UMASS FOOTBALL GAME WEEK

COACH AND STUDENT-ATHLETE INTERVIEWS

The University of Massachusetts Athletic Communications Office organizes all interviews for the football program, its coaches, student-athletes and administrative support staff. Interview requests should be submitted to primary contact Dan Colleran (dcolleran@umass.edu or 574-339-9810). Please submit interview requests ahead of the expected interview time, preferably 24 hours notice, to give the staff the time needed to organize the interview. Personal phone numbers for student-athletes, coaches or administrators will not be provided to the media.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Please submit all game credential requests for contests at McGuirk Alumni Stadium by visiting UMassAthletics.com/credentials. This includes media passes for the press box and sidelines as well as scouting credentials. Media credential requests for UMass road games should be placed through the hosting institution's communications office.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

Coverage of football practice stipulates consent with restrictions on reporting formations, strategies, special personnel shifts or injuries without prior questions directed to and answered by head coach Don Brown. Live reporting on team practices, including discussion on formations, plays and injuries, via social media channels or any other outlet is not allowed at any time. Parties breaking the above media restrictions are subject to credential revocation for the 2023 season.

AUDIO, VIDEO & IMAGERY USAGE BY MEDIA

Usage of imagery, audio and video taken at University of Massachusetts Athletics events is restricted to editorial purposes. These guidelines are covered in materials issued to reporters, editors and photographers upon receipt of credentials and/or access. They include guidelines on live Internet reporting, notably live description of statistical and/or play-by-play and uses of visual imagery, rules strengthened for televised games.

FACILITY ACCESS FOR MEDIA

The team locker room, sports medicine suite and strength and conditioning center are closed to the media.

UMASS FOOTBALL GAME NOTES AND STORYLINES

SERIES HISTORY

Missouri and Massachusetts will be meeting for the first time on Saturday, with the game marking the front half of a home-and-home series between the two teams.

It will be the first of three SEC matchup for the Minutemen this season, with trips to Mississippi State (Nov. 2) and Georgia (Nov. 23) also on the horizon.

THE CENTURY MARK...

Don Brown posted his 100th career win as a collegiate head coach in the victory over Central Connecticut State University (Sept. 21).

Brown's career total includes wins at Plymouth State, Northeastern and the University of Massachusetts.

QUICK HITS

Massachusetts ranks tied for 41st in FBS (of 133 ranked) in total defense, allowing 324.2 yards per game.

The Minutemen rank fourth in the country in average time of possession (34:10).

In the FBS, UMass ranks tied with Minnesota for 38th with 119 first downs on the season.

The Minutemen are tied for 19th in FBS with four turnovers lost on the season, while their one fumble lost is tied for sixth (Missouri is also among that group with one fumble lost this season).

Taisun Phommachanh ranks fourth among FBS quarterbacks with 290 yards after contact when rushing the ball, trailing only John Mateer of Washington State (427 yards), Diego Pavia of Vanderbilt (322) and Tyler Huff of Jacksonville State (294).

Five Minutemen have rushed for a touchdown this season, including CJ Hester (2), Taisun Phommachanh (1), Jalen John (1), Brandon Campbell (1) and Jackson Paradis (1).

CONTROLLING THE CLOCK

Massachusetts ranks fourth in FBS in average time of possession (34:10), trailing only Oregon State (36:37), Utah (35:27), and Army West Point (34:19). This week's opponent, Missouri, ranks 10th (33:27).

In total time of possession, UMass (205:02 minutes) ranks first, with the Miami Hurricanes (204:46) in second (both teams have played six games).

JK-J

Graduate student wide receiver Jakobie Keeney-James has stepped up for the Minutemen this season. He put together a career day at Miami (Ohio) on September 28, totaling a career-high 150 yards receiving on four catches, including a 66-yard touchdown. His 66-yard grab was also a career long.

Keeney-James has two 100-plus yard receiving games this season and his 150 at Miami were the most by a Minuteman since Andy Isabella had 303 yards against Liberty on November 3, 2018.

