TIGER NEWS & NOTES

Iowa State Cyclones (1-7, 0-4) at #13/13 Missouri Tigers (6-1, 2-1)

Oct. 27, 2007 — Faurot Field/Memorial Stadium — Columbia, Mo.

KICKOFF: 1:00 p.m. (central time).

STADIUM: Faurot Field/Memorial Stadium (68,349 — FieldTurf surface). Opened in 1926. MU is 240-163-20 there alltime, and has won 13 of its last 14 there.

RADIO: Tiger Network (Mike Kelly, play-by-play/John Kadlec, color/Chris Gervino, sidelines). Carried on over 50 stations statewide, and on the Internet at mutigers.com, and on Sirius Satellite Radio (Channel #130).

TV: None.

RANKINGS (AP/COACHES): MU - 13th/13th; ISU — None.

SERIES: MU leads, 56-34-9 overall, including 27-16-7 in Columbia. ISU holds a 6-5 edge since the inception of the Big 12 Conference in 1996.

COACHES:

Mizzou: Gary Pinkel (Kent, '75), 43-36 at MU (7th year) and 116-73-3 overall (17th year). Pinkel is 3-3 vs. ISU and 0-0 vs. Gene Chizik.

Iowa State: Gene Chizik (Florida, '85), 1-7 at ISU and overall (1st year). Chizik is facing MU and Gary Pinkel for the 1st time.

TIGERS LOOK FOR 7TH WIN IN 8 GAMES; PLAY HOST TO IOWA STATE

The Missouri Tigers (6-1 overall, 2-1 in Big 12 Conference play), ranked 13th in both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches polls, look to continue their solid play by closing out a brief two-game homestand against the Iowa State Cyclones (1-7, 0-4).

Mizzou jumped in the polls after a dominating 41-10 victory in Columbia last Saturday over then-#22 Texas Tech, as the Tiger defense held the Red Raiders' offensive attack (which ranked #1 in the NCAA coming in) to more than 100 yards and exactly 40 points below their season averages coming into the game.

Iowa State, under 1st-year Head Coach Gene Chizik, is 1-6 overall, but the Cyclones do have a solid win under their belt, over in-state rival Iowa (15-13), and are coming off an inspired performance last Saturday that saw them nearly knock off 4th-ranked Oklahoma in Ames, before falling by a 17-7 score.

Iowa State at #13/13 Mizzou — Oct. 27, 2007

TIGERS RIDING HIGH AFTER WIN VS. TECH

The Missouri Tigers were looking to bounce back last week following their 1st loss of the 2007 season (41-31 at #6 Oklahoma), and they did just that and more, as MU bombed 22nd-ranked Texas Tech, 41-10 in Columbia, Mo.

It was Homecoming at Mizzou, but the Tigers were inhospitable hosts to their visitors from West Texas, as MU's defense was the talk of the day, holding the Red Raider offense – which came into the game ranked 1st in the nation in passing and total offense, way below their averages.

Tech QB Graham Harrell, who was 2nd in the nation in pass efficiency coming into the game and had only 3 INTs all year, was picked off 4 times by the Tigers, including on his opening possession – a deflected pass by SS Pig Brown that was gathered in by DE Stryker Sulak and returned 38 yards for a TD to put MU up, 7-0.

The Tigers also held freshman phenom WR Michael Crabtree to just 10 catches for 76 yards (7.6 ypc) and no TDs – Crabtree came into the game with averages of 11 catches, 177.7 yards (15.9 ypc) and 17 TDs.

The Tigers would go up eventually, 10-0, on their way to a 17-10 halftime lead, before breaking it open in the 2nd half by pitching a shutout and tacking on 24 points after intermission. Mizzou used a balanced offensive attack that saw the Tigers rush for 212 yards and 3 TDs (all by TB Jimmy Jackson) and throw for 210 more and 1 TD.

Jackson's 3 TDs came from 1, 3 and 1 yards out, and came one each in the 2nd, 3rd and 4th quarters as the Tigers extended the lead.

The Red Raiders came into the game ranked 1st nationally in total offense (582.0 ypg), passing (500.4), and were 2nd in pass efficiency (177.9 rating) and 3rd in scoring (50.0 ppg), but the Tiger defense was more than up to the challenge, holding Tech to nearly 200 yards shy of its yardage total (388), including 397 passing yards, and exactly 40 points below the Red Raider scoring average.

Playing without starting TB Tony Temple (bruised ankle) for the 2nd-straight game, the Tiger ground game was key to Mizzou's win, as the offensive line controlled the line of scrimmage and paved the way for a committee of backs to carry the rock successfully. Jackson ended with 59 yards rushing and 3 TDs, while true freshman TB Derrick Washington added 9 carries for a career-best 66 yards.

Pig Brown led the way defensively for the Tigers, as he had a career-high 14 tackles, including 4.5 TFLs. Brown had 2 PBUs, an INT (his 3rd of the season), and also deflected the 1st-quarter pass that Sulak ended up hauling in and returning for the pivotal opening score.

PINKEL'S SQUADS SHOW RESILIENCY

The win over Texas Tech continued an impressive trend for Head Coach Gary Pinkel's teams at Mizzou. MU is now 7-0 under Pinkel in games following its first loss of the season.

Two of the rebound wins have come against ranked opponents, including against 10th-ranked Nebraska in 2003 and last week against 22nd-ranked Texas Tech.

Interestingly enough, in the past six seasons under Pinkel, the Tigers haven't been able to extend the momentum after those rebound wins, as MU is 1-5 in the next game. However, upon further examination, every one of those 5 losses were to ranked teams, including 4 against top-3 ranked opponents (#1 Nebraska in 2001; #3 Oklahoma in 2002; at #1 Oklahoma in 2003; #2 Texas in 2005; #19 Oklahoma in 2006).

PIG HOGS THE SPOTLIGHT ONCE AGAIN, WINS BIG 12 DEFENSIVE WEEKLY AWARD

Mizzou senior SS Pig Brown was the catalyst for Mizzou's impressive defensive showing last Saturday against Texas Tech, as he made big play after big play in MU's 41-10 shellacking of the 22nd-ranked Red Raiders.

