Tigers Return Home for Matchup with Sooners on Saturday

The University of Missouri men's basketball squad (10-13, 2-7 Big 12) returns to Big 12 Conference action on Saturday to take on the No. 16/18 Oklahoma Sooners in an afternoon matchup. The Tigers wrapped up the non-conference portion of their schedule on Wednesday night when they lost a close contest to UNLV in Las Vegas, 74-71. The Tigers were 8-6 against non-Big 12 teams during the regular season.

In the contest with the Rebels, sophomores Linas Kleiza (24 points, eight rebounds) and Thomas Gardner (23 points, four three pointers) became the first Tigers to both surpass the 20-point barrier in the same game since former Tigers Rickey Paulding (31 points) and Arthur Johnson (29 points) did so against Oklahoma State last year.

The contest will be Mizzou's first appearance on ABC this season and will tip at 12:30 pm CST. Dave O'Brien will be providing the play-by-play while former Duke All-American Jason Williams will be the analyst. The Tiger Radio Network's 60 affiliates around the state of Missouri will also be carrying the game with the 'Voice of the Tigers' Mike Kelly offering the play-by-play and former Tiger great Gary Link providing the analysis.

On the year, the Tigers are 6-0 in day games (or games that have started earlier than 6 p.m.), 4-3 on Saturdays and 1-3 on the season against ranked teams. Also of note is the fact that last year's OU-MU game was broadcast on ABC, with the Tigers' prevailing in overtime.

About the Sooners

Oklahoma enters Saturday's contest with an 17-5 record overall and are 6-3 in the Big 12 conference, putting them alone in fourth place in the league. After starting the season at 16-2, the Sooners have dropped three of their last four including a 79-67 setback at the hands of Oklahoma State on ESPN's Big Monday earlier this week.

OU has received outstanding contributions from junior college transfer Taj Gray this season. He has earned Phillips 66 Big 12 Newcomer of the Week Honors four times and leads the Sooners in both scoring (15.6 ppg.) and rebounding (8.9 rpg.)

Senior Kevin Bookout also continues to be one of the top interior players in the league. He is shooting a blazing 62.6 percent from the field which leads the Big 12 by five percent and is also in the top 10 in the conference in rebounding at 6.9 rebounds per game.

Four Sooners average in double figures in scoring for Head Coach Kelvin Sampson, who is in his 11th season at OU and has amassed an impressive mark of 251-97 during his time OU.

MIZZOU Basketball

A Look Back ... Mizzou vs. UNLV

Sophomores' Linas Kleiza ad Thomas Gardner knocked in a combined 57 of the Tigers' 71 points against UNLV. Below are a couple other notes from the contest ...

Missouri Team Notes after the Texas A&M Game

- The Tigers fall to 10-13 overall and are 10-4 at home, 0-6 on the road and 0-3 in neutral court contests on the season.
- The Tigers used their seventh different starting line up of the season on Wednesday starting freshmen Jason Horton and Marshall Brown, sophomores Linas Kleiza and Thomas Gardner and junior Jimmy McKinney.
- After trailing by as many as 11 in the second half, the Tigers tied the contest at 67-67 with 1:15 left in the contest, only to lose, 74-71.
- The Tigers equaled a season low with only seven turnovers on the night including only two turnovers in the second half.
- The game at UNLV concludes a three-game road swing and also was the Tigers final regular season non-conference contest. They finished the regular season with an 8-6 record in non-conference games.
- The Tigers still lead the all-time series with the Runnin' Rebels, 3-2.
- Head Coach Quin Snyder is now 110-76 during his six years at Mizzou.
- The Tigers led the contest at halftime, 37-31. They have led each of their last three contests at the break but have dropped all three. Prior to the three-game roadie, Mizzou had been 9-0 when leading at half on the year.
- Mizzou has now lost five straight games (its longest streak every under head coach Quin Snyder). They have also dropped eight of their last nine games.
- The Tigers now return home for three of their next four contests. They welcome Oklahoma to Mizzou Arena for a 12:30 p.m., tip that will be broadcast regionally on ABC Sports.

Missouri Player Notes

- Sophomores Linas Kleiza and Thomas Gardner scored 24 and 23 points, respectively. This marks the first time this season that two Tigers have exceeded the 20-point barrier in the same contest. In fact, the last time that occurred was against No. 6 Oklahoma State on Feb. 6, 2004 in Columbia when Rickey Paulding scored a game-high 31 and Arthur Johnson registered 29 on the night.
- With his 24 points and eight boards, sophomore Linas Kleiza led Mizzou in both scoring and rebounding for the seventh time this season. He has recorded eight or more boards 10 times this season.
- Kleiza was 9-of-17 from the field and 5-of-8 from the free throw line. The nine field goals he made equals a career-best he set against Montana earlier this season
- Sophomore Thomas Gardner's 23 points was a career-high, eclipsing his previous career mark of 20 points he set against UNLV last season in Columbia.
- Sophomore Thomas Gardner's eight field goals equals a career-best and his 20-field goal attempts was a career-high.

A Tale of Two Halves

Mizzou has gotten off to great starts in each of the last three games, grabbing leads after the first 20 minutes in all three contests. They outscored Kansas, Texas A&M and UNLV by a combined total of 107-93 and have shot 48.2 percent (41-of-85) in the opening stanzas.

However, Mizzou has struggled mightily in the second half of each contest and has been outscored by a combined total of 144-87 while allowing the Jayhawks, Aggies and Rebels to shoot a combined 59.0 percent from the field (49-of-83).

A Repeat Performance (Part 2)?

The Tigers are looking to duplicate their gritty overtime win over the Sooners from a year ago on Saturday. In last year's game, sophomore Linas Kleiza scored 13 points and pulled down nine rebounds and former Tiger Rickey Paulding scored nine of his 23 points in overtime to lead Mizzou to the win. The Tigers have won two of their last three against OU and in both wins, OU has been ranked in the Top 15 (No. 3 in 2003 and No. 11 in 2004).

Laurie Will Seek Medical Redshirt

Tiger guard will not return this season

University of Missouri guard Spencer Laurie will seek a medical redshirt due to reoccurring complications with injuries to his right knee and ankle, it was announced by Missouri Head Coach Quin Snyder. Laurie had surgery on a partially torn meniscus on Dec. 28 and also suffered a high ankle sprain prior to the Tigers' semifinal appearance in the Guardians Classic earlier this season.

What Can Brown Do for You? (The Remix)

I guess we could have gone with 'there's a new Marshall in town,' or something Clarence Gilbert-esque like that, but we will stick with what has worked so far in the notes this season. Much like UPS, who uses the slogan of 'What can brown do for you?,' freshman Marshall Brown continues to deliver for Mizzou. He leads the Tigers in three-point field goal percentage (44.7 percent - 17-of-38) and is averaging 17.4 minutes per contest. He has scored seven or more points in eight of the Tigers' last 14 games.

Brown knocked down 5-of-7 shots on the night including two highlight reel dunks in the first half against Texas A&M on his way to 11 points in the fifth start of his career.

Making the fourth start of his career, Brown had a solid outing at Kansas going for seven points while also pulling down five boards. Brown showed off his outstanding leaping ability early in the second half when he took an ally oop from fellow Texan Jason Horton on a baseline-out-of-bounds play that put Mizzou up by eight over KU.

