AT THE POLLS

Mizzou has climbed into the latest National Collegiate Baseball Writers' Association Top 35, coming in at No. 24. The Tigers have been receiving votes in the poll for the past three weeks, but this is their first ranking of the season.

LIGHTING UP THE SCOREBOARD

Missouri has outscored its opponents 260-68 this season and has recorded double-digits in runs in 15 of its 24 games. That includes a stretch of nine straight games with at least 10 runs from March 6-March 20.

The Tigers are averaging near 11 runs a game, while holding its opponents to under three runs per outing. Earlier this year, MU outscored North Dakota State 55-4 in a four-game series and the previous week, it swept a three-games series from Youngstown State by a combined score of 42-2.

If MU was to maintain its current scoring pace, it would finish the regular season with 606 runs. The school record for runs in a season is 573, set in 1998.

ZEROS ACROSS THE BOARD

Hidden behind the high scoring offense the Tigers have had this season, is some impressive pitching outings for Mizzou this season. MU has a 2.12 ERA heading into this Wednesday, which leads the Big 12 Conference.

The Tigers have already recorded five shutouts this season. They had five all of last season

MU had stretch of 26 innings of shutout ball from March 14 (vs. Youngstown State) to March 19 (vs. North Dakota State). Earlier this season the Tigers put together 23-innings of not allowing a run.

BEHIND THE STREAK

To say that the Tigers have been dominate during the current 12-game winning streak would be an understatement.

Over the past 12 games, MU has outscored its opponents 122-16. It has hit .308, while holding the opponents to a .176 batting average. Mizzou's slugging percentage is .437 and its on-base percentage is .473. Opponents are slugging .214 with a .258 on-base percentage.

The MU pitchers' ERA is 1.30 during the streak, as compared to 10.33 for the opposition. While Tiger pitchers have thrown just two wild pitches in the 12 games, their opponents have had 20. Seven opposing batters have been hit by a pitch during the streak, while 34 Tigers have reached on an HBP.

BOONE DOCKS

Junior James Boone leads the team with 43 RBI on the year and is on pace to break the Mizzou school record for RBI in a season. He is on pace to finish with 101 for the season.

The record at Missouri is 101 set by Aaron Jaworowski in 1996.

Boone was named the Big 12 Conference Player of the Week on March 15 after hitting an astonishing .786 (11-for-14) in Mizzou's four games the previous week.

It was the second Big 12 Player of the Week honor for Boone in his career, as he earned the award almost a year ago to the day, March 16, 2004.

Included in his 11 hits during that week were a home run, a triple and a double. He drove in 13 runs in the four games.

Boone is tied for the team lead with four home runs on the year and has seven doubles and two triples. He is also a perfect 8-for-8 in stolen base attempts. He had a season-best 12-game hitting streak snapped in the final game against North Dakota State, when he walked three times and was hit by a pitch once.

HITS KEEP ON COMING

Junior Derek Chambers carries a nine-game hitting streak into Wednesday's game with SLU. Chambers has also had a pair of five-game hitting streaks already this season.

The longest hitting streak of the season for the Tigers was Junior James Boone's 12-game streak earlier this month.

T-G-I-PRIDAY

Freshman Jacob Priday is tied for the team lead with four home runs on the season and is second with 29 RBI. He has had three games with four-RBI this year.

In the four games against Eastern Michigan March 4-6, Priday homered three times, scored five runs and drove in six.

Priday had an eight-game hitting streak in tact at one point this season.

THE HITTING CHAMBERS

Junior Derek Chambers leads Mizzou with 10 multi-hit games (seven 2-hit games and three 3-hit games) and carries a nine-game hitting streak into the week. He has started 20 of MU's 21 games at first base and is hitting .363 in his first season at Mizzou. Chambers, a junior college transfer from Arkansas-Fort Smith, has had a hit in all but four games this year.

FRIDAY THE 13TH

On March 4, sophomore Max Scherzer set a career-high with 13 strikeouts, becoming the first MU pitcher with a double-digit strikeout performance since Danny Hill had 11 against Chicago State last March.

Scherzer did not allow a run in six innings, getting strikeouts for 13 of the 18 outs he recorded. It was the second consecutive start in which he did not allow a run as he moved to 2-1 on the season.

He has won each of his last five starts and is 5-1 on the year with a 1.21 ERA and 54 strikeouts. He had a second 10+ strikeout performance, as he sat down 11 North Dakota State batters on March 18.

RECORD SETTING DAY AGAINST NAVY

The Tigers opened up the Service Academy Classic with a blowout victory over Navy, 25-2. The 25 runs were the most scored by Missouri since a 30-0 win against Truman State in 2003.

MU also set a new record in the 17 years of the Service Academy Spring Classic with its run total, easily passing the old record of 15 set by Ole' Miss in 1998.

Mizzou set a new school record with 26 hits vs. Navy. Eleven Tigers had a hit in the game and nine had at least two hits.

Freshman Jacob Priday became the first MU player since 2002 to have five hits in the game, going 5-for-6 with a home run, four RBI and four runs scored. The hits were the first of Priday's career, as he entered the game 0-for-5 on the season.

MILLINGTON: MU'S TITLETOWN

For the second time in two seasons, the Mizzou baseball team traveled to Millington, Tenn. and took home a tournament title.

Mizzou was 2-1 at the Service Academy Spring Classic at USA Stadium in Millington last month and claimed championship honors.

After defeating Navy 25-2 and Indiana State 10-1, MU fell to Memphis by a score of 7-6. Despite the loss to Memphis, Missouri held the tiebreakers and was named the champion.

Last season, the Tigers were 4-0 and took home the championship of the Easton USA Challenge, also held at USA Stadium.

The Tigers had wins over Wake Forest, Indiana State, Tennessee-Martin and Memphis to claim the 2004 Easton USA Challenge title.

JAMIESON JOINS MU COACHING LEGENDS

Tim Jamieson is in his 11th season as the head coach of the Tigers, having compiled a record of 344-243-2 while at MU.

Last season he became just the third coach in Mizzou history to reach 300 wins, joining John "Hi" Simmons and Gene McArtor, who both have their numbers retired and are members of the MU Athletics Hall of Fame.

Jamieson has the third longest tenure of any coach currently at Missouri. Track and field coach Rick McGuire is in his 22nd year at MU and swimming and diving coach Brian Hoffer has been at Mizzou for 13 seasons.

NO PLACE LIKE HOME

With its 7-1 win over Eastern Michigan on March 4, Mizzou improved to 8-3 under Head Coach Tim Jamieson in home openers. Last season, MU fell to Youngstown State, 3-2 in the first home game of the season. Prior to that, it had won three straight home openers.

FOR OPENERS

With the 8-3 win over Portland on Feb. 10, MU extended its winning streak in season openers to three. MU Head Coach Tim Jamieson is 6-3-1 at Missouri in season openers.

THE VALLEY OF THE SUN...YEAH RIGHT!

For the second time in three seasons, Mizzou had weather issues cause havoc with its season-opening tournament in Phoenix, Ariz.

The Tigers were only able to get in one of their scheduled four games of last week's tournament due to persistent rain showers in the Phoenix area.

MU defeated Portland 8-3 on Thursday in the season opener. Senior Erik Dessau pitched six shutout innings, allowing just three hits and striking out four to get the victory.

Missouri's games on Friday, Saturday and Sunday were all cancelled due to rain showers.

In 2003, MU was only able to play two games in Phoenix instead of the scheduled four games of the tournament.
