What's Happening?

No. 6 Florida plays host to No. 8 Missouri for Gator Gymnastics fifth annual Equality Night presented by GFL Environmental. The Tigers are Florida's fourth top-10 opponent this season, with each of UF's eight meets including a top-15 team. This is the first time since the 2010 NCAA Championships MU brings a top-10 ranking into a meeting with Florida.

All nine Southeastern Conference teams are among the current top 20, including seven in the top 11. There is one other dual this weekend including a pair of top-10 teams and it of course includes another pair of league teams – No. 10 Kentucky at No. 9 Georgia.

Florida Loses at No. 1 Oklahoma
It was a rough night for No. 5 Florida gymnastics with two All-American Gators – sophomore Anya Pilgrim and senior Sloane Blakely - suffering injuries in the 198.075 – 196.625 loss to No. 1 Oklahoma in front of 9,880 Friday at the Lloyd Noble Center.

Florida turned in five solid uneven bars routines following a Pilgrim's fall in the lead-off spot. Pilgrim was able to finish the routine but did not appear in the other lineup she was slated to compete, balance beam. Two Gators were among a four-way tie for second at 9.90 in the final bars standings - Skye Blakely and Leanne Wong.

Two Gators posted vault mark of 9.9 or better Friday – Selena Harris-Miranda (9.925) and Wong (9.90). Harris-Miranda shared second with OU's Keira Wells in the vault standings. Sophomores Danie Ferris and Gabby Disidore also turned in vault marks of 9.875. That mark is a collegiate best for Disidore.

Sloane Blakely, who claimed the Feb. 18 Southeastern Conference Specialist of the Week after earning a floor 10.0 on Valentine's Day, was unable to complete the routine after her opening tumbling pass. Florida was led on floor by Wong's 9.925 and Harris-Miranda's 9.90.

Florida couldn't keep pace with OU's floor scores on the final rotation. Every Sooner posted a mark of 9.925 or better – including a 10.0 by Faith Torrez - and the Gators were forced to count a miss on balance beam. Victoria Nguyen and Wong led Florida on the event at 9.875 to be among a five-way tie for second. Torrez won the all-around at 39.775, followed by teammate Jordan Bowers (39.65). Wong was third at 39.60 with Harris-Miranda taking fourth at 39.50.

Missouri in 2025:
The Tigers have wins over three top-15 opponents in 2025 - then No. 6 Kentucky (Jan. 26), No. 14 Alabama (Feb. 14) and used a season-high to take a 197.425-197.35 win over No. 12 Georgia (Feb. 21).

Missouri and Florida are the nation's only teams with two individuals with 10.0s this season. Tiger senior Helen Hu posted the nation's first 10.0 on any event for her balance beam routine at Oklahoma on Jan. 17. Sophomore Kennedy Griffin was one of three across the nation – all in the Southeastern Conference - to earn a floor exercise 10.0 on Valentine's Day. Hu shared her fourth SEC Specialist of the Week honor on Feb. 25 after posting a 9.975 – her fourth beam mark 9.975 or higher this season. Friday's meet includes both gymnasts with a beam 10.0 this season – UF's Leanne Wong and MU's Hu.

Last Season:
Florida placed fourth in the Gators' 40th NCAA Championships' appearance in 2024. Florida claimed its sixth consecutive Southeastern Conference regular season in 2024. Two Gators turned in three 10.0 marks – Anya Pilgrim (floor) and Leanne Wong (uneven bars / floor). Wong's 10.0 floor mark concluded her Gym Slam (a 10.0 on each event). Florida added two this season with collegiate 10.0s on their competitive resumes. Sophomore Kayla DiCello earned two uneven bars 10.0s as a Gator freshman in 2023. She took a gap year in 2024 to train for a spot on the U.S. Olympic team. Junior Selena Harris-Miranda, the 2024 Pac-12 Gymnast of the Year, earned five 10.0s while with UCLA – four on vault and one on bars. She transferred to Florida last summer.

MEET COACH ROWLAND

Jenny Rowland begins in her 10th season as University of Florida's head gymnastics coach. Rowland is the seventh head coach for the Gator program, which competes in its 53rd season in 2025.

Rowland swept 2020 coaching awards – Women's Collegiate Gymnastics Association (WCGA) National, Region 5 and Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year. She shared the 2016 SEC Coach of the Year honor with Arkansas' Mark Cook. She again was the SEC Coach of the Year in 2021 and three such honors is the most for any league coach in their opening six seasons.

