LEADING OFF

-The Missouri softball team, ranked No. 16 by the NFCA/USA Today and No. 11 by ESPN.com/USA Softball continues their 10-day Texas road trip with a stop in Denton, Texas for a doubleheader with the North Texas Mean Green. Game one starts at 4 p.m. CT, with game two beginning at approximately 6 p.m. CT.

-Mizzou swept past then-No. 19 Texas Tech this past weekend to run their winning streak to 23 straight and improve to 4-0 in conference play. The Tigers took game one by a 4-1 final, led by Maddison Ruggeberg's three hits - including a home run - and two RBI. Abby Vock also added an RBI on two hits. Missouri blasted four home runs in Sunday's game as the Tigers run-ruled the Red Raiders, 10-1. Princess Krebs led the way with two bombs - the first two of her career - while Catherine Lee and Ashley Fleming each hit one. Chelsea Thomas picked up the win in both games, improving to 12-2 on the season.

-The Tigers broke the school record for most consecutive wins after sweeping Kansas on Wednesday to open Big 12 action. After starting the year 1-2, Mizzou has won 23 straight and 25 of their last 26 to improve to 26-3 on the year.

-Mizzou opened conference play with a doubleheader sweep over Kansas on Wednesday. The Tigers took game one by a 3-2 final, with Chelsea Thomas going the distance, striking out 11, walking zero and giving up just two unearned runs. Megan Christopher and Abby Vock led the offense with back-to-back home runs. Missouri took a wild game two that saw five lead changes. Ashley Fleming homered in the first inning while Catherine Lee hit the game winner in the top of the sixth, both two-run blasts. Kristin Nottelmann improved to 11-0 and Chelsea Thomas picked up her third save.

-The Tigers now have 12 shutouts on the year, all coming in the month of March. The team's earned run average is 1.07, best in the Big 12. They are also only walking just 1.17 batters a game, the best in the conference. The staff's .159 opponent batting average is tops amongst Big 12 teams as well. The team is third in the league in strikeouts per seven innings, as they average 8.87.

-10 of the team's last 18 wins have come by the mercy rule. In the month of March, the Tigers have outscored their opponents 151-19. Mizzou is averaging 7.19 runs a game this month after averaging 3.88 in the month of February and is giving up .90 runs per game in March.

-Thomas and Nottelmann have been absolutely lights out this year. After starting 0-2, Thomas is now 12-2 with a 0.48 ERA. She has 144 strikeouts and just 12 walks with a .115 opponent batting average. She has three saves on the year, tied for the most in the Big 12, and has allowed only three earned runs in her last 74.1 innings pitched. Nottelmann is a perfect 11-0 with two saves and a 1.10 ERA. She has 71 strikeouts to only 15 walks while limiting opponents to a .162 batting average. Thomas' ERA is best in the league, while Nottelmann's is fifth.

-Princess Krebs became the first Tiger to hit two home runs in the same game since Rhea Taylor accomplished the feat last April against Iowa State. Krebs led off the fourth inning with a pinch hit solo shot to left field, and added a three run shot to dead center field in the fifth. Krebs had entered the game with no career home runs to her name.

-Ashley Fleming continued her great 2011 campaign with her seventh home run of the year on Sunday. The junior had nine home runs last season and now has 20 for her career - ninth most in school history.

-Catherine Lee's home run on Sunday was her fifth of the season, putting her just one shy of matching last year's total of six with right around half the season to go. She's slugging .660 on the season, third best on the team.

-Freshman Maddison Ruggeberg has surprised a lot of people this year, emerging as one of the best hitters on the team in her first year of action. Leading the team with a .426 batting average, Ruggeberg also has blasted four home runs and driven in 15 RBI. She's slugging .704 this season, second on the squad, and has struck out just five times in 54 at bats.

SCOUTING NORTH TEXAS

North Texas comes into the doubleheader with a 14-17 record, having lost six of their last seven games. This past weekend they dropped two of three to conference foe Florida International.

The Mean Green are hitting .275 as a team with a .348 on base percentage and a .414 slugging percentage. Caitlin Grimes is one of the team's top hitters, as she has the second highest batting average at .326 and leads the squad with a .739 slugging percentage. She's tied for the team lead in home runs with five and has driven in 15 while collecting four doubles. The team ERA stands at 4.02 with an opponent batting average of .279. Brittany Simmons and Ashley Kirk split time in the circle, with Simmons appearing 22 times to Kirk's 16. Simmons is 7-8 with a 3.29 ERA, has 54 strikeouts to 36 walks and has allowed 132 hits in 121.1 innings. Kirk is 6-8 with a 4.70 ERA, striking out 91 while walking 45.

