yolett McPHEE-MCCUIN

Head Coach • 7th Season

X @YolettMcCuin @yoweezy15

Head coach Yolett McPhee-McCuin has elevated Ole Miss women's basketball back into the national spotlight throughout her six seasons in Oxford. McPhee-McCuin keeps building upon success each season at the helm of the Rebels, leading Ole Miss to a program record 12 SEC wins in 2023-24 as well as the school's third straight NCAA Tournament appearance for its 20th overall.

Along with guiding the Rebels to a program best in conference wins, McPhee-McCuin picked up her 100th win at the helm of Ole Miss during the 2023-24 season to become the second coach in program history to achieve the feat.

Bringing the Rebels back to her home country of the Bahamas, McPhee-McCuin and the Rebels clinched their second tournament victory as the Rebels went on to win three games in three days to claim the 2023 Battle4Atlantis Championship. Two Rebels earned a spot on the all-tournament team in Marquesha Davis and Madison Scott, with Scott taking home Most Valuable Player Honors.

The duo of Davis and Scott continued to excel throughout the conference season, with the pair becoming the first Rebels to both earn First Team All-SEC accolades in the same season since 1989.

McPhee-McCuin's signature defense also led the Rebels to break multiple program records, including Ole Miss shattering a single-season best of 190 blocks. Holding 11 opponents to under 50 points also set a school record in a single season.

In the First Round of the 2024 NCAA Tournament, McPhee-McCuin picked up her third tournament victory as a head coach as the Rebels marched past Marquette.

The 2022-23 campaign generated plenty of noise in leading the Rebels to its 19th NCAA Tournament appearance and shook up the country in advancing to its 11th Sweet 16 in program history.

Cultivating a roster through the use of the transfer portal and with Rebel returners, McPhee-McCuin guided a team with seven newcomers to its second-straight NCAA Tournament appearance for the first time since the 2004 & 2005 seasons. Reaching 20-wins also hit another milestone for Ole Miss, reaching the 20-win mark in back-to-back seasons for the only time since 1993-94 & 1994-95.

After reaching an 11-2 mark through its non-conference slate, Ole Miss hit the ground running at the start of SEC play by rattling off five consecutive victories to begin 5-0. One of these first five wins included the Rebels' first win over Mississippi State in Starkville since 2004. The Rebels kept their momentum rolling against the Bulldogs in Oxford, completing the first regular season sweep over MSU since 2004.

This Rebel squad came together in multiple ways when facing adversity, including engineering the best comeback in program history after facing a 19-point deficit at halftime at Arkansas. Defensively, Ole Miss clamped down on the Razorbacks to erase the Arkansas lead and force overtime. From then on, it was all Ole Miss to complete the comeback and take down Arkansas, 76-73. Not only was it the largest comeback in program history, but the third biggest between two SEC teams and ranks ninth in the NCAA record book.

The wins continued to come, with Ole Miss earning 11 SEC victories to tie a program record and seal its second-straight fourth place finish. The 11 victories were the most for the Rebels since the conference went to the 16-game SEC schedule. Following an appearance in the SEC Tournament Semifinals, the Rebels heard their name called on Selection Sunday as an eight seed to reach the program's 19th NCAA Tournament appearance.

A dominant First-Round, 71-48 victory over No. 8 Gonzaga highlighted by its trademark defense kept the Bulldogs at bay with a program-lowest in points allowed in an NCAA Tournament game. Going up against No. 1 Stanford in the Second-Round, Ole Miss took control of the Cardinal in a game in which they never trailed to knock off the top-seeded host team, 54-49 to reach the Rebels' 11th Sweet 16. The Rebels became the first team since 2009 to halt a No. 1 seed from advancing to the third round.

Development has been a key theme for McPhee-McCuin, by molding transfer Angel Baker into a First Team All-SEC point guard and a WBCA Honorable Mention All-American. In her third year with Madison Scott, the 2021 SEC Freshman of the Year, elevated her game to earn Second Team All-SEC and All Defensive Team honors for 2023.

McPhee-McCuin wrapped up her fourth season in Oxford in 2021-22 with revitalized energy surrounding the Ole Miss women's basketball program, leading the Rebels to their 18th NCAA Tournament appearance and their first in 15 seasons with one of the most tenacious defenses in the country.

The 2021-22 campaign was one to be remembered, as McPhee-McCuin raised the bar with the expectation of the NCAA Tournament or bust from the get-go, Ole Miss rose to the occasion, accomplishing just that. Following a season-opening loss, the Rebels responded by rattling off 13 straight wins for the third-longest winning streak in program history on the way to a 23-win season.

Following its second-ranked win of the season at No. 23 Kentucky and fourth-straight in SEC play, the Rebels saw themselves slotted in the AP Poll on Jan. 24 at No. 24 for the program's first ranking in 15 years. Defensively, Ole Miss shattered program records with a season-high 142 blocks and held a record 10 opponents under 50 points, for the most in a single season.