For the season Keeney-James, a native from Redlands, California, has played all six games while catching 24 passes for 462 yards and three touchdowns. His 462 yards rank 31st in FBS, while his 77.0 receiving yards per game rank 49th in FBS.

MINUTEMEN IN THE NFL

Former cornerback Isaiah Rodgers (2016-19) signed with the Eagles after three seasons with Indianapolis. After working back from a broken hand suffered in the preseason, Rodgers made his season debut against Tampa Bay on Sept. 29 and chipped in with a solo tackle and a blocked kick.

Former running back Ellis Merriweather (2020-22) was elevated to the Packers' active roster from the practice squad ahead of their season opener against the Eagles in São Paulo, Brazil. It was his first career regular season game on an active NFL roster, but he did not appear in the contest.

Former long snapper Evan Deckers (2018-21) won the Tampa Bay Buccaneers job out of camp and made his season debut in week one but was placed on the IR before week five.

Former defensive back Josh Wallace (2019-22) signed with Los Angeles Rams as a free agent after he graduated from UMass and spent his final season of eligibility with Michigan (2023). He made his debut on Oct. 6 against the Packers and totaled a pair of solo tackles.

Former offensive lineman Elijah Wilkinson (2013-16) is on the practice squad for the Atlanta Falcons.

The NFL coaching ranks also include a lot of former Minutemen, including Tampa Bay Offensive Coordinator Liam Cohen (2004-08) and Chiefs Defensive Line Coach Joe Cullen (1986-89).

RECEIVING OPPORTUNITIES

Wide receivers Jakobie Keeney-James (GS) and Jacon Gibson (R-So.) stepped up for the Minutemen to turn in career-best days in the loss at Toledo.

Keeney-James caught six passes for 93 yards and a touchdown, which was his first as a Minuteman and the fifth of his career. His six receptions marked a career-high total.

Gibson hauled in a career-high six receptions to go along with a career-high 72 yards while also grabbing a career-long 39-yard reception in the second quarter (previous long was a 29-yard catch against Arkansas State on Nov. 11, 2022).

DUDES WITH DEGREES

Thirty-two Minutemen open the season having already earned undergraduate degrees. Seven of the 32 have degrees from UMass including Josh Atwood, Ethan Mottinger, Aaron Beckwith, Zukudo Igwenagu, Te'Rai Powell, Tyler Rudolph and Myles Turner.

Additional players with undergraduate degrees include Will Jones, Luke Painton, Brayden Rohme, Paul Tchio, Sterling Galban, Jakobie

BORN AND BRED IN THE COMMONWEALTH

This season's rosters features 27 student-athletes from the Commonwealth of Massachusetts

GET SOME #MACTION

The University of Massachusetts accepted an invitation to join the Mid-American Conference (MAC) as a full member, beginning on July 1, 2025.

The move will bring the MAC's membership to 13 institutions as UMass will join Akron, Ball State, Bowling Green, Buffalo, Central Michigan, Eastern Michigan, Kent State, Miami (Ohio), Northern Illinois, Ohio, Toledo and Western Michigan

Massachusetts was a football only affiliate member of the MAC from 2012-2015.

Massachusetts will compete in the Mid-American Conference in baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, field hockey, football, men's and women's indoor/outdoor track & field, women's lacrosse, women's soccer, softball, women's swimming and diving and women's tennis. UMass will also compete in rowing, which was recently added by the MAC.

TRIVIA

Entering week seven, UMass is the most recent team to defeat currently undefeated Army West Point (21-14 on Oct. 28, 2023 at Michie Stadium).

Entering week seven, the Minutemen are also the most recent team to defeat now Vanderbilt starting quarterback Diego Pavia as a starter at home (41-30 on Aug. 26, 2023 when he started for New Mexico State at Aggie Memorial Stadium).

PASS DEFENSE

The Massachusetts defense is holding opponents to 162.3 passing yards per game, which ranks 19th in the FBS, just behind No. 18 Oregon (162.0) and ahead of No. 20 Kentucky (166.0).

