MIZZOU OPENS SEC PLAY AT OLE MISS

Mizzou Women's Basketball returns to action on Jan. 2 in Oxford, Miss. against the Ole Miss Rebels. The Tigers are 1-1 against Ole Miss in school history, with the last meeting coming last season in Oxford as well. The Tigers topped the Rebels 73-72 in overtime thanks to a last second free throw from Sydney Crafton.

UP NEXT

The Tigers open up SEC play at home on Sunday, hosting the Arkansas Razorbacks in a 2 p.m. contest. The Mizzou juniors, Bree Fowler and Morgan Eye will sign autographs following the game, and Mizzou will host Family Funday on the main concourse beginning at 1 p.m.

LOOKING AT THE REBELS

The Rebels are 9-5 on the season under first year head coach, Matt Insell. The team will see the Tigers after a 99-69 victory over Austin Peay to close out their non-conference slate. The Rebels are led by junior Tia Faleru, who averages 16.8 points and 10.2 rebounds per game. Valencia McFarland is also averaging just over 16 points per game for Ole Miss. Faleru shared SEC Player of the Week honors with Mizzou senior Bri Kulas earlier this season as she put up her fourth double-double of the season and averaged 18.5 points per game through the previous week.

LAST TIME OUT

• The Tigers assisted on over half of their field goals in the contest and also spread the scoring around. The game marks the eighth time in 13 games that the Tigers had at least three players score at least 10 points.

• Morgan Eye hit six three-pointers to lead the Tigers with 22 points in the game.

QUICK HITS

• With an 11-2 record in non-conference play, the Tigers have gained momentum leading to conference play. Among Tiger victories this season, Mizzou is holding its opponents to just 58.5 points per game with an average scoring margin of +20.1 points. Mizzou averages 5.6 blocks per game in winning contests and also outrebounds opponents by an average of 8.2 rebounds per game.

• The Tigers are 2-2 on the road this season, looking to improve to 3-2 on Thursday. Mizzou is very good from the free throw line in unfamiliar territory, shooting 88.2 percent from the charity stripe on the road.

• As the team, the Tigers aim for 80-percent free-throw shooting during practices and in games. Mizzou is now shooting 77.2-percent from the line this season, just under its season goal. That mark leads the SEC and checks in at 11th nationally. Six players are shooting 70-percent or better and Mizzou's leader in total free throws – Bri Kulas – is arguably the team's top shooter from the line, checking in at 83.6-percent (51-of-61).

• Under fourth-year head coach Robin Pingeton, Mizzou is continuing to play great team basketball. That is evidenced by Mizzou's 17.9 assists per game (fourth in the SEC and 24th nationally) and its 1.1 assist/turnover ratio, which ranks fifth in the SEC and 47th nationally.

• This season the Tigers are averaging 5.2 blocks per game, a number that ranks second in the SEC and 25th in the nation. The number is much improved from last season when the Tigers averaged 2.3 blocks per game. Freshman Jordan Frericks is dominating in this category, she leads the team with 28 blocks on the season, good for an average of 2.2 per game (third-best in the SEC).

• The Tiger staff is stressing a defensive mindset this season, and Missouri's numbers are showing it. The Tigers are amongst leaders in the SEC (second) in defensive rebounding at 30.8 per game and lead the league in defensive rebounding percentage at 73.5.

• Mizzou continues to show quality depth off the bench this season as the team is averaging 27.5 points per game off the pine. Three different players average at least 6.0 points per game off the bench this season, led by 8.3 from sophomore Morgan Stock. Mizzou has a +9.8 average per game off the bench this season. Over one-third of the Tigers' scoring comes from off the bench this season.

GOING THE DISTANCE

• Mizzou's record 18 3-pointers in the win over Bradley help to give Mizzou 10.2 three-point makes per game this season, a mark that leads the SEC while ranking third nationally. Mizzou is the only team in the SEC that has four players with 20 or more 3-pointers made this season. Morgan Eye leads the way with 42 makes from distance.

• In fact, over two games (vs. Bradley, Oral Roberts), Mizzou connected on 35 total shots from distance, the second-best two-game span in program history. Florida Gulf Coast hit 37 3-pointers in back-to-back games against Webber International and East Tennessee State in 2012 and that is the only case in NCAA history in which a team has hit more 3-pointers in back-to-back games than Mizzou did in its last two contests.

• Looking deeper into the 3-point shooting numbers, Mizzou has connected on 13 shots from deep in six different games this season and own the SEC's top five 3-point shooting games (by makes) in the SEC this season.