Once SEC play hit, the Rebels did not cool off, picking up 10 conference wins for the second time in Ole Miss history. A 10-6 conference record pushed the Rebels into a fourth-place SEC finish for its best since 1994. With a double bye secured for the SEC Tournament in Nashville, Ole Miss knocked off No. 23 Florida to advance to its ninth semifinal appearance and first since 1993 before ultimately falling to top-seeded South Carolina. Just a little over a week later, jubilation occurred with Ole Miss seeing its name called on Selection Sunday for the first time since 2007 as a seven seed.

Under her tutelage, Shakira Austin earned First Team All-SEC honors for the second straight season, and garnered national acclaim as one of the best centers throughout Division I hoops. Bringing in transfer guard Angel Baker from Wright State proved to be key, as she went on to be named the SEC's Sixth-Woman of the Year, for the first in Ole Miss history.

McPhee-McCuin made history of her own after the 2021-22 campaign, becoming the first woman in Bahamian history to coach at the men's national level. She served as an assistant with the Bahamas Men's Senior National Team during World Cup qualifiers.

Ole Miss bounced back from an 0-16 SEC season in 2019-20 to a 15-12 (4-10 SEC) campaign in 2020-21 that saw the Rebels come dangerously close to crashing the Big Dance. The Rebels knocked off three top-25 teams in the span of a month -- including a season-sweep of nationally ranked Kentucky and a momentous upset of No. 13 Arkansas in the First Round of the SEC Tournament to mark the first SEC Quarterfinal appearance for Ole Miss since 2010. The Rebels nearly knocked off No. 14 Tennessee in that quarterfinal, which would have marked the first SEC Semifinal appearance since 1993 and likely would have pushed the Rebels into the NCAA Tournament.

The Rebels were on the outside looking in on the Big Dance despite ending the regular season with a NET of 43, five NET top 100 wins, four NET top-50 wins, and a brutal final stretch that included going 4-4 in their last eight games against an average NET of 16.8. But Coach Yo and Ole Miss took that chip on their shoulder into the WNIT with a fury, advancing all the way to the championship game after playing superb team basketball -- the deepest postseason run in program history regardless of tournament. Ole Miss fell to a dominant Rice squad in that title game, but that could do little to dampen the spirits of a program with its sights set on even higher bars in the years to come.

Much of the success for the Rebels in 2020-21 came in the form of Honorable Mention All-American and First-Team All-SEC member Shakira Austin, who immediately asserted herself as one of the most feared players in the SEC and the nation after transferring to Ole Miss from Maryland in the offseason. Austin was the first First-Team selection for Ole Miss since 2014-15 and ended up on the Lisa Leslie Top-10 list, but she wasn't alone. Ole Miss' highly-touted top-ranked recruiting class from 2019 lived up to the hype in their first season, with Madison Scott earning SEC Freshman of the Year honors and Snudda Collins being named alongside her on the SEC All-Freshman team.

The swift turnaround is even more impressive when taking stock of where the Rebels were when she took over. Coach Yo took the reigns of a Rebel program her first year in 2018-19 that had just four returners and willed it to outperform all the preseason polls that had picked Ole Miss unanimously to finish last. The Rebels improved their SEC win total by two games from the year before, winning three conference contests -- one of which was a thrilling 55-49 win at No. 16 Kentucky on Jan. 13, 2019. The win was the first over a ranked team on the road for Ole Miss since 2011 and the first win in general in Lexington since 2007.

McPhee-McCuin also mentored graduate transfer Crystal Allen, who in her lone season donning a Rebel jersey became one of the most electrifying players in the SEC. Allen finished the season third in the conference at 18.3 PPG and was named second-team All-SEC -- the first Rebel to earn All-SEC honors since 2014-15.

She followed that up by signing the SEC's top-ranked recruiting class in 2019-20, which included two five-star signees and the first McDonald's All-American in Ole Miss women's basketball history in Madison Scott.

Coach Yo was named the Rebels' ninth head coach on April 4, 2018, the first black female head coach in Ole Miss women's basketball history.

McPhee-McCuin spent the previous five seasons transforming Jacksonville into a perennial power in the Atlantic Sun Conference. During her tenure as head coach, McPhee-McCuin led the Dolphins to a 94-63 record (50-24 in ASUN play) and postseason appearances in each of her last three seasons.

McPhee-McCuin, who has also served as the national team head coach for her native Bahamas, took over a program at Jacksonville that had only won 20 or more games in a season twice in its entire history and proceeded to march the Dolphins to three-straight 20-win campaigns in her final three years.

