FIRST SERVE // WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

• Despite a loss Wednesday night at Ole Miss, Mizzou volleyball has still won seven of its last nine matches and will head to Athens, Ga., on Sunday (Oct. 5) for a nationally-televised match with Georgia at 3 p.m. The match will air live on SEC Network with Melissa Lee and Missy Whittemore on the call. A win Sunday would be head coach Wayne Kreklow's 200th win as head coach at Mizzou.

• Mizzou's offense has been incredibly balanced in league play thus far, something head coach Wayne Kreklow envisioned when implementing the 6-2 system that the Tigers are using this year. In SEC play, five Tigers are averaging more than 2.00 kills per set and those five players are averaging a combined 13.10 kills per set on .270 hitting in league play.

• Mizzou and Georgia's series dates back to 1984 and Mizzou holds a slight 3-2 lead in the all-time series. However, the Tigers have never won in Athens with Georgia winning the only meeting in 2012 at Ramsey Center. Wayne Kreklow has faced Georgia three times, holding a 2-1 record in those matches. The Tigers won the most recent meeting, a 3-1 decision, at the Hearnes Center last season.

• Freshman outside hitter Sydney Deeken is the reigning SEC Freshman of the Week. Deeken averaged 3.42 points and 2.83 kills per set last weekend to open SEC play, earning her first career starts against Mississippi State and Tennessee. Now in the starting lineup after missing the first three weeks of the season with an abdominal strain, she reset career-highs in kills (10), hitting (.368) and digs (nine) against Mississippi State, and also had career-highs in attempts (21) and aces (two) against Tennessee. Deeken's 20.5 total points were second on the team last weekend. She had four kills and nine digs Wednesday night at Ole Miss.

• Through three SEC matches, Mizzou continues to lead the SEC in digs per set at 15.11. Senior libero Sarah Meister leads the way with 4.33 and is coming off of a 17-dig outing at Ole Miss Wednesday. She is one of four Tigers averaging more than 2.33 dps in league contests.

Recapping Ole Miss

Mizzou had its streak of 20 consecutive SEC wins come to an end on Wednesday with a 3-0 (18-25, 23-25, 22-25) loss at the hands of Ole Miss. Senior outside hitter Emily Wilson led the way with 13 kills, but Mizzou coughed up leads of three or more points in each of the three sets as it fell to the Rebels. Senior libero Sarah Meister pulled in a match-high 17 digs, but 22 attack errors proved to be too much for the Tigers to overcome. Ole Miss blocked Mizzou 11 times in the match, which featured 15 ties and 11 lead changes. Sophomore middle Emily Thater added seven kills and two blocks on .286 hitting as her 9.0 points were second-best on the team in the loss.

Scouting The Competition

Georgia: 8-6, 0-2

Last Match: Lost 3-1 to Auburn to fall to 0-2 in SEC play.

Players to Watch: Senior MB Lauren Teknipp leads Georgia with 144 kills on the season and holds a .269 hitting percentage. She averages 0.92 blocks per set and has accumulated 180 points, which accounts for almost 21 percent of the team's total points on the year.

-Sophomore MB Desiree McCray has served as one of the Bulldog's strongest defenders with a total of 71 blocks this season, averaging 1.42 blocks per set. She was named the SEC Defensive player of the week back in early September.

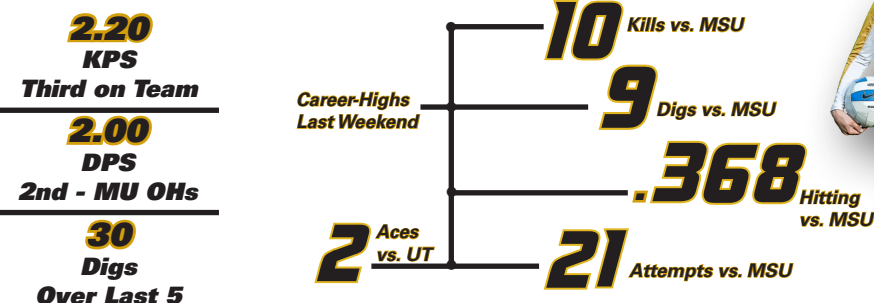

-Senior OH/RS Tirah Le'au is another dynamic force for the Bulldogs with 142 kills on the season and 177 points. In addition, she averages 3.22 digs per set and has recorded a total of seven double-doubles.

Notes: The Bulldogs have not been swept by any opponent this season.

-Georgia has a fairly young team with eight underclassmen and only five juniors and seniors.

-Mizzou took last year's match over Georgia 3-1. Three different Bulldogs recorded over 10 kills in the match, but Lisa Henning answered back with a total of 20 kills herself to give the Tigers the win.

DANGEROUS DEEKEN: Mizzou freshman Sydney Deeken was named SEC Freshman of the Week on Monday. Deeken averaged 3.42 points and 2.83 kills per set last weekend to open SEC play, earning her first career starts against Mississippi State and Tennessee. Deeken is starting now after missing three weeks with an abdominal strain.

6-2 WORKING IN SEC PLAY: Mizzou is running a 6-2 for the first time under Wayne and Susan Kreklow, who have been at the helm of the program since 2000. Since inserting Sydney Deeken into the starting lineup, the 6-2 and the Tiger offense has taken off. In fact, Mizzou has five players averaging more than 2.00 kps in SEC play, joining LSU as the only two SEC teams that can say that.

TIGERS HAVE WON 7 OF 9: Since a disappointing loss to St. Louis at home on Sept. 9, Mizzou has rebounded to win seven of its nine eight matches. The Tigers have some impressive numbers in that stretch. Senior Emily Wilson, in particular, has been very good in that span.

NOTHING 'LITTLE' ABOUT HER

Senior All-American Whitney Little had a historic weekend in Idaho as she tallied her 455th career block against Portland in a 3-1 win. That gave Little Mizzou's school record for career blocks, passing Christi Myers, who had 454 from 1999-2002. She has 485 heading into Sunday.

LITTLE NOW OWNS 8 SCHOOL RECORDS. She is a two-time All-SEC honoree and was an AVCA Honorable Mention All-American last season. To the right is a breakdown of her school records. Little is also closing in on two more records (bottom left).

TAKING PRESSURE OFF: Before Sydney Deeken's insertion into the starting lineup, sophomore All-American Carly Kan was getting the bulk of the swings for Mizzou. She accounted for 30-percent of the team's attempts before Deeken's arrival in the lineup and has seen that number drop to 20-percent since. It's no surprise that Kan's hitting percentage is much better over the last four matches. Below is a look.

DIGGIN' IT

In addition to Kan averaging more than 3.00 digs per set, senior libero Sarah Meister is also pulling in more than 3.00 per frame with her 3.67 clip, which leads the team. Kan and Meister are one of just two duos in the SEC to average more than 3.00 digs per set this season and the duo's combined 464 digs are tops among those two duos.

Meister

Mizzou's passing duo of senior libero Sarah Meister and sophomore outside Carly Kan has been very good as of late. Mizzou has been ached just three times in SEC play on 137 chances (.978) and over the last three matches. Kan had a streak of 142 receptions without an error snapped at Ole Miss.

Meister Cracks Top Five

Senior libero Sarah Meister has 1,304 career digs, fifth-most in school history. Heading into Sunday's match, she is just two back of fourth place in school history (Jessica Vander Kooi - 1,306).

No Ace in the Hole

Mizzou's win over Mississippi State marked the first time this season that Mizzou was not aced, converting all 49 of its service receptions. It's no surprise that after converting every service reception that Mizzou posted a sideout rate of 70-percent (39-55) in the win. Mizzou has been aced just five times in three SEC matches.

Millennium Duo

Sunday's match against Tennessee was Wayne and Susan Kreklow's 1,000th career match as a women's coaching duo (both as an assistant and head coach during their time at both Columbia College and Mizzou). Of the 1,001 women's matches, Team Kreklow has won a remarkable 764 of them. Wayne and Susan Kreklow won their 300th match at Mizzou earlier this season and a win Sunday would be Wayne Kreklow's 200th since taking over at Mizzou in 2005.

Block Party

Mizzou tallied 17 blocks in its four-set win over Illinois State and 17 again vs. SLU. The block explosion is obviously a season-high for the Tigers and it is their most since tallying 19 in a four-set match at Alabama last Nov. 10. Mizzou tallied 16 against UNC-Greensboro as it now has three matches with 16 or more blocks in its last 11 contests. Before the current stretch of three in the last 11, the Tigers had posted 16 or more blocks in three of the previous 63 matches, dating back to Sept. 7, 2012.

Wilson Second in SEC Among Active Kill Leaders

Heading into the weekend, senior Emily Wilson has compiled 954 kills in her career. That mark is tops among Tiger attackers and is second in the SEC, trailing only Kentucky's Lauren O'Conner (982). Whitney Little is fourth on that list with her 848 career kills and Carly Kan is 11th with 613.

A Look at the Senior Class

Mizzou's senior class is an experienced and veteran group as it enters the 2014 season. In fact, the trio has combined for a 86-31 record in three-plus seasons and has qualified for a pair of NCAA Tournaments, winning the SEC last season. The trio has missed a combined three matches in their time at Mizzou while they have compiled 239 starts. Whitney Little has started and played in all but one match in her career (last year she missed the match at Kentucky with a leg injury).

Steady At Libero

Another steady presence in the Tiger starting lineup for the last two seasons has been senior Sarah Meister at the libero spot. In fact, she has started the last 77 matches at libero and has played in 116 of 118 possible matches in her career. The only Tiger in program history to start more consecutive matches at libero was Caitlyn Vann (now an assistant coach at DePaul) who started 95 in a row from 2008-10. Should the Tigers advance to the postseason with Meister at libero in every match, she could pass Vann for that record.

Preseason SEC Poll

Mizzou was picked to finish third in what figures to be a loaded SEC this season, as voted on by the league's 13 head coaches. Mizzou garnered one first place vote and finished with 114 total points in the annual poll. This is the highest that Mizzou volleyball has been selected in a Preseason SEC poll and it is the highest for the program since 2005 when the team was picked to finish second in the Big 12.

All-SEC Tigers

For the third consecutive season, the Mizzou volleyball team had two players named to the Preseason All-Southeastern Conference team as both senior middle blocker Whitney Little and sophomore outside hitter Carly Kan were named to the nine-member team on Aug. 12. Both Little and Kan are coming off of monster seasons in which both earned AVCA Honorable Mention All-America honors.

USA! USA! USA!

Four Tigers played with the USA Volleyball Collegiate National Team last summer. Carly Kan toured China with one of the teams and was one of the top attackers for her team. Both seniors Emily Wilson and Whitney Little toured Europe and Sarah Meister trained in Minnesota with the National Team.

Home Sweet Heames

Last season continued a trend of fan support that has increased almost every year since Wayne and Susan Kreklow took over the program in 2000. In fact, Mizzou welcomed a program-record 62,717 into the Hearn Center last season, the third-best total in the nation. That mark trailed only Nebraska and Hawaii, who have long been the top attended programs nationally. In all, Mizzou averaged 3,301 fans per match last season, ranking sixth nationally. The team also reset the program record when 7,879 fans watched Mizzou sweep Mississippi State for the school's first ever SEC Championship.

Tigers on TV

Defending SEC Champion Mizzou volleyball will be televised a league-high 10 times on the SEC Network this season, as announced by the Southeastern Conference and ESPN on May 14.

NCAA All-Access

On the heels of its first ever SEC Championship and a 35-1 season, Mizzou volleyball has been selected by the NCAA to be featured on the NCAA.com All-Access video franchise during the 2014 season. NCAA.com All-Access will give fans around the nation a unique look at what it is like to be a Mizzou volleyball player all

Hawaiian Connection

As Missouri volleyball takes the court this season, there will be something that a lot of Tiger fans have not seen as two Hawaii natives will don the Black & Gold as both Carly Kan and Loxley Keala call the Rainbow State their home. The sophomore duo calls Honolulu home and played on rival high schools growing up. As a hot bed for volleyball talent, both Kan and Keala bring extensive beach play to Missouri and great all-around games. They are the first Hawaii natives to play for Missouri volleyball. The two were beach partners their senior year.

Missouri Adds Dawei Shen as Volunteer Assistant

Missouri volleyball head coach Wayne Kreklow has announced the addition of 11-year coaching veteran Dawei Shen as the program's new volunteer assistant coach. Shen joins the Tigers for the 2014 season after a standout career as both a player and a coach in China. As a coach, Shen built an impressive résumé on the club scene in China and developed into one of the most well-respected coaches in the country. He served as an assistant coach to former US Women's National Team head coach Lang Ping and the two won a national Championship with EVERGRANDE Volleyball Club.

Kreklow's Are Second-Longest Tenured Women's Coaches at Missouri

Now entering their 15th overall season at Missouri, Wayne and Susan Kreklow are the second-longest tenured women's coaches at Missouri and the fourth-longest overall. Only Missouri soccer's Bryan Blitz has had a longer current tenure as a women's coach at Missouri and only baseball coach Tim Jamieson, Blitz and wrestling coach Brian Smith have been at Missouri longer among current Missouri head coaches. The Kreklow's have overseen the longest run by any coach in Missouri volleyball history.

Weekly Conference Honors Trend

Since the start of the 2009 season, a trend has started for the Missouri volleyball program. In the last four-plus seasons, Missouri has claimed 38 conference weekly honors, including 12 SEC tallies. What makes that mark even more impressive is the fact that from 1990-2008, Missouri had just 17 weekly honorees.

Up Next

Missouri will play Auburn on Oct. 10 at home in a 6:30 match. That match will air live on SEC Network+. For all the latest on Missouri volleyball, stay tuned to MUTigers.com and follow the team on twitter @MissouVB.

WAYNE & SUSAN KREKLOW

Mizzou volleyball's rise to national prominence since 2000 can be easily tied to its leadership at the helm of the program as Wayne and Susan Kreklow have built a national power. Heading into the 2013 season, the résumé was impressive enough: 10 NCAA Tournaments, one Elite Eight, two Sweet 16s, 12 winning seasons and an average of 20 wins per season.

But the Kreklows and the 2013 team rewrote the record books with the most successful season in program history. Not only did the Tigers become the first ever team at Mizzou to win a Southeastern Conference Championship and the program's first conference championship, but the team finished the regular season unblemished at 34-0. The team earned the No. 4 overall seed in the NCAA Tournament and saw four players earn AVCA All-America honors, including a pair of first team honorees in senior setter Molly Kreklow and senior right side Lisa Henning. Wayne Kreklow was named SEC Coach of the Year for engineering the whole thing. Below is just a snapshot of the achievements by the 2013 team.

- SEC Champions – School's first ever SEC title and program's first ever league championship
- First ever SEC team to finish a regular season unbeaten
- Reset school records in wins, conference wins, consecutive wins, sweeps and team hitting percentage
- Led the nation in hitting, kills, assists, wins and points per set while averaging the fewest errors per set
- Saw four players – Molly Kreklow, Lisa Henning, Carly Kan, Whitney Little - land on the All-SEC team
- Molly Kreklow was named SEC Player of the Year, Carly Kan was SEC Freshman of the Year and Wayne Kreklow was SEC coach of the Year
- Four Tigers were AVCA All-Americans – Molly Kreklow and Lisa Henning (First Team) and Carly Kan and Whitney Little (honorable mention)
- Wayne Kreklow was the SEC Coach of the Year and the AVCA Southeast Region Coach of the Year
- Carly Kan earned AVCA Southeast Region Freshman of the Year

Aside from all of the accomplishments for the 2013 team, Wayne and Susan Kreklow had built a power at Mizzou since arriving in 2000. In fact, now that the Tigers have reached the NCAA Tournament in 11 of the last 14 seasons, Mizzou is one of only 22 teams nationally to qualify for at least 10 NCAA Tournaments in the last 14 seasons. In the Kreklow's first eight seasons at the helm of the program, Mizzou qualified for the NCAA Tournament in each year, joining Nebraska as the only two programs to accomplish that feat during the span.

In their inaugural season as an SEC member, Wayne and Susan Kreklow guided Mizzou to a 19-win season while finishing fourth in the SEC East division. They also guided three players - Molly Kreklow, Lisa Henning and Whitney Little - to All-SEC honors. Henning was a unanimous All-SEC First Team pick while Kreklow and Little were second-team honorees. Henning also went on to garner AVCA All-America Third Team honors, becoming the second Tiger to earn AVCA All-America honors in two consecutive seasons.

The 2011 season may have showcased the Kreklow's coaching prowess unlike ever before. With just two seniors on the 2011 squad, the Kreklows took a group comprised primarily of freshmen and sophomores to the NCAA Tournament for the 10th time in 12 seasons. In fact, the Tigers were the youngest team to qualify for the field of 64 as 11 of its 13 players were underclassmen. The Kreklows also guided Henning to AVCA Third Team All-America honors, becoming the first Tiger underclassman to earn AVCA All-America honors.

In 2010, the Kreklows took the Tigers back to the NCAA Sweet 16, marking the program's second-deepest run into the NCAA Tournament in history. The Tigers also pulled the biggest first-round upset in NCAA Tournament history in 2010, knocking off fifth-seeded Northern Iowa in Cedar Falls in a thrilling five-set match. The Tigers boasted four wins over ranked teams in 2010, including two in the NCAA Tournament, and took home 14 Big 12 Athlete of the Week honors, the most by any team in the league in 2010. The Tigers also ranked 16th nationally in average attendance last season.

Under the Kreklow's guidance in 2010, senior outside hitter Paola Ampudia was named honorable mention All-American by the AVCA as a member of the first team All-Central Region and All-Big 12 teams. She was a unanimous selection to the All-Big 12 team. The Kreklows also saw freshman setter Molly Kreklow garner AVCA Central Region Freshman of the Year honors and honorable mention All-Big 12 status as well. She and classmate Lisa Henning also appeared on the All-Big 12 Freshman team. The idea of developing a family-like atmosphere has always been a key component of the Kreklow's coaching style. That rang true again in 2010 as Molly Kreklow, their niece, was the team's starting setter. Not only that, but the Kreklows have teamed with current assistant coach Deng Yang for all 11 years at Mizzou and she played for Wayne and Susan during their time at Columbia College. Also, the Kreklows have added one of their former Mizzou players to their coaching staff in former All-American setter Lindsey Hunter, now in her second season.

In 2009, the Kreklows guided a group of talented underclassmen to an 18-14 overall record, likely just one win shy of qualifying the program for its ninth NCAA Tournament in the decade. Under the tutelage of the Kreklows, Ampudia earned a spot on the All-Big 12 First Team and was dubbed the conference Newcomer of the Year as she thrived in the Kreklow's system. She anchored what was one of the league's most explosive attacks in 2009.

Under the direction of the Kreklow's, academics and community involvement continue to be a cornerstone of the program. In 2009, six Tigers earned a spot on the Academic All-Big 12 team while senior setter Lei Wang-Francisco became the program's first-ever four-time Academic All-Big 12 honoree. The volleyball program also spends countless hours in the community. In 2009, the team baked holiday cookies for the elderly, visited children's hospitals and raised more than $1,000 for the American Red Cross and the Haitian Earthquake Relief Fund. Year in and year out, the volleyball program challenges for Mizzou's Tiger Cup, which is given to the Mizzou athletic program that is most involved in its community. The Kreklow's guided the volleyball team to a Tiger Cup Championship in 2009, despite having one of the smallest rosters across the board.

While the Kreklow's success at Missouri was immediate, the apex of their successes came at the end of the 2005 season. The Tigers were selected to host NCAA First and Second rounds for the second-consecutive year, achieving an overall No. 10 seed in the tournament. After defeating Missouri State in the first round, Mizzou swept Arkansas to advance to the team's first regional in school history. At the Penn State Regional, the Tigers took perennial power Hawaii head-on in the regional semifinal, defeating UH in four games. The Tigers accumulated a 25-5 record in 2005, the winningest season in school history, and were a step away from the Final Four.

Also in 2005, Wayne Kreklow was named College Volleyball Update's honorable mention National Coach of the Year as the team surged to the national top-10 for the first time in school history, sweeping three top-10 teams along the way. In all, the Kreklows have amassed a 200-108 (.649) winning record in their Mizzou tenure with 117 wins coming in Big 12 play, averaging 12 conference wins per season. The Tigers have won 21 matches over Top-25 teams since 2000, topping five during the magical 2005 season. Mizzou itself has spent 76 weeks in the national top 25 since 2000.