• Last year, it was Morgan Eye that did most of the damage for Mizzou from distance, but this season she is joined in the 3-point barrage by sophomore twins Morgan and Maddie Stock. The St. Louis natives are putting up incredible numbers from distance this season. They combine to average 13.9 points per game on 36-percent shooting from distance. Morgan has 27 3-pointers on the season while Maddie has 21.

PROTECT THIS HOUSE

• Mizzou has opened the 2013-14 season with an unblemished 7-0 record at home this season. The 7-0 start comes a year removed from last season when Mizzou opened 11-0 at home. Looking at the stats, it is easy to see why. Below is a look at why Mizzou has been successful at home

-Mizzou has eight players averaging at least 4.0 points per game in home contests this season and four averaging at least 9.6 ppg.

-The Tigers are averaging 5.6 blocks per game at home this season, ahead of their 5.2 clip for the season, which is ranked second in the SEC and 25th in the nation.

-Mizzou is holding opponents to just 58.2 points per game and 33.5-percent shooting in home games this season.

-Opponents have just a 0.4 assist-to-turnover ratio inside Mizzou Arena as the Tigers have turned the opponent over 143 times while assisting on just 59 of 151 field goals (38-percent).

-Conversely, Mizzou has assisted on 152 of 235 field goals (64.6-percent) of field goals at home.

-Mizzou is limiting its opponents to just 22.8-percent shooting from 3-point range at home this season.

2013-14 Mizzou Women's Basketball

RECORD WATCH

• The Tigers opened the season 10-1, equalling the 2011-12 team. The record equals the program's best start to a season since 2006-07 when Mizzou started 12-1.

• The Tigers are undefeated on their home court this season, looking to extend their homecourt winning streak to nine against Arkansas. The Tigers average scoring margin is +22.5 in Columbia so far this season.

• Sophomore Lianna Doty is just 16 assists shy of breaking into the top ten all-time assists leaders at Mizzou. Doty boasts 235 assists in her career and needs just 251 to break into the top ten.

• Head Coach Robin Pingeton earned her 50th victory at Mizzou in the Tigers win over Hartford at the University of Miami Thanksgiving Tournament. The Tigers' victory over SIUE marks women's basketball's 90th victory in Mizzou Arena.

• The Tigers game against Bradley was one of the most exciting games to date. Mizzou reset school records in points (126), points in a half (65) and 3-pointers (18) while seven players scored in double-figures in a 126-55 win.

KUDOS FOR KULAS

• Senior leader Bri Kulas leads the Tigers in several categories this season. She is averaging a team leading 17.2 points per game, good for second-best in the Southeastern Conference.

• Kulas is shooting 83.6-percent from the free throw line, good for second-best in the league as well. She plays a huge part in Missouri's league-leading 77.2 free throw percentage as well.

• She has recorded double figure scoring in all but two games this season (SLU/MSU) including four 20+ point performances.

FRERICKS ON FIRE

• A large component of Missouri's 5.2 blocks per game is freshman Jordan Frericks. She dominating in this category, leading the team with 28 blocks on the season, good for an average of 2.2 per game (second-best in the SEC). The number puts her at No. 40 in the nation as well.

• Frericks' seven blocked shots at UT Martin are an SEC Game high this season, as well. In fact, she owns the top two performances in the SEC this season with her six steals against Belmont.

• Jordan Frericks is doing her part to contribute to the defensive-minded team this season as she leads the team and ranks among the top in the league with an average of 6.1 defensive rebounds per game. Her 8.6 rebounds per game also put her among the league's top ten. Missouri is second the SEC in defensive rebounding at 30.8 per game.

ON POINT

• Mizzou's primary two point guards – Lianna Doty and Lindsey Cunningham – are doing a great job of running the Tiger offense this season. The two have combined for 113 assists and just 63 turnovers, good. The duo was sensational against Bradley, posting 14 assists and just two turnovers while Cunningham finished with a career-high nine assists.

• In her second year running the team as the point guard, sophomore Lianna Doty is doing a great job. Evidence of that is her improved assist-to-turnover ratio. Last year she checked in at 1.0 with 151 assists and 151 turnovers, but this season she checks in at 1.9 with 84 assists and just 44 turnovers. She has also ripped 29 steals this season.

• Doty is second in the SEC in assists with 6.5 per game and is 10th in assist/turnover ratio. Doty put up a season high 10 assists against UMKC.

• At this rate, Doty is on track to finish second on Missouri's all-time individual season assists list. She put up a career-high 21 points against UMKC and matched her best of six steals in the game as well.

