TIGERS LOOK FOR UPSET OF COWBOYS

The Missouri Tigers (3-3 overall and 1-2 in Big 12 Conference play) finish the back end of a two-game homestand this Saturday when they play host to the high-powered, 6th-ranked Oklahoma State Cowboys (6-0, 3-0). Kickoff for the game, which is being televised on F/X, is set for 11:11 a.m. (central time).

Mizzou is looking to win consecutive games for the first time in 2011, after alternating wins and losses for the first four weeks. After a bye week, the Tigers suffered a second-straight loss as it dropped a game at then #20 Kansas State, but then last week got back in the win column with a 52-17 thrashing of Iowa State in what was Mizzou's 100th Homecoming celebration.

Saturday marks the start of the second half of the season, and with Mizzou standing an even .500, the Tigers have got some work to do to extend their current (and school-record) string of six consecutive bowl games (2005-10).

It will be no easy task for the Tigers, as their next four opponents have spent a majority of the season as ranked teams, including current #6 Oklahoma State, at current #17 Texas A&M, at 4-2 and much improved Baylor, followed by a home game with 4-2 Texas.

That tough stretch begins Saturday with the Cowboys, who feature the nation's 2nd-ranked offensive attack (551.17 yards per game). OSU has been moving the ball virtually at will all season long, thanks to a passing attack which also ranks 2nd in the nation coming in (395.67 yds.). They'll be going against a Tiger defense which ranks a respectable 29th overall nationally in total defense, but which has been susceptible to opposing passing attacks, as the Tiger pass defense ranks 65th nationally, allowing an average of 224.67 yards per game.

On the flip side, OSU's defense comes into Saturday's contest ranked 100th out of 120 FBS teams in total defense, allowing opponents an average of 426.67 yards per game. A majority of the yards allowed, however, have come in the second half of games where the Cowboys were up big, and protecting leads. OSU has used an opportunistic defense that has gathered 12 interceptions on the season, which has the Cowboys ranked 23rd nationally in pass efficiency defense, and they also rank 11th in the NCAA in most QB sacks (3.17 per game).

The Tigers will be looking to break a mini-skid against the Cowboys, who have won 2 straight over Mizzou, and 3 of the last 4 in the series. The last time OSU visited Columbia, they upset the 5-0 and 3rd-ranked Tigers, 28-23, in 2008, spoiling MU's hopes for a perfect season...

MIZZOU SCORES EARLY, OFTEN IN 52-17 ROUT OF IOWA STATE

The Missouri Tigers hosted longtime rival Iowa State last Saturday for the 100th Homecoming game at the place where the tradition was born. Mizzou was hungry for a win, as it had been nearly a month since they'd won (Sept. 17th vs. FCS Western Illinois), and over a month since their only win against an FBS opponent (Sept. 3 vs. Miami, Ohio). The distaste of three tight road losses at a trio of ranked teams (Arizona State, Oklahoma, Kansas State) had Mizzou riled up and ready to come out swinging.

And that they did, as the Tigers celebrated their centennial Homecoming in style, with a 52-17 win in front of a sellout crowd of 71,004 over Iowa State to improve to 3-3 overall and 1-2 in Big 12 Conference play. The Tigers drove for TDs on their first four possessions to claim a 28-3 lead, and never looked back as they outgained the Cyclones by a 583-to-343 margin in total offense on the day.

Mizzou didn't punt until the 4th quarter, and the only thing which kept the score from being more out of hand was the fact that the Tigers committed turnovers on three consecutive possessions in the 2nd quarter. The miscues led to 7 Cyclone points (on a 78-yard INT return for a score), but Mizzou still managed a 31-10 lead at halftime, and a 14-point 3rd quarter put the game out of reach.

Sophomore TB Henry Josey set the tone for the day when he took the opening kickoff and returned it 43 yards (a season long KO return for Mizzou) to midfield. The Tigers ran the ball eight straight plays and QB James

MIZZOU FOOTBALL GAME NOTES

Franklin plunged in from 1 yard out with 12:03 left to mark MU's quickest score of the season at the start of the game, and MU led 7-0 just like that.

The Tiger defense also got involved right away, as it forced a fumble by Cyclone QB Steele Jantz on ISU's second play from scrimmage. The fumble, forced by CB E.J. Gaines, was recovered on the Iowa State 29-yardline by senior LB Luke Lambert, and the offense ran the ball 5 more times in 6 snaps, and Josey scored from 1 yard out to make it 14-0 just like that.

Iowa State put together a solid drive, and reached a 1st-and-goal at the MU 8-yardline. But the Tiger defense stiffened in the red zone, and forced a 26-yard field goal which made it 14-3. Any doubt that this would be Mizzou's day was erased by the next drive, which went 80 yards in 9 plays, with senior TE Michael Egnew covering the last 39 on a catch-and-run TD pass (a career-long reception) to make it 21-3. After the Tiger defense got a 4th-down sack on its side of the 50 by sophomore DE Michael Sam, the offense marched 71 yards the other way and junior TB Kendial Lawrence scored his 1st TD of the season from 2 yards out to make it 28-3 early in the 2nd quarter.

The Cyclones did manage to nab turnovers by Mizzou's offense on three straight Tiger possessions in the 2nd quarter to keep the game from getting out of hand. Only one of those miscues came back to hurt MU, as Franklin was victimized by ISU's A.J. Klein for a 78-yard interception return for a score which made it 28-10 with 10:07 left in the half. The Tiger defense negated the other turnovers by keeping the Cyclones from driving, and Mizzou tacked on a 23-yard field goal at the halftime gun by PK Grant Ressel for a 31-10 lead at intermission.

Mizzou's defense forced an ISU punt to open the 3rd quarter, and Josey, who would end with a game-high 129 rushing yards, burst 26 yards on his first carry of the half to jump start the Tiger offense. The drive would end with Franklin hitting junior WR T.J. Moe for a 7-yard score to make it 38-10. Franklin got his 2nd 1-yard run of the game next to make it 45-10 late in the 3rd quarter, and the sides traded scores in the final period to account for the final margin.

The Tigers outgained ISU by a 583-to-343 margin in total offense. The Cyclones mustered 132 yards of offense in the 4th quarter alone, when it was mop-up time.

It was Mizzou's 5th straight win over Iowa State, and the 8th win in the last 9 games against the Cyclones.

MIZZOU-IOWA STATE NOTABLES

Here were some random bits of news & notes to come out of Saturday's win over Iowa State...

- — Mizzou enjoyed another balanced day on offense in the win over ISU, as it gained 294 yards rushing (4 TDs) while throwing for 289 more (3 TDs). Mizzou leads the Big 12 and ranks 14th nationally in rushing, averaging 236.50 yards per game, while it ranks 13th nationally (6th in Big 12) in total offense (496.17 avg.), and 34th nationally (6th in Big 12) in passing (259.67 avg.)...

- — The ground game was clicking early on, as MU took the game's opening kick and drove 50 yards for a TD on 8 plays — all rushes — for a 7-0 lead at the 12:03 mark (the quickest score of the year to start a game for the Tigers). In all, MU ran 58 times on the day, which was the most since 63 rushes in 2002 vs. Texas A&M...

- — The Tigers avoided the penalty bug that plagued them in the first five games of the year. Mizzou was not whistled for a single penalty on Saturday, for the first time since the 2009 Texas Bowl vs. Navy. MU had averaged 8.6 penalties per game for 71.2 yards per game going into the ISU game...

- — The Tigers also enjoyed new-found success on 3rd down conversions, as they were successful on 9-of-14 3rd down tries in the game (64.3%). Mizzou entered the game having made only 20-of-68 3rd downs (29.4%) on the year. That final number was also skewed by the fact that Mizzou was just 1-of-4 on 3rd down tries in the 4th quarter, when it was clock bleeding time. In the first 3 quarters, MU was a stellar 8-of-10 in 3rd down conversion attempts...

