LEADING OFF...

Missouri will open up the final week of the regular season by taking on Illinois at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday at T.R. Hughes Ballpark in O'Fallon, Mo. The Tigers enter the game 25-24 on the year, while Illinois is 27-24 on the season.

The game can be heard on KTGR 1580-AM in Columbia and on ktgr.com. Live stats will also be available through Gametracker on mutigers.com.

Wednesday's game will be the second this season for Mizzou at T.R. Hughes Ballpark. Earlier this year, the Tigers defeated Saint Louis 4-0 in O'Fallon. The matchup with the Illini will be a "wood bat" game, as was the case when Missouri took on SLU.

This weekend, the Tigers will host Texas in a three-game series at Taylor Stadium to conclude the regular season. The series will begin with game one at 6:30 p.m. on Friday and will continue with games at 2 p.m. on Saturday and Noon (note time change) on Sunday. Saturday's game will air live on Fox Sports Midwest.

The Big 12 Tournament will take place May 24-28 at Bricktown Ballpark in Oklahoma City, Okla. Mizzou is currently in eighth place in the Big 12 and can clinch a spot in the Big 12 Tournament with one win against Texas this weekend. The Tigers can also qualify for the tournament if Kansas takes at least one win in its three-game series with Texas A&M this weekend.

2006 MIZZOU BASEBALL

QUICK HITS

- Mizzou's team ERA of 3.48 is third best in the Big 12 Conference.
- Junior Nathan Culp has an ERA of 3.19, which ranks sixth-best in the Big 12 Conference and his nine wins (9-5 record) is tied for the lead in the conference. He is also eighth in the Big 12 with 64 strikeouts on the season.
- Culp threw his second three-hit shutout of the season on April 28 against Baylor and is one of just two pitchers in the Big 12 to have two shutouts this season. Six pitchers in the conference have one.
- Culp was named the Big 12 Pitcher of the Week on May 2. It was the fourth time this season an MU player has been honored by the conference this season. Culp also was the Big 12 Pitcher of the Week on April 4, Junior Max Scherzer was named the Pitcher of the Week on Feb. 28 and sophomore Jacob Priday earned conference Player of the Week on March 14.
- Junior Max Scherzer's ERA of 2.22 is second best in the Big 12 Conference.
- Scherzer recorded his 200th career strikeout against Baylor on April 30. He has 58 strikeouts on the season and 212 for his career.
- Sophomore Evan Frey leads the Big 12 with a .486 on-base percentage in conference games. He is tied for fourth in the Big 12 with a .378 average in conference games and his 34 hits in Big 12 games are tied for fifth most in the conference.
- Sophomore Jacob Priday hit his team-leading 10th home run in the series finale against Mississippi Valley State, one more than his homer total from last season. He had two home runs in the series with MVSU, hitting one in the opener of the series also.
- Junior Hunter Mense had seven RBI against Mississippi Valley State on May 7. He is the first Tiger to do that since Brad Flanders did it against Coastal Carolina in February of 2004.
- Senior Taylor Parker's made his 100th appearance on the mound as a Tiger on May 7. He has 101 career appearances, just seven short of the record of 108 held by Scott Black.
- Senior Travis Wendte has made 90 appearances in his career placing him third in the Mizzou record books behind Black and Parker.
- Missouri outscored Mississippi Valley State 50-4 in the three-game series May 5-7 in Columbia.
- The Tigers won five-straight games from April 30-May 7, their longest winning streak of the season.
- Head Coach Tim Jamieson is just 11 wins away from his 400th career win. His 389 wins ranks third on MU's all-time coaching wins list behind only legendary coaches Gene McArtor (733) and John "Hi" Simmons (481).

SCOUTING ILLINOIS

Illinois enters Wednesday's game against Mizzou with a 27-24 record on the year. It is coming off a series with Indiana in which it won one of the four games.

The Illini are in tie for fifth in the Big Ten Conference with Purdue with a 13-15 record in conference play. UI will take on Michigan State this weekend in the final series before the Big Ten Tournament.

Illinois is hitting .304 as a team, led by Ryan Snowden's .333 average. Seven UI players are hitting over .300 on the season.

The Illini pitching staff has an ERA of 5.58. Wednesday's probable starter, Luke Obukowicz is 1-0 on the season with a 2.79 ERA.