These two teams haven't met since 1988, when North Texas was still North Texas State. Missouri owns the all-time series with a 3-0 advantage. The Tigers won the first meeting in 1987 by a 9-3 score. The two teams met twice in 1988, with Missouri coming out with wins of 10-0 and 7-1.

HOME WINNING STREAK SECOND BEST IN COUNTRY
The Missouri softball team has taken advantage of playing at home, as they currently hold the second longest active home winning streak in all of the NCAA with 28 straight victories. Here's a look at the five longest home streaks in the country.

1. Georgia - 32
2. Missouri - 28
3. Arizona State - 25
4. Texas A&M-Corpus Christi - 23
5. Notre Dame - 21

Playing at University Field has been a major advantage for the Tigers since head coach Ehren Earleywine took over in 2007. In 117 games played at home under Earleywine, the Tigers have won 100 of them for an .856 winning percentage on their home field. Of their 17 losses, 13 of them came in two combined seasons. In Earleywine's first year the Tigers went 17-7 at home, and in 2009 they went 17-6. In 2008, Mizzou finished 22-1 at home while last year they went 31-3. So far this year the Tigers are 13-0.

CAN'T K FLEMING
Junior Ashley Fleming has been one of the Tigers top hitters this year, and much of that is because she is so tough to strike out. This season, Fleming has struck out just six times in 81 at bats while drawing 12 walks. She hasn't struck out in her last 35 at bats, and has struck out just once in her last 61 at bats.

THOMAS WINS BIG 12 PITCHER OF THE WEEK
Redshirt sophomore Chelsea Thomas has been named Big 12 Pitcher of the Week for the fourth time in her career, as announced Tuesday afternoon by the league office. This is the second time this season that Thomas has earned this award.

Throwing in all four games, Thomas went 3-0 with a 0.66 earned run average and a save as the Tigers swept Kansas and Texas Tech to improve to 4-0 in conference. She struck out 32 batters and walked just one in 21.1 innings pitched while scattering eight hits and giving up two earned runs.

MIZZOU SWEEPS NO. 19 TEXAS TECH
The No. 16/T13 Tigers pushed their conference record to 4-0 with a two-game sweep over No. 20/19 Texas Tech, winning 4-1 on Saturday and 10-1 in six innings on Sunday.

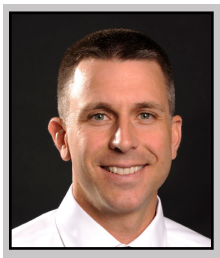

On Saturday, redshirt sophomore Chelsea Thomas won her 11th consecutive decision to improve to 11-2 on the year. The righty struck out seven while walking zero. She allowed one run and scattered just three hits. Maddison Ruggeberg led the way with three hits, two RBI and a home run while Abby Vock singled, doubled and drove in a run.

The Tigers hit four home runs on Sunday, getting two from Princess Krebs and one from Ashley Fleming and Catherine Lee. Krebs entered the game with zero home runs in her career before belting a solo shot to lead off the fourth and a three-run in the fifth. Thomas took a no hitter into the sixth inning before giving up her first hit of the day with one out in the inning. Her final line was 5.1 innings pitched with one run allowed on one hit. She struck out 10 batters and walked zero while improving to 12-2 on the season.

RHEA TAYLOR RECORD TRACKER
Senior Rhea Taylor has rewritten the record books again, as she set a new school record for hits in a career and broke the Big 12's career stolen base mark this season. Taylor picked up three hits in a doubleheader against Drake, moving her within two of tying Mary Babb's 14 year old record of 262. At the Missouri Breast Cancer Awareness Tournament, Taylor moved ahead of Babb with six hits in four games. The record-breaking hit came in her final at-bat against SLU, as she roped a triple to right-center field to put herself on top of the record book once again.

She also went 5-for-5 in stolen bases at the Missouri Breast Cancer Awareness Tournament, tying her for the most stolen bases in Big 12 history. She broke Texas A&M's Sharonda McDonald mark of 153 stolen bases, who set the record in 2007, with a stolen base in the first inning against Arkansas on Wednesday, March 9.

Here's a look at what records she's tracking down this season:

HEAD COACH
EHREN EARLEYWINE

Fifth Season at MU
Mizzou: 214-69 (.756)
Overall: 360-124 (.744)

2007 Big 12 Coach of the Year

In just four seasons, Tiger Head Coach Ehren Earleywine has led the Missouri softball program to almost unheard of levels of success in such a short amount of time. In his first season, he took a team that posted just 26 wins and had a losing record the year before and turned them into a 40-win squad that finished the year with a regional bid and a top-20 national ranking. After 2007, Earleywine led the program to an even higher level of success on the national stage, as his Missouri squads have captured back-to-back-to-back regional championships, a Big 12 title, the first two 50-win seasons in Missouri history and two consecutive Women's College World Series appearances, making him the first Tiger coach ever to earn back-to-back berths to the pinnacle of college softball. Batting averages, ERA's and fielding percentages have all improved dramatically, while Tiger players are earning national recognition on a now annual basis. Missouri's top-ranked softball squad has Earleywine to credit for its rise to national prominence.

