For Openers...

> Mizzou Basketball has a quick turnaround on Monday as the Tigers face IUPUI in the second game of the 2013 Las Vegas Invitational ... Following Monday's game, the Tigers will depart Columbia for two games at the Orleans Arena in Las Vegas ... Missouri will face Northwestern on Thanksgiving Night on ESPNU and then will face Nevada on Friday on ESPN3.com.

> Monday's game is the first meeting in series history between Mizzou and IUPUI ... The Jaguars are coming off a 63-61 last-second loss at Northwestern ... Ian Chiles scored 19 point and the Jaguars shot 51 percent for the game in the tough loss.

> Missouri will be looking for a 5-0 start for the first time since the 2011-12 season ... The Tigers have been 5-0 twice in the last three years (2010-11 and 2011-12) and are coming off a 72-63 win against Gardner-Webb ... Johnathan Williams III led Missouri with 17 rebounds and Earnest Ross scored a season-high 17 points ... Nine Tigers scored in the victory and Missouri's "Big Three" of Ross, Jabari Brown and Jordan Clarkson combined for 44 points, 10 rebounds and eight assists.

> Mizzou bounced back from a rough shooting first half against Gardner-Webb to shoot 55 percent in the second half and build a 20-point advantage in the final minutes ... The Tigers hit just 2-of-14 shots from three-point range, but scored 46 points in the paint and grabbed 46 rebounds to fuel the victory.

> Missouri owns a 21-game homecourt winning streak at Mizzou Arena dating back to the final home game of the 2011-12 campaign ... That winning streak ranks No. 2 nationally ... Belmont's 22-game winning streak is currently the longest home streak in America ... The 21 consecutive home wins by the Tigers is tied for the sixth-longest streak in school history and is the longest since the team won 32 consecutive home games from 2007-2010 ... A win on Monday would produce a tie for the fifth longest home streak in school history and equal Belmont for the longest home court streak in the country ... The Bruins should extend that streak on Tuesday vs. Brescia (NAIA) before hosting VCU on Dec. 1.

> Mizzou has been very good at home under Head Coach Frank Haith's teams ... The Tigers are 36-1 at Mizzou Arena since 2011-12 and were a perfect 17-0 at home last season.

> Mizzou boasts a 140-21 (.870) record at home since the building opened in 2004-05 ... The Tigers are also 87-4 at home since 2008-09, amounting to an incredible .955 winning percentage.

> Non-conference opponents have not enjoyed their stops in Columbia, Mo., over the last few seasons and the Tigers have raced to an incredible 76 consecutive wins at home vs. non-league opposition since the end of the 2005-06 campaign ... Missouri's last non-conference loss at home came vs. Sam Houston State in the 2005 Preseason NIT, but since then, Missouri has gone nearly eight full seasons without a loss.

> Head Coach Gary Pinkel's club will face Texas A&M on Saturday for the SEC East crown ... If the Tigers win, they will face the winner of the No. 1 Alabama vs. No. 4 Auburn game on CBS on Dec. 7 in Atlanta.

> Between Mizzou Football (10-1), Mizzou Volleyball (33-0), Mizzou Basketball (4-0) and Mizzou Women's Basketball (5-0) the Tigers are an outstanding 52-1 this fall.

Rookie Rebounder

Johnathan Williams III (better known as J3) ripped down a career high 17 rebounds in the Nov. 23 win over Gardner-Webb ... The 6-foot-9 freshman grabbed more rebounds than any freshman thus far in College Basketball this season and the 17 rebounds were the most by a Tiger freshman since Arthur Johnson grabbed 19 in a win at Colorado during the 2000-01 campaign.

> The 17 boards are the second most in the SEC, just one behind the 18 grabbed by Tennessee junior Jarnell Stokes ... It must be something about Memphis Southwind High School, as both players attended the Tennessee high school powerhouse.

The Ninja Blender

Credit to Coach Barry Hinson (Southern Illinois Head Coach) on the nickname ... Jordan Clarkson scored a career high 31 points, the most by a Tiger since Marcus Denmon dropped in 31 vs. Northwestern State on Dec. 2, 2011, to lead Mizzou to a 72-59 win over SIU on Nov. 12 in Columbia.

