IOWA STATE CYCLONES
14-30 (2-13 Big 12)

The No. 10 Missouri softball team heads to their last Big 12 Conference series away from University Field, as they travel to Ames, Iowa for a three-game set against the Iowa State Cyclones. The Tigers and Cyclones will begin play at 4 p.m. CT on Friday, April 27. Game two will take place at 2 p.m. on Saturday, with the finale set for Noon on Sunday.

SCOUTING IOWA STATE

Iowa State enters the weekend with a record of 14-30 on the season and are 2-13 in Big 12 play. They have scored three victories in their last 10 games, including two against Big 12 opponents. They scored a 2-1 win over then-No. 14 Texas A&M, knocked off in-state foe Iowa by a 4-3 margin and edged Kansas 10-9 last weekend.

Offensively, the Cyclones are hitting .252 as a team with two players batting over .300. Erica Miller leads the team with a .389 average, while Tori Torrescano is batting .311. They are also the team's top run producers, as Miller has 10 doubles, nine home runs and 30 RBI while Torrescano has seven doubles, 12 HR and 39 RBI. Both are slugging .672 on have on base percentages over .400.

Iowa State has struggled in the circle with a team ERA of 7.11. Torrescano has seen most of the action, appearing in 34 games and starting 24 times. Opponents are hitting .359 off Cyclone pitching this season.

REWRITING THE RECORD BOOKS

Several Tigers are making their way into Mizzou's history, climbing into the top-10 of numerous career and season categories. Here's a rundown:

- Chelsea Thomas now has the 10th most appearances in Missouri history with 112. With two more appearances she'll be alone in eighth all-time. Kristin Nottelmann is just outside the top-10 with 108 career appearances.
- Thomas is in great shape to break the all-time strikeouts record this season. She is currently third with 842, 23 behind Stephanie Falk (865) for second. Teresa Wilson is first all-time with 893 in her career. Nottelmann has climbed into ninth all-time with 414 strikeouts.
- With her next victory, Thomas will be all alone in third all-time with 79 wins. Stephanie Falk had 89 wins from 1998-2001, while Wilson holds the program record with 102 victories.
- Thomas has also moved her way up the top-10 all-time in complete games (fifth, 72), innings pitched (eighth, 649.0) and shutouts (third, 35).
- Thomas is in the top-10 for most strikeouts in a season for the second consecutive year. She broke the school record last season with 397 strikeouts. This year, she has 206, currently ninth-most in a season.
- As her unbelievable senior season has progressed, Ashley Fleming has made a charge up the leaderboards on the offensive side. Her career batting average of .342 is currently tied for seventh-best in MU history.
- Last weekend, Fleming broke into the top-10 for career hits with 185, tying her for ninth most all-time. If she can get 15 more hits this season, she'll become the seventh Tiger to record 200 or more hits in a career.
- A trio of Tigers are in the top-10 for career doubles, led by Fleming with 38, sixth-most all-time. Nicole Hudson is tied for eighth with 37 doubles, while Jenna Marston has recorded 36, the 10th-most at MU.
- Fleming is now fourth all-time in home runs with 38. With two more, she'll be the fourth Tiger ever to hit 40 bombs in a career. Jen Bruck is the program's record holder with 47. Hudson's next home run will be the 30th in her career. She's currently sixth all-time.
- Marston (147) and Fleming) are also in the top-10 in runs scored, coming in at sixth and tied for seventh, respectively.

• With her two run homer against Oklahoma on Saturday, April 21, Fleming recorded hre 160th RBI and is fourth all-time. Nicole Hudson has climbed her way up to seventh with 125.
• Marston drew her 100th career walk over the weekend and is 16 shy from becoming the program's all-time record holder in the category. Fleming and Hudson have both drawn 89 walks apiece, tied for fourth-most. The Tigers entered the season with just one player who drew over 100 walks in her career (Jen Bruck), but have a chance of finishing this year with four players crossing the century mark.
• Marston's also closing in on the single season walks record. She has drawn 37 walks so far this season, and with 11 regular season games left, needs just seven to break Jen Bruck's record of 43, set in 2008. Last year, Marston took 41 walks.

PATIENCE PAYS OFF

In the history of Missouri softball, only seven players have drawn 80 or more walks in their career. Three of those are on this year's squad. Junior Jenna Marston drew two walks over the weekend to become just the second player in Mizzou history to take 100 walks in her career. Fellow junior Nicole Hudson and senior Ashley Fleming are tied for fourth all-time with 89 walks each. Jen Bruck is the program's all-time record holder, walking 115 times between 2005-08, while Micaela Minner drew the second-most walks ever with 96 from 2004-09.

TIGERS 14th IN FIFTH RPI POLL

In the latest RPI, released on Monday, April 23, the Tigers found themselves in 14th in the most recent rankings, up two spots from last week. The Tigers are 10-7 against the RPI's top-40 on the season.

PITCHERS CLIMBING CAREER WINS LIST

Mizzou's top-two starting pitchers are finding themselves climbing up the career wins list. Redshirt junior Chelsea Thomas currently has 78 wins in her career, tied for third-most in program history. She is just two victories away from moving up to third all-time. Senior Kristin Nottelmann has won 63 games over the last four seasons, the ninth-most ever. Immediately in front of her are Erin Kalka, who won 65 career games, and Kacey Marshall, who won 67 times in her career. Teresa Wilson is the program's record-holder at 102 wins.