Brown ended the day with a career-best 14 tackles, including 4.5 TFLs. He added his 3rd INT of the season, broke up 2 passes (including one on a 4th-down attempt), and also deflected another pass that ended up being intercepted and returned by MU's Stryker Sulak 38 yards for a TD to open the scoring on the day.

For all of his rooting around on the field, Pig was named the Big 12 Conference Defensive Player of the Week Monday morning. It marks the 2nd time this season that Brown has won the league's defensive award, as he previously was cited for his outstanding play as he helped lead Mizzou to a 40-34 season-opening victory over Illinois.

Brown was a catalyst for a Tiger defense that won the battle quite significantly against a Red Raider offense that was the nations top-ranked unit prior to Saturday. The Red Raiders came into the game ranked 1st nationally in total offense (582.0 ypg), passing (500.4), and were 2nd in pass efficiency (177.9 rating) and 3rd in scoring (50.0 ppg), but the Tiger defense was more than up to the challenge, holding Tech to nearly 200 yards shy of its yardage total (388), including 397 passing yards, and exactly 40 points below the Red Raider scoring average.

Brown, who is playing his way into serious all-conference and national award consideration, was previously honored this season as both Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week, as well as Bronko Nagurski National Defensive Player of the Week for his efforts against Illinois. In that game, Brown gathered three turnovers on the day, including two fumble recoveries (one of which he returned 100 yards for a touchdown that tied the NCAA record for longest fumble return), and a game-saving interception that came at the MU 1-yardline with just :51 seconds remaining in the game. In all, Brown had five tackles, including one that went for a loss.

This is the 12th time overall that a Tiger has won Big 12 Defensive POW honors, and Brown joins former CB Wade Perkins as the only Tigers to win the weekly award twice in the same season (1998).

DEFENSE MAKING STATISTICAL STRIDES

Mizzou's defense took some lumps from the peanut gallery/haters after its first two games, when it allowed 435 yards to Illinois and 534 yards to Ole Miss to begin the season.

But Defensive Coordinator Matt Eberflus' troops have worked hard to get better, and his young squad has done just that in the past month, as the Tigers have held 5 straight foes to under 400 yards of offense.

The Tiger defense is coming of a very impressive day against Texas Tech in which it held Tech's high-flying offense very much in check. The Red Raiders came into the game ranked 1st in the nation in passing offense (500.4 ypg) and total offense (582.0) and were 2nd nationally coming in in pass efficiency (177.9 rating) and 3rd in scoring (50.0 ppg). Here's a look at what the numbers ended up at the end of the day...

TEXAS TECH OFFENSIVE COMPARISON

	Pass Yds.	Pass Effic.	INTs	Total Off.	Rush Yds.	Pts.
Texas Tech
1st 7 Games	500.4	177.9	3	582.0	81.6	50.0
vs. Mizzou	397	105.3	4	388	(-9)	10

Despite the scoreboard saying that Oklahoma scored 41 points 2 games ago against MU, the Tiger defense played much better than that, as OU scored 21 points off of turnovers. Here's a quick comparison of what OU was averaging coming into the game, and what MU allowed...

OKLAHOMA OFFENSIVE COMPARISON

	Rush Yds.	Avg. Rush	Pass Yds.	Total Off.	Pts.
Oklahoma
1st 6 Games	216.2	5.3	266.0	482.2	49.7
vs. Mizzou	118	3.6	266	384	41

The big plays have come down markedly, as MU has allowed only 9 plays of 20 yards or more in its last 5 games combined, compared to 14 of 20 or more in the 1st 2 games alone. Nebraska failed to produce a single offensive play of 20 yards or more, with the longest pass going for 18 yards, and the longest rush being 17 yards, while Texas Tech last time out had just one play of 20 yards or more.

Here's a look at some game-by-game numbers for the Tiger defense thus far in 2007:

MIZZOU 2007 DEFENSIVE NUMBERS ALLOWED

Opponent	Rush Yds.	Avg. Rush	Pass Yds.	Total Off.	Pts.	3rd Downs	20-Yd. Plays
Illinois	119	3.5	316	435	34	5-14	7
at Ole Miss	229	6.0	305	534	25	7-15	7
Western Mich.	132	3.5	240	372	24	3-16	2

DEFENSIVE NUMBERS IMPRESSIVE DURING CONFERENCE PLAY

Continuing the discussion about Mizzou's defensive improvement, here's a look at at where Mizzou ranked (and what it was allowing per game) in its first 4 games (all non-conference games), versus where it stands in Big 12-play (last 3 games only)...

MIZZOU IS 23-6 AT 'THE ZOU' SINCE 2003 SEASON

Since nicknaming Faurot Field/Memorial Stadium "The Zou" prior to the 2003 season, Gary Pinkel's Tigers have done a nice job of defending their home turf (FieldTurf surface, which was also installed prior to the '03 season, by coincidence).

Since 2003, the Tigers are an impressive 23-6 at home, good for a winning percentage of 79.3%, including 13-5 during that time in Big 12 competition (72.2%). That breaks down to records of 6-0 in 2003, 3-3 in 2004, 4-2 in 2005, 6-1 in 2006 and 4-0 currently in 2007. Mizzou has won 13 of its last 14 at home dating back to midway through the 2005 season. The only loss in that stretch was a 26-10 setback in 2006 to #19 Oklahoma.

TIGERS RISE TO #13 IN A.P. POLL, ALSO STAND #13 IN BCS RANKINGS

After an impressive 41-10 dismantling of #22 Texas Tech last Saturday, Mizzou moved up a couple of spots in the Associated Press Top-25, to 13th. This marks the 6th-consecutive week the Tigers have been ranked, with Mizzou peaking at 11th two weeks ago, prior to dropping a hardfought 41-31 game at current #4 Oklahoma.

The 2nd week of BCS rankings was released Sunday, and the Tigers rose to #13, and were one of four Big 12 Conference teams included in this week's top-25: #6 Oklahoma, #9 Kansas, and #19 Texas were the others.

A few notes about MU carrying a ranking into a game:

- MU is 91-59-1 overall (60.6%) in its previous 151 games as a ranked team, including 2-3 alltime as the #13-ranked team in the AP poll. Here's a look at those games...

MU HISTORY AS THE #13 ASSOCIATED PRESS RANKED TEAM

10-21-78	13		MU 56, Kansas State 14	Away
11-23-68	13	7	Kansas 21, MU 19	Home

- Mizzou has played 68 previous times at home as a ranked team, and the Tigers stand 46-22 alltime in those games (67.7%), including 5-1 under Gary Pinkel...

