SEC GYMNASTICS WEEKLY HONORS

SEC Gymnast of the Week – Oklahoma's Faith Torrez, a junior from Bristol, Wis., captured three individual titles as she helped the Sooners earn the win over No. 8 Kentucky. Torrez took first place in the all-around with a score of 39.625, her fifth mark of 39.600 or higher this season. She also captured first place on vault with a career-high 9.975 and on floor with her score of 9.95. Torrez added a 9.875 on bars and a 9.825 on beam to help the Sooners to their second-highest team score of the season.

SEC Specialist of the Week – Kentucky's Isabella Magnelli, a graduate student from Suffern, N.Y., scored a pair of 9.95s at No. 1 Oklahoma to help the Wildcats post their best road score of the season and score over 197 points for the third time in 2025. Magnelli won the beam title with a season-high 9.95, her fifth consecutive meet with a 9.90 or higher on the event this season. She also earned a share of second place on vault with her 9.95, which marked a season best and equaled her career best. Magnelli closed out the meet with a 9.825 on floor, tying for eight place.

SEC Freshman of the Week – LSU's Kailin Chio, a freshman from Henderson, Nev., brought home three titles as she helped the Tigers claim the win at No. 14 Alabama. Chio was the top all-arounder with her score of 39.650, matching her career-high mark for the second consecutive week. She also recorded a career-high score of 9.975 on vault along with a 9.925 on beam to win both events. Chio now has a career total of nine titles during her rookie campaign: three on vault, two on bars, two on beam and two in the all-around.

Over 10,000 fans piled into Coleman Coliseum on February 7 as No. 14 Alabama delivered a season-high score of 197.075 against No. 3 LSU. Despite a season-high 49.500 rotation score on the floor exercise, three event titles and two career-high tying marks, the visiting Tigers narrowly defeated the Crimson Tide by a final score of 197.300-197.075.

Tide anchor Gabby Gladieux performed a near flawless routine on floor, scoring a career-high-tying 9.975 en route to her fifth event title of the season on the apparatus. Lilly Hudson and Chloe LaCoursiere posted consecutive 9.900 scores on the uneven bars to earn a share of the event title.

Throughout the night, Hudson delivered a 9.875 on vault before rattling off three consecutive 9.900 scores to capture a second-place, 39.575 finish in the all-around, while Gladieux took third in the all-around with a 39.425.

Alabama will compete in the Zou to the Lou on Friday, February 14 against Illinois, Iowa and host Missouri at Family Arena in St. Charles, Mo.

The No. 15 Gymbacks hosted the No. 2 team in the country for the second time this season and yet again came away with the victory as they took down Florida, 197.175-196.625, on February 7.

The team score was a season high and Arkansas also registered bests on vault (49.300) and bars (49.400) to help push toward the win.

Graduate transfer Mati Waligora had a great night with shares of two event titles on bars (9.950) and floor (9.925). Both scores matched her personal bests and were the highest in her Arkansas career.

Freshman Joscelyn Roberson collected the beam title with a 9.900 mark, her second of the season. She has now socred 9.900+ on beam in four of six meets for Arkansas. She also came in second in the all-around with a total score of 39.450.

Redshirt junior Frankie Price rounded out the titles on the night as she matched Waligora's 9.925 on floor for her fourth win on the event this season.

A total of 7,341 fans were in attendance Friday, Arkansas' sixth-highest turnout in program history.

Arkansas continues SEC competition at No. 11 Georgia on Friday, February 14 in Athens. The meet is set for 6 p.m. CT and will be broadcast live on SEC Network.

In a back-and-forth meet that went down to the final routine, Sophia Groth anchored with a season-best 9.95 on floor to lead No. 12 Auburn to a come-from-behind 197.3-197.2 win over No. 11 Georgia on February 7 at Neville Arena.

Trailing by a tenth heading to the final rotation, Auburn evened the score after the first five routines, setting the stage for two winner-take-all routines. Georgia's beam anchor earned a 9.775, giving the Tigers an opportunity for a walk-off win.

In the second rotation on bars, Auburn overtook Georgia thanks to Alex Irvine's event title-taking 9.95 leadoff score. All five Auburn gymnasts scored 9.8 or better on bars, with Emma Grace Boyd and Olivia Greaves each earning 9.825s, Groth and Bryn Bartman scoring 9.85s, and Katelyn Jong anchoring with a 9.875 to give the Tigers 49.350.

Groth claimed the event title on floor and helped the Tigers post a 49.550 in the final rotation.

The Tigers return to the road on Friday, February 14 to face No. 2 Florida at 6:30 p.m. CT on SEC Network in Gainesville.

No. 2 Florida dropped its second meet of the season, losing 197.175 – 196.625 to No. 15 Arkansas Friday evening in front of 7,341 at the Bud Walton Arena.