As successful as the 2009 campaign was, somehow the 2010 Missouri softball season topped it. While that may not have been a surprise when you looked at the team going into the season, Mizzou definitely shocked plenty of people after what happened in the middle of the season. At the end of March, Missouri was flying high, sitting at No. 3 in the country and considered a legitimate contender to win the Women's College World Series. However, word then broke of a season-ending injury to ace pitcher Chelsea Thomas, and suddenly Missouri became an afterthought. What people seemed to forget, however, is that this was an Ehren Earleywine coached team, and they wouldn't be allowed to roll over and die without a fight.

After a brief adjustment period in early April, the Tigers finally got it all together. They ended the season with 51 wins, breaking the school record mark of 50 set the previous year. They hosted the regional round for the second straight year, where they used a seventh inning comeback over Creighton and two straight wins over Illinois to capture their third consecutive regional championship. Then, Missouri played host to the NCAA Super Regional round for the first time in school history, sweeping the Oregon Ducks in two games to move on to their second straight and fifth overall Women's College World Series. Missouri had their fourth All-American awarded under Earleywine, and finished the year ranked No. 8, tying for the highest end of the year ranking in program history. For their work, Earleywine and his staff were selected as the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) Midwest Staff of the Year for the second consecutive season.

In just four years, the 2007 Big 12 Coach of the Year, became the first Missouri softball coach to lead his squad to back-to-back-to-back NCAA Regional titles, doing so in 2008 and again at home in Columbia, Mo., in 2009 and 2010. Since taking the reins, Missouri's batting averages have been on the rise, which includes a .313 mark in 2009, while the team ERA has been on the decline, highlighted by 2009's 1.47 mark, the Tiger's best end of the year ERA since 1998. Just as many of Earleywine's squads have, the 2010 team shattered numerous Missouri records. Along with the 51 wins, Mizzou also set new team records for runs (381), runs batted in (342), and walks (247) With Earleywine at the helm, the Tigers have stolen a total of 494 bases and managed an 82 percent success rate on stolen bags since 2007.

In addition to the success Missouri has seen on the field, Earleywine's squad has received record marks in the classroom, finishing the 2008 campaign with a combined 3.36 grade-point average, the highest GPA since the creation of the program in 1975.

Prior to his career at Missouri, Earleywine spent five seasons at Georgia Tech, of which he served as head coach for the final three. Earleywine's teams made five consecutive appearances in the NCAA Regional Tournament, finishing runner-up on three occasions. The Ramblin' Wreck claimed Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) regular season and tournament titles in 2005 and to his credit, Earleywine was named the 2005 ACC Coach of the Year.

-Batting Average: Already the all-time leader at Mizzou with a .413 career batting average, a record that is theoretically impossible for give relinquish before the end of the season (Jenna Marston is second all-time at .364, two others are tied for third all-time at .352), Taylor could also graduate as the Big 12 Conference's record holder as well. She currently holds that mark, ahead of former Husker Ali Viola, who hit .409 from 1996-98.

-Hits: Taylor is now tied for fourth all-time amongst Big 12 hitters with 278 hits. If she matches her three season average of 82 hits a year, she would find herself tied with Norrelle Dickson of Oklahoma, the conference's all-time hits leader at 328.

-Runs: Entering the season as Missouri all-time runs leader and eighth in the conference, Taylor is expected to flirt with the Big 12's all-time record as well. Dickson, who played for OU from 2004-07 and also holds the league's hits record, is the current record holder at 234. Taylor has 208 for her career and is up to third all-time in the Big 12. If she matches her yearly average of 61 runs, she'll find herself ahead of Dickson with 244 career runs scored.

SOFTBALL WINS RECORD 21ST IN A ROW

The No. 13 Tigers won their 20th and 21st straight games in Wednesday's doubleheader sweep over Border Showdown rival Kansas, breaking a 16-year-old school record for most consecutive wins set by the 1995 squad who won 20 straight games.

In game one, the Tigers fought off a late Jayhawk rally to hang on to a 3-2 victory. Chelsea Thomas won her 10th straight start, going the distance while allowing four hits, two runs – zero earned and striking out 11. Tied 0-0 in the top of the third, seniors Megan Christopher and Abby Vock broke the tie with back-to-back home runs, giving each of them two on the season.

Missouri completed the sweep with a 6-5 victory in the second game that saw five lead changes. Kristin Nottelmann picked up the win, improving her to 11-0 on the season. She gave up five runs – two earned, struck out five and walked two.

