For Openers...

> Finals week has hit the University of Missouri campus and the Tigers play one final game before a lengthy break for exams, taking on Tennessee State on Dec. 8 at Mizzou Arena ... Saturday's game will be another challenge as the TSU Tigers were picked second in the Ohio Valley's East Division ... Missouri's Dec. 1 opponent, Southeast Missouri State, was picked second in the OVC's West Division.

> Missouri is playing its third member of the Ohio Valley this season ... The Tigers have already defeated SIUE (83-69) and Southeast Missouri State (81-65).

> Laurence Bowers continues to have an all-SEC senior season and scored a career high 26 points on 10-of-18 shooting vs. Southeast Missouri State on Tuesday ... Bowers has back-to-back 20-point efforts for the first time in his career and is now just 28 points shy of the 1,000-point plateau for his career.

> Bowers would become the 44th Tiger all-time with 1,000 points and the third player in that great 2008-09 freshman class to top the 1,000-point mark, joining former teammates Marcus Denmon (1,775 points) and Kim English (1,570 points).

> Mizzou will look to continue its homecourt domination vs. non-league foes ... Overall Missouri has won 70 consecutive home games vs. non-league opposition since the end of the 2005-06 campaign ... In fact Mizzou has won 29-of-30 regular season non-league games (regardless of site) since the 2010-11 campaign ... Missouri's last non-conference loss at home came vs. Sam Houston State in the 2005 Preseason NIT.

> Overall at Mizzou Arena the Tigers are 72-4 since 2008-09, an incredible .947 winning percentage.

> A victory on Saturday would allow the Tigers to be 8-1 (or better) for three consecutive seasons and for the fourth time in five campaigns dating back to 2008-09.

> Saturday's game could be the final on the bench for Oregon transfer Jabari Brown ... Pending the finalization of semester coursework, Brown could suit up as early as Dec. 17 when Mizzou takes on South Carolina State at Mizzou Arena.

> Missouri continues to dominate on the glass and out-rebounded Southeast Missouri State by 20 (48-28) during Tuesday's win ... The Tigers are No. 4 nationally in rebounding at 45.0 caroms a game and have seven different players averaging at least 3.6 boards a night ... One of those players is senior guard Keion Bell who logged a 12-point, 11-rebound double-double vs. SEMO, his first double-double as a Tiger.

> The Tigers also average 16.3 offensive rebounds per game (No. 7 nationally) and turn that into 17.1 second-chance points per contest ... Mizzou's season rebounding margin (+11.8) is also No. 8 nationally, tops in the SEC.

> Fueling that rebounding margin is the fact three Tigers have multiple point-rebound double-doubles this year ... Alex Oriakhi, Earnest Ross and Laurence Bowers each have a pair of double-doubles this season, including two by Bowers during the recent trip to the Battle 4 Atlantis ... Five Tigers have double digit rebounding games in total with Tony Criswell and Keion Bell joining that group ... Just two Mizzou players had double figure rebounding games last year, Ricardo Ratliffe (nine times) and Marcus Denmon (once).

Mizzou Basketball Cliff Notes...

> Missouri Basketball returns to action on Dec. 8 when the Tigers meet Tennessee State at Mizzou Arena at 2 p.m.
 > Missouri has won 22 consecutive games in the month of December dating back to Dec. 12, 2009.

> Missouri has won eight consecutive games vs. current members of the Ohio Valley Conference dating back to the 2003-04 season, including two wins this season vs. SIUE and SEMO.

> Missouri is one of the country's top rebounding teams and has out-rebounded all-eight foes in 2012-13 ... Missouri enjoyed its largest rebounding margin of the year on Tuesday (+20) and has recorded a double-digit rebounding advantage in five of eight games.

> Defensively, Missouri has held seven of eight opponents (Louisville) below 42 percent shooting ... Southeast Missouri State shot 55 percent in the first half en route to a 45-35 lead at the break, only to be limited to 27 percent shooting in the second half.

> Laurence Bowers is in the midst of his first back-to-back 20-point efforts in his career ... The senior tied a career high with 23 points in the win over Appalachian State and shattered that mark with 26 against Southeast Missouri State on Tuesday ... Over his last two games Bowers is averaging 24.5 points on 66 percent shooting from the floor and a perfect 5-of-5 shooting from three-point range.

> Bowers is the first Tiger with back-to-back 20-point games since Kim English last season ... English had three consecutive 20-point efforts late in the year last season with 20 at Texas Tech and 27 vs. Oklahoma State and 23 vs. Texas in the Big 12 Tournament in Kansas City, Mo.