• Doty Was driven to succeed this summer as she inspired her team to participate in a 25,000-shot challenge in their free time this summer. The work is paying off for Doty as she has improved her shooting percentage this season.

SHARING IS CARING

• The Tigers are playing unselfish basketball this season, as the team has assisted on 233-of-352 field goals (66.1%). The Tigers average 17.9 assists per game thanks to sophomore point guard Lianna Doty who leads the team with 84 assists on the season.

• Mizzou's 17.9 assists per game rank the Tigers fourth in the league and 24th in the nation.

• Five Tigers are averaging more than seven points per game this season, and two Tigers, Kulas and Eye, are averaging double figure scoring numbers.

• In eight games this season, three or more players have scored at least 10 points for Mizzou.

KULAS NAMED SEC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Senior forward Bri Kulas was named SEC Co-Player of the Week on Monday (Nov. 25) by the league office. The award comes after Kulas recorded a career performance to top Southeast Missouri and also secured the win over UT Martin with two last-second free throws. The award is the first for Kulas in her career at Mizzou. Kulas averaged 21.5 points per game last week, recording a career-high 27 points in Mizzou's win over SEMO last Thursday. She again reached double-figures at UT Martin and knocked down two last-second free throws to secure the win for the Tigers. She finished the week with 13 rebounds and six assists, as well. Kulas is averaging a team-leading 16.2 points per game this season.

TIGERS ADD TWO FOR 2014-15

Missouri natives Carrie Shephard and Abrianna Porter have signed national letters of intent to join the Mizzou squad next season.

CARRIE SHEPHARD // 5-6 // G // STEELE, MO. (SOUTH PEMISCOT HIGH SCHOOL)

• Native of Steele, Mo., Carrie Shephard will join the Tigers after finishing her career at South Pemiscot High School. Shephard was named 2013 MBCA Class 2 Player of the Year, and reached 1,000 points during her sophomore season. Shooting 51-percent from the floor, she averaged 35 points per game, 7.0 assists, 9.6 rebounds and 4.5 steals per game in her junior year, leading up to Class 2 Player of the Year honors. This season she is the Varsity Captain of the South Pemiscot Bulldogs, and she is a two-time All-State selection. She is also a two-time all-Region, All-District and All-Conference selection as well. In addition to basketball, Shephard is very active at South Pemiscot as she plays softball and volleyball, earning All-Conference honors in both sports as well. She has spent the last six years as Student Class President, and she is a member of the National Honor Society. Boasting a 3.875 grade point average, Shephard is as talented in the classroom as she is on the court.

ABRIANNA PORTER // 6-2 // F // COLUMBIA, MO. (ROCK BRIDGE HIGH SCHOOL)

• Abrianna Porter will join the Tigers after finishing her high school career under Rock Bridge head coach Jill Nagel. Porter is a highly touted recruit, sitting at No. 41 on ESPNU Hoop Gurlz 100. She is also ranked No. 40 by Premier Girls Basketball Report. She was awarded All-District honors in her freshman and sophomore seasons, and was named to the Jeff City Jays Holiday Classic All-Tournament team in 2010. She also earned All-Tournament honors in 2011 at the KTXR Lady Classic, and led her team shooting 61-percent from the floor that season. Porter is just as highly touted in the classroom as she is on the court. She is an Advanced Placement Scholar with Distinction award winner and a National Merit Semi-finalist as well, and she boasts a 3.97 grade point average.

EXHIBITION NOTES

• Missouri's five newcomers accounted for 30 of Mizzou's 79 points against Southwest Baptist. Leading the newcomers was freshman Jordan Frericks who put up a 16 points and shot 86-percent from the field.

• Senior Bri Kulas picked up where she left off last season, recording 16 points and 11 rebounds against Southwest Baptist, which would've been her sixth career double-double at Mizzou. She reached double figures again against Quincy as she tallied 11 points.

• Sophomore Morgan Stock went 4-for-6 on the floor against Southwest Baptist and racked up what would be a career-best 11 points. It was twin sister, Maddie Stock's turn against Quincy, however. Maddie Stock also went 4-for-6 from the field, all of which came from beyond the arc, for a team-leading 12 points in the game.

• Missouri had nine players put points on the board against both SW Baptist, five of which hit double figures. Nine players also hit double figures against Quincy, but Bri Kulas was the only Tiger to do so in both contests.

• Freshman Kayla McDowell grabbed 10 rebounds against Quincy, good for a game high mark. She was just two points away from a double-double as she knocked in four of nine shots on the night.