> Clarkson was also just the third Tiger to have 30 points and five dimes in a game since 1994 ... The 30 and five effort has happened just 17 times in school history.

Backcourt Trio Leads Tigers

Missouri's veteran group of Jabari Brown, Jordan Clarkson and Earnest Ross have led the Tigers through four games, with the trio scoring 196 of the team's 325 points (60.3 percent) thus far.

> The group actually equaled Southern Illinois' offensive output on Nov. 12, scoring 59 points and dished a combined nine assists to help the Tigers to the 13-point win.

> Last Saturday vs. Hawaii the group combined to score 48 points and also added 13 rebounds and eight assists.

Clarkson Named SEC Player of the Week

Jordan Clarkson used a pair of big games to win SEC Player of the Week honors on Nov. 18 ... Clarkson opened the week with a career high 31 points vs. Southern Illinois, before dropping in 13 in the win over Hawaii at Kansas City's Sprint Center ... Clarkson also averaged 3.5 assists in the two wins.

Clark Named SEC Freshman Of The Week

Wes Clark was named the Southeastern Conference's Freshman of the Week on Nov. 11 after a tremendous all-around effort in his collegiate debut vs. Southeastern Louisiana.

> The Detroit, Mich., native scored 13 points, grabbed a game-high tying seven rebounds and dished four assists without committing a turnover in 26 minutes vs. the Lions.

Tigers Sign Another Top Class

Head Coach Frank Haith announced the signing of two high school standouts on Nov. 13 and Nov. 15 as Jakeenan Gant (Springfield, Ga. / Effingham County) and Namon Wright (Los Angeles, Calif. / Pacific Hills) inked with the Tigers.

Jakeenan Gant 6-8, 215 Pound Forward

A consensus Top 50 prospect in 2014, Gant is the top player in the state of Georgia and was the Georgia Class AAAAA Player of the Year in as a junior ...

Averaged 17.9 points, 9.3 rebounds and nearly 4.0 blocked shots per game as a junior, leading Effingham County to the Georgia Class AAAAA state semifinals ... Scored 30 points and grabbed nine rebounds in the semifinals.

Namon Wright 6-4, 175-Pound Guard

Selected Mizzou over hometown schools UCLA and USC and is one of the top players in California for the Class of 2014 ... Led Pacific Hills to the 2013 Division IV state championship, averaging 15.6 points, 7.3 rebounds and 3.1 assists ... Pacific Hills went 29-4 Wright's junior season and he is ranked the No. 60 player by Scout.com in the Class of 2014.

Brown, Ross Named All-SEC

Jabari Brown and Earnest Ross were named to the Preseason All-SEC Team by the league coaches on Nov. 8, with Brown earning a first team nod and Ross being selected to the second team.

> Brown averaged 13.7 points and 3.4 rebounds and started the season's final 23 games last season after becoming eligible following his transfer from Oregon. > Ross was the SEC's top bench scorer in 2012-13, averaging 11.0 points off the bench for the Tigers.

The Floor General, Wes Clark

Wes Clark has come a long way since committing six turnovers in the exhibition opener against Oklahoma City (Oct. 25) and in his last five outings, including the exhibition finale vs. Central Missouri, Clark has dished 13 assists while committing just six turnovers ... In those games Clark has played 101 minutes with the six miscues, including a career high five assists and eight points in the win against Hawaii, Clark's first game away from Mizzou Arena.

Interim Coaches at Mizzou

Mizzou Associate Head Coach Tim Fuller (4-0) will continue to lead the Missouri program for one more game after helping guide Mizzou to wins over Southeastern Louisiana (89-53), Southern Illinois (72-59), Hawaii (92-80) and Gardner-Webb (72-63).

> While the four games were Fuller's first as a head coach, it was not the first instance of an interim taking over at Mizzou ... The most notable interim head coach for the Tigers was Rich Daly, who went 9-5 in 1989 after Norm Stewart was diagnosed with cancer. > Daly's first game was memorable ... See if you can name owner of this quote: "Regardless of how terrible the officiating is, please don't throw things onto the floor."