- — Third quarters had been giving MU troubles overall, as the Tigers had scored only 16 points total in the 3rd quarter of the first 5 games of the season (outscored, 27-16 in those games), but against ISU, the Tigers outscored the Cyclones 14-0 in the period to put the game on ice...

TIGERS IN TOP-30 IN BOTH TOTAL OFFENSE, TOTAL DEFENSE

Heading into Saturday's showdown with Oklahoma State, a check of the NCAA statistics shows Mizzou is in select company, as it is one of just 8 teams to rank among the top-30 in the nation in both total offense and total defense.

Mizzou enters the game ranked 13th nationally in total offense (496.17 avg.) and 29th nationally (and 2nd in the Big 12) in total defense, allowing 337.83 yards per game.

Mizzou is one of only 8 schools in the nation to rank among the top 30 in both total offense and total defense. The others are: Alabama, Boise State, Oklahoma, SMU, South Florida, Stanford, West Virginia and Wisconsin. Those other 7 schools have a combined record of 45-4 heading into this week, while the Tigers stand a deceiving 3-3.

EGNEW HAS BIG DAY IN ROUT OVER CYCLONES

Senior TE Michael Egnew was one of the offensive stars in Mizzou's 52-17 win over Iowa State, as he led MU's passing attack in the Homecoming win over Iowa State, as he recorded game high totals of 6 receptions for 105 yards, including a 39-yard TD reception in the 1st quarter that represented a career-long reception. All 6 of his receptions Saturday went for first downs...

- — The 100-yard receiving day was the 2nd of Egnew's career, and his per-catch average of 17.5 on Saturday marked a career best as well (in games with more than one reception)...
- — Egnew's season average of 12.5 yards per catch (22 receptions, 275 yards) is much-improved over his career average of 8.3 yards per catch coming into the 2011 season...
- — Egnew now has 14 catches for 178 yards in his last two games (8-73 at KSU the previous week), after he began the year with a combined 8 catches for 97 yards in MU's first 4 games...
- — He's also a key factor in MU's improved run game, due to his downfield blocking efforts. Mizzou leads the Big 12 and ranks 14th nationally in rushing, averaging 236.50 yards per game...

LAMBERT LEADS DEFENSIVE CHARGE WITH TWO FUMBLE RECOVERIES VS ISU

Senior LB Luke Lambert is making the most of his extra year of eligibility granted by the NCAA. Lambert had missed most of the last two seasons due to a variety of injuries, and he was awarded a fifth year of eligibility (he played as a true freshman in 2007) in the off-season.

Lambert has been a solid presence for the Tiger defense all season, and he made some very big plays which keyed Mizzou's 52-17 win over Iowa State last Saturday.

- — Lambert was a key to Mizzou's stellar defensive effort, as the Tigers forced a season-high 3 turnovers. Lambert recovered a pair of fumbles, including one that came on ISU's 1st possession of the game that the offense converted into a quick TD to give MU a 14-0 lead...
- — He ended the game with 7 tackles, including 1.0 TFL (2 yds.), and added 1 pass break up to his 2 fumble recoveries...
- — Lambert ranks 2nd on the team through 6 games, with 36 tackles overall, and his 6.0 TFLs (14 yds.) rank 2nd-best on the defense, as well. He's accounted for a team-high 3 turnovers on the season now, with his 2 fumble recoveries, to go with an interception...

JOSEY TAKES OVER KICKOFF RETURN DUTIES, GETS TIGERS JUMP STARTED

Sophomore TB Henry Josey has been one of the most intriguing story lines in the Big 12 Conference through the first half of the season, with his emergence from No. 3 on the depth chart heading into fall camp, into the top-ranked running back in the league.

Last Saturday against Iowa State, Josey made a splash with a newly-added duty: kickoff returns.

- — Josey took over as the Tigers' primary kickoff return man, and jump-started the team with his game-opening 43-yard return to set MU up at midfield for their first series of the game. He also ran 4 times on the drive for 20 yards as MU marched quickly to a 7-0 lead...
- — He ended the game with only 2 kickoff returns, as the Cyclones kickoff off only twice while Josey was still in the game, but his other return went for 27 yards, giving him a respectable average of 35.0 yards per try...
- — Josey finished the game with 19 rushes for 129 yards (6.8 avg.) and 1 TD, and through 6 games, he continues to lead the Big 12 Conference, and ranks 9th nationally, in rushing, averaging 119.50 yards per game. For the season, he's got 717 rushing yards and 6 TDs on 74 attempts, and his per-carry average of 9.7 ranks as 2nd-best in the NCAA...
- — Josey ranks 3rd in the Big 12 Conference, and 28th nationally in All-Purpose yardage, with an average of 143.00 yards per game thus far...

MORE INDIVIDUAL STARS OF THE DAY AGAINST IOWA STATE

Lots of Tigers got into the action against Iowa State. Here were some of the highlights of the big win:

- — Sophomore QB James Franklin had another productive day, as he tallied 373 yards of total offense, including 289 yards passing (completing 20-of-28 attempts) and 84 yards rushing (on 11 attempts, for an average of 7.6 yards per try). Franklin did have two interceptions on the day, but he more than made up for that as he accounted for a career-best 5 TDs against Iowa State, throwing for 3 scores (39 yards, 7 yards, 6 yards) and running it in for two more (a pair of 1-yard runs). Franklin's efficiency rating was 179.20 on the day, which was the best mark of the year against FBS competition, and second only to the mark of 194.26 he put up against Western Illinois previously.

MIZZOU FOOTBALL GAME NOTES

Through 6 games, Franklin ranks 11th in the NCAA in total offense, averaging 313.00 yards per game. His 7 rushing TDs leads the team thus far...

- — Junior TB Kendial Lawrence had his best game of the year, as he ran 16 times for 78 yards and 1 TD to supplement Mizzou's potent rushing attack. He also caught 2 passes for 12 yards on the day as he continued to show he's returning to form after missing games 2, 3 and 4 due to a cracked fibula. Lawrence entered the ISU game with 15 rushing yards on 15 carries in 2 outings...

- — Senior WR Wes Kemp caught a 6-yard TD pass on Saturday, and he now leads all MU receivers with 3 TD receptions on the season. That number also equals his career-best for a season, when he grabbed 3 TD catches in each of the last two seasons...

- — Junior DE Brad Madison had a disruptive day, as he finished with 5 tackles, including a half-sack and another QB hurry. He also grabbed his first career interception in the 4th quarter, returning it 15 yards to set up a Tiger TD...

- — Sophomore LB Andrew Wilson led the way defensively for Mizzou against ISU, as he notched a team-high 10 tackles, including 1 TFL (2 yards). Through 6 games, Wilson leads MU with 48 tackles, and he's now had double-digit tackle totals in two straight games (13 at KSU the previous week), and 3 times overall this season (10 vs. Miami, Ohio)...

- — Redshirt freshman FS Braylon Webb got his first career start Saturday, and he was credited with 2 tackles in MU's win over the Cyclones...

- — Junior P Trey Barrow wasn't called to duty until the 4th quarter, and he averaged 41.3 yards on 3 punts, including a long of 57 yards. For the season, Barrow leads the Big 12 Conference, and ranks 3rd nationally in punting average, with a mark of 47.18 yards per kick. He's got 12 boots of 50 yards or more, including a long of 73 yards at Arizona State. His efforts have also helped Mizzou lead the Big 12 and rank 18th nationally in team net punting through 6 games (39.86 avg.)...