The Minutemen posted four pass breakups against CCSU, marking their third game of the season with at least four pass breakups (also had vs. Eastern Michigan on Aug. 31 and nine at Toledo on Sept. 7). Massachusetts has totaled 21 pass breakups on the season, led by Tyler Rudolph (3) and Tim Grant-Randall (3). Isaiah Rutherford came up with UMass' most recent interception when he picked off Ethan Hampton of Northern Illinois on Oct. 5 for his first pick of the season and second of his career.

Jalen Harrell (at Miami on Sept. 28) and Ryan Barnes (vs. CCSU on Sept. 21) have each recorded their first career interceptions this season.

MINUTEMAN IN MEMORIAM: GREG LANDRY

Former Massachusetts all-time great quarterback Greg Landry passed away on Friday, Oct. 4 at 77 years old. Behind Landry's golden arm and running ability, UMass won two Yankee Conference Championships in his three seasons as a starter. Landry led UMass in passing all three of his seasons and led the Minutemen in both rushing and scoring in 1965 and 1967.

The Detroit Lions selected Landry with the 11th pick of the 1968 NFL draft and he went on to have a successful 14-year pro career with the Lions and the Baltimore Colts from 1968-81. He then spent two seasons in the USFL before returning to the NFL to play one game for the Chicago Bears.

Landry was an All-Pro for the Lions in 1971 and started for the NFC in the Pro Bowl. He totaled 16,052 passing yards in his NFL career with 98 touchdowns and 103 interceptions. He also gained more than 2,600 yards on the ground with 21 TDs. In 1976, he earned the NFL's Comeback Player of the Year award after passing for 2,191 yards and 17 TDs.

Landry served as an assistant coach for his former team, the Detroit Lions, after spending several years on the coaching staff at the University of Illinois. He was the offensive coordinator for the Chicago Bears when they won Super Bowl XX. Landry was one of six Minutemen named to the Yankee Conference 50th Anniversary team, announced in June of 1996, and he was inducted into the UMass Athletics Hall of Fame in 1980.

COACHING AT THE ALMA MATER

UMass employs two alums in full-time coaching roles in 2024, including assistant head coach/special teams coordinator/defensive lines coach, Ben Albert, and associate head coach/offensive line coach, Alex Miller.

Albert is a 1995 graduate of the University of Massachusetts and was an All-Conference defensive lineman. During the 2002 and 2003 seasons, he served as the inside linebackers coach and special teams coordinator, where he aided the Minutemen to the 2003 Atlantic 10 Conference championship.

Miller developed into one of the most celebrated offensive linemen during his playing days at Massachusetts. His four years starting on the line culminated with multiple first team all-America awards following the team's appearance in the 2006 National Championship Game. Miller cemented his legacy as a durable and reliable centerpiece for the Minutemen with starts in all 50 games played during the 2003-06 seasons.

An additional coaching staff member earned a degree from UMass in Graduate Assistant Garrett Dzuro '23.

COMMONWEALTH CONNECTION

Redshirt senior Zukudo Igwenagu is the cousin of former Minuteman Emil Igwenagu '12.

Emil was a fullback and tight end for the program from 2008-2011. He served as a team captain in both the 2010 and 2011 seasons, and was named to the CAA All-Conference First Team (2011) and the CAA Academic All-Conference Team (2009).

In the postseason following his senior season, Emil competed in both the East-West Shrine Bowl and became the sixth player in program history to play in the Senior Bowl (2012). The former Minuteman went undrafted in 2012 and was part of the Philadelphia Eagles organization.

HALL OF FAME BALLOT

Former Massachusetts football running back Rene Ingoglia was named to the 2025 ballot for induction into the College Football Hall of Fame the National Football Foundation (NFF) & College Hall of Fame (June 3). He was previously named to the 2024 ballot.

Ingoglia became the school and Yankee Conference's all-time leading career rusher with 4,623 yards after he ran for 656 yards during his rookie year, 1,284 yards as a sophomore, 1,505 yards as a junior and 1,178 yards as a senior.