2012-13 SEASON SUPERLATIVES

• The Tigers' 88-64 win at Alabama last season marked Mizzou's 17th win this season. That is the most for Mizzou since the 2006-07 season when the team went 17-14 overall, earning a berth in the WNIT Tournament. The Tigers earned six conference wins last season as well, marking the first time they have done that since the 2005-06 season when Mizzou finished 10-6 in Big 12 play.

• The Tigers' 65-58 win over No. 14 South Carolina marked their second win over a top-15 program last season. The last time Mizzou won a pair of games over top-15 competition was the 2000-01 season when Mizzou advanced to the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16. Mizzou defeated No. 12 Texas and No. 4 Georgia that season.

• The Tigers continue to show improvement as a team under the direction of fourth-year head coach Robin Pingeton. Last season, the Tigers improved on their 2011-12 stats in several categories. Mizzou finished with an improved field goal percentage (.416), more rebounds per game (38.8), more points per game (65.6), more assists per game (15.4), fewer turnovers, more 3-point field goals (8.2 per game) and more steals (6.7 per game). Mizzou also outscored its opponents in a full season for the first time since the 2009-10 season.

• The Tigers' win over No. 9 Tennessee marked the first time since Jan. 23, 2010 that a Mizzou team has defeated a top 10 opponent. In 2010 the Tigers knocked down No. 10 Baylor, 70-62.

2013-14 SEC PRESEASON COACHES POLL

SEC coaches voted on a predicted order of finish, overall champion and a preseason Player of the Year. Tennessee was predicted to win the regular season championship with 167 votes. Missouri was chosen to finish ninth in the league. The Tigers tied for eighth overall to close out the 2012-13 season.

MIZZOU 74, SAINT LOUIS 59

St. Louis, Mo. - Women's Basketball earned its first win of the season at Saint Louis on Friday evening (Nov. 8). The Tigers sailed to a 74-59 victory over the Billikens, led by freshman Kayla McDowell. Earning her first-career double-double, McDowell finished with 19 points and 10 rebounds for Mizzou. Overall, Mizzou's crop of four newcomers accounted for 34 points in tonight's victory.

McDowell earned the start in the season opening contest and did not disappoint as she put up a team-leading seven points in the first half and grabbed four defensive rebounds. Freshman Jordan Frericks was also a defensive asset, tallying six rebounds in the first half. Missouri dominated in the lane as the Tigers hit 18 points in the paint to the Billikens' four in the first half.

Missouri defense started off strong, as the Tigers held off the Billikens for the first four minutes of the game. Mizzou led Saint Louis 4-0 to start off the game, and held the lead until close to halftime. Saint Louis' Sadie Stipanovich, daughter of Mizzou great, Steve Stipanovich, hit a jumper with just over two minutes in the half to bring the Billikens within two. A breakaway layup for the Billikens tied things up at 32 less than 30 seconds later. Junior Morgan Eye took control of the situation and put Mizzou back in the lead with a clutch three-pointer.

Mizzou held on to the lead through the second half with McDowell and Frericks continuing to show their strength on the floor. Frericks finished the game just one point away from her first-career double double. The Billikens kept the pressure on the Tigers in the second half, but the Tigers capitalized on Saint Louis fouls, making 21 of 23 shots from the charity stripe in the game. Junior Bree Fowler turned it on in the second half, stepping into more of a leadership role as she scored all seven of her game points after the halftime break.

MIZZOU 59, SIUE 48

Columbia, Mo. - Mizzou Women's Basketball opened the 2013-14 home slate Sunday, earning a 59-48 victory over SIUE at Mizzou Arena to improve to 2-0 on the season. Forwards Bri Kulas and Jordan Frericks scored the first 10 points for Mizzou to start the second half, helping the Tigers pull away and establish a double-digit lead and coast to a home-opening win.

Sophomore Morgan Stock came off the bench in the second game of the season, knocking down two three-pointers and a jump shot to give the Tigers a quick 13-11 advantage in the first half. She finished the game with a career-high 15 points behind a 5-for-10 effort from the field.

The Tigers and the Cougars traded baskets for most of the first half until Mizzou put together a 7-0 run with seven minutes left. Sophomore point guard Lianna Doty assisted on two transition buckets and Kulas followed with a long ball to give the Tigers a 22-15 lead. Doty tallied eight assists, seven rebounds and four steals in 35 productive minutes of play.