In 2015-16, McPhee-McCuin and the Dolphins made history, capturing the program's first ASUN Tournament title and NCAA Tournament berth with an upset in the conference championship game over two-time defending champion Florida Gulf Coast. The victory snapped FGCU's seven-year, 71-game home streak against ASUN opponents and boosted Jacksonville to a 22-11 record.

McPhee-McCuin's team followed that up with two more 20-win seasons and the first two WNIT appearances in JU history in 2016-17 (23-9, 11-3 ASUN) and 2017-18 (24-9, 12-2) with the final season seeing the Dolphins break the school record for single-season wins. In 2016-17, Jacksonville was the lone ASUN program to receive votes in the USA Today Coaches Poll and earned the first WNIT at-large ever given to an ASUN team.

Prior to her time at Jacksonville, McPhee-McCuin was an assistant at Clemson from 2011-13, where she was recognized as one of the top assistants in the nation by National Women's Basketball Insider. While with the Tigers, McPhee-McCuin solidified her reputation as one of the best recruiters in the country, spearheading the No. 16 class in the nation in her final year at Clemson, which included five McDonald's All-America nominees.

Before her stint at Clemson, McPhee-McCuin was on staff at Pittsburgh for two seasons in 2009 and 2010. She was part of a pair of postseason appearances with the Panthers, who rose to No. 14 in the national rankings and advanced to a Sweet 16.

Her coaching career also includes stops at Portland, Frank Phillips College, and Arkansas-Pine Bluff, where she earned her master's degree in physical education with a perfect 4.0 GPA as a student-athlete.

McPhee-McCuin received her bachelor's in business management and administration from Rhode Island in 2004, playing in 56 games over her junior and senior years at URI and helping the Rams advance to the 2003 A-10 title game. She played her first two seasons at Miami-Dade Community College.

McPhee-McCuin was the first Bahamian woman to sign a Division I letter of intent to play basketball, becoming a trailblazer in the process for other aspiring athletes from her home country. She is the first Bahamian woman to coach at a Division I program and was the first black female head coach at Jacksonville.

McPhee-McCuin is also part of two Halls of Fame across both her playing and coaching career. In 2016, she was inducted into the Bahamian Athletic Hall of Fame alongside Buddy Hield (of the NBA's Sacramento Kings) and Jonquel Jones (of the WNBA's Connecticut Sun). In 2013, she was inducted into the New England Basketball Hall of Fame and was one of 10 recipients of the Pathfinder Award for their distinguished achievement outside of New England.

Born April 30, 1982, the former Yolett McPhee and her husband, Kelly McCuin, have two daughters: Yasmine and Yuri.

SERIES NOTES

OLE MISS VS. MISSOURI

Ole Miss and Missouri will face each other for just the 18th time in series history. The Rebels have claimed the last three matchups against the Tigers, but still trail the series, 13-4. Ole Miss held Missouri to sub-50 point scores in two of the last three wins, including last season when the Rebels claimed a 66-45 victory. It's the biggest win over the Tigers in series history.

Kennedy Todd-Williams and Madison Scott led the charge for Ole Miss, scoring 12 and 10 points, respectively. Todd-Williams led the team with four assists while Tyia Singleton hauled in nine boards. Missouri made only 17 field goals against Ole Miss while turning the ball over 18 times. None of Missouri's field goals came from 3-point range.

On Feb. 3, 2022, Ole Miss traveled to Columbia and left with its first victory ever in Mizzour Arena. The Rebels squashed the Tigers, 67-45, allowing the fewest points in an SEC road game since 1991. Ole Miss held Missouri scoreless from long distance for the first time on this day as Scott nearly registered a double-double with 10 points and nine rebounds. Lashonda Monk grabbed a season-high seven steals for the Rebels while Caitlin McGee had a career and team high 10 rebounds.

Ole Miss claimed victory in the only matchup of the 20th century between the two teams. In Oxford, the Rebels emerged victorious, 64-58, on Jan. 5, 1981.

SCOUTING THE TIGERS

Robin Pingeton is in her 15th season leading the Missouri women's basketball program. She's guided the Tigers to an overall winning record in her time in Columbia, despite a 13-15 record entering Sunday's contest.

TEAM NOTES

LAST TIME OUT

KK Deans had a tremendous game, scoring 22 points for Ole Miss last Sunday afternoon, but the team ultimately fell short against No. 15/16 Tennessee, 80-71, in Knoxville, Tenn. at the Food City Center.

The Rebels forced the Lady Volunteers to make 20 turnovers, while Ole Miss committed 11 steals and four different Rebels scored at least 10 points.

Deans had another solid shooting effort, dropping a personal season-high six shots from beyond the arc. She's the third Rebel this season to hit at least five threes in a game. She led the team for the fifth time this season with a season-high 22 points, her ninth game this season in double figures. Deans' point total is an Ole Miss career high, as she has now scored 20-plus in two games this season.