- Mizzou is 8-7 under Head Coach Gary Pinkel when playing as a ranked team, including 3-1 in 2007, 3-2 in 2006, 1-1 in 2004 and 1-3 in 2003.

TIGERS' SPOT IN BCS POLL IS TIED FOR HIGHEST FOR PROGRAM

The BCS standings (www.bcsfootball.org) this week reflect the Mizzou Tigers at #13, one week after debuting in the initial rankings at #16 the previous week.

This week is the 70th week a set of rankings has been compiled, and Mizzou's showing at #13 is tied for the highest any Tiger team has stood in the rankings (which began in 1998), and only the 9th time overall that MU has made the BCS rankings. Here's a quick look at those times...

SATURDAY WILL MARK THE 100TH MEETING BETWEEN MIZZOU AND IOWA STATE

Mizzou and Iowa State will meet for the 100th time when they tangle Saturday in Columbia, Mo., and the Tigers own a 56-34-9 advantage in the series' previous 99 affairs. The 56 wins is tied for the most by MU against any opponent (MU also owns 56 wins alltime against Kansas State).

Despite Mizzou's overall edge in the series, the rivalry has been very competitive over the last three decades, as ISU owns an 18-17-2 edge in games played since 1970. The Cyclones have won 11 of the last 20 overall, including 6 of the 11 meetings since the Big 12 Conference debuted in 1996.

The Tigers' series advantage is due in large part to a stretch from 1936 through 1969 where Mizzou went a staggering 27-4-3 against the Cyclones (.838).

As the more recent results might indicate, the series has been very hotly contested of late, as 5 of the last 7 meetings between the two border state rivals have been decided by 7 points or less, including each of the last 3 games, with MU winning consecutive overtime games (17-14 in Ames in 2004 followed by a 27-24 2005 win in Columbia), while Iowa State claimed a 21-16 upset win in Ames a year ago.

TIGERS AND CYCLONES PLAY FOR THE UGLIEST TROPHY IN AMERICA

You know how every family has that one niece or nephew that everyone loves to death, but you just can't get past how homely they are? Along those lines, Mizzou and Iowa State will square off Saturday in hopes of winning a very valued trophy, but one that is undoubtedly one of the ugliest trophies in all of sports-dom.

The winner of the Missouri and Iowa State game each year claims the Telephone Trophy, which is a wooden trophy with a phone set on top of it, with the handset of the phone painted in half black and gold for MU colors, and half red and yellow for ISU colors.

The trophy originated in 1959, under the strangest of circumstances. Prior to the 1959 game played in Ames, a Missouri assistant coach put on his headset in the press box and got a big surprise – he could hear the Iowa State coaches chatting, due to the fact that the wires got crossed and each side could hear the other.

Since then, the two teams have played for the Telephone Trophy, and including the 1959 game, Mizzou holds a 27-18-3 advantage since that time.

LAST YEAR REWIND: IOWA STATE 21, MIZZOU 16 [2006]

In the penultimate game of the 2006 regular season, a dramatic Tiger comeback victory appeared to have taken place, as QB Chase Daniel scored from a foot out on 4th-and-goal with just 26 seconds left in the game to put MU on top, but Iowa State and outgoing coach Dan McCarney ended up with the win, as the Daniel TD was nullified when MU was whistled for holding on the play – and Iowa State claimed a 21-16 win in Ames.

The tough break pushed MU back to the 10 yardline and left one more try for the Tigers, and the Cyclones won that battle, as the ISU defense forced Daniel out of the pocket on the ensuing pass play, and sacked him at the 18-yardline as he scrambled to buy time, ending the game and giving Iowa State its only Big 12 win of the season. The loss dropped Mizzou to 7-4 and handed the Tigers their 3rd straight defeat, and 4th in their last 5 games.

But it was so painfully close to going Mizzou's way, as Daniel's apparent TD led a furious Tiger rally that saw MU come nearly all the way back from a 21-10 deficit to enter the 4th quarter. Mizzou had jumped out to a 10-0 lead, and appeared on the verge of breaking the game open, only to see its offense get bogged down in the 2nd and 3rd quarters, while ISU scored 21 straight points over 4 possessions in that span.

The Cyclones dominated the 3rd quarter, turning a 10-7 halftime deficit into a 21-10 ISU lead at the end of the period. Iowa State outscored MU 14-0 in the 3rd quarter, thanks to huge advantages over Mizzou in time of possession (11:03-to-3:57), plays run (26-to-9), total yards (151-to-39) and rushing yards (78-to-6).

It appeared as though Mizzou would roll over the Cyclones early, as MU took the opening kick and methodically drove 80 yards for a TD that came by way of a Daniel 8-yard scoring strike to TE Martin Rucker for a quick 7-0 lead. After MU's defense forced a punt, the Tiger offense was rolling again, getting deep in ISU territory before losing a fumble at the Cyclone 31-yardline. The Cyclones had staved off what looked to be a likely 14-0 deficit.

Mizzou did score next, but could manage only a 38-yard field goal at the 13:18 mark of the 2nd quarter by PK Jeff Wolfert to take a 10-0 lead. A key period in the game came next, as ISU took over at its own 10-yardline after a penalty on the ensuing kickoff. Held in check to that point, the Cyclone offense found its rhythm, as it converted 3 3rd-downs and marched 90 yards for a TD to make it 10-7 and give ISU life.

The Tiger offense got the ball 2 more times before half, including its last drive, which reached the ISU 43-yardline. But MU got nothing to show for it on the scoreboard, as both drives ended in punts.

After ISU's dominating 3rd quarter, the Tigers responded by scoring on a 7-yard TD run by TB Tony Temple with 13:46 left in the game to close it to 21-16 (MU's 2-point try failed). The teams traded punts, and after ISU drove 48 yards and missed a 28-yard FG with just 3:33 left in the game, Daniel led the brilliant drive that saw him nearly score on an acrobatic 3rd-down rush from the ISU 7 that was ruled down at the 1-yardline. That set up the nullified Daniel TD run on the next play that denied MU a thrilling comeback win.