> You guessed it, Oklahoma's Billy Tubbs ... No. 3 Mizzou fell to Tubbs' No. 5 Sooners 112-105 that night, but Daly won 93-80 the following game vs. Kansas and knocked off OU two times the rest of the year before advancing to the NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16.

> Melvin Watkins also served as interim head coach after Quin Snyder resigned in 2006 ... He defeated Kansas State 74-71 in his first game ... K-State's Head Coach for that Mizzou win, which came on Mizzou's 100-year celebration of intercollegiate basketball, was Jimmy Elgas, who subbed for Jim Wooldridge following neck surgery.

Coach	Year	Record	First Win
Rich Daly	1988-89	9-5	93-80 vs. Kansas
Melvin Watkins	2005-06	2-5	74-71 vs. K-State
Tim Fuller	2013-14	4-0	89-53 vs. SELA

Tiger Tandem Nearing 1,000 Career Points

Two Tiger transfers, Earnest Ross and Jordan Clarkson, are nearing the 1,000-point milestone for their careers ... Ross scored 498 points in two years at Auburn and dropped in 350 last season at Mizzou and needs just 100 more points to reach 1,000 for his career.

> Clarkson began his career at Tulsa and scored 821 points in two years and needs just 107 points as a junior to reach the milestone.

Player	Career Games	Career Points	Points Needed
Ross	101	900	100
Clarkson	62	893	107

Haith Begins His Third Season At Mizzou

Head Coach Frank Haith begins his third season on the sidelines at Missouri and has guided the Tigers to an impressive 53-16 mark in those two years ... Haith of course will miss the first five games of the season due to suspension, but he will coach his 200th career game and will coach game No. 200 next month when the Tigers open the 2013 Las Vegas Invitational.

> Haith has guided Missouri to back-to-back NCAA Tournaments and finished 2012-13 winning his first 50 games faster than any coach in MU history.

Six In A Row?

Missouri is looking for a school-record sixth consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament this season ... The Tigers have qualified for every Big Dance since 2009, a streak that began with an exciting run to the Elite Eight in Glendale, Ariz.

> Mizzou has only made five consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament once and that was 1986-90 ... A return this season would be uncharted waters for the Tigers.

Just One Starter Back... Again!

This is nothing new for Head Coach Frank Haith, his Tigers will have just one starter returning from an NCAA Tournament squad for the second consecutive year ... Last season Missouri returned only Phil Pressey from a 30-5 team and this year the lone regular starter back is Jabari Brown, who joined the squad mid-season due to NCAA transfer rules.

> Brown led Mizzou in scoring during SEC play last season, averaging 14.6 points on 38 percent three-point shooting ... Mizzou does have other double-figure scoring experience returning as Earnest Ross begins his senior campaign.

> Ross was one of six Tigers to average double figures last year, tops in the NCAA ranks, after recording norms of 10.3 points and 5.0 rebounds as the SEC's top scoring sub.

Transfers Good For Mizzou Hoops

Missouri fans know the value of quality four-year transfers and have enjoyed a number of great memories courtesy of some key "short-timers" over the last 15 years ... Missouri welcomes another quality newcomer this season, as Jordan Clarkson makes his Tiger debut this season ... In addition to Clarkson, Missouri has two other transfers expected to make key contributions this season, junior Jabari Brown and senior Earnest Ross.

> Below is a quick list of players that have finished their careers at Missouri over recent years and made big impacts in Black & Gold:

> Keion Bell, 2012-13 (Pepperdine)

Was one of the most consistent players in the Southeastern Conference in 2012-13 and averaged 14.0 points on 58 percent shooting to help Missouri reach the NCAA Tournament.

> Alex Oriakhi, 2012-13 (Connecticut)

Mizzou's enforcer in the middle, Oriakhi enjoyed a career year in his lone season at Mizzou, averaging 11.2 points and 8.4 rebounds.

> Zaire Taylor, 2008-10 (Delaware)

"Mr. Big Shot" hit game winners vs. Kansas, at Texas, Kansas State and at Iowa State over his two seasons at Mizzou.