MIZZOU DROPS TWO OF THREE TO FIRST PLACE SOONERS

The Missouri Tigers suffered a big setback in their chase for a second straight Big 12 title, as they lost two of three games to the first place Sooners in Norman, Okla., over the weekend of April 20-22. Oklahoma took the first game of the series by a 2-1 margin in 10 innings. The Tigers trailed 1-0 after five, but Ashley Fleming tied the game with a solo home run in the top of the sixth with on a full count with two outs. The teams would battle into extras, and the Sooners would win it with a two out rally in the 10th. Chelsea Thomas struck out a season-best 15 batters in the loss.

On Saturday, the Tigers rallied late again to send it to extras, but this time were able to pull out the victory and even the series. Oklahoma took a 2-0 lead with runs in the first and third, but Fleming struck again in the sixth, hitting a game-tying two run homer to make it 2-2. In the eighth, Mackenzie Sykes and Jenna Marston drew back-to-back walks and got into scoring position on a ground out. A single by Kelsea Roth drove in Sykes to give Mizzou the lead and a sacrifice fly by Hudson added some insurance. Thomas set the Sooners down 1-2-3 in the eighth to secure the 4-2 win.

In the rubber match, Oklahoma scored in each of the first two innings to build a 2-0 lead. The Tigers got a run back in the third, helped by an OU error and an RBI single by Mackenzie Sykes, to cut the lead to 2-1, but Keilani Ricketts shut Mizzou down for the rest of the game, dropping the Tigers by a 2-1 score.

THOMAS PASSES 800 STRIKEOUTS
With 22 strikeouts against Texas Tech, Chelsea Thomas became the third pitcher in Mizzou history to strike out 800 batters in her career. She now stands at 842 strikeouts in her career and is well on her way to breaking the school record this season. Teresa Wilson is the program's record-holder with 893 strikeouts from 1980-83, while Stephanie Falk is second all-time with 865 career K's.

TIGERS RUN-RULE WESTERN ILLINOIS, 8-0
The No. 10 Missouri softball team closed out their quick five-game homestand with an 8-0 run-rule win over the Western Illinois Leathernecks on Wednesday, April 18. Mizzou scored eight runs despite recording just five hits as they moved to 33-8 on the season. The Tigers drew five walks in the first two innings but didn't push any runs across until the third, when they scored four unearned runs. Jenna Marston took a walk to start the inning and Ashley Fleming was hit by pitch to put two aboard. After a fielder's choice and error, Kelsea Roth broke the scoreless tie with a sacrifice fly. A double steal made it 2-0, and a dropped fly ball brought in two more runs to extend the lead to 4-0.

The first hit of the game for the Tigers didn't come until the fifth inning, with Nicole Hudson doubling to right-center field to start the inning. Pinch hitter Kayla Kingsley then came in and hit a high chopper through the infield, bringing in Hudson. Hudson hit a walk off three run homer in the sixth to win the game. Kristin Nottelmann moved to 11-3 with four shutout innings, strking out three.

MIZZOU STUMBLES AGAINST TEXAS TECH, LOSE TWO OF THREE
Missouri saw their home winning streak of 22 games come to an end on Friday night against Texas Tech and lost the first game of a doubleheader on Saturday - the first time all season that the Tigers lost two in a row - before salvaging a victory in the series finale later that day. On Friday night, the Tigers managed just one hit - a first inning triple by Corrin Genovese - and Texas Tech scored two runs off Chelsea Thomas despite not recording a hit, plating runs on a wild pitch and a bases loaded walk.

On Saturday, Mizzou couldn't hold an early 2-0 lead in game one, as Texas Tech pushed arcoss five runs in the next two innings. A two run homer by Ashley Fleming in the fifth cut the lead to 5-4, but the Tigers couldn't manufacture any more runs, falling 5-4. They bounced back in game two with a 4-1 win in extra innings. The Red Raiders scored an unearned run in the fourth, but Nicole Hudson evened the game with a solo homer to lead off the sixth. In the eighth, Mackenzie Sykes delivered a three run walk off homer, the first homer of the season for her. Thomas struck out 11, didn't issue a walk and only allowed two hits in eight innings.

SOFTBALL ADDS DOUBLEHEADER WITH MURRAY STATE
The Missouri softball team has announced the addition of a non-conference, midweek doubleheader against Murray State on Wednesday, May 2. The Tigers and Racers will play at 3 p.m. CT at University Field, with game two starting at approximately 5 p.m. Mizzou and Murray State have never played before.

THOMAS ON THE LIST OF 25 FOR PLAYER OF THE YEAR AWARD
Redshirt junior Chelsea Thomas has been named as one of the 25 finalists for the 2012 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year, as announced Wednesday afternoon by the Amateur Softball Association (ASA) of America. This is the second straight year she has been in the final 25, and last year Thomas was one of the three remaining finalists to win the award. Just before the start of post-season play, a list of 10 finalists will be announced on May 9. The three finalists will be announced May 23, while the winner of the 2012 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Award will be revealed on May 29 prior to the start of the NCAA WCWS in Oklahoma City.