> Missouri has started to build its bench over the last two weeks with the play of Keion Bell off the pine and the more confident production of Tony Criswell ... Missouri is averaging 18.0 points per game from its bench on the year, including 26.5 points over the last two games.

> On the season Missouri has six double-figure scoring efforts off the bench (Bell - 3, Criswell - 2, Webster-Chan - 1).

> Speaking of Bell coming off the bench, the senior is averaging 12.0 points, 7.0 rebounds and 2.7 dimes per game during that three-game run ... And his playing time is up to 26.3 minutes per game ... In his five games as a starter Bell averaged 8.0 points, 4.0 rebounds in 22.0 minutes.

> Criswell is also on an impressive two-game run averaging 11.5 points on 69 percent shooting (11-of-16) in 20.0 minutes a game.

> Despite having so many newcomers, Mizzou has been balanced through eight games with seven players averaging at least 17.5 minutes a contest ... Seven different Tigers have also reached double figures in scoring in a game this season and seven different Tigers have recorded at least 7+ boards in a game, with five different players reaching double figures in rebounding as well.

> Missouri has won 70 consecutive regular-season, non-conference home games since 2005-06 and since 2006-07 (63-0) the club's margin of victory has been 26.3 points in those non-league home tilts.

> Missouri is 13-0 in home non-league games under Frank Haith and each of those 13 wins have been by double figures ... In fact Mizzou is 20-1 in regular season non-league games under Haith and have won 16 of those games by 10 or more points, including wins over Villanova (10), Notre Dame (29) and California (39) on neutral courts.

> Missouri has won at historic levels over the last four seasons and continues its search for a record-setting fifth consecutive 20-win campaign ... The Tigers have won 23+ games each of the last four seasons.

> MU also won 20+ in four consecutive years from 1988-92 and 1979-83.

> Haith's 2011-12 offense was known for its efficiency and the early returns are good this season as well ... Missouri is averaging 1.14 points per possession this year, despite shooting just 44 percent from the floor.

> Missouri was college basketball's most efficient offensive club a year ago (according to KenPom.com) ... And how about this for an exciting SEC schedule, Kentucky was ranked No. 2 and Florida was No. 3.

> Frank Haith's offense also ranked No. 1 nationally in field goal percentage (.504), assist/turnover ratio (1.6) and among the Top 10 in scoring (6th - 80.4), scoring margin (5th - 14.1), three-point percentage (9th - .398), turnovers (5th - 10.2) and turnover margin (7th - 4.1).

> Haith was of course named the National Coach of the Year by the Associated Press, taking the Tigers to their second 30-win season in school history and fourth consecutive NCAA Tournament.

> Missouri begins its first season of play in the Southeastern Conference ... League play officially begins on Jan. 8, 2013, vs. Alabama ... That game is actually the official opener to the 2013 SEC season.

> Mizzou got an early start to its 2012-13 campaign, playing five games in Europe from Aug. 8-18 ... However none of Missouri's current players saw action overseas, proving to be a great opportunity for the MU newcomers to get extended playing time.

> The Tigers played games in Amsterdam, Belgium and France.

> Missouri will be seen on TV like never before thanks to the move to the SEC ... The Tigers will have a school record 18 games appearing on national TV during the regular season.

> Mizzou also had four players ranked among the top players at their position by CBS Sports ... Phil Pressey headlined that list at No. 2 among point guards.

> In the front court Alex Oriakhi was ranked No. 35 and Laurence Bowers checked in at No. 38.

> Newcomer Jabari Brown was ranked among college hoop's top wing players, checking in at No. 48.

> Fran Fraschilla ranked Phil Pressey as the country's No. 5 most-important player.

> Luke Winn of Sports Illustrated also listed Pressey (No. 5) on his preseason Naismith Award watch list.

> Missouri's transfer class of Keion Bell, Jabari Brown, Alex Oriakhi and Earnest Ross is being considered as one of the best in basketball history by the Sporting News.

> In addition, Missouri ranks among the Top Five nationally with 45.0 rebounds per contest and the team boasts a +11.8 rebounding margin per game.

> The Tigers also rank No. 7 nationally with 16.4 offensive rebounds per game.

Oriakhi Flourishing At Mizzou

Alex Oriakhi won a national championship during his time at Connecticut, but the senior is playing some of the best basketball of his career at Missouri, averaging a career high 10.3 points to go with 8.1 rebounds through eight games this season.

