LEADING OFF

-For the third straight year and sixth time in school history, the No. 5 seed Missouri softball team is headed to the Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City, Okla.. The Tigers will open up play against the fourth seeded Florida Gators on Thursday, June 2, at 8:30 p.m. CT and the matchup will air live on ESPN2 HD and ESPN3.com. All WCWS games will air live on either ESPN HD or ESPN2 HD, along with being available online at ESPN3.com.

-The winner of the Missouri-Florida matchup will go on to face the winner of No. 1 Arizona State-No. 9 Oklahoma at 8:30 p.m. CT on Friday, June 3. The loser of the Mizzou-Florida and Sun Devils-Sooners matchups will play in an elimination game at 1:30 p.m. CT on Saturday, June 4.

-The Tigers swept the No. 12 seed Washington Huskies in two games over the weekend, taking game one by a 4-0 final before winning 6-3 on Sunday. Chelsea Thomas was nearly unhittable in game one, as she struck out 13 batters while giving up just two hits and two walks in her 13th shutout of the season. Missouri scored a run in the first on a ground out by Ashley Fleming, set up by Nicole Hudson's one out double to send Jenna Marston to third. In the third inning, Hudson put the Tigers up 2-0 with her 13th home run of the season, blasting one off the scoreboard in dead center. The Tigers added two more after taking three straight walks to load the bases with one out. Rhea Taylor drove in a run on a groundout and then Marston scored on a wild pitch.

A five run first inning paced Mizzou's win in game two. The first three Tigers reached base safely to start the game, and Hudson drove in Taylor with a single into right field. A throwing error on the play also allowed Marston to score as well, making it 2-0. Hudson would later score from third on a fielder's choice, as she slid under the tag on a play at the plate. Later in the inning, Lisa Simmons blasted her third homer of the season, hitting a two run shot to right-center to give Missouri the 5-0 advantage. A two out error and a passed ball in the third allowed Missouri to score their sixth and final run of the game. Washington would chip away with three in the fifth, but that's all they'd get, as Thomas moved one win shy of tying the single season Mizzou record with her 31st victory. She allowed 10 hits and three runs, but just two were earned as she struck out nine.

-In the last top-25 polls of the regular season, Missouri jumped into the top-five for the first time since week seven of last year, moving from sixth to fourth in the ESPN.com/USA Softball top-25. Mizzou also moved up one spot from ninth to eighth in the USA Today/NFCA Division I Softball poll, the highest they've been in that poll since week two, when they were seventh. Missouri sits in fifth in the last RPI poll. The Tigers are 21-7 this year against teams in the top-50 in RPI.

-The Tigers bounced back with a doubleheader sweep over DePaul on two weekends ago to win the NCAA Columbia Regional, bouncing back from a 2-1 defeat in 11 innings to the Blue Demons on Saturday. Missouri took down Illinois State twice, winning 12-3 in five innings on Saturday afternoon, but were then knocked into the loser's bracket following the loss to DePaul. Mizzou toppled Illinois State by an 8-4 final to knock out the Redbirds and head into Sunday needing two wins to move on. After falling behind 1-0 in the first inning of game one, the Tiger offense woke up on their way to a 7-3 victory to force a decisive game seven. Missouri controlled that game from the start, scoring eight runs and riding a Chelsea Thomas no-hitter to an 8-0 victory in six innings.

-On May 14, Missouri won their first regular season Big 12 Championship since 1997 with a doubleheader sweep over Iowa State, coupled with a Baylor Bears 2-1 victory over the Texas Longhorns the following afternoon. The Tigers and Cyclones were scheduled to play one game Saturday and one game Sunday, but inclement weather on Sunday forced the series into a doubleheader on Saturday. Mizzou took game one by an 8-2 final before completing the sweep with an 8-1 win in game two to guarantee themselves at least a share of the conference crown. However, the Tigers got some help from Baylor, who scored two unearned runs in the fourth inning to knock off the Longhorns, giving Missouri the outright title. With the conference championship, the Tigers earned themselves the league's automatic qualifier spot in the NCAA Tournament.

WCWS APPEARANCE NOTES

-Missouri has made the Women's College World Series six times in program history and three times in the last three years. The Tigers have previously made the WCWS in 1983, 1991, 1994, 2009, 2010 and now 2011.

-With three appearances in the last three seasons, Missouri (2009-11) is tied with Texas (1998, 2005, '06) for second-most WCWS appearances amongst Big 12 schools since the conference was formed in 1996. Oklahoma (2000-05, '11) leads the way with six appearances since 1996, while Baylor (2007, '11), Texas A&M (2007-08), Nebraska (1998, 2002) and Oklahoma State (1998, 2011) each have two appearances in the last 15 years.

-Missouri also has the second longest active streak of consecutive WCWS appearances with three. Their first round opponent, the Florida Gators, hold the current longest streak with four straight appearances.

-Missouri is just 1-10 overall in their previous five World Series appearances. Their lone win came in a 2-0 victory over Utah in nine inning at the 1991 WCWS. Since then, the Tigers have dropped eight straight World Series games.

TEAM POSTSEASON NOTES

- Missouri has outscored opponents by a 32-3 margin in the first three innings of their seven postseason games (margin is in MU's favor, 14-12, from innings four and later)
- Tigers are hitting .371 as a team in the first team (13-of-35) with three homers and 14 runs scored
- Missouri is hitting .344 as a team in the second inning (11-of-32) with one home run and seven runs
- In the third inning, Mizzou is batting (.412) as a team with two home runs, three doubles and 11 runs scored
- Tiger batters have drawn 26 walks, compared to just 24 strikeouts
- Mizzou is a perfect 19-for-19 on stolen bases so far this postseason
- Top four in the batting order (Taylor, Marston, Hudson, Fleming) have combined for just five strikeouts in 89 postseason at-bats
- In the first inning, the top four (Taylor, Marston, Hudson, Fleming) are hitting a combined .478 (11-of-23) w/ 11 runs scored and seven RBI
- Hitting .688 as a team (11-of-16) w/a runner on third and less than two outs
- Hitting .329 as a team (23-of-70) w/RISP
- Fielding pct. through seven games is .986 – just three errors in 210 total chances

INDIVIDUAL POSTSEASON NOTES

- Chelsea Thomas
 - Postseason ERA of 0.93, opponents are hitting just .152 against her in five appearances (37.2 IP, 21 hits allowed)
 - Strikeouts-to-walk ratio of 41-to-5
 - Only hits allowed are 17 singles and four doubles
 - Lefties are hitting only .111 against her (9-of-81), righties are hitting .211 (12-of-57)
 - Has gotten stronger later in the game, as her strikeout ratio is 8.99 in innings 5 through 7 (18 Ks, 14 IP). Strikeout ratio in innings 1 through 4 is 7.35 (21 Ks, 20 IP)
 - When pitching from ahead in the count (count is either 0-1, 0-2 or 1-2), opponents are hitting just .093 against her (5-of-54)
 - Of her 21 hits allowed, eight have been infield singles
- Rhea Taylor
 - Hitting .500 in seven postseason games (13-of-26), with two HRs, seven RBI, 10 runs, slugging pct. of .769, on-base pct. of .519, and 9-of-9 in stolen bases (all bests on the team)
 - Hitting .500 vs. lefties (1-of-2), vs. righties (12-of-24), w/runners on base (6-of-12), and w/bases empty (7-of-14)
 - Batting .714 when leading off an inning (5-of-7)
 - Hitting .833 when swinging at the first pitch (5-of-6)
- Marla Schweisberger
 - Has six RBI in just 15 at-bats and is hitting .400 with one home run, two doubles, slugging pct. of .733 and OBP of .471
- Jenna Marston
 - Hitting only .200 (4-of-20), but is second on team with eight runs scored, thanks to her great batting eye (has a team-best 7 walks) and an on-base pct. of .429 in the 7 games
 - All four of her postseason hits have come with 2 strikes in the count
- Nicole Hudson
 - Has been clutch in every sense – hitting .500 w/RISP (5-of-10), .444 w/2 outs (4-of-9), and has advanced runners 13 times in 17 opportunities (.765 pct.)
 - Five of her seven postseason RBI have come with two outs
 - Both of her postseason homers have come in the 3rd inning (second time seeing the pitcher)
 - In 24 plate appearances, opposing pitchers have thrown a first-pitch strike only four times
- Ashley Fleming
 - Both of her postseason home runs have come in the first inning

TEAM SUPER REGIONAL NOTES

- Missouri advances to its third consecutive Women's College World Series by virtue of its two-game sweep of Washington. Over the last three years Missouri is 6-1 in Super Regional play vs. the Pac-10 Conference, going 2-1 at UCLA in 2009, 2-0 vs. Oregon in 2010 and 2-0 vs. the Huskies in 2011.
- Mizzou has now won a school record 52 games this season, improving to 52-8 overall in 2011. Over the last three years the Tigers have won 153 games, 50 in 2009 and 51 in 2010.
- Missouri improved to 14-1 in postseason home contests since 2008. The Tigers finished 6-1 at home in postseason play in 2011.
- #5 Missouri will face #4 Florida in the opening round of play at the Women's College World Series. The Tigers fell to the Gators 5-0 in last year's World Series.
- Missouri improved to 23-7 vs. teams in the Top 50 of the RPI.
- Missouri is 15-2 over its last 17 games and 25-3 over its last 28.
- Missouri has hit nine home runs in postseason play and its 67 blasts for the year are second in school history.
- Missouri improved to 4-5 this season when being outthit by its opponent. Missouri also improved to 8-4 this year when mustering five or fewer hits in a game.
- Missouri managed just one hit over its final 6.0 innings, a seventh-inning infield single by Ashley Fleming. Missouri did score five first-inning runs to seize control of the game, however. The Tigers improved to 45-4 this year when scoring first and 30-3 when scoring in the first inning. Missouri scored a combined six first-inning runs (one first-inning run on Saturday) in this NCAA Super Regional.
- A facility record 2,604 fans witnessed Sunday night's game. Missouri broke the facility record for attendance in back-to-back games. A then-record 2,595 fans saw Saturday's contest.