Last year, Illinois won its first Big Ten regular season title since 1996, finishing 20-12 in conference play and breaking the school record for league wins in a season. It was 33-23-1 overall on the year.

Richard "Itch" Jones, who as named the Big Ten Coach of the Year for the second time last year, retired after the season. He compiled a record of 1,240-751-6 in his 39 total years coaching, including 15 as the Illini head coach.

Dan Hartle, who had spent the past 15 years as an assistant coach at Illinois, took over as head coach this season.

LAST YEAR VS. ILLINOIS

MISSOURI 6, ILLINOIS 2

MAY 18, 2005

O'FALLON, Mo. - The No. 20 Missouri baseball team took a 6-2 win over Illinois last year in a wood bat game at T.R. Hughes Ballpark in O'Fallon, Mo. Junior Jacob Priday led the Tigers at the plate with four hits on the night.

Illinois took the first lead of the game, as the second batter to the plate in the bottom of the first, Ryan Rogowski connected on a two-run homer.

Mizzou scored its first run in 12 innings, as junior Greg O'Neill dropped down a bunt driving in junior James Boone on the squeeze play.

The first three MU batters in the top of the fourth reached safely and two would score to give the Tigers the 3-2 lead. Sophomore Hunter Mense drew a lead off walk and freshman Jacob Priday followed with a single. Mense scored on a balk by UI starter Brandon Murphy and Priday scored when junior Greg O'Neill reached on an error.

The Illini threatened in the bottom of the sixth, loading the bases on three infield hits. But sophomore Nathan Culp, working in relief, got out of the jam with a strikeout and a ground out.

Culp took the win to move to 8-2 on the year and junior Doug Mathis pitched a scoreless final three innings to pick up his first save of the season.

Missouri puts some insurance runs on the board with two runs in the top of the seventh, both coming with two outs in the inning. Chambers scored on a wild pitch and Mense scored on a single by Priday.

The Tigers added their sixth run in the ninth, as Priday drove in Boone with a single. Priday finished the night 4-for-5 with two RBI and a run scored.

Chambers and Boone each had two hits on the night for the Tigers.

LAST TIME OUT

Texas Tech recorded a sweep of the three-game series between Mizzou and the Red Raiders last weekend in Lubbock, Texas.

TTU opened the weekend with a 13-1 win on Friday. Tech took control of the game with a seven-run sixth inning on its way to the victory.

On Saturday, the Red Raiders scored three runs in the bottom of the ninth inning to overcome a 4-2 Tiger lead to take game two of the series. Junior Max Scherzer matched his longest outing of the season with seven innings pitched, allowing just one run on five hits, but taking a no decision.

Texas Tech completed the sweep with a 3-2 win on Sunday, scoring what would be the winning run in the bottom of the eighth inning.

ON TAP

The regular season will conclude this weekend as Texas visits Taylor Stadium for a three-game series getting underway at 6:30 p.m. on Friday. Saturday's game is at 2 p.m. and will air live on Fox Sports Midwest. Sunday's game will begin at noon [NOTE TIME CHANGE].

The Tigers need one win to clinch a spot in the Big 12 Tournament. Texas is 19-4 in the Big 12 this season and has already clinched the regular season conference title.

The Big 12 Tournament begins May 24 at Bricktown Ballpark in Oklahoma City, Okla.

CULP SHUTS 'EM DOWN

Missouri junior lefty Nathan Culp recorded his second shutout of the season with a 7-0 win over Baylor on April 28 at Taylor Stadium.

Culp is one of just two pitchers in the Big 12 Conference to throw multiple shutouts this season. He earned his second Big 12 Pitcher of Week honor following that performance.

He struck out seven and gave up just three hits, while walking none against Baylor.

Culp allowed just one hit through eight innings and the lone baserunner between the fourth and eighth innings reached on an error.

It was the second shutout of the season for Culp, who blanked Kansas on March 31 in Lawrence. That was also a three-hit shutout, as he struck out five Jayhawks in that game and was named the Big 12 Conference Co-Pitcher of the Week for that performance.

Culp faced the minimum through 7.2 innings against KU, as the only two baserunners to reach up to that point were erased on double plays.

He struck out five and walked just one, picking up his team-leading sixth win of the season.

Culp did record a seven-inning shutout over North Dakota State in 2005 in a game that was called after seven innings due to a run rule in effect.