> Oriakhi's best year at UConn came as a sophomore when he averaged 9.6 points and 8.7 rebounds, but saw those numbers dip to 6.7 points and 4.8 boards last season prior to his transfer.

> Oriakhi was strong during Mizzou's 2-1 run at the Battle 4 Atlantis, averaging 11.3 points and 6.0 rebounds in games against Stanford, Louisville and VCU and his team-leading 3.5 offensive rebounds per game ranks among the Top 25 in the country.

Canadians Bakin...

Mizzou may need to fly the Canadian flag inside Mizzou Arena with the early-season production of freshmen Negus Webster-Chan and Stefan Jankovic ... Former high school teammates at Huntington Prep (W. Va.), the pair have flashed their versatility for the Tigers early this season, with Webster-Chan averaging 29.4 minutes off the bench through eight games and Jankovic providing match-up problems on the perimeter due to his size.

> Both players have been stat-stuffers early this season and Webster-Chan made his first career start in the win over VCU, scoring 12 points and committing just one turnover in 36 minutes vs. the high-pressure Rams defense.

> NWC has hit at least one trey in six of eight games this year and has three games with 5 (or more) rebounds, including a career high 11 rebounds in the win over Alcorn State.

> Jankovic has already appeared on ESPN's Top 10 with his baseline dunk vs. Alcorn State and had eight points, five rebounds, four assists, three blocks and two steals in 22 minutes vs. the Braves.

COLUMBIA/JEFFERSON CITY			> Laurence Bowers played three seasons at Mizzou before sitting out last year and the only other Tiger ever to suit up for Mizzou is Phil Pressey , who enters his junior season ... Overall Missouri's five seasons of play (at Mizzou) is the fewest in the conference. Transfer Of Opportunity...

Missouri has just two players on its 2012-13 roster with a season of experience in a Mizzou uniform ... Coming into the year only Laurence Bowers and Phil Pressey had ever donned the Black & Gold and will be relied upon to assist a number of new faces for their first campaign as Tigers ... Of Missouri's 14 players, 11 will be eligible for their first season of play at Mizzou and a 12th, Jordan Clarkson, will sit out the year after transferring from Tulsa.

> However it's not like that group of newcomers is inexperienced ... Five of those 11 have played at the Division I level ... Keion Bell is a 1,400-point scorer from his days at Pepperdine and now at Mizzou, Tony Criswell played at UAB, Alex Oriakhi won a NCAA crown at Connecticut (2011) and Earnest Ross was Auburn's leading scorer in 2011.

The Replacements...

No team has more transfer firepower entering its program this season than Missouri ... And that's great, because it's not likely another team lost more critical players off its club from last season than the Tigers ... Missouri welcomes four highly thought of four-year transfer players into the fold this year as Keion Bell, Jabari Brown, Alex Oriakhi and Earnest Ross become eligible after the departure of senior standouts Marcus Denmon, Kim English, Steve Moore, Matt Pressey and Ricardo Ratliffe.

> Overall that group of seniors accounted for 1,979 points (70 percent), 942 rebounds (84 percent) and 4,967 minutes of play (71 percent) and Denmon, English, Pressey and Ratliffe started all 35 games.

> However Missouri was strategic of its recruitment of transfers and welcomes in Bell who scored 1,365 points in three seasons of Pepperdine, Oriakhi who helped lead UConn to a national title in 2011, Ross who was Auburn's leading scorer and rebounder in 2011 and former Jordan Brand All-American Brown ... Combined (Brown has only played two career games) that group averaged 44.8 points and 17.6 rebounds per game during their most recent season of college basketball, so the Tigers have some important pieces entering in 2012-13.

Thank You Seniors...

Missouri graduated the winningest senior class in school history last year as the collection of Marcus Denmon, Kim English, Steve Moore and Jarrett Sutton, not to mention Laurence Bowers, who returns in 2012-13, and junior college transfers Matt Pressey and Ricardo Ratliffe combined to help the school win 107 games since 2008-09 ... The Tigers twice won 30 games in that four year stretch and helped the program to four consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, tying a school record.

> Another fact that shouldn't be lost is that six of those seven seniors have already graduated and a seventh is just a handful of hours away and is competing professionally.

Masters Of Mizzou...