PLAYER SUPER REGIONAL NOTES

- Washington managed just one run-scoring inning off of sophomore standout Chelsea Thomas. The Huskies plated three runs in the bottom of the fifth inning, but went scoreless in 13-of-14 innings overall in the NCAA Super Regional.
- Thomas improved to 31-6 on the year. The 31 wins are second in single-season history at Mizzou, just one behind

HEAD COACH EHREN EARLEYWINE

Fifth Season at MU
Mizzou: 240-74 (.764)
Overall: 386-129 (.750)

2007 Big 12 Coach of the Year
2011 Big 12 Coach of the Year

In just four seasons, Tiger Head Coach Ehren Earleywine has led the Missouri softball program to almost unheard of levels of success in such a short amount of time. In his first season, he took a team that posted just 26 wins and had a losing record the year before and turned them into a 40-win squad that finished the year with a regional bid and a top-20 national ranking. After 2007, Earleywine led the program to an even higher level of success on the national stage, as his Missouri squads have captured back-to-back-to-back regional championships, a Big 12 title, the first two 50-win seasons in Missouri history and two consecutive Women's College World Series appearances, making him the first Tiger coach ever to earn back-to-back berths to the pinnacle of college softball. Batting averages, ERA's and fielding percentages have all improved dramatically, while Tiger players are earning national recognition on a now annual basis. Missouri's top-ranked softball squad has Earleywine to credit for its rise to national prominence.

As successful as the 2009 campaign was, somehow the 2010 Missouri softball season topped it. While that may not have been a surprise when you looked at the team going into the season, Mizzou definitely shocked plenty of people after what happened in the middle of the season. At the end of March, Missouri was flying high, sitting at No. 3 in the country and considered a legitimate contender to win the Women's College World Series. However, word then broke of a season-ending injury to ace pitcher Chelsea Thomas, and suddenly Missouri became an afterthought. What people seemed to forget, however, is that this was an Ehren Earleywine coached team, and they wouldn't be allowed to roll over and die without a fight.

After a brief adjustment period in early April, the Tigers finally got it all together. They ended the season with 51 wins, breaking the school record mark of 50 set the previous year. They hosted the regional round for the second straight year, where they used a seventh inning comeback over Creighton and two straight wins over Illinois to capture their third consecutive regional championship. Then, Missouri played host to the NCAA Super Regional round for the first time in school history, sweeping the Oregon Ducks in two games to move on to their second straight and fifth overall Women's College World Series. Missouri had their fourth All-American awarded under Earleywine, and finished the year ranked No. 8, tying for the highest end of the year ranking in program history. For their work, Earleywine and his staff were selected as the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) Midwest Staff of the Year for the second consecutive season.

In just four years, the 2007 Big 12 Coach of the Year, became the first Missouri softball coach to lead his squad to back-to-back-to-back NCAA Regional titles, doing so in 2008 and again at home in Columbia, Mo., in 2009 and 2010. Since taking the reins, Missouri's batting averages have been on the rise, which includes a .313 mark in 2009, while the team ERA has been on the decline, highlighted by 2009's 1.47 mark, the Tiger's best end of the year ERA since 1998. Just as many of Earleywine's squads have, the 2010 team shattered numerous Missouri records. Along with the 51 wins, Mizzou also set new team records for runs (381), runs batted in (342), and walks (247) With Earleywine at the helm, the Tigers have stolen a total of 494 bases and managed an 82 percent success rate on stolen bags since 2007.

In addition to the success Missouri has seen on the field, Earleywine's squad has received record marks in the classroom, finishing the 2008 campaign with a combined 3.36 grade-point average, the highest GPA since the creation of the program in 1975.

Prior to his career at Missouri, Earleywine spent five seasons at Georgia Tech, of which he served as head coach for the final three. Earleywine's teams made five consecutive appearances in the NCAA Regional Tournament, finishing runner-up on three occasions. The Ramblin' Wreck claimed Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) regular season and tournament titles in 2005 and to his credit, Earleywine was named the 2005 ACC Coach of the Year.

- the school record of 32 set by Theresa Wilson in 1981. Thomas, Barb Wright (31 wins in 1997) and Wilson are the only Tigers to win 30 games in one season.
- Lisa Simmons launched the big blow in the first frame, connecting on her third home run of 2011. The two-run shot pushed her season RBI total to 21.
 - Rhea Taylor scored a run and tied Norrelle Dickson's (Oklahoma 2004-07) Big 12 Conference record for career runs scored. Both players have crossed home plate 234 times. Taylor's next run will obviously set a new conference mark.
 - Taylor also stole her 43rd base of the year. She is a near-perfect 43-of-45 on the base paths this season and is a flawless 9-of-9 in stolen base opportunities this postseason.

SCOUTING FLORIDA

Florida has qualified for their fourth consecutive Women's College World Series after winning the Gainesville Regional, going 3-1 with wins over Bethune-Cookman (8-0) and UCLA (4-2, 11-3). They took two games from Oregon at home in the NCAA Super Regionals, beating the Ducks 9-1 and 7-0. For the season, they stand at 52-10 and went 21-7 in the SEC, tops in their division.

One of the strongest offensive teams in the country, Florida comes into the World Series with a .326 team batting average and 110 home runs. Six regulars are hitting over .300, led by Michelle Moultrie who is hitting .341 with 15 doubles and 28 stolen bases. Five Gators have 15 or more home runs, led by Megan Bush and Brittany Schutte who each have 20. Bush also has a team-best 78 runs batted in. As a team, Florida has 96 stolen bases in 115 attempts and a .588 slugging percentage.

The Gators have a team ERA of 1.86 and are led by both Stephanie Brombacher and Hannah Rogers in the circle. Brombacher, who was out for a while in the middle of the season with an injury, has a 1.09 ERA and 19-2 record in 28 appearances this year. She has 119 strikeouts to 31 walks in 135.0 innings pitched. Rogers currently stands at 33-6 with a 1.59 ERA, striking out 203 and walking 50 in 238 innings. Opponents hit .199 off of Gator pitchers.

Florida is 2-0 all-time against Missouri. Last year, the Gators eliminated Mizzou from the WCWS with a 5-0 victory over the Tigers.

THOMAS IN TOP THREE FOR PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Missouri pitcher Chelsea Thomas has made the final cut for the 10th Annual USA Softball National Collegiate Player of the Year Award, as announced Wednesday morning by the Amateur Softball Association (ASA) of America and USA Softball.

The Big 12 Pitcher of the Year looks to become Missouri's first-ever USA Softball Player of the Year, as she enters the NCAA Super Regionals with a 29-6 record to go with a 0.82 ERA, the second-best in all of Division I softball. In 39 appearances and 231.2 innings pitched, Thomas has struck out a school record 342 batters while allowing just 40 walks. Having given up just 15 extra base hits all season, the redshirt sophomore is limiting opponents to a .141 batting average on the year. Thomas went 13-3 during conference play with a league-best 1.09 ERA.

The winner of the 2011 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Award will be announced on May 31 at the athlete banquet of the 2011 Women's College World Series. Thomas and the Tigers look to return to the WCWS for the third straight season, when they host No. 12 Washington in a best-of-three series this weekend beginning Saturday, May 28 at 8 p.m. CT.

MISSOURI ONE OF BEST WHEN OPPONENTS SCORE TWO RUNS OR LESS

When Mizzou holds their opponents to two runs or less, the Tigers have one of the best winning percentages in NCAA Division I softball.

300-200-100 CLUB

When Rhea Taylor picked up her 300th career hit against Oklahoma State, she became the 16th player in the history of Division I College Softball to post 300 career hits, 200 career runs and 100 career stolen bases. To date, Taylor has 314 hits, 234 runs and 184 stolen bases.

RHEA TAYLOR RECORD TRACKER

Senior Rhea Taylor has rewritten the record books again, as she set a new school record for hits in a career and broke the Big 12's career stolen base mark this season. Taylor picked up three hits in a doubleheader against Drake, moving her within two of tying Mary Babb's 14 year old record of 262. At the Missouri Breast Cancer Awareness Tournament, Taylor moved ahead of Babb with six hits in four games. The record-breaking hit came in her final at-bat against SLU, as she roped a triple to right-center field to put herself on top of the record book once again.