Brown was amazing against Colorado, knocking down 3-of-3 shots from the three point line. He also pulled down a career-best eight rebounds in only 16 minutes of playing time due to foul trouble

The super-athletic forward scored a career-best 12 points in 22 minutes of action to lead Mizzou in scoring for the first time in his career against Texas Tech.

Bench Marks

The Tigers who have come off of the bench for Mizzou have played a key role this season. When the Tigers' bench has outscored the opponent's bench, they are 8-5. Mizzou's bench has averaged 20.5 points per contest compared its opponent's mark of 16.7 points per game. The Tiger bench dominated KU's reserves to the tune of 25-2. In the loss to Texas Tech, Mizzou's bench scored 31 of the Tigers' 62 points.

Tigers Set School Record for Team GPA in Fall Semester

The University of Missouri men's basketball team continues to achieve both on and off the court this season

With final grades now set for the 2004 fall semester at Mizzou, the reports show that the men's basketball team has established a record for its team grade point average. Bryan Maggard, MU's Associate Athletic Director for Academic Services, says that the Tiger men's team came in with a cumulative team GPA of 2.91 this past fall - which was the highest single semester mark in recorded history for an MU men's basketball squad.

According to Maggard, four Tiger cagers had GPAs of over 3.0 on the standard 4.0 scale, and two will earn a place on the coveted Dean's List.

The achievement comes on the heels of the 2004 NCAA Graduation Report, which shows that the Missouri men's basketball team led the Big 12 Conference in graduation rates, at 67%. The next-best rate in the league belonged to Colorado (40%), followed by Texas Tech and Kansas (33%) and Nebraska (20%). The rates represent students who enrolled in 1997-98 and graduated within six years.

At the Line with Linas

At the risk of totally jinxing the progress the Tigers made from the free throw line of late, we offer this intriguing analysis of the Tigers' free throw shooting, in particular in regard to sophomore Linas Kleiza. The Tigers knocked down a season-high 90.0 percent (18-of-20) from the free throw line against OSU after entering the contest shooting just 64.1 percent on the season.

They were spurred by Kleiza's remarkable 13-for-13 shooting from the stripe, setting a then career best for free throws made in a game. Linas has made a living at the free throw line this season, getting to the charity stripe 148 times already. Kleiza has hit 108 of those attempts, good for 73.0 percent accuracy. He has been particularly impressive the past 14 games, knocking down 82-of-104 attempts (78.8 percent) and has averaged juat under seven trips to the line per game during that stretch.

Shouldering the Load

Linas Kleiza has recovered fully from a shoulder separation he experienced half way through last season and he has shouldered a major part of the Tiger offense this season. The All-Big 12 Preseason Honorable Mention recipient has been amazing offensively so far this season and continues to improve on defense.

Kleiza returned to the Tiger starting lineup after a three-game hiatus against UNLV. He scored a game-high 24 points and also pulled down eight rebounds against the Rebels and knocked down 9-of-17 shots.

He registered his fifth double-double of the season against Kansas State in Columbia, scoring 11 points and pulling down 11 rebounds on the night .

Kleiza put together an amazing effort against Nebraska in Columbia, scoring a career-best 31 points on 8-of-12 shooting from the field. He also knocked down 15-of-17 free throws against the Huskers on his way to his fourth double-double of the season.

Despite four turnovers against Texas Tech, Kleiza was able to record his third double-double of the season against the Red Raiders, scoring 10 points and pulling down 12 rebounds.

After struggling to just four points in the first half against Kansas State, Kleiza scored 10 of his team-high 14 points while also pulling down eight rebounds against KSU. The offensive juggernaut reached the 20-point plateau for the fourth time this season against Oklahoma State when he dumped in 24 points while going a perfect 13-of-13 from the free throw line. Kleiza scored 25 (of Mizzou's 64) points, pulled down seven rebounds and handed out three assists against Illinois.

After scoring just three points in the opening half against Indiana, Kleiza poured in 15 of his game-high 18 points in the second half including 12 free throws in the win.

He had the best offensive game of his career against Montana, scoring a career-best 26 points on 9-of-15 shooting from the field. Kleiza recorded the fifth double-double of his career against Arkansas with a team-high 14 points and 11 rebounds. He broke out of mini-scoring funk with 13 points, nine boards and nine assists against Oakland while turning the ball over just one time, something he has been focusing on improving all season. He is definitely Mizzou's most versatile player as he leads the team in scoring (15.7 ppg.), rebounds (7.1 rpg.) and is third on the squad in assists (42).

The Youth of the Tiger Nation

The freshmen on the Tiger roster have started to really assert themselves on the court for Mizzou. Over the course of the last 16 games, Marshall Brown, Kalen Grimes, Jason Horton and Glen Dandridge have combined to score 27.0 percent of the Tigers points (311-of-1151) and all four of them have set or equaled career highs in points during that stretch.

Horton was amazing at Texas A&M, knocking down 5-of-6 three point shots on his way to 17 points against the Aggies. Brown and Dandridge both started their second straight games at Kansas and combined to score 12 points on the night. Dandridge made his first career start in the Tigers' home contest against Kansas State. He knocked down a three and equaled a career best by playing 16 minutes in the contest. He has now hit a three in three straight contests for Mizzou and has nine threes on the season.

Brown was outstanding against Colorado, knocking down 3-of-3 three point attempts and pulling down eight rebounds against the Buffs. He scored a career-best 12 points in the Tigers loss to Texas Tech. He knocked down two threes and was also 2-of-2 from the free throw line. Horton equaled a then career high with 12 points for the second straight game against Iowa State. He and Brown had great outings against American. Horton scored a career-best 12 points while Brown chipped in with nine as the Tigers took out the Eagles. The foursome was great against Gonzaga, combining for 16 points and 10 rebounds. Horton scored six points and handed out three assists and recorded no turnovers in 37 minutes while running the Tiger offense. Dandridge and Grimes also had solid nights. Dandridge scored five points on 2-of-3 shooting while also recording a steal, a block and an assist in seven minutes of playing time while Grimes set a career-best with six rebounds.

A Peek at the Mizzou Arena

On September 21, 2002, a new and exciting phase for Missouri Basketball began with the groundbreaking for a brand new, $75 million state-of-the-art facility. The new arena is an imposing place to play for opposing teams and provides unbelievable options for the Tigers when it comes to player development. In addition to more seating, with a capacity of 15,061, there are a host of other exciting additions:

- 26 Luxury Suites
- State-of-the art training room
- Expanded locker room facilities complete with film room and player lounge
- Practice gym
- Basketball office complex
- Box office and team store
- Missouri Athletics Hall of Fame

Mizzou Arena houses all the up-to-date technologies desired in a modern sports facility. Both men's and women's basketball programs have video game film viewing theaters; all coaches offices and meeting rooms have cable TV hook-ups and both private (suites, clubs) and public (concession stands, retail store) areas throughout the arena have direct-game and cable televisions in place. Adjacent to the west side truck dock are dedicated and secured television production and satellite truck parking areas with permanent patch-in panels. The audio-video room within the arena is also linked to Missouri's two major sports venues - the Hearnes Center and Memorial Football Stadium. The arena contains a center-hung scoreboard-video board as well as 30" high video ribbon board located above the luxury suites where the lower and upper seating bowl transition occurs.

