GAME NOTES

• Florida owns a 9-4 record all-time against Mizzou, including two straight.
• Although the Tigers are a perfect 12-0 when reaching 70 points this season, they've fallen to 1-4 when they don't hit their magic number.
• Mizzou's defense as a unit continues leading the nation in steals with 11.6 per game after today's 12 snags.
• The Tigers are shooting 25.0% from behind the arc in its losses as opposed to 37.6% in wins.
• The Tigers forced the Gators into 19 turnovers, 14 in the first half, the second-most turnovers they've had this season.
• Kobe Brown tied his career high with five steals to lead Mizzou.
• Brown's five steals coupled with Tre Gomillion's three marked the sixth time this season where multiple Tigers have recorded 3+ steals.
• Brown also scored 21 points to earn his fifth 20-point effort of the campaign.
• Gomillion notched his fourth effort of 10+ points this season, dropping 11 points – his most since the second game of the season on Nov. 11 against Penn.
• With Gomillion, Brown and Noah Carter each scoring at least 10 points, at least three Tigers have scored in double figures in every contest this season.
• Mohamed Diarra set numerous career highs in points (four), rebounds (four) and minutes (nine).