IN OUR DEFENSE

It's well known that Ole Miss aims to dictate and disrupt, a goal the Rebel defense has accomplished so far.

In scoring defense, the Rebels sit at No. 19 in the nation and No. 1 in the SEC, holding opponents to just 55.4 points per game. Through 25 games in the 2024-25 season, Ole Miss has forced eight teams to score fewer than 50 points. This marks

Ole Miss' defense remains its strung suit, forcing all but four of its 25 opponents this year to make 15+ turnovers. On average, the Rebels are forcing their opponents to lose the ball 21.5 times a game, ranking 17th in the nation and third in the SEC.

While the Rebels force a lot of turnovers, they don't often lose the ball, averaging only 13.5 turnovers a game. Ole Miss' turnover margin of +8.04 ranks the ninth best in the nation and second in the conference.

Ole Miss turned defense into offense all night versus Alabama State, scoring a season-high 42 points off of the Lady Hornet's 33 turnovers. Kicking off conference play with a bang, the Rebels scored 37 points off of Auburn's season-high 29 turnovers. Matching both season-highs against Florida, Ole Miss scored 42 points off of 29 forced turnovers.

ROBBING THE BANK

The Rebels like to keep their opponents on their toes, as Ole Miss is nationally known for forcing lost balls. Earning at least 10 steals in 18 games this season, the Rebels rank No. 3 in the SEC and No. 16 in the country for steals with an average of 11.8 per game.

Twice this year, Ole Miss secured season-highs of 20 steals against Jackson State and Alabama State, with 12 Rebels contributing to the cause in the latter contest. Prior to this season, the last time an Ole Miss team tallied 20+ steals was Dec. 28, 2016, when the Rebels grabbed 24 against Mississippi Valley State.

STEALIN' SIRA

Sira Thienou leads the Rebels in pickpocketing balls, earning the most steals per game by any freshman in a power four conference, while also sitting third in the SEC and 20th in the nation with 2.76 steals a game. Since the beginning of conference play, Thienou has recorded 41 steals for an average of 3.2 per game.

With 69 total steals this season, Thienou is on pace to break the program record for most steals by a freshman in a season. The Bamako, Mali, native just trails Alisa Scott (1983-84) and Armentie Price (2003-04) with 81 and 76 steals, respectively.

WE AIN'T SCARED

Yolett McPhee-McCuin values the importance of playing top-tier opponents in nonconference and conference play and it shows in the NCAA's NET Rankings.

Consistently sitting in the Top 15 in the NET Rankings, the Rebels recently came in at No. 13. Ole Miss also holds the 10th toughest strength of schedule among DI programs in the nation, facing eight ranked opponents so far and three of the top six teams in the NET Rankings.

top-10, with 14 of those victories occurring while the Rebels are unranked. The most recent top-10 win was against 8th-ranked Kentucky on Feb. 10, 2025, marking the second time in the Coach Yo era that the Rebels have dropped a top-10 ranked team, with the prior upset coming in the 2023 NCAA Tournament against No. 5 Stanford.

Having already faced eight ranked opponents in the Associated Press poll during the 2024-25 season, Ole Miss' gauntlet of a schedule continues with two highly touted ranked teams on deck in its final three games of the regular season.

PROGRAM GAMES PLAYED LEADER

One of the most acclaimed Rebels in program history has met another milestone marker, as Madison Scott has officially become the most experienced player in Ole Miss history.

Competing in 147 games and counting in a Rebel jersey, the graduate student surpassed Peggie Gillom-Granderson, who played in 144 games, for most at Ole Miss.

Along with Scott, Kennedy Todd-Williams has competed in 147 career games, seeing action in 58 games at Ole Miss and 89 with her past team, North Carolina.

MADI'S MAKIN' NOISE

Madison Scott has proven to be the cornerstone for Ole Miss in its last eight games that includes five ranked foes. Along with averaging 17.0 points, 6.1 rebounds, and 3.8 assists per game, Scott holds a 48.6% clip from the field and has made 31-of-33 free throws.

Playing a team-high average of 34.6 minutes in the last eight contests, Scott has also been able to handle the ball well, only averaging 1.4 turnovers a game.

DOUBLE DOUBLE-DOUBLE TROUBLE

Notching three double-doubles this season against Boston College, Alabama and Vanderbilt, Starr Jacobs has earned 29 in her overall collegiate career and 20 as a Division I player.

In the matchup against Boston College, Jacobs headed the charge with her first double-double in a Rebel jersey, scoring 12 points and adding 11 rebounds. The graduate student paced the team versus Alabama by generating a season and Ole Miss career-high 21 points and 12 rebounds, to go alongside a trio of assists. Her most recent double-double against the Commodores proved to be her most impressive, as she notched 24 points, going 12-of-13 from the field, and 10 rebounds.