New Editions

No, I am not going to break into a rendition of "Cool it Now" or "Candy Girl" (as much as you all would enjoy that) but Mizzou has two members of its staff that are beginning new editions of their careers. And like the group "New Edition," you might say that the newest members of the Tiger coaching family are old school.

Associate Head Coach Melvin Watkins joined the Tigers in July after six years as head coach at Texas A&M and a two year stint as head coach at UNC-Charlotte. Watkins has brought a wealth of experience and energy to the Tiger bench. The other new face on the Tiger bench is assistant coach Jeff Meyer, who most recently was an assistant at Butler University for three years. Meyer brings 25 years of coaching experience to Mizzou including 16 years as a head coach at Liberty University. He also joined the Tiger bench in July.

Coach Quin Snyder

6th Year at MU
110-76

In his sixth year at the helm of the Mizzou basketball program is Quin Snyder. Missouri's 15th head coach, Snyder has built a program that has joined the upper echelon of college basketball. With a focus on developing players academically, physically, skillfully and socially, Snyder's squads have enjoyed trips to the post season in each of the last five seasons including four trips to the NCAA Tournament. Mizzou has averaged exactly 20.0 wins per contest during Snyder's five-year tenure at Mizzou. The intense competitor the Tiger players call "Coach Q" won his 100th career game last season when Mizzou defeated Texas A&M in the Big 12 Tournament. He became the fourth coach in Mizzou school history to reach the 100-win plateau and Snyder will have a great opportunity to add to that total with a contract that will keep him as a fixture on the Tiger bench through 2007-08.

In 2004-05, Mizzou returns several of its top players including senior Jason Conley, junior Jimmy McKinney and sophomores Thomas Gardner and Linas Kleiza. Snyder and his staff also gathered a sixth straight Top 25 recruiting class to augment the already talented roster. Mizzou has moved to a new state-of-the-art home this season, the Mizzou Arena, which holds around 15,000 rowdy Missouri fans and gives the Tigers an unbelievable opportunity to build on the foundation of success that has been established.

Given the success and excitement Snyder's squads have generated in his five years at the helm, it is not surprising that Tiger fans are looking for big things from Mizzou in 2004-05. In 2003-04, Snyder led the Tigers to wins over Top 20 teams such as Oklahoma State and Oklahoma. He also saw his second recruiting class of Arthur Johnson, Rickey Paulding, Travon Bryant and Josh Kroenke complete outstanding careers at Mizzou. Johnson and Paulding both jumped into the Top 10 on the Tiger scoring charts and Johnson finished his career as the Tigers' all-time leader in blocked shots and rebounds. That outstanding class also finished their career having played in the most NCAA Tournament contests of any class in school history with eight.

A native of the Pacific Northwest, Snyder, 37, attended Mercer Island High School in the state of Washington. A two-time state player of the year, Snyder led the team to the 1985 state championship. During this time, Mercer Island achieved a No. 1 ranking in USA Today's high school polls. Snyder was named a McDonald's All-America player, being the first ever chosen from the state of Washington.

Snyder and his wife, the former Helen Redwine, a native of Charlotte, N.C, have one son, Owen Redwine Snyder, born on December 25, 2002.

Tigers Open Season With Win Over Brown

Gardner scores 19 points pulls down 12 boards in victory

Nov. 15, 2004

Thomas Gardner had 19 points and 12 rebounds for his first career double double, helping Missouri pull away in the second half for a 68-60 victory over pesky Brown in the opening round of the Guardians Classic on Monday night.

The Tigers, who shot 35 percent in their first regular-season game in the new Paige Sports Arena, will play Houston in the second round on Tuesday night. Houston rallied from a 10-point second-half deficit to beat Sam Houston State 72-69 earlier Monday.

Linas Kleiza added 17 points and nine rebounds for Missouri, which trailed by five in the first half and struggled to adjust to Brown's 2-3 defense. The Tigers were 3-for-18 from 3-point range midway through the second half before finally starting to connect, finishing 7-for-26.

Damon Huffman had 16 points for Brown, shorthanded without Ivy League player of the year Jason Forte, a point guard, who is suspended indefinitely for conduct detrimental to the team.

Brown compensated for Forte's absence by going 11-for-21 from 3-point range. Huffman was 5-for-7 and Adolphe Coulibaly was 3-for-3 and added 11 points.

Gardner, a 6-5 guard, was 2-for-8 in the first half and missed all five of his 3-point attempts. He was 5-for-8 the rest of the way, including 3-for-5 from long range, and he also had four assists. He had five offensive rebounds.

Gardner and Jimmy McKinney hit consecutive 3-pointers to give Missouri, which led only 33-32 at halftime, a 49-40 lead with 12 minutes to go. Brown answered with a 3-pointer by Huffman with 11:15 left but never got any closer.

That was typical of Brown, which also quickly responded to Missouri's best play of the game. A steal and behind-the-back pass from Spencer Laurie to Glen Dandridge for a dunk put the Tigers ahead 33-29 with 40 seconds left in the first half, but Ruscoe, hardly rattled, hit a 3-pointer 16 seconds later.

Guardians Classic - Regional Semi-Final Game 2

Mizzou Hits 12 Threes in Win Over Houston

Jimmy McKinney scores 16 in Tiger win.

Nov. 16

Columbia, MO - Linas Kleiza had 19 points and 14 rebounds and Missouri outscored Houston 20-1 over a 6 minute span that began near the end of the first half of a 77-61 victory over Houston in the second round of the Guardians Classic on Tuesday night.

Missouri (2-0) endured a first-half stretch in which it made one basket in more than 11 minutes and fell behind by five points. The Tigers had little trouble scoring the rest of the game, shooting 50 percent and going 12-for-23 from 3-point range.

Missouri hit only three of its first 18 from long range in the opening round against Brown.

Thomas Gardner scored all but three of his 18 points in the second half for the Tigers, who advanced to the semifinals on Tuesday in Kansas City. Jimmy McKinney had 16 points and Jason Conley 14, and Kleiza added five assists.

Andre Owens had 16 points and Lanny Smith 14 for Houston (1-1), which last faced Missouri in 1982. Houston rallied from a 10-point second half deficit in the first round against Sam Houston State for its first season-opening victory since 1999, but never threatened a repeat comeback.

The Cougars led 29-24 with 3:47 left in the first half before the roof caved in. Jason Conley had a 3-pointer at the end of the half and another at the start of the second half of the run that gave Missouri a comfortable 44-30 lead with 15:30 to play.The lead grew to as many as 21 points later in the half, a 62-41 bulge with 7:36 left.

Missouri totaled four points during its first-half dry spell, a basket by Kevin Young and two free throws, before heating up.The Tigers have had double double outings in each of the first two games. Gardner had the first of his career on Monday with 19 points and 12 rebounds and has come off the bench both games.
Kleiza had three double doubles as a freshman last season and missed one in the opener by only one rebound.

Mizzou Falls to Davidson

Kleiza scores a career-best 25 points in loss

Nov. 19, 2004

Columbia, MO - Matt McKillop scored a career high 28 points and Davidson got away with squandering all but one point of a 19-point lead on the road in a 84-81 victory over Missouri on Friday night.