He is tied for the league lead with nine wins (9-5) on the season and his 3.19 ERA is sixth best in the conference.

TGI-PRIDAY

Sophomore Jacob Priday hit his team-best 10th home run on May 7 against Mississippi Valley State, which moved him past his mark of nine homers last season.

He had a pair of home runs in the MVSU series, hitting one on Friday night also. His 10 home runs is tied for eighth most in the Big 12.

Priday had a 14-game hitting streak snapped with an 0-for-4 outing on April 23 against Oklahoma State. The streak was a career long for Priday and is the longest streak by a Tiger this season. Zane Taylor and Evan Frey each had 11-game streaks this year.

On Friday, Feb. 24, sophomore Jacob Priday turned in a 5-for-6 performance to help lead Mizzou to a 14-5 win over then-No. 1 Florida. It was Priday's second career five-hit game.

Ironically, his second career five-hit game came nearly a year to the day after his first. He was 5-for-6 against Navy on Feb. 25, 2005, driving in four runs and scoring four times.

On Feb. 24, 2006, Priday was again 5-for-6, driving in three runs and scoring twice.

For the weekend at the Pepsi Baseball Classic, Priday was 7-for-12 (.583), with three doubles and four RBI, earning him a spot on the All-Tournament Team.

On March 14, Priday was named the Big 12 Conference Player of the Week, after he hit .533 with two home runs and 11 RBI in the four games the previous week.

Priday was 3-for-4 and drove in a career-high six runs in the Tigers 22-2 win over Purdue in the second game of the three-game series.

MAX TRAX

Injuries have forced All-American Max Scherzer to miss five starts this season, including four in Big 12 Conference play.

Scherzer made his first weekend start in nearly a month on May 6 against Mississippi Valley State. He struck out seven in six innings pitched against MVSU, taking the win to improve to 5-1 on the season.

The previous weekend, he pitched 4.0 innings in relief against Baylor and picked up his first win since a victory over Wisconsin-Milwaukee on March 3.

Scherzer struck out six against Baylor, allowing just one unearned run on three hits. His fifth strikeout in the game was the 200th of his career.

He is currently second in the Big 12 Conference with a 2.22 ERA.

In his first appearance of the year under the Taylor Stadium lights, he struck out nine batters in five innings pitched and recorded the win against UW-Milwaukee, his third in as many starts.

Scherzer was named the Big 12 Conference Pitcher of the Week on Feb. 28 after leading the Tigers to a victory over No. 1 Florida on Feb. 24.

In the win against Florida, he struck out eight in seven innings, allowing just one run on only three hits to record his second victory in a many starts.

Scherzer, who was the Big 12 Conference Pitcher of the Year and a second team All-American last year has already begun to receive honors this year.

Scherzer was named a first team preseason All-American by all major collegiate baseball publications.

He was also been named to the preseason watch list for the Roger Clemens Award, which is awarded to the nation's top pitcher. Scherzer was one of 10 semifinalists for the Clemens Awards in 2005.

Scherzer is also on the Wallace Award preseason watch list, which recognizes the nation's top player and is another award he was a semifinalists for last season.

Last season, he led the Big 12 with 131 strikeouts and a 1.82 ERA. The 131 strikeouts is a new school record, passing John Dettmer's 127 K's in 1991.

He spent last summer with Team USA, where he had pitches clocked as high as 99 miles per hour.

SUPER SOPHOMORE

Frey leads the Big 12 Conference with a .486 on-base percentage in conference games and is tied for fifth in the Big 12 with 34 hits in league games this season.

Against Southeast Missouri State on April 26, Frey had a career-high four hits to take his average back to the .400 mark.

He had an 11-game hitting streak snapped, as he went 0-for-2 against SEMO on March 29. During the streak, Frey hit .463, drove in nine runs, had two triples and a double.

He had five multi-hit games during the streak, including four games in which he had three hits.

2006 MIZZOU BASEBALL

TAYLOR MADE HITTING

Senior Zane Taylor has been one of MU's most consistent hitters this season, hitting .330 on the year.

He recorded his 200th hit as a Tiger against Southeast Missouri State on April 12.

Taylor had an 11-game hitting streak snapped with an 0-for-3 outing in the series finale against Wisconsin-Milwaukee on March 5. His career-long hitting streak was a 13-game streak coming in 2004.