Upon arrival, the Kreklows wasted no time in putting their winning mark on a program that had not experienced success since the early 1980's. In their first three years at Mizzou (2000, 2001 and 2002) they recorded the program's first back-to-back-to-back 20-win seasons since 1981-83. In fact, the Tigers won 70 matches in the first three years under the Kreklows, more than the previous seven years combined. Missouri posted the first postseason victory in school history by defeating Northwestern in the first round of the 2002 NCAA Tournament. In 2004, Missouri had the honor of hosting first and second rounds of the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history.

In 2000, the Kreklows' first season at MU, the Tigers finished second in the Big 12 Conference after finishing ninth the previous year. For her efforts, Susan was named as the 2000 Big 12 Coach of the Year by her peers. The Kreklows have made Mizzou Volleyball an exciting marketable entity, and the growth in attendance has been effected, as Missouri has ranked in the nation's top seven in the category in 2005 and 2006, averaging more than 2,600 fans per competition. On Oct. 5, 2005, 7,298 fans packed the Hearnes Center for the Tigers' match against Nebraska. Both teams entered the contest undefeated and ranked in the national top-10.

In 2005, Missouri's No. 21 preseason ranking was the season-low as the team never exited the top 25. The Tigers progressed in defeating two top-10 teams in sweeps to open the season and soon soared to the top 10 themselves, peaking at a now-team, all-time high No. 7 in October. Their No. 8 final poll ranking in 2005 is the best in school history.

Before the 2005 season, Wayne and Susan officially switched titles within the University system to allow for more family flexibility. While the official coaching records of both are affected, their coaching philosophy is one built on a co-op instead of a one-headed system.

Before coming to Missouri, the Kreklows were co-head coaches of both the men's and women's volleyball teams at Columbia College. They enjoyed great success, taking their women's team to the NAIA National Tournament six times and winning consecutive national titles in 1998 and 1999.

The Cougars also won five regional championships and seven consecutive American Midwest Conference championships under their guidance. In 1998 and 1999, Columbia College achieved consecutive undefeated seasons with a combined record of 85-0. The Cougars' undefeated record included 78 consecutive wins at home and 227 consecutive game victories.

In 1997 and 1998, the Kreklows shared NAIA/AVCA National Coach of the Year and Midwest Region Coach of the Year honors. In 1999, the coaching tandem took home the regional award for the fifth consecutive year. In 1998 and 1999, the Kreklows also received the NAIA National Tournament Coach of the Year award.

Along with the success of the women's program, the Kreklows started the men's volleyball program at Columbia College in 1997. In 1999, the Cougars finished the season with a 19-5 overall record, enjoying their second consecutive undefeated run through the Midwest Intercollegiate Volleyball Association. They also took second place at the inaugural SSI Volleyball National Invitational Tournament in 1999.

Susan Kreklow played volleyball for Central Missouri State University and Missouri State. She received her bachelor's degree in physical education and a Master's of Science degree from Missouri State in 1984 and 1987, respectively. Kreklow began her coaching career at St. Clair (Mo.) High School. She began her collegiate coaching career at Columbia College in 1990. Susan was the founder of Columbia Juniors Volleyball Club and the Columbia Developmental Volleyball Leagues. She has served as a member of the USA Volleyball Board of Directors as the NAIA representative and was president-elect of the NAIA National Coaches Association.

Wayne Kreklow earned a bachelor's degree in social science in 1980 from Drake University. While at Drake, Wayne was a member of the men's basketball team, where he earned All-America, all-conference and all-district awards as a two-time team captain, and is fifth on Drake's career scoring list. He is also a member of Drake's All-Century basketball team and was a member of the NBA World Champion Boston Celtics in 1980-81. Wayne began coaching basketball for Central Decatur (Iowa) High School in 1986. He began coaching volleyball as an assistant under Craig Sherman at Missouri. He was with the Tigers from 1989 to 1994 before moving over to Columbia College to join his wife at the helm of the Cougar program.

The Kreklows reside in Columbia with their three children: sons Rick (22) and Ryan (18) and daughter Ali (19). In the summer of 2006, Wayne coached his son Rick's AAU 14-and-under basketball team to a national championship. Rick is currently playing varsity basketball at Creighton.