Ashley Fleming hit her sixth home run of the season in the first inning – a two run blast – to give the Tigers the early advantage.

The Jayhawks took their first lead of the day in the bottom half of the inning, scoring three unearned runs on a bases clearing triple with two outs. Missouri regained the lead with a pair of runs in the top of the third, getting RBI doubles from Marston and Maddison Ruggeberg.

Two straight home runs on the bottom of the fifth by the Jayhawks put them back ahead of Mizzou. With two outs, Liz Kocon delivered a 2-0 pitch deep over the right field wall, and Mariah Montgomery followed with a blast to dead center, putting Kansas up 5-4. Lee belted a two run home run in the next half inning to give Missouri the lead once again. With a runner on first, Lee sent the 0-1 pitch over the right-center field fence to make it 6-5 Tigers.

Thomas entered the game in the sixth inning, looking to preserve the lead for the Tigers. She struck out two batters and worked around a leadoff walk in her first inning of action. She finished off her third save of the year with another pair of strikeouts in the seventh.

MIZZOU GOES 5-0 AT WILSON CLASSIC

The Tigers extended their winning streak to 19 straight games with a perfect 5-0 weekend at the Wilson Classic, sweeping two against against both North Dakota State and Western Michigan and knocking off Minnesota.

Missouri run-ruled three of the five games, beating North Dakota State 11-2 in five and Western Michigan by scores of 10-0 and 10-1. Kristin Nottelmann was one strike away from a no hitter on Friday against Western Michigan before a Bronco singled just past the glove of the Tiger third baseman. Both Nottelmann and Thomas won two games apiece over the weekend, while Thomas also picked up a save.

Ashley Fleming hit a two run home run in the bottom of the sixth inning to break up the pitcher's duel against Minnesota. The teams were scoreless at that point, as the teams combined for just three hits at that point. Thomas got the win for Mizzou as she struck out 12.

SOFTBALL SHUTS OUT SIU, 3-0

Senior Marla Schweisberger hit a first inning two-run home run and redshirt sophomore Chelsea Thomas combined to throw a shutout with junior Kristin Nottelmann as the No. 13 Missouri Tigers (17-3) took down the Southern Illinois Salukis by a 3-0 score on Wednesday afternoon. It was the team's 10th shutout in the last 12 games, lowering the staff's ERA to 1.16.

Thomas threw four innings of two hit ball, allowing two hits and one walk while striking out five as she improved to 7-2 on the season. She has not allowed a run in her last 41.2 innings pitched, lowering her season earned run average to 0.38. Nottelmann recorded her second save of the year, tossing the last three innings. She faced the minimum, allowing one hit that was erased on a double play, while striking out six.

EARLEYWINE BREAKS 200 WINS MARK

With Missouri's win against Illinois State on Saturday, March 12, head coach Ehren Earleywine has become the second head coach in Missouri history to surpass the 200 win mark as a Tiger. Already the second winningest coach in Tiger history behind Jay Miller (556 wins in 15 seasons), Earleywine has the highest winning percentage for a Missouri head coach at .753, ahead of Barb Wright, who went 91-32 (.740) in two seasons for the Tigers, and Miller, who had a .643 winning percentage at Mizzou. Earleywine entered the season as the 14th winningest active coach in NCAA Division I softball with a career winning percentage of .734.

TIGERS SWEEP DEMARINI INVITE

The Missouri Tigers finished the DeMarini Invitational with a perfect 4-0 record, as they swept two games against both Illinois and Illinois State, winning three of the four games by run-rule. On Saturday, the team hit three home runs to run-rule

Missouri opponents in italics

Illinois State and rallied past the Illinois Fighting Illini on the first day of the DeMarini Invitational on Saturday. Missouri blew past the Redbirds in five innings, winning by a 9-0 score, and then rallied back against Illinois, winning 4-2. Illinois held a 2-0 lead on Mizzou before the Tigers came back.

On Sunday, a pair of solid pitching performances plus a day of high powered offense lifted the No. 14 Missouri softball team to a pair of run-rule victories on the last day of the DeMarini Invitational. The Tigers opened the afternoon with a 10-0 win in five innings over Illinois State and followed that up with an 8-0 win in six innings over Illinois. Missouri's 18 runs on the day came on 23 combined hits, while the Tiger pitchers held their opponents to just three hits overall.

MIZZOU CRUISES PAST ARKANSAS, 12-0

The No. 14 Missouri softball team belted out 12 runs on 8 hits, backing another dominating performance by redshirt sophomore Chelsea Thomas while run-ruling Arkansas by a 12-0 score in five innings. Thomas (4-2) won her fourth straight game on another outstanding showing, as she struck out 10 batters in four innings while allowing two hits zero walks. She set down the last eight batters she saw on strikeouts. Her ERA is down to 0.54, and she's averaging over 12 strikeouts per seven innings.