Rowland's experiences from the sport's highest level are the same as many current Gators. She is a former U.S. National Team member, a collegiate All-American and was named a 2015 National Collegiate Assistant of the Year.

Rowland is a Category 3 International Brevet level judge. She served on the judging panel for the 2008, 2012 and 2016 U.S. Olympic Trials.

Rowland served on the NCAA Women's Gymnastics Committee for the 2020-23 seasons.

Rowland's Coaching Career:

At Florida:

Florida advanced to the NCAA Team Final in 2021, 2022, 2023 & 2024, placing fourth (2021 & '24) and second (2022 & 2023). Florida reached the NCAA Super Six team final in each of Rowland's first three seasons, with the Gators, taking fourth in 2016 and third in 2017 & 2018. Rowland swept all coaching awards in 2020 (national, region & SEC) after the Gators finished at No. 2 with a 10-0 record in the pandemic shortened season. She claimed her first SEC Coach of the Year honor in 2016 when the Gators won the SEC Championship meet. Florida won the last six SEC regular-season titles – 2019 (6-1 record), 2020 (7-0), 2021 (7-0), 2022 (6-0-1), 2023 (6-1) and 2024 (6-1).

Gators won individual event titles in six NCAA Championships.

McMurtry was part of a rare double in 2017 and 2018, claiming both the SEC Gymnast (2017)/SEC Event Specialist (2018) and the SEC Scholar-Athlete awards. Trinity Thomas received the 2020, 2022 & 2023 SEC Gymnast of the Year awards. Leah Clapper earned the 2021 SEC Scholar-Athlete award.

Since 2016, 22 Gators earned 176 All-America honors (at NCAA Championships and WCGA regular season).

At Auburn:

Rowland came to Florida after spending five seasons at Auburn. She joined the Auburn coaching staff as an assistant coach in October of 2010 and was elevated to associate head coach in March of 2013. Rowland worked with all aspects of the Auburn gymnastics program, coordinating all of the program's community outreach efforts and interactions on campus as well as playing an integral role in recruiting and in-gym activities.

She was co-National Assistant Coach of the Year in 2015 after helping AU reach the NCAA Super Six for the first time in 22 years.

Coaching Career Start in Sooner State:

Rowland coached Elite gymnasts at Bart Conner Gymnastics Academy in Norman, Okla., for five years and then joined the Oklahoma coaching staff in June of 2001. At OU, she helped coach the Sooners to the 2004 Big XIII title, three-time team NCAA qualifiers (2004-06) and three Big XIII Gymnasts of the Year.

As a Gymnast:

During her gymnastics career, Rowland was a USA National Team member from 1985-1990 and was part of the U.S.'s 1989 World Championships team. During her collegiate career, she earned All-America honors for the uneven bars in 1993 for Arizona State.

After retiring from competition, she returned to her home state, enrolling at the University of Oklahoma to finish her degree.

The team met Bailey through the Friends of Jaclyn organization. Bailey has a locker, participated in the team's SEC Network and video board shoots and stops by for a Gator practice as often as she can. Bailey is the fifth Friends of Jaclyn child currently part of a Gator team.

Gator Gymnastics Meet Notes

Did You Know...