Davidson (1-0) was 10-for-18 from 3-point range to win its season opener for the first time since 1996-97. It was the first meeting between the two teams. In the process, the Wildcats handed Missouri (2-1) its first loss in the new Paige Sports Arena.

Linas Kleiza had a career-best 25 points and six rebounds for Missouri, which won its first two home games over Brown and Houston in the Guardians Classic by a combined 24 points. Besides erasing 18 points of the 19-point deficit, the Tigers whittled a late 13-point Davidson lead to two before faltering at the end.

Brendan Winters scored 10 of his 19 points in just under three minutes, and his 3-pointer with 12:50 left put Davidson ahead 58-39 - a 19-point lead that matched the Wildcats' largest of the game.

Missouri responded with a 23-5 run, getting nine points from Jason Conley and eight from Kleiza. Thomas Gardner's steal and 3-pointer cut the deficit to 63-62 with 7:12 remaining.

Davidson appeared to have put the game away for the second time when it answered with 12 straight points, five by Kenny Grant, for a 75-62 lead with 4:24 left. Missouri answered again, cutting the deficit to two points on Gardner's 3-pointer that made it 83-81 with 23.1 seconds left.

Grant added a free throw with 19 seconds left and Missouri missed three shots at the end, a 3-pointer by Gardner, a follow shot by Conley and another 3-pointer by Conley that fell short. Conley added 18 points, Gardner had 14 and Jimmy McKinney 12 for Missouri.

Tigers Lost to Creighton in Guardians SemiFinals

Mizzou will face Houston in consolation game

Nov. 23, 2004

Kansas City, MO - Nate Funk scored 21 points and Johnny Mathies came off the bench to score 18 points as Creighton defeated Missouri 78-54 on Tuesday night in the Guardians Classic semifinals.

Creighton (4-0) will meet Ohio State (4-0), which defeated Houston 78-61 in the other semifinal game Tuesday, in the tournament championship game Wednesday night.

Funk, who led the Bluejays in scoring last season as a sophomore, made 8-of-11 field goals, including 3-of-6 3-pointers. He also scored 21 points on Feb. 1 at Evansville. Mathies scored all of his points in the second half.

Linas Kleiza was the only Tiger in double figures with 12 points. Missouri starting guard Jimmy McKinney was held scoreless for the first time in his career.

The Tigers (2-2) shot just 32 percent from the field, missing 34-of-50, while the Bluejays hit 48 percent of their shots.

Creighton, which defeated Notre Dame in the 2002 Guardians Classic championship game, dominated the first half after a sluggish start, falling behind 7-3 in the initial four minutes.

Creighton went on an 11-0 run to seize a 16-9 lead midway through the opening half. The Bluejays led 44-27 at halftime.

Creighton hit 8-of-15 3-pointers in the first half, while Missouri made just 1-of-9. The Bluejays' swarming defense forced the Tigers into nine first-half turnovers, which Creighton converted into 11 points.

The Tigers opened the second half by not scoring in the first 5:16, missing their first seven field goal attempts. Jason Conley ended the scoring drought with two free throws with 14:04 left.

The Bluejays also had difficulties scoring at the beginning of the second half. Funk made Creighton's only field goal in eight attempts in the first five minutes.
Missouri will face Houston (2-2) in the consolation game Wednesday. Missouri defeated Houston 77-61 last week.

Tigers Drop Consolation of Guardians

Mizzou falls to 2-3 on the year.

Nov. 24, 2004

Kansas City, MO - Andre Owens scored a game-high 24 points, including a free throw with 9.7 seconds left, as Houston beat Missouri 57-55 for third place on Wednesday night in the Guardians Classic.

The Cougars won despite not making a field goal in the last six minutes. Lanny Smith's 3-pointer with 6:01 to play gave Houston a 55-46 lead. With 16 seconds remaining, the Tigers' Kevin Young was called for walking, nullifying a field goal. And just before the buzzer, Linas Kleiza missed what would have been a game-tying layup.

Missouri (2-3) has lost three straight after winning its first two games of the season.

Jason Conley led Missouri with 13 points, while Jimmy McKinney contributed 11. Kleiza, who had 19 points against Houston last week, was held to nine points.

The Tigers, who connected on 12 3-pointers in defeating Houston 77-61 on Nov. 16 at Columbia, missed their first six 3-pointers before McKinney hit a 3-pointer to start the second half. Missouri was only 2-for-16 in 3-point range.

The Cougars led by as many as nine points in the first half behind the shooting of Owens, who had 15 points halftime. Houston led 35-28 at halftime.

The Tigers committed nine turnovers and hit only 34.5 percent of their first-half shots as the Cougars went 15-of-30 from the field.

Houston started the second half cold, scoring just two points - an Englebert Cherrington field goal - in the first eight minutes as Missouri pulled within one with 12:38 left on a Kalen Grimes free throw. But Owens made back-to-back 3-pointers with 8:23 left to start a 10-2 run.

The Tigers responded with seven unanswered points, including three from Conley, to pull within two points with 3:14 left.

Mizzou Beats Racers to Finish Line

Tigers make flying comeback to win, 59-55 at Mizzou Arena

Nov. 28, 2004

Columbia, MO - Jimmy McKinney scored 12 points and Jason Conley added 11, leading Missouri to a 59-55 victory over Murray State on Sunday.

Thomas Gardner had 10 points for the Tigers (3-3), whose win in the newly-renamed Mizzou Arena broke a three-game losing streak.

After a 12-2 run gave Murray State (2-1) a 46-39 lead with 7:55 left, Missouri responded with an 16-4 rally for a 55-50 lead.

Conley scored the Tigers' first eight points in the run, and McKinney hit a 3-pointer with 4:55 left to put the Tigers up 50-48.

Trey Pearson hit a 3-pointer with 1:12 to go, getting Murray State within two points, and Conley committed a turnover on Missouri's next possession. The Blue Racers were unable to convert, however, and Missouri sealed its win with free throws from McKinney, Conley and Jason Horton.

The Tigers, who struggled from the field in losses to Creighton and Houston in last week's Guardian Classic, hit six of their first eight shots to take a 17-5 lead. Murray State was 2-for-10 over that span, including 1-for-6 from long range.

But after Linas Kleiza's 3-pointer with 10:47 left in the half gave the Tigers a 20-5 lead, Missouri went scoreless until Kevin Young's layup with 3:02 to go.

The Blue Racers went on a 13-0 run during the Tigers' slump and trailed by a point, 27-26, at the half.

Pearson led Murray State with 16 points and Issian Redding added 15.

Conley and Gardner Score 18 a piece in win

Dec. 4, 2004

Columbia, MO - Jason Conley scored 18 points in 19 minutes to lead Missouri to a 70-61 win against Oakland University on Saturday.

After the teams traded the lead in the opening minutes of the second half, the Tigers' second 12-0 run of the game gave them an advantage that put them up for good. Thomas Gardner scored the first six points of the run, followed by two 3-pointers from Conley. The rally gave the Tigers (4-3) a 50-38 lead with 13 minutes remaining.