TIGERS LEAD THE NATION IN 3RD-DOWN CONVERSIONS

The latest NCAA stats show that Missouri enters this weekend's games atop the nation's rankings in 3rd-down efficiency, converting a nation-best 57.1% (60-of-105). Mizzou maintained the top spot in the rankings despite not being at the top of their game last time out against Texas Tech. In that game – a 41-10 Tiger win over the 22nd-ranked Red Raiders – MU converted at a 45.4% rate, making 5-of-11 tries.

The 1st quarter saw MU go 0-of-3 in 3rd down tries offensively, marking the 2nd straight game that the Tigers haven't been able to convert a 3rd down (0-of-3 at Oklahoma).

Previously, MU had a solid 9-of-16 showing (56.3%) in the Tigers' 41-31 loss at 6th-ranked Oklahoma – that, despite the fact that OU came into the game ranked 3rd nationally in 3rd-down defense, allowing opponents a conversion rate of just 25.5%.

Here's a quick look at MU's 3rd down history through 7 games in 2007...

CYCLONES, TIGERS AMONG NATION'S LEAST PENALIZED TEAMS

One of Head Coach Gary Pinkel's tried and true lines has to do with Missouri beating Missouri, and how penalties and mistakes do just that. So far in 2007, his Tigers have done a good job of not beating themselves with penalties, as MU ranks 6th in the nation in fewest penalty yards per game, with just 36.3 yards averaged. Mizzou's opponent this Saturday, Iowa State, is even better at avoiding the yellow hankies, as the Cyclones lead the nation in fewest penalty yards per game, at just 30.6.

Through 7 games, MU has been flagged 37 times for a grand total of 254 yards. They are coming off a game in which they were penalized just 3 times for 33 yards against Texas Tech. Previously, the Tigers were cited 5 times for 25 yards at Oklahoma, after getting flagged 9 times for a season-high 79 yards against Nebraska the previous game.

Here's a quick look at the current leaders nationally in fewest yards penalized...

Team	Avg. Yds.	Team	Avg. Yds.
1. Iowa State	30.6	6. Mizzou	36.3
2. Navy	31.4	7. Army	38.6
3. Penn State	34.1	8. Minnesota	39.4
4. Kansas	35.1	9. Purdue	40.0
5. Rice	35.4	10. Vanderbilt	40.9

IOWA STATE WILL LOOK TO CONTROL THE BALL AGAIN

While Iowa State has had a tough year to this point, one thing the Cyclones have had great success at is controlling the clock. Iowa State comes into Saturday's game ranked 9th in the NCAA (2nd in the Big 12) in time of possession, owning the ball for an average of 32:19 per game. Conversely, Mizzou ranks 101st in the nation in average time of possession (11th in Big 12), at 28:17 currently.

Mizzou hopes that trend doesn't repeat from last season, when the Cyclones upset the Tigers in Ames thanks in large part to ISU's ability to chew up clock. In ISU's 21-16 win last season, the Cyclones held the ball for 34:52, to just 25:08 for the Tigers. In the 2nd half, the Cyclones owned the ball for 18:39 of the 30 minutes, keeping the Tiger offense unable to make it all the way back after falling into a 21-10 deficit.

TIGER OFFENSIVE ATTACK AMONG NATION'S MOST BALANCED

Spread offensive attacks such as Mizzou's aren't usually thought of as strong in the run game, but the Tigers, through 7 games, have shown they can do more than just throw the ball.

Mizzou enters Saturday's game against Iowa State ranked 34th in the NCAA in rushing (180.6 ypg), 5th in passing (337.0 ypg), 7th in total offense (517.6 ypg) and 10th in scoring (40.1 ppg).

The NCAA numbers show that MU is the only school in the country currently averaging at least 300 yards passing and 175 yards rushing. Here's a quick look at the numbers...

TEAMS AVERAGING 300 YARDS PASSING/180 YARDS RUSHING (AS OF OCT. 20th)

TEAM	PASS	NAT. RANK	RUSH	NAT. RANK	TOT.	NAT. RANK
MIZZOU	337.0	5th	180.6	34th	517.6	7th

The Tigers displayed virtually perfect balance last time out against Texas Tech, as they rushed for 212 yards and threw for 210 yards in Mizzou's 41-10 win. That broke a string of 21 consecutive games where the Tigers had more passing yardage than rushing yardage in a game – the last previous instance of MU gaining more yards on the ground was in 2005 vs. Baylor (rush for 298, pass for 72).

MORE ABOUT OFFENSIVE BALANCE

After being held to just 70 yards rushing in the season opener against Illinois (359 passing for 429 total on the day), the Tiger offense hit its stride, as it recorded 3 straight games of 300-yards passing/200-yards rushing. Then against Nebraska, the offense was again prolific in nature, going for 606 total yards. Here's a quick look at MU's 5 most balanced games offensively...

OPP.	MU RUSH	MU PASS	MU TOTAL OFF.
at Ole Miss	218	330	548
Western Michigan	272	347	619

Texas Tech	212	210	422
5-Game Avg.	227.4	327.8	555.2

While the Tigers just missed on a 4th straight game of 300 pass/200 rush, the only other time in school history MU has had 3 straight games of at least 200 yds. rushing/300 yds. passing was in 1969, when the Tigers did the trick in consecutive games against Oklahoma (247 rush/312 pass), Iowa State (228 rush/317 pass) and Kansas (344 rush/307 pass).

Mizzou was held to a season-low 57 yards rushing at #6 Oklahoma two weeks ago (361 passing, 57 rushing as MU outgained OU 418-384 overall on the night), but the balance returned last time out, as the Tigers ran for 212 yards and threw for 210 more against Texas Tech.

DANIEL LEADING THE WAY FOR MIZZOU'S HIGH-FLYING OFFENSE

There can't be many QBs in the nation playing at a higher level than Tiger signal caller Chase Daniel, who currently ranks 5th in the nation in total offense (354.43 ypg) and 17th nationally in passing efficiency (150.13 rating).

And he hasn't been putting up numbers against the sisters of the poor, exactly. Here's a look at Daniel's numbers this season against his 5 BCS-conference opponents...

Daniel had a scintillating night at Ole Miss, where he tied his own MU single-game record by tossing 5 TDs (all coming in a span of just 16:07), as he helped lead the Tigers to an important 38-25 road win. In the 2nd quarter alone at Ole Miss, Daniel was 12-of-17 passing for 177 yards and 4 TDs, good for a stout QB rating of 235.7.