TIGERS HAVE WON 10 STRAIGHT AT FAUROT FIELD

Mizzou won its 10th consecutive game at Faurot Field/Memorial Stadium last Saturday with its 52-17 shellacking of Iowa State in what was MU's 100th Homecoming celebration.

While that might not seem like a huge number, it does stand tied for the 2nd-longest home winning streak for the Tigers. A win Saturday would up the streak to 11 and put it all alone in 2nd place. Interestingly enough, Oklahoma State, who visits Columbia this Saturday, has ended MU home winning streaks that ranked among the top-five alltime in Mizzou history in each of its last two trips to Faurot Field.

Mizzou had won 9 straight games from 2003-2004, until the 22nd-ranked Cowboys rallied from a 17-0 1st-half deficit to post a 20-17 win on Oct. 23, 2004. The Cowboys' next win in Columbia was even more painful for Tiger faithful, as 17th-ranked OSU upset 3rd-ranked and 5-0 Mizzou by a 28-23 score to dash MU's hopes of an undefeated season on Oct. 11, 2008.

Here's a look at the longest home win streaks in Mizzou history:

MU Longest Home Winning Streaks

20 — Started: Nov. 5, 1938 (Michigan State) / Ended: Nov. 13, 1943 (Oklahoma)

10 — Started: Nov. 21, 2009 (Iowa State) / Ended: Current

10 — Started: Nov. 25, 2006 (Kansas) / Ended: Oct. 11, 2008 (Oklahoma State)

9 — Started: Sept. 13, 2003 (Eastern Illinois) / Ended: Oct. 23, 2004 (Oklahoma State)

9 — Started: Oct. 24, 1959 (Nebraska) / Ended: Oct. 7, 1961 (California)

In all, Mizzou has won 23 of its last 27 games at Faurot Field, and stands 42-10 overall at home since nicknaming Memorial Stadium "The Zou" prior to the 2003 season.

MIZZOU-OKLAHOMA STATE SERIES HISTORY

Old Big 8 Conference rivals renew their acquaintances Saturday as Mizzou and Oklahoma State hit the field in Columbia, Mo. Mizzou holds a 28-22 overall edge in the series history, and the Tigers have claimed 5-of-8 meetings between the two schools since the inception of the Big 12 Conference in 1996.

However, the Cowboys have won 2 straight, and 3 of the last 4 matchups recently, including a 33-17 decision in Stillwater, Okla. in 2009 that serves as the last meeting between the two schools.

Prior to that, the 'Pokes (ranked 17th for the game) claimed a 28-23 contest in Columbia in 2008 that knocked Mizzou from its #3 ranking at the time, when a win could possibly have vaulted them to #1 in the polls.

If recent history is any indicator, Saturday's game could be a tightly-contested one, as all but two of the 9 previous meetings between MU and OSU (dating back to 1995) have been decided by 7 points or fewer, and 3 of them have gone into overtime (all won by Mizzou). The 1996 overtime win by Mizzou (35-28) marked MU's first-ever overtime game.

Oklahoma State's win in Stillwater in 2009 broke a string of four straight wins for the road team in the series, as MU claimed a 41-38 triple overtime win in Stillwater in 2001 and then a 38-31 2005 win in its next trip there. Sandwiched between those were Cowboy wins in Columbia (20-17 win in Columbia in 2004 and 28-23 in Columbia in 2008).

Extending this beyond the Big 12 era, in the MU-OSU series, the road team has won 7 of the last 10 times the two schools have played, dating back to the 1994 season.

LAST MEETING REWIND: #16 OKLAHOMA STATE 33, MIZZOU 17

Here's a recap from Mizzou's 2009 game at Oklahoma State: SECOND-HALF DRY SPELL, TURNOVERS SEND TIGERS TO DEFEAT AT OSU

Mizzou went to Stillwater, Okla. with the intention of ruining 16th-ranked Oklahoma State's Homecoming, but in the end, turnovers and a rough 2nd half by the Tiger offense led to a 33-17 defeat to the Cowboys.

Things looked promising early on, as the Tigers showed a nice mix of run and pass offensively, and drove the length of the field to open the game, before settling for a 21-yard Grant Ressel field goal and a quick 3-0 lead. After the Cowboys responded to take a 7-3 lead, the Tigers drove 97 yards to take a 10-7 lead, thanks to a 1-yard TD plunge by TB Derrick Washington early in the 2nd quarter.

After falling behind 14-10 on a pick-six by Oklahoma State when a ball pass from QB Blaine Gabbert went through the hands of WR Jerrell Jackson, the Tigers surged back to take a 17-14 lead with 6:23 left in the half when WR Danario Alexander willed his way to a 48-yard TD catch-and-run, as he broke several would-be tackles and a facemask infraction against him to get into the endzone.

The Cowboys got a long kickoff return to near midfield and drove for a tying field goal with 3:24 left, and it appeared MU was about to strike again, but a potential 50-yard gain to the Cowboy 25-yardline went incomplete as WR Wes Kemp couldn't haul in a beautifully-thrown pass from Gabbert on 3rd down with about two minutes left. Instead of MU potentially going into the half ahead by a 20-17 or 24-17 count, the Cowboys got the ball back and drove for a demoralizing TD pass with just :02 seconds left on the clock to take a 24-17 lead into halftime.

Mizzou gained 313 yards of total offense in the first half, as Gabbert threw for 259 yards. Alexander had 161 of those yards in receptions, and the Tiger run game was showing signs of life after struggling the past couple of games. But the second half couldn't bring more of the same output, as OSU controlled the clock and held a massive advantage in field position in the 3rd quarter to shorten the game severely.

Mizzou's defense played valiantly, but faced a short field for most of the 2nd half. In the 3rd quarter alone, OSU's average starting point on 4 possessions was its own 46-yardline, while MU had each of its 3 possessions in the period start precisely on its 14-yardline. The Cowboys held the ball for a massive 10:18 of the quarter, but thanks to a strong effort by the MU defense, OSU could only muster a field goal in the 3rd quarter to take a 27-17 lead into the final period.

The Tigers were flagged for only 3 penalties all night, but one was very costly, as it negated a kickoff return by Jasper Simmons that followed OSU's 3rd-quarter field goal that would have set Mizzou up inside the OSU 20-yardline. Instead, a hold was called on the return and the Tigers started at their own 14 again.

In the 4th quarter, the Tiger defense held OSU to a pair of field goals, while the Tigers had the ball inside the Cowboy 25-yardline twice, only to be turned away on downs both times.

LAST TIME IN COLUMBIA: #17 OKLAHOMA ST. 28, #3 MIZZOU 23 (2008)

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) — Oklahoma State snarled Chase Daniel and a Missouri offense that had been scoring at will, intercepting three passes in the second half and upsetting the third-ranked Tigers 28-23 to end a 10-game home winning streak for MU and spoiling a possible ascension to #1 in the national polls for Mizzou.

Zac Robinson and Damian Davis hooked up on a pair of long scores in the second half, and Patrick Lavine's questionable interception with 1:41 to go was the clincher for the No. 17 Cowboys. Missouri (5-1, 1-1 Big 12) had appeared poised to challenge for No. 1 with a win, after top-ranked Oklahoma lost to Texas and No. 2 Alabama had the weekend off.

Robinson was 19-for-28 for 215 yards and two touchdowns. Kendall Hunter had 154 yards on 24 carries and a 68-yard scoring run to open the 3rd quarter which really swung momentum in favor of the visiting Cowboys.

Daniel was 39-for-52 for 390 yards and a touchdown for Missouri, which had won 10 in a row and 18 of 19 at home but were held 19 points below their scoring average. Derrick Washington, averaging 100 yards per game, was held to 11 yards on eight carries with a 5-yard scoring run.