Madison Scott earned her first double-double of the 2024-25 season and the second by an Ole Miss player this season against MVSU. The fifth-year senior had 13 points and 10 rebounds against the Devilettes.

In conference play, Madison Scott recorded her 30th career double-double and second of the season against Arkansas. The graduate student led the team to a dominating victory over the Razorbacks with 11 rebounds and 10 points. In five games against Arkansas, Scott has now recorded four double-doubles to lead the Rebels to five wins.

KK 'SHARPSHOOTING' DEANS

Deans had another solid shooting effort, dropping a personal season-high six shots from beyond the arc versus the Lady Volunteers. She's the third Rebel this season to hit at least five threes in a game. Deans is also the first Rebel to make six 3-pointers since the 2019-20 season when Deja Cage also converted six against Tennessee on Feb. 27, 2020.

HOG ROASTIN'

In its matchup against Arkansas, Ole Miss effectively eliminated the Razorbacks' 3-point shooting, holding them to making only two threes in 22 attempts. Opposite Arkansas, Ole Miss' 10 3-pointers is the most by a Rebel squad since Feb. 28, 2020, against Tennessee. Tameiya Sadler and KK Deans drained three each to lead the team.

Ole Miss recorded 50-plus rebounds for a second-straight game, the first coming against No. 8 Kentucky. Additionally, the Rebels have outrebounded opponents by at least 20 in back-to-back matchups. Ole Miss' ferocious offense allowed only two Arkansas steals, which is the fewest allowed by the Rebels against an SEC opponent this season.

WHAT TEAM?!

Not only did the 66-57 victory against Kentucky secure Ole Miss' first top-10 win since 2023, it also extended the Rebels' win streak over the Wildcats to six games, dating back to Feb. 4 2021.

Ole Miss has stayed in command in the last decade of matchups versus Kentucky, as the Rebels have now won four games in a row when the Wildcats are ranked in the top 25, while coming out victorious in 10 overall under those circumstances.

KEEPING THE CLASS CLEAN

Ole Miss outrebounded No. 8 Kentucky, 54-33, in its only regular season meeting of the season, proving to be a difference-maker down the stretch. Ole Miss outrebounding by 21 is the widest gap for the Wildcats this season, and the only time that Kentucky has trailed by 20-plus rebounds. The Wildcats had only been outrebounded six times entering this game and it's their second loss when it has occurred.

The offensive glass was dominated by Ole Miss, as the Rebels tallied up 27 offensive boards to the Wildcat's four. Ole Miss was able to earn 16 second chance points off these rebounds, which gave it the edge en route to the ranked win.

CROWN THEM!

If Ole Miss had a Mount Rushmore, Madison Scott would be carved into it after she made history midway through the first quarter of the Alabama game, scoring her 1,500th career point on a jump shot from the elbow.

Scott is only the eighth Rebel to accumulate that many points, all while at Ole Miss. Overall, she's the 11th player to score their 1,500th career point in Oxford.

Joining Scott on the grand and a half list is Kennedy Todd-Williams and KK Deans. Todd-Williams secured her 1,500th career point against Texas to become the 12th player in Ole Miss history to achieve the feat.

Deans became the third this season and 13th in program history to reach the milestone in electrifying fashion, maneuvering through defenders to the bucket in the third quarter of the Kentucky game.

ANOTHER MILESTONE MET

Madison Scott brought in her 1,000th career rebound against the Tennessee, becoming only the third active SEC player to do so. She's the fourth Rebel to ever reach the 1,000-rebound plateau, joining legendary Rebels in Peggie Gillom, Armintie Price and Eugenia Conner.

GUARDING THE GOAL

In its matchup against Texas, the Rebels held the Longhorns to 39.3% shooting from the field and its second-lowest scoring total of the season at 61 points. Texas shot 22-for-56 from the field and a minuscule 1-11 from 3-point range. Additionally, Texas' 61 points was 26 points below its season average.

A little later in the season, Ole Miss held the other newest SEC team in Oklahoma to their second-worst outing of the season, as the Sooners' 66 points were 25 points below their season-average.

DOMINATING THE DORES

The Rebels have left no doubt that they can take down Vanderbilt, outscoring the Commodores by an average of 21.5 points in its two games this season.

In the two team's first matchup in Oxford, Ole Miss ran past Vanderbilt in a convincing 87-59 win, holding the Commodores' offense to their fewest points this season and 30 points below its average. In the second matchup in Nashville, Ole Miss held the 23rd-ranked Vanderbilt squad, who were coming off a four-game hot streak and two top 20 victories, to its second-fewest scoring performance of the year, which is only topped by the Rebel's first game against the team earlier this season.

GOING MADI

The game against Mississippi State was a special one for Madison Scott, as it marked what could be her final time competing against the Rebels' in-state rival.

