Tonight's Game

IOWA STATE VS. MISSOURI

February 21, 1990

Hilton Coliseum 7 p.m.

Depending on how you look at it, tonight's game between the Iowa State Cyclones and the Missouri Tigers could be an end of sorts, but also a beginning.

As the seniors take the court at James H. Hilton Coliseum for the last time, they will be looking to go out in style. A victory could bring the Tigers' 28-game winning streak to an end, giving the Cyclones their first win in the series while enabling this group of cagers to accomplish something no other Iowa State team has been able to achieve.

Vanessa Ward

Missouri ran its record to 28-0 over Iowa State earlier this year with a 69-65 victory in Columbia. Senior forward Shelly Coyle led the ISU offensive attack with 19 points, shooting seven-of-12 from the field and five-of-seven from the line. Junior forward Lisa Sandbothe paced the Tigers with 17 points on the night. As a team, Iowa State shot 57 percent for the game, but was out-scored 34-18. It was the closest contest between the two schools since 1988, when Missouri defeated the Cyclones by the identical score at the Big Eight Tournament. The teams first met in 1977, with Missouri an 83-66 victor.

Iowa State is coming off a tough 69-67 loss at Kansas State last Saturday to run its record to 12-13 overall, 2-10 in the Big Eight. Coyle posted 18 points for her 16th consecutive game in double figures to lead the team. Senior forward/guard Vanessa Ward followed with 16 points and six assists. With that performance, Ward became only the seventh Cyclone in history to reach the 1,000-point plateau. Her career total now stands at 1,010.

Junior center Lynne Lorenzen picked up 14 points vs. the Lady Cats for her fourth consecutive game in double digits. She enters tonight's contest with a 10.2 ppg average among Big Eight competition, and a 9.9 ppg average overall.

Junior forward/guard Laurie Decker continues to light up the court from three-point range, after connecting on two-of-four shots at KSU. She is shooting 48 percent from the three-point line with 31 baskets on the year. Twenty-one of those field goals have come against Big Eight competition to give her a percentage of .553 through 12 games.

Missouri stands at 18-7 overall and 9-3 in the conference, following a 76-72 win over Oklahoma State. Sandbothe and senior guard Marcia Brooks directed the Tigers' offensive output with 24 points apiece. Sandbothe also leads Missouri overall with a 13.9 ppg average, followed by Brooks at 13.4 ppg. As a team, Missouri is out-scoring its opponents, 73.2-65.7 ppg.