The Gators led by 0.65 heading into the final rotation but that advantage evaporated when the Gators were forced to count a miss on balance beam.

Arkansas remains unbeaten at Bud Walton Arena with Friday's result marking UA's second victory over the nation's No. 2 team this season. The Gymbacks won their SEC home opener over defending NCAA champion and then No. 2 LSU on January 24.

A Gator won at least a share of four of the five event titles Friday. Senior Leanne Wong won her third all-around of the season at 39.575 while sophomore Anya Pilgrim was third at 39.15. Arkansas' Joscelyn Roberson was second at 39.45.

Wong shared the evening's uneven bars title with Arkansas' Mati Waligora with marks of 9.95. Selena Harris-Miranda matched her season vault high of 9.95 for the third consecutive meet for the same number of wins in that span. Four shared the floor exercise win at 9.925 – UF's Taylor Clark and Wong along with Arkansas' Mati Waligora and Frankie Price. Arkansas freshman Joscelyn Roberton took the balance beam win at 9.90.

The 19th Annual Gators Link to Pink presented by UF Health versus No. 12 Auburn is Friday, February 14 in the Exactech Arena at the Stephen C. O'Connell Center.

The No. 11 Georgia GymDogs reach a season-high 197.200, ultimately falling to No. 12 Auburn 197.300 – 197.200 on February 7 at Neville Arena.

The GymDogs broke 197.000 on Friday night in Auburn, securing a season best of 197.200. Georgia Gymnastics has either met or improved from their prior team meet score each week for the entire season thus far.

The Bulldogs captured a season best on the floor with a team score of 49.400 in the event. Most notably, Nyla Aquino, Ady Wahl, and Lily Smith all performed 9.900 routines. Friday marked the second consecutive week that Smith performed a 9.900 on the floor.

Lily Smith won the balance beam competition by matching her career high of 9.950 on the beam. Smith's 2025 average is a 9.895 after five season routines in the event. This score matches the season's highest individual score in any event.

Anaya Smith scored her second 9.900 in a row, securing the vault crown of the meet in Auburn. Her routine matched her career high score.

Georgia Gymnastics will return to Stegeman on Friday, February 14 to take on Arkansas at 7:00 p.m. ET. on SEC Network.

Behind event wins from Isabella Magnelli on the balance beam and Hailey Davis on the floor exercise, No. 8 Kentucky posted its best road score of the season in a 197.225-197.825 defeat at the hands of No. 1 Oklahoma. The score is Kentucky's third 197+ effort of the season and first in a road environment.

The Wildcats put together their most consistent performance of the 2025 season thus far, scoring 49.275 or better on all four apparatus. Although Kentucky did not post an event single best in any rotation, the Cats saw a team score delta of less than one-tenth of a point between all four scores.

Magnelli put together one of the best meets of her career, as the fifth-year senior score two 9.950s (one on vault and one on beam) to set two season bests, one career best, and win her third beam title of the season and 12th of her illustrious Kentucky career.

Hailey Davis also carded her best night of the season, posting season-best scores on both of her events and winning her third floor title of the season and sixth of her Wildcat career. The fifth-year posted a 9.875 on the uneven bars and a career-high equaling score of 9.950 on the floor exercise.

All-Arounder Skylar Killough-Wilhelm kept her good form going with a season-best score of 39.500 to place third behind two of the top three ranked gymnasts in the nation.

Kentucky will begin its only multi-meet homestand of the season with its non-conference finale against Temple. The Valentine's Day meet will begin at 7 p.m. ET on Friday, February 14 at Historic Memorial Coliseum and will be streamed live on SEC Network +.

University of Missouri gymnastics posted season-best scores on both bars and floor as the ninth-ranked Tigers defeated 29th-ranked Illinois, 197.200-196.675, on February 9 at Huff Hall.

Mizzou had five routines earn at least a 9.900 en route to its fourth consecutive win over Illinois. The Tigers' 197.200 ties its best team score of the season and marks the third-straight meet to reach 197.000.

Senior Amari Celestine earned a career-best 39.500 in the all-around, scoring 39.500. Celestine scored a pair of 9.925s on bars and floor, setting a season-best on the apparatus in the former.

Redshirt junior Amy Wier posted a personal best of 9.90 on beam with a 9.900 to claim a share of the event title for the first time in her career.

On floor, Jocelyn Moore recorded a season-best 9.950 in the anchor spot for the Tigers' rotation to earn a share of the event title, her fourth of the season.

Graduate student Mara Titarsolej scored a 9.925 on bars for the second consecutive meet. She shared the event title with Celestine and has reached or exceeded 9.900 on the event 33 times with the result.

Missouri gymnastics heads to Family Arena in St. Louis, Missouri for the Zou to the Lou Quad on Valentine's Day, competing against No. 14 Alabama, No. 29 Illinois and No. 27 Iowa.