Ingoglia closed out four years of dominance with 10 program records and a pair of the Yankee Conference's top statistical marks. He was the first UMass player in history to average more than 100 rushing yards per game over a career (112.8), posted 21 career 100-plus yard games, three career 200-plus yard performances and outrushed the entire opposing team 18 times in his career.

Following his college career, Ingoglia played parts of three NFL seasons (1996-98) with the Buffalo Bills and the Washington Redskins. He then competed for the Frankfurt Galaxy of NFL Europe in 1999, where he helped the team to the World Bowl Championship.

Ingoglia, a current ESPN analyst, finished his collegiate career as one of the top running backs in school history and was a two-time All-America selection (1994 and 1995) and a three-time All-Yankee Conference selection.

UMASS HALL OF FAME

A two-sport standout and four-year scholarship student-athlete in football Dennis Fenton was announced that he will be a George "Trigger" Burke Hall of Fame Class of 2024 inductee.

Fenton started at defensive tackle for three years, while spending his winters on the wrestling mat, where he was a four-time Division I New England champion at heavyweight from 1974-77.

On the gridiron, he was a two-time All-Yankee Conference and All-ECAC honoree (1975 & 1976) and was a three-time Yankee Conference heavyweight champion (1975-77). A four-time New England Champion and NCAA Qualifier, Fenton helped UMass capture the 1974 New England wrestling title. After earning his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1977, he signed as a free agent with the New England Patriots in 1977 and the Cleveland Browns in 1978. Fenton joins 34 former football players to be inducted into the Hall of Fame, including 11 Minutemen who played two or more sports during their time at UMass.

Additionally, Bill DeFlavio '72 and Tom Mullen '73 will receive the Martin Jacobson '68, 19H Distinguished Alumni Award at this year's ceremony.

Affectionally known as "Billy D" DeFlavio was a football player at the University of Massachusetts from 1969 to 1971, going from walk-on to first team All-American. An undersized defensive lineman, DeFlavio earned first team All-Yankee Conference honors three times. He was named All-East as both a junior and senior in 1970 and 1971. As a senior in 1971, he became UMass' sixth First Team All-American. DeFlavio led UMass to two Yankee Conference championships in 1969 and 1971. In his era, sacks and tackles for loss weren't kept, but accounts of the games indicate he would have been a team leader in both categories. After his UMass playing days were over, DeFlavio went on to play professionally in the World Football League with New York and Charlotte and in the Canadian Football League with Montreal.

UMASS FOOTBALL 2024 GAME RECAPS

GAME ONE: EASTERN MICHIGAN 28, UMASS 14

Massachusetts made it a 14-7 game in the second half, but was unable to get any closer, falling 28-14 in its season opener at McGuirk Alumni Stadium (12,810) on Saturday, Aug. 31.

Taisun Phommachanh was 20-for-30 with 177 yards through the air and led UMass in rushing with 57, which included a career-best 31-yard run.

Jalen John ran for 53 yards on 14 carries and picked up his first collegiate touchdown. CJ Hester had 36 yards on the ground and a TD in his UMass debut.

Derrieon Craig and Te'Rai Powell each had seven tackles to lead the Minutemen and Tim Grant-Randall recorded a pair of pass breakups.

GAME TWO: TOLEDO 38, UMASS 23

Massachusetts made it a one-point game, 17-16, with six minutes to play in the third quarter but Toledo responded and ultimately pulled away for a 38-23 win at the Glass Bowl (21,688).

Jakobie Keeney-James and Jacquon Gibson led the way on offense, registering career-best games. Keeney-James recorded his first receiving touchdown as a Minuteman and caught a career-high six receptions for 93 yards. Gibson hauled in six passes of his own for a career best with a career-high 72 yards receiving, which included a career-long 39-yard catch.

Quarterback Taisun Phommachanh threw for 259 yards on 26-for-40 passing with a touchdown and an interception. Phommachanh added 44-yards rushing on 22 carries, scoring a touchdown on the run.

For the UMass defense, Jaylen Hudson totaled five tackles, while six Minutemen tallied three. Derrieon Craig had a team-high two solo tackles, as Craig and Te'Rai Powell had 0.5 tackles for loss each.

