The No. 16/15 Missouri Tigers (1-2) look to get back on the winning side of things this weekend, as they head to Tampa, Fla., for the USF Fairfield Inn and Suites Tampa North Tournament. Mizzou will take on five teams beginning on Friday, Feb. 25, when they play Temple at 9:30 a.m. CT and Illinois State at 1:30 p.m. CT. On Saturday, the Tigers battle against No. 5/2 Alabama at 11:30 a.m. CT and South Florida at 3:30 p.m. CT before finishing things off on Sunday with Western Michigan, starting at 7:30 a.m. CT.

SCOUTING TEMPLE

The USF Fairfield Inn and Suites North Tampa Tournament will mark the first weekend of action for the Temple Owls this season. Last season they went 19-30 and finished in a tie for sixth place in the Atlantic 10 Conference. They return 10 letterwinners from last year's team, including seven of their 10 starters in the lineup and two of their three starting pitchers.

The Owls are led by head coach Joe DiPietro, who is now in his third season at Temple. Missouri is 2-1 all-time against the Owls. The teams first met in 1989, with Temple taking a 3-2 win, but the Tigers won the last two meetings, both in 2001, by scores of 3-2 and 9-2.

SCOUTING ILLINOIS STATE

The Illinois State Redbirds are currently 7-2 on the season and are receiving votes in the USA Today/NFCA Division I Top 25 Poll. The Redbirds opened the year by going 4-1 at the Red and Black Showcase in Athens, Ga., with their only loss coming to No. 1 Georgia by a 2-1 final. Last weekend, Illinois State went 3-1 at the Littlewood Classic in Tempe, Ariz., beating Idaho State twice and Seattle, with all three wins coming via run rule. Their only loss was by a 13-4 score in five innings to No. 12 Arizona State.

Illinois State is hitting .345 as a team and has a 2.07 earned run average. Offensively, Kara Nelson and Abby Olson have led the way thusfar. Nelson has posted a batting average/on base percentage/slugging percentage line of .567/.629/.767 with four doubles, a triple and eight RBI. Olson has a line of .500/.548/1.071 to go along with five doubles, a triple, three home runs and 14 RBI. In the circle, Taylor Baxter, Megan Warner, Chrissy Burton and Jordan Birch have all gotten two or more appearances. Baxter has two complete game shutouts in two outings, while Warner is 3-1 on the year with a pair of complete game shutouts herself.

Melinda Fischer, one of just 16 NCAA coaches with 800 or more wins in their career, enters her 26th season as head coach of the Redbirds. Mizzou is 13-7 all-time against Illinois State, with their most recent win coming by a 3-1 score last season at University Field. Illinois State and Missouri will meet up twice later this season at the DeMarini Invitational in Columbia, Mo.

SCOUTING ALABAMA

The Alabama Crimson Tide enter the weekend ranked No. 5/2 in the two polls after posting a perfect record of 11-0 in the first two weeks of play. This will mark their first weekend outside the state of Alabama, as they opened the year with a tournament in Vestavia Hills, Ala., before hosting a tournament last weekend in Tuscaloosa. On Tuesday, the Crimson Tide traveled to Birmingham, where they topped UAB by a 3-0 score.

Alabama has scored 111 runs in 11 games and has four regulars with a batting average of over .500. They are led at the plate by Jackie Traina, who is hitting .538 with four home runs and 15 RBI. Her on base percentage stands at .636 while she's slugging 1.000. In the circle, Kelsi Dunne is the team's top pitcher with a 6-0 record and a 0.42 ERA. She has 58 strikes and just six walks and has only allowed two earned runs and nine hits. She has five complete games and three shutouts in seven appearances.

In his 13th season, Patrick Murphy leads the Crimson Tide as their head coach. Missouri and Alabama have battled to a 4-4 record all-time against each other. Last year, the Tigers took two out of the three games they played to open the season, winning 2-1 and 9-0 in five innings.

SCOUTING SOUTH FLORIDA

South Florida currently has a record of 5-5 on the year. After going 4-1 at the USF - Wilson DeMarini Touranment to start the year, the Bulls went 1-4 last weekend at the USF Tournament. In their opening weekend, USF defeated Marshall, Long Island, Florida Gulf Coast and North Carolina State before losing to No. 4 Florida. Last weekend, South Florida defeated Ole Miss, but fell to Fordham, UAB, Indiana and DePaul.