Scott, who has competed in an Ole Miss jersey for her entire five years of collegiate basketball, made sure it was a performance Rebel fans would never forget, notching a career-best 30 points and 11 field goals to lead Ole Miss to a 71-63 win over its bitter foe in Starkville, Miss.

The First Team All-SEC honoree reached 20-plus points for the seventh time in her career and was the first Rebel to drop 30 points this season. The last Ole Miss player to notch 30 points was Marquesha Davis who scored 33 last season against Florida and recently won the WNBA Championship with the New York Liberty.

Along with her impressive night from the field, Scott shot 7-of-8 from the free throw line and made her lone 3-point attempt, showing how versatile she can be in any situation. With the Rebels and Bulldogs all tied up at 61 in the fourth quarter, Scott proved her veteran status by going a perfect 3-for-3 from the field and scoring eight points to put Ole Miss up for good.

WHAT CAN'T SHE DO?!

Sira Thienou's defensive domination reached a new peak against Mississippi State. The freshman robbed the Bulldogs nine times for a career-best. Nine steals by a Rebel is the most since Armintie Price had 12 against Illinois on Dec. 2, 2006, and tied for the most by an SEC player in a game this season at the time.

She was the catalyst behind Ole Miss' 16 steals in the game, while also adding 10 points and a team-leading four assists against Mississippi State.

PROBLEMATIC IN THE PAINT

The Rebels made themselves comfortable in the interior during their first two games of the season, racking up at least 18 more points in the paint than both opponents. Ole Miss notched 38 points in the paint against No. 3 Southern California and 34 versus Arkansas-Pine Bluff.

Ole Miss continued its dominance into the conference season, playing bully-ball to claim their wins against Mississippi State and Vanderbilt. The Rebels scored 42 points in close range against the Bulldogs, which totaled more than half of their points. Against the Commodores, the Rebels tallied a the second highest points in the paint this season with 54 to take down their ranked foe.

Anchored by the presence of Starr Jacobs, Christeen Iwuala, Madison Scott, and Kharyssa Richardson, the Rebels look to continue its damage

ARE YOU SIRAIous?!

Against Florida, Thienou strung together an immaculate 29-point career-high night, exploding for 22 points in the first half alone to become the only Rebel this season to score north of 20 points in a half this season, while grabbing a then season-high among individual Rebels.

Off the back of another career-high five 3-pointers, Thienou went 12-of-17 from the field, tying the most in the SJB Pavilion and marking the most field goals converted by a Rebel since Taylor Manuel made a dozen against Grambling on March 16, 2017. Additionally, the freshman became the first Rebel to eclipse the 200-point mark for the season after making two 3-pointers in the initial five minutes of the game.

Not only was Thienou in command on offense, but she also put up an all-time performance on the other side of the court, pickpocketing Florida seven times in total, with six of those steals coming in the first half.

Thienou completed her impressive stat line by notching five assists and five rebounds to her already illustrious day. The Bamako, Mali, native is only the fifth SEC player in the past 10 seasons to tally at least 25 points, five rebounds, five assists, and five steals in a single game.

POWERING OVER THE POWER FOUR

The Rebels' 92 points against Boston College on Nov. 25 marked the first time Ole Miss scored at least 90 points against a Power Four opponent since outscoring LSU, 102-101, in triple overtime back on February 7, 2010. The last time the Rebels scored at least 90 points in regulation against a Power Four team was March 25, 2007, in a 90-82 win over Oklahoma.

In conference play, Ole Miss' offense went off again against a power four foe, as the Rebels dropped 94 points against Florida. These wins marked four straight years Ole Miss has beaten a Power Four team by 30 or more points.

HOTTY (KENNEDY) TODDY

Kennedy Todd-Williams had a career night in Ole Miss' first game against Vanderbilt, as the senior Rebel notched a career-best 25 points and five 3-pointers to lead Ole Miss to a convincing 87-59 win in its SEC home opener.

Against the Commodores, Todd-Williams was a key part of the Rebels' dominant victory, leading both teams in almost all major statistics categories: points (25), rebounds (6), assists (7), and blocks (2), all while committing zero turnovers.

DIME DROPPIN' AND NOT STOPPIN'

Sharing is truly caring and against Alcorn State, this remained true, as Ole Miss dished out 28 assists on 37 made field goals, which set an SJB Pavilion record previously established in 2020, once again against Alcorn State. Madison Scott led the Rebels with seven helpers, followed by KK Deans with six.

Ball movement also remained key in the Rebels' victory over Vanderbilt, as Ole Miss tallied 26 assists on 33 made field goals. Tameiya Sadler, Madison Scott, and Kennedy Todd-Williams led the Rebels with seven helpers, followed by Sira Thienou with four.

