

Missouri vs. Tennessee - 1/22/23
Venue - Mizzou Arena, Columbia, MO
Final Score: Missouri 65, Tennessee 68
Attendance: 5030

- Tennessee extends its all-time series lead with Mizzou, holding a 14-3 advantage over the Tigers, including a six-game win streak. The Lady Vols remain as one of just three teams in the SEC to maintain an undefeated record.
- The Lady Vols shot 10-of-15 in the first quarter. Their 66.7% field goal percentage was the most the Tigers allowed in an opening quarter all season.
- The Tigers held Tennessee to just 10 points in the second quarter, marking the lowest second-quarter production of the season for the Lady Vols.
- Kelly's 14 points marks a career high for the center, eclipsing her previous high of 13 set against Bradley on Nov. 10.
- Kroenke grabbed five steals in the contest, the most this season by a Tiger. She also tied her career high in points in the contest, contributing seven, and set a career high in minutes played with 33 in the loss.
- Frank pitched in 26 points on the day, eclipsing the 20-point mark for the 20th time in her career. The mark also sets the single-game high for a Tiger this season.
- The Tigers dished out 16 assists in the contest, their most in SEC play this season.
- Mizzou knocked down 6-of-7 (85.7%) from the charity stripe, marking its third consecutive game of shooting over 85 percent from the line. The last time the Tigers accomplished that feat was between Feb. 24 and March 3, 2022.
