LAST TIME OUT

Mizzou recorded a sweep of Nebraska for the third-consecutive season last weekend at Taylor Stadium. The series began with a 2-0 MU win behind the pitching of junior Nick Tepesch, who recorded his first career shutout. Tepesch struck out a season-best nine batters and gave up just five hits. Senior Aaron Senne hit his 13th home run of the season on Friday and freshman Eric Garcia drove in the other run of the game. On Saturday, the Tigers took advantage of 12 walks, four hit batters, five wild pitches and three errors by Nebraska in a 12-7 win. Senior Michael Liberto and sophomore Ryan Gebhart each walked three times and junior Jonah Schmidt was hit by a pitch twice and had two hits. Schmidt also had a pair of hits in Sunday's series finale to extend his hitting streak to nine games. Schmidt had a home run and a double as the Tigers weathered a late rally by the Huskers and held on for a 6-5 victory to claim the series sweep. Missouri has won their last nine meetings with Nebraska.

MIZZOU-TEXAS SERIES HISTORY

Texas holds a slight 25-24 lead in the all-time series with Missouri. UT won three of the four games played between the two teams last year. Mizzou won the opener of last year's three-game series in Austin, before Texas took the next two games. The Tigers and Longhorns also met in the Big 12 Conference Championship Game last May, with UT taking a 12-7 win. The last time the two met in Columbia (2008), Missouri won the series, 2-1. Between 2006-2008, the Tigers won eight of the 10 meetings.

SENNE BECOMES MIZZOU'S ALL-TIME HITS LEADER

Aaron Senne, who broke the school record for career doubles earlier this season, became Mizzou's all-time hits leader on May 2 with two hits in the series finale at Texas Tech. That gave him 275 career hits and placed him ahead of the previous record holder, Jayce Tingle (274, 2000-2003). He enters the weekend series with Texas with 282 hits. Senne had back-to-back two-double games on March 28-30 to set a new record for career doubles at Missouri. After doubling in consecutive at-bats against Texas A&M on March 28 to move into a tie for first with Ryan Fry (1995-98), Senne went 5-for-5 with a home run and two doubles against Purdue on March 30 to break the record. He now has 68 career doubles, putting him atop that list. Senne has 21 doubles on the year, which ranks second in the Big 12. His .401 average is also third best in the conference. He hit his team-leading 13th home run of the year last Friday against Nebraska and has 39 home runs for his career, which puts him in fourth place on the career homers list. He has 203 career RBI and ranks third in that category in the MU career record books. Senne returned to Mizzou this season for his senior year, passing up a chance to join his hometown Minnesota Twins organization. A native of Rochester, Minn., he was drafted by Minnesota in last June's Major League Baseball Draft, but chose to return to Missouri.

SENNE AND NICHOLAS A TOUGH COMBO FOR OPPONENTS

Batting back-to-back in the Tigers' lineup, Missouri senior Aaron Senne and junior Brett Nicholas have provided as strong of 1-2 punch as there is in the Big 12 Conference. Senne ranks third in the Big 12 with a .401 batting average heading into the weekend, while Nicholas' .366 mark is 10th best in the league. Senne is sixth in the Big 12 in hits (75), second in home runs (13) and second in doubles (21). Nicholas (59) and Senne (50) rank second and 11th respectively in RBI in the Big 12. Both Senne and Nicholas have put together extensive hitting streaks this year. Senne had a 17-game streak from March 17-April 14 and Nicholas hit safely in 19-straight games from April 3-May 4.

NICHOLAS ADAPTS TO MIZZOU

Junior Brett Nicholas had a 19-game hitting streak from April 3-May 4, which was the longest at Missouri since Jayce Tingler had a 24-game streak in 2002. During his 19-game streak, Nicholas hit .418, with 10 doubles, four home runs and 22 RBI. He began the streak with six-straight two-hit games and had two hits in 13 of the 19 games. That streak followed an eight-game hitting streak from March 7-19, as he hit .522 during that streak with three home runs and 12 RBI. He has recorded a hit in 37 of the 48 games in which he's had an at-bat this year and he has 25 multi-hit games. On the year, Nicholas is hitting .366 with nine home runs and a team-leading 59 RBI. The 59 RBI are second most in the Big 12 Conference. Earlier in the year, he hit .444 with a slugging percentage of 1.444 in the three games against North Dakota. He had a home run in the series opener, then hit two homers in the first game of a Friday doubleheader. Nicholas hit .625 (5-for-8) in the Xavier series (March 12-14).