> DeMarre Carroll, 2007-09 (Vanderbilt)

Mizzou's Junkyard Dog ... First Team All-Big 12, First Round NBA Draft Pick.

Jason Conley, 2003-05 (VMI)

Helped the Tigers to back-to-back postseason appearances.

Albert White, 1997-99 (Michigan)

Led Mizzou in scoring (16.3) and helped the club to the 1999 NCAA tournament.

Mizzou's Sixth Man Stars

Earnest Ross continued a nice trend for Missouri last season, leading all SEC bench players in scoring, averaging 10.3 points per game and 11.0 when coming off the pine ... That number was tops in the league among reserves and continued a trend started by Michael Dixon in 2011-12 ... Dixon led the nation with 13.5 points per game, the most by a non-starter.

> Ross is the lone player to average double figures off the bench in SEC play, with former Kentucky wing, Kyle Wiltjer, ranking just behind at 9.3 points per night ... Both Ross and Wiltjer came off the bench in 17-of-18 SEC games last year and Ross' lone start was at Ole Miss.

Going Streaking At Home...

Mizzou capped play at home with a perfect 17-0 mark last season and carries a 21-game home court winning streak during the 2013-14 campaign.

> The perfect home court record was the ninth undefeated home season since 1970 and Missouri joined Florida as the only SEC teams to go unbeaten at home last year.

> Overall, the 21-game home streak is the second-longest active streak in the country and is the sixth-longest streak in school history.

> Under Frank Haith's watch Missouri is a near-flawless 36-1 at Mizzou Arena.

Offensive Consistency For Mizzou

Missouri, Indiana, Creighton, Duke and Florida are the only schools to rank among the Top 20 in offensive efficiency the last two seasons, but only Mizzou has done it with a revamped roster of talent ... The Tigers led the country in offensive efficiency in 2011-12 paced by seniors Kim English, Marcus Denmon, Ricardo Ratliffe and then-sophomore Phil Pressey, but the Tigers were back to No. 18 last season with four new starters and the returning Pressey.

> Both Creighton and Indiana were back in the Top 20 of offensive efficiency thanks to the return of four starters and both Duke and Florida has three starters back from its team a season ago.

NOTING MIZZOU HEAD COACH FRANK HAITH

Head Coach Frank Haith begins his third season at the University of Missouri after leading the Tigers to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances and transitioning the program into its new home, the Southeastern Conference.

The winningest coach at Missouri through his first two seasons (53-16, .768), Haith has made an immediate impact at Mizzou, not only with his club's efforts on the hardwood, but his commitment to the program's academic advancement and his support of the Columbia community.

Last year en route to Mizzou's fifth consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament, Haith's Tigers enjoyed a record-breaking team cumulative GPA of 3.06 and had three players, including starters Jabari Brown and Laurence Bowers, named to the SEC Winter Honor Roll. Bowers later became the first-ever Missouri Basketball player to finish his playing career with a Master's degree and Haith's time at Mizzou has resulted in 9-of-10 seniors earning degrees. In the community, Haith has been an active fundraiser for the Boys & Girls Club of Columbia and serves on the Coaches vs. Cancer leadership council. Coaches vs. Cancer was of course co-founded by Mizzou legend Norm Stewart. Haith was also a 2012 recipient of the Key to the City of St. Louis from Mayor Francis Slay and was honored by his alma mater, Elon, as the 2012 Eugene Perry Distinguished Alumnus, and was tapped into the Mizzou Omicron Delta Kappa leadership society for his efforts mentoring student-athletes.

While Haith has shown an incredible ability to be well-rounded outside of basketball, it has been his team's play on the court that has led to record-breaking attendance marks at Mizzou Arena the last two seasons. Last year he became the fastest Tiger head coach to 50 wins and has worked diligently to revamp a roster that has completely transformed in just two years.

Last season Missouri was the lone college basketball program to advance to NCAA Tournament play with just one returning starter and Haith will look to duplicate that feat once more this season with just one starter, Jabari Brown, back from last year's 23-11 campaign.

"I was really proud of that team last year because we had so many new parts, including on our coaching staff, but those who know me understand I am never satisfied and always want to achieve more," Haith said. "We are going to continue to develop a program that our fans and our state can identify with. We want this program to have that same blue-collar mentality that Coach Stewart brought and I feel like that's starting to take shape."