After opening the year with a 0-3 outing in the season opener against East Tennessee State, Taylor had a hit in each of the next 11 games, including eight games in which he has had multiple hits.

Taylor also has drawn 29 walks this season, which is tied for sixth best in the Big 12.

TAKING DOWN NO. 1

Mizzou defeated No. 1 Florida on Feb. 24 in Gainesville, Fla. 14-5, knocking off a No. 1 team for the first time since it defeated then-No. 1 Texas, 8-0 on May 1, 2004.

The win over Texas was actually the second-straight victory over UT for the Tigers, who recorded a 4-1 win the night before.

In the win over the Gators, Missouri pounded out a season-high 22 hits, the most since it recorded 26 hits against Navy (2/25/05).

Sophomore Jacob Priday was 5-for-6 against UF, and the top two in the Tiger lineup (Trevor Helms and Zane Taylor) were a combined 8-for-11. Helms 4-for-6 and Taylor finished 4-for-5.

Junior Max Scherzer kept Florida in check all night, striking out eight in seven innings pitched. He allowed one run on just three hits to the top-ranked Gators.

Mizzou led 14-1 before UF scored two runs in the bottom of the eighth and added a pair of runs in the ninth inning.

DID I CATCH A NINER IN THERE?

In Mizzou's win over Southeast Missouri State on April 26, the Tigers held a 5-3 lead heading into the ninth inning. Nine runs later, MU had blown the game wide open.

Missouri scored nine times in the ninth inning, with seven of those runs coming before the first out of the inning was recorded.

Below is the play-by-play for MU's half of the ninth:

- Frey singled to left field.
- Bond singled, bunt; Frey advanced to second.
- Taylor tripled to right field, 2 RBI; Bond scored; Frey scored.
- Priday homered, 2 RBI; Taylor scored.
- Chambers doubled, ground-rule.
- Mach walked.
- Lollis homered, 3 RBI; Mach scored; Chambers scored.
- Pietroburgo struck out.
- Arndt walked.
- Frey singled through the right side; Arndt advanced to third.
- Bond singled through the right side, RBI; Frey advanced to second; Arndt scored.
- Bond advanced to second on a wild pitch; Frey advanced to third on a wild pitch.
- Taylor singled, RBI; Bond advanced to third; Frey scored.
- Cales flied out to cf.
- LeBlanc lined out to cf.

HEAD COACH TIM JAMIESON NEW ORLEANS, '81 12TH YEAR AT MIZZOU (389-286-2)

The third-winningest coach in Mizzou Baseball history, Tim Jamieson is in his 12th season as the head coach of the Tigers, making him the second-longest tenured coach in the Big 12 Conference. Jamieson's 389 career wins rank behind only legendary MU coaches John "Hi" Simmons and Gene McArtor, both of whom have their numbers retired.

A native of Columbia, Jamieson grew up attending Tiger games. After his playing days at the University of New Orleans, he spent six seasons on the UNO coaching staff before returning to Columbia in 1988. He spent six seasons as an assistant coach under McArtor before becoming the head coach following the 1994 season.

During his time leading the Tigers, Missouri has been a force to reckon with in the Big 12 Conference and nationally; recording at least 30 wins in nine of the last 10 seasons. Missouri has advanced to the NCAA Tournament four times under Jamieson, including each of the last three seasons. MU is one of just two Big 12 Conference teams that have advanced to the last three NCAA Tournaments, with Texas being the other.

Under Jamieson, Missouri has had five student-athletes named All-America and eight have earned Freshman All-American accolades. Jamieson has seen 32 of his players selected in the Major League Baseball Draft during his 11 years leading MU. His teams have also succeeded in the classroom, as eight Academic All-Americans have played under Jamieson and 51 Tigers have earned Academic All-Conference recognition since 1995.

Jamieson was chosen to serve as an assistant coach for Team USA last summer, helping the National Team to a 16-4 record as they traveled to Japan and Taiwan, in addition to playing games in the states. He was accompanied by Missouri players Max Scherzer and Hunter Mense on Team USA, the first National Team representatives for MU since 1991.

Jamieson took over the reins of the Tigers when McArtor, whose 733 wins is the most in school history, retired from coaching after the 1994 season. In just his second season at the helm, Jamieson led the Tigers to 1996 Big Eight Conference crown, as Missouri went 39-19 and 20-8 in the Big Eight after being projected to finish seventh in the conference by most publications. Jamieson was named the Big Eight Conference Coach of the Year that season.