FANTASTIC FIRST FIVE

All five of Ole Miss' starters have scored in double digits in three games this year. Before this season, an Ole Miss starting lineup hadn't accomplished that feat since facing Louisiana on Dec. 12, 2018

Against MVSU, the Rebels opened with Sira Thienou, Kennedy Todd-Williams, Starr Jacobs, Madison Scott, and Kharyssa Richardson. The Rebels achieved the feat again versus Alcorn State and Vanderbilt after Thienou, Todd-Williams, Jacobs, Scott, and Tameiya Sadler each reached 10-plus points in both games.

Rebel starters have scored 1382 of Ole Miss' 1911 points (72.3%) throughout the season.

STOLE THE SHOW

In typical Coach Yo fashion, Ole Miss toyed with Jackson State on Kids Day, forcing 29 turnovers and stealing the ball 20 times. It marks the most steals in a single game since securing 24 against Mississippi Valley State on Dec. 28, 2016.

Seven players had multiple steals while four starters, Starr Jacobs, Sira Thienou, KK Deans, and Kennedy Todd-Williams, recorded three.

The Rebels almost matched this achievement against Florida, forcing the Gators to lose the ball 29 times off of 19 steals. This marked the most turnovers Florida has committed since 2022 as Thienou led the cause once again with a career-high seven steals.

NO THREE'S HERE

The Rebels bask in causing havoc on other opponent's offenses, and Ole Miss once again proved its power over Auburn, holding the Tigers scoreless from beyond the arc.

Ole Miss is the first team to hold Auburn scoreless from three since the 2022-23 season, forcing the Tigers to go 0-for-3 from deep in its opening conference victory of the season.

BENCH BANDIT

Coming off the bench against Auburn, KK Deans was a key component of Ole Miss' win with 20 points in her 26 minutes of action. Shooting 4-of-5 from beyond the arc, Deans earned her season high for 3-pointers made in a game this season.

Deans rejoins the Rebels for her sixth season of collegiate ball after medically redshirting last season while healing from a season-ending ACL injury.

Though she only appeared in six games in 2023-24, she started in all of them and averaged almost 10 points a game and 3.8 assists. Deans put up a season-best 16 points against Temple, where she also registered seven rebounds and eight assists.

Deans has taken her game to the next level this season, leading the Rebels in free-throw percentage (.875) and three-pointers made (42). The graduate student has also earned 200+ long-range strikes from the 3-point line in her overall career, becoming only the third Rebel to hit that mark in Oxford in program history. Deans will look to continue improving in her final year of eligibility.

SHE'S A FRESHMAN!

Sira Thienou scored in double figures in three straight outings for the Rebels in November, including consecutive 16-point outbursts against Jackson State (Nov. 18) and Boston College (Nov. 25). The last time an Ole Miss freshman had a 16-plus point performance was when Madison Scott earned 17 against No. 18 Arkansas, on Feb. 19, 2021.

In December, Thienou registered 23 points against South Alabama, marking the first 20+ performance by a Rebel this season and the most points scored by a SEC freshman that week. Thienou is the first Ole Miss freshman since the 2020-21 season to put up at least 20 points in a single game.

To open January, Thienou showed off her defensive prowess against Auburn, stealing the ball a then career-high seven times to become the first Rebel to have five steals in a game since Angel Baker did so on Jan. 8, 2023. Thienou later broke that career-best feat later in the season, notching nine steals against Mississippi State.

RECORD BREAKING REBS

Ole Miss showed up and showed out in the nonconference slate of the 2024-25 season, earning three program records.

The Rebels allowed the fewest points in program history twice as it kept Arkansas-Pine Bluff and Alabama State to just 24 points each. Yolett McPhee-McCuin's teams now hold the top three spots in the record books of the fewest points allowed in Ole Miss history. The Rebels are also the only squad in the SEC to force two opponents to sub-30 points.

Ole Miss' last win in November was a convincing one. By defeating Alabama State by 65 points at the SJB Pavilion, it marks the widest margin of victory in program history and the largest in the McPhee-McCuin era.

It's the sixth instance of an Ole Miss team reaching the +60 mark and only the second time in history that the Rebels have achieved the feat twice in the same year. Previously, Ole Miss defeated Arkansas Pine-Bluff by 61 points in the Rebels' first victory this season. The last time an Ole Miss squad has secured two 60-point margins wins in a year was the 1982-83 season.

In its final game of the nonconference season, Ole Miss had its most efficient night of shooting in program history after going 67.3 percent from the field. Ole Miss' previous best field goal percentage mark was 63.1 percent, which it accomplished in the 2004-05 season against New Orleans.

KK Deans and Kennedy Todd-Williams were two of five student-athletes selected to the 2024 Continental Tire Baha Mar Championship All-

Tournament team.

Combining for a team-high 32 points over the two games, Deans had a pair of standout performances in her first games back in the Bahamas since her season-ending injury last season in the Battle4Atlanta.