NO. 9 TIGERS DEFEAT NORTHERN IOWA, 3-1
The No. 9 Missouri Tigers took care of business on Wednesday, April 11, winning a non-conference game over Northern Iowa by a final score of 3-1. The Panthers jumped ahead on a first inning home run by the second batter of the game to take the early 1-0 lead. Missouri evened things up in the second on an RBI double by Mackenzie Sykes, scoring Corrin Genovese on the play to tie the game at 1-1. In the third, Nicole Hudson gave the Tigers their first lead of the day with a sacrifice fly to right field, with Jenna Marston just getting around the tag on the play at the plate. The Tigers added some insurance in the fourth inning, drawing four walks in the frame, three of which came with two outs. Senior Kristin Nottelmann improved to 10-2 on the season with five solid innings, surrendering just the one run on two hits while striking out seven. Freshman Bailey Erwin came in to record the save, tossing the last two innings while giving up two hits and recording two strikeouts.

FLEMING NAMED USA SOFTBALL NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE WEEK
Missouri senior outfielder Ashley Fleming has been selected as the USA Softball National Player of the Week for the week of April 2-8, as announced by American Softball Association (ASA) on Tuesday afternoon. This is the second career award for Fleming, who was recognized as a sophomore on May 4, 2010, and the fourth time a Tiger has received this honor. Fleming led the Tigers to a big weekend over then-No. 3 Texas, guiding Mizzou to two victories in the crucial three-game series. She hit safely in each contest, batting .600 (6-for-10) for the weekend. She also drove in eight of the team's 16 RBI over the course of the series.

MISSOURI SWEEPS CONFERENCE WEEKLY AWARDS
For the fifth time in program history and second time this season, the Missouri softball team has captured both the Big 12 Player of the Week and Big 12 Pitcher of the Week awards for the week of April 2-8. Senior Ashley Fleming was selected as Player of the Week for the second time in her career, while redshirt junior Chelsea Thomas was named Pitcher of the Week for the third time this season and 11th time in her career. Fleming finished the series with a .600 batting average, one home run and eight of the team's 16 RBI, along with a .667 OBP and 1.000 SLG. Thomas went 2-1 on the weekend with wins on Saturday and Sunday. She struck out 12 batters in Saturday's game and followed it up with a complete game shutout in the rubber game. Of the 24 hits she allowed on the weekend, half of those stayed on the infield.

MIZZOU WINS TWO IN CRUCIAL SERIES AT TEXAS
In a pivotal series for Big 12 standing, the Missouri Tigers were able to win the series at then-No. 3 Texas on April 5-7, knocking off the first place Longhorns twice in the three games. Despite blowing a 3-0 lead in game one, the Tigers bounced back on Friday with an 11-4 victory over the Horns to even the series. The two teams were tied 4-4 in the top of the seventh inning before the MU offense exploded for seven runs, highlighted by a three-run homer by Corrin Genovese off Longhorn ace Blaire Luna. Chelsea Thomas struck out 12 while earning her 15th win of the season. In Saturday's rubber match, Thomas dominated again, throwing a complete game, five-hit shutout while striking out nine. Kelsea Roth singled in a run and Ashley Fleming hit a solo homer to lead the offense in the 2-0 victory.

NOTTELMANN SURPASSES 400 STRIKEOUTS
Senior Kristin Nottelmann recorded her 400th career strikeout in the third inning strikeout of Baylor's Megan Turk on March 31, making her the ninth pitcher in program history to have at least 400 strikeouts. Nottelmann is currently ninth on the all-time strikeout list at Missouri with 401 career K's.

GRAND WEEKEND
Over the weekend of March 30 against Baylor, the Missouri Tigers hit grand slams in back-to-back games. On Friday, with a 2-1 lead, Lindsey Muller hit a grand slam to give the Tigers a bigger cushion. Down 2-0 in the sixth inning on Saturday, Nicole Hudson hit what turned out to be a game winning slam of her own. It's just the second time in the last decade that Missouri has hit grand slams in consecutive games. The last time came in 2011, when Maddison Ruggeberg hit one on March 5 against Saint Louis and Marla Schweisberger hit one on March 6 against Missouri State.

MARSTON'S WALK-A-THON

During the week of March 25-April 1, junior Jenna Marston only had six official at bats, as she took an incredible nine walks in five games against Evansville and Baylor. During a stretch of two games, Marston had walked in five consecutive plate appearances. She walked all three times she came to the plate during Saturday's game and took walks in her first two appearances on Sunday. Marston now has 26 walks in the season and is third all-time at Mizzou with 89 career base on balls.

THOMAS WINS 10TH PITCHER OF THE WEEK AWARD

Redshirt junior Chelsea Thomas has been selected as the Big 12 Pitcher of the Week for the week of March 26-April 1, as announced by the Big 12 Conference on Tuesday. The award is the 10th of Thomas' career, making her the second pitcher in league history to win the award 10 or more times. Thomas appeared in four of Missouri's five games last week, factoring into the decision in all four contests. She pitched game two of the doubleheader with Evansville on Wednesday, throwing the first 4.1 innings while allowing just two base runners and recording 11 strikeouts.

Against Baylor, Thomas got the start in game one on Friday and threw five scoreless innings, scattering three hits and two walks with seven strikeouts to pick up the victory. After Nicole Hudson's go-ahead grand slam in the sixth inning of Saturday's contest, Thomas came in to record her second save of the year, working a strikeout for the third out. She was most impressive on Sunday, tossing a complete game shutout, giving up only two hits and striking out 10.