Oakland (0-5) could not cut the deficit to fewer than four points the rest of the way.

Conley, who fought foul trouble throughout the game, scored five points in seven minutes in the first half before his production increased in the second. He finished 6-for-9 from the field, including 4-for-6 from 3. Gardner also had 18 points, all but three of which came in the second half.

Both teams struggled early, combining to shoot 7-for-28 from the field, including 1-for-9 from 3, in the first 8:25. The Tigers then surged, making five straight shots during a 12-0 run that pushed their lead to 23-10. Jason Horton, shooting just 20 percent from the outside entering the game, hit two 3-pointers in the rally.

Missouri scored just one basket in the final six minutes of the first half, allowing Oakland to score 16 of the half's final 21 points. Oakland took a brief 29-27 lead before a three-point play from Gardner in the final minute gave the Tigers a 30-29 halftime edge.

Linas Kleiza added 13 points for the Tigers while Cortney Scott scored 15 to lead the Grizzlies. Rawle Marshall, who entered the game leading the Mid-Continent Conference in scoring with a 21-point average, had just five in the first half. He finished with 14. Kris Krzyminski added 14 for the Grizzlies.

Arkansas tops Tigers in Columbia

Kleiza scores 14 points and pulls down 11 rebounds

Dec. 7, 2004

Columbia, MO - Ronnie Brewer had 20 points and five assists and Arkansas held Missouri to 30 percent shooting in a 62-52 victory on Tuesday night.

Olu Famutimi added eight points and eight rebounds to help Arkansas (6-1) bounce back from its lone loss of the season to then-No. 3 Illinois three days earlier. The Razorbacks won despite being held to a season low point total after entering the game with a 77-point average.

Linas Kleiza had 14 points and 11 rebounds for Missouri (4-4), but was only 6-for-16 from the field. The Tigers missed their first 10 shots, then began the second half 0-for-7 en route to their worst shooting of the season, including going only 3-for-19 from 3-point range.

Reserve Marshall Brown added 10 points for Missouri, which also lost for the second time in only six games at the new Mizzou Arena. Thomas Gardner was 2-for-10, Jimmy McKinney 1-for-8, Jason Horton 0-for-7 and Jason Conley 2-for-6.

Arkansas shot 48 percent overall to beat Missouri for the seventh straight time, although this was the first meeting between the bordering states since 1997.

Arkansas also struggled early, missing eight straight shots after starting the game 3-for-4. The Razorbacks got away with 38 percent shooting in the first half, leading 27-25, and never trailed in the second half.

The key point in the second half came when Gardner got a steal but then lost control of the ball and missed a layup that could have cut the gap to one with just under four minutes to go. Arkansas responded with a 3-pointer by Eric Ferguson for a six-point lead.

Missouri's previous worst shooting was 32 percent against Houston in the Guardians Classic Nov. 24 in Kansas City.

Mizzou Dominates Montana

Kleiza goes for 26 in win

Dec. 11, 2004

Columbia, MO - Linas Kleiza dominated the final eight minutes of the first half and finished with a career-high 26 points to lead Missouri to an 87-62 win over Montana on Saturday.

Jimmy McKinney added 11 for the Tigers (5-4), while Kalen Grimes had a career-high 12 points and four blocks in 14 minutes. Kamarr Davis had 12 points and eight rebounds to lead Montana (3-4).

With Missouri ahead 14-10, Kleiza took over to rally the Tigers to a 16-point halftime lead. After missing his first four shots, Kleiza scored 16 points in the last eight minutes of the half. Missouri scored the final 10 points of the half and took a 37-21 lead into break.

In the second half, Kleiza picked up where he left off, opening the Tigers' scoring with a 3-pointer. Missouri extended its lead to as many as 20 points before the Grizzlies cut into the deficit with an 11-1 run that made it 50-40. An alley-oop dunk by Jason Conley and a 3-pointer from Kleiza a minute later returned the Tigers' lead to 17 points. Missouri extended its advantage to as many as 27 points and Montana did not challenge the rest of the way.

Mimicking Missouri's early shooting struggles, Montana went 2-for-13 in the first nine minutes, allowing the Tigers to jump out to an early 12-5 lead. Glen Dandridge, who had played a total of two minutes in the Tigers' past four games, scored five of Missouri's first 14 points and finished with seven.

After shooting 30 percent in a loss to Arkansas on Tuesday, Missouri was significantly more effective against the Grizzlies, finishing 48 percent from the field. Missouri's 87 points was a season high.

The Missouri defense limited Montana to 32 percent shooting in the first half, well below the Grizzlies' average of 44 percent entering the game. Montana finished at 38 percent for the game.

Missouri held Davis, Montana's leading scorer, to two points in the first half.

Tigers Complete Comeback, Defeat Indiana 56-53

Tigers improve to 6-4

Dec. 19, 2004

Columbia, MO - Linas Kleiza scored 15 of his 18 points in the second half and made four free throws in the final 55 seconds, helping Missouri overcome a 17-point deficit in a 56-53 victory over Indiana on Sunday.

Marshall Brown added 11 points off the bench, including a spinning dunk off a turnover with 1 second left, as Missouri beat Indiana with a big comeback for the second straight season. Last season, the Tigers (6-4) finished with a 21-2 run and won by five on the road.

Bracey Wright had 12 points and three assists for Indiana despite breaking his nose in two places late in the first half on an intentional offensive foul by Spencer Laurie. Wearing a bandage over his nose, Wright hit two free throws with 1:12 to go for a 51-50 lead, but he lost control of the ball driving in the lane on Indiana's final possession with about four seconds left.

D.J. White had 13 points for Indiana (2-5), which has lost five in a row.

Missouri shot only 23 percent in the first half, but was 10-for-12 in the second half. The Tigers also made a concentrated effort to get to the line, Kleiza in particular, going 18-for-26 overall after attempting just three in the first half.

Both teams endured cold spells, Missouri going more than 11 minutes between baskets in a drought spanning both halves and Indiana going 7:38 between points in the second half.

Indiana finished the first half on a 14-1 run, getting five points from Ratliff capped by a baseline shot at the buzzer for a 31-16 lead. Missouri shot 23 percent while scoring a season-low for points in the half, and didn't score a basket in the final 5:50 of the half after Glen Dandridge's 3-pointer.

After the Hoosiers extended it to 16-1 early in the second half, Missouri answered with a 16-2 run that cut the deficit to three at 35-32 with 10:44 left. Indiana held off Missouri until Brown's 3-pointer tied it at 49 with 1:56 left, and there were five lead changes the rest of the way.

Tigers Fall to No. 1 Illinois

Kleiza goes for 25 in loss
Dec. 22, 2004

St. Louis, MO - Top-ranked Illinois faced adversity for the first time this season. Luther Head scored 20 points and Deron Williams scored nine of his 19 points over the final 3:19 to help the Illini overcome foul problems, poor shooting and a second-half surge by the Tigers.

Roger Powell Jr. had 14 points and Williams added five assists in a balanced attack for Illinois (11-0), which matched its season worst for shooting at 42.3 percent but won its fifth game since moving to No. 1. The Fighting Illini have won five straight in the annual neutral-site game.

This was their closest call of the season by far after they entered the game with an average margin of victory of 22 points.