USF's achilles heel so far this season has been their offense, as they've managed a team batting average of .244 and have scored just 40 runs in 10 games. They've been strong on the basepaths, stealing 14 bases in 16 attempts. Leading the way at the plate is Kourtney Salvarola, who is hitting .344 with a .447 on base percentage and a .625 slugging percentage. She has five extra base hits - two doubles, two triples and one home run - and has driven in 12.

In the circle, the Bulls have posted a team ERA of 2.37, though opponents are hitting .287 off them. South Florida's top pitcher, Sara Nevins, has a 2-1 record on the season in eight appearances and has thrown one complete game shutout while posting an ERA of 0.98. She's also collected three saves in relief and has struck out 34 batters while walking just two in 28.2 innings pitched.

South Florida's head coach, Ken Eriksen, is in his 14th year as head coach of the Bulls. Missouri is 2-1 all-time against USF, winning their first two meetings in 1995 by scores of 9-2 and 3-1. The last time they met, in 2004, the Bulls won by a 3-0 final.

SCOUTING WESTERN MICHIGAN

Western Michigan struggled out of the gate last weekend, going 0-6 in their first action of 2011 two weeks ago. The Broncos fell to Arizona State, Utah, Oregon State, Cal State-Northridge, Northwestern and Oklahoma.

Head Coach Kathy Leitke is in her 10th year as the Broncos' head coach. The team has struggled in both aspects of the game so far this year, as they hit just .143 in their first six games while slugging only .179 and getting on base at a .226 clip. In the circle, teams are hitting .327 against them and they've accumulated an ERA of 6.87. They struck out 36 and have walked the same amount while giving up 52 hits in 35.2 innings pitched.

Missouri is 7-0 all-time against Western Michigan. The two teams last faced in 2000, when the Tigers won by scores of 6-0 and 4-1.

WHAT'S NEXT?

Following the tournament at the University of South Florida, the Tigers start a stretch of 17 straight games within the state of Missouri, starting with their 2011 home opener on Wednesday, March 2 against Drake. The doubleheader will begin at 3 p.m. CT at University Field.

FOLLOW MIZZOU SOFTBALL ON TWITTER AND FACEBOOK

Tiger softball fans can follow along with the season through many of the program's social media options. On Twitter, Mizzou fans can follow the entire athletic department at twitter.com/mutigersdotcom. Assistant Coach Pete D'Amour is also on Twitter at twitter.com/MizzouSBcoach. On Facebook, fans can search "University of Missouri Softball Team" to track down the team's official page.

TIGERS ON TV

The Tigers will have three of their games televised this season - all of which are home games at University Field. On Saturday, April 16, Missouri and Oklahoma's series-opener will be aired live on Fox Sports Net, beginning at 3:30 p.m. CT. The second game against the Sooners, on Sunday, April 17, at 3 p.m. CT, is set to air live on ESPN. The Tigers will face off against Texas on Sunday, May 8 at Noon, also on ESPN. Missouri was televised six times last season - twice during the regular season and four times in the postseason - and went 2-4 in those games. Both wins came against Oregon at University Field in the NCAA Super Regionals.

TIGERS GO 1-2 AT RAIN-SOAKED SAN DIEGO CLASSIC I

The No. 8/10 Missouri softball team stumbled out of the gate to start their 2011 season, as they went 1-2 at the San Diego Classic I from Feb. 17-20. Originally scheduled to play five games, Mizzou only got three of their games in.

Missouri opened up against San Diego State on a last-second addition to the schedule on Thursday evening, just hours after they got off the plane. Despite the strange travel schedule, the Tigers came out swinging as they won 9-1 over No. 22 San Diego State, run-ruling the Aztecs in five innings in their season opener. Junior Kristin Nottelmann got the win, throwing all five innings while allowing just one run on four hits. Offensively, the Tigers got home runs from junior Ashley Fleming and sophomores Nicole Hudson and Jenna Marston. Marston finished 2-for-3 with a double and three RBI, while Fleming went 2-for-3 with two runs and two batted in.