After shooting 16 three-pointers in the first twenty minutes, Missouri chose to attack the paint in the second half. The Tiger bigs combined for 21 of the team's 32 second-half points. SIUE switched to a zone defense and challenged Missouri's guards to step up; Morgan Stock capitalized. Her third three-pointer of the afternoon handed her team a 50-37 lead with just under eight minutes to play and the Tigers never looked back.

Kulas posted a game-high 16 points, providing the Tigers with a lethal inside-outside attack down the stretch. She sealed the deal with a bucket 2:30 mark for a final score of 59-48. The Tigers improved to 2-0 on the young season.

MIZZOU 78, EVANSVILLE 43

Columbia, Mo. - Hot shooting from beyond the arc propelled the Missouri Women's basketball team to a 78-43 win over the Evansville Purple Aces on Thursday at Mizzou Arena. The victory is the Tigers third straight to start the season.

A heavy dose of Bri Kulas in the opening minutes helped Missouri grab an early 11-7 lead. The senior captain scored nine of the team's first 11 points. After drilling a contested three-pointer, she blocked a shot on the ensuing defensive possession. From then on, Evansville began double-teaming Kulas, allowing her to dish to fellow forward Jordan Frericksfor an easy lay-up.

With so much attention being focused on the post, Missouri's sharpshooters found open looks from long range. Morgan Stock buried two quick three-pointers off the bench and Tania Jacksonnailed her first trey ball of the season to give the Tigers a 21-9 advantage with 12 minutes left in the first half.

Mizzou poured in 15 total three-pointers and rode 45-percent shooting from the field to sustain its lead throughout the game. Seven different Tigers made a shot from beyond the arc. Freshman Sierra Michaelisgot in on the action in the second half. Her back-to-back long balls with 11 minutes to go handed Missouri a 27-point lead. She finished with a career-high 10 points.

Stock tallied 15 points behind five three-pointers, matching her performance from Sunday's win over SIUE. Missouri's bench contributed 43 points, good for more than half of the team's total.

Despite the efficient shooting from the Tiger guards, the post players led the way in scoring. Frericks earned her first career double-double with 11 points and 13 rebounds. Kulas added a team-high 16 points.

Thursday, Nov. 21 // 7 p.m.

MIZZOU 62, SEMO 57

Columbia, Mo. - The Missouri Women's Basketball team opened up the second half with a 17-4 run, and held off a late SEMO rally to earn a 62-57 victory Thursday at Mizzou Arena. Senior Bri Kulas posted a career-high 27 points on 10-19 shooting en route to the Tigers fourth straight win to start the 2013-2014 campaign.

Missouri cruised past Evansville last week with efficient shooting from long range and this week the Tigers showed their versatility by overwhelming SEMO down low. The Redhawks had no answer down the stretch as Mizzou scored 20 points in the paint in the second half to earn the gritty win. Two Redhawks forwards spent most of the night in foul trouble, a byproduct of Kulas and company attacking the basket en route easy buckets.

Kulas, a senior, set the tone early, recording each of Missouri's first eight points. However, SEMO battled back behind hot shooting from Kara Wright. The sophomore guard scored a team-high 26 points. She hit four three-pointers in the first half, allowing the Redhawks to build a 32-23 lead at halftime.

Mizzou flipped the script in the second half. The Tigers pulled within one after a Kulas layup with just under 15 minutes to go. On the ensuing possession, Missouri's pressure defense forced a turnover. Kulas capitalized, netting a jumper on the offensive end to hand the Tigers the lead. Freshmen forwards Kayla McDowell and Jordan Frericks followed with back-to-back buckets and SEMO never led again. McDowell and Frericks combined for 15 points and 11 rebounds to complement Kulas' big night and after hitting four treys in the first half, Wright would not get off another attempt from deep in the second half.

With two minutes left, the Redhawks closed the gap, clipping Missouri's lead to 60-57. But Maddie Stock and Bree Fowler iced the game with clutch free throws to help the Tigers improve to 4-0 on the season.

MIZZOU 77, UT MARTIN 74

Martin, Tenn. - Morgan Eye hit eight three-pointers in the second half to spark a 77-74 comeback win for the Tigers at Tennessee-Martin on Saturday night (Nov. 23). Freshman Jordan Frericks clinched the win for the Tigers with just 1.5 seconds on the clock as the Tigers and the Skyhawks traded baskets within the last few seconds of play. Bri Kulas hit two last-second free throws to secure the victory and Missouri improves to 5-0 on the season.

Eye hit nine threes in the game and tallied 27 points overall to give the Tigers their fifth win of the season. Frericks recorded her second double-double of the season with 10 points and 17 rebounds as well. Kulas also finished in double-figures for her fourth straight game with a total of 16 points on the night.