That year the Tigers climbed as high as 17th in the national polls, marking the first time they had been ranked since 1991, and advanced to the NCAA Midwest Regional. In winning the regular season race, Mizzou became the first school other than Oklahoma State and Oklahoma to claim the conference title in 16 years.

Jamieson would lead the Tigers to 30-win seasons in each of the next five seasons as they would make a pair of trips to the Big 12 Tournament semifinals during that stretch.

In 2003, the Tigers finished fourth in the Big 12 Conference and received a bid to the NCAA Regionals, the first of three-consecutive trips to the postseason. Mizzou compiled a record of 36-22 on the year and at one point were ranked as high as No. 19 in the nation by Collegiate Baseball and finished the year ranked 12th in the nation in scoring.

Another 30-win season and a second-straight trip to the NCAA Regionals highlighted the 2004 campaign, as the Tigers finished with 38 wins, the most since the 1996 season. Missouri claimed series victories over Texas, Nebraska and Oklahoma State and reached the championship game of the Big 12 Tournament in Arlington, Texas.

Missouri surpassed that win total last season, by reaching the 40-win mark for the first time under Jamieson and for the first time since 1991. MU finished fourth in the Big 12 regular season for the second time in three years and advanced to the semifinals of the conference tournament before advancing to their third-consecutive NCAA Tournament. It was the 17th trip to the NCAA Tournament in school history and the fourth under Jamieson. The Tigers finished ranked No. 21 in the nation by Baseball America.

Success was also part of Jamieson's time away from MU. He was a member of three NCAA Tournament clubs and was selected to the 1980 All-NCAA South Regional Team as a standout catcher at New Orleans from 1978-81. He was named the team's most valuable player after his senior season, as he hit .300 with eight home runs and 68 RBI, in leading the Privateers to the NCAA Midwest Regional.

After his playing days, he spent six seasons as an assistant coach at UNO where he was instrumental in guiding the Privateers to four NCAA Regional appearances (1984, 1985, 1987, 1988) and a spot in the 1984 College World Series in Omaha, Neb.

MU roots run deep in his family as his father, Dick Jamieson was a former offensive coordinator under football coach Al Onofrio. The elder Jamieson also spent several years in the National Football League. His brother, Jeff, is a graduate of Missouri's School of Law and his sister, Judi, also attended MU.

Jamieson received his bachelor's and master's degrees in business administration from New Orleans.

A graduate of Rock Bridge High (Columbia), Jamieson is married to the former Cindy Thornton (RBHS, '77) of Columbia, Mo. They are the parents of two sons, Mickey (8) and Ty (7).

DOMINATING THE DEVILS

Mizzou picked up its first home series sweep of the season May 5-7 against Mississippi Valley State. The Tigers outscored MVSU 50-4 in the three games, scoring in double figures and holding the Delta Devils to two or fewer runs in each game.

As a team, Missouri hit .427, while holding Mississippi Valley to a .126 mark. The Tigers hit six home runs over the weekend and out-hit the Devils 50-11.

The Tigers' pitching staff had an ERA of 1.33 over the weekend, while MVSU's team ERA was 17.62. The MU bullpen did not allow a run in 10 innings pitched, allowing just two hits.

MIZZOU IN THE POLLS

Mizzou received its highest ever preseason ranking, when Baseball America picked the Tigers No. 10 in its poll. It marked only the second time MU had appeared in the preseason poll and the first since it was No. 19 in 1983. Missouri was No. 21 in the final Baseball America poll last year.

MIZZOU WELL REPRESENTED ON TEAM USA

Mizzou Head Coach Tim Jamieson was selected to serve as an assistant coach on the USA Baseball National Team last summer and was joined by two of his Tiger players.

Juniors Max Scherzer and Hunter Mense were also selected to the squad, marking the first Team USA selections for MU since 1991.

The National Team went 16-4 over the summer, playing games in Japan and Taiwan, along with hosting teams from around the world stateside.

Scherzer made four appearances, including two starts, and was 2-1 for Team USA with a 2.70 ERA and 24 strikeouts in 20 innings of work.

Mense made the team after a very impressive showing at the trials. He played in 17 games for Team USA, hitting .259 with a home run, two triples and two doubles.