TEPESCH LEADS TIGER PITCHING STAFF

Nick Tepesch recorded his first career shutout last Friday against Nebraska. He struck out a season-high nine and gave up just five hits in the win to move to 5-5 on the season. Tepesch retired the side in order in five of the nine innings and earned Big 12 Co-Pitcher of the Week for the performance. Before that win, his last victory came in the opener of the doubleheader with Kansas State on April 25. Tepesch allowed just one run on seven hits and struck out five in 7.2 inning pitched against the Wildcats. A week earlier he recorded a win against Oklahoma State, striking out eight in seven innings pitched. He allowed just two runs on four hits. Tepesch pitched at least seven innings in each of his first five starts in conference play before his outing against Texas Tech on May 1 in which he took the loss, allowing five runs on 10 hits in 6.1 innings pitched. In MU's conference opener, Tepesch turned in 7.1 innings pitched against Texas A&M, striking out four. He came within just one out of pitching his first career complete game against Baylor on April 3, when he struck out five in 8.2 innings pitched in the game, but took the loss. He struck out five and allowed three earned runs in seven innings pitched on April 9 against Oklahoma. Earlier, Tepesch picked up his first win against Auburn on Feb. 27, then struck out five in 6.1 innings pitched against TCU on March 6, but took a no decision in a 10-inning win by TCU. Tepesch allowed three runs, two of which were earned, on six hits in the game. In his start against Xavier, he left following just one inning of work after he was hit by a batted ball in the top of the first inning. Tepesch returned against North Dakota on March 19 and struck out eight in six innings pitched.

LIBERTO LEADS IN THE LEADOFF SPOT

Michael Liberto is one of just two seniors on the 2010 squad and heads into the weekend with a .330 average and had a nine-game hitting streak from April 25-May 9. During the hit streak, Liberto is had a .342 average, with nine RBI. He had two hits in four-straight games from April 30-May 4. The nine-game hitting streak matched his career long, which he set earlier this year, hitting safely in nine-straight games from March 14-23. During that streak, he hit .412 with a double, a triple and seven RBI. He has had at least one hit in all but 10 games in which he has had an at-bat this season and has had multiple hits in 20 games this season. Liberto opened up the year by hitting .692 at the Collegiate Cactus Classic in Tucson. He was 9-for-13 in the three games with a double, a triple and three RBI. Liberto matched his career best with four hits in a 4-for-5 performance against Gonzaga in the season opener, with a triple and two RBI.

EIGHT TIGERS NAMED TO ACADEMIC ALL-BIG 12 TEAM

Eight members of the Mizzou baseball team have been named to the Academic All-Big 12 team, as announced on Tuesday. The Tigers tied for second in the league with the eighth honorees. Missouri had five first team selections, including senior Aaron Senne, who earned his third Academic All-Big 12 recognition. Joining Senne on the first team is junior Phil McCormick, sophomores Ryan Ampleman and Russell LaFleur and redshirt freshman Andreas Plackis. It was the second Academic All-Conference honor for McCormick and Ampleman. Juniors Nick Tepesch and Andrew Thigpen and sophomore Ryan Clubb were named to the second team.

GEBHART RETURNS

After missing the first 34 games of the season recovering from an offseason ankle injury, sophomore Ryan Gebhart had a hit in the first nine games he played in his return and has recorded a hit 10 of the 15 games in which he's played this season. In his first game back, he went 2-for-4 against Oklahoma State on April 18. He had multiple hits in three-straight games from May 1-4. He was 3-for-5 with two RBI in game two against Texas Tech, then had two hits and two RBI in the finale with TTU. On May 4, Gebhart was 2-for-4 against Missouri State. He is hitting .327, with three doubles, a triple and eight RBI since his return.

49 GAMES, 48 LINEUPS

Head Coach Tim Jamieson has utilized 48 different lineups in the 49 games this year. Jamieson's lineup on April 17 against Oklahoma State was identical to the lineup the previous night vs. OSU. That was the first and only repeated lineup of the season. Six different Tigers have been in the leadoff spot and four have hit cleanup. The spot in the lineup with the least amount of change is third spot where only two players (Aaron Senne 39 times, Brett Nicholas 10 times) have been slotted. The seventh spot has seen the most changes, as 12 different Tigers have hit in the seven hole.