Eye sparked a second half run for the Tigers as she hit three three-pointers in a row to help build momentum. Lianna Doty added another three for the Tigers to bring Mizzou within seven points. Tennessee-Martin was tough to stop, however. The Tigers took their first lead of the game with five minutes on the clock.

Missouri went into the locker room trailing UT Martin 37-26, after a fast-paced first half of play. The Skyhawk's Heather Butler recorded 21 points in the first half to give UT Martin the boost it needed to maintain the lead. Freshman Jordan Frericks grabbed 10 rebounds for the Tigers in the first half, and senior Bri Kulas lead the scoring with seven points. The Tigers played strong team basketball, assisting on seven of their 10 first-half field goals.

MIZZOU 78, UMKC 69

Columbia, Mo. - It was a career night for Tiger sophomore Lianna Doty as she led the Tigers to a 78-69 win over UMKC on Tuesday (Nov. 26). For the second time as a collegian, Doty tallied a double-double with career-highs of 21 points and 10 assists to go with a career-high six steals.

Bri Kulas added 15 points, while Maddie Stock chipped in 14 points off the bench for the Tigers, who improved to 6-0 on the season with the win. Mizzou forced 20 turnovers for the second time in three games, and the Tigers also continued its season-long streak of posting a positive assist-to-turnover ratio in every game.

The game was a back-and-forth affair for much of the first half, and the Kangaroos took a 38-37 lead into the locker room. But Doty's three-pointer with 18:22 left in the game put the Tigers on top, and Kulas followed suit just 21 seconds later after a Morgan Eye steal to push the lead to five. Mizzou never looked back following that sequence; in fact, the Tigers held UMKC without a field goal for a span of over eight minutes late in the game to put the game comfortably away.

MIZZOU 68, HARTFORD 45

Coral Gables, Fla. - The Mizzou Tigers earned their seventh win of the season (7-0 overall) on Friday, topping the Hartford Hawks, 68-45 in the first game of the University of Miami Thanksgiving Tournament. Senior Bri Kulas led the Tigers with 24 points on the night, followed by freshman Jordan Frericks who recorded a career-high 13 points on the night.

The Tigers shot 40-percent from the field on the night and held the Hawks to just 19-percent from beyond the arc.

The Tigers started off the first half trading buckets with the Hawks, but with 8:44 left in the half Mizzou went on a 13-0 run and never looked back. The Tigers held the Hawks to just 22 first-half points, none from the charity stripe. The Tigers also outscored the Hawks 18-2 in the paint through the first half. Kulas' leadership skills were evident in the half as she led the team with 17 points before the break.

Hartford picked up steam coming out of the locker room reducing the Tigers lead to just six points, but Frericks was sent to the free throw line to help turn the Tigers around. Frericks finished the game with a career high 13 points overall. Her eight rebounds on the night contributed to Missouri's domination on the glass as well. The Tigers outrebounded the Hawks, 49-30.

Missouri went on a 15-0 run from 10:28 to 1:29 in the second half, holding off the Hawks for about 10 minutes. The Hawks scored with 10:56 on the clock and did not record any points until just before the final minute of the game.

Saturday, Nov. 30 // 2 p.m.

MIAMI 74, MIZZOU 68

Columbia, Mo. - Senior Bri Kulas and Junior Morgan Eye earned All-Tournament honors at this weekend's University of Miami Thanksgiving Tournament after a combined 40-point performance. The Tigers finished second in the tournament with a win over Hartford and a loss to Miami. Eye's 27-point effort was not enough to hold off the Miami Hurricanes on Saturday (Nov. 30) as the Tigers dropped to the `Canes 74-68. The loss is Mizzou's first of the season, dropping the team to 7-1 overall.

Kulas earned her sixth-career double-double with 13 points and 14 rebounds on the night. She was 6-for-6 from the charity stripe. Overall, Missouri shot 92-percent from the free throw line, capitalizing on Miami fouls.

Mizzou started off the first half 7 taking an 8-0 lead over Miami, and Mizzou held on to the lead for most of the half thanks to a 5-for-7 three-point shooting effort from junior Morgan Eye. The Hurricanes picked up momentum and were able to tie things up at 22 with just over six minutes left in the half. The two teams went back-and-forth until the final seconds of play when sophomore Michelle Hudyn made a jumper to give Mizzou a three point lead heading into the locker room at halftime. Using a defensive mindset, the Tigers held the `Canes to just 28.6-percent shooting in the first half.

