2021 FOOTBALL GAME NOTES

GAME
10

Nov 13, 2021

Mizzou 31, South Carolina 28

TEAM

- Mizzou leads the series with South Carolina, 7-5.
- Mizzou earned its third-consecutive victory over South Carolina, keeping The Mayor's Cup in CoMo.
- Mizzou allowed just 250 total yards, the fewest it has ever given up against South Carolina. The previous mark was 263 total yards in the 1979 Hall of Fame Bowl.

OFFENSE

- Quarterback Connor Bazelak finished 15-of-23 for 180 yards with two TDs and two INT.
- Tyler Badie racked up 209 yards on 34 carries on the ground. It was Badie's fourth game this season with 200 rushing yards, making him just the third SEC player since 2000 to record four such games in a single season (Derrick Henry & Leonard Fournette, 2015).
- Daniel Parker Jr. hauled in his third touchdown reception of the season, and fourth of his career, on a two-yard pass at the start of the second quarter.
- Badie's four 200-yard rushing games are the most all-time at Mizzou.
- Mookie Cooper tallied his first collegiate touchdown after a 60-yard bomb from Connor Bazelak. His score is tied for the second-longest offensive scoring play of the season.
- In the early stages of the fourth quarter, Tyler Badie ran in a 19-yard score, marking his 12th of the season. This slots him at 11th on the Mizzou all-time single season rushing touchdowns list, tied with four other former Tigers.

DEFENSE

- The Tigers held South Carolina to just 57 net rushing yards, the lowest total of the season.
- South Carolina's 250 yards of total offense were the fewest surrendered by Mizzou this season.
- Kris Abrams-Draine snagged his third interception of the season on the second play from scrimmage. Mizzou has recorded 11 INTs as a team and has picked off a pass in 9-of-10 games this season.
- Martez Manuel strip sacked South Carolina quarterback Jason Brown, resulting in Trajan Jeffcoat leaping on the fumble, earning his first touchdown of his career. The fumble touchdown is the first for the Tigers since Sept. 21, 2019 against South Carolina.
- Isaiah McGuire forced his first fumble of the season, and recovered his first fumble in his career after crushing South Carolina running back MarShawn Lloyd.
- McGuire finished with a career-high six tackles. He was one of four Tigers with five or more tackles on the day.
- After dragging down South Carolina quarterback Jason Brown three times on the day, the Tiger defense has now forced a sack in nine of ten games this season, and in 14 of their last 15 games.
- Mizzou forced two fumbles, recovering both as part of a three turnover performance.
- Mizzou held South Carolina to five total yards in the third quarter.

SPECIAL TEAMS

- In the waning moments of the first half, Harrison Mevis nailed a 19-yard go-ahead field goal. He finished a perfect 4-for-4 in PATs as well.
- Grant McKinnis punted four times, pinning two inside the 10-yard line and adding a 55-yard effort.