She also went 5-for-5 in stolen bases at the Missouri Breast Cancer Awareness Tournament, tying her for the most stolen bases in Big 12 history. She broke Texas A&M's Sharonda

Missouri opponents in italics

McDonald mark of 153 stolen bases, who set the record in 2007, with a stolen base in the first inning against Arkansas on Wednesday, March 9.

Here's a look at what records she's tracking down this season:

-Batting Average: Taylor started the year as the Big 12 leader in career batting average, but after a midseason slump fell into second place all-time. However, after a strong start to the postseason, Taylor's career average is back up to .407, second behind Ali Viola (.409, Nebraska, 1996-98) for highest all-time. Taylor is guaranteed to graduate from Missouri with the career batting average record.

-Hits: With 13 hits this postseason, Taylor now has 314 for her career and is just 14 shy of tying Norrelle Dickson of Oklahoma, the conference's all-time hits leader at 328. She became just the second Big 12 player ever to reach the 300 hit plateau on May 12 against Oklahoma State.

-Runs: Entering the season as Missouri all-time runs leader and eighth in the conference, Taylor is now tied for the Big 12 record for career runs scored with 234 - matching Dickson's total. Her next run will make her the most prolific run scorer in conference history.

She also recently jumped into the Big 12's all-time top-10 in total bases. With 426 in her career, Taylor is now tied for sixth all-time in the league. She's third all-time in the conference with 15 triples in her career.

SOFTBALL LEADS BIG 12 IN APR

The NCAA has released its annual Academic Progress Rates for member schools, and once again, the University of Missouri stands out among the very best in the Big 12 Conference. A review of the rates for all Big 12 schools shows that Mizzou leads the league in APR rate for six different sports, a figure which ranks as second-best in the Big 12 (trailing only Texas, with 10 leaders).

The sports of football and softball have brought tremendous pride to Tiger fans for the championships they won on the field this year, and they can also call themselves champions off the field. That's because both sports led the Big 12 in APR, with football checking in at 967 (Multiyear APR), while softball produced a near-perfect 997 (out of 1,000). Other MU sports which led the Big 12 this year include gymnastics (1,000), women's golf (1,000), women's swimming and diving (998) and men's swimming and diving (989). Mizzou has ranked either first or second every year within the Big 12 since the inception of the APR rankings.

ONE STATE. ONE SPIRIT. ONE MIZZOU.

The University of Missouri is partnering with the Heart of Missouri United Way to assist in relief efforts following Sunday's devastating tornado in Joplin, Mo. More than 100 Missourians have been killed by the deadly May 22 twister and over 2,000 homes and businesses were destroyed.

The university is producing "One State. One Spirit. One Mizzou." Tornado Relief T-Shirts and all proceeds from each shirt sale ($14.95) will go to support the United Way's United for Joplin campaign. Shirts will initially be sold through the Tiger Team Store, the University Bookstore and online at mutigers.com. Shirts are on-sale now at mutigers.com and will be on sale beginning Thursday afternoon in the Memorial Stadium Team Store and bookstore.

Other ways to assist the United Way's recovery efforts include texting the word JOPLIN to 864833. That will trigger a $10 donation, which will be added to your cell phone bill. For more information on the United Way's United For Joplin campaign please visit uwheartmo.org.

MIZZOU SWEEPS LAST BIG 12 WEEKLY AWARDS

For the second time this season, the Missouri softball team has swept the Big 12 Player and Pitcher of the Week awards, announced Tuesday by the conference office. Senior Lisa Simmons was named Player of the Week for the first time in her career, while redshirt sophomore Chelsea Thomas was picked as the conference's Pitcher of the Week for the sixth time this season. Missouri had more weekly award winners this season than any other Big 12 school with nine.

Simmons helped the Tigers to a perfect 3-0 week, guiding them to their first regular season Big 12 title in 14 years by hitting .667 (6-for-9) over the span of three games. With the Tigers down 1-0 against Oklahoma State, Simmons blasted a two run homer to put Missouri ahead, a lead they would never relinquish. In Saturday's doubleheader against Iowa State, the Boonville, Mo., native registered two hits and an RBI in each game to lift the Tigers to a sweep.

With a two wins in as many starts, Thomas was picked as the Big 12 Pitcher of the Week for the eighth time in her career, posting a 0.54 earned run average over the span of the week. She opened up with a complete game against then-No. 20

On Saturday, Thomas started the first game of the doubleheader with Iowa State and tossed the first six innings, allowing one run on four hits with nine strikeouts to zero walks.

TIGERS CLAIM THREE MAJOR BIG 12 AWARDS

The Missouri softball team captured three major conference awards while having six recognized as All-Big 12 selections, as announced Tuesday afternoon by the Big 12 Conference. The six All-Big 12 honorees are the most since Mizzou had the same total in 2009.

Missouri head coach Ehren Earleywine was named Big 12 Coach of the Year, leading the Tigers to their first regular season Big 12 Championship since 1997 and fifth straight NCAA Regional under his watch.

Redshirt sophomore Chelsea Thomas was picked as the league's Pitcher of the Year following a brilliant 2011 campaign. With a 1.09 ERA in league play, the best amongst Big 12 pitchers, Thomas went 13-3 against her conference opponents while striking out 166 batters to 27 walks in 115.2 innings pitched. Senior Megan Christopher was dubbed co-Defensive Player of the Year, sharing the award with Texas A&M's Natalie Villarreal. Christopher has thrown out 42% (8-of-19) of attempted base stealers during Big 12 play and committed just one error for a .995 fielding percentage.

Earning first team All-Big 12 First Team honors for the Tigers were Thomas, sophomore Nicole Hudson, Abby Vock and Jenna Marston. It is the second career First Team honor for Marston, while Hudson earned Second Team recognition last year. It is the first All-Big 12 award for both Thomas and Vock. Rounding out the list for Missouri was senior Rhea Taylor and junior Ashley Fleming, who were named to the All-Big 12 Second Team. For Taylor, it is the fourth time in her career that she's been an All-Big 12 honoree, while this is the second straight season that Fleming has been recognized.

MIZZOU CLAIMS OUTRIGHT CONFERENCE TITLE

After sweeping Iowa State on Saturday to gain at least a share of the 2011 Big 12 Championship, the Tigers got a little help from the Baylor Bears on Sunday, who knocked off the Texas Longhorns and gave Missouri the outright Big 12 title.

The Tigers swept a doubleheader against the Cyclones yesterday, winning 8-2 in game one before topping ISU by an 8-1 score in the finale. Ashley Fleming hit two three-run homers on the day, while Abby Vock belted two long balls in the second game to pace the Tiger offense. Missouri finished 15-3 in Big 12 play and closed the regular season with a 46-7 record.

Baylor defeated Texas by a 2-1 final on Sunday in Austin, dropping the Longhorns to second place. The Bears scored two unearned runs in the fourth inning, and that would be all they needed. Texas finishes the regular season with a 45-8 record and a game behind the Tigers at 14-4 in conference action. Missouri and Texas split their series last weekend, as the Longhorns won Saturday's contest 2-0 before the Tigers bounced back with a 6-3 decision on Sunday.

NO. 6 TIGERS TAKE CARE OF COWGIRLS, 5-1

The No. 6 Missouri softball team improved to 44-6 overall and 13-3 in conference play with their 5-1 victory over No. 20 Oklahoma State on Thursday.

Oklahoma State jumped ahead in the bottom of the first on an unearned run, taking advantage of a throwing error by Nicole Hudson. Mariah Gearhart led off the inning with an infield single, hitting a chopper into the hole between third and shortstop. Ari Morrison then dropped down a sacrifice bunt to move Gearhart up, but on the play Hudson double-clutched and overthrew Ashley Fleming at first base, allowing Gearhart to advance to third. Alysia Hamilton then hit into a fielder's choice, scoring Gearhart and putting the Cowgirls up 1-0.

Missouri answered back in the top of the second with a two out rally, capped by Lisa Simmons' second home run of the season. Mizzou tacked on two more in the top of the third to cushion their lead to 4-1. Abby Vock drew a leadoff walk and Taylor reached on an error by the second baseman, putting the first two batters on. A fielder's choice wiped out Vock but kept runners at first and second with one out. Hudson hit a high pop fly into shallow right that dropped in for a double, scoring Taylor on the play. Ashley Fleming then followed with a sacrifice fly to the warning track in center field, allowing Jenna Marston to score the second run of the inning.

A pinch-hit sacrifice fly by Kathryn Poet in the top of the fourth put Missouri up 5-1, as she scored Simmons, who led off the inning with a bunt single and moved to second on an overthrow on the play. From there on out, Thomas settled in and finished things off for the Tigers, allowing just one baserunner - a walk - over her last four innings. She went the distance, throwing all seven frames with eight strikeouts, two walks, one unearned run allowed and four hits.