Last season, Daniel smashed numerous season records that former QB great Brad Smith and others held, including passing yards (3,527 – almost 1,100 more than the old record of 2,436 by Jeff Handy in 1992), passing TDs (28), TDs responsible for (32) and total offense (3,906). Daniel ranked 5th in the NCAA in total offense with his per-game average of 300.5 ypg – that was the highest a Tiger has rated in total offense nationally since Bob Steuber finished 3rd in 1942.

Daniel, in his first year as a starter in 2006, led MU to its first 6-0 start since 1973, and an 8-win season for only the 10th time in school history. He enters Saturday's game against Iowa State with a career record of 14-6 as a starter at Mizzou.

RUCKER LEADS ALL OF NCAA'S TIGHT ENDS IN RECEPTIONS PER GAME

All-American candidate TE Martin Rucker bypassed the NFL draft after his junior year, in order to come back to help lead his team to great things in 2007, and also to help improve his draft status for next year. Through 7 games, his decision appears to have been an extremely good one, as Rucker has played like a man among children, as he leads all of the nation's tight ends with his per-game average of 6.71 receptions, while his 75.00 yards per game (47 receptions, 525 yards, 3 TDs) ranks 3rd among TEs nationally, less than 5 yards off the leader. He also ranks 20th nationally – among all position players – with his 6.71 catches per game.

It's hard to imagine a tight end playing more inspired ball right now, as Rucker has been a beast every time he's touched the ball – we're hyperbolizing a little here, probably, but it's hard to remember a time when he was brought down by any less than 3 people on a play when he's touched the ball this season.

The co-captain was a focal point of the offensive attack that rolled up 606 yards against Nebraska, as Rucker caught 9 passes for 109 yards and 1 TD against the Huskers. He followed with a 6-catch, 35-yard outing at Oklahoma where he caught a TD pass in the 4th quarter. Rucker is coming off a 3-catch, 51-yard outing against Texas Tech.

Rucker, who was voted a team co-captain by his teammates this off-season, caught 53 passes for 511 yards and 5 TDs a year ago. He entered his senior season (after bypassing the NFL Draft) already holding the MU career records for TEs in receptions (119) and yardage (1,341).

Rucker is the younger brother of Mike Rucker, who was an All-American defensive lineman at Nebraska and is a standout with the NFL's Carolina Panthers. His father, Martin Sr., also has a very public job, as he is a State Representative in the Missouri House of Representatives, for District 29.

Here's a look at the NCAA's top tight ends statistically speaking...

MACLIN LEADS BIG 12, RANKS 4TH IN NCAA IN ALL-PURPOSE YARDAGE

Redshirt freshman WR Jeremy Maclin was a highly-touted recruit in 2006 who figured to be a big part of the Tiger offense a year ago, before suffering a season-ending knee injury during summer drills prior to last season.

It didn't take long to show that he's fully recovered, and for MU fans to start looking for #9 jerseys in the Tiger Team Store at Memorial Stadium, as Maclin has been next-to-unbelievable thus far for Mizzou, as he enters Saturday's game against Iowa State leading the Big 12 Conference, and ranking 9th nationally, in all-purpose yardage, at 189.29 yards per game.

In fact, Maclin is the only player among the NCAA's top-100 all-purpose players to currently have 100 yards in each of the 4 all-purpose categories, and he now has over 200 yards in each category: rushing (209 yds.), receiving (423), punt returns (208) and kickoff returns (485).

Maclin is coming off a game where he was held to a season-low 66 yards Saturday against Texas Tech, as he didn't get a chance to return a single punt or kick, and rushed just 3 times due to a bruised shoulder he suffered in the first half that kept him out for awhile. Maclin did return after the injury to catch a 57-yard TD pass in the 3rd quarter from Chase Daniel.

At Oklahoma, Maclin scored a pair of rushing TDs, scoring from 5 yards out in the 1st quarter, and from 10 yards out in the 3rd quarter. He ended the night with 32 yards rushing (4 carries) and caught 5 passes for 53 yards, while returning 3 kickoffs for 104 yards total. Included in the kickoff number was a 56-yarder in the 1st quarter that was MU's longest kickoff return since 2002.

Maclin was a big part of MU's win against Nebraska, as he had 149 all-purpose yards, including 62 receiving (4 receptions) and 53 rushing (6 carries). Nebraska held him down in the return game, as he was able to make only 1 punt return (8 yds.) and kickoff return each (26).

Previously, J-Mac had a 238-yard outing against Illinois State, in which he scored on a 64-yard punt return for a TD and also on an 8-yard pass on offense. In all, Maclin had a team-best 5 catches for 53 yards (1 TD), 1 rush for 22 yds., 4 punt returns for 84 yds. (1 TD) and 3 kickoff returns for 82 yards (with a long of 38 yds.).

His 4th-quarter punt return for a TD against Illinois State gave him 2 for the season, and that already ties him for the MU season and career records – only 4 others alltime at Mizzou have returned 2 punts for TDs. He was named the Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week for his big day.

Prior to that, Maclin had a career-high 275-yard all-purpose outing against Western Michigan – the 5th-highest single-game total in MU history. On the day, Maclin had 7 receptions for a career-high 96 yards and 1 TD, he rushed 6 times for 52 yards and 1 TD, had 2 punt returns for 31 yards and returned 5 kickoffs for 96 yards.

Through 7 games, Maclin is on pace for 2,271 all-purpose yards so far (12-game season), which would obliterate the MU single-season record of 1,621 set in 1998 by former MU All-American, Devin West.

Maclin enters Saturday's game against Iowa State currently 2nd in the Big 12 and 12th in the NCAA with his punt return average of 16.00 yards.

Maclin is currently 3rd on the team with 32 receptions, 2nd in scoring (54 points), 2nd in rushing (209 yards) and 2nd in receiving yards (423).

DON'T BLINK OR YOU'LL MISS MIZZOU'S QUICK STRIKE OFFENSE

The Tiger offense has shown its quick-strike nature often thus far this season, as its average time of possession in 42 offensive scoring drives thus far has been just 2:31.