Before Wednesday, the closest any opponent had come to beating Illinois was Arkansas which lost by 12 points. Illinois had been shooting 53 percent, the best in the nation.

Linas Kleiza had 25 points, one off his career best, for Missouri. He was in double figures at the free throw line for the second straight game, going 11-for-13, and added seven rebounds and three assists.

He also helped put the Illinois frontline in foul trouble by bulling inside for shots.

Missouri (6-5) trailed by 15 points at halftime for the second straight game. On Sunday, the Tigers were able to rally for a three-point victory over Indiana and this time they put a scare into Illinois, shaving the deficit to five points with just under 8 minutes left and then to four on Jason Horton's 3-pointer with 14 seconds to go.

Mizzou Upsets No. 12/21 Gonzaga in Columbia

Conley records first career double-double
Dec. 30, 2004

Columbia, MO - Jason Conley had 16 points and 13 rebounds, and Missouri survived a lengthy cold stretch at the finish to hang on and beat No. 12 Gonzaga 63-61 on Thursday night.

Linas Kleiza added 11 points despite foul trouble for Missouri (7-5), which scored just two points in the final 8{ minutes.

Missouri, in its first action since losing by six to top-ranked Illinois on Dec. 22, improved to 16-38 against teams in the Top 25 in six seasons under Quin Snyder. It was also the Tigers' first victory over a ranked opponent since they beat Oklahoma State in double-overtime last Feb. 24 at home.

Ronny Turiaf, who averages a team-leading 19 points for Gonzaga, missed two free throws with a chance to tie it with 8.4 seconds left. Turiaf, battling two ankle injuries, had six points on 2-for-15 shooting along with nine rebounds.

Turiaf also missed badly on another chance to tie, a driving layup with about 3 seconds left that banged high off the side of the backboard. Gonzaga (10-2) had been given another shot when Missouri's Kalen Grimes missed two free throws with 7.6 seconds left.

Reserve J.P. Batista had 17 points and 10 rebounds for Gonzaga, which was unable to follow up on a 3-point upset at No. 3 Oklahoma State on Tuesday.

Missouri held Gonzaga, which had been shooting 52 percent, to 38 percent accuracy. That defense helped make a 61-51 lead with 8:27 left stand up.

Kevin Young's layup had capped a 10-2 run by Missouri that seemingly put them in control. The Tigers' only points the rest of the way came on one free throw apiece by Marshall Brown and Young.

In the last 2:12, Young missed three of four.

Gonzaga beat Missouri in overtime last December in Seattle.

Tigers Top American

Improve to 8-2 at Mizzou Arena in 2004-05
Jan. 4, 2004

Columbia, MO - Jason Conley had 12 points and 10 rebounds for his second straight double-double, and the second of his career, helping Missouri beat American 64-51 on Tuesday night.

Thomas Gardner added 14 points and Jason Horton scored all but two of his career-best 12 points in the first half to get the Tigers (8-5) off to a good start in their final game before beginning Big 12 play. Missouri opens at home on Saturday against Iowa State.

The Tigers won despite a sub-par outing from leading scorer Linas Kleiza, who missed all six of his shots from the field and was held to five free throws. Kleiza had averaged 20 points over the previous four games.

Conley's follow-up to a 16-point, 13-rebound effort against Gonzaga, plus a defense that held American to 35 percent shooting, helped compensate.

Missouri, which was 10-of-22 (46 percent) from 3-point range and 18-for-53 (34 percent) otherwise, has won four in a row at the new Mizzou Arena.

Andre Ingram had 19 points for American (6-5), which has lost three of four and opens Patriot League play on Saturday at home against Lehigh. Jason Thomas added 12 points and Linas Lekavicius had 11.

Missouri led by as many as 16 points in the second half, although American twice shaved the deficit to six. The Tigers went more than five minutes between baskets to allow the Eagles back into the game.

Missouri shot only 37 percent in the first half but was 7-for-11 from 3-point range to take a 33-21 lead at halftime. Four of the 3-pointers came in the final 2:44 on a half-ending 16-2 run that erased American's 19-17 lead.

The Tigers were only 3-for-16 inside the 3-point line in the first half.

Two players, Ingram with 13 points and Thomas with six, scored all but two of American's first-half points.

Mizzou Opens Big 12 Play with Win Over Iowa State

Four Tigers reach double figures
Jan. 8, 2004

Columbia, MO - Jimmy McKinney scored four points in the final 27 seconds, helping Missouri overcome a 12-minute span without a basket in a wild 62-59 victory over Iowa State in a Big 12 opener on Saturday.

Jason Conley had 13 points, Linas Kleiza had 12 points and nine rebounds and Jason Horton had 12 points for Missouri (9-5, 1-0 Big 12). The Tigers endured a 28-4 Iowa State run that transformed a 12-point lead into a 12-point deficit with 4:34 to go, then ended the game on a 17-2 run.

McKinney, who had 10 points, scored on a spinning shot in the lane with 27 seconds left to put Missouri ahead for good at 60-59 although he missed a chance at a three-point play. He added two free throws with 13 seconds left.

Iowa State (8-4, 0-1) had two chances in the final seconds. Curtis Stinson turned it over near the Cyclones' bench with 16.8 seconds to go and reserve John Neal missed a 3-pointer with one second left.

Stinson had 22 points for Iowa State, which has lost 26 straight Big 12 road games dating to February 2001. Will Blalock added 12 points, five assists and four steals.

Iowa State is 0-4 on the road this season.

Missouri won its eighth straight conference home opener and its fifth in six games overall despite committing 20 turnovers, one off their season worst, against Iowa State's sticky zone defense. At times during the drought, the Tigers struggled just to get a shot off.

Missouri led by as many as 13 points early in the second half before going cold. The Tigers led 41-29 after Horton hit in the lane with 16:36 to go, and he made the next one a 3-pointer with 4:04 left that started Missouri's final run.

Missouri shot 54 percent in the first half and took advantage of an Iowa State drought to take a 33-24 lead. Iowa State scored only six points in the final nine minutes before the break and Kleiza scored six himself in that span for Missouri.

Mizzou Drops Tough One at No. 6 Oklahoma State

Kleiza pours in 24

Jan. 11, 2004

Stillwater, OK - Joey Graham scored a season-high 27 points, John Lucas added 18 and Eddie Sutton tied his mentor Henry Iba for seventh place on the career victories list as No. 6 Oklahoma State beat Missouri 78-68 on Tuesday night.

The Cowboys (12-1, 2-0 Big 12) took the lead for good with two free throws from Stephen Graham midway through the second half and held off the Tigers (9-6, 1-1), who moved within a point on three occasions.

Terrence Crawford drained two free throws to start a 6-0 run that gave Oklahoma State its largest lead of the second half, 69-61 with just under 4 minutes to play.

Crawford added a runout, two-handed jam and Stephen Graham finished the surge with a reverse layup and the orange-clad crowd could taste Sutton's landmark win.

Linas Kleiza scored 24 points to lead Missouri. He fought off endless boos following an early technical foul and his tough inside play helped cause two Oklahoma State defenders to foul out.

Stephen Graham finished with 13 points for Oklahoma State, which had lost to the Tigers each of the previous two seasons, including a 93-92 loss in double overtime last season in Missouri.