Senior Rhea Taylor stole second base in the first inning to become the Big 12's new all-time stolen base leader. Taylor, now with 154 career bases, broke Sharonda McDonald of Texas A&M's record back in 2007. Junior Ashley Fleming led the team offensively, going 2-for-3 at the plate with a pair of runs, a home run and five driven in.

THOMAS SWEEPS NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE WEEK AWARDS

Redshirt sophomore Chelsea Thomas has been named the Division I National Player of the Week by both the National Fastpitch Coaches Association and USA Softball, as announced Tuesday. Thomas was also tabbed as the Big 12's Pitcher of the Week, announced by the league office.

Thomas had a phenomenal week for the Tigers in the circle, winning all three of her starts to improve her record to 3-2 on the season. On Wednesday, she threw the first perfect game for Missouri since 2002 and the first seven inning perfect game since 1991, as she set down 21 straight Drake batters, setting down 11 via strikeout, in Mizzou's 5-0 win. On Friday, Thomas threw a three hit, complete game shutout against SEMO as she walked only one batter and struck out 10 in the victory. She took a no hitter into the sixth inning before giving up a leadoff single.

She threw her second perfect game of the week on Sunday against Missouri State, tossing all six innings in Missouri's 11-0 run-rule victory over the Bears. She set a new seven inning school record with 15 strikeouts. Over the course of the week, Thomas struck out 36 batters and walked only one while opponents hit just .048 against her.

She now has six no hitters in her career (four no hitters, two perfect games), the most by any lone Tiger player in school history. On the season, Thomas has a miniscule earned run average of 0.60, as she's tossed three complete game shutouts this year. In 35.0 innings pitched she's allowed just 12 hits, three earned runs, and has limited opposing hitters to a .103 batting average. She has 57 strikeouts to just five walks and is averaging 11.40 strikeouts per seven innings.

Thomas is the second Missouri Tiger to be named NFCA National Player of the Week. Mary Babb won the award on May 4, 1997. She is the third USA Softball Player of the Week from Mizzou, as Janessa Roening won it on May 3, 2005 while Ashley Fleming took home the honors last season. Her Big 12 honor is the third of her career, as she was named Pitcher of the Week in both 2009 and 2010.

THOMAS' PERFECTION PUTS HER ON TOP

After not having a perfect game since 2002 or a seven inning perfect game since 1991, Chelsea Thomas threw two this past week, as she set Drake down in order on Wednesday's 5-0 win, before another game of perfection against Missouri State on Sunday, striking out 15 of the 18 batters she faced in the six inning affair. With that, Thomas now has more no hitters than anyone in program history with six (four no hitters, two perfect games). Karen Snelgrove, a former Olympian for Canada, had five no hitters in her career, four of those being perfect games which is tops in school history.

TIGERS CRUISE PAST ARKANSAS, 12-0
The No. 14 Missouri softball team belted out 12 runs on 8 hits, backing another dominating performance by redshirt sophomore Chelsea Thomas while run-ruling Arkansas by a 12-0 score in five innings.

Thomas (4-2) won her fourth straight game on another outstanding showing, as she struck out 10 batters in four innings while allowing two hits zero walks. She set down the last eight batters she saw on strikeouts. Her ERA is down to 0.54, and she's averaging over 12 strikeouts per seven innings.

Senior Rhea Taylor stole second base in the first inning to become the Big 12's new all-time stolen base leader. Taylor, now with 154 career bases, broke Sharonda McDonald of Texas A&M's record back in 2007.

Junior Ashley Fleming led the team offensively, going 2-for-3 at the plate with a pair of runs, a home run and five driven in. She's tied for the team lead with three home runs on the year and leads all Tigers with 16 RBI.

GRAND WEEK FOR THE TIGERS
Three Missouri hitters blasted grand slams in the first week of March for the Tigers. Rhea Taylor hit one in game one against Drake on Wednesday, while freshman Maddison Ruggeberg hit her first career grand slam in the fourth inning of Mizzou's big 12-0 win over SLU. On Sunday, Marla Schweisberger hit a walk off grand slam against Missouri State, as the Tigers run-ruled the Bears 11-0 in six innings.

THOMAS PERFECT AGAIN, NOTTELMANN WITH NO-NO AT BREAST CANCER AWARENESS TOURNAMENT
The Missouri Tigers went 4-0 at the Missouri Breast Cancer Awareness Tournament, outscoring their opponents by a 31-0 margin in the four games. The Tigers opened with a 5-0 win over SEMO on Friday before Kristin Nottelmann no-hit Saint Louis in Saturday's 12-0 win. Chelsea Thomas threw her second perfect game of the week as the Tigers run-ruled Missouri State 11-0 in six innings, and closed out the tournament with a 3-0 win over UMKC. Nottelmann improved to 6-0 while Thomas won her third straight as she's now 3-2 on the year.