The two teams came out of the locker room ready to fight, and traded the lead for much of the second half. Junior Bree Fowler put up all of her career-high 10 points in the second half, going 2-for-2 from distance in the half.

Mizzou 68 • 7-1

MIZZOU 86, ORAL ROBERTS 64

Columbia, Mo. - The Missouri Women's Basketball team cruised to an 86-64 win over Oral Roberts on Wednesday at Mizzou Arena behind a sizzling performance from three-point range.

The Tigers hit 17 three-pointers in the win over the Golden Eagles and improved to 8-1 on the year.

In a first half full of momentum swings, the Tigers were able to deliver the decisive plays with the game in doubt. With Mizzou holding a slim 21-18 lead, sophomore Lianna Doty buried her first trey of the game. On the next two possessions, Maddie Stock sunk another three-pointer and Morgan Eye used a shot fake to blow by the defense for an easy pull up jumper. Maddie Stock followed with another long ball to cap a 14-0 run, helping the Tigers build a comfortable lead they would never give up. Missouri led at half 43-28.

The efficient outside attack opened things up in the paint for Bri Kulas in the second half. The senior forward converted three easy layups early, pushing Missouri's lead to 19 with just over 15 minutes to go. Kulas finished with 13 points.

The Tigers kept pouring it on from deep throughout the second half. Morgan Stock drilled back-to-back threes with 12 minutes to play. Her fifth three-pointer of the game (she finished 5-of-7 overall from three) handed Mizzou a 23-point advantage. The Stock twins combined for 30 points, scoring all their points from beyond the arc.

Missouri hit 17 three-pointers total behind 44.7 percent shooting from long range. Eye led all scorers with 17 points, converting 5-of-10 from outside. The junior needs just 24 more treys to become the Tigers' all-time leader in three-point makes.

BRADLEY

MIZZOU 126, BRADLEY 55

Columbia, Mo. - The Missouri Women's basketball team scored the most points in a game in school history as the Tigers rolled over Bradley, 126-55, on Sunday at Mizzou Arena. Mizzou made 16 of its first 18 shots from the field and built a 41-9 lead less than 10 minutes into the game.

Lianna Doty and Bri Kulas provided the early spark for Mizzou. Doty pestered the Braves defensively, converting two quick steals into easy layups in transition. The sophomore point guard also dished out four first-half assists, setting up Kulas and others for open shots. Doty finished with 14 points, five assists and five steals.

Bradley also had no answer for Kulas. The senior forward scored 26 of her game-high 27 points in the opening half. After burying two three-pointers in the first five minutes, Kulas powered her way inside for an offensive rebound and put back. Later in the half, she put together a 6-0 run by herself and pushed the Mizzou lead to 53-14 with just over six minutes remaining.

The Tigers controlled a 42-point advantage at the break. The team's 65 first-half points were the most in a half in school history. Mizzou shot better than 68 percent during that span in addition to an 8-of-8 effort from the free throw line.

Morgan Eye sunk three-pointers on back-to-back possessions to open up the second half and the Tigers kept pouring it on. Another Doty steal and layup gave them a 50-point cushion with 17:40 to play.

The Missouri bench capitalized on quality minutes, outscoring the Bradley reserves 60-14. Morgan Stock's fourth trey of the game gave the team its 100th point of the afternoon. Stock posted a career-high 21 points behind seven threes. Mizzou made 18 total shots from beyond the arc, but the Tigers dealt most of their damage in the paint, holding a 54-16 edge down low.

MIZZOU 82, BELMONT 70

Columbia, Mo. - Bri Kulas found the bottom of the net time and time again Monday night, as the Missouri Women's Basketball team pulled away from Belmont for an 82-70 victory at Mizzou Arena.

Kulas tied her career-high of 27 points for the second consecutive game and added eight rebounds. The senior captain came up with several clutch baskets throughout the contest when the Tigers needed them the most. She answered Belmont's seven first half three-pointers with 14 points of her own. The game was tied 37-37 at halftime.

Kulas and freshman Jordan Frericks continued to attack the paint in the second half. Frericks collected her third double double of the season, finishing with 14 points and 15 rebounds. The duo opened the second half with back-to-back tough layups inside to push the Tigers ahead 41-39.

After the Bruins put together an 8-0 run with just under 14 minutes left to grab a two-point lead, Kulas countered with a deep three-pointer. The trey sparked an 11-2 Mizzou run that handed the Tigers a 57-50 advantage at the 10:33 mark.