TIGERS WIN THREE OVER NO. 18 BAYLOR

The No. 12 Missouri softball team closed out March with a three game sweep over the No. 18/20 Baylor Bears at University Field. On Friday, the team hit three home runs - solo shots by Nicole Hudson and Corrin Genovese and a grand slam by Lindsey Muller - while the Tiger pitchers gave up only an unearned run on their way to a 6-1 victory. On Saturday, Hudson hit a sixth inning grand slam to overcome the team's 2-0 deficit and rally past the Bears to take control of the series. In the finale, Missouri pounced on Baylor with seven runs in the first two innings, as Chelsea Thomas coasted to a complete game shutout with 10 strikeouts.

MIZZOU SWEEPS DOUBLEHEADER OVER EVANSVILLE

The No. 12 Missouri softball team recorded two non-conference victories, sweeping a doubleheader against the Evansville Purple Aces at University Field. The Tigers were able to pull out a 4-2 win in the first game before the offense took control of game two, winning 7-0. The Aces got the first run of the game in the second inning, but Mizzou tied it in the bottom half with Brianna Corwin's first career hit and RBI. The Tigers added two in the third, one off an RBI single by Angela Randazzo. The Aces cut the lead to 3-2 in the sixth, but Missouri got that run back in the bottom half with an unearned run. In game two, Missouri broke the scoreless tie in the bottom of the fourth inning on Kelsea Roth's third home run of the season, a three-run shot. Ashley Fleming hit her team-leading seventh homer of the year in the next inning to make it 4-0, and Rachel Hay added the team's second three-run home run of the game in the sixth, her first of the year.

FIRST TIME FOR EVERYTHING

With their 1-0 loss in extra innings to the Texas A&M Aggies on Sunday, March 25, the Missouri softball team was shutout for the first time in 2012. It also marks the first time since that the Tigers have been shutout since June 4, 2011 in the final game of the season against Baylor at the Women's College World Series, breaking a stretch of 27 straight games that Mizzou has scored at least one run. On top of that, with losses on Friday and Sunday, Chelsea Thomas lost consecutive starts for just the third time in her career. She lost three straight starts to end her freshman season in 2009, losing to UCLA, Arizona State and Georgia.

TIGERS STRUGGLE AT A&M, LOSE TWO OF THREE

Despite getting outstanding pitching most of the weekend, the Tigers dropped two of three games to the No. 19 Texas A&M Aggies on March 23-25 in Big 12 Conference play. Chelsea Thomas surrendered a first inning two-run home run to Mel Dumezich on Friday but dominated the Aggies after that. However, the Tigers could only muster one run against Dumezich and fell 2-1. They bounced back with a 6-5 win on Saturday afternoon, overcoming four Aggie home runs to pull out the win and even the series. On Sunday, the Tigers were stifled by Dumezich again, getting just one hit on the day. Thomas had a no hitter through seven innings of work, but a leadoff double in the eighth eventually led to the winning run, giving A&M the series win.

TIGERS TOPPLE HAWKEYES IN DOUBLEHEADER

The No. 10 Missouri softball team saw their winning streak extend to 17 games with a doubleheader sweep of the Iowa Hawkeyes on Wednesday afternoon. Ashley Fleming's sixth home run of the season got the Tigers on the board in game one, as she delivered a two-run shot to right-center field in the bottom of the third inning. The homer scored Corrin Genovese, who singled with one out ahead of Fleming. Mizzou would maintain a 2-0 lead until the fifth inning, where they pushed across six runs on five hits to force the run-rule. Thomas was brilliant again, throwing a one hit shutout with seven strikeouts and no walks.

In the second game, Missouri scored their first run of the game with a two-base sacrifice fly by Kingsley in the bottom of the third inning. Mizzou loaded the bases with nobody out in the fourth but could only push one run across. Hudson, Angela Randazzo and Princess Krebs all singled to start the inning to put three runners aboard. A fielding error on a grounder back to the pitcher allowed Hudson to come in and score the unearned run. Those two runs would be all that Nottelmann would need, as she scattered five hits and struck out eight in seven innings of work.

700 CLUB

Against Arkansas on March 14, Chelsea Thomas became just the fifth Tiger in program history to record 700 strikeouts in a career. The last person to reach the milestone was Erin Kalka in 2005.

MIZZOU OPENS CONFERENCE WITH SWEEP OVER JAYHAWKS

Opening the 2012 Big 12 Conference season, Mizzou got off on the right foot with a three-game sweep over Border Showdown rival Kansas. They kicked things off with a 10-0 win in six innings on Friday night, ending the Jayhawks' program-record 20-game winning streak. Chelsea Thomas took a perfect game into the fifth and finished the game allowing just one hit. Mizzou put up five runs in the second inning and Kelsi Jones ended the game with a three-run walk off in the bottom of the sixth.

After Saturday's game was rained out, the Tigers and Jayhawks played two on Sunday to finish the series. In game one, Missouri pushed across three runs in the first on their way to a 5-0 win. Thomas surrendered juts two hits and struck out nine, while Jenna Marston added two hits and Lindsey Muller drove in two runs. In game two, the teams were scoreless until Mizzou scored six times in the third inning, highlighted by Jones' second three run homer of the weekend. With two outs in the sixth, Marston doubled and scored on a bloop single by Angela Randazzo, and Ashley Fleming followed with a game winning two-run homer to right. Kristin Nottelmann threw her best game of the year, giving up just two hits and issuing no walks with seven strikeouts in the complete game effort.

