

Mizzou Men's Basketball Post Game Notes vs. Northern Illinois

Mizzou Arena - Columbia, Mo.

Final Score: Mizzou 54, Northern Illinois 37

Att: 6,302

TEAM

- In the first meeting since 2015, Mizzou extended its all-time record against Northern Illinois to 3-0 with all meetings taking place in Columbia.
- Mizzou is now 14-2 all-time against current MAC members.
- The Tiger defense held the Huskies to 21 points in the first half, the least allowed since Dec. 22, 2020 against Bradley.
- Northern Illinois was only able to muster up 37 points, their lowest since Jan. 26, 2013 where they put up 25 points against Eastern Michigan.
- The 37 points scored by Northern Illinois is the fewest Mizzou has allowed in a game since Dec. 30, 2019 where the Tigers held Chicago State to 33.
- Northern Illinois failed to get a scorer into double digits for the first time since March 12, 2014 against Eastern Michigan, snapping a 214 game streak.
- The Tigers held the Huskies to 24.1% field goal shooting, the lowest for a Mizzou opponent since Dec. 29, 2015 where the Tigers held Arkansas-Pine Bluff to 15.4%.
- Northern Illinois shot 19% from beyond-the-arc, the lowest for a Mizzou opponent since the Bradley game last season.
- After trailing 31-28, the Tigers ended the game on a 26-6 run.
- The stout defense held the Huskies to six points in the paint and their lowest point total since 2013.

INDIVIDUAL

- Jordan Wilmore finished the night with 11 points while going 5-for-7 from the field, and tacking on six boards and three blocks, all setting new career highs.
- Kobe Brown notched his third career double-double, finishing with 13 points on 5-for-8 shooting and six assists. He also recorded a personal-best 13 boards and four blocks.
- Ronnie DeGray chipped in 10 points, including a perfect 6-for-6 from the charity stripe, in addition to seven boards and a steal. DeGray has scored double-digits in three-consecutive games for the first time in his career.
- Jarron Coleman tallied nine points, five boards, and three dimes.

MISC

- How First MU Point Scored: Dunk from Jordan Wilmore
- Jersey Worn: White
- Who Scored First MU Point: Jordan Wilmore
- First Off Bench: Jarron Coleman