Against Western Michigan, the Tigers struck quickly and often on the way to a 52-24 win. Every one of their 1st 7 scoring drives took 2:24 or less, including amazing back-to-back drives in the 2nd quarter that traveled 86 yards (TD) and 70 yards (TD) in just 1:04 and 0:52 seconds, respectively.

The game did end with the reserves methodically marching downfield in rather un-Mizzou-like fashion, grinding out a 14-play, 94-yard TD drive that took 5:18. Even with that 5:18 drive, the per-game average for MU's scoring drive against WMU was a mere 1:54. If that long drive is backed out of the equation, the other 7 scoring drives averaged only 1:25!!

Mizzou was actually a bit more methodical the last three games, as the Tigers had 4 scoring drives that took over 3 minutes apiece against Nebraska, and averaged 2:58 in 5 scoring drives last time out at Oklahoma, while following with 6 scoring drives against Texas Tech in an average of 3:03 apiece.

As per the chart below, of Mizzou's 32 offensive TD drives thus far, 20 have taken just 2:50 or less, including 14 in the last 5 games.

PINKEL STANDS 4TH ON ALLTIME MU COACHING WINS LIST

Mizzou Head Coach Gary Pinkel is in his 7th season at MU and touts a career record of 116-73-3 (61.2%).

Pinkel, who has led MU to a combined record of 34-22 over the past 5 seasons, and to bowl games in 2003, 2005 and 2006, has a 7-year record in Columbia of 43-36 (54.4%). Dating back to the 2005 Independence Bowl win over Steve Spurrier and South Carolina, Pinkel has won 15 of his last 21 games overall.

MU's 41-10 win last time out over Texas Tech gave Pinkel his 43rd MU win, and he stands 4th alltime on the coaching wins list at MU. Here's a quick look at the top 6...

MIZZOU COACHING WINS LEADERS

Coach	Wins	# Seasons (Years)	Record	Pct.	# Bowls
Don Faurot	101	19 (1935-42, 46-56)	101-79-10	.558	4
Dan Devine	93	13 (1958-70)	93-37-7	.704	6
Warren Powers	46	7 (1978-84)	46-33-3	.580	5
Gary Pinkel	43	7 (2001-Present)	43-36	.544	3
Gwinn Henry	40	9 (1923-31)	40-28-9	.578	1
Al Onofrio	38	7 (1971-77)	38-41	.481	2

Pinkel is in a select group of Mizzou coaches that includes College Football Hall of Famers Don Faurot and Dan Devine, as well as Warren Powers, to be the only coaches to have an MU record of above .500 (with at least one full season coached) dating all the way back to 1935.

The 2006 season got off to an historic start for Pinkel and his Tigers, as he led MU to its first 6-0 start since 1973, and its first 7-1 start to a season since 1969. He was awarded with a new five-year contract late in the year that will keep him on the Tiger sidelines through the 2011 season. The new deal trumped the old contract that was set to expire after the 2008 campaign.

Pinkel has led MU to 3 bowl games, and if his Tigers can reach a 4th in 2007, he would join Faurot (4 bowls), Devine (6 bowls), and Powers (5 bowls) as the only coaches to guide MU to 4 bowl games. After beating Nebraska in 2007 (41-6) for the 3rd time in 5 years, Pinkel became the first MU coach since Onofrio to defeat NU three times.

Pinkel has guided Mizzou to 3 winning seasons (8-5 in 2003, 7-5 in 2005, 8-5 in 2006), with those representing 3 of MU's 5 winning campaigns dating back to the 1983 season.

CHASE DANIEL NAMED BIG 12 OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK VS. NEBRASKA

To no real surprise, QB Chase Daniel was named as the Big 12 Conference Offensive Player of the Week for his performance in leading Mizzou to a 41-6 dismantling of then-#25 Nebraska. It marks the 3rd time in his career that Daniel has won the league's weekly honor as he claimed the award in 2006 for performances against Murray State and Kansas.

Here's a few quick hitters about Daniel's night...

- Daniel had a career night, as he recorded a career-best 473 yards of total offense and 4 total TDs (2 passing/2 rushing). Daniel threw for a career-best 401 yards on 33-of-47 passing, and he tossed a pair of TDs, while running for a game-high 72 yards (11 carries), and running for 2 more scores on the night...

- Daniel's offense total came just 7 yards shy of the MU single-game record of 480 set by former great Brad Smith, who had that total against the same Nebraska team in 2005...

- Daniel helped rack up a whopping 606 yards of total offense on the night against the Huskers, an MU-record against Nebraska, and the 8th-highest single-game output in school history. Mizzou had 411 yards passing on the night, and added 195 yards rushing...

- Daniel's passing total was the 4th-highest in MU single-game history...

- Mizzou's game against Nebraska ended at 11:53 p.m. (central), just 7 minutes before Daniel celebrated his 21st birthday (Oct. 7th). Last year playing on his 20th birthday, Daniel led Mizzou to a 38-21 win at Texas Tech...

In his seventh year directing the Missouri Tiger football program, Head Coach Gary Pinkel has built a solid foundation that has Mizzou pointed toward an exciting future.

While Pinkel himself would say that the program is still a work in progress, numerous accomplishments can be pointed to that already tell a nice success story. Mizzou enjoyed an exciting 2006 campaign that saw them win eight regular-season games for just the 10th time in school history, and the Tigers' appearance in the Brut Sun Bowl marked MU's third bowl game in the past four seasons – the first time in 25 years that Mizzou has had three bowls in four years.

Mizzou caught the attention of the national football community in 2006, as the Tigers got out to a scintillating 6-0 start, the first time since 1973 that MU had won its first six games. Mizzou was ranked for much of the season and had its name mentioned on the cover of Sports Illustrated and had its program prominently featured in other national publications such as USA Today and The New York Times. Exposure to the program has never been higher, as a record-tying nine of MU's 13 games were televised in 2006.

His success has led to an increased commitment to his program from the University, as Pinkel was awarded with a new five-year contract last November that will keep him on the Tiger sidelines through the 2011 season. With winning seasons in 2003 (8-5), 2005 (7-5) and 2006 (8-5), Pinkel is the first MU coach to achieve three winning seasons since Warren Powers.

Pinkel and his program successfully built on the momentum created from a thrilling 38-31 win over South Carolina in the 2005 Independence Bowl that saw his Tigers overcome a 21-point deficit. The landmark win marked the largest come-from-behind win in school history, and it gave Mizzou only its second bowl win in the last 24 years.