The seesaw contest continued as Belmont scored eight unanswered to retain the lead, but again Mizzou relied on its post presence to regain control. Frericks muscled in another layup and Kulas converted an old-fashioned three-point play a couple possessions later to help Mizzou pull away down the stretch.

Junior Morgan Eye complemented the dominant post play with hot shooting from beyond the arc. She hit four three-pointers on the way to 16 points. Her trey with 3:36 left gave Mizzou its first double-digit lead of the game and all but sealed the deal for the Tigers.

Missouri is now 10-1 on the season and 7-0 on its home floor.

MISSOURI STATE 67, MIZZOU 53

Springfield, Mo. - It was a career night for freshman Sierra Michaelis as she led the Tigers with 14 points to set a new career-high mark. Her seven rebounds on the night also mark a career high for the Mercer, Mo., native. Despite her marks, the Tigers couldn't hold off the Lady Bears, dropping to their in-state rival, 67-53. The Tigers fall to 10-2 on the season.

Missouri's 10-1 record to start the year matches the Tigers' 2011-12 season start, good for the best in program history since the 2006-07 season.

Missouri trailed the Lady Bears through the first half, heading into the locker room with a 15-point deficit. Freshman Sierra Michaelis led the Tigers with six points and four rebounds in the first half. The Tigers knocked down 18 points in the paint in the half, holding the Lady Bears to just 12.

Coming into the second half, senior Bri Kulas knocked down a three-pointer to get things started. The Tigers were able to pull within six points late in the half, but the Lady Bears continued to put the pressure on. The Tigers shot 50-percent from beyond the arc in the second half knocking down 5-of-10 shots from distance.

MIZZOU 75, WESTERN ILLINOIS 60

Columbia, Mo. - Mizzou improves to 11-2 on the season and 8-0 at home after Sunday's 75-60 victory over Western Illinois. Junior Morgan Eye led the Tigers with 22 points overall as she made six three-pointers in the contest. Three Tigers reached double-figures including freshman Jordan Frericks and senior Bri Kulas. Frericks notched her fourth career double-double, tallying 12 rebounds and a career-high 14 points in the game.

Mizzou proved once again to be an unselfish team on the court as the Tigers assisted on over half of their field goals. In addition, the contest marks the eighth time in 13 games Mizzou had at least three players score at least 10 points.

Mizzou played strong in the first half, taking an early lead and maintaining the advantage for the entire half. The Tigers went into the locker room with a 45-27 advantage at the break, led by Morgan Eye who tallied 16 first-half points off of four three-pointers. Three Tigers reached double-figures in the first half, and freshman Jordan Frericks was 4-for-4 by the first media timeout with eight points, more than halfway to her career high. She finished the half with 10 points.

Mizzou maintained its lead through the second half, preserving their home winning streak this season. The Tigers held Western Illinois to season lows in field goal percentage (30.8), field goals made (16) and points (60). Eye's 22 points mark her third 20-plus point outing of the year, while Kulas has put up double-figure scoring numbers in 11 of the last 13 games.

#13 BRI KULAS

SENIOR SEASON (2013-14)

- Is taking ownership of her leadership role on the team, proving to be a great role model on and off the court.
- Has put up double-figure scoring numbers in all but two games this season including four 20+ point performances.
- Recorded a new career high with a game-high 27 points against SEMO. She matched that total once again in the Tigers' record-breaking victory over Bradley on Dec. 8 and yet again vs. Belmont.
- She sits second in the SEC averaging 17.2 points per game this season and sits at No. 5 for her 48.1 shooting percentage.
- Was named SEC Co-Player of the Week on Nov. 25 after a career-high 27 point performance against SEMO and another double-figure game against UT Martin. Her two last-second free throws helped secure Mizzou's win.
- Her 83.6-percent shooting from the free throw line ranks third in the conference. She was 6-for-6 from the charity stripe at Miami and again perfect against Oral Roberts. She has been perfect from the line five times this season.

#20 KAYLA McDOWELL

FRESHMAN SEASON

- Started the season off with a spot in the starting lineup and recorded her first-career double-double as she racked up 19 points and grabbed 10 rebounds at Saint Louis. Proved to be an important component to the Tigers chemistry on the floor and will look to make an even bigger impact as the season continues.
- Is almost perfect from the charity stripe this season, sinking 14 of her 15 attempts, seven coming in Mizzou's season opener at Saint Louis.
- She has played in each of Mizzou's contests thus far, recording at least one board in all but one contest.
- Dished a career-high four assists against Oral Roberts.