The Tigers got things going on Friday against Fresno State, and it looked like it was going to be a repeat performance for the Missouri offense as they picked up three straight extra base hits to

HEAD COACH EHREN EARLEYWINE

Fifth Season at MU
Mizzou: 188-66 (.738)
Overall: 335-123 (.731)

2007 Big 12 Coach of the Year

In just four seasons, Tiger Head Coach Ehren Earleywine has led the Missouri softball program to almost unheard of levels of success in such a short amount of time. In his first season, he took a team that posted just 26 wins and had a losing record the year before and turned them into a 40-win squad that finished the year with a regional bid and a top-20 national ranking. After 2007, Earleywine led the program to an even higher level of success on the national stage, as his Missouri squads have captured back-to-back-to-back regional championships, a Big 12 title, the first two 50-win seasons in Missouri history and two consecutive Women's College World Series appearances, making him the first Tiger coach ever to earn back-to-back berths to the pinnacle of college softball. Batting averages, ERA's and fielding percentages have all improved dramatically, while Tiger players are earning national recognition on a now annual basis. Missouri's top-ranked softball squad has Earleywine to credit for its rise to national prominence.

As successful as the 2009 campaign was, somehow the 2010 Missouri softball season topped it. While that may not have been a surprise when you looked at the team going into the season, Mizzou definitely shocked plenty of people after what happened in the middle of the season. At the end of March, Missouri was flying high, sitting at No. 3 in the country and considered a legitimate contender to win the Women's College World Series. However, word then broke of a season-ending injury to ace pitcher Chelsea Thomas, and suddenly Missouri became an afterthought. What people seemed to forget, however, is that this was an Ehren Earleywine coached team, and they wouldn't be allowed to roll over and die without a fight.

After a brief adjustment period in early April, the Tigers finally got it all together. They ended the season with 51 wins, breaking the school record mark of 50 set the previous year. They hosted the regional round for the second straight year, where they used a seventh inning comeback over Creighton and two straight wins over Illinois to capture their third consecutive regional championship. Then, Missouri played host to the NCAA Super Regional round for the first time in school history, sweeping the Oregon Ducks in two games to move on to their second straight and fifth overall Women's College World Series. Missouri had their fourth All-American awarded under Earleywine, and finished the year ranked No. 8, tying for the highest end of the year ranking in program history. For their work, Earleywine and his staff were selected as the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) Midwest Staff of the Year for the second consecutive season.

In just four years, the 2007 Big 12 Coach of the Year, became the first Missouri softball coach to lead his squad to back-to-back-to-back NCAA Regional titles, doing so in 2008 and again at home in Columbia, Mo., in 2009 and 2010. Since taking the reins, Missouri's batting averages have been on the rise, which includes a .313 mark in 2009, while the team ERA has been on the decline, highlighted by 2009's 1.47 mark, the Tiger's best end of the year ERA since 1998. Just as many of Earleywine's squads have, the 2010 team shattered numerous Missouri records. Along with the 51 wins, Mizzou also set new team records for runs (381), runs batted in (342), and walks (247) With Earleywine at the helm, the Tigers have stolen a total of 494 bases and managed an 82 percent success rate on stolen bags since 2007.

In addition to the success Missouri has seen on the field, Earleywine's squad has received record marks in the classroom, finishing the 2008 campaign with a combined 3.36 grade-point average, the highest GPA since the creation of the program in 1975.

Prior to his career at Missouri, Earleywine spent five seasons at Georgia Tech, of which he served as head coach for the final three. Earleywine's teams made five consecutive appearances in the NCAA Regional Tournament, finishing runner-up on three occasions. The Ramblin' Wreck claimed Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) regular season and tournament titles in 2005 and to his credit, Earleywine was named the 2005 ACC Coach of the Year.

start the game, taking the early 2-0 lead. However, Fresno State blasted three home runs and the Tiger offense never got back on track, as they fell 6-3.

Missouri took on No. 15 Cal right after that, with redshirt sophomore Chelsea Thomas making her first start since late March last season. A huge storm rolled in to the area, and the game was postponed in the top of the sixth inning with Cal up to bat with a runner on second and no one out. The game wouldn't be resumed until Sunday morning. Upon continuation, Thomas started with a 1-2 count on the Cal batter who ended up reaching on a dropped third strike, giving Cal runners on first and third with no one out. After a stolen base, a ground out to second put the first run on the board with the Bears taking a 1-0 lead. Thomas struck out the next two batters to strand the runner at third. Mizzou had a chance to even things up in the bottom half but stranded runners on the corners. Abby Vock led off the frame with a single up the middle and advanced to second on a sac bunt by Rhea Taylor. Vock moved to third after a ground out, with Ashley Fleming following with a walk. Sophomore Nicole Hudson lifted one deep to left field, but the ball was caught at the track for the final out of the inning. Thomas went all seven innings in the loss, allowing the one unearned run while striking out 11 and giving up only three hits.