In the last five seasons, Pinkel has led the Tigers to a mark of 34-22 overall.

Pinkel now has led Mizzou to three bowl games, and that puts him in select company, as he joins Don Faurot, Dan Devine, Al Onforio, and Warren Powers as the only coaches to guide MU to three bowl games. After beating Nebraska (41-6 on Oct. 6th) for the 3rd time in 5 years, Pinkel became the first MU coach since Al Onofrio to defeat the Huskers three times.

His seven-year Mizzou record stands at 43-36, and in 17 years, his record is 116-73-3 overall. The win over Nebraska in 2005 was the 100th of his head coaching career. His 43 wins at Mizzou is now 4th-most on the school's career coaching victories list.

After taking over a program that had fallen on hard times in 2001, Pinkel had increased success in each of his first three seasons, improving from four wins in 2001 to five wins in 2002, to the 2003 squad which went 8-5 and made the school's third bowl appearance since 1983.

2007 GAME RECAPS

GAME #1 • MIZZOU 40, ILLINOIS 34

SEPT. 1, 2007 • EDWARD JONES DOME • ST. LOUIS, MO. • (62, 352)

ST. LOUIS (AP) - Chase Daniel threw three touchdown passes, Pig Brown intercepted a pass at the 1 with 51 seconds to play, and Missouri held off Illinois 40-34 in both teams' season opener at the Edward Jones Dome in St. Louis, Mo.

The Tigers (1-0) scored on a 100-yard fumble return and a 66-yard punt return and were up 37-13 late in the third quarter.

Illinois redshirt freshman quarterback Eddie McGee - in the game after starter Juice Williams left after a blow to the head in the second quarter - scored from 16 yards with 4:08 to play in the third quarter to cut the margin to 17.

After Missouri's Danario Alexander fumbled on a double-reverse, McGee hit Kyle Hudson on a 41-yard scoring pass on the next play. The Illini got within three early in the fourth quarter after Daniel fumbled deep in his own territory. Rashard Mendenhall scored from the 4 two plays later to make it 37-34.

Missouri went ahead 40-34 on Jeff Wolfert's 32-yard field goal with 8:32 to play, then held on.

The Illini had one final shot, taking over at their 30 with 2:51 to play and driving to the Missouri 22. But Brown leaped high to intercept Brown's pass, and Missouri ran out the clock to claim its third straight win over Illinois in St. Louis, matching previous wins in 2002 and 2003.

McGee was 17-for-31 for 257 yards and a touchdown, but lost two fumbles and was intercepted twice. One of the fumbles came when McGee was inches from scoring on a quarterback draw in the second quarter. Missouri safety Pig Brown scooped up the ball and ran 100 yards the other way — tying an NCAA record in the process for longest fumble return.

Daniel was 37-for-54 for a career-high 359 yards and threw touchdown passes of 1 yard to Chase Coffman in the first quarter, 2 yards to Will Franklin in the second quarter and 25 yards to Jeremy Maclin in the third quarter.

Maclin also scored on a 66-yard punt return that put Missouri up 37-13 with 6:11 to play in the third quarter, before the Illini began the comeback.

Martin Rucker caught 10 passes for 86 yards for Missouri, and Alexander had nine catches for 82 yards, before dislocating his left wrist while being tackled on a key 33-yard reception in the fourth quarter that extended a crucial drive for the Tigers. Team officials said after the game they hoped to have Alexander back in time for the Nebraska game in Columbia on Oct. 5th.

Illinois rushed for 174 yards, led by Daniel Dufrene's 58 yards on six carries. Mendenhall had 42 yards and scored on runs of 25 and 4 yards.

Williams was scrambling near the sideline early in the second quarter when he appeared to take a helmet-to-helmet hit from Missouri cornerback Hardy Ricks. Ricks was playing despite suffering a dislocated shoulder just weeks prior in pre-season camp.

The Illini said Williams was held out for the remainder of the game as a precaution. He was 6-for-9 for 59 yards and rushed six times for 15 yards.

Both teams made the most of the opportunities presented them, as Illinois scored 20 of its points off Tiger miscues, including six on a blocked punt returned for a touchdown, and 14 more after recovering MU fumbles on the Tiger 5-yardline and 41-yardline.

Mizzou countered by scoring 16 points off of three Illini fumbles, with another seven coming on Maclin's punt return score — only the third non-blocked punt return for a touchdown at Missouri since 1990.

2007 GAME RECAPS

GAME #2 • MIZZOU 38, OLE MISS 25

SEPT. 8, 2007 • VAUGHT-HEMINGWAY STADIUM • OXFORD, MISS. • (50,897)

OXFORD, Miss. (AP) - Chase Daniel accounted for a career-high 396 total yards and threw five touchdowns passes as Missouri sprinted to a 28-point lead over Mississippi then held on for a 38-25 win.

It was the eighth time in the last nine games that Daniel had at least 309 total yards. He faced little pressure as he masterfully ran the spread offense and picked apart the Ole Miss (1-1) defense in the first 35 minutes.

Rebels running back BenJarvus Green-Ellis had a career game with 226 yards rushing.

The Tigers (2-0) built a halftime lead of 28-7 with four touchdowns and 245 yards passing. Daniel then seemed to put the Rebels away with a 38-yard touchdown pass to Greg Bracey just 1:12 into the third quarter that gave the Tigers a 35-7 lead.

Daniel's five touchdown passes came on five consecutive series spanning the second and third quarters.

But Ole Miss quarterback Seth Adams led the Rebels' push, completing 23 of 41 passes for 305 yards and three touchdowns in his second start. His scoring passes of 68 yards to Mike Wallace and 3 yards to Greg Hardy in the third quarter cut Missouri's lead to 38-19.

Green-Ellis cut it to 38-25 with a 2-yard touchdown run early in the fourth quarter. But failed conversions cost Ole Miss 5 points, and the Rebels couldn't overcome their first-half mistakes, including Green-Ellis' fumble at the Missouri 7.

Daniel has thrown for 689 yards in two games, leading an offense that is averaging 39 points and 494 yards.

Not only was Daniel efficient, he was quick. All of Missouri's scoring drives lasted less than 3:05, with three coming in under 2 minutes.