TIGERS SHUTOUT RAZORBACKS, 4-0

In their first midweek game of the season, the No. 12 Missouri Tigers improved their winning streak to 12 straight games with a 4-0 victory over the Arkansas Razorbacks. Mizzou has now won five straight games against their future SEC opponent.

Chelsea Thomas tossed four no-hit innings to improve to 8-1 on the year. Bailey Erwin came out of relief and tossed two shutout innings, allowing one hit while striking out three. Kristin Nottelmann pitched the seventh inning, giving up a hit and striking out one. Thomas struck out seven batters and issued one walk in the win.

Missouri put up two runs in the top of the first inning, as Nicole Hudson singled in a run with two outs, with an error on the play allowing another run to score. Hudson's hit plated Jenna Marston, who reached on a fielder's choice, and Ashley Fleming, who singled earlier in the inning. The score would stand at 2-0 until the top of the seventh, when the Tigers were able to add insurance with two down. Hudson singled up the middle for her second base hit of the afternoon, and Angela Randazzo followed by belting her second homer of the season, extending Mizzou's lead to 4-0.

COACH EARLEYWINE PICKS UP CAREER WIN NO. 400

The Mizzou win over Alcorn State on Saturday marked the 400th career victory for head coach Ehren Earleywine. Earleywine entered the 2012 as the ninth winningest coach amongst all active coaches with a .747 career winning percentage.

MIZZOU GOES 6-0 IN HOME OPENING WEEKEND

Missouri opened their season at home with the DeMarini Invitational, playing host to Alcorn State, Boise State and Northern Illinois. The Tigers went 6-0 on the weekend, rolling to run-rule victories in all six contests. Missouri outscored their opponents by a 56-2 margin and tossed shutouts in four of the games. On Friday, the Tigers knocked off Alcorn State, 14-1, and Boise State, 8-0, in five innings. Missouri defeated the same two opponents on Saturday, defeating the Lady Braves by a 9-1 score and the Broncos, 8-0, for the second straight day. On Sunday, Mizzou toppled Alcorn State for the third time in as many days, winning 9-0 inside the Devine Pavilion before returning to University Field and defeating Northern Illinois by a 8-0 score. The Tigers have now won 11 straight games and have won their last 11 at home.

EARLEYWINE WINS NO. 250 AT MIZZOU

With Mizzou's 3-1 victory over Missouri State on Sunday, March 4, head coach Ehren Earleywine won his 250th game as head coach of the Missouri Tigers. Earleywine enters this weekend needing just three more wins for his 400th career victory as an NCAA head coach.

TIGERS ROLL AT COACHES VS. CANCER TOURNAMENT

The Missouri softball team returned to their home state for the Missouri Coaches vs. Cancer Tournament on March 3-4, hosted by UMKC in Kansas City, Mo. The Tigers had a perfect weekend, going 4-0 against their in-state foes, outscoring their opponents by a 28-1 margin on the weekend. On Saturday, Mizzou won both games in five innings, defeating Saint Louis by a 10-0 score and SEMO, 9-0. Chelsea Thomas tossed a perfect game against SLU, while Nicole Hudson added four RBI. Against SEMO, Kristin Nottelmann struck out six and allowed only one hit as Lindsey Muller led the offense with two RBI.

On a blustery Sunday, the Tigers scored a 3-1 win over Missouri State and a 6-0 victory over UMKC. Bailey Erwin took a shutout into the seventh against Missouri State and scattered juts five hits. Fleming and Kayla Kingsley each drove in a run. Princess Krebs and Ashtin Stephens had two RBI each against UMKC, as Thomas earned her second win of the weekend after striking out a season-high 13.

SOFTBALL SWEEPS BIG 12 WEEKLY AWARDS

Missouri freshman first baseman Kelsea Roth and redshirt junior pitcher Chelsea Thomas were named Big 12 Player and Pitcher of the Week, respectively, as announced Tuesday, Feb. 28. It is the first honor for Roth and the ninth time that Thomas has been recognized in her career.

Roth went 6-for-11 (.545) with a homer, two doubles and six RBI. Her first career collegiate hit was an opposite field homer against UC Davis. Playing in her home state, Roth also drew six walks and posted a .706 OBP and a 1.000 slugging percentage. Thomas won two of the team's three games at the tournament, beating a pair of top-10 foes in No. 5 Washington and No. 7 UCLA. On Saturday night, Thomas threw her eighth career no-hitter, facing just one Huskie batter over the minimum as the lone Washington base runner reached on an error. She struck out eight batters and didn't issue a single walk in Mizzou's 2-0 victory. Against the Bruins, Thomas worked past a first inning three run homer, as the Tigers would pull out a 7-5 win in six innings. She struck out seven batters and scattered eight hits to improve to 3-1 on the season.

MISSOURI WINS THREE AT CATHEDRAL CITY CLASSIC

In their second tournament of the season, Missouri posted a 3-2 record at the Cathedral City Classic in Palm Springs, Calif., hosted by Oregon State University. The team opened the weekend with an 8-0 win over UC Davis in five innings. Kelsea Roth and Angela Randazzo picked up their first career home runs, while Bailey Erwin scored her first career victory, striking out one in the shutout.

On Saturday, Mizzou fell to No. 22 Nebraska to start the day, as the defense committed four errors behind pitcher Kristin Nottelmann. Corrin Genovese hit an inside-the-park homer to score two runs early on, and Kelsea Roth drove in a pair as the Tigers tried to rally in the seventh. In the nightcap, Chelsea Thomas threw her eighth career no-hitter, stifling No. 5 Washington for seven innings, recording eight strikeouts. The only blemish on Thomas' record was an E4 in the fourth inning, as she faced just one over the minimum.