During last season's NCAA Tournament run Missouri enjoyed its second undefeated season in Mizzou Arena history, going 17-0 at home with wins over a pair of nationally-ranked opponents, including No. 5 Florida. In fact under Haith Missouri is an outstanding 9-4 vs. Top 25 teams including a 5-3 mark vs. the Top 10.

That performance came on the heels of a 30-5 inaugural season in Columbia.

Picked fourth in the Big 12 Conference pre-season coaches' poll, Missouri won a school-record 14 league games, and finished second in the conference standings with a 14-4 mark. The Tigers won the school's final Big 12 Tournament Championship with a 3-0 run in Kansas City, before advancing to the NCAA Tournament.

With that record-setting first season in the books, Haith received recognition in the form of numerous coaching accolades, including the prestigious Henry Iba National Coach of the Year honor, as well as the Associated Press National Coach of the Year. He was also named the Big 12 Coach of the Year and was the U.S. Basketball Writers Association District VI Coach of the Year. As a first-year coach, Haith guided his team to more regular season wins than any other Mizzou coach before him and became the first Tiger head coach since 1920-21 to win his first 14 games.

"It has been a special two years here and the future is only going to get brighter," Haith said. "Anytime you take over a program there is a process you need to follow to build a recruiting base, build your brand and most importantly, build the support of your fans. That has taken place here quickly and I'm really excited about the long-term future of Mizzou Basketball."

The 27-year coaching veteran was hired at Missouri on April 5, 2011, and immediately appreciated the Tiger's passionate fan base. The Burlington, N.C., native came from the University of Miami where he was not only forced to instill a winning mentality to his players and supporters, but do it at a university void of any lengthy basketball tradition.

Haith's task at the University of Miami was monumental, but his process of building a well-rounded program certainly helped turn around the fortunes of the Hurricanes last season, which had the most experienced team in the country with a host of fifth-year and sixth-year seniors, each recruited by Haith.

In his first of seven seasons as the head coach, Haith guided the 'Canes to seven ACC victories (despite being picked last) and qualified for postseason play. He was recognized by being named a Naismith National Coach of the Year finalist and NABC District 6 Coach of the Year.

Miami returned to postseason play the following year. The Hurricanes won 18 more games and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NIT, recording the program's first postseason wins since 2000. Over his final four seasons, Haith's Miami squad averaged 21 wins per season, with four consecutive postseason trips.

Postseason success was a theme under Haith. His teams won six total games in the NCAA and National Invitation tournaments, including a memorable run to the second round of the Big Dance in 2008. The 'Canes went 23-11 in Haith's fourth season, just one win shy of the school record and he was named a finalist for ACC Coach of the Year and the Skip Prosser Man of the Year honors.

And it's not just on the hardwood where Haith has fueled incredible growth amongst his players. During his time at both Missouri and Miami his players were visible in the community and Haith has seen an incredible 31-of-33 seniors to play for him walked across the stage to receive a diploma.

"That's my proudest moment," Haith said. "To know we churn out young men, ready to make positive contributions in the community, ready to be great fathers and husbands. That's what coaching at the college level is all about."

It's not an accident Frank Haith was hired as the 17th basketball coach at Mizzou. The grind from student-assistant at Elon College to being named the National Recruiter of the Year by Rivals.com doesn't just happen without a dedication to family, career and your student-athletes.

Haith paid his own way through Elon and graduated in 1988. He helped the Fighting Christians twice win 20 games and earned the opportunity to cut his teeth at perennial power Wake Forest the following year as a graduate assistant. His first full-time coaching position at Division I came at UNC-Wilmington from 1990-92 and he laid the foundation for his job at Missouri with a three-year stop at Texas A&M from 1992-95, which included helping the Aggies reach postseason play in 1994.

One of 10 siblings, family will always be first for Frank Haith, and his student-athletes are part of that family. A proud father and husband, Frank and his wife Pam are the parents of two children, Corey and Brianna and his son is entering his second year with the Mizzou program this season.