THOMAS ONE OF 10 PLAYER OF THE YEAR FINALISTS

Redshirt sophomore Chelsea Thomas has been named as one of the 10 finalists for USA Softball's Collegiate Player of the Year award, announced Wednesday afternoon by the Amateur Softball Association (ASA) of America. The award, which is considered the most prestigious honor in Division I women's collegiate softball, is designed to recognize outstanding athletic achievement by female collegiate softball players across the country.

The Missouri ace is currently 25-5 on the season with an ERA of 0.83, the second best in all of Division I softball. She has struck out 306 batters, 10th most in the country, and walked just 37 in 195.0 innings pitched. Thomas ranks in the top-25 of several NCAA categories, including hits allowed per seven innings (sixth, 3.41), shutouts (tied for ninth, 11), strikeouts per seven innings (seventh, 11.0) and wins (tied for 14th, 25), amongst others. She is Missouri's first player to ever be amongst the top-10 finalists for the award.

The three finalists will be announced May 25. The winner of the 2011 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Award will be announced on May 31 at the athlete banquet of the 2011 Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City.

MISSOURI LEADS CONFERENCE WITH 10 ACADEMIC HONOREES

Sixty-one student-athletes have been named to the 2011 Academic All-Big 12 squad, with Missouri leading all conference teams with 10 selections. The 10 Tiger student-athletes named to this year's team are the second most in school history.

Sophomore Jenna Marston was one of five student-athletes who were nominated with a 4.0 grade point average. Overall, Missouri put seven on the first team and three on the second team.

Seniors Abby Vock and Marla Schweisberger, juniors Kristin Nottelmann and Ashley Fleming and sophomores Chelsea Thomas and Nicole Hudson join Marston on the first team. Schweisberger and Vock earned Academic All-Big 12 recognition for the third time in their careers, while Nottelmann, Fleming and Thomas were honored for the second time. On the second team, Missouri seniors Megan Christopher, Catherine Lee and Kathryn Poet were each honored - Christopher for the second time in her career, while Lee and Poet were recognized for the first time.

HUDSON DUBBED BIG 12 PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Missouri sophomore third baseman Nicole Hudson has been named the Big 12 Player of the Week for the second time this season, as announced Tuesday by the Big 12 Conference. This is the second award of Hudson's career, both coming this season, as she was named Player of the Week on April 19.

Hudson hit .692 on the week, going 9-for 13 at the plate in four games. The Webb City, Mo., native hit safely in every game, picking up at least two hits in each contest. She went 4-for-6 in a doubleheader against Western Illinois, scoring three runs, hitting a double, walking once, driving home a run and picking up a stolen base.

Against No. 3 Texas, Hudson picked up the only two hits off Blaire Luna in Saturday's contest, as she singled and doubled. On Sunday, Hudson powered the offense to a 6-3 win against Luna by going 3-for-4 at the plate with a home run, a double and matching her career-best with four runs batted in. She posted a .733 on-base percentage and a 1.154 slugging percentage on the week. On March 30, Hudson was hitting .250 for the season. Since then, she's hitting .438 with six doubles, six home runs and 22 runs batted in to raise her season average to .343.

MISSOURI SPLITS WITH NO. 3 TEXAS

Missouri and Texas split their two-game series in early May, which left the Big 12 championship up for grabs. The Horns won game one by a 2-0 final, with Mizzou winning game two 6-3.

The Horns hit two solo home runs and the Tigers mustered just two hits off Blaire Luna on Saturday who tossed a complete game shutout. She struck out six Tigers and only walked one. Chelsea Thomas took the loss, falling to 24-5 on the season after giving up two runs in seven innings of work. She allowed four hits, walked one and struck out seven.

Texas got on the board with a solo shot by leadoff hitter Taylor Hoagland, who hit her 14th home run of the season with two outs in the top of the third. The game stayed at 1-0 until the top of the seventh inning, when Courtney Craig led off the inning with Texas' second solo home run of the year. The blast was Craig's seventh of the season, and put UT up 2-0.

The No. 8 Missouri Tigers bounced back with a 6-3 win over the No. 3 Texas Longhorns on Sunday, salvaging a split and keeping their Big 12 title hopes alive. Nicole Hudson led the offense by going 3-for-4 on the afternoon with a home run and four RBI. Rhea Taylor picked up a pair of hits and scored twice, while Jenna Marston went 2-for-2 with a walk, two runs scored and two driven in.

Texas jumped out ahead with a run in the top of the first inning on a fielder's choice RBI by Amy Hooks. Missouri answered back with one of their own on an RBI base hit by Hudson in the bottom of the first. Taylor singled to lead things off and moved to second on a Texas throwing error on the play. Marston laid down a perfect sacrifice bunt, and Hudson sent a 1-1 pitch back up the middle to bring in Taylor.

Taylor Thom hit a two-run home run for Texas in the top of the third with two outs, scoring Hoagland, who singled with one out. Not to be outdone, however, was Hudson, who tied things up with a two-run homer of her own in the bottom half of the inning. Marston led off the frame with a walk, as she fell behind 0-2 but worked the count back to full before drawing the base on balls. Hudson then sent the third pitch she saw over the fence in dead center field, knotting the game up at 3-3.

Mizzou took control of the game with some timely two out hitting in the bottom of the fourth. After a leadoff walk to Megan Christopher, Taylor Duplechain came in to pinch run and advanced to second on a sacrifice bunt by Abby Vock. Duplechain would move to third on a ground out, and came in to score on a base hit by Marston through the left side of the infield. Hudson then followed by splitting the gap in left-center field, bringing Marston all the way around from first and putting the Tigers up 5-3. Another two out RBI by Marston added some extra insurance for the Tigers, as she pushed Missouri's lead to 6-3 in the bottom of the sixth.

TWO TIGERS EARN ACADEMIC HONORS

Two Missouri softball players were selected to the Capital One Academic All-District 7 first team, as announced Thursday afternoon by the College of Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). Junior Ashley Fleming and sophomore Jenna Marston were named to the district team for the first time in their career. The last time Missouri had two All-District members was in 2007, when Leanne Bowers and Kathy Masterson were each placed on the team. The Tigers' two first team selections this year ties them for second-most amongst Big 12 schools.

THOMAS BREAKS SEASON STRIKEOUT RECORD

Redshirt sophomore Chelsea Thomas set the new school record for most strikeouts in a single season in the fourth inning of the second game against Western Illinois on Wednesday. Her 287th career strikeout moved her past Erin Kalka, who struck out 286 batters during the 2004 season.

NO. 8 TIGERS SWEEP LEATHERNECKS

The No. 8 Missouri softball squad closed out the non-conference portion of their regular season with a sweep over the Western Illinois Leathernecks on Wednesday, taking game one by a 7-2 score before winning 5-0 in the finale.

Kristin Nottelmann got the win in game one, allowed two runs - none earned - while walking two and striking out seven in seven innings of work. She improved to 14-1 on the season. Rhea Taylor went 3-for-3 with two runs and an RBI, while Nicole Hudson picked up two hits and drove in one.

Chelsea Thomas moved to 24-4 with a complete game shutout in game two, as she gave up just two hits and struck out eight without walking a batter. Princess Krebs finished the game 2-for-3 at the plate with two RBI, while Kathryn Poet hit her first home run in two years in the bottom of the fourth inning.

THOMAS WINS FIFTH BIG 12 AWARD

For the third time in four weeks and fifth time this season, redshirt sophomore Chelsea Thomas has been named as the Big 12 Pitcher of the Week, She's won a Big 12 weekly award more times than any other player in the conference, and has now been named Pitcher of the Week seven times in her career.

Thomas led the Tigers to a 2-0 record on the week, as she picked up victories in both games. She threw the first four innings in a five inning game against SIU-Edwardsville on Wednesday, combining with Kristin Nottelmann for the team's third perfect game of the season. She struck out 10 batters in those four innings in Mizzou's 10-0 win. On Saturday, Thomas allowed just one hit – an infield single – in her win against then-No. 16 Oklahoma State. She struck out 13 batters in seven innings and faced just one over the minimum as she didn't allow a single walk. For the week, Thomas posted a 0.00 ERA to go with 23 strikeouts, one hit allowed and zero walks.

SOFTBALL SIGNS CARLIE ROSE

The Missouri softball team has announced the addition of Carlie Rose to the 2011 signing class, as she becomes the 10th prep standout to sign a National Letter of Intent with the University of Missouri. Rose will join nine previous signees who signed during the early period as next year's freshman class.

THOMAS STIFLES NO. 16 COWGIRLS

The No. 8 Missouri Tigers improved to 40-6 on the season and 11-2 in the Big 12 after beating the No. 16 Oklahoma State Cowgirls by a 5-0 score. The Tigers scored their five runs on seven hits, while playing flawless in the field.

Redshirt sophomore Chelsea Thomas was dominant, facing just one batter over the minimum in her 10th complete game shutout of the year, improving to 23-4 on the season. She allowed just one hit - an infield single - while striking out 13. Krebs led all Tigers with two RBI and hit her third home run of the year, while Marston and Hudson collected two hits each and scored twice.

TIGERS PERFECT IN WIN OVER SIUE

Pitchers Chelsea Thomas and Kristin Nottelmann combined for Missouri's third perfect game of the season, while the Tiger offense belted out 10 runs on nine hits to make quick work of SIU-Edwardsville on Wednesday afternoon. The game was the fastest of the year for the Tigers, lasting just one hour and two minutes.