The Tigers split again on the final day of action, as Northwestern scored seven runs - all in the first three innings - to upset Mizzou by a 7-1 score. Afterwards, Mizzou came from behind to defeat No. 7 UCLA, 7-5, in six innings. UCLA jumped ahead 3-0 in the first but Missouri rallied back as Thomas got her second win of the weekend. Nicole Hudson drove in three runs in the game.

TIGERS GO 3-1 TO OPEN SEASON IN ALABAMA

Opening the season in Troy, Ala., the Tigers kicked off the 2012 season by going 3-1 at the Quality Inn Classic. The team started the tournament with a doubleheader sweep on Friday evening, defeating Ball State by a 3-2 score and shutting out host Troy, 4-0, later that day. Nottelmann worked around nine walks against Ball State, taking a shutout into the seventh inning. Missouri scored all three runs in the third inning, kicked off by an RBI single by Nicole Hudson. Ashley Fleming added an RBI single of her own, while Hudson would later score on a walk. Against Troy, Chelsea Thomas threw a complete game shutout with five strikeouts to move to 1-0 on the year. Kayla Kingsley put the Tigers ahead with a two run double in the second, while Fleming belted her first homer of the year in the fifth.

The Tigers fell to Eastern Kentucky on Saturday in 10 innings after blowing a late lead. Bailey Erwin struck out eight in her first career start and had a 3-1 lead heading to the seventh, but the Colonels scored three times in the top of the seventh to take the lead. Corrin Genovese hit a sacrifice fly in the bottom half to send the game to extras, where the international tiebreaker rule was in effect. Both teams scored in the ninth but the Tigers couldn't answer the EKU run in the 10th, giving the Colonels the 6-5 win. Fleming hit her second homer in as many games and Jenna Marston added three hits. Thomas took the loss in relief despite not giving up an earned run.

Closing out the tournament with ETSU, the Tigers tallied nine runs and Nottelmann held the Bucs' bats mostly at bay on a windy Sunday morning. Lindsey Muller hit two home runs for Mizzou, her first multi-homer game of the year, while Marston had her second straight three-hit game while driving in a pair. Nottelmann didn't issue a walk and struck out eight batters.

WHAT RETURNS

With just 10 letterwinners from last year's squad returning this year, Missouri will have a completely different look in 2012, mainly on offense. Here's what the Tigers have coming back from 2011:

At Bats:	730 of 1686– 43.3%
Runs:	204 of 363 – 56.2%
Hits:	224 of 498 – 45.0%

TIGERS RELOAD WITH 10 NEWCOMERS

Despite returning only 10 members from last year's WCWS squad, Missouri reloads with 10 highly-touted freshmen in what is considered to be one of the program's best incoming classes ever. Joining the Tigers are Alyssa Cousins (Carrolton, Texas), Bailey Erwin (Claremore, Okla.), Taylor Gadbois (Maryville, Mo.), Corrin Genovese (East Amherst, N.Y.), Kelsi Jones (Carmel, Ind.), Kayla Kingsley (Oklahoma City, Okla.), Angela Randazzo (Poway, Calif.), Carlie Rose (Nixa, Mo.), Kelsea Roth (Yorba Linda, Calif.) and Ashtin Stephens (Blue Springs, Mo.).

NATIONAL RANKINGS

As a team last year, Missouri was ranked nationally in many major statistical categories. In the final NCAA Rankings, the Tigers were 28th in home runs per game (1.06), 19th in runs per game (5.76), third in winning percentage (.841), fourth in earned run average (1.40), 21st in doubles per game (1.48), 28th in slugging percentage (.476), 22nd in stolen bases per game (1.73) and 14th in fielding percentage (.973)

Individually, the following Tigers were in the top-50 of several categories:
•Ashley Fleming: Tied for 35th in RBI per game (1.00)
•Jenna Marston: 47th in runs per game (0.92) and 44th in walks per game (0.66)
•Kristin Nottelmann: Tied for 31st in saves (3) and 41st in hits allowed per seven innings (4.86)
•Rhea Taylor: Sixth for stolen bases per game (0.70)
•Chelsea Thomas: 1st in earned run average (0.95), tied for 31st in saves (3), tied for sixth in wins (32), seventh in hits allowed per seven innings (3.77), tied for eighth in shutouts (13), 29th in walks allowed per seven innings (1.37), strikeouts (397) and strikeouts per seven innings (10.2)

TIGERS HAVE SECOND LONGEST ACTIVE WCWS STREAK

Missouri has the second longest active streak of consecutive WCWS appearances with three, trailing the Florida Gators, who have made it to the last four World Series. With three appreances in the last three seasons, Missouri (2009-11) is tied with Texas (1998, 2005, '06) for second-most WCWS appearances amongst Big 12 schools since the conference was formed in 1996. Oklahoma (2000-05, '11) leads the way with six appearances since 1996, while Baylor (2007, '11), Texas A&M (2007-08), Nebraska (1998, 2002) and Oklahoma State (1998, 2011) each have two appearances in the last 15 years.

TWO TIGERS NAMED TO PLAYER OF THE YEAR WATCH LIST

Missouri senior outfielder Ashley Fleming and redshirt junior pitcher Chelsea Thomas have been selected to USA Softball's Collegiate Player of the Year Top-50 Watch List, as announced Wednesday, Feb. 1 by the Amateur Softball Association (ASA).

