For Openers...

> The No. 9/9 University of Missouri Tigers (15-1, 2-1 Big 12) return home to face the Texas Longhorns (12-4, 2-1 Big 12) Saturday, Jan. 14 at Noon at Mizzou Arena.

> Saturday's game is a matchup between mentor and mentee, as first-year head coach Frank Haith worked as an associate head coach and assistant coach under Texas head coach Rick Barnes from 2001-04 ... Barnes and Haith teamed up to guide the Longhorns to an NCAA Final Four and two Sweet 16 appearances ... The two have met just once as head coaches, with Barnes leading the Longhorns to a 75-72 win over Miami in the second round of the 2008 NCAA Tournament.

> Mizzou and Texas have met 23 times in history, with the Longhorns holding a slight 12-11 edge in the all-time series ... The Tigers are 6-4 all-time in Columbia and have claimed the last two meetings at Mizzou Arena.

> The Tigers' 15-1 start to open the season is tied for the third-best start in program history ... The 16-0 starts in 1981-82 and 1920-21 are the only starts that stand better than Mizzou's current record.

> Haith is the first Tiger coach to win his first 14 games at the helm of the program since Craig Ruby in 1920-21.

> The Tigers currently rank tied for first nationally in field goal percentage at 51.1 percent ... The team also leads the nation in assist-turnover ratio (1.64), fourth in turnovers per game (10.1), fifth in scoring offense (83.9) and seventh in free throw percentage (.768).

> Senior big man Ricardo Ratliffe leads the nation in field goal percentage with his .768 clip this season ... If he keeps at his current rate all season, the senior would obliterate MU's single-season FG% record of 67.6 by Jeff Warren in 1990-91 ... He is one of only two players in the country shooting over 70 percent.

> Senior Kim English leads the nation in 3-point field goal percentage among players with 2.5 makes per game at 53.0 percent.

> Additionally, senior Marcus Denmon ranks second nationally in free throw percentage at 92.6 percent, while junior Michael Dixon comes in at 10th nationally at 91.0 percent ... The duo make up the best one-two charity stripe punch in the nation, as they are the only pair of teammates ranked in the top-20.

> Mizzou is one of just seven teams in the country with at least two players who have made at least 40 3-point field goals, as Denmon has 46 and English has 44 ... Additionally, they are one of just four teams in the nation with two players who have made at least 44 3-pointers this season.

> Junior Mike Dixon has been arguably the nation's top sixth man this season as he is averaging 12.8 points per game and 2.8 assists per contest off the bench ... His 12.8 ppg average this season is tops among Big 12 players with no starts this year ... In fact, he ranks among the nation's top sixth men as his 12.8 ppg rank ahead of other notable sixth men: Pierre Jackson of Baylor, Ryan Boatwright of Connecticut and Will Sheehy of Indiana all of whom, like Dixon, have no starts this year.

> Although the Tigers have won 12 games by 10 or more points this season, the team has been strong in close games. In MU's three games decided by nine or less points, the Tigers scored on 15 of their 16 total final possessions to pull away with wins in all three games.

Mizzou Quick Hitters

> Heading into Saturday's contest, the Tigers are one of the nation's and Big 12's best shooting teams as the squad ranks tied for first nationally and first in the Big 12 in field goal percentage (.511) ... The team also ranks seventh nationally and first in the Big 12 in free throw percentage (.768) ... Additionally, the team's 39.6 percentage from beyond the arc is second in the Big 12.

> Senior Steve Moore was possibly Mizzou's most important player on the floor against Iowa State ... With Ricardo Ratliffe in foul trouble much of the game, Moore responded with a career high tying 10 points and a personal best nine rebounds in 16 minutes off the bench.

> Six different Tigers reached double figures in MU's game at Iowa State on Wednesday, just the second time that has happened this season (California) ... It also marked just the sixth time ever Mizzou had six players in double figures against a Big 12 team.

> Senior Marcus Denmon ranks second in the Big 12 Conference in scoring at an 18.1 clip per contest ... The guard also leads the conference in free throw percentage (.926), is second in 3-point field goals made (2.88), fifth in 3-point field goal percentage (.434) and field goal percentage (.487) and sixth in steals (1.5).

> Senior Kim English has been red hot over his last six games, shooting 53.1 from the floor (26-of-49) while connecting on an amazing 54.2 percent of his 3-pointers (13-of-24) ... English scored 23 points against Oklahoma on Jan. 3, due in large part to 5-of-8 shooting from beyond the arc, good for his seventh career game with five 3-pointers and third this season.

