CUONZO MARTIN

A new era in Mizzou Men's Basketball began March 20, 2017, as Cuonzo Martin was introduced as the 19th head coach to lead the storied Tigers program. Martin, who enters his second season at Mizzou after spending three seasons as head coach at the University of California, has averaged 20.6 wins in 10 seasons as a head coach with eight postseason appearances over the last nine years to his credit.

Martin, who was born in St. Louis and moved to East St. Louis, Ill., as a young child, owns a 10-year head coaching record of 213-137 (.609), which includes a three-year mark of 62-39 (.614) at California. He is coming off his seventh 20-win campaign in 10 seasons, becoming the second first-year head coach in Mizzou history to lead the Tigers to 20 wins.

Martin steered Mizzou to its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2012-13 this past season, becoming the 59th head coach in NCAA history to lead three different programs to the Big Dance (Tennessee, Cal and Missouri). He capped his first year at Missouri with his eighth NBA Draft selection in the last five years as Michael Porter Jr. was selected 14th overall by the Denver Nuggets.

Following the 2017-18 campaign, Martin also saw Kassius Robertson land First-Team All-SEC honors and Jontay Porter earn SEC Co-Sixth Man of the Year recognition. Additionally, senior Jordan Barnett earned his degree and an NBA Training Camp invitation.

In his final season at Cal, Martin led the squad to a 21-13 mark. The 2016-17 Golden Bears cracked the Associated Press Top 25 in the season's second poll and received votes in nearly every USA Today coaches poll registered during the year. Four Golden Bears earned All-Pac-12 recognition, as Ivan Rabb was a first-team honoree while Jabari Bird earned honorable mention honors. Kingsley Okoroh was an honorable mention All-Defensive team selection and Charlie Moore was an All-Freshman team honorable mention pick.

Martin's Golden Bears went 23-11 in 2015-16 and tied for third in the Pac-12 en route to the program's highest NCAA Tournament seed in school history (No. 4). A consensus top 10 recruiting class, which included top-five overall prospects Rabb and Jaylen Brown, helped the Bears fashion the best single-season record in school history at Haas Pavillion (18-0) and end the year with a 19-game homecourt win streak. All-told, the Golden Bears won a school-record 27-straight home games which spanned the 2015-16 and 2016-17 seasons.

Cal also led the Pac-12 in both scoring defense (67.3 ppg) and field-goal percentage defense (.396).

Brown was named a 2015-16 USBWA Freshman All-American as well as the Pac-12 Freshman of the Year before being selected as the No. 3 pick by the Boston Celtics in the 2016 NBA Draft. Tyron Wallace joined Brown as Martin's second Bear drafted, selected in the second round by the Utah Jazz.

Led by Bob Cousy Award finalist Wallace, who in his first season as Cal's point guard, was the only Pac-12 player to finish among the top five in scoring rebounding and assists, Martin's debut season along the Golden Bears' sideline saw them reach the Pac-12 Tournament quarterfinals en route to an 18-15 final record.

While Martin's teams enjoyed on-court success at Cal, community service was also an important staple of the Golden Bear program as he encouraged his student-athletes to pursue volunteer opportunities in the Bay Area as part of his "Building Men" philosophy. The 2016-17 Golden Bears worked with Laguna Honda Hospital and Rehabilitation Center to help its patients celebrate 150 years of service, visited the South Berkeley Senior Center to serve visitors a pancake breakfast on a weekday morning, and spread holiday cheer at the UCSF Benioff Children's Hospital Christmas party.

Before moving to the West Coast, Martin spent three highly-successful seasons at Tennessee, where he guided the Volunteers to a 63-41 (.606) record and into the postseason each year (one NCAA, two NIT). His teams also finished among the top-five in the SEC standings every season, including a second-place tie in his first campaign after the Volunteers were ticketed for an 11th-place finish in the preseason poll.

After back-to-back NIT appearances in his first two years as the Volunteers head coach, Martin led Tennessee to a 24-13 record, the Sweet 16 and a No. 23 national ranking in the season-ending 2013-14 USA Today coaches poll In the process, Tennessee matched the fourth-best win total in school history and recorded its most postseason victories since the 2009-10 campaign. After earning a berth in the NCAA's First Four, the Martin-led Volunteers captured victories over Iowa, Massachusetts and Mercer to equal the most wins in one NCAA Tournament in program history.

Under Martin's tutelage, forward Jarnell Stokes was a two-time first-team All-SEC selection and was one of just three individuals in the six power conferences in 2013-14 to average a double-double. Stokes led the SEC and ranked seventh nationally in rebounding at 10.6 rpg, while also averaging 15.1 ppg. Predicated on tenacity and defense, Martin's 2013-14 Tennessee squad limited opponents to just 61.7 ppg, the lowest mark in the SEC and second-lowest total at UT since 1969, as the Vols ranked 18th nationally in scoring defense.

Martin is no stranger to the Show-Me State, having launched his head coaching career at Missouri State. After an 11-20 debut season at the Springfield school, Martin led the Bears to a 24-12 record and the 2009-10 CollegeInsider.com Championship in year two.