Last year, Fleming followed up her breakout sophomore season with an outstanding junior season and was selected as an NFCA Second Team All-American. The Tiger right fielder led the team in almost all major offensive stats, including batting average (.356), doubles (16), home runs (14), runs batted in (62), slugging percentage (.701) and on-base percentage (.452). She also scored 52 runs, walked 26 times and was a perfect 16-for-16 in stolen bases.

Thomas was one of three finalists for this award last season after leading the nation with a 0.95 earned run average. She went 32-8 on the season with 31 complete games, 13 shutouts and 397 strikeouts to just 53 walks in 271.1 innings pitched. Opponents posted a batting average of just .155 against her. Along with being a Player of the Year Finalist, Thomas was a First Team All-American and made the Women's College World Series All-Tournament Team last year.

MIZZOU RANKS NO. 5 IN PRESEASON POLL

A week after being voted as the top Big 12 team in the preseason coaches' poll, the Missouri softball program earned their highest preseason ranking ever, coming in at No. 5 in the ESPN.com/USA Softball Division I Top 25. The Tigers rank No. 6 in the NFCA/USA Today preseason poll.

TIGERS TABBED NO. 1 IN BIG 12 PRESEASON POLL

The University of Missouri softball team was picked as the top team in the Big 12 coaches' preseason poll for the first time in program history. The Tigers tallied 59 points and picked up three of the nine first place votes.

THOMAS, TAYLOR NAMED TO 2012 USA TEAM

For the second straight year, former Missouri outfielder Rhea Taylor and redshirt junior pitcher Chelsea Thomas were named to the USA Softball Women's National Team, as the Amateur Softball Association (ASA) announced 12 members of the 2012 squad on Jan. 11.

Thomas and Taylor were members of the 2011 USA team that claimed a pair of gold medals, placing first at the World Cup of Softball in July and at the Pan American Games in October. Taylor started in 22 of the 25 games in 2011 and went 23-for-63 (.365) with 24 runs scored and five RBI. She led the 2011 USA Softball Women's National Team in stolen bases, going 9-for-11. Thomas served as the team's primarily reliever and threw 41.1 innings, tied for second-most on the team. She posted a 4-2 record and struck out 60 batters, the second highest amongst Team USA's pitchers.

CRANE NAMED ALL-METRO PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Incoming Missouri softball player Emily Crane was named as the St. Louis Post-Dispatch's 2011 All-Metro Softball Player of the Year. Crane signed her National Letter of Intent to play for Mizzou back in November and will officially join the Tigers for the 2012-13 season.

For the season, Crane hit .563 with 10 doubles, five triples, five home runs and 28 runs batted in, while leading Troy to the Class 4A State Championship. In the team's semifinals and championship victories, Crane was a perfect 5-for-5 at the plate, driving in a pair of runs while scoring three of her own. Troy defeated Eureka by a 9-5 score in the semifinals before knocking off Blue Springs, 4-1, in the championship.

Projected to play shortstop or center field for Missouri, Crane broke the Missouri state record for career hits with 205, surpassing the old record of 186 set in 2009.

SOFTBALL ADDS TWO FOR 2012

EHREN EARLEYWINE

Head Coach | Sixth Season

In just five seasons, Tiger Head Coach Ehren Earleywine has led the Missouri softball program to almost unheard of levels of success in such a short amount of time. In his first season, he took a team that posted just 26 wins and had a losing record the year before and turned them into a 40-win squad that finished the year with a regional bid and a top-20 national ranking. After 2007, Earleywine led the program to an even higher level of success on the national stage, as his Missouri squads have captured four regional championships in a row, two Big 12 titles, the first three 50-win seasons in Missouri history and three straight Women's College World Series appearances, making him the first Tiger coach ever to earn consecutive berths to the pinnacle of college softball. Batting averages, ERA's and fielding percentages have all improved dramatically, while Tiger players are earning national recognition on a now annual basis. Missouri's top-ranked softball squad has Earleywine to credit for its rise to national prominence.

Named Missouri's head coach in August of 2006, Earleywine's rapid success was rewarded with a seven-year contract extension in 2011, which will have the Tiger skipper coaching through the 2018 campaign. In his five years at Missouri, Earleywine has managed a record of 241-76, amassing the second most wins of the Tiger's eight all-time softball coaches and becoming the fastest Missouri softball coach to reach 200 victories. Since beginning his head coaching career in 2003 at Georgia Tech, Earleywine has turned in a .747 winning percentage, tied for eighth-best amongst active Division I coaches, and is averaging 48 wins per season. He is the fifth fastest coach to reach 100 wins in NCAA Division I softball history.

As successful as the 2009 campaign was, somehow the 2010 Missouri softball season topped it. While that may not have been a surprise when you looked at the team going into the season, Mizzou definitely shocked plenty of people after what happened in the middle of the season. At the end of March, Missouri was flying high, sitting at No. 3 in the country and considered a legitimate contender to win the Women's College World Series. However, word then broke of a season-ending injury to ace pitcher Chelsea Thomas, and suddenly Missouri became an afterthought. What people seemed to forget, however, is that this was an Ehren Earleywine coached team, and they wouldn't be allowed to roll over and die without a fight.