The game matched the second- and third-leading scoring teams in the nation, together combining for a 105-point average. From the start it failed to live up to expectations for a shootout, with Missouri held to a field goal on its opening drive after 11 plays and nearly six minutes and Oklahoma State chewing up nearly five minutes before Robinson's 6-yard scoring run on its first drive.

Missouri trailed only once in its previous five games and then only briefly in the opener against Illinois. Oklahoma State grabbed the lead three times to stun a sellout crowd 68,349, going ahead for good on Davis' 40-yard reception for a 21-17 lead late in the third quarter.

Daniel, who entered with 15 touchdown passes and only one interception, pulled Missouri to within five points with 7-yard touchdown pass to Danario Alexander with 4:27 to go. Missouri got the ball at its own 35 after a shanked 10-yard punt with 2:40 to go.

But Daniel forced a throw into tight coverage on 2nd down and Lavine made the diving pick to wrap it up. The play was reviewed and the call on the field was upheld, despite the fact that the ball appeared to have touched the ground on one replay angle. OSU ran the clock to under 10 seconds and punted the ball away, and Mizzou could not block the punt, nor return it the distance on the last play of the game.

Missouri overcame several problems to take a 10-7 halftime lead.

MIZZOU FOOTBALL GAME NOTES

THE GRADUATE(S)

•After the senior classes from 2008-2010 have seen 53-of-57 earn their degrees, the current Mizzou senior class is doing outstandingly well in regards to its graduation timetable, as well. Consider the following facts:

Eight current Tigers have already earned their degrees:

- Luke Lambert (December, 2010)
- De'Vion Moore (December, 2010)
- Jimmy Costello (May, 2011)
- Grant Ressel (May, 2011)
- Austin Wuebbels (May, 2011)
- Terry Dennis (August, 2011)
- Elvis Fisher (August, 2011)
- Trey Hobson (August, 2011)

Ten Tigers are scheduled to graduate in December:

- Brendan Donaldson
- Michael Egnew
- Brandon Gerau
- Dominique Hamilton
- Dan Hoch
- Kenji Jackson
- Andrew Jones
- Wes Kemp
- Terrell Resonno
- Jacques Smith

The final nine seniors will graduate in May:

- John Birdwell
- Beau Brinkley
- Quinn Brown
- Will Ebner
- Jerrell Jackson
- Marvin Norman
- Tony Randolph
- Jayson Palmgren
- Corey Sudhoff

Besides trailing for the second time all season, the Tigers went three-and-out on offense for the first time all year. Plus, their run of scoring a touchdown on their opening drive in every game ended when they stalled inside the 1 and settled for a chip shot field goal by Jeff Wolfert.

After being held to just 7 points in the first half, Oklahoma State scored three touchdowns in the second half, all coming from 30 yards or more away.

PINKEL HAS THIRD-MOST WINS IN MIZZOU HISTORY

Mizzou Head Coach Gary Pinkel is in his 11th season at MU (21st overall as a head coach) and touts a career record of 153-89-3 (63.6%).

Pinkel, who has led MU to a combined record of 58-27 (68.2%) over the past 6+ seasons, and to bowl games in 2003, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009 and 2010, has an 11-year record in Columbia of 80-52 (60.6%). Dating back to the 2005 Independence Bowl win over Steve Spurrier and South Carolina, Pinkel has gone 52-22 in his last 74 games overall (70.3%). MU's win in the 2008 opener against Illinois gave Pinkel his 50th MU win, and he now ranks 3rd on the coaching wins list at MU, with 80. The win over Kansas in 2010 was the 150th of his career.

Pinkel is in a select group of Mizzou coaches that includes College Football Hall of Famers Don Faurot and Dan Devine, as well as Warren Powers, to be the only coaches to have an MU record of above .500 (with at least one full season coached) dating all the way back to 1935.

MIZZOU COACHING WINS LEADERS

Coach	Wins	# Seasons (Years)	Record	Pct.	# Bowls
Don Faurot	101	19 (1935-42, 46-56)	101-79-10	.558	4
Dan Devine	93	13 (1958-70)	93-37-7	.704	6
Gary Pinkel	80	11 (2001-Present)	80-52	.606	7
Warren Powers	46	7 (1978-84)	46-33-3	.580	5

In 2007, Pinkel guided the Tigers from unranked in the pre-season to a team which won a school-record 12 games and a final ranking of #4 in the Associated Press Top-25. Mizzou ascended to #1 in the BCS rankings following the regular season, and stood just one half away from playing in the BCS National Championship Game (before Oklahoma pulled away from a halftime tie to win the Big 12 title game). For his efforts in 2007, Pinkel was a finalist for several national coach of the year awards, including the Robinson, Bryant and Munger awards. He was also named the National Coach of the Year by FieldTurf in 2007.

Mizzou's bowl appearance in 2010 meant that Pinkel has led MU to 7 bowl games overall, and that is the most bowl games by any MU coach.

Pinkel has directed Mizzou to 7 winning seasons (8-5 in 2003, 7-5 in 2005, 8-5 in 2006, 12-2 in 2007, 10-4 in 2008, 8-5 in 2009 and 10-3 in 2010), with those representing 7 of MU's 9 winning campaigns dating back to the 1983 season.

The Big 12 North Division titles won by Mizzou in 2007, 2008 and 2010 represent the only football conference titles of any kind Mizzou has won since 1969 — the last time it claimed a share of the old Big Eight Conference crown. In April of 2011, Pinkel agreed to a two-year contract extension, meaning he'll patrol the Tiger sidelines through the 2017 season.

MIZZOU HAS PLAYED 8TH-TOUGHEST SCHEDULE SO FAR

According to the NCAA statistics, Mizzou has played the nation's 8th-toughest schedule so far, in terms of opponent winning percentage (through games of Oct. 15th). As noted before, each of Mizzou's 3 losses on the season have come on the road at ranked opponents (at current #25 Arizona State [37-30 in OT]; at current #3 Oklahoma [38-28]; and at current #12 Kansas State [24-17]). Here's a look at the schedule rankings:

6. Florida State	.727
7. Texas A&M	.704
8. MIZZOU	.696
9. Utah	.680
10. Miami, Fla.	.667

Things don't get much easier the rest of the way either for the Tigers, as the NCAA lists Mizzou's future opponents as the 17th-toughest slate of foes in the country, with a collective winning percentage of .696. Beginning with Saturday's game against Oklahoma State, Mizzou will enter a stretch of two straight games against ranked opponents, including current #6 Oklahoma State, and #17 Texas A&M, as well as Baylor and Texas, who have both been ranked for much of the season.

MIZZOU IS NCAA'S ALLTIME OVERTIME KING

If it seems like Mizzou has been involved in a lot of overtime games, well, you're not crazy, because the Tigers have played in as many OT games as any school since the rule was put in place for the 1995 bowl season.

With Mizzou's Sept. 9 OT game at Arizona State (won by the Sun Devils, 37-30), Mizzou has now played 13 overtime games, which is tied for most in NCAA history, through games of Oct. 8th. Other schools with 13 overtime games include Fresno State (5-8), North Carolina State (8-5), Pittsburgh (6-7), SMU (3-10) and Syracuse (7-6).

Even with the recent defeat at Arizona State — which broke a five-game overtime winning streak for the Tigers — Mizzou is still tied for most OT wins in FBS history, with 9. Other schools with 9 OT wins include Arkansas (9-2), and Tennessee (9-2).

Here's a quick glance at MU's overtime history:

Interestingly, MU Head Coach Gary Pinkel is credited with winning the very first overtime game ever played in Division I history, when his Toledo Rockets beat Nevada, 40-37, in the 1995 Las Vegas Bowl. The overtime rule was put into effect for that bowl season, and has been in use ever since.