Missouri tacked on two runs in the first inning on a two-run double by Ashley Fleming, scoring Rhea Taylor and Nicole Hudson. In the second, Missouri loaded the bases with one out after a walk to Megan Christopher, a base hit by Abby Vock and a fielder's choice to Taylor, as the pitcher fielded a grounder back to the circle and unsuccessfully tried to throw Brianna Corwin out at third, who was running for Christopher. Jenna Marston then delivered a base hit, bring home Corwin and Vock. A groundout by Hudson brought home the third run of the inning.

The Tigers put their first three batters on base in the third inning, guiding them to a five run frame. Kathryn Poet delivered a pinch hit single to score Lee. Princess Krebs followed and picked up an RBI on a ground out, plating Schweisberger on the play. With runners on second and third, Taylor Duplechain hit a grounder to the first baseman, who threw home to get the runner trying to score. However, the ball ricocheted off the catcher's glove and got away, bringing home two more Tiger runners. Duplechain would score on a base hit by Marston, her third run batted in on the afternoon.

Nottelmann tossed the last inning for the Tigers, striking out two of the three hitters she faced. Marston led all Tiger hitters with three runs batted in, while Fleming added a pair. Schweisberger and Marston were tops on the team with two hits apiece.

MISSOURI, HUSKERS SPLIT SERIES

Missouri and Nebraska fought to a split in their last Big 12 meeting ever, with the Huskers taking Friday's game, 3-2, before the Tigers bounced back to take the finale, 4-1.

The Cornhuskers took advantage of some uncharacteristic wildness from Chelsea Thomas, as she walked three batters and hit another in the bottom of the fifth inning. Nebraska led off the inning with a double, their only hit of the game, and the four free passes plus a sacrifice fly allowed three runners to score. Missouri got their two runs on RBIs from Lisa Simmons and Rhea Taylor.

The Tigers bounced back in game two, as Thomas gave up just one run after taking a no hitter into the sixth. Abby Vock delivered her fourth home run of the season to start the scoring, and three insurance runs in the top of the seventh, two driven in by Ashley Fleming and another by Nicole Hudson, secured the Missouri victory.

TIGERS DROP SLU IN DOUBLEHEADER

The No. 8 Missouri softball team pushed their record to 37-5 after winning their ninth and 10th consecutive games on Wednesday, as they took down Saint Louis with victories of 7-4 and 5-1.

Missouri used three pitchers in game one, with Lindsey Muller getting the win after two shutout innings of relief to improve to 2-0 on the year. Ashley Fleming tossed two scoreless innings herself for her second save. Marla Schweisberger drove in three runs to lead the Missouri offense. In game two, Kristin Nottelmann registered her 13th win of the year with a complete game effort. Nicole Hudson and Ashley Fleming led the offense, as each hit their 10th home run of the season.

HUDSON, THOMAS SWEEP BIG 12 WEEKLY HONORS

For the first time since May 11, 2004, the Missouri softball team has swept the Big 12 Player and Pitcher of the Week honors, as announced Tuesday afternoon by the league office. Sophomore Nicole Hudson has been named Player of the Week for the first time in her career, while redshirt sophomore Chelsea Thomas has been dubbed as the league's Pitcher of the Week for the second straight week, fourth time this season and sixth time in her career.

Hudson helped lead the offense to a sweep over then-No. 14 Oklahoma this past weekend, as she went 5-for-10 against Sooner ace Keilani Ricketts, while doubling once and driving home two RBI. After going 2-for-4 with an RBI on Saturday, Hudson drove in the lone run on Sunday, driving home the game-winning RBI in the bottom of the 11th inning. She opened the week by going 3-for-4 with a three run home run at Northern Iowa, tying her for the team lead with nine homers this season. After batting .571 for the week, Hudson raised her season batting average from .258 to .299.

Already named Big 12 Pitcher of the Week more times than any Tiger in program history, Thomas now becomes the first Missouri player to ever win a Big 12 weekly award in two consecutive weeks. The redshirt sophomore pushed her record to 20-3 with a perfect 3-0 week in which she allowed just two earned runs while striking out an astounding 44 batters while walking only four in 24.0 innings pitched.

with two huge wins to improve to 35-5 overall and 9-1 in the Big 12 Conference. Missouri took game one by a 3-2 score in nine innings before winning the finale in front of 1,712 fans on Sunday, winning 1-0 in 11 innings.

It was an unlikely hero who delivered the game-winning, walk off home run for the Tigers in a 3-2 victory in the series opener on Saturday, as Abby Vock homered off Keilani Ricketts on a 3-2 pitch, sending it over the wall in left field for a walkoff home run.

One day after a nine inning battle, the No. 9 Tigers and No. 14 Sooners were back at it as Missouri pulled out another dramatic victory, this one coming in the 11th inning. Nicole Hudson delivered a base hit back up the middle, scoring Saturday's hero Abby Vock, as the Tigers completed their first sweep over the Sooners since 2006. Redshirt sophomore Chelsea Thomas struck out 17 batters in both games.

MISSOURI TOPPLES UNI, 7-2

Backed by 13 hits from the offense and 14 strikeouts from the pitching staff, the No. 9 Missouri Tigers coasted to a 7-2 win over the Northern Iowa Panthers on Wednesday to improve to 33-5 on the season.

Redshirt sophomore Chelsea Thomas pushed her record to 18-3 with four innings of work. The righty struck out 10 while walking zero, as she allowed two runs – one earned – on three hits.

Nicole Hudson and Catherine Lee each powered the offense with a three run home run. Kristin Nottelmann worked three innings, allowing one hit and striking out four for her third save of the year.

THOMAS NAMED FINALIST FOR PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Tiger redshirt sophomore Chelsea Thomas has been selected as one of 25 finalists for the 2011 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year, as announced Wednesday afternoon by the Amateur Softball Association (ASA) of America.

The award, which is considered the most prestigious honor in Division I women's collegiate softball, is designed to recognize outstanding athletic achievement by female collegiate softball players across the country. The current 25-person list will be cut down to a list of 10 finalists on March 11, with the three finalists being named on May 25. The winner of the award will be announced on May 31st, prior to the start of the 2011 Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City, Okla.

THOMAS WINS THIRD BIG 12 HONOR OF SEASON

For the third time this season and fifth time in her career, redshirt sophomore Chelsea Thomas has been selected as the Big 12 Pitcher of the Week, as announced Tuesday by the league office. Thomas shares this week's honor with Texas sophomore Blaire Luna. The Pleasantville, Iowa, native earned this award on March 8 and March 29 of this year.

Going 3-0 on the week, Thomas opened up play on Wednesday with a victory over Evansville in the second game of a doubleheader. The Tiger righty threw four of the five innings in Missouri's 9-1 run-rule victory, striking out six while allowing just one hit and zero walks. She picked up two wins over then-No. 20 Texas A&M this past weekend, throwing two complete games against the Aggies. On Saturday, Thomas scattered five hits, walked four and struck out eight while giving up three earned runs. She followed that up with a shutout on Sunday, tossing seven innings, giving up four hits and striking out nine.

TIMELY HITTING LEADS TO SWEEP OVER NO. 20 AGGIES

The Missouri Tigers returned home for the first time since mid-March and collected a big two game sweep over the No. 20 Texas A&M Aggies, taking game one by a 6-3 score before shutting out Texas A&M 3-0 on Sunday. Chelsea Thomas picked up wins in both games to improve to 17-3.

On Saturday, with the teams scoreless and hitless into the fourth inning, the Aggies jumped ahead 1-0 in the top half of the inning by taking advantage of a leadoff walk by Rhiannon Kliesing. After the walk, Texas A&M moved the runner to second on a sacrifice bunt, and Kliesing then took third on a ground out. Down 0-1 in the count, Nicole Morgan delivered the first run of the game with a single into center field.

The Tiger offense was jump-started on Maddison Ruggeberg's one out RBI double in the bottom half of the inning, scoring Ashley Fleming, who drew a walk. A fielding error on a pop fly into the shallow outfield put runners on second and third base, setting up an RBI single by Catherine Lee. Lisa Simmons made it 3-1 Tigers as she followed Lee with a sacrifice fly into left scoring Alaina Burkhart, the pinch runner.

Another three runs were tacked on in the bottom of the sixth, as a two out double by Simmons started the Missouri rally, scoring Taylor Duplechain on the play. Megan Christopher followed by sending the first pitch she saw through the left side, allowing Simmons to touch home, and Abby Vock followed by blooping a run-scoring double down the line in left field.

On Sunday, neither team produced much offense until the Tigers got things going with a run in the bottom of the fourth. Senior Rhea Taylor busted out of her slump and jumpstarted the Missouri offense by leading the inning off with a bunt single and advancing to second base on an errant throw by the Aggie pitcher. She would move up to third on a ground out, and touched home when Ashley Fleming hit a slow roller back to Lindsey Sisk, the Texas A&M pitcher.