After a brief adjustment period in early April, the Tigers finally got it all together. They ended the season with 51 wins, breaking the school record mark of 50 set the previous year. They hosted the regional round for the second straight year, where they used a seventh inning comeback over Creighton and two straight wins over Illinois to capture their third consecutive regional championship. Then, Missouri played host to the NCAA Super Regional round for the first time in school history, sweeping the Oregon Ducks in two games to move on to their second straight and fifth overall Women's College World Series. Missouri had their fourth All-American awarded under Earleywine, and finished the year ranked No. 8, tying for the highest end of the year ranking in program history. For their work, Earleywine and his staff were selected as the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) Midwest Staff of the Year for the second consecutive season.

In 2011, the Tigers once again entered the season with incredible expectations, and again they lived up to the hype, inching ever closer to their goal of a national championship. They broke the school record for wins for the third straight season, finishing with a record of 53-10. During the middle of the season, they won 24 straight games, a school record as well. They captured their first regular season Big 12 Championship since 1997 after finishing the year at 15-3 in league play. For the third straight year, Columbia played host to the NCAA Regional round, where the Tigers captured their fourth consecutive regional title despite falling into the loser's bracket on the first day of action. Missouri hosted Washington for the NCAA Super Regionals the following week, the second straight year the Tigers have hosted Supers, and swept the Huskies in two games to advance to their third straight Women's College World Series. Mizzou won their first WCWS game since 1991, defeating rival Oklahoma by a 4-1 score to eliminate the Sooners. Despite losing a 13 inning heartbreaker later that night to end their season, the Tigers finished the year with a 53-10 record and a No. 6 national ranking, the highest finish ever for the Missouri softball program. Redshirt sophomore Chelsea Thomas was one of three finalists for USA Softball's Player of the Year award and was named Big 12 Pitcher of the Year after leading the nation in ERA, while the squad also had three All-Americans and six All-Big 12 selections.

In just five years, the 2007 and 2011 Big 12 Coach of the Year became the first Missouri softball coach to lead his squad to back-to-back-to-back-to-back NCAA Regional titles, doing so in 2008 and again at home in Columbia, Mo., in 2009, 2010 and 2011. Since taking the reins, Missouri's batting averages have been on the rise, which includes a .313 mark in 2009, while the team ERA has been on the decline, highlighted by 2011's 1.40 mark, the Tiger's best end of the year ERA since 1998. The 2011 team set a new program best with 539 strikeouts, more than 100 more than the previous record set in 2004. With Earleywine at the helm, the Tigers have stolen a total of 603 bases and managed an 83 percent success rate on stolen bags since 2007.

In addition to the success Missouri has seen on the field, Earleywine's squad has received record marks in the classroom, finishing the 2008 campaign with a combined 3.36 grade-point average, the highest GPA since the creation of the program in 1975. In 2011, Missouri led the Big 12 with a 997 APR rate for the softball team, while 10 Tigers were named to the Academic All-Big 12 list, the most in the league.

Prior to his career at Missouri, Earleywine spent five seasons at Georgia Tech, of which he served as head coach for the final three. Earleywine's teams made five consecutive appearances in the NCAA Regional Tournament, finishing runner-up on three occasions. The Ramblin' Wreck claimed Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) regular season and tournament titles in 2005 and to his credit, Earleywine was named the 2005 ACC Coach of the Year.

A 1994 graduate of Westminster College, Earleywine played baseball at Missouri State University (formerly Southwest Missouri State) for one year before transferring to the Fulton, Mo., school for the remainder of his collegiate career. Earleywine served as an assistant coach at Westminster through the 1997 campaign under the guidance of former Major League Baseball outfielder and former Tiger, Phil Bradley, then took the reigns as head coach until 1999. Following his time at Westminster, Earleywine was named assistant baseball coach at Texas A&M-Corpus Christi in 2000, remaining there until 2002 before taking the Head Assistant Coaching position at Georgia Tech.

Earleywine is a graduate of Jefferson City High School and is married to Linn, Mo., native Lisa. The two have two children, eight-year old son Connor and six-year old daughter, Duran.

W: Dumezich (13-5); L: Thomas (11-2); S: None
Attendance: 985
Recap: Mel Dumezich hit a two run homer in the first inning and that would be all the Aggies needed, as she stifled the Mizzou offense from the circle ... she took a perfect game into the fourth but it was snapped when Genovese doubled in the inning ... Roth doubled in Genovese to put the Tigers on the board ... Missouri stranded runners on base in the sixth and seventh ... the loss snapped Thomas' streak of 10 straight victories.

GAME 27
Mizzou 6, Texas A&M 5
March 24, 2012 • College Station, Texas

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	R	H	E

W: Nottelmann (8-2); L: Dumezich (13-6); S: Thomas (1)
Attendance: 826
Recap: Tigers drew first blood in the top of the first, and Roth doubled in Marston, who drew Mizzou's first walk of the weekend, to go ahead 1-0 ... Meaghan May hit a solo HR in the bottom half, tying the score ... the Tigers separated themselves with a five run second, sending 10 batters to the plate and scoring all their runs with two outs ... Genovese drove in Krebs with an RBI double and then an error allowed Stpehens and Genovese to score ... Roth doubled in a run for the second time in the game and a passed ball brought in Fleming ... the Aggies would trim in to the lead, hitting three more home runs on the afternoon, but Thomas recorded the save with a scoreless seventh.

GAME 28
Texas A&M 1, Mizzou 0 (8)
March 25, 2012 • College Station, Texas