Pinkel is now 8-2 alltime in his career in overtime games, including 6-2 at Mizzou.

JOSEY LEADS BIG 12, RANKS 9TH IN NCAA IN RUSHING

Sophomore TB Henry Josey has squarely put himself into the mix as one of the top story lines in the Big 12 Conference in 2011. The unassuming and baby-faced youngster enters Saturday's game against Oklahoma State as the Big 12's leading rusher, and the 9th-ranked runner in the NCAA, averaging 119.50 yards per game. He's had 3 100-yard outings in his last 4 games, and is coming off a 129-yard performance in last Saturday's win over Iowa State. He carried a career-high 19 times against the Cyclones, and had 1 rushing TD while averaging 6.8 yards per attempt.

Josey also took over primary kickoff return duties, and gave quite a spark to the Tigers when he returned the game-opening kick 43 yards (the longest kickoff return by Mizzou in 2011) to midfield to set the tone for MU's 52-17 win. Josey returned 2 kickoffs in all Saturday, and averaged 35.0 yards on those returns.

What makes Josey's story so interesting is that he entered the season third on the depth chart in what was considered by most to be MU's deepest position. However, injuries to senior TB De'Vion Moore and junior TB Kendial Lawrence, combined with losing sophomore TB Marcus Murphy for the season with a shoulder injury that occurred prior to the start of fall camp, and all of a sudden, he became a one-man show of sorts.

Quite a show it's been however...

- Josey rushed for a game-high 133 yards and 1 TD (on a 48-yard scamper in the 4th quarter) to help the Tigers to a 241-yard output on the ground at top-ranked Oklahoma on Sept. 24th. Josey did his damage against an OU defense that came into the game ranked 20th in the NCAA against the run, allowing just 78.00 yards per game to opponents...

- Josey averaged an impressive 9.5 yards per carry against the Sooners, as he got his yardage on just 14 carries. Through 6 games, his ridiculous per-rush average of 9.69 for the season is 2nd-best in the NCAA (Orwin Smith of Georgia Tech is averaging 13.19 yds. on 37 carries through Oct. 15th)...

- Josey became MU's primary back early in the season, as Lawrence (who began the year with the starting role) went down with a cracked fibula in practice the week of the Arizona State game, while Moore started at ASU but suffered a high ankle sprain on the first play of the night. Josey came off the bench and was impressive against the Sun Devils, as he had 145 yards from scrimmage (94 rushing on 9 carries / 51 receiving on 2 receptions)...

• — The week after that, Josey was thrust into the starting role for the first time this season against Western Illinois (he started one time in relief in 2010), Josey looked to make the most of his new-found opportunity. And did he ever do just that.

In a performance for the record books, Josey played only one half before retiring for the night, but not before he blistered Western Illinois for 263 rushing yards and 3 TDs (6, 21, 68) on just 14 carries — good for a rather salty per-carry average of 18.8 yards. His 68-yard scoring burst just before halftime ended up being the last carry of the night, as the Tigers led 42-0 and Tiger Coach Gary Pinkel called off the dogs. It was the 4th-highest single-game rushing total in MU history.

Moreover, Josey's yardage is the 3rd-highest single-game output in the NCAA through games of Oct. 15th.

UNCHARACTERISTIC SLOW START LEADS TO 24-17 LOSS AT K-STATE

Through its first four games of the 2011 season, Mizzou had done a nice job of starting fast and either getting out to leads or answering opponent scores right away. Coming off a bye week, it was just the opposite, as Kansas State jumped to a 10-0 first quarter lead and that keyed the #20 Wildcats to a 24-17 win in Manhattan, Kan. on Oct. 8th.

Mizzou walked off the field feeling like it had given away 14 of Kansas State's points, and it's hard to argue that, as an interception on the MU 21-yardline set up one KSU score, and a roughing the punter penalty extended another K-State drive which led to another Wildcat touchdown.

Things got off to about as bad a start as possible, as QB James Franklin was intercepted on the first play of the game, with the Wildcats taking over at the Mizzou 21-yardline. Six plays later, they punched it in for a touchdown and a quick 7-0 lead. A pair of three-and-out offensive possessions followed for MU's offense, and K-State added a field goal to post a 10-0 lead after one quarter. In the first quarter, K-State held a total offense advantage of 74 yards to Mizzou's zero. The Tigers ran only 7 offensive plays in the quarter, and K-State held the ball for a massive 11:10 of the 15 minutes.

That was some uncharacteristic MO for Mizzou, as the Tigers entered the game having outscored opponents by a 45-17 margin in the first quarter in 2011.

The script flipped in the 2nd quarter, as Mizzou controlled play on both sides of the ball, holding a total offense advantage of 156-to-20. However, all MU could muster was a field goal despite holding the huge statistical edge, and they trailed 10-3 at halftime.

Things looked promising to start the 2nd half, as junior CB Kip Edwards nabbed his first interception of the season on Kansas State's 2nd snap at the Wildcat 36-yardline. After one first down, the drive stalled at the KSU 19, and Ressel missed right on a 37-yard field goal, leaving the score at 10-3.

After that last miss, the Tiger defense appeared to have another 3-and-out to give MU's offense another chance. But disaster struck once again, as MU was flagged for roughing the punter to extend the K-State possession. They capitalized from there, and drove for a back-breaking touchdown to take a 17-3 lead with 5:50 left in the 3rd quarter. After the Wildcats extended the lead to 24-3 early in the 4th, Mizzou's offense came to life, and this time they capitalized on their scoring chances, driving 79 yards and 74 yards for a pair of TDs to close to within 24-17 with 5:02 to play.

Needing one more defensive stop, the Tiger defense, which ended up being on the field for a massive 38:28 on the day thanks to K-State's ball-control offense, couldn't get the ball back. K-State converted a key 3rd down near midfield on a completed pass that appeared as though it was intended for a different receiver. However it happened, it was enough to help the Wildcats kill the clock eventually, and hold on for their 24-17 win, which broke a Tiger 5-game win streak in the series.

MISSED OPPORTUNITIES HURT TIGER CAUSE AT K-STATE

As noted above, Mizzou had plenty of opportunities to take charge in Manhattan, only to see things slip away in a frustrating stretch spanning four offensive possessions in the 2nd and 3rd quarters.

After falling behind by a 10-0 score in the 1st quarter, the Tigers started clicking offensively. Each of their next four drives would reach the Kansas State 14-yardline, the KSU 35-yardline, the KSU 25-yardline and the KSU 19 yardline, respectively.

Unfortunately for Mizzou, the Tigers came away with only 3 points total during that stretch where they dominated the Wildcats in total offense by a 168-to-10 margin. But instead of taking control, they could only draw as close as 10-3 before a pair of Wildcat TDs gave Kansas State some breathing room prior to MU's late rally attempt.

Here's a brief look at that stretch:

- — Trailing 10-0 at the start of the 2nd quarter, the Tiger defense forced a 3-and-out and Mizzou took over on its 28-yardline and marched downfield for a 1st-and-Goal at the 9-yardline. But a rush for no gain, followed by a false start penalty and two incomplete passes forced MU to settle for a 32-yard Grant Ressel field goal...

- — Mizzou forced a 2nd-straight 3-and-out by K-State, and went from its own 29-yardline to a 1st-and-10 at the Wildcat 27-yardline. Junior TB Kendial Lawrence, who had consecutive rushes of 14 and 11 yards to help the push, got tripped up in the backfield for an 8-yard loss on 1st down, however, and that was followed by a James Franklin run for no yards, and an incomplete pass. Facing a 4th-and-18 on the K-State 35-yardline, the Tigers opted to punt, trailing 10-3 still...