OPEL RECORDS MU'S FIRST THREE-DOUBLE GAME SINCE 2002

Freshman Dane Opel was 3-for-4 in the final game of the three-game series with Baylor, with all three hits being doubles. He is the first Tiger to record a three-double game since Brad Flanders did it against Louisiana-Monroe in 2002. Opel had a six-game hitting streak from March 28-April 6, hitting .591 over that stretch, with two home runs, four doubles and 11 RBI. He had multiple hits in five-straight games from March 28-April 4, including three hits against Purdue on March 30, when he drove in four runs. In Big 12 games, Opel has a .319 average, which is third on the team. He went 4-for-5 in his debut as a Tiger on Feb. 20 against Washington and had a hit in each of the first three games in which he has played. On April 25, Opel delivered a walkoff, two-run hit in the bottom of the 10th inning to lead Missouri to a 9-8 win over Kansas State, completing a doubleheader sweep. On April 30 at Texas Tech, Opel again drove in the eventual winning runs, delivering a two-run single in the top of the 11th inning to put the Tigers in front, as they went on to a 12-8 victory.

McCORMICK SCOOPS UP VICTORIES

Junior Phil McCormick picked up his team-leading sixth victory of the season last Saturday against Nebraska. He faced just two batters in the game, but was credited with the win after coming out of the bullpen to relieve Kelly Fick in the fifth inning. McCormick pitched four scoreless innings, striking out five against MSU on May 4, setting career highs in innings pitched and strikeouts. Throw out the MSU game and in his other victories, McCormick pitched a total of just 3.2 innings in those five games. He has not allowed a run in any of his six victories. His first win came on Feb. 21 against New Mexico State. McCormick faced just one batter in that game, forcing a double play to end the top of the 10th inning. The Tigers then scored the game-winning run in the bottom half of that inning to give McCormick the win. His second win came on March 13 against Xavier, when he faced three batters and got two outs in the top of the eighth before the Tigers broke the tie with a pair of runs in their half of the eighth inning. On April 4, McCormick faced just two batters and got the final out of the top of the seventh inning. Missouri then scored three runs in the bottom of the seventh to take a lead and go onto victory. Three days later, McCormick was the first MU reliever out of the bullpen and pitched 1.2 innings of scoreless baseball against Illinois. Mizzou took the lead in the third inning while McCormick was still the pitcher of record. He leads with a 3.08 ERA and 31 appearances. Last year he made 30 appearances, which ranked seventh in school history. The school record for appearances in a season is 35, set by Brad Buehler last season.

SENNE PUTS TOGETHER 17-GAME STREAK

Aaron Senne had a 17-game hitting streak from March 17-April 14. Senne had at least two hits in six-straight games from April 4-11 and had three hits in five of those contests. During the 17-game stretch, he hit .551, with five home runs, 10 doubles and 24 RBI. The streak began when he went 2-for-3 in game two of a doubleheader with North Dakota on March 19. He had two hits in each of the first three games of the streak and has had 11 multi-hit games. That includes a four-hit game in the series finale with Texas A&M and a 5-for-5 night against Purdue on March 30. He was 3-for-5 in the series opener with Oklahoma, before recording two hits in game two. He closed the weekend with a 3-for-5 performance with four RBI. His last hit of the finale was a home run in the eighth inning that broke a tie score and took Mizzou to a 12-11 win. He earned his second Big 12 Conference Player of the Week award after the series at Oklahoma.

NEWCOMERS MAKE A QUICK IMPACT

The roster for Missouri is loaded with new names in 2010. A total of 17 players have seen their first playing time for Missouri this season. Freshman Brannon Champagne, Dane Opel, Blake Brown, Kale Gaden and Eric Garcia have combined to make 132 starts and junior college transfer Brett Nicholas has started 48 of MU's 49 games on the year. Nicholas is the team's second leading hitter with a .366 average and has a team-high 59 RBI. Garcia is hitting .284, while Opel has a .275 average and Brown is hitting .254. On the mound, freshman Eric Anderson has started nine games for the Tigers and is second on the squad with 31 strikeouts, while junior college transfer Jeff Scardino has made seven starts on the year. Junior Zack Hardoin, a transfer from Blinn College, has made 21 appearances and has two starts. Below is a rundown of MU newcomers:

TIGERS PICK UP DOUBLEHEADER SWEEP OF KANSAS STATE

Mizzou's first Big 12 series win of the year came in the form of a doubleheader sweep of then-No. 16 Kansas State on April 25. After rain made conditions unplayable on Friday and Saturday, the series was cut to a two-game set in the form of a Sunday doubleheader. A 10th inning, two-run single from freshman Dane Opel completed the Missouri sweep after a total of 19 innings were played on the day. Trailing by one in the ninth inning of the second game of the doubleheader, Mizzou tied the score when sophomore Ryan Gebhart scored on a sacrifice bunt by junior Ryan Ampleman, forcing extra innings. KSU regained the lead with a run in the top of the 10th, but had a runner thrown out at the plate to end the inning. With the bases loaded and two out in the Tigers' half of the 10th inning, Opel singled up the middle to drive in two runs, giving MU a 9-8 victory. The win completed the sweep of the twinbill after the Tigers took a 4-2 victory in game one. Junior Kelly Fick picked up the win after pitching five innings in relief. He struck out three and allowed just one run on two hits to improve to 2-0 on the year. In the opener of the doubleheader, junior Nick Tepesch took the victory as he allowed just one run and struck out five in 7.2 innings pitched. Redshirt freshman Andreas Plackis drove in the first runs of the opener with a two-run double in the bottom of the first inning. He added a single in the third and finished 2-for-4.

SENNE NAMED BIG 12 PLAYER OF THE WEEK TWICE

Senior Aaron Senne was named the Big 12 Player of the Week on April 12 for the second time this season. Senne earned the award after he hit .462 (6-for-13) in the Tigers' three games at the Auburn Classic, including three home runs and two doubles. Senne had a double in the opener of the Auburn Classic against Florida Atlantic, driving in one run. Against Auburn, Senne hit two home runs and had four RBI. His first homer was a two-run shot in the third inning and his second was the second of back-to-back home runs for Mizzou in the fifth. He closed the weekend with a 2-for-4 performance against Boston College, with a home run and a double. In Mizzou's five games last week, Senne hit .609 (14-for-23), including a series mark of .583 against Oklahoma. He had two home runs, three doubles and seven RBI in the three games with the Sooners. Senne had multiple hits in each contest last week. The Rochester, Minn. infielder was 3-for-4 in both of the Tigers' midweek games against SIU-Edwardsville and Illinois. He again recorded a three-hit game in the opener of the OU series. On Saturday, Senne homered in his first at-bat and added a single in the fourth inning. He closed the week by going 3-for-5 with four RBI. He doubled in the third and singled in the fifth, then hit a solo home run in the eighth inning to break an 11-11 tie and carry Missouri to the 12-11 victory in the finale.

JAMIESON STANDS SECOND ON MU'S ALL-TIME WINS LIST

Mizzou Head Coach Tim Jamieson stands in second place on Mizzou's all-time wins list with a career record of 542-378-2 in his 16th year as the Tigers' head coach. His 542 wins put him ahead of legendary former head coach John "Hi" Simmons. Simmons compiled a record of 481-294-3 from 1937-1973, while Gene McArtor is the all-time winningest coach at Missouri with a record of 733-430-3 from 1974-1994. Jamieson, who served as an assistant coach under McArtor from 1988-94, has led the Tigers to seven NCAA Regionals, including each of the last six and is a two-time Conference Coach of the Year. In 2008, the University of Missouri extended Jamieson's contract, keeping him in the MU dugout through at least the 2013 season. Jamieson and Baylor coach Steve Smith are now the longest tenured coaches in the Big 12 Conference, as each is in his 16th year as head coach of the respective programs. In addition, with the resignation of Mizzou Swimming Coach Brian Hoffer and the upcoming retirement of MU Track & Field Coach Rick McGuire, Jamieson will become the longest tenured head coach at the University of Missouri.

TAYLOR STADIUM SPORTS A NEW LOOK

During the offseason, Taylor Stadium, the home of the Tigers, underwent a major renovation. The majority of the construction took place in the left field corner, where a new indoor/outdoor batting cage has been built. The building includes three batting/pitching lanes along with an observation area. Also new for the 2010 season is a new video board/scoreboard that will enhance the fan experience at Taylor Stadium. A new brick wall has also been constructed that spans foul territory. Future plans call for a new team clubhouse, coaches' office and expanded seating. A Grand Opening Celebration was held on April 24 at which it was announced that the addition would be dedicated as the McArtor Baseball Facility, named in honor of former Mizzou player, coach and administrator Gene McArtor.