Missouri is no stranger to having graduates finish up their final season of eligibility on the basketball court ... Last season Jarrett Sutton worked towards his graduate degree while playing his final season on the hardwood and in 2010 Zaire Taylor walked across the stage in December only to have a final semester of eligibility remaining ... In 2009 DeMarre Carroll worked towards his graduate degree while helping the Tigers to a school record 31 wins ... This season Laurence Bowers will work towards his Masters while also finishing up on the hardwood ... Bowers missed last season due to a knee injury, but that didn't stop the now fifth-year senior from taking care of business in the classroom ... Bowers finished with a grade-point average above a 3.0 and is working towards his Masters in Public Administration.

Five In A Row?...

Missouri is looking for a school record-tying fifth consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament this season ... The Tigers have qualified for every Big Dance since 2009, a streak that began when Laurence Bowers entered as a freshman.

> Mizzou last made five consecutive NCAA Tournaments in 1990 and made its fourth consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament in 1993, 1995 and 2003, before accomplishing the feat of four consecutive once again in 2012.

Hoops In August...

"Look Kids... there's Big Ben, there's Parliament" ... No, Holiday Road was not the soundtrack of Missouri's European trip this summer, but the Tigers did get some valuable experience playing with 10 new performers during the five games overseas ... Despite having so many new faces Mizzou once again showed great balance during its tour of The Netherlands, Belgium and France, having five players in double figures and eight players average 10.5 minutes or more of playing time.

> Departed senior Mike Dixon led the Tigers in scoring at 16.5 points per game, but newcomers Keion Bell (12.0), Earnest Ross (11.8), Alex Oriakhi (11.3) and Jabari Brown (10.0) were just behind the senior all-league candidate.

> Mizzou also dominated the glass vs. their European counterparts, owning a 46.2-to-30.0 rebounding advantage ... Ross (9.3) and Oriakhi (8.3) lead the way and freshman Ryan Rosburg added 11 points and 10 boards vs. The Netherlands National B Team.

New League Debuts...

Missouri is one of college basketball's winningest programs, but oddly enough the first year in a new league has not been kind to the Tigers ... Missouri is playing in its sixth conference and has enjoyed just one winning season in that first year in a new league, recording an 11-7 overall mark in 1928-29 as a member of the Big Six.

> Overall the Tigers are 52-66 (.441) combined in their first season as members of the Missouri Valley, Big Six, Big Seven, Big Eight and Big 12.

Conference	First Year	Overall	League (Finish)
Mo. Valley	1907-08	8-10	0-5 (3rd)
Big Six	1928-29	11-7	7-3 (2nd)
Big Seven	1948-49	11-13	6-6 (4th)
Big Eight	1958-59	6-19	3-11 (8th)
Big 12	1996-97	16-17	5-11 (10th)

Mizzou Head Coach Frank Haith announced the signing of a nationally-ranked recruiting class on Nov. 14 as Wes Clark (6-0, 175, Romulus, Mich. / Romulus H.S.), Torren Jones (6-8, 215, Chandler, Ariz. / La Lumiere School (Ind.)) and Johnathan Williams, III (6-9, 210, Memphis, Tenn. / Southwind H.S.), signed national letters of intent to play for the Tigers next season.

NOTING MIZZOU HEAD COACH FRANK HAITH

In his inaugural season with the University of Missouri basketball program, Frank Haith led his program to new heights. Not only did the 26-year coaching veteran bring in regional ties, a family atmosphere and impeccable academic success, he helped the Tiger program step back into the national spotlight.

Despite having a roster which featured just seven scholarship players, Haith and his staff guided the Tigers to a 30-5 overall record in 2011-12, marking just the second 30-win season in MU history. Mizzou, picked fourth in the Big 12 Conference pre-season coaches' poll, won a school-record 14 league games, and finished second in the conference standings with a 14-4 mark. The Tigers won the school's second Big 12 Tournament Championship with a 3-0 run in Kansas City, before advancing to the NCAA Tournament.

With his record-setting first season in the books, Haith received recognition in the form of numerous coaching accolades. After earning the Big 12 Coach of the Year title, Haith was named U.S. Basketball Writers Association District VI Coach of the Year. As a first-year coach, Haith guided his team to more regular season wins than any other Mizzou coach before him and became the first Tiger head coach since 1920-21 to win his first 14 games.

The honors continued to roll in for Haith as he was given the prestigious Henry Iba Coach of the Year Award, presented annually to the National Coach of the Year by the U.S. Basketball Writers Association. He was also named the Associated Press College Basketball Coach of the Year, becoming just the third head coach at Missouri to win national Coach of the Year honors.