FAMILIAR FACES

After taking essentially two completely different teams to the Women's College World Series in 2009 and 2010, the Tigers return a bit of continuity in 2011. Of their 22 players on the roster, 17 were on the squad last season. They return three of their four main pitchers and eight of their nine hitters in the lineup. Here is a statistical breakdown of what Missouri returns offensively in 2011:

At Bats:	1424 of 1624 – 87.7%
Runs:	337 of 381 – 88.5%
Hits:	432 of 481 – 89.8%

TAYLOR EYES ANOTHER RECORD

Having set numerous single-season Missouri records last year while also breaking the team's all-time records for stolen bases in a career and runs scored in a career. This year, she's got her sights set on a few Big 12 records. With 142 career stolen bases, Taylor is just 12 shy of breaking the league's all-time record, held by Sharonda McDonald of Texas A&M at 153. Taylor is currently eighth all-time amongst Big 12 players with 184 runs scored. If she keeps the pace set in the first three seasons, she'll top former Sooner Norrelle Dickson's record of 234, set back in 2007. She's also the league's all-time

Missouri opponents in italics batting average leader with a career mark of .419, holding a .010 edge over Ali Viola, a former Husker. Taylor is also third all-time in triples with 15, putting her 13 shy of tying former Aggie Lisa Klam's mark set in 2002.

EARLEYWINE CLOSING IN ON WINS MARK

After their opening day win against San Diego State, Ehren Earleywine is just 12 wins away from his 200th win as Tiger head coach. Already the second winningest coach in Tiger history behind Jay Miller (556-309 in 15 seasons), Earleywine has the third highest winning percentage for a Missouri head coach at .738. He's behind Barb Wright, who went 91-32 (.740) in two seasons for the Tigers. Entering the season with a career winning percentage of .734, Earleywine is the 14th winningest active coach in NCAA Division I softball.

TAYLOR, MARSTON NAMED TO TOP-50 WATCH LIST

Missouri senior outfielder Rhea Taylor and sophomore shortstop Jenna Marston have been selected to USA Softball's Top 50 Watch List for the 2011 College Player of the Year Award. This award, which is considered the most prestigious honor in Division I women's collegiate softball, is designed to recognize outstanding athletic achievement by female collegiate softball players across the country.

MU AGAIN PICKED SECOND IN BIG 12

For the third consecutive season, the Missouri softball team has been voted as the No. 2 team in the Big 12 Conference, as announced by the league office on Tuesday afternoon. Oklahoma was picked No. 1 with 79 points and seven of the 10 first place votes. The Tigers came in second with 71 points and two first place votes, while Texas rounded out the top-three with 69 points and one first place vote.

MARSTON HONORED BY BBWAA

Missouri shortstop Jenna Marston was honored by the Baseball Writer's Association of America at a dinner and banquet in downtown St. Louis, Mo., on Sunday night, earning recognition for her successes on both the softball and baseball diamonds over the course of the past year.

Amidst a crowd that featured current Cardinals manager Tony LaRussa, first baseman Albert Pujols and pitcher Adam Wainwright, along with legends like Ozzie Smith and Whitey Herzog, Marston was given the John E. Wray Award, given to those with achievements in sports other than professional baseball.

MARSTON NAMED SPORTSWOMAN OF THE YEAR

Missouri shortstop Jenna Marston has been named USA Baseball's Sportswoman of the Year for her outstanding performance on the USA Baseball Women's National Team this past summer.

Marston helped Team USA to a bronze medal win over Venezuela, as they defeated the host country by a 15-5 score in the third place game. The Tiger sophomore started all nine games at the 2010 IBAF Women's World Cup, rotating between right field, pitcher and shortstop.

Her .593 batting average (16-for-27) was the highest on Team USA and second highest amongst hitters for the entire tournament. She also was the tournament leader with 16 hits and eight doubles. She finished with 12 runs scored, seven runs batted in, was a perfect 3-for-3 on stolen bases, posted a team-best .636 on-base percentage and a slugging percentage of .889, second-highest on the team.

On the hill, Marston posted a 1-1 record with a miniscule 1.91 earned run average in three starts. In 11.0 innings pitched, she struck out six batters while holding opponents to a .211 batting average.

For her impressive showing, Marston was just one of two Team USA players to be selected to the All-Tournament Team, earning the honors as the squad's shortstop. Last year as a freshman, Marston helped guide the Tigers to their second straight Women's College World Series appearance by hitting .366 with five home runs and 52 runs batted in, the most on the team.