The teams traded leads five times within a frenetic, 2-minute span midway through the second half after Jason Conley's steal and fastbreak layup tied it at 43.

After Joey Graham hit two free throws to put Oklahoma State ahead, Jason Horton hit a 3-pointer from the right wing to give the Tigers a 46-45 lead with 13 minutes to play.

Lucas scored on three straight possessions for Oklahoma State as the Cowboys went up 51-48, but Missouri got inside baskets from Marshall Brown and Kleiza to pull back ahead 52-51.

It was the last time the Tigers would lead.

Tigers Fall at Kansas State

Young scores 10 and pulls down seven boards in loss

Jan. 15, 2004

Manhattan, KS -Cartier Martin had 18 points and 10 rebounds, his first double-double of the season, to lead Kansas State to a 74-54 victory over Missouri on Saturday night.

Jeremiah Massey added 17 points and Fred Peete had 14 for the Wildcats.

Kansas State (11-3, 1-2 Big 12) broke a seven-game losing streak against the Tigers, who had taken nine of the previous 10 meetings and were 7-1 against Wildcats coach Jim Wooldridge.

Missouri (9-7, 1-2) dropped to 0-5 on the road this season. This time, everything that could go wrong - foul problems, turnovers, horrible shooting - did. The Tigers trailed 33-22 at the break and never got closer than nine points after that.

The problems started early. Missouri was hit with two charging calls in the first three minutes, was outrebounded 10-5 in the first 10 minutes and committed 10 first-half turnovers.

The Tigers' 26 team fouls - including four charges - gave Kansas State a huge free-throw advantage. The Wildcats shot 25-for-34 from the line to Missouri's 7-for-15.

Missouri tried to go outside to make up the early deficit but shot just 1-for-13 from 3-point range in the first half and 5-for-26 for the game.

Two 3-pointers from Linas Kleiza, who led Missouri with 14 points before fouling out, kept the Tigers close late in the game. But after his second 3-pointer cut Kansas State's lead to 61-52 with 3:55 left, Missouri didn't score again until Jimmy McKinney hit a layup with just under a minute to go.

By then, the Wildcats had put together a 13-0 run - nine of those from the line - for a 74-52 lead.

Jason Conley and Kevin Young had 10 points each for Missouri.

Tigers Lost Third Straight to Texas Tech

Kleiza records his third double-double of the season
Jan. 19, 2005

Columbia, MO - Ronald Ross led a balanced attack with 22 points and Texas Tech held Missouri without a basket for more than 12 minutes in the second half of a 78-62 victory on Wednesday night.

Devonne Giles added 17 points and eight rebounds for Texas Tech (11-4, 3-1 Big 12), which shot 52 percent and has won six of seven. Jarrius Jackson had all but two of his 17 points in the first half and Martin Zeno had 16 points, six assists and five rebounds.

Texas Tech coach Bobby Knight is 4-1 against Missouri's Quin Snyder and broke the Tigers' modest five-game winning streak at the new Mizzou Arena, where they're 9-3 overall, having also lost to Arkansas and Davidson.

Missouri (9-8, 1-3) was 1-for-10 with eight turnovers in the first 13 minutes and 45 seconds of the second half, finally ending its frustration with a layup by Marshall Brown with 6:15 to go to cut the deficit to 63-49.

At the start of Missouri's cold stretch, Zeno and Ross had five points apiece in a 16-3 run that put Texas Tech ahead 57-42 with 10:13 to go. Texas Tech led by as many as 20 points in the waning minutes.

Linas Kleiza had 10 points and 12 rebounds for Missouri, which has lost three in a row and fell by 20 at Kansas State in its last game on Saturday. Reserve Marshall Brown had 12 points and Thomas Gardner added 11.

Missouri was 4-for-20 from 3-point range, and over the last two games the Tigers are 9-for-46 (19 percent).

Texas Tech made the most of Missouri's 19 turnovers, scoring 25 points off those miscues.

The Red Raiders shot 50 percent in the first half and got 15 points from Jackson for a 40-34 lead. The Red Raiders led by as many as 10 points.

St. Louis Cardinals star Albert Pujols attended the game, accompanied by trainers for the city's three professional teams, the Cardinals, Rams and Blues. Former Missouri coach Norm Stewart, now a TV commentator, was recognized a day early for his 70th birthday.

Mizzou Topples Nebraska, 80-70

Kleiza scores career-best 31 points and pulls down 10 boards in win
Jan. 22, 2004

Columbia, MO - Linas Kleiza had a career-high 31 points and 10 rebounds and Missouri held Nebraska to five points in an eight-minute span of the second half of an 80-70 victory on Saturday.

Thomas Gardner added 17 points and Jimmy McKinney had 13 for Missouri (10-8, 2-3 Big 12), which ended a three-game losing streak - the last two by a combined 36 points. Missouri has beaten Nebraska 10 straight times at home and coach Quin Snyder is 10-2 against the Cornhuskers.

Missouri, which shot 54 percent and had a decided edge at the free throw line, hasn't had a four-game losing streak since the 1997-98 season. The Tigers were 26-for-31 at the line, while Nebraska was 8-for-10.

Joe McCray had 16 points and reserve Aleks Maric had 14 for Nebraska (8-7, 2-3), which failed to capitalize on a two-point loss at No. 2 Kansas on Wednesday.

McCray and Missouri point guard Jason Horton clashed briefly at the end of the game before being restrained by coaches. Missouri had been running out the clock when McCray tried for a steal.

Kleiza had seven points in an 18-5 run that started with Missouri leading by a point with 12:28 to play. Kleiza and Gardner had three-point plays and Horton hit a 3-pointer to help the Tigers take a 70-56 lead with 4:24 left.

It was the second straight double double and fourth of the season for Kleiza, who was 8-for-12 from the field and 15-for-17 from the line. The previous career best for the sophomore forward was 26 points Dec. 11 against Montana.

McCray, who entered the game tied for the Big 12 3-point lead, was 3-for-10 from long range to set a school freshman record with 47, breaking the mark of 44 by Eric Piatkowski in 1990-91.

Gardner had 12 points in a seesaw first half and his 3-pointer at the buzzer gave Missouri a 38-37 lead.

Tigers Drop Nail Biter in Boulder

Conley scores team-high 16 points
Jan. 26, 2005

Boulder, CO - Freshman Richard Roby made the biggest shot of his young career Wednesday night, sinking a 3-pointer with 21 seconds left to lift Colorado to a 64-62 win over Missouri.

Roby, the half-brother of Denver Nuggets forward Kenyon Martin, dribbled a couple times, took a step inside the 3-point line to create room between himself and the defender, then stepped back behind the line and swished the game-winner.

Seconds later, Jason Horton of Missouri (10-9, 2-4 Big 12) had a good look at a 3-pointer that would have given the Tigers the lead, but he missed and Mizzou remained winless (0-6) away from home this season.

Marcus Hall of Colorado (10-7, 2-4) rebounded Horton's miss and fed to Jayson Obazuaye, who was fouled and missed two free throws with 1.3 seconds left. But the Buffs rebounded the miss to seal their second straight conference win after four losses to begin the Big 12 season.