> Despite not making a big impact with baskets against Iowa State, Denmon was pivotal to MU's offense as he dished out a career high seven assists in the game ... Denmon also did not commit a turnover or foul in his 35 minutes on the floor.

> Although the Tigers have won 12 games by 10 or more points this season, the team has been strong in close games. In MU's three games decided by nine or less points, the Tigers scored on 15 of their 16 total final possessions to pull away with wins in all three games.

> The Tiger offense has been incredibly balanced in the last five games, as five different Tigers have lead the team in scoring ... Denmon paced the Tigers against Old Dominion (19) and Kansas State (17), English against Oklahoma (23), Michael Dixon and Phil Pressey against Illinois (18) and Matt Pressey against Iowa State (14).

> Sixth man Michael Dixon combines with sophomore Phil Pressey to give the Tigers arguably the best 1-2 punch at point guard in the nation. The tandem averages a combined 22.0 ppg and 8.6 assists per game with an assist-to-turnover margin of 2.3 with a combined 59 steals.

> Staying on that topic of steals vs. turnovers, Mizzou is second nationally with a steal-turnover margin of 0.91, trailing only No. 1 Syracuse in that department. The Tigers have 148 steals and just 152 turnovers, the latter of which gives Mizzou just 10.1 turnovers per game, ranking fifth nationally. Mizzou is 12th nationally in steals per game at 9.25.

> Mizzou has been amazingly efficient this season, averaging 1.17 points per field goal attempt this season, a Big 12-best by a wide margin ... Ratliffe leads the team in that category as he is averaging 1.54 points per field goal attempt, while English averages 1.37 and Denmon 1.21.

> Mizzou Arena has become one of the hardest places to play in the nation, as the current senior class has a record of 60-3 all-time in the building, for a winning percentage of 95.2 ... The seniors were a perfect 18-0 at home in 2008-09, 16-2 in 2009-10, 17-1 in 2010-11 and are currently 9-0 this season.

> Overall, Missouri leads the Big 12 in eight different statistical categories: scoring offense (83.9), scoring margin (+21.6), free throw percentage (.768), field goal percentage (.511), assists (16.7), steals (9.3), turnover margin (+5.6) and assist-turnover ratio (1.64).

> From Nov. 27 - Jan. 3, Sophomore Phil Pressey had nine consecutive games with at least five assists, which is a Mizzou record (11 vs. Binghamton, 6 vs. Northwestern State, 12 vs. Villanova, 5 vs. Navy, 10 vs. Kennesaw State, 5 vs. William & Mary, 5 vs.

Illinois, 7 at Old Dominion and seven vs. Oklahoma). ... The previous record was seven by Anthony Peeler in 1989-09 ... He currently leads the Big 12 in assists (6.0), assist-turnover ratio (2.8) and steals (2.3) ... Pressey has three 10-assist game this season, the last Tiger to do that in a season was Scott Sims in 1976-77.

> Against Oklahoma on Jan. 3, the Tigers had plenty of noteworthy accomplishments in their 87-49 victory ... In fact, Mizzou limited the Sooners to less than 50 points, marking the first time a Tiger team has done that since Jan. 6, 2010, against Savannah State (45 points) ... It also marked the first time since Feb. 14, 2009, that Mizzou held a Big 12 foe under 50 (Nebraska, 47) ... The 38-point win was also the Tigers' largest over OU since 1922 and their second-largest over a Big 12 team, second only to a 45-point win over Colorado in 2009.

> English's 23-point outing against Oklahoma was joined by classmate Marcus Denmon, who also scored 20 points in that game. That duo has now scored 20 points each in the same Big 12 game three times in their careers. No other Tiger duo has accomplished that feat in the last six seasons.

> Another notable stat from the win over the Sooners was that the Tigers won the battle on the glass, 38-23. Despite running with a four-guard lineup, Mizzou topped the Sooners - who entered the game as the fourth-best rebounding team in the country - by 15 in the game.

> Despite not shooting particularly well from the floor at Kansas State, the Tigers still made 20-of-25 free throws to finish the game at 80 percent from the charity stripe ... The game marked the ninth time this season the Tigers shot at least 80 percent from the foul line ... All of last season the team hit that mark just 11 times in 34 games.