- — Kansas State was unable to milk the clock before halftime, and the Tigers got the ball on their own 18-yardline with just 1:23 left in the half, still trailing, 10-3. Four consecutive gains netted 53 yards, and suddenly Mizzou was at the Wildcat 29-yardline. They would get as far as the 25 before time forced them to try a 43-yard field goal, which was missed wide right at the gun, leaving the score 10-3 at halftime...

- — The Wildcats opened the 2nd half with the ball, but Mizzou got a huge play on the 2nd snap, when CB Kip Edwards jumped a slant route for his first interception of the season, and the Tigers took over on the K-State 36-yardline. Franklin hit TE Michael Egnew for 3 yards and WR T.J. Moe for 12 yards to reach the Wildcat 21-yardline, and a Henry Josey rush for 4 yards left them with a 2nd-and-6 at the 17. On 2nd down, Josey was stuffed for a 2-yard loss, however, and a 3rd-down pass was incomplete, forcing a 37-yard field goal attempt, which Ressel missed left, to leave the score at 10-3...

- — The tough times weren't over for Mizzou, however, as on the ensuing possession, MU's defense forced an apparent 3-and-out to get the ball back to its offense. But Mizzou's LB Darvin Ruise was flagged for roughing the punter to give KSU a fresh set of downs, and they capitalized by marching downfield for a TD to take a 17-3 lead late in the 3rd quarter...

BARROW BOOMING THE BALL, RANKS 3RD IN NCAA IN PUNTING

Junior P Trey Barrow has been among the most impressive of performers for Mizzou through 6 games this season. Given the fact that this is his first season handling the punting duties, there's no question that he's turned heads with his play.

Barrow enters Saturday's game against OSU as the top punter in the Big 12, and is ranked 3rd in the NCAA with his average of 47.18 yards a kick. He wasn't called into action last Saturday against Iowa State until the 4th quarter, and he averaged 41.3 yards per kick, with a long of 57.

Prior to that, Barrow averaged 47.6 yards on 5 kicks at #20 Kansas State (including a long of 67 yards).

In addition to getting yardage, he's doing a great job of providing hang time and allowing his coverage team to get downfield. As a team, Mizzou ranks 18th in net punting through 6 games, with an average of 39.86 yards.

At Oklahoma, Barrow continued his outstanding contributions to the field position battle, as he averaged 47.1 yards per punt on 8 attempts. He had a long of 63 yards in Norman, and twice pinned the Sooners inside their 20-yardline.

Twelve of his 28 punts to this point have been for 50 yards or more on the season, and he's got a similar number (7-of-28) that have finished inside the opponent's 20-yardline. He cranked a career-best 73-yarder at Arizona State that pinned the Sun Devils inside their own 10-yardline...

TIGERS PUT SOONERS ON ROPES BEFORE OU RALLIES FOR 38-28 WIN

Some basic notes to recap Mizzou's 38-28 loss at top-ranked Oklahoma on Sept. 24th...

- — Mizzou had the #1 team on the ropes early, as it shot out to a 14-3 lead at top-ranked Oklahoma, but the Sooners recovered to post a 38-28 win. The loss, hard-fought as it was, dropped the Tigers to 2-2 on the season, with both losses coming on the road to ranked teams (#23 Arizona State, #1 Oklahoma)...

- — Mizzou's offense racked up 532 yards of offense for its highest yardage output ever in Norman. The only other time Mizzou has had 500 yards of offense in Norman was back in 1976, when the 11th-ranked Tigers put up 504 yards in a 27-20 loss at #14 Oklahoma. It was also the 2nd-highest offensive output ever for Mizzou against an OU team, coming up just shy of the 559 standard that 9th-ranked Mizzou amassed over #20 Oklahoma in 1969 — a 44-10 MU win in Columbia...

- — Mizzou showed great balance once again, as it threw for 291 yards and rushed for 241 yards and 3 TDs. The Sooner defense came into the game not having allowed a rushing TD on the season, and OU carried a national ranking of 20th in rushing defense into the game, allowing an average of 78.00 yards per game to opponents on the ground...

2011 GAME RECAPS

GAME #1 • #21 MIZZOU 17, MIAMI (OHIO) 6

SEPT. 3, 2011 • FAUROT FIELD/MEMORIAL STADIUM • COLUMBIA, MO. • (58,313)

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) - James Franklin's gut reaction: He flunked his first career start.

"Umm, I probably failed this test today," Franklin said after No. 21 Missouri's tougher than expected 17-6 victory over stubborn Miami, Ohio. "I'd say, eh, around a D, maybe."

As the sophomore quarterback kept talking, he eased up on himself. Although his interception led to Miami of Ohio's lone score, he did run for one score and passed for the clinching touchdown.

"I just think a win's a win and it's something I have to learn to enjoy," Franklin said. "There's things that I'm worried about and things that I'm focused on that I didn't do so well. I'll give it a C-minus, being positive."

Franklin was 17 for 26 for 129 yards. That was often a half-game under the three quarterbacks who preceded him at Missouri - Blaine Gabbert, Chase Daniel and Brad Smith - all of whom are in the NFL. Coach Gary Pinkel noted that Franklin made some nice throws in the second half, and said there was plenty of room for improvement.

"You grow from adversity," Pinkel said. "You don't like going through it, but you grow from it."

E.J. Gaines had an end zone interception for the Tigers, who whipped the RedHawks by 38 points in their final pre-Big 12 tuneup last season but had their struggles on both sides of the ball in 90-degree heat. Three of their first four possessions ended quickly with punts for an offense that averaged 30 points last season, and Miami moved the ball with some success.

Gaines' pickoff halted a 67-yard drive near the end of the first half with Missouri up 10-0.

"The momentum shift stuns you," first-year Miami coach Don Treadwell said.

"Kind of like a boxer, you get that uppercut but you don't go down."

Missouri hurt itself with 81 yards on nine penalties, and has a short week ahead with the next game Friday night at Arizona State.

Miami recovered from a 51-13 spanking at Missouri last fall to win the Mid-American Conference, and entered the opener with a six-game winning streak. The RedHawks gave Missouri a scare, trailing 10-6 after Erik Finklea's 10-yard run late in the third quarter.

Missouri, which had been around a 20-point favorite, answered on the first play of the fourth quarter. Marcus Lucas' 10-yard catch was his first college touchdown and in his first start as the fill-in for injured Jerrell Jackson.

Dayonne Nunley's interception and 5-yard return of Franklin's overthrown pass gave Miami possession at the Missouri 19 and set up Finklea's score.

Down by 11, Miami ran out of downs at the Missouri 30 midway through the fourth quarter. Dominique Hamilton recovered quarterback Dysert's fumble with 1:49 left.

Two Missouri defensive players left with injuries. Linebacker Will Ebner sustained a high left ankle sprain in the first quarter, which could sideline him for a month, and end Jacques Smith has a dislocated left elbow that'll keep him out for at least one game.

Franklin's 5-yard run up the middle capped a 76-yard drive late in the first quarter.

The RedHawks struggled on the kicking game, with Mason Krysinski wide left on a 41-yard field goal attempt in the first half and the extra point kick partially blocked after Finklea's score. It was the first game for Krysinski, a sophomore.

2011 GAME RECAPS

GAME #2 • #23 ARIZONA STATE 37, #19 MIZZOU 30 (OT)
SEPT. 9, 2011 • SUN DEVIL STADIUM/FRANK KUSH FIELD • TEMPE, ARIZ. • (70,236)

TEMPE, ARIZ. — It was one of the most anticipated games of the college football weekend, and the Mizzou-Arizona State game lived up to its billing, as the 23rd-ranked Sun Devils bested the 19th-ranked Tigers 37-30 in overtime before a sellout crowd and a Friday-night national television audience in Tempe, Ariz.