Roby led the Buffaloes with 15 points while Chris Copeland had 12 points and 11 rebounds.

Jason Conley led Mizzou with 16 points. Teammate Linas Kleiza had 14 points on 4-for-17 shooting from the floor, a far cry from his 8-for-12, 31-point effort last weekend in a win over Nebraska.

But while the first 39 minutes were lackluster, the last 60 seconds made for ood drama.

Leading 62-61 with about a minute left, Missouri's Thomas Gardner missed a shot but hustled back on defense and made a steal to get the ball back for the Tigers. He fed to Jimmy McKinney, but McKinney shot an airball.

KSU Takes Out Mizzou

McKinney scores 14 in loss
Jan. 29, 2005

Columbia, MO - Jeremiah Massey scored 17 points and Kansas State overcame a 19-0 Missouri run Saturday to beat the Tigers 64-53.

Fred Peete added 16 points and Lance Harris 14 for the Wildcats (13-4, 3-3 Big 12). Jimmy McKinney had 14 points for Missouri (10-10, 2-5), which lost for the fifth time in six games. The win was the first for Kansas State in Columbia since 1985.

Just as in a 74-54 loss at Kansas State on Jan. 15, Missouri was eager to shoot the 3, no matter how unsuccessful. The Tigers were 5-for-26 from 3-point range two weeks ago and 5-for-29 Saturday.

McKinney scored the game's first seven points and Missouri went ahead 14-2. But after cutting the margin to 16-8, the Wildcats switched from a man-to-man defense to a 2-3 zone that gave Missouri fits.

Kansas State went on a 20-5 run to take a 28-21 lead with 4:21 to go in the first half on Lance Harris' 3-pointer. Those were the last points for the Wildcats for nearly nine minutes.

Missouri got to within 28-26 at halftime and tied the game on Thomas Gardner's 10-footer 19 seconds into the second half. The Tigers scored the next 12 points as well, extending the run to 19-0, culminating on Jason Conley's free throws with 15:59 to play.

Then it was Missouri's turn to go cold as the Tigers endured their own 5:22 scoreless stretch while Kansas State scored 12 unanswered points to tie it at 40-40 with 10:57 to play.

Kansas State went ahead for good on Massey's put-back tip-in with 7:15 to play. The 6-foot-7 senior scored eight of the Wildcats' final 17 points.

Missouri coach Quin Snyder shook up the lineup, perhaps sending a message after mostly lackluster play during a 1-4 stretch entering the game. Leading scorer and rebounder Linas Kleiza was replaced by Marshall Brown and didn't appear until nearly six minutes into the game. Guard Jason Horton was replaced by freshman Glen Dandridge.

Tigers Fall at No. 6 Kansas

Conley scores team-high 20 points
Jan. 31, 2005

Lawrence, KS- Wayne Simien had 22 points and Aaron Miles had 14 points and 10 assists, rallying third-ranked Kansas to a 73-61 victory over Missouri on Monday night.

Missouri (10-11, 2-6 Big 12) was a 19-point underdog and fell quickly behind by 10 points before going on a 20-4 run and seizing a stunning 36-28 halftime lead over the Big 12 leaders.

But after shooting just 36 percent in the first half, the Jayhawks (17-1, 7-0) hit 70 percent of their shots in the first 15 minutes, 30 seconds of the second half. A 3-pointer from J.R. Giddens made it 57-54 and gave Kansas the lead for good.

Miles, the Big 12's career assists leader, executed two picture-perfect one-handed lobs for layups by Christian Moody and Giddens during a 7-1 run that put Kansas on top 66-55 lead.

Giddens had 15 points and Keith Langford had 11 for Kansas. Jason Conley had a season-high 20 points for Missouri and Linas Kleiza, before fouling out and then adding a technical foul for arguing, had 11.

Miles' 3-pointer put Kansas on top 24-16 and the capacity crowd settled in for an enjoyable romp, but the Jayhawks made only four points in the last 6:48 before intermission.

Kleiza, Missouri's leading scorer and rebounder who was held out of the starting lineup for the second straight game, muscled inside for a bucket to launch a spree that included seven points by Conley and Thomas Gardner's three-point play that gave the Tigers the lead at 26-25.

Conley's steal and driving bucket put Missouri ahead 41-30 the first few minutes of the second half, but Miles connected on two 3-pointers in Kansas' 18-6 run where every point was scored by starting seniors Miles, Simien and Langford.

Aggies Topple Mizzou in College Station

Horton scores a career-high 17 points in the loss
Feb. 5, 2005

College Station, TX- Antoine Wright and Bobby Leach scored 20 points apiece and Texas A&M used sizzling long-range shooting to beat Missouri 91-63 on Saturday night.

Texas A&M shot 75 percent from 3-point range in the second half, making 9-of-12 to erase a one-point halftime deficit and coast to the lopsided win.

It was a turnaround from the first half when the Aggies made just 2-of-7 3-point shots.

The win is Texas A&M's 15th of the season, which ensures the Aggies their best finish since going 19-11 in the 1993-1994 season.

Leach's 20 points was a career high for the senior. He made 4-of-5 3-pointers, with three coming in the second half.

Joseph Jones added 17 points and had four blocked shots for Texas A&M and Acie Law scored 11 points and had a career-best 14 assists.

Texas A&M (15-5, 4-5 Big 12) trailed 43-39 with 17:15 left before going on a 13-0 run fueled by hot 3-point shooting to take a 52-43 lead. In that span of under three minutes, Texas A&M made three 3-point goals, including two by freshman Dominique Kirk.

The Aggies hit four more from beyond the arc and Wright made his second three-point play of the night to put Texas A&M ahead 73-55 with just more than six minutes remaining.

Missouri (10-12, 2-7) managed only eight more points the rest of the game, while Texas A&M piled on 18, six of which were from 3-pointers.

Freshman Jason Horton led Missouri with 17 points, including five 3-pointers and Jason Conley added 12.

Texas A&M took advantage of 19 Missouri turnovers that led to 24 points. Missouri led 7-4 early, but Texas A&M outscored the Tigers 11-0 to take a 15-7 lead with 13:27 left in first half.

Missouri made two 3-pointers late in the first half to lead 35-34 at halftime.

Tigers Unlucky in Vegas

Kleiza and Gardner combine for 57 in loss
Feb. 9, 2005

Las Vegas, NV - Odartey Blankson scored 18 points, including a 3-pointer from the top of the arc that broke a tie with 44 seconds left in the game, to lead UNLV over Missouri 74-71 on Wednesday.

Blankson, who scored 15 second-half points, was 6-of-13 from the field and 5-of-6 from the foul line for the game. He also had eight rebounds as the Rebels went 10-of-20 from 3-point range.

UNLV also was led by Michael Umeh with 12 points and Andy Hannan with 11 points.

Linas Kleiza scored a game-high 24 points for Missouri (10-13) along with eight rebounds. Thomas Gardner scored a career-high 23 as Missouri suffered its fifth straight loss and is now 0-6 on the road.

The Tigers led 37-32 at halftime and rallied from a 56-45 deficit with 8:32 left in the game to tie it, 67-67, with 1:15 left. Missouri jumped to a 13-3 lead to start the game but the Rebels answered with a 13-2 run to take the lead with 10:32 in the first half.