Offensively, Marla Schweisberger hit .700 with one home run and eight RBI. Ashley Fleming hit .545 with a home run and a triple, while Rhea Taylor, Jenna Marston and Maddison Ruggeberg each hit over .400. Marston and Ruggeberg also blasted their second home runs of the season.

THOMAS THROWS PERFECT GAME, TIGERS SWEEP DRAKE
Redshirt sophomore Chelsea Thomas tossed a perfect game and junior Kristin Nottelmann won her fourth game of the season as the Tigers swept Drake in a doubleheader on Wednesday by scores of 5-0 and 8-1.

Thomas threw the first perfect game for Missouri since Feb. 17, 2002, and first seven inning perfect game for the Tigers since April 26, 1991. She struck out 11 of the 21 batters she faced and threw only 77 pitches as she won her first game of the year. The perfect game was the fifth no hitter of her career, tying her for the school record for most individual no hitters in a career.

Tied at 0-0 in the fourth, senior Rhea Taylor broke the scoreless affair with her second home run of the season as she blasted a grand slam over the right-center field wall to make it 4-0 Tigers. Taylor singled in the first inning to extend her hitting streak to 12 games. The streak was snapped in game two, tying her for the sixth longest streak in program history. Nicole Hudson hit a solo home run with one out in the bottom of the fifth to extend the Tiger lead to 5-0.

Nottelmann won her fourth game of the year with a complete game in the second game, as she allowed only four hits and one run while striking out seven.

Drake jumped ahead in the first on an RBI double by Erin Mollohan, driving in Amy Pierce who walked and stole second with one out. Missouri would even the score in the fifth on an unearned run to make it 1-1. Taylor led off with a walk and then stole second base, advancing to third on a throwing error by the catcher. Ruggeberg then drove her in with a sacrifice fly.

The Tigers added three more unearned runs in the bottom of the fourth, capped off by a two run double by Ruggeberg that scored Taylor and Lisa Simmons. Mizzou tacked on three more in the bottom of the sixth to push the lead to 8-1. Ruggeberg drove Shana White home on a sacrifice fly, and a double by Ashley Fleming scored Jenna Marston. Marla Schweisberger singled in to left on the first pitch she saw, plating Marston. Ruggeberg finished the game with a team-best four RBI on a 1-for-2 day at the plate. Fleming had a pair of hits, a run and an RBI while Taylor scored twice.

MIZZOU FINISHES 4-1 AT USF TOURNAMENT

The No. 16/15 Missouri Tigers went 4-1 at the USF Fairfield Inn and Suites Tampa North Tournament, beating Temple (8-7), Illinois State (8-2), South Florida (4-1) and Western Michigan (6-1) while falling to No. 5/2 Alabama.

Missouri 8, Temple 7

Mizzou broke the scoreless tie in the top of the third following back-to-back singles by seniors Rhea Taylor and Catherine Lee to start the inning. Lee advanced to third on a wild pitch and scored on an illegal pitch. Sophomore Nicole Hudson doubled in Ashley Fleming, who was hit by a pitch, to make it 3-0. Muller helped herself out by blasting a two-run home run over the left-center field wall, and Taylor made it 6-0 later in the inning by beating out an infield single with runners on second and third.

Temple's bats woke up in the bottom of the fourth, as they pushed across six runs to tie up the score. The Owls started things off with back-to-back singles, while an error and a single cut the lead to 6-2 and chase Muller. Hudson was brought in to pitch, and after getting the second out, gave up an RBI single and a three run home run to tie the game.

The Tigers retook the lead in the top of the fifth off a pinch hit home run by freshman Maddison Ruggeberg, the first home run of her career, pushing the Tiger lead to 7-6. Hudson helped herself out in the top of the seventh with a blast over the right-center field wall that wound up being the game winning home run, putting the Tigers back on top at 8-7. Hudson got the win, the first of her collegiate career, moving her to 1-1 on the season.

Missouri 8, Illinois State 2

The Tigers took the lead in the top of the third, scoring three runs on three hits in the frame. Taylor extended her hitting streak to eight games dating back to last season with a chopper over the third baseman's head, and then stole second base. Taylor advanced to third when Fleming reached on an error, and then came around to score on a single by Lee, tying the game at 1-1. Both Fleming and Lee touched home on Hudson's single to left-center, making it 3-1 in favor of Mizzou. Mizzou pushed four more runs across in the top of the fifth to make it 7-1. Nottelmann picked up her second win of the year, throwing four innings of one run ball, scattering five hits and striking out four to improve to 2-0 on the season.