> Mizzou's win over Old Dominion on Dec. 30 gave the Tigers an unblemished 13-0 non-conference record ... It marks only the second time in program history that the team had an undefeated non-conference mark, joining the 1972-73 squad.

> Ricardo Ratliffe recorded his second double-double of the season in his homecoming at Old Dominion with 14 points and 11 rebounds ... The forward also had a double-double against Villanova this year ... He now has seven in his Tiger career.

> Missouri finished the home non-conference schedule with an unblemished record for the sixth straight season ... The Tigers were 8-0 this year, 10-0 in 2010-11, 9-0 in 2009-10, 10-0 in 2008-09, 9-0 in 2007-08 and 11-0 in 2006-07.

> Seniors Marcus Denmon and Kim English continue to move up Missouri's all-time scoring list ... Denmon now has 1,442 in his career, which puts him 14th all-time at Mizzou ... Denmon needs three more points to tie Jevon Crudup for 13th and six more points to tie Ricky Frazier for 12th ... English stands at 1,304 points, good for 22nd place ... He needs four more points to tie Nathan Buntin for 21st.

> This year's seniors mark the winningest class in Missouri Basketball program history...Heading into the year, the class' 77 wins over the last three-plus seasons mark the most in a three-year stretch at Mizzou...The Tiger clubs from 1980-83 and 1988-91 won 75 games over a three-year stretch ... The class now has a record of 92-28.

Transfers and incoming freshmen are not eligible to for the preseason list, but can play their way into mid-season consideration for the honor.

> Denmon's selection marks the third consecutive year a Tiger has made the Wooden Preseason ledger ... J.T. Tiller was a Top 50 nominee as well as teammate Kim English.

Denmon Scoring at a Historic Rate

Marcus Denmon scored at least 20 points in six of the first nine games this season.

Denmon Named Preseason All-American

Marcus Denmon was named a preseason All-American by Blue Ribbon Magazine...The Kansas City, Mo., native was a fourth team pick by the publication and joined fellow Big 12 standout Perry Jones (Baylor) on the top-four All-America squads.

O Brother, Where Art Thou?

Brother tandems aren't necessarily rare at Mizzou, but very few brother tandems have played at the same time for the Black & Gold ... Many Missouri fans remember the days of Slim & Slam (aka Sammie and Simeon Haley) and then there were Mike and Jerry Kirksey who played together one season (1957-58), plus the Minx twins, Beau and Charles, who played for MU in 1944, but now the current Tigers have a their own tandem of brothers, Matt and Phil Pressey.

> The most successful tandem (stats-wise) are the Haley Twins who each stood over 7-feet tall and played during the 1994-96 seasons ... The duo combined to score 819 points, grab 541 rebounds and block 120 shots during their two seasons playing together.

> During 1957-58 the Kirksey brothers of Buffalo, Mo., combined to score 125 points, led by Mike, who averaged 5.4 points per night.

NBA Pedigree

Every basketball player has the dream of playing in the NBA and for two Tigers, their fathers each reached that dream of playing basketball at the highest level ... Brothers Matt and Phil Pressey come from an NBA background.

> Paul Pressey, now an assistant coach for the Cleveland Cavaliers, is widely considered the original point forward in the NBA and was named first or second team All-Defense in the league three times ... Pressey played for Milwaukee, San Antonio and Golden State in his career which spanned 1983-93.

Tigers Add Transfer

Jabari Brown, a former five-star prospect and top-20 recruit according Rivals.com, has signed a grant-in-aid agreement with the University of Missouri. Brown will sit out the rest of this year as part of NCAA transfer guidelines but will be eligible to play with the Tigers in December of 2012.

> The 6-4, 205-pounder was enrolled at the University of Oregon earlier this season before looking to transfer ... Coming out of high school, the Oakland, Calif., native was rated as the No. 19 prospect nationally by Rivals.com and was a five-star recruit according to the website. He was rated as the No. 5 SG nationally by Rivals as well. > As a senior at Oakland High School, Brown averaged 23.8 points and 4.1 rebounds per game.

NOTING MIZZOU HEAD COACH FRANK HAITH

Frank Haith enters his first season as the head coach of the Missouri Basketball program. A 25-year coaching veteran, Haith brings Big 12 ties, a family atmosphere and impeccable academic success to a Tiger program which has surged back onto the national landscape.