As a team, Massachusetts came away with nine pass breakups and held Rockets quarterback Tucker Gleason to an 8-for-23 mark (175 yards).

GAME THREE: BUFFALO 34, UMASS 3

The Minutemen dropped a 34-3 decision to Buffalo on Saturday, Sept. 14 at UB Stadium (15,204). The Bulls led 10-3 at the half, but created separation in the third quarter with a 100-yard interception return for a touchdown.

Quarterback Taisun Phommachanh threw for 121 yards on 14-for-29 passing with an interception. Phommachanh also ran for two yards on nine attempts. Jacquon Gibson led the Minutemen offense with 58 yards on four receptions, including a 24-yard catch.

For the UMass defense, Gerrell Johnson totaled eight tackles, with six assisted. Derrieon Craig had a team-best six solo tackles and assisted with one for a total of seven, while adding a fumble recovery, a quarterback hurry and pass breakup. Louce Julien also forced a fumble, while Tyler Rudolph had a pass breakup. The Minutemen played without starters Anthony Simpson (WR), Dominick Mazotti (TE), Luke Painton (OL) and Aaron Beckwith (DL) due to injury.

GAME FOUR: UMASS 35, CCSU 31

Massachusetts posted a 35-31 Homecoming win over Central Connecticut State on Saturday afternoon at McGuirk Alumni Stadium (10,847).

In a back-and-forth contest, the Minutemen went up for good at 9:18 of the fourth quarter on a 3-yard Brandon Campbell touchdown rush. Defensive back Leonard St. Gourdin had two key pass breakups down the stretch, including one on fourth down with 1:28 to play, as the UMass defense put the game away. It marked Don Brown's 100th career win as a head coach.

Quarterback Taisun Phommachanh finished the day 20-for-30 through the air with three touchdowns and added 43 yards on the ground. Wide receiver Jakobie Keeney-James finished the day with five catches for 95 yards and a touchdown.

On defense, the Minutemen held CCSU to a 2-for-11 mark on third down and 90 yards rushing. Tim Grant-Randall finished with a team-high five tackles, while Ryan Barnes posted his first career interception.

GAME FIVE: MIAMI (OH) 23, UMASS 20 (OT)

The Minutemen took the lead late but ultimately dropped a 23-20 overtime decision at Miami (Ohio) at Yager Stadium (9,542) on a rainy Saturday afternoon (Sept. 28).

Tied at 17-17, UMass took over possession with 6:13 left in the fourth quarter and drove 59 yards in 11 plays to set Jacob Lurie up for a 23-yard field goal, which he hit with 40 seconds remaining in the fourth. Miami answered with a field goal as time expired to force overtime, where a UMass field goal went wide, and Miami then kicked the game winner (43 yards).

Jakobie Keeney-James accumulated a career-high 150 yards receiving, including a career-long 64-yard grab, on four catches and a touchdown.

Quarterback Taisun Phommachanh was 9-for-22 on passing for 173 yards and a touchdown. Phommachanh was the leading rusher with 80 yards on 18 carries. CJ Hester followed with 63 yards rushing, including a 23-yard run, on 14 attempts with a touchdown of his own.

On defense, Jalen Stewart tallied a team-high eight tackles with one tackle for loss and a 0.5 sack. Gerrell Johnson and Etinosa Reuben had seven tackles each, while Reuben recorded two tackles for loss for nine yards, with a sack for eight yards. Jalen Harrell came away with UMass' lone interception for the first of his career and added a pass breakup.

GAME SIX: NORTHERN ILLINOIS 34, UMASS 20

Despite a career receiving game by T.Y. Harding, the University of Massachusetts football team was stymied on the road, 34-20, by Northern Illinois on Saturday, Oct. 5 at Huskie Stadium (12,466).

After it was tied at 13-13 at the end of the third quarter, the Huskies were able to pull away late with a strong rushing attack in the second half.