Alabama 3, Missouri 1

The Crimson Tide jumped ahead in the top of the third with a pair of doubles to make it 1-0. Kendall Dawson doubled to start the inning, hitting a liner to center just off the edge of a leaping Taylor's glove. After a pop out, Kayla Braud hit a double to left, scoring Dawson for the first run of the game. Jennifer Fenton followed with a single off Hudson's glove at third to put runners on the corners, and a fielder's choice pushed the Tide lead to 2-0.

An RBI single by Fleming in the bottom half of the third cut Alabama's lead in half. Taylor led off the inning with a perfectly placed bunt right in front of the plate, and stole her second base of the game. With one out, Fleming worked a full count and fouled off a few pitches before pulling one into right field, plating Taylor and trimming the deficit to 2-1.

The score remained tied at 2-1 into the sixth inning, when Whitney Larsen pulled a solo home run over the left field fence to make it 3-1 in Alabama's favor.

Dunne retired the last 10 batters she faced as she improved to 7-0 on the season. Thomas fell to 0-2 on the year, as she threw a complete game, allowing the three runs on six hits. She struck out nine and didn't walk a single batter.

Missouri 4, South Florida 1

Junior Kristin Nottelmann threw a gem, going all seven innings while allowing just one run on only three hits and striking out eight. After allowing a one out single in the second, Nottelmann set down 16 straight before allowing back-to-back two out hits in the bottom of the seventh.

Mizzou broke the scoreless tie with an unearned run in the top of the third, as back-to-back two out fielding errors helped the Tigers put a run across. Taylor's bunt was fielded by the third baseman, but the throw was dropped by the covering second baseman at first base, allowing her to advance to second. Lee followed with a grounder of her own to third, who then threw the ball over the first baseman's head, bringing Taylor around to score and moving Lee to second.

The Tigers tallied another in the following inning to extend the lead to 2-0. Fleming led off the inning with a double in the right-center field gap, her second of the season. After stealing third, senior Marla Schweisberger singled back up the middle to plate Fleming. Taylor made it 4-0 Mizzou with her first home run of the season, connecting on a 1-2 pitch over the right-center field fence, plating Abby Vock who was hit by a pitch to start the inning.

Missouri 6, Western Michigan 1

Missouri put up a three-spot in the first inning to take the early lead, highlighted by Hudson two-run double. Rhea Taylor and Jenna Marston each walked to start the game, and they moved up a base on a ground out to set up Hudson's two-bagger. After stealing third, Hudson was plated on a groundout by Lindsey Muller to make it 3-0.

Missouri added an unearned run in the fifth to increase their lead to 6-1. Ashley Fleming tossed the last two innings, setting down all six she faced while striking out two. Muller got the win, her first of the year, throwing two innings of relief while allowing no runs on two hits with two strikeouts.

TIGERS ON TV

The Tigers will have three of their games televised this season - all of which are home games at University Field. On Saturday, April 16, Missouri and Oklahoma's series-opener will be aired live on Fox Sports Net, beginning at 3:30 p.m. CT. The second game against the Sooners, on Sunday, April 17, at 3 p.m. CT, is set to air live on ESPN. The Tigers will face off against Texas on Sunday, May 8 at Noon, also on ESPN. Missouri was televised six times last season - twice during the regular season and four times in the postseason - and went 2-4 in those games. Both wins came against Oregon at University Field in the NCAA Super Regionals.

TIGERS GO 1-2 AT RAIN-SOAKED SAN DIEGO CLASSIC I

The No. 8/10 Missouri softball team stumbled out of the gate to start their 2011 season, as they went 1-2 at the San Diego Classic I from Feb. 17-20. Originally scheduled to play five games, Mizzou only got three of their games in.

Missouri opened up against San Diego State on a last-second addition to the schedule on Thursday evening, just hours after they got off the plane. Despite the strange travel schedule, the Tigers came out swinging as they won 9-1 over No. 22 San Diego State, run-ruling the Aztecs in five innings in their season opener. Junior Kristin Nottelmann got the win, throwing all five innings while allowing just one run on four hits. Offensively, the Tigers got home runs from junior Ashley Fleming and sophomores Nicole Hudson and Jenna Marston. Marston finished 2-for-3 with a double and three RBI, while Fleming went 2-for-3 with two runs and two batted in.

The Tigers got things going on Friday against Fresno State, and it looked like it was going to be a repeat performance for the Missouri offense as they picked up three straight extra base hits to start the game, taking the early 2-0 lead. However, Fresno State blasted three home runs and the Tiger offense never got back on track, as they fell 6-3.