• The average height for the Gators is 5-2 and three quarters.
• Alyssa Arana is fluent in Spanish. She converses with her grandmother in Spanish, but suspects Grandma understands more English than she lets on.
• Sloane Blakely's voice narrates one of the SEC It Just Means More spots that debuted in October 2022. She's in another commercial this season, leading off the 2023-24 University of Florida spot that appears whenever any Gator sport is televised.
• Skye Blakely and her sister, Sloane, participated in ballet and tap before trying gymnastics. They also were child models and Skye appeared in an episode on the Barney & Friends show.
• Kaylee Bluffstone's parents made the switch from soccer to gymnastics as a young Kaylee wouldn't chase the ball on the pitch. Instead, she turned cartwheels across the field.
• Lori Brubach made her first sky-diving leap in summer of 2023. Hasn't made a second jump but it is on her to-do list!
• Lily Bruce has a twin brother, Finn.
• Ly Bui is the third member of the current Gator team to finish high school early to enroll at UF. Others are Danie Ferris and Ellie Lazzari.
• Taylor Clark attended Gator Gymnastics Summer Camp during her club career. She credits UF Associate Coach Adrian Burde with the key words that led to successfully conquering her double layout on floor.
• Kayla DiCello is one of two Gators to win Pan Am Games all-around, joining Bridgette Caquatto (2011). It was a busy October 2024 for DiCello as she received gold as alternate with the U.S.'s World Championships team in Belgium and then led the U.S. later than month to team gold at the Pan Am Games in Chile. Also, her younger sister, Karleigh, is a freshman on West Virginia's gymnastics team.
• Gabby Disidore will be joined on the team by her sister, Amelia, next season. They will be the fourth set of sisters to compete on the same Gator team, joining Lynn and Karen McDonnell (1983 & '84), Mackenzie and Bridgette Caquatto (2013 & '14) and Sloane and Skye Blakely (2025).
• Skylar Draser's favorite holiday is Christmas 🎄, not her birthday which also happens to be Halloween 🎃.
• Bri Edwards is set to become Dr. Edwards. She's been accepted to Morehouse College in Atlanta to start medical school this summer.
• Danie Ferris came into Florida with four 10.0s in Level 10 action (three vault; one floor). Thinks earning a 10.0 in college would be 10,000-times better due to the increased fan support.
• Selena Harris-Miranda earned the 2024 Pac-12 Gymnast of the Year honor while with UCLA before transferring to UF in the summer of 2024.
• Ellie Lazzari was born in Foshan, China, and adopted by her family at 18 months. She has two older sisters, Jessica and Jennie, who also joined the family by adoption after being born in China.
• Riley McCusker isn't the only member of the McCusker family competing in NCAA action. Her younger brother, Owen, is an attacker for Florida Southern's lacrosse team.
• Victoria Nguyen is the middle of seven children. It's an active family, keeping Mom and her oldest sister Steffanny busy shuttling them around to baseball, gymnastics and figure skating. Victoria started gymnastics at the relatively late age (for the sport) of 8. Younger brother, Matthew Vu, is a freshman on 2025 Illinois gymnastics team.
• Anya Pilgrim keeps track of every Tkatchev she catches since adding the uneven bars skill in 2017.
• Leanne Wong is the first to earn a World Championships' individual medal while enrolled at a college. Wong won all-around silver and floor bronze at the 2021 Worlds in Japan while also taking UF classes. She added World Championships team golds in fall of 2022 and 2023.

Did You Know...

Every Gator gymnast has a "Gator Chomp" choreographed into her floor exercise routine.

All-American Colleen Johnson was the first to "chomp" in her 1994 floor routine. It has been a part of all Gator floor routines since 1995.

GRADUATE GATORS

Three on Florida's 2025 roster are competing as graduate Gators.

All three were cum laude graduates. Bri Edwards and Ellie Lazzari earned their degree in May of 2024 and Victoria Nguyen made the trip across the Exactech Arena stage in August of 2024.

Gymnast	Degree

Ellie Lazzari	Psychology

Nguyen is pursuing her master's in management. Edwards is pursuing a graduate certificate in medical physiology and Lazzari is working toward a master's certificate in public health & health professions.

GYM SLAM GYMNASTS

With her walk-off floor 10.0 on Feb. 23, 2024, Leanne Wong joined the "Gym Slam" club (10.0 on each event during career).

She is the 15th in NCAA history with a Gym Slam. Florida leads with four gymnasts on the Gym Slam list.

Wong is one of three in the nation returning in 2025 with a Gym Slam, joining LSU's Haleigh Bryant and Oregon State's Jade Carey.

Gator Gymnastics Meet Notes

Meet 1

Preseason No. 3 Florida vs No. 11 Michigan State, No. 23 Nebraska and NIU

Jan. 10, 2025

GAINESVILLE, Fla. – Preseason No. 3 Gators gymnastics opened 2025 with a narrow home quad win versus No. 11 Michigan State, No. 23 Nebraska and Northern Illinois. The GNV & Club Gym Night presented by Cox was held Friday evening in front of 6,745 at the Exactech Arena at the Stephen C. O'Connell Center. Florida posted a 196.675, just edging MSU (196.65). Nebraska was third (195.50), followed by NIU (191.95).

Florida gymnasts equaled 2025 national highs to sweep the meet event titles. Sophomore Danie Ferris equaled her collegiate best of 9.95 to win vault. Senior All-American Leanne Wong used 9.95s to win uneven bars, balance beam and floor exercise and matched the 2025 high of 39.725 to claim her 15th career all-around title. That moves Wong to No. 10 on Florida's Career All-Around Wins list.

TONIGHT'S MEET
Florida led the meet throughout, including turning in a 2025 national high 49.50 on balance beam. A trio of Gators turned in marks of 9.9 or better on both uneven bars (Sloane Blakely 9.90; Anya Pilgrim 9.925; Wong 9.95) and beam (Sloane Blakely 9.925, Wong 9.90; Selena Harris-Miranda 9.90).

