offseason, Taylor Stadium, the home of the Tigers, underwent a major renovation. The majority of the construction took place in the left field corner, where a new indoor/outdoor batting cage has been built. The building includes three batting/pitching lanes along with an observation area. Also new for the 2010 season is a new video board/scoreboard that will enhance the fan experience at Taylor Stadium. A new brick wall has also been constructed that spans foul territory. Future plans call for a new team clubhouse, coaches' office and expanded seating.

BASEBALL WELL REPRESENTED IN MISSOURI ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME CLASS OF 2009

This past January, the Class of 2009 was inducted into the Missouri Intercollegiate Hall of Fame. Included in that class was the 1964 Baseball team, along with Ryan Fry, who played baseball at MU from 1995-98. The 1964 team was the National runners-up, finishing the year 27-5-1, winning its last 21 games of the season. The Tigers were a perfect 19-0 in the Big Eight, claiming their fourth-straight conference title. That squad led the nation with a 0.65 ERA, an NCAA record that still stands today. The 1964 team became the fourth team inducted in the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame, and the second baseball team. The 1964 team joins the 1954 National Champion Baseball team in the Hall of Fame, making baseball the first program to have multiple teams in the Hall.

Teams in the Missouri Intercollegiate Hall of Fame:

- 1954 Baseball (Class of 1994)
- 1965 Indoor Track (Class of 1995)
- 1941 Football (Class of 2008)
- 1964 Baseball (Class of 2009)

Fry is the 25th baseball individual to go into the Hall and is still near the top of several lists in the Mizzou record books. Named a Second Team All-American in 1998, Fry was also a standout in the classroom, twice earning Academic All-American honors (1997, 1998). He was a three-time Academic All-Big 12 selection.

Fry in the Mizzou Record Book:

- 1st in hits in a season (92 in 1996)
- 1st in home runs in a season (27 in 1998)
- 1st in career doubles (56)
- 2nd in career RBI (222)
- 2nd in career runs scored (223)
- 2nd in career extra base hits (106)
- 3rd in career hits (265)

TIGERS ON TV

The Tigers are slated for three televised games this season. FSN will televise five Big 12 regular season games this season, with Mizzou selected for two of those five games. The MU-Oklahoma matchup on April 10 and the Tigers' home game against Kansas State on April 24 will be televised by FSN. In addition, the Mizzou Sports Network will broadcast the April 3 contest between Missouri and Baylor. That game will air on MetroSports in Kansas City and FS Midwest.

ON THE AIR

Once again this year, KTGR ESPN Radio is the radio home of the Tigers, with all of the game being broadcast on 100.5-FM and 1580-AM. The games can also be heard online at KTGR.com. Tex Little is in his 20th season of calling Tiger Baseball and is joined in the booth by Hudson Guthrie, who returns for his third year as part of the MU broadcast team.

ALL-ACCESS

Video webcast for all Missouri Baseball home games in 2010 is available at mutigers.tv as part of Mizzou All-Access. All-Access is the Tiger fans home to live and archived games for Mizzou Athletics, along with coaches' shows, press conferences and much more. For more information, visit mutigers.tv.

UP NEXT

After the weekend in College Station, the Tigers will return to Taylor Stadium for a six-game homestand. Mizzou will host a two-game midweek series with Purdue on Tuesday-Wednesday, before Baylor visits Columbia for a three-game conference series next weekend.

MISSOURI 3, TEXAS A&M 2
March 20, 2009 -- Columbia, Mo.

Kyle Gibson picked up a complete-game victory, as he struck out a career-high 16 batters in the Tigers' 3-2 win over Texas A&M. Gibson gave up just two runs on five hits. His only walk allowed on the night was an intentional pass in the eighth inning. Gibson retired the first 10 batters to the plate and 18 of the first 19 he faced. Mizzou got on the board in the bottom of the first inning, as juniors Ryan Lollis and Trevor Coleman each singled and scored. The score remained 2-0 until the Aggies plated a pair of run in the top of the seventh inning to tie the game at two. After a fly out to open the bottom of the eighth for Mizzou, junior Greg Folgia and freshman Conner Mach delivered back-to-back singles. Folgia scored when pinch hitter Steve Gray beat out a possible double play, reaching on a fielders' choice and allowing Folgia to score from third base with the go-ahead run. Folgia was 3-for-4 on the night, adding singles in the first and sixth inning.

March 21, 2009 -- Columbia, Mo.

Nine pitchers each turned in one inning of work for Missouri, teaming up for a 6-2 win over Texas A&M. After Ian Berger sat the Aggies down in order in the first, the Mizzou offense gave the pitching staff all the runs it would need by scoring five in the bottom of the first inning, which included a two-out single by Steve Gray and a two-run double from Kyle Mach. Gray was 2-for-4 on the afternoon and Conner Mach had two hit and drew a pair of walks. Following Berger, Tyler Clark, Jeff Emens, Kelly Fick, Ryan Clubb, Phil McCormick, Ryan Gargano, Greg Folgia and Brad Buehler each turned in an inning on the mound for MU.

TEXAS A&M 6, MISSOURI 5
March 22, 2009 -- Columbia, Mo.

Texas A&M avoided being swept by Missouri by scoring a run in the top of the ninth inning to take a 6-5 win in the finale. Mizzou jumped out to an early lead with two runs the first inning. Ryan Lollis led off the third inning with a triple and later scored. A pair of home runs by the Aggies in the fifth and sixth innings gave them the lead. The Aggies added a run in the seventh to give them a two-run advantage. Missouri tied the game with a pair of runs in the bottom of the eighth inning. Austin Holt, in the game as a pinch runner, scored the tying run on an Aggies error. Texas A&M (14-9, 3-3) Brooks Raley singled to open the ninth and stole second base. He scored all the way from second when the throw on the steal attempt bounced into left field. Nick Tepesch struck out nine in 5.2 innings pitched, allowing four runs on seven hits and taking a no decision.