Missouri took on No. 15 Cal right after that, with redshirt sophomore Chelsea Thomas making her first start since late March last season. A huge storm rolled in to the area, and the game was postponed in the top of the sixth inning with Cal up to bat with a runner on second and no one out. The game wouldn't be resumed until Sunday morning. Upon continuation, Thomas started with a 1-2 count on the Cal batter, who ended up reaching on a dropped third strike, giving Cal runners on first and third with no one out. After a stolen base, a ground out to second put the first run on the board with the Bears taking a 1-0 lead. Thomas struck out the next two batters to strand the runner at third. Mizzou had a chance to even things up in the bottom half but stranded runners on the corners. Abby Vock led off the frame with a single up the middle and advanced to second on a sac bunt by Rhea Taylor. Vock moved to third after a ground out, with Ashley Fleming following with a walk. Sophomore Nicole Hudson lifted one deep to left field, but the ball was caught at the track for the final out of the inning. Thomas went all seven innings in the loss, allowing the one unearned run while striking out 11 and giving up only three hits.

FAMILIAR FACES

After taking essentially two completely different teams to the Women's College World Series in 2009 and 2010, the Tigers return a bit of continuity in 2011. Of their 22 players on the roster, 17 were on the squad last season. They return three of their four main pitchers and eight of their nine hitters in the lineup. Here is a statistical breakdown of what Missouri returns offensively in 2011:

At Bats:	1424 of 1624 – 87.7%
Runs:	337 of 381 – 88.5%
Hits:	432 of 481 – 89.8%
Doubles:	82 of 89 – 92.1%
Triples:	10 of 10 – 100%
Home Runs:	56 of 62 – 90.3%
RBI:	306 of 342 – 89.5%
Total Bases:	702 of 776 – 90.5%
Walks:	220 of 247 – 89.1%
Hit By Pitch:	39 of 47 – 83.0%
Stolen Bases:	113 of 127 – 89.0%

Returners from last year posted a BA/OBP/SLG line of:

Average:	.303 (team averaged .296 last year)
OBP:	.406 (team averaged .400 last year)
SLG:	.493 (team averaged .478 last year)

The pitching staff returns:

Wins:	41 of 51 – 80.4%
Appearances:	75 of 108 – 69.4%
Games Started:	49 of 65 – 76.6%

TAYLOR, MARSTON NAMED TO TOP-50 WATCH LIST

Missouri senior outfielder Rhea Taylor and sophomore shortstop Jenna Marston have been selected to USA Softball's Top 50 Watch List for the 2011 College Player of the Year Award. This award, which is considered the most prestigious honor in Division I women's collegiate softball, is designed to recognize outstanding athletic achievement by female collegiate softball players across the country.

MU AGAIN PICKED SECOND IN BIG 12

For the third consecutive season, the Missouri softball team has been voted as the No. 2 team in the Big 12 Conference, as announced by the league office on Tuesday afternoon. Oklahoma was picked No. 1 with 79 points and seven of the 10 first place votes. The Tigers came in second with 71 points and two first place votes, while Texas rounded out the top-three with 69 points and one first place vote.

MARSTON HONORED BY BBWAA

Missouri shortstop Jenna Marston was honored by the Baseball Writers Association of America at a dinner and banquet in downtown St. Louis, Mo., on Sunday night, earning recognition for her successes on both the softball and baseball diamonds over the course of the past year.

Amidst a crowd that featured current Cardinals manager Tony LaRussa, first baseman Albert Pujols and pitcher Adam Wainwright, along with legends like Ozzie Smith and Whitey Herzog, Marston was given the John E. Wray Award, given to those with achievements in sports other than professional baseball.

MARSTON NAMED SPORTSWOMAN OF THE YEAR

Missouri shortstop Jenna Marston has been named USA Baseball's Sportswoman of the Year for her outstanding performance on the USA Baseball Women's National Team this past summer.

Marston helped Team USA to a bronze medal win over Venezuela, as they defeated the host country by a 15-5 score in the third place game. The Tiger sophomore started all nine games at the 2010 IBAF Women's World Cup, rotating between right field, pitcher and shortstop.

Her .593 batting average (16-for-27) was the highest on Team USA and second highest amongst hitters for the entire tournament. She also was the tournament leader with 16 hits and eight doubles. She finished with 12 runs scored, seven runs batted in, was a perfect 3-for-3 on stolen bases, posted a team-best .636 on-base percentage and a slugging percentage of .889, second-highest on the team.

On the hill, Marston posted a 1-1 record with a miniscule 1.91 earned run average in three starts. In 11.0 innings pitched, she struck out six batters while holding opponents to a .211 batting average.

For her impressive showing, Marston was just one of two Team USA players to be selected to the All-Tournament Team, earning the honors as the squad's shortstop. Last year as a freshman, Marston helped guide the Tigers to their second straight Women's College World Series appearance by hitting .366 with five home runs and 52 runs batted in, the most on the team.