Haith was officially welcomed to the Missouri family on April 5, 2011, and immediately appreciated the Tiger's passionate fanbase. The Burlington, N.C., native came from the University of Miami where he was not only forced to instill a winning mentality to his players and supporters, but do it at a university void of any lengthy basketball tradition.

"I'm honored to be named the new head coach at the University of Missouri, and I want to thank Chancellor Brady Deaton and Director of Athletics Mike Alden for believing in me and presenting me with this tremendous opportunity to come back to the Big 12 Conference and lead this program," head coach Frank Haith said. "I have always had a tremendous amount of respect for this university and this program. I coached against Norm Stewart. Mizou Arena and the facilities here are first class. The support of the students and administration is second-to-none and the tradition is outstanding. I'll tell you this Mizou Nation, we are going to win and win big!"

Haith's task in South Beach was monumental. In addition to resurrecting a hoops program that was restarted just two decades prior, he ushered the Hurricanes into the tradition-rich Atlantic Coast Conference where many didn't expect his program to win a single league game. Those critics were wrong.

In his first of seven seasons as the head coach, Haith guided the 'Canes to seven ACC victories (despite being picked last) and qualified for postseason play. He was recognized by being named a Naismith National Coach of the Year finalist and NABC District 6 Coach of the Year.

Miami returned to postseason play the following year. The Hurricanes won 18 more games and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NIT, recording the program's first postseason wins since 2000. Postseason success was a theme under Haith. His teams won six total games in the NCAA and National Invitation tournaments, including a memorable run to the second round of the Big Dance in 2008. The 'Canes went 23-11 in Haith's fourth season, just one win shy of the school record and he was named a finalist for ACC Coach of the Year and the Skip Prosser Man of the Year honors.

It wasn't just on the hardwood that Haith led a University of Miami renaissance. His young men were as well-rounded as any in America. They were visible on campus and in the Miami community. Most importantly, they graduated. An incredible 21-of-22 seniors to play for Frank Haith walked across the stage to receive a diploma.

"That's my proudest moment," Haith would say. "To know we churned out young men, ready to make positive contributions in the community, ready to be great fathers and husbands. That's what coaching at the college level is all about."

It's not an accident Frank Haith was hired as the 17th basketball coach at Mizou. The grind from student-assistant at Elon College to being named the National Recruiter of the Year by Rivals.com doesn't just happen without a dedication to family, career and your student-athletes.

Haith paid his own way through Elon and graduated in 1988. He helped the Fighting Christians twice win 20 games and earned the opportunity to cut his teeth at perennial power Wake Forest the following year as a graduate assistant. His first full-time coaching position at Division I came at UNC-Wilmington from 1990-92 and he laid the foundation for his job at Missouri with a three-year stop at Texas A&M from 1992-95, which included helping the Aggies reach postseason play in 1994.

A remarkable 21-win campaign during his one season at Penn State (1995-96) allowed the Nittany Lions to reach the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 31 years, and he returned to Texas A&M and the Big 12 Conference for one season as the Aggies' Associate Head Coach in 1996-97 before returning to Wake Forest from 1997-98. The Demon Deacons reached postseason play each of his four years in Winston-Salem, including winning the NIT Championship in 2000 and reaching NCAA Tournament play in 2001.

Haith parlayed that success at Wake Forest into an opportunity at the University of Texas. Coaching alongside friend and mentor Rick Barnes, Haith was a part of (at the time) the winningest three-year stretch of basketball in Texas history. The Longhorns averaged better than 24 wins per season and never failed to reach the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament. The Longhorns advanced to the Final Four in 2003 and Haith worked magic on the recruiting trail, ushering four McDonald's All-Americans to Austin, including Brad Buckman (2002), LaMarcus Aldridge (2004), Daniel Gibson (2004) and Michael Williams (2004). Aldridge and Gibson are now mainstays in the NBA, with Aldridge being drafted No. 2 overall to the Chicago Bulls. The Class was rated No. 2 nationally by Rivals.com and Haith was the nation's hottest young coach. So began the daunting reclamation project at Miami, which concluded with an average of 21 wins over his last three years, national rankings in three of his final four campaigns and three of the school's six (all-time) 20-win ledgers.

One of 10 siblings, family will always be first for Frank Haith, and his student-athletes are part of that family. A proud father and husband, Frank and his wife Pam are the parents of two children, Corey and Brianna. Frank and Pam met in high school, began dating a short time after and have been together for 27 years. The Haith family has been active participants in their home community and spearheaded fundraising and renovation efforts for Morningside Park in Elon, N.C., in the neighborhood in which Haith grew up.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT MIZZOU...