The Ole Miss defense rarely pressured Daniel, giving him plenty of time to find an open receiver. The Rebels were often in position to stop big Tigers plays, but missed several key tackles that allowed first downs or scores.

2007 GAME RECAPS

GAME #3 • MIZZOU 52, WESTERN MICHIGAN 24

SEPT. 15, 2007 • FAUROT FIELD/MEMORIAL STADIUM • COLUMBIA, MO. • (53,480)

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Jeremy Maclin racked up 275 total yards and scored two touchdowns and Tony Temple add two TDs to lead Missouri to a 52-24 win over Western Michigan in Mizzou's 2007 home opener.

Chase Daniel threw for two touchdowns and ran for a third, completing 27 of 46 passes for 328 yards for Missouri.

As it did in season-opening victories against Illinois and Mississippi, Missouri (3-0) built a big first-half lead - going up 31-3 on the Broncos (0-3) - before withstanding a second-half comeback that briefly cut the lead to 14.

But the Tigers' defense stopped Western Michigan when it counted, including a fourth-and-goal from the 6 midway through the fourth quarter.

Missouri wasted little time at the outset, with Maclin catching a 24-yard touchdown pass from Daniel to cap a 6-play, 72-yard opening drive.

The Tigers extended the lead to 14-0 on a 1-yard touchdown run by Temple - Missouri's first rushing score of the season. Linebacker Brock Christopher's interception set up the 46-yard scoring drive, which also featured a 39-yard scramble by Daniel before he was knocked out of bounds at the 1.

The run was a career long for Daniel, who added a 35-yard run for a score in the fourth quarter.

Daniel entered the game with a chance to set the Division I record for consecutive passes without an interception, having thrown 235 in a row without a pick, a streak dating back to a Nov. 4, 2006 game against Nebraska.

He extended the mark with his first 20 passes Saturday before Western Michigan's Anthony Gebhart picked off Daniel with 3:31 remaining in the second quarter. That play preserved the national mark of 271 set by Trent Dilfer at Fresno State.

Maclin added his second touchdown early in the second quarter with a 17-yard run on a direct snap to the receiver, who was lined up in the shotgun.

Maclin caught seven passes for 96 yards, rushed six times for 52 yards, returned five kickoffs for 96 yards and returned two punts for 31 yards. His 275 all-purpose yards ranked as the 5th-most in MU single-game history.

Maclin nearly had another long score on a third-quarter kickoff, but ran into the back of a blocker and had to settle for a 29-yard return. And his 23-yard punt return in the third quarter deep into Western Michigan territory set up Temple's second rushing touchdown to make it 38-10.

Tommy Saunders caught a 25-yard TD pass from Daniel just before half-time, and backup quarterback Chase Patton completed the Tigers' scoring with an 18-yard run with 1:33 remaining.

Mark Bonds had a 9-yard touchdown run and Branden Ledbetter added a 27-yard scoring reception for Western Michigan, both in the fourth quarter. Ledbetter's score allowed the Broncos to cut the lead to 38-24 before Daniel ran for a 35-yard touchdown.

2007 GAME RECAPS

GAME #4 • #25 MIZZOU 38, ILLINOIS STATE 17

SEPT. 22, 2007 • FAUROT FIELD • COLUMBIA, MO. • (56,137)

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) - For No. 25 Missouri, every possession is a 2-minute offense.

The Tigers used their no-huddle spread offense to take care of business by beating Illinois State 38-17 going into an off week before the Tigers' Big 12 opener against Nebraska.

Chase Daniel threw three touchdown passes for Missouri (4-0), which had 581 total yards and 38 first downs.

The Tigers scored on drives lasting 17 seconds, 3:11, 2:40, 3:33 and 2:04, and on Maclin's punt return. On 24 scoring drives this season, the Tigers' average time of possession is 2:08.

"I want to score - I'm not worried about grinding it out," said coach Gary Pinkel, who became the first-ever Missouri coach to start 4-0 in three different seasons. "Our offense is not milk the clock."

Tony Temple scored on a first-quarter pass and a third-quarter 1-yard run, and Jeremy Maclin caught a touchdown pass and scored on a 64-yard fourth-quarter punt return.

Daniel was 21-for-34 for 294 yards and threw two interceptions. He completed passes to 11 different receivers. He has thrown 13 touchdown passes this season after setting a school record with 28 in 2006 in his first year as a starter.

Temple rushed 18 times for 101 yards, his sixth career 100-yard game.

Luke Drone was 22-for-37 for 242 yards, one touchdown and one interception for Illinois State (2-2) of the Football Championship Subdivision - the former Division I-AA. Geno Blow gained 116 yards on 21 carries. Eyad Salem caught seven passes for 106 yards and a fourth-quarter 13-yard touchdown.

Daniel's receivers did most of the work on the scoring passes.

On the first play from scrimmage, Will Franklin caught a pass on a wide receiver screen at the Missouri 43 and ran the distance.

"We had no idea they were going to come and blitz like that and we had our screen called," Daniel said. "It was scripted, so it worked out perfectly."

Later in the quarter, Daniel threw a short pass to Temple, who ran in for an 11-yard score.

Missouri drove 97 yards after Illinois State failed to convert on fourth-and-goal from the 3 early in the second quarter. The 8-yard touchdown to end the drive came as Daniel appeared to run, then flipped forward to Maclin, who ran it in.

Illinois State coach Denver Johnson defended the decision to pass on the field goal that would have cut Missouri's lead to 14-6.

"When you get down there, you've got to get points," Johnson said. "Field goals weren't going to do us any good. If we wanted any chance at all to win the game, we were going to have to score touchdowns."

Illinois State's Parrish Fisher scored on a 4-yard run in the second quarter.

Jeff Wolfert had a 26-yard field goal for Missouri and Tyler Funk had a 21-yarder for Illinois State.

In many ways, the win was typical of Missouri's other games this season.

Missouri came into the game tied for seventh nationally averaging 532 yards per game. Missouri is averaging 42 points per game.

But the Tigers were ranked 97th in total defense, allowing 447 yards per game. Illinois State had 397 yards.

Maclin, a redshirt freshman, became the first Missouri player in 32 years to return two punts for touchdowns in a season. He also had a 66-yard score in the opener against Illinois.

2007 GAME RECAPS

GAME #5 • #17 MIZZOