

Mizzou Men's Basketball Postgame Notes vs. Arkansas-Pine Bluff

Mizzou Arena - Columbia, Mo.

Final Score: Mizzou 112, Arkansas-Pine Bluff 63

- With the 49-point win, Missouri has now won three-consecutive games by at least 35 points for the first time in program history.
- The Tigers finished with 112 points in the outing, the team's most since scoring 116 against Central Arkansas in 2010.
- It also marked the third-straight game the team dropped at least 90. This is the first time the program has reached the mark in three-consecutive contests since beating Oral Roberts, Arkansas-Pine Bluff and California during the 2009-10 season.
- Mizzou attempted 41 free throws, making 29 of them in the team's win, good for a 70.7 percent clip. This marks the most the team has attempted since beating Arkansas on Feb. 8, 2020 (44).
- The Tigers ended the day with 50 total rebounds, the first time the team reached at least 50 since Feb. 8, 2020, also against the Razorbacks.
- Anthony Robinson II earned his first career double-double with 11 points and 11 rebounds, also tying a personal-high seven assists.
- Robinson's 11 rebounds are the third-most by a Mizzou guard in the past 20 seasons. It also tied the most by a Southeastern Conference guard this season.
- Robinson's 11 rebounds in the contest set a new career-high for the sophomore, bringing down eight boards in the first half to break his record alone.
- After knocking down four triples this afternoon, Caleb Grill has now converted 21-of-31 from beyond the arc in the last four games (67.7 percent) – he is the first Tiger in the last 20 seasons to make 20 or more triples in a four-game span.
- Mark Mitchell finished the afternoon with 20 points, his first game reaching the figure in a Missouri Tigers uniform. The junior has scored at least 20 in five other games during his career.
- Tamar Bates finished the contest with three steals, all in the first half, setting a new season best in the statistic.
- The Mizzou bench finished with 63 points on the day, tying the Golden Lions' scoring output. This is the third game in a row that the Tigers' bench has matched or exceeded the opposing team's points total.
- The MU bench entered the night ranked first nationally with 47.0 points per game.