The 0.675 lead three-rotation lead dwindled when Florida was forced to count a miss and a pair of out of bounds toward its floor exercise total. The Gators swept the top three floor positions, led by a pair of All-American Gator seniors – Sloane Blakely (9.90) and Wong (9.95) plus freshman Taylor Clark (9.875) as the Gators held off the closing Spartans on the final event.

BLAKELY SISTERS
Sloane Blakely led off the Gators uneven bars lineup and her younger sister, Skye, made her Gator debut in the fourth position. It was the first pair of sisters in the same Gator line up since Florida won its second NCAA team title in 2014.

Both Bridgette and Mackenzie Caquatto competed vault and uneven bars in the final team meet of the 2014 season.

GATOR DEBUTS:
Four made their UF competitive debut Friday – three freshmen and transfer Selena Harris-Miranda.

COMPETING AGAIN
Freshman Skye Blakely returned to competition a day shy of 200 since suffering an Achilles tear during the final training day at the 2024 U.S. Olympic Trials. A member of the U.S.'s 2022 and 2023 World Championship gold medal teams, Blakely was considered a favorite to be part of the U.S. roster in Paris.

She underwent surgery on July 3 and then soon began her return to the sport she's been participating in since age 3.

"It was a couple of weeks after surgery, I knew I wanted to be back by the first meet of the season," Skye Blakely said. "Small steps forward led to getting closer and closer to having the full bar routine. But I think when I really knew in my head was last Friday [with first landing on hard surface]. I've been working really hard and it's been coming together nicely. [When I hit that landing], I knew I was ready to be out there."

GATOR PERFORMANCE NOTES:

- Danie Ferris' 9.95 matches the nation's high vault mark of this young season. Three others – LSU's Aleah Finnegan, Michigan State's Nikki Smith and Oklahoma's Keira Wells - opened last weekend with a 9.95 vault. It is Ferris' second vault win and equals her collegiate best.
- Wong opened two seasons with a 9.95 on uneven bars – which equals the second-highest bars mark in a Florida season opener. She also turned in a 9.95 in the 2023 opener to share the title with then teammate Trinity Thomas. Three of the defending NCAA uneven bars champion's 23 bars wins came in season openers.
- Two senior Gator All-Americans added to Florida's top-10 season-opening balance beam marks. Wong's 9.95 shares the No. 4 spot and Sloane Blakely's 9.925 shares No. 9. It is Blakely's second appearance on that list, as she opened her career in 2022 with a collegiate best 9.95 beam mark. Wong's 9.95 shares the 2025 high with Oregon State's Jade Carey, OU's Lily Pederson and Utah's Camie Winger.

RECORDS: Florida (3-0, 0-0 SEC), MSU (3-1), Nebraska (1-5), NIU (0-3)

THE SERIES: Florida leads MSU 14-0, Nebraska (24-10) and NIU (2-0).

I love finishing on beam here and I love to see this team just rise to the occasion and fight. Couldn't have been more proud of that beam team tonight for their fight and courage. Feb. 7, 2025
Bud Walton Arena / Fayetteville, Ark.

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. - No. 2 Florida dropped its second meet of the season, losing 197.175 – 196.625 to No. 15 Arkansas Friday evening in front of 7,341 at the Bud Walton Arena.

The Gators led by 0.65 heading into the final rotation but that advantage evaporated when the Gators were forced to count a miss on balance beam.

Arkansas remains unbeaten at Bud Walton Arena with Friday's result marking UA's second victory over the nation's No. 2 team this season. The Gymbacks won their Southeastern Conference home opener over defending NCAA champion and then No. 2 LSU on Jan. 24.

THIS EVENING'S MEET
Florida started the meet with two new faces in the uneven bars lineup. Both Sloane and Skye Blakely did not compete Friday but look to return to lineup later this month. Two making their 2025 bars debut Friday -- sophomore Alyssa Arana and freshman Ly Bui -- were among Florida's six hit routines. Arana posted a collegiate high of 9.875 and Bui posted a 9.90 in her bars debut. Leanne Wong started a stretch of three consecutive bars marks of 9.9 or better, equaling her 2025 high of 9.95. Selena Harris-Miranda also upped her 2025 best to 9.925 with Bui anchoring at 9.90. Florida equaled its season bars best of 49.525 Friday.

Three Gators posted vaults of 9.9 or better, led by Harris-Miranda's third consecutive winning mark of 9.95. Ellie Lazzari posted a season high of 9.9, which was equaled by Wong. Florida posted a 49.375 on vault and led Arkansas by two-tenths at the midway point.