In the fifth, Taylor got the offense rolling again with a two-out single through the left side, roping the first pitch she saw past the third baseman. Moving up to third on the play was Abby Vock, who walked ahead of Taylor, and she scored when Jenna Marston hit a liner into the gap in left-center for a double. Princess Krebs added an insurance run in the bottom of the sixth, coming through with a pinch hit single back up the middle.

TAYLOR ACCEPTS INVITE TO NATIONAL TEAM TRYOUTS

Two-time All-America selection Rhea Taylor has accepted an invitation to the 2011 USA Softball Women's National Team, as announced Wednesday morning by the Amateur Softball Association (ASA) of America. Taylor will join 20 others who accepted invitations and will compete at the U.S. Olympic Training Center in Chula Vista, Calif., from June 12-17.

The approximately 17 athletes selected to the USA Softball roster will compete in over seven different events in four different countries. Fans in the United States will get four opportunities to see the team in action with three exhibition stops scheduled as well as the World Cup of Softball IV, July 21-25, in Oklahoma City.

MISSOURI ROLLS TO SWEEP OVER ACES

The No. 12 Missouri softball team swept Evansville in a doubleheader on Wednesday evening, taking game one by a 7-2 final before run-ruling the Purple Aces by a 9-1 score in the finale.

In game one, Nicole Hudson homered twice, both two-run shots, while Maddison Ruggeberg, Lindsey Muller and Alaina Burkhart collected two hits each and Mackenzie Sykes hit her second home run of the season. Kristin Nottelmann went the distance, giving up two runs on six hits while striking out a season-high 10 batters while walking zero.

The Tigers hit a season-best five doubles in game two and jumped out to a 5-0 lead in the first inning. Ashley Fleming hit her ninth home run of the year, driving home two on the play. Kathryn Poet plated two on a fifth inning double, while Lisa Simmons led the team with two hits. Chelsea Thomas picked up win number 15 with four innings of one hit ball, as she struck out six.

TIGERS SPLIT WITH BAYLOR

The Missouri Tigers split a two-game set with No. 17 Baylor, as they lost the opening game by a 3-2 for their first conference loss of the season before coming back with a 6-0 win on Sunday.

In game on, the Tigers couldn't hang on to an early 2-0 advantage, as the Bears rallied back for the win. In a battle of redshirt sophomores, Baylor's Whitney Canion (15-4) outlasted Mizzou's Chelsea Thomas (13-3), as Thomas lost her first game in 14 starts. Missouri scored twice in the first inning when Catherine Lee singled down the line and off the third base bag, scoring Marston and Fleming on the play.

Missouri came back to split with a 6-0 win on Sunday, backed by a complete game shutout by Thomas. The righty gave up just four hits, walked two and struck out 11. An unearned run in Missouri's favor broke the scoreless tie in the top of the third. With a runner on third, Maddison Ruggeberg hit a little dribbler back to the mound that Liz Paul couldn't field cleanly, allowing Marston to score and make it 1-0. After Ashley Fleming blooped a single into left, Nicole Hudson smoked a liner through the 25 mile per hour wind that hooked just fair around the foul pole for a three run home run, breaking the game wide open for the Tigers. A two out, two run double by Abby Vock in the top of the seventh added a little insurance.

THOMAS WINS BIG 12 PITCHER OF THE WEEK

Redshirt sophomore Chelsea Thomas has been named Big 12 Pitcher of the Week for the fourth time in her career, as announced Tuesday afternoon by the league office. This is the second time this season that Thomas has earned this award.

Throwing in all four games, Thomas went 3-0 with a 0.66 earned run average and a save as the Tigers swept Kansas and Texas Tech to improve to 4-0 in conference. She struck out 32 batters and walked just one in 21.1 innings pitched while scattering eight hits and giving up two earned runs.

MEAN GREEN SPLIT SNAPS TIGER WINNING STREAK

After opening up with a 4-1 victory in game one, No. 11 Missouri saw their 24-game winning streak come to an end in the second game, as the North Texas Mean Green upset the Tigers by a 9-2 final, hitting four home runs in game two.

In game one, Thomas struck out 11, walked one and allowed one run on five hits to pick up her 13th straight win. Fleming finished the game with two hits in four at bats, plus a double and a home run and three driven in. Nottelmann took her first loss of the year in game two, giving up nine runs on four homers to fall to 11-1.

MIZZOU SWEEPS NO. 19 TEXAS TECH

The No. 16/T13 Tigers pushed their conference record to 4-0 with a two-game sweep over No. 20/19 Texas Tech, winning 4-1 on Saturday and 10-1 in six innings on Sunday.

On Saturday, redshirt sophomore Chelsea Thomas won her 11th consecutive decision to improve to 11-2 on the year. The righty struck out seven while walking zero. She allowed one run and scattered just three hits. Maddison Ruggeberg led the way with three hits, two RBI and a home run while Abby Vock singled, doubled and drove in a run.

The Tigers hit four home runs on Sunday, getting two from Princess Krebs and one from Ashley Fleming and Catherine Lee. Krebs entered the game with zero home runs in her career before belting a solo shot to lead off the fourth and a three-run in the fifth. Thomas took a no hitter into the sixth inning before giving up her first hit of the day with one out in the inning. Her final line was 5.1 innings pitched with one run allowed on one hit. She struck out 10 batters and walked zero while improving to 12-2 on the season.

SOFTBALL WINS RECORD 21ST IN A ROW

The No. 13 Tigers won their 20th and 21st straight games in Wednesday's doubleheader sweep over Border Showdown rival Kansas, breaking a 16-year-old school record for most consecutive wins set by the 1995 squad who won 20 straight games.

In game one, the Tigers fought off a late Jayhawk rally to hang on to a 3-2 victory. Chelsea Thomas won her 10th straight start, going the distance while allowing four hits, two runs – zero earned and striking out 11. Tied 0-0 in the top of the third, seniors Megan Christopher and Abby Vock broke the tie with back-to-back home runs, giving each of them two on the season.

Missouri completed the sweep with a 6-5 victory in the second game that saw five lead changes. Kristin Nottelmann picked up the win, improving her to 11-0 on the season. She gave up five runs – two earned, struck out five and walked two. Ashley Fleming hit her sixth home run of the season in the first inning – a two run blast – to give the Tigers the early advantage.

The Jayhawks took their first lead of the day in the bottom half of the inning, scoring three unearned runs on a bases clearing triple with two outs. Missouri regained the lead with a pair of runs in the top of the third, getting RBI doubles from Marston and Maddison Ruggeberg.

Two straight home runs on the bottom of the fifth by the Jayhawks put them back ahead of Mizzou. With two outs, Liz Koon delivered a 2-0 pitch deep over the right field wall, and Mariah Montgomery followed with a blast to dead center, putting Kansas up 5-4. Lee belted a two run home run in the next half inning to give Missouri the lead once again. With a runner on first, Lee sent the 0-1 pitch over the right-center field fence to make it 6-5 Tigers.

Thomas entered the game in the sixth inning, looking to preserve the lead for the Tigers. She struck out two batters and worked around a leadoff walk in her first inning of action. She finished off her third save of the year with another pair of strikeouts in the seventh.

MIZZOU GOES 5-0 AT WILSON CLASSIC

The Tigers extended their winning streak to 19 straight games with a perfect 5-0 weekend at the Wilson Classic, sweeping two against against both North Dakota State and Western Michigan and knocking off Minnesota.

Missouri run-ruled three of the five games, beating North Dakota State 11-2 in five and Western Michigan by scores of 10-0 and 10-1. Kristin Nottelmann was one strike away from a no hitter on Friday against Western Michigan before a Bronco singled just past the glove of the Tiger third baseman. Both Nottelmann and Thomas won two games apiece over the weekend, while Thomas also picked up a save.

Ashley Fleming hit a two run home run in the bottom of the sixth inning to break up the pitcher's duel against Minnesota. The teams were scoreless at that point, as the teams combined for just three hits at that point. Thomas got the win for Mizzou as she struck out 12.

SOFTBALL SHUTS OUT SIU, 3-0

Senior Marla Schweisberger hit a first inning two-run home run and redshirt sophomore Chelsea Thomas combined to throw a shutout with junior Kristin Nottelmann as the No. 13 Missouri Tigers (17-3) took down the Southern Illinois Salukis by a 3-0 score on Wednesday afternoon. It was the team's 10th shutout in the last 12 games, lowering the staff's ERA to 1.16.

Thomas threw four innings of two hit ball, allowing two hits and one walk while striking out five as she improved to 7-2 on the season. She has not allowed a run in her last 41.2 innings pitched, lowering her season earned run average to 0.38. Nottelmann recorded her second save of the year, tossing the last three innings. She faced the minimum, allowing one hit that was erased on a double play, while striking out six.

EARLEYWINE BREAKS 200 WINS MARK

a Tiger. Already the second winningest coach in Tiger history behind Jay Miller (556 wins in 15 seasons), Earleywine has the highest winning percentage for a Missouri head coach at .753, ahead of Barb Wright, who went 91-32 (.740) in two seasons for the Tigers, and Miller, who had a .643 winning percentage at Mizzou. Earleywine entered the season as the 14th winningest active coach in NCAA Division I softball with a career winning percentage of .734.

TIGERS SWEEP DEMARINI INVITE

The Missouri Tigers finished the DeMarini Invitational with a perfect 4-0 record, as they swept two games against both Illinois and Illinois State, winning three of the four games by run-rule. On Saturday, the team hit three home runs to run-rule Illinois State and rallied past the Illinois Fighting Illini on the first day of the DeMarini Invitational on Saturday. Missouri blew past the Redbirds in five innings, winning by a 9-0 score, and then rallied back against Illinois, winning 4-2. Illinois held a 2-0 lead on Mizzou before the Tigers came back.

On Sunday, a pair of solid pitching performances plus a day of high powered offense lifted the No. 14 Missouri softball team to a pair of run-rule victories on the last day of the DeMarini Invitational. The Tigers opened the afternoon with a 10-0 win in five innings over Illinois State and followed that up with an 8-0 win in six innings over Illinois. Missouri's 18 runs on the day came on 23 combined hits, while the Tiger pitchers held their opponents to just three hits overall.

MISSOURI CRUISES PAST ARKANSAS, 12-0

The No. 14 Missouri softball team belted out 12 runs on 8 hits, backing another dominating performance by redshirt sophomore Chelsea Thomas while run-ruling Arkansas by a 12-0 score in five innings. Thomas (4-2) won her fourth straight game on another outstanding showing, as she struck out 10 batters in four innings while allowing two hits zero walks. She set down the last eight batters she saw on strikeouts. Her ERA is down to 0.54, and she's averaging over 12 strikeouts per seven innings.

Senior Rhea Taylor stole second base in the first inning to become the Big 12's new all-time stolen base leader. Taylor, now with 154 career bases, broke Sharonda McDonald of Texas A&M's record back in 2007. Junior Ashley Fleming led the team offensively, going 2-for-3 at the plate with a pair of runs, a home run and five driven in.

THOMAS SWEEPS NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE WEEK AWARDS

Redshirt sophomore Chelsea Thomas has been named the Division I National Player of the Week by both the National Fastpitch Coaches Association and USA Softball, as announced Tuesday. Thomas was also tabbed as the Big 12's Pitcher of the Week, announced by the league office.

Thomas had a phenomenal week for the Tigers in the circle, winning all three of her starts to improve her record to 3-2 on the season. On Wednesday, she threw the first perfect game for Missouri since 2002 and the first seven inning perfect game since 1991, as she set down 21 straight Drake batters, setting down 11 via strikeout, in Mizzou's 5-0 win. On Friday, Thomas threw a three hit, complete game shutout against SEMO as she walked only one batter and struck out 10 in the victory. She took a no hitter into the sixth inning before giving up a leadoff single.

She threw her second perfect game of the week on Sunday against Missouri State, tossing all six innings in Missouri's 11-0 run-rule victory over the Bears. She set a new seven inning school record with 15 strikeouts. Over the course of the week, Thomas struck out 36 batters and walked only one while opponents hit just .048 against her.

She now has six no hitters in her career (four no hitters, two perfect games), the most by any lone Tiger player in school history. On the season, Thomas has a miniscule earned run average of 0.60, as she's tossed three complete game shutouts this year. In 35.0 innings pitched she's allowed just 12 hits, three earned runs, and has limited opposing hitters to a .103 batting average. She has 57 strikeouts to just five walks and is averaging 11.40 strikeouts per seven innings.

Thomas is the second Missouri Tiger to be named NFCA National Player of the Week. Mary Babb won the award on May 4, 1997. She is the third USA Softball Player of the Week from Mizzou, as Janessa Roening won it on May 3, 2005 while Ashley Fleming took home the honors last season. Her Big 12 honor is the third of her career, as she was named Pitcher of the Week in both 2009 and 2010.

THOMAS' PERFECTION PUTS HER ON TOP

After not having a perfect game since 2002 or a seven inning perfect game since 1991, Chelsea Thomas threw two this past week, as she set Drake down in order on Wednesday's 5-0 win, before another game of perfection against Missouri State on Sunday, striking out 15 of the 18 batters she faced in the six inning affair. With that, Thomas now has more no hitters than anyone in program history with six (four no hitters, two perfect games). Karen Snelgrove, a former Olympian for Canada, had five no hitters in her career, four of those being perfect games which is tops in school history.

TIGERS CRUISE PAST ARKANSAS, 12-0

Junior Ashley Fleming led the team offensively, going 2-for-3 at the plate with a pair of runs, a home run and five driven in. She's tied for the team lead with three home runs on the year and leads all Tigers with 16 RBI.

GRAND WEEK FOR THE TIGERS

Three Missouri hitters blasted grand slams in the first week of March for the Tigers. Rhea Taylor hit one in game one against Drake on Wednesday, while freshman Maddison Ruggeberg hit her first career grand slam in the fourth inning of Mizzou's big 12-0 win over SLU. On Sunday, Marla Schweisberger hit a walk off grand slam against Missouri State, as the Tigers run-ruled the Bears 11-0 in six innings.

THOMAS PERFECT AGAIN, NOTTELMANN WITH NO-NO AT BREAST CANCER AWARENESS TOURNAMENT

The Missouri Tigers went 4-0 at the Missouri Breast Cancer Awareness Tournament, outscoring their opponents by a 31-0 margin in the four games. The Tigers opened with a 5-0 win over SEMO on Friday before Kristin Nottelmann no-hit Saint Louis in Saturday's 12-0 win. Chelsea Thomas threw her second perfect game of the week as the Tigers run-ruled Missouri State 11-0 in six innings, and closed out the tournament with a 3-0 win over UMKC. Nottelmann improved to 6-0 while Thomas won her third straight as she's now 3-2 on the year.

Offensively, Marla Schweisberger hit .700 with one home run and eight RBI. Ashley Fleming hit .545 with a home run and a triple, while Rhea Taylor, Jenna Marston and Maddison Ruggeberg each hit over .400. Marston and Ruggeberg also blasted their second home runs of the season.

THOMAS THROWS PERFECT GAME, TIGERS SWEEP DRAKE

Redshirt sophomore Chelsea Thomas tossed a perfect game and junior Kristin Nottelmann won her fourth game of the season as the Tigers swept Drake in a doubleheader on Wednesday by scores of 5-0 and 8-1.

Thomas threw the first perfect game for Missouri since Feb. 17, 2002, and first seven inning perfect game for the Tigers since April 26, 1991. She struck out 11 of the 21 batters she faced and threw only 77 pitches as she won her first game of the year. The perfect game was the fifth no hitter of her career, tying her for the school record for most individual no hitters in a career.

Tied at 0-0 in the fourth, senior Rhea Taylor broke the scoreless affair with her second home run of the season as she blasted a grand slam over the right-center field wall to make it 4-0 Tigers. Taylor singled in the first inning to extend her hitting streak to 12 games. The streak was snapped in game two, tying her for the sixth longest streak in program history. Nicole Hudson hit a solo home run with one out in the bottom of the fifth to extend the Tiger lead to 5-0.

Nottelmann won her fourth game of the year with a complete game in the second game, as she allowed only four hits and one run while striking out seven.

Drake jumped ahead in the first on an RBI double by Erin Mollohan, driving in Amy Pierce who walked and stole second with one out. Missouri would even the score in the fifth on an unearned run to make it 1-1. Taylor led off with a walk and then stole second base, advancing to third on a throwing error by the catcher. Rugeberg then drove her in with a sacrifice fly.

The Tigers added three more unearned runs in the bottom of the fourth, capped off by a two run double by Rugeberg that scored Taylor and Lisa Simmons. Mizzou tacked on three more in the bottom of the sixth to push the lead to 8-1. Rugeberg drove Shana White home on a sacrifice fly, and a double by Ashley Fleming scored Jenna Marston. Marla Schweisberger singled in to left on the first pitch she saw, plating Marston. Rugeberg finished the game with a team-best four RBI on a 1-for-2 day at the plate. Fleming had a pair of hits, a run and an RBI while Taylor scored twice.

MIZZOU FINISHES 4-1 AT USF TOURNAMENT

The No. 16/15 Missouri Tigers went 4-1 at the USF Fairfield Inn and Suites Tampa North Tournament, beating Temple (8-7), Illinois State (8-2), South Florida (4-1) and Western Michigan (6-1) while falling to No. 5/2 Alabama.

Missouri 8, Temple 7

Mizzou broke the scoreless tie in the top of the third following back-to-back singles by seniors Rhea Taylor and Catherine Lee to start the inning. Lee advanced to third on a wild pitch and scored on an illegal pitch. Sophomore Nicole Hudson doubled in Ashley Fleming, who was hit by a pitch, to make it 3-0. Muller helped herself out by blasting a two-run home run over the left-center field wall, and Taylor made it 6-0 later in the inning by beating out an infield single with runners on second and third.

Temple's bats woke up in the bottom of the fourth, as they pushed across six runs to tie up the score. The Owls started things off with back-to-back singles, while an error and a single cut the lead to 6-2 and chase Muller. Hudson was brought in to pitch, and after getting the second out, gave up an RBI single and a three run home run to tie the game.