His third season saw Missouri State record a 26-9 record en route to the program's first-ever regular-season Missouri Valley Conference championship and an NIT bid. Martin was named the Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year and was the 2011 recipient of the Ben Jobe National Coach of the Year Award, presented annually to the nation's top minority head coach in Division I men's basketball.

The 45-year-old Martin has served the game of basketball for more than two decades, beginning with a standout four-year playing career at Purdue. He has played and coached alongside some of the game's most highly-regarded mentors, including Hall of Fame Coach Gene Keady. Martin is a member of a distinguished group of successful college basketball coaches to serve under Keady, along with Matt Painter (Purdue), Bruce Weber (Illinois and Kansas State), Steve Lavin (UCLA and St. John's) and Kevin Stallings (Vanderbilt and Pitt).

As a student-athlete, Martin was a 1995 first-team All-Big Ten selection at Purdue when he averaged 18.4 ppg and sank 91 3-pointers. He graduated as one of the program's all-time leaders in three-pointers (179) and among the Boilermakers' career scoring leaders (1,666). Playing under Keady and alongside All-American Glenn Robinson, Martin led Purdue to a pair of Big Ten titles and to a 90-37 four-year record. The Boilermakers went to the postseason each season with Martin, reaching the Elite Eight of the 1994 NCAA Tournament.

Following his collegiate playing career, Martin was selected by the Atlanta Hawks with the 57th overall pick of the 1995 NBA Draft. He played professionally for four years with the NBA's Hawks, Milwaukee Bucks and Vancouver Grizzlies. In 1997, Martin was the leading scorer for Felize Scandone in Italy.

Martin returned to his alma mater where he earned his bachelor's degree in restaurant, hotel, institutional and tourism management from Purdue in 2000, and served one season as an assistant on the staff at West Lafayette High School. After earning his degree, Martin joined Keady's Purdue staff for the 2000-01 season as an assistant coach, his college coach, and remained with the Boilermaker program when Painter took over as head coach upon Keady's retirement. He served as the Boilermaker's associate coach during the 2007-08 season before taking the Missouri State post the following season. In his eight-year tenure at Purdue, mentored several all-conference standouts, including All-American and current Minnesota Timberwolves forward Robbie Hummel.

He and his wife, Roberta, have two sons, Joshua and Chase, and a daughter, Addison.

- Both Pinson and Watson are shooting at least 40 percent from 3-point range.

HOT SHOOTING FROM SMITH

- Mark Smith has been a vital addition to the Tigers' roster after receiving a waiver for immediate eligibility from the NCAA.
- Smith has 117 points, 52 rebounds and 25 triples in 10 games. He notched 179 points, 42 rebounds and 16 triples all of last season at Illinois.
- He is ripping the nets at a 47.2 percent clip from beyond the arc after shooting 23.2 percent from 3-point range as a freshman. That ranks leads the SEC through 10 games. His 2.4 3-pointers per contest are tied for sixth in the league.
- Smith had never made multiple triples in back-to-back games in his career prior to Mizzou. He's done so six times in the last seven contests. Smith has hit at least one triple in the last 11 games dating back to last season.
- Smith leads Mizzou with 44 defensive rebounds. He grabbed 24 in 31 games last season. He's grabbed at least five rebounds in a game seven times.
- In his first game at Mizzou, Smith became the first Mizzou newcomer to record a double-double in his debut since Linas Kleiza posted a double-double in the 2003-04 season opener vs. Oakland.
- Before this season, Smith hadn't reached double figures since scoring 11 points against Mizzou on Dec. 23, 2017. He's done so six times this season.
- Through nine games, Smith's 47.2 percent clip from 3-point range would be the fifth-best in a single-season in program history.

IRON MAN

- Senior Kevin Puryear has appeared in 32 more career games than anyone else on Mizzou's roster, earning 99 career starts.
- Puryear is one start away from becoming the first Tiger to reach the century mark since Kim English in 2012. He would be the 15th Tiger to do so.
- Puryear could become the seventh Tiger in program history with at least 1,000 career points, 500 career rebounds & 100 career starts, joining Kelly Thames, Steve Stipanovich, Arthur Johnson, Derrick Chievous, Doug Smith & Jevon Crudup.
- Puryear ranks 35th on Mizzou's all-time scoring list with 1,105 career points and counting. He is eight points shy of surpassing legend Norm Stewart.

TRENDS & STORYLINES

- Coach Martin reached 27 victories at Mizzou in just 43 games. That matches the previous Tiger coaching regime's win total (95 total games).
- Mizzou continues to be a stout defensive team under Coach Martin. The Tigers rank second in the SEC in scoring defense and 34th in the nation, limiting opponents to 63.4 points per game. When Mizzou holds teams under 65 points, it is 7-0. The Tigers held back-to-back opponents to their lowest scoring output of its season (UCF - 64 points, UT Arlington - 45 points).
- Mizzou is fourth in the SEC in both defensive rebound percentage (.741) and rebounding defense (31.9).
- Sophomore K.J. Santos has been cleared to play after sitting out the season's first eight games with a foot injury. He played 11 minutes vs. Oral Roberts on Dec. 7. Santos' last game action before that was March 22, 2017, as a freshman at Illinois-Chicago.