Florida was just 0.025 away from its season floor exercise high with its 49.475 Friday. Half the Gator lineup posted 9.9 or better marks, including a collegiate-best 9.925 for freshman Taylor Clark. Wong also posted her third consecutive floor mark of 9.925 and Harris-Miranda anchored the lineup at 9.9.

The Gators finished with a season-low 48.175 on balance beam as a fall was counted toward UF's final total. Wong and Florida's lead-off performance by Skylar Draser led the Gators Friday at 9.80. Florida last was forced to count a fall toward its beam total at the 2021 NCAA Team Final.

HEAR FROM THE GATORS:
On Florida's performance:
"Gators are coming away with a loss. Looking back, taking a moment and looking at all the events, extremely proud of this team and how they started off the competition. Very strong, very aggressive. Great bar rotation, great vault rotation, really good floor rotation. Then went to beam and the Gators...we are better than what we showed tonight. Made some uncharacteristic mistakes, and at the same time, now have lots of opportunities to redeem ourselves. Really looking forward to getting back in the gym, resetting, refocusing and just doing what the Gators know what they're capable of. They will be able to reflect, learn and grow from this." – Florida Head Coach Jenny Rowland

Meet 6
No. 3 Florida vs No. 12 Auburn
Feb. 14, 2025
Exactech Arena at O'Connell Center / Gainesville, Fla.

GAINESVILLE, Fla. - A pair of 10.0s helped No. 3 Florida win the 19th Annual Gators Link to Pink presented by UF Health over No. 12 Auburn. The meet was held Friday in front of a pink clad crowd of 8,556 at the Exactech Arena at the Stephen C. O'Connell Center.

The Gators led by a slender 0.10 at the midway point. The lead grew to 0.625 after the Gators tallied the nation's 2025 balance beam high of 49.70. That rotation included senior Leanne Wong's first 10.0 of the season and her third of career on balance beam. Another 10.0 came on the closing rotation with senior Sloane Blakely earning her second perfect mark for floor exercise. Florida is the nation's only program to record two 10.0s in a single meet in 2025. A Gator won at least a share of each of the five event titles Friday. Wong and junior teammate Selena Harris-Miranda tied for the all-around win with UF season-high totals of 39.75. That total ties for the nation's second-highest total of 2025. They also shared the uneven bars win at near-perfect 9.975. In addition to wins by the Gator 10.0s, Wong shared the vault title with Auburn's Sarah Zois at 9.90.

THIS EVENING'S MEET
Steps on vault landings hurt the scoring potential on Florida's opening event. Leanne Wong led Florida with a 9.90 for her fifth consecutive vault mark of 9.9 or better. Selena Harris-Miranda anchored the lineup with a 9.875 and sophomore Gabby Disidore turned in a 9.85 in her first appearance in Florida's vault lineup.

Florida was forced to count a miss in its uneven bars rotation, resulting in a season-low 49.05. That total was boosted by a pair of season-high marks of a near perfect 9.975 by first Wong and then Harris-Miranda. Sophomore Anya Pilgrim led off the lineup with a season-best 9.95.

The nation's season high balance beam set of 49.70 included the Gators' first 10.0 of 2025. Wong earned her third collegiate 10.0 on the event, with near-perfect collegiate-high 9.975s by Victoria Nguyen and Harris-Miranda on either side of her in the lineup. Sloane Blakely also earned a 9.90.

The floor exercise 10.0 that looked to be coming this season for Sloane Blakely arrived Friday. She's used marks of 9.925 or better to win her last three floor performances. Tonight, she earned her second career 10.0 and first since her freshman season for her fourth straight floor win. Season-best marks of 9.925 from Nguyen and Harris-Miranda opened and anchored Florida's floor lineup that tallied a season-high 49.60.

HEAR FROM FLORIDA COACH JENNY ROWLAND:
"Having a rough competition is one thing. Having a bumpy competition with injuries is a different level. We're keeping Anya (Pilgrim) and Sloane (Blakely) in our thoughts and prayers. Extremely grateful for their fierce competitiveness and what they've done up to now and now it's time for this team to rally and put our best foot forward. We still have a season to go. This team will reset, refocus and get ready for what's next on Monday.

"Thankfully, there are some athletes who have been ready to shine and make the most of their moment, so their moment may come a little bit sooner than expected. That's just something that through continued preparation in the gym, they'll be ready to raise their hand in the next coming meets." – Florida Head Coach Jenny Rowland