The Tigers retook the lead in the top of the fifth off a pinch hit home run by freshman Maddison Rugeberg, the first home run of her career, pushing the Tiger lead to 7-6. Hudson helped herself out in the top of the seventh with a blast over the right-center field wall that wound up being the game winning home run, putting the Tigers back on top at 8-7. Hudson got the win, the first of her collegiate career, moving her to 1-1 on the season.

Missouri 8, Illinois State 2

The Tigers took the lead in the top of the third, scoring three runs on three hits in the frame. Taylor extended her hitting streak to eight games dating back to last season with a chopper over the third baseman's head, and then stole second base. Taylor advanced to third when Fleming reached on an error, and then came around to score on a single by Lee, tying the game at 1-1.

Both Fleming and Lee touched home on Hudson's single to left-center, making it 3-1 in favor of Mizzou. Mizzou pushed four more runs across in the top of the fifth to make it 7-1. Nottelmann picked up her second win of the year, throwing four innings of one run ball, scattering five hits and striking out four to improve to 2-0 on the season.

Alabama 3, Missouri 1

The Crimson Tide jumped ahead in the top of the third with a pair of doubles to make it 1-0. Kendall Dawson doubled to start the inning, hitting a liner to center just off the edge of a leaping Taylor's glove. After a pop out, Kayla Braud hit a double to left, scoring Dawson for the first run of the game. Jennifer Fenton followed with a single off Hudson's glove at third to put runners on the corners, and a fielder's choice pushed the Tide lead to 2-0.

An RBI single by Fleming in the bottom half of the third cut Alabama's lead in half. Taylor led off the inning with a perfectly placed bunt right in front of the plate, and stole her second base of the game. With one out, Fleming worked a full count and fouled off a few pitches before pulling one into right field, plating Taylor and trimming the deficit to 2-1.

The score remained tied at 2-1 into the sixth inning, when Whitney Larsen pulled a solo home run over the left field fence to make it 3-1 in Alabama's favor.

Dunne retired the last 10 batters she faced as she improved to 7-0 on the season. Thomas fell to 0-2 on the year, as she threw a complete game, allowing the three runs on six hits. She struck out nine and didn't walk a single batter.

Missouri 4, South Florida 1

Junior Kristin Nottelmann threw a gem, going all seven innings while allowing just one run on only three hits and striking out eight. After allowing a one out single in the second, Nottelmann set down 16 straight before allowing back-to-back two out hits in the bottom of the seventh.

Mizzou broke the scoreless tie with an unearned run in the top of the third, as back-to-back two out fielding errors helped the Tigers put a run across. Taylor's bunt was fielded by the third baseman, but the throw was dropped by the covering second baseman at first base, allowing her to advance to second. Lee followed with a grounder of her own to third, who then threw the ball over the first baseman's head, bringing Taylor around to score and moving Lee to second.

The Tigers tallied another in the following inning to extend the lead to 2-0. Fleming led off the inning with a double in the right-center field gap, her second of the season. After stealing third, senior Marla Schweisberger singled back up the middle to plate Fleming. Taylor made it 4-0 Mizzou with her first home run of the season, connecting on a 1-2 pitch over the right-center field fence, plating Abby Vock who was hit by a pitch to start the inning.

Missouri 6, Western Michigan 1

Missouri put up a three-spot in the first inning to take the early lead, highlighted by Hudson two-run double. Rhea Taylor and Jenna Marston each walked to start the game, and they moved up a base on a ground out to set up Hudson's two-bagger. After stealing third, Hudson was plated on a groundout by Lindsey Muller to make it 3-0.

A sacrifice fly by Muller in the bottom of the third increased Mizzou's lead to 4-1. In the bottom of the fourth, Mackenzie Sykes picked up her first career collegiate hit, run, home run and RBI as she crushed the 1-2 pitch over the left field wall, making it a 5-1 Tiger lead.

Missouri added an unearned run in the fifth to increase their lead to 6-1. Ashley Fleming tossed the last two innings, setting down all six she faced while striking out two. Muller got the win, her first of the year, throwing two innings of relief while allowing no runs on two hits with two strikeouts.

TIGERS GO 1-2 AT RAIN-SOAKED SAN DIEGO CLASSIC I
The No. 8/10 Missouri softball team stumbled out of the gate to start their 2011 season, as they went 1-2 at the San Diego Classic I from Feb. 17-20. Originally scheduled to play five games, Mizzou only got three of their games in.

Missouri opened up against San Diego State on a last-second addition to the schedule on Thursday evening, just hours after they got off the plane. Despite the strange travel schedule, the Tigers came out swinging as they won 9-1 over No. 22 San Diego State, run-ruling the Aztecs in five innings in their season opener. Junior Kristin Nottelmann got the win, throwing all five innings while allowing just one run on four hits. Offensively, the Tigers got home runs from junior Ashley Fleming and sophomores Nicole Hudson and Jenna Marston. Marston finished 2-for-3 with a double and three RBI, while Fleming went 2-for-3 with two runs and two batted in.

The Tigers got things going on Friday against Fresno State, and it looked like it was going to be a repeat performance for the Missouri offense as they picked up three straight extra base hits to start the game, taking the early 2-0 lead. However, Fresno State blasted three home runs and the Tiger offense never got back on track, as they fell 6-3.

Missouri took on No. 15 Cal right after that, with redshirt sophomore Chelsea Thomas making her first start since late March last season. A huge storm rolled in to the area, and the game was postponed in the top of the sixth inning with Cal up to bat with a runner on second and no one out. The game wouldn't be resumed until Sunday morning. Upon continuation, Thomas started with a 1-2 count on the Cal batter, who ended up reaching on a dropped third strike, giving Cal runners on first and third with no one out. After a stolen base, a ground out to second put the first run on the board with the Bears taking a 1-0 lead. Thomas struck out the next two batters to strand the runner at third. Mizzou had a chance to even things up in the bottom half but stranded runners on the corners. Abby Vock led off the frame with a single up the middle and advanced to second on a sac bunt by Rhea Taylor. Vock moved to third after a ground out, with Ashley Fleming following with a walk. Sophomore Nicole Hudson lifted one deep to left field, but the ball was caught at the track for the final out of the inning. Thomas went all seven innings in the loss, allowing the one unearned run while striking out 11 and giving up only three hits.

FAMILIAR FACES

After taking essentially two completely different teams to the Women's College World Series in 2009 and 2010, the Tigers return a bit of continuity in 2011. Of their 22 players on the roster, 17 were on the squad last season. They return three of their four main pitchers and eight of their nine hitters in the lineup. Here is a statistical breakdown of what Missouri returns offensively in 2011:

At Bats:	1424 of 1624 – 87.7%
Runs:	337 of 381 – 88.5%
Hits:	432 of 481 – 89.8%

TAYLOR, MARSTON NAMED TO TOP-50 WATCH LIST

Missouri senior outfielder Rhea Taylor and sophomore shortstop Jenna Marston have been selected to USA Softball's Top 50 Watch List for the 2011 College Player of the Year Award. This award, which is considered the most prestigious honor in Division I women's collegiate softball, is designed to recognize outstanding athletic achievement by female collegiate softball players across the country.

MU AGAIN PICKED SECOND IN BIG 12

For the third consecutive season, the Missouri softball team has been voted as the No. 2 team in the Big 12 Conference, as announced by the league office on Tuesday afternoon. Oklahoma was picked No. 1 with 79 points and seven of the 10 first place votes. The Tigers came in second with 71 points and two first place votes, while Texas rounded out the top-three with 69 points and one first place vote

Team (first-place votes) - Points

MARSTON HONORED BY BBWAA

Missouri shortstop Jenna Marston was honored by the Baseball Writers Association of America at a dinner and banquet in downtown St. Louis, Mo., on Sunday night, earning recognition for her successes on both the softball and baseball diamonds over the course of the past year.

Amidst a crowd that featured current Cardinals manager Tony LaRussa, first baseman Albert Pujols and pitcher Adam Wainwright, along with legends like Ozzie Smith and Whitey Herzog, Marston was given the John E. Wray Award, given to those with achievements in sports other than professional baseball.

MARSTON NAMED SPORTSWOMAN OF THE YEAR

Missouri shortstop Jenna Marston has been named USA Baseball's Sportswoman of the Year for her outstanding performance on the USA Baseball Women's National Team this past summer.

Marston helped Team USA to a bronze medal win over Venezuela, as they defeated the host country by a 15-5 score in the third place game. The Tiger sophomore started all nine games at the 2010 IBAF Women's World Cup, rotating between right field, pitcher and shortstop.

Her .593 batting average (16-for-27) was the highest on Team USA and second highest amongst hitters for the entire tournament. She also was the tournament leader with 16 hits and eight doubles. She finished with 12 runs scored, seven runs batted in, was a perfect 3-for-3 on stolen bases, posted a team-best .636 on-base percentage and a slugging percentage of .889, second-highest on the team.

On the hill, Marston posted a 1-1 record with a miniscule 1.91 earned run average in three starts. In 11.0 innings pitched, she struck out six batters while holding opponents to a .211 batting average.

For her impressive showing, Marston was just one of two