Mizzou might have lost the game, but it walked off the field with its collective heads held high, thanks to an impressive 4th-quarter rally that forced overtime, and nearly won the game in regulation.

Trailing 30-16 with 14 minutes left in the game, the Tigers dug in on both sides of the ball. Forced to punt the ball away with 13 minutes left, Mizzou pounced on a fumbled punt by ASU (Kenronte Walker recovered the muff at the ASU 32-yardline). Three plays later, QB James Franklin floated a beauty of a pass over the middle to sophomore WR L'Damian Washington for a 25-yard TD (Washington's 1st career TD) to cut the deficit in half with 12:00 to play.

The Tiger defense held on its next series and forced a Sun Devil punt. The offense took over on its own 42-yardline with 8:19 left, needing another TD to tie the game. It got just that, as Franklin calmly led an 11-play, 58-yard drive in front of the frenzied sellout crowd at Sun Devil Stadium. He capped the drive with a 4th-and-goal TD pass of 3 yards to All-American TE Michael Egnew, and with 2:50 to play, the Tigers had tied the game at 30-30.

After ASU returned the ensuing kickoff to its own 40-yardline, the Sun Devils appeared to be in prime position to drive for a game-winning field goal. But the Tiger defense bowed its backs again and forced a 3-and-out, getting the ball back one more time for the offense. On the first play, from his own 8-yardline, TB Henry Josey burst around the left end for 39 yards to take the ball near midfield, and all of a sudden, Mizzou was in business.

Three plays later, the Tigers were at the ASU 30-yardline, looking for a few more yards to get reliable PK Grant Ressel a chance at a game-winning field goal. Two passes fell incomplete, however, and Ressel had to stand over a 48-yard attempt with :17 seconds left. After trying to induce the Sun Devils to jump offsides unsuccessfully, Ressel got the kick away and it was plenty long, but it hooked just wide left to send the game into overtime.

In the extra period, ASU took the ball first and converted a big 3rd-and-7 on the way to a touchdown and a 37-30 lead. It was only the 3rd 3rd-down conversion of the game for the Sun Devils. Needing a TD to answer, the Tiger offense was stymied in its overtime possession, and a 4th-and-5 desperation pass by Franklin into the endzone fell incomplete, sending Mizzou to its first September loss since 2005 (breaking a string of 22-straight September wins).

As the score might indicate, it was a night for the offenses, as the teams combined for 993 yards of total offense, with Mizzou going for 501 and ASU 492.

Franklin was a star in just his second career start, as he amassed 403 yards of total offense, including 319 yards in the air and 2 touchdowns, to go with 84 rushing yards and the 1 score.

After senior TB De'Vion Moore was injured and lost for the game on the first series of the night, Josey came off the bench and gave the running game a spark, as he had 94 yards on just 9 carries.

Penalties were rampant on both sides of the ball, as the teams combined for 23 penalties and 224 penalty yards.

Despite converting on only 3-of-15 3rd downs, Mizzou still managed 501 yards of offense and held a time of possession advantage of 32:43-to-27:17.

GAME #3 • MIZZOU 69, WESTERN ILLINOIS 0

SEPT. 17, 2011 • MEMORIAL STADIUM/FAUROT FIELD • COLUMBIA, MO. • (63,420)

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) - Henry Josey rushed for three touchdowns and 263 yards in just one half of play, while James Franklin threw for three scores as Missouri overwhelmed Western Illinois 69-0.

Missouri (2-1) set a school record with 744 yards of offense and tied a school record for most points scored while holding Western Illinois (1-2) to just one first down and 44 total yards. That outburst broke the previous record of 665 yards against Kansas in 1949, and the 700-yard difference in total offense shattered the previous school record difference of 489 yards, when Mizzou beat Bowling Green 37-0 in Columbia in 1998, thanks to an edge in total offense of 545-to-56.

The Tigers built a 42-0 halftime lead against the overmatched Leathernecks of the Football Championship Subdivision. Josey scored on rushes of 6, 21 and 68 yards, breaking his career high of 112 yards in the first quarter. He didn't play in the second half, missing a chance to top Devin West's school-record 319 yards against Kansas in 1998.

Wes Kemp caught two TDs for Missouri, including a 37-yarder on a 4th-and-3 to cap Mizzou's first drive of the night. Backup QB Jimmy Costello even got into the act, as he threw his first career touchdown in fourth-quarter duty, on a 54-yard catch-and-run by WR Jimmie Hunt (it was also Hunt's first career score).

Western Illinois quarterback Josh Hudson was just 4 for 15 for 20 yards with one interception for the Missouri Valley Conference school. He was sacked four times and harassed all night by a Missouri defense that only had one sack in an overtime road loss last week against Arizona State.

Bryce Flowers led Western Illinois with 28 yards rushing on 14 carries. He replaced starter Caulton Ray, who was suspended before the game for an unspecified violation of team rules. First-string left tackle Enock Presendieu was also suspended.

Franklin was 18 for 25 for 246 yards for Missouri, playing just two series in the second half before coach Gary Pinkel summoned Costello and later Ashton Glaser. Franklin threw touchdowns of 10 and 37 yards to Kemp and 30 yards to T.J. Moe.

Jared Culver had 11 carries for 86 yards and one touchdown in relief of Josey, with Greg White adding 10 carries for 36 yards. Josey carried the ball just 14 times, an average of nearly 19 yards per carry. He started his first game of the season after injuries to De'Vion Moore and Kendial Lawrence.

E.J. Gaines returned a punt 44 yards for a touchdown with under five minutes left in the game to cap the scoring on MU's record-setting night.

Missouri's 69 points matched a mark set against Kansas in 1969 and tied against Nevada in 2008. The Tigers' 69-point victory margin topped the previous record of 60 points versus Centre (Ky.) 83 years ago.

Missouri opens Big 12 Conference play next week with a visit to Norman and top-ranked Oklahoma. The Tigers upset the Sooners 36-27 last year in Columbia.

2011 GAME RECAPS

GAME #4 • #1 OKLAHOMA 38, MIZZOU 28

SEPT. 24, 2011 • GAYLORD FAMILY/MEMORIAL STADIUM • NORMAN, OKLA. • (85,547)

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) - After leading the Sooners at the end of the first quarter, the Tigers fell to top-ranked Oklahoma 38-28 on Saturday night.

The Tigers (2-2, 0-1 Big 12) pounced early to take a 14-3 first-quarter lead, breaking a streak of 20 straight home games in which Oklahoma (3-0, 1-0) never trailed. It didn't last though, as the Sooners roared back with 28 straight points to avenge a loss in Columbia last year when they were first in the BCS standings and move their home winning streak to 38 straight games.

Mizzou rolled up 532 yards of total offense, the most ever by a Tiger team in Norman. James Franklin threw for 291 yards and a touchdown, and ran 103 yards and 2 scores, playing on the same field where his father, Willie, starred for OU in the 1970s. Henry Josey continued his impressive stretch as he gashed the Sooner defense for 133 yards and a touchdown on the ground. All of those fireworks weren't enough, however, to negate a Sooner attack that rolled up 592 yards of its own.

Oklahoma's Landry Jones threw for 448 yards and three touchdowns to Ryan Broyles to lead the Sooner charge that overcame Mizzou's impressive start.

Missouri also had a hot start in last season's upset, returning the opening kickoff for a touchdown, but then was able to close strong with 16 straight fourth-quarter points for a 36-27 victory.

This time, the Sooners were able to prevent any late heroics by the Tigers.

Henry Josey took an option pitch and raced 48 yards down the left sideline for a score to make it 31-21 with 6:44 left in the game, and it could have been even closer if not for a pair of missed 46-yard field goals by Grant Ressel.