Against UConn, the graduate student boasted 17 points, including 12 in the third quarter to propel the Rebels within five points of the lead after being down 19 at the half. In the matchup versus Boston College, Deans tallied 15 points and was a perfect 6-6 from the charity line.

Todd-Williams tallied 13 points against UConn and had the best shooting night of her Ole Miss career, going 4-4 from beyond the arc, tying a career-high in three-pointers in the process. Versus Boston College, Todd-Williams led the field with a season-high 17 points and five assists.

COMPETING VERSUS THE NATION'S BEST

Despite falling short in its comeback, Ole Miss gave UConn a run for its money, becoming the first team this season to reach the 60-point mark against the Huskies.

Ole Miss forced UConn into its first negative assist-to-turnover ratio of the season and its first in 15 games dating back to the 2023-24 season after committing 18 turnovers to only 15 assists.

DEFENSE GETS DUBS

Against Arkansas Pine-Bluff Ole Miss rejected 12 shots as a team, which is a tie for the third-most in a game in program history, the last time of which came last season against Florida. Christeen Iwuala led the Rebels in that category, blocking a career-high four shots.

Additionally, UAPB failed to get a single player in double-digits, the first time an Ole Miss team has done that since the 2022-23 season against Alabama A&M.

MY OH MADI

The development of Madison Scott since her arrival on campus has been undeniable, as the First Team All-SEC honoree has stepped up her game to become an all around player for the Rebels.

Drilling two three-pointers in the opening game of the season, Scott doubled her career makes from the arc after strengthening her skillset in the offseason. Since then, Scott has continued to shoot from behind the 3-point line, making four total on the season.

With the ability to play in all five positions on the floor, the fifth-year senior will undoubtedly go down as one of the most touted and versatile student-athletes in Ole Miss history.

DICTATE AND DISRUPT

The motto of "We Defend" remains the same during the 2024-25 season, as Ole Miss once again reinforced the message against USC.

Holding the Trojans to just one three-pointer off of 11 attempts (.091), Ole Miss forced USC to tally its' lowest three-point percentage since the 2021-22 season when Tameiya Sadler and Colorado held the Trojans to .083 from the arc.

Additionally, Ole Miss forced USC to make 26 turnovers, tallying the most the Trojans have committed since 2022.

GIVE ME THE NUMBERS

The 2024-25 Ole Miss basketball roster boasts some serious career statistics. Four players have scored over 1,000 points in their collegiate career, including Madison Scott (1651), Kennedy Todd-Williams (1560), KK Deans (1544), and Starr Jacobs (1428).

Collectively, the team possesses 8477 career points, 4190 rebounds, 1706 assists, 1140 steals and 404 blocks.

BACK FOR MORE

Despite losses of leaders in Marquesha Davis, Snudda Collins and Rita Igbokwe, the Rebels return a strong core of starters in Madison Scott, Kennedy Todd-Williams and KK Deans as well as extra depth coming off the bench with Mariyah Noel, Ayanna Thompson, Kharyssa Richardson and Rhema Collins.

TRANSFER TO THE 'SIP

Yolett McPhee-McCuin continues to solidify her program as one of the top spots in the nation to develop talent and continue to grow in a new home.

Three student-athletes in Christeen Iwuala, Starr Jacobs, and Tameiya Sadler saw this vision and made their way to Oxford after hitting the court at a previous school.

OVERSEAS TO OXFORD

Ole Miss welcome four student-athletes to the program, each with international playing experience, including Sira Thienou and Heloisa Carrera who represented their respective countries in the 2023 FIBA Women's Basketball U19 World Cup in Spain.

Along with the Rebel pair, Lite Gbemutor and Fatumata Djaló join Ole Miss as representatives of Europe.

BUILD TOWARD THE FUTURE

With aspirations to make the Final Four in Tampa, head coach Yolett McPhee-McCuin has strengthened the Rebel family by naming Empress Davenport, Kayla Gordon, Quentin Hillsman, and Joy Cheek Smith as assistant coaches and elevated video coordinator Jake Whitehead to assistant coach.

All five coaches come to Oxford with NCAA Tournament pedigree at the Power Five level as either a coach or a player and will bolster the Rebel staff.

RAKING UP THE MILES

The Rebels accumulated a lot of airline miles this season after taking two international trips in November. Following its trip to Paris, France for the Alflac Oui-Play to open the season, Ole Miss broke out the passports once again for the Continental Tire Baha Mar Championship in Nassau, Bahamas.

50 YEARS OF OLE MISS WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Dating back to 1974, Ole Miss is set to honor and celebrate its 50th Anniversary of the program throughout the 2024-25 season.

With over 900 program wins, 20 NCAA Tournament appearances, 11 Sweet 16's and five Elite 8's, 17 First Team All-SEC selections, five All-Americans, and four Women's Basketball Hall of Fame inductees, the breadth of Ole Miss can be felt throughout the game of women's