Haith was officially welcomed to the Missouri family on April 5, 2011, and immediately appreciated the Tiger's passionate fan base. The Burlington, N.C., native came from the University of Miami where he was not only forced to instill a winning mentality to his players and supporters, but do it at a university void of any lengthy basketball tradition.

"Being the head coach at the University of Missouri is such an honor and it's something that has become more and more meaningful during our time here," Haith said. "Obviously the passionate fanbase is what grabbed my attention first, but the support of the administration, the support of our community and the support of our students is second to none."

"We have the complete package here and that's what sets us apart in college basketball. We have incredible facilities, we have a national brand when we go out on the road and Missouri has shown, time and time again, it supports its teams with vigor, but also in a first-class manner."

Haith's task in South Beach was monumental. In addition to resurrecting a hoops program that was restarted just two decades prior, he ushered the Hurricanes into the tradition-rich Atlantic Coast Conference where many didn't expect his program to win a single league game. Those critics were wrong.

In his first of seven seasons as the head coach, Haith guided the 'Canes to seven ACC victories (despite being picked last) and qualified for postseason play. He was recognized by being named a Naismith National Coach of the Year finalist and NABC District 6 Coach of the Year.

Miami returned to postseason play the following year. The Hurricanes won 18 more games and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NIT, recording the program's first postseason wins since 2000. Postseason success was a theme under Haith. His teams won six total games in the NCAA and National Invitation tournaments, including a memorable run to the second round of the Big Dance in 2008. The 'Canes went 23-11 in Haith's fourth season, just one win shy of the school record and he was named a finalist for ACC Coach of the Year and the Skip Prosser Man of the Year honors.

And it's not just on the hardwood where Haith has fueled incredible growth amongst his players. During his time at both Missouri and Miami his players were visible in the community and Haith has seen an incredible 28-of-30 seniors to play for him walked across the stage to receive a diploma.

"That's my proudest moment," Haith said. "To know we churn out young men, ready to make positive contributions in the community, ready to be great fathers and husbands. That's what coaching at the college level is all about."

It's not an accident Frank Haith was hired as the 17th basketball coach at Mizzou. The grind from student-assistant at Elon College to being named the National Recruiter of the Year by Rivals.com doesn't just happen without a dedication to family, career and your student-athletes.

Haith paid his own way through Elon and graduated in 1988. He helped the Fighting Christians twice win 20 games and earned the opportunity to cut his teeth at perennial power Wake Forest the following year as a graduate assistant. His first full-time coaching position at Division I came at UNC-Wilmington from 1990-92 and he laid the foundation for his job at Missouri with a three-year stop at Texas A&M from 1992-95, which included helping the Aggies reach postseason play in 1994.

A remarkable 21-win campaign during his one season at Penn State (1995-96) allowed the Nittany Lions to reach the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 31 years, and he returned to Texas A&M and the Big 12 Conference for one season as the Aggies' Associate Head Coach in 1996-97 before returning to Wake Forest from 1997-98. The Demon Deacons reached postseason play each of his four years in Winston-Salem, including winning the NIT Championship in 2000 and reaching NCAA Tournament play in 2001.

Haith parlayed that success at Wake Forest into an opportunity at the University of Texas. Coaching alongside friend and mentor Rick Barnes, Haith was a part of (at the time) the winningest three-year stretch in Texas Basketball history. The Longhorns averaged better than 24 wins per season and never failed to reach the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament. The Longhorns advanced to the Final Four in 2003 and Haith worked magic on the recruiting trail, ushering four McDonald's All-Americans to Austin, including Brad Buckman (2002), LaMarcus Aldridge (2004), Daniel Gibson (2004) and Michael Williams (2004). Aldridge and Gibson are now mainstays in the NBA, with Aldridge being drafted No. 2 overall to the Chicago Bulls. The Class was rated No. 2 nationally by Rivals.com and Haith was the nation's hottest young coach. So began the daunting reclamation project at Miami, which concluded with an average of 21 wins over his last three years, national rankings in three of his final four campaigns and three of the school's six (all-time) 20-win ledgers.

One of 10 siblings, family will always be first for Frank Haith, and his student-athletes are part of that family. A proud father and husband, Frank and his wife Pam are the parents of two children, Corey and Brianna and his son is walking onto the Mizzou program this year.

Frank and Pam met in high school, began dating a short time after and have been together for 28 years. The Haith family is an active participant in its home communities and spearheaded fundraising and renovation efforts for Morningside Park in Elon, N.C., in the neighborhood in which Haith grew up. In Columbia, the family is actively involved with the Boys & Girls Club of the Columbia Area.
