QUICKLY...

Missouri hosts its second straight top-10 opponent as No. 5 Kansas State visits Columbia on Wednesday ... the Tigers are coming off a loss to No. 10 Nebraska on Saturday and now stand 16-8 on the year and 9-6 in the Big 12 Conference ... Kansas State is 23-3 overall and 13-1 in the conference ... Mizzou has lost four straight, which is the longest drought for MU since October of 1999 ... the Wildcats, on the other hand, enter on an 11-match winning streak ... KSU leads the Big 12 Conference, while Missouri is currently in fourth place.

UP NEXT

Following Wednesday, Missouri has four matches remaining in the regular season starting Saturday at Oklahoma. MU will host Iowa State next Wednesday, then travel to Colorado on Nov. 22, before closing out the regular season at home against Baylor on Nov. 29.

SCOUTING THE WILDCATS

Kansas State enters Wednesday's match on an 11-match winning streak. After dropping the first two matches of the year, the Wildcats won 12 straight before falling to Baylor on Sept. 24, which was their last loss. Of KSU's 13 Big 12 wins, six have been three-game sweeps and just four have gone to five games, including its win over Mizzou on Oct. 8 in Manhattan. Kansas State is at the top of the Big 12 standings and leads the conference in hitting percentage with a .267 mark for the season. Lauren Goehring leads the conference with a .408 hitting percentage. Gabby Guerre is fourth in the Big 12 with a .325 hitting percentage and stands third with a 0.43 aces per game average.

THE MU-KSU SERIES

Mizzou has dropped its last six matches against Kansas State with the last win coming in 2000 in Susan and Wayne Kreklow's first meeting against the Wildcats. Kansas State has won 18 of the last 19 matches against Mizzou. Earlier this season, KSU defeated Missouri 3-2 in Manhattan, Kan.

A LOOK BACK

Mizzou's volleyball match against Nebraska was much closer than the 3-0 score would indicate. The Tigers were in every game and held several leads but did not have enough to take down Nebraska who took the 30-28, 31-29, 30-26 win.

Less than a month after Missouri ended a 44-match losing streak to the Cornhuskers by picking up a 3-2 win in Lincoln, the Tigers fell short of making it two straight on Saturday in front of a crowd of 2,118.

Mizzou trailed in game one until an ace by Lindsey Hunter tied the score at 15. The Tigers later took the lead at 19-18 and held the lead for much of the remainder of the game until a 4-0 run by the Huskers gave them the lead at 27-26. Nebraska scored three of the next five points for the game one win and a 1-0 lead in the match.

The Tigers held the early game two lead until a 5-0 Husker run gave the lead to NU. Mizzou responded with a 4-0 run of its own to get back within one. MU tied the score at 28 and avoided one Nebraska game point before the Huskers closed out the game on their second game point.

Game three opened with six straight MU points before the Huskers got on the board. Nebraska rallied, tying the score at 21 and taking its first lead of the game at 22-21 before going on to the 30-26 win to close out the match.

Hunter, Shen Danru and Jessica Vander Kooi each recorded double-doubles on the night. It was the fourth straight match that all three had double-doubles.

MU falls to 16-8 overall on the year and 9-6 in the Big 12 Conference, while Nebraska improves to 22-3 and 13-2 in the Big 12.

The crowd was the fourth largest in Missouri volleyball history and marked the second consecutive match with an attendance over 2,000.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Practice: Practices for MU Volleyball are open to the media. Times and locations of practices vary throughout the season. Please contact Josh Murray to confirm the practice schedule if you wish to attend.

Interview Policy: Players and coaches are available for interviews before and after practice. They will not conduct interviews on gamedays until after the match. All interview requests must be made through Josh Murray, preferably with 24 hours notice.

DOUBLE PLAY

Four players have recorded double-doubles for MU this season and three have had double-doubles in each of the last four matches. Shen Danru has 13 double-doubles on the year, which is second most in the Big 12 Conference. Lindsey Hunter and Jessica Vander Kooi each have eight on the year. All three had double-doubles against Texas on Oct. 29 led by Danru (24 kills, 16 digs). Vander Kooi had 12 kills and 13 digs, while Hunter had 57 assists along with 16 digs. The three have followed that with double-doubles in each of the next three matches. Last season, Danru led the team with 21 double-doubles.

PULLING RANK

Mizzou fell out of the USA Today/AVCA Coaches' Top 25 this week, but received 20 votes.

The Tigers began the season ranked No. 21 and had climbed to as high as No. 18.

Three Big 12 Conference teams are in the top 25. Kansas State is up to No. 5, while Nebraska is No. 10 and Texas A&M is No. 18.

MU also continues to receive votes in the Volleyball Magazine poll. The Tigers have been among the other receiving votes in each poll this year.

RECORD SETTER

Lindsey Hunter has recorded 1,110 assists this season, giving her 2,800 for her career. That places her third on the career assists charts at Missouri in only her sophomore season. Hunter leads the Big 12 Conference with a 12.61 assists per game average. She is also fourth in the Big 12 with a 0.42 aces per game mark. Hunter has eight double-doubles on the year including the last five matches and seven of the last eight. She has had at least 60 assists three times this year including 69 against Texas A&M on Nov. 1 to tie her career high.

Hunter was named to the All-Tournament team in the first two of MU's tournaments this season. In the season opening Quality Inn Tiger Invitational, she was named the tournament MVP after averaging 13.00 assists per game. She then averaged 11.56 assists per game at the Utah Classic to earn an All-Tournament spot.

In 2002, Hunter set a school record with 1,690 assists. She led the Big 12 and was second in the nation with a 14.08 assists per game average.

SHEN-ANIGANS

Shen Danru leads the team with 13 double-doubles on the year, which is second most in the Big 12 Conference. She also leads the Tigers in kills per game (4.01), digs per game (3.36) and aces per game (0.45). Her 0.45 aces per game is second best in the Big 12 Conference. Danru was named to the All-Tournament team in all three of Missouri's fall tournaments to open the year. She was named the Big 12 Conference Player of the Week on Sept. 29 after averaging 5.14 kills and 4.14 digs per game in the Tigers' two matches the previous week. Danru had back-to-back 20-kill matches against Texas (24) and Texas A&M (22) and added 20 digs against the Aggies.

THE KREK-LOW DOWN

Missouri Head Coach Susan Kreklow's winning percentage of .805 is the best among active coaches with at least five years of coaching experience. Kreklow is also second in total wins among active women's volleyball coaches with 540 in her career. These numbers reflect her records as the head coach of the Missouri and Columbia College women's volleyball teams. She also coached the Columbia College men's team for three seasons. When those are added in, she has a combined record of 595-144.

A BIT ABOUT BOYD

Lisa Boyd leads the team with a .287 hitting percentage. She hit at least .330 in five of Missouri's first six matches this year. She had a career-high .667 mark against Toledo in the Tiger Invitational. Boyd hit .375 in the three matches at the Utah Classic and had a career-high 12 kills to lead the team against Utah Valley State. She had 10 kills and a .429 hitting percentage against Utah in the final match of the tournament. For the season, Boyd has a 2.46 kills per game average. Boyd had 11 kills and hit .421 against Oklahoma. She set a new career high against Texas A&M with 16 kills and followed that with a 15-kill night against Kansas.

ON THE DEFENSIVE

The Tigers have stepped it up on defense this season and are currently third in the Big 12 in digs per game with a 16.10 average. Shen Danru leads Mizzou with a 3.36 digs per game mark, which is ninth best in the conference. She is followed by Sara Parks who has a 3.29 digs per game average. Since the start of Big 12 play, Parks has averaged 3.36 digs per game which ranks eighth in the conference. She had a career-high 26 digs against Texas A&M on Nov. 1. Parks, Juliana Godoi and Jessica Vander Kooi each have one 20-dig match on the year.

ACES WILD

MU leads the Big 12 Conference in aces with an 2.07 aces per game and three Tigers hold spots near the top of the Big 12 standing for aces per game. Danru averages 0.45 aces per game is second in the conference, while Hunter is tied for fourth in the Big 12 (0.42) and Juliana Godoi is ninth (0.38). Missouri tied a Utah Classic tournament record on Sept. 5 by recording 12 service aces, while holding Utah Valley State to just one. Jessica Vander Kooi led Mizzou with five aces in the match.

THE STREAK IS OVER

Missouri picked up its biggest win in recent memory and one of the biggest in the program's history by defeating Nebraska on Oct. 15. After trailing 0-2 at the intermission, Mizzou rallied to win the next three games and defeat the No. 8 Huskers in Lincoln. The win was the first for the Tigers over Nebraska since 1982, snapping a string of 44 consecutive losses. It was the first Missouri win in Lincoln since 1977 and only the third ever win for MU over the Cornhuskers. For Nebraska, it was only its second loss in the Big 12 Conference since 2000. Defense led the Tigers to the win as they recorded a season-high 106 digs as three different players had at least 20 digs led by Juliana Godoi's 22.

NOT IN OUR HOUSE

MU's loss to Texas A&M on Nov. 1 was the first loss at home for the Tigers this season. Missouri had won its first eight home matches of the season, matching the start last year's team had, winning its first eight matches before losing its ninth home contest of the year. The 2000 team, the first year that Susan and Wayne Kreklow were at MU, and the 1980 team each started the year 9-0. MU has three home matches remaining this season starting with Kansas State on Wednesday. MU will then host Iowa State (11/19) and Baylor (11/29).

THAT'S A LOT OF 'POINT MIZZOU'

Missouri's win over Texas on Oct. 11 was not like a normal three-game sweep. In game three the Hearn Center crowd heard Public Address Announcer Mark Edwards shout "Point Mizzou" a few extra times. Mizzou won the game by a score of 42-40, in what was the longest game in Missouri volleyball history. MU's three-game point total of 102 is also the second highest point total ever scored in a three-game match in NCAA history. The record is 105 scored by Arizona State over Arizona in 2002. Twice before, the Tigers have been involved in games that have reached 40 points, both coming in the NCAA Tournament. In 2001, Mizzou lost game two of their NCAA Tournament match against Illinois 38-40. Then last year in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, MU defeated Northwestern by a 40-38 score in game four to win the match.