Harding and Jakobie Keeney-James led the UMass receivers with four receptions each for 116 yards and 85 yards, respectively, which included a career-long 58-yard catch for Harding. Harding added two touchdowns on the day, for the first time in his career, to go along with his career-high receiving yards. CJ Hester led on the ground with a career-best 71 yards on 15 carries.

Quarterback Taisun Phommachanh was 15-for-30 on passing for 263 yards and two touchdowns. Phommachanh also ran for 27 yards on 13 carries.

On defense, Jalen Stewart recorded a team-leading 14 tackles with five solo and nine assisted. His 14 tackles mark the first time since 2022 a Minuteman posted 10 or more tackles in a game.

Louce Julien followed with eight total tackles and had a quarterback hurry. Christian LeBrun had one sack for a one-yard tackle for loss. Donovan Dyson scooped his first fumble recovery of his career, while Isaiah Rutherford came away with his second career interception, and first of the season.

HEAD COACH DON BROWN

THIRD SEASON AT MASSACHUSETTS (SECOND STINT) // NORWICH '77

Highly respected football coach and iconic defensive mind Don Brown returned to the University of Massachusetts football program for his second stint as head coach on November 22, 2021, and the 2024 season marks Brown's third season back in Amherst.

Brown, who previously led the Minutemen to the winningest five-year stretch in program history from 2004 to 2008, is known for his aggressive and blitz-heavy attack on defense and has nearly 47 years of coaching experience to his credit.

Last season, Brown ushered in the next steps for the program as the Minutemen posted three wins against the nation's 44th-toughest schedule including road triumphs at New Mexico State and at Army. It was the first time since 2018 that UMass posted at least three wins in a season and the first time since 2015 the team posted multiple road victories.

The continued year-two growth under Brown was keyed by progress on offense, with the Minutemen improving to 23.2 points per game in 2023, which marked over 85 percent improvement from the season before. Kay/Ron Lynch-Adams rushed for 1,157 yards on 236 attempts and 12 touchdowns. Lynch-Adams became the second UMass player (behind Ellis Merriweather) to achieve 1,000-plus rushing yards in a season in the FBS era, and first player with Brown at the helm.

At the conclusion of the 2023 season, 10 of Brown's players were placed on Phil Steele's 2023 Postseason All-Independent Conference Team, including Lynch-Adams (First Team RB), Anthony Simpson (First Team WR), Cole Garcia (First Team OG), Gino Campiotti (Second Team TE), Josh Atwood (Second Team C), Billy Wooden (First Team DT), JB Brown (Second Team DE), Tyler Rudolph (Second Team S), Greg Desrosiers Jr. (Second Team KR) and Ethan Dumont (Second Team LS).

In his first season back at UMass, the Spencer, Massachusetts, native began his rebuild by turning the 130th-ranked defense into the 55th-ranked defense in FBS. Following the 2022 season, seven of his players were named to Phil Steele's 2022 Postseason All-Independent Conference Team, including Merriweather (Second Team RB), Josiah Johnson (Second Team TE), Jalen Mackie (First Team LB), Jordan Mahoney (First Team CB), Marcus Cushnie (Second Team DE), Rudolph (Second Team S) and Desrosiers Jr. (Second Team KR). Merriweather went on to sign with the New Orleans Saints following the NFL Draft and also spent time on the Green Bay Packers' practice squad throughout the year.

Before returning to Massachusetts, Brown spent the previous 13 years guiding defenses at Maryland, Connecticut, Boston College, Michigan and the University of Arizona, where he served as the Wildcats' defensive coordinator during the 2021 season.

While at Michigan, the Wolverines finished among the top-12 units in the nation in total defense from 2016-2019, which included a No. 1 ranking in 2016. Under Brown's watch, the Wolverines led the country in pass defense twice, once in 2016 again in 2017. Michigan made 16 top-25 appearances in total defense, scoring defense, rush defense, and pass defense during the 2016-2019 stretch.

During his time with Michigan, Brown's student-athletes earned 49 All-Big Ten recognitions, with 43-of-44 starters earning all-conference honors as well as 10 players that picked up 14 first team nods.