TIGERS PLAY IN THREE MAJOR LEAGUE STADIUMS IN 2010

Missouri has played in three Major League Baseball Stadiums this season. In March, the Tigers took part in the Houston College Classic in Mark, played at Minute Maid Park, the home of the Houston Astros. On April 7, Mizzou defeated Illinois 7-4 at Busch Stadium, home of the St. Louis Cardinals. That was the second-straight year that Missouri has played at Busch Stadium (defeating Saint Louis University 19-6 in 2009). MU took on Kansas on April 21 at Kauffman Stadium in Kansas City. This marks the third year that MU and KU have met at Kauffman.

MU IS ONLY TEAM WITH THREE-STRAIGHT 16-BIG 12 CONFERENCE WIN SEASONS

Missouri is the only team in the Big 12 Conference that has won at least 16 conference games in each of the last three seasons. MU was 19-8 in 2007, then went 16-11 in both 2008 and 2009. The Tigers Big 12 record over the last three years is 51-30, which is second best in the Big 12 behind only Texas (53-27-1).

MIZZOU MAKES IT SEVEN-STRAIGHT
NCAA TOURNAMENTS

Mizzou has advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the seventh-straight season, becoming one of just 14 schools in the nation to qualify for the postseason in the last seven years. Only two Big 12 teams (MU and Texas) can make that claim.

MISSOURI 2, TEXAS 0

March 14, 2009 -- Austin, Texas

Missouri won its Big 12 Conference opener for the fifth-straight season, defeating No. 1 Texas, 2-0, in game one of a doubleheader. It was Mizzou's first shutout over a Big 12 opponent since a 3-0 win over Oklahoma State last April. The Tigers won for the ninth time 11 meetings with the Longhorns, including four of five played in Austin. Mizzou junior Kyle Gibson picked up his first career nine-inning complete game. He does have two seven-inning complete games in his career. Gibson struck out 11 and improved to 3-1 on the year. In the top of the third inning, juniors Kyle Mach, Michael Liberto and Greg Folgia and freshman Conner Mach delivered four-consecutive singles for MU. Kyle Mach scored on Folgia's hit and Liberto crossed the plate on Conner Mach's single to give the Tigers a 2-0 lead. Those would be the lone runs scored in the game. The complete game shutout was the first by a Missouri pitcher since Aaron Crow's 3-0 win over Ole Miss in last season's NCAA Regional.

TEXAS 5, MISSOURI 0

March 14, 2009 -- Austin, Texas

Missouri and Texas split a Saturday doubleheader in Austin, Texas after a 5-0 win by Texas in game two. Mizzou had just three hits in game two, all singles from juniors Aaron Senne, Michael Liberto and Greg Folgia. The leadoff batter for Texas, Travis Tucker, doubled and scored on a groundout by Brandon Belt in the first inning. After the leadoff double, junior Ian Berger retired the next nine batters to the plate before the Longhorns added a run in the fourth on an RBI single by Russell Moldenhauer. Belt drove in another run with an RBI double in the sixth inning and Preston Clark singled to drive in Belt. The Longhorns added a run in the eighth inning. Berger allowed four runs on four hits in five innings pitched.

TEXAS 4, MISSOURI 3

March 15, 2009 -- Austin, Texas

Texas scored three runs in the bottom of the ninth inning against Missouri to take a 4-3 win in the finale of the three-game series in Austin, Texas. With MU leading 3-1 in the bottom of the ninth, the Longhorns scored runs on a double from pinch hitter Kevin Keyes and a single by Travis Tucker to tie the game at three. Texas then scored the winning run on a Mizzou error. Sophomore Nick Tepesch turned in the longest outing of his career, pitching eight-plus innings. He allowed just one run on seven hits and struck out four. His previous longest outing came when he went 3.2 innings against Ball State. Texas scored first, plating a run in the bottom of the second inning. The Tigers quickly answered that by scoring once in the top of the third, as junior Aaron Senne doubled to drive in freshman Conner Mach. Senne delivered a second RBI double in his next at-bat in the fifth inning, again driving in Mach, to give Mizzou the 2-1 lead. Senne then scored when junior Trevor Coleman single to extend the lead to two. Senne was 2-for-2 on the day, with the two doubles and two RBI. He also drew a pair of walks.