"If Mizzou is not the most surprising team in this early portion of the college basketball season, the Tigers certainly make the top five. Despite all sorts of offseason turmoil, Missouri was labeled an early-season favorite to challenge Kansas' run of Big 12 titles. And then in October, Laurence Bowers went down with a torn ACL, bringing both the Tigers' expectations and preseason rankings right down with him."

Dana O'Neil, ESPN.com

"Missouri is on a roll like no other team in the country right now ... Haith got this job with experienced players. There are 11 seniors or juniors. No one of note bolted on Haith, and how could they with eligibility only available for one season or needing to sit? The situation was perfect for him if he pushed the right buttons with this group. He has. And if you're going to look at coach of the year candidates through the first two months of the season, he has to be in the top five."

Andy Katz, ESPN.com

"This Missouri team is still vulnerable. The Tigers are thin up front . . . but English has been a tough matchup for opponents at power forward due to his ability to step out and make shots. Denmon is one of the most underrated players in the nation and Pressey's older brother, Matt, has thrived in his role as a defensive stopper and glue guy."

Jeff Goodman, CBSSports.com

Few teams can match up with the Tigers' lightning-quick guards; most opponents don't have a player to match up with Marcus Denmon's speed and shooting, let alone the personnel to check Denmon and fellow guards Phil Pressey and Michael Dixon at the same time. When coach Frank Haith runs those three alongside English and (actual) forward Ricardo Ratliffe, Missouri forces more mismatch problems for its opponent than it creates for itself. Hence that offensive efficiency. Hence the 13-0 record.

Eamonn Brennan, ESPN.com

"Few pundits (myself included) had faith in Haith, considering the ex-Miami coach a slight downgrade from Mike Anderson, who left the Tigers for Arkansas. And when forward Laurence Bowers, their top rebounder and second-leading scorer from last season, tore his ACL on Oct. 4, leaving their frontcourt woefully thin, there appeared to be little chance of them winning the Big 12. Yet they've been the league's best team thus far, and the most surprisingly dominant offense in the country, ranking fifth in adjusted efficiency. Improbably, everything has changed for the better."

Luke Winn, SI.com

"The Tigers might be the most complete team in college basketball. My definition of 'complete' is pretty simple: It's whether a team that can produce at a high level on both ends of the court. I think Missouri fits the bill better than almost any other team."

Sebastian Pruiti, Grantland.com

"Missouri, which beat then-No. 20 Cal by 39 a few weeks ago in Kansas City, reminds (Jay) Wright of his 2005-06, perimeter-oriented club that made it to the Final Eight. 'They're fun to watch,' he acknowledged. 'But not necessarily to play.'"

Mike Kern, Philadelphia Daily News

Coach of the Year.

1. Frank Haith, Missouri Tigers

To the victor go the spoils. The Tigers are one of four unbeaten teams left and Haith has done a stellar job in his first season in Columbia. He doesn't have great depth up front but his team has made things work with speed and ability to convert in transition.

Dick Vitale, ESPN.com

"For Haith and the Tigers, it has been about putting players in situations that best suit their abilities. That's not a new concept, but it's impressive that this new coach and his group of players have figured out things so early in the season."

Ryan Fagan, The Sporting News

"First-year Missouri coach Frank Haith . . . inherited an experienced nucleus of interchangeable players and has made the most of it, getting his players to share the ball, maximize possessions and chop teams down with a lethal halfcourt defense. The Tigers had 23 assists on 28 field goals."

Dick Weiss, New York Daily News

"Missouri is the smallest of any team in a power-six conference this season . . . yet the Tigers hung right with the Wildcats on the boards, including a 14-13 edge on the offensive glass. And their aggressive man-to-man defense forced 15 Villanova turnovers (Missouri had just eight). Haith isn't employing the same full-court-pressure style that his predecessor, Mike Anderson, did. He has tweaked things to fit his own style, and his personnel."

Kieran Darcy, ESPN.com

"That is Haith's challenge with the veteran bunch he inherited from Anderson – a challenge he has passed with Coach of the Year success so far. (And this is from a vocal critic of athletic director Mike Alden's hire in the spring.) Haith has brought an element of order to the chaos Anderson coached, specifically coherence to the offense. The result has been a radical improvement in efficiency."