Prior to his four years in Ann Arbor, Brown spent three seasons as the defensive coordinator at Boston College where he was known for the team's defensive overhaul that brought the squad to two bowl games in three seasons; a matchup with Arizona in the AdvoCare Independence Bowl in 2013 and the Pinstripe Bowl in 2014 against Penn State. The Eagles' ranked No. 92 in total defense the year prior to Brown's arrival and under his leadership earned two top-12 finishes in 2014 and 2015. That 2015 unit led the nation in total defense allowing only 254.3 yards per game. Brown spent one season at the University of Connecticut and the 2009 and 2010 campaigns at the University of Maryland before making his way to Boston College.

Before his tenure as a Power Five defensive coordinator, Brown served as the head coach at Massachusetts (2004-08), Northeastern (2000-03), and Plymouth State (1993-95) where he compiled a career record of 94-45. Brown amassed a combined five conference championships and six playoff appearances during his time at those three institutions. During his first stint at UMass, he led the Minutemen to a 43-19 record in what was the winningest period in program history.

Over the last decade, 29 defensive players who played under Brown have been selected in the NFL Draft. After the total overhaul of the Boston College defense, Brown was tabbed as the American Football Coaches Association, Assistant Coach of the Year in 2015. Brown was a five-time nominee and a finalist in 2016 for the Broyles Award, annually awarded to the nation's top assistant coach.

In 1992, Brown served as the interim head baseball coach at Yale where he led the team to a 26-10 record and an NCAA Tournament bid.

Brown played four years as a running back at Norwich University and lettered for two seasons as a member of the Men's Basketball team. He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from NU in 1977.

Brown and his wife Deborah have four children and 11 grandchildren.

- Before joining the Minutemen, Zanellato served as the Wide Receiver's Coach and Academic Coordinator at Saginaw Valley State University - A Division-II University that competes in the highly regarded Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference
- In 2021, three wide receiver's earned All-Conference recognition for the first time in program history. Casey Williams (First Team), Isaiah Johnson-Mack (Second Team), and Chad Gailliard (Honorable Mention) had notable seasons despite three different quarterbacks seeing time for the Cardinals
- Zanellato spent the 2018 season with Division II Lock Haven University, where he served as the Wide Receiver's Coach and Assistant Recruiting Coordinator

STEVE DANIELS JR. • BOSTON COLLEGE '118 • SECOND SEASON

DEFENSIVE LINE

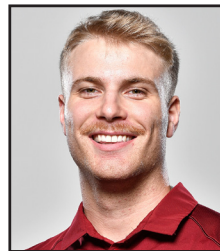

- Steven Daniels Jr. joined the Massachusetts football staff for the 2023 season as an analyst and was promoted to an assistant coach (defensive line) in April 2024. Daniels Jr., who was a linebacker for Boston College from 2012-16, had served as a defensive analyst since joining the UMass staff ahead of the 2023 season.
 - Coached the Sam linebackers in first season, coordinating drill work and rotations during practice and communicating daily with all defensive players. He also aided in player development as well as recruitment and retention.
 - Before arriving at Massachusetts, Daniels Jr. served as the Director of Defensive Recruiting at his alma mater, Boston College, in 2022 and set up recruiting boards for prospects in the primary area of Ohio and secondary areas of Indiana, Illinois, West Virginia, Tennessee and Kentucky.
 - Prior to his time with the Eagles, Daniels spent three years at Bryant University as an Inside Linebackers Coach. During Daniels Jr.'s three seasons with the Bulldogs, he mentored four All-Conference linebackers, two Defensive Players of the Year, including two First Team All-Conference Linebackers in 2021, and one to All-New England honors.
 - In 2016, Daniels Jr. was a seventh-round draft pick for the then-named Washington Redskins (now the Washington Commanders).
- Daniels Jr. earned his bachelor's degree in communications from Boston College in 2018. While playing at Boston College from 2012-16, he led the 2016 Eagles defense in all statistical categories and received the Bulger Lowe award for Best Division I player in New England in 2015. Additionally, Daniels Jr. was a member of the 2015 First Team All-ACC (Coaches).