The Sooners eliminated any drama by answering immediately with a 62-yard scoring drive, capped by Broyles' twisting 4-yard grab in the back of the end zone. Broyles finished with 13 receptions for 154 yards, helping Jones to his fifth career 400-yard passing game.

Broyles got Oklahoma's rally started by scoring from 25 yards out on a throw that initially went through his arms. Broyles was able to cradle it along his leg and then secure it long enough before falling out of bounds that the touchdown call was upheld on review.

He followed that three drives later with a 4-yard TD catch in the right side of the end zone, and the Sooners never looked back.

Dominique Whaley added 150 total yards—82 on five catches and 68 on 16 rushes—and Jaz Reynolds contributed a career-high 93 yards receiving on five catches.

James Franklin scored on a 1-yard sneak and found L'Damian Washington open with a seam up the middle for a 45-yard touchdown pass to stake Missouri to an 14-3 lead. Only Texas Tech in 2006 had a larger lead at Oklahoma during its home winning streak, and Baylor had been the only opponent to hold a lead in Norman since Mizzou led by one in the fourth quarter in its last visit in 2007.

But after completing his first five passes, Franklin—the son of former Sooners tight end Willie Franklin—misfired on 15 of his next 19 attempts and finished with 291 yards on 16 for 33. He also had another 1-yard TD sneak with 32 seconds left to provide the final margin.

Michael Egnew, the Tigers' All-American tight end, didn't make his first catch until his team was down 17 in the fourth quarter. He ended up with two catches for 40 yards.

Missouri lost its 18th straight game on Owen Field, with its last win coming in 1966.

2011 GAME RECAPS

GAME #5 • #20 KANSAS STATE 24, MIZZOU 17

OCT. 8, 2011 • SNYDER FAMILY STADIUM • MANHATTAN, KAN. • (48,435)

MANHATTAN, Kan. – A pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns closed Mizzou to within one score of 20th-ranked Kansas State, but it was too little, too late for the Tigers, who fell to 2-3 overall and 0-2 in Big 12 Conference play following a disappointing 24-17 loss.

After three quarters of missed opportunities and crucial mistakes which gave the Wildcats at least 14 of their 24 points, the Tigers roared back late with short touchdown runs of 2 yards by TB Henry Josey with 8:12 left and 1 yard by QB James Franklin with 5:02 left to close to within seven points.

Needing one more stop by its defense to have a chance at tying the game, the Tigers couldn't get the ball back, as K-State managed a pair of 3rd-down conversions which allowed them to run out the clock and preserve the victory to improve to 5-0 and 2-0.

Two of K-State's touchdowns were gift-wrapped by Mizzou mistakes. The first came on the very first play of the day, when Franklin threw into double coverage down the left seam, right into the waiting arms of Wildcat defensive back Ty Zimmerman. Zimmerman intercepted the ball at the Mizzou 36-yardline and returned it 15 yards to set the Wildcats up deep in MU territory. The interception ended a stretch of 108 consecutive passes without an interception by Franklin.

It took Kansas State six plays to punch it into the end zone for a quick 7-0 lead.

Franklin was sacked for a 13-yard loss on Missouri's ensuing possession, and the Wildcats converted a 3rd-and-10 which keyed them to a 51-yard drive that ended in Anthony Cantele's field goal which made it 10-0.

By the time the first quarter drew to a close, the Tigers had exactly zero yards of total offense - 20 yards through the air and minus-20 on the ground.

"They just dropped back and they told us, 'Hey, we're going to make you guys have to make plays,'" Franklin said, "and we just made a bunch of mistakes and they capitalized on that."

Josey finally got things rolling for Missouri in the second quarter, using his quick feet to spring for a couple of long runs. But a false start inside the 10-yard line on second down pushed the Tigers back and they had to settle for Grant Ressel's 32-yard field goal to cut the deficit to 10-3.

Ressel had a chance to get Missouri within 10-6 at the break, but he pushed a 43-yard attempt wide right on the final play of the half as rain started to fall.

The Wildcats' only big mistake all game happened early in the third quarter, when Klein was picked off by Kip Edwards on the 2nd snap of the half. But their defense held and Ressel's 36-yard field goal attempt was wide left.

That ended a frustrating stretch of possessions for the Tiger offense that saw consecutive drives reach the Kansas State 9-yardline, the KSU 27, the KSU 24 and the KSU 17 — only to convert those opportunities into a mere 3 points.

Even with the missed chances, the Tigers still trailed only 10-3 after the last missed field goal, and their defense appeared to get the ball back to their offensive counterparts after stopping K-State on a 3-and-out. However, Mizzou cost itself when Darvin Ruise was called for roughing the punter, giving Kansas State the ball back. The Wildcats took full advantage of the second chance, and marched downfield for a back-breaking touchdown which made it 17-3 with 5:50 left in the third quarter.

K-State would win the field position battle over the next couple of series, and after backing MU up deep in its own territory, a 26-yard punt return led to a short touchdown drive of 36 yards early in the 4th for a 24-3 advantage. That set up Mizzou's late attempt at a rally, which came up one score short.

Mizzou won most every statistical battle on paper, but the missed opportunities and mistakes, combined with the Wildcats' ball control offense which held the ball for 38:28 proved too much to overcome.

2011 GAME RECAPS

GAME #6 • MIZZOU 52, IOWA STATE 17

OCT. 15, 2011 • FAUROT FIELD/MEMORIAL STADIUM • COLUMBIA, MO. • (71,004)

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) - James Franklin accounted for five touchdowns and Henry Josey had 129 yards rushing and a score as Missouri routed Iowa State 52-17 in its 100th homecoming game.

Michael Egnew, T.J. Moe and Wes Kemp each had a scoring reception for Missouri (3-3, 1-2 Big 12), which scored on its first four possessions. Much of a sellout crowd of 71,004 had dispersed by the end of the Tigers' 10th straight victory at home, and their first game at Faurot Field in a month.

It was the most lopsided setback of the year for Iowa State (3-3, 0-3). A.J. Klein's 78-yard interception return for a touchdown was the lone highlight for the Cyclones, who have been outscored 54-10 in the first quarter.

Iowa State's James White was held to 61 yards on 14 carries a week after getting a career-best 148 yards against Baylor.

White had 10 yards on 10 carries in the first three quarters.

Missouri had no penalty yardage in its fifth straight victory in the series. Linebacker Luke Lambert had two fumble recoveries.

After scoring on the first four drives for a 28-3 cushion, the Tigers turned it over in the passing game the next three times but were hurt only by Klein's third career touchdown. The Tigers had 298 yards rushing one week after managing just 112 yards in a loss at No. 17 Kansas State.

Missouri defensive tackle Terrell Resonno injured his right knee in the first half and did not return. The 295-pound senior has started all 14 games the last two seasons and had 15 tackles and a sack in the first five games.

Franklin was 20 for 28 for 289 yards and three touchdowns and rushed for 84 yards on 11 carries with two touchdowns. Josey had 129 yards on 19 carries for his third 100-yard game of the year and scored in the fifth straight game.

Missouri opened the game with 10 straight runs, including Franklin's 1-yard sneak with 12:03 to go in the first quarter for its fastest first touchdown of the year.

The Tigers' second score came quickly, too, after Steele Jantz fumbled on an option run and Lambert recovered at the Iowa State 38, setting up a 2-yard run by Josey.

Egnew had six catches for 105 yards. He split the defense and had an easy route to the end zone the last 20 yards on a 39-yard catch, the longest of the tight end's career, to make it 21-3 late in the first.

The Cyclones lost by 23 points in each of their first two Big 12 games.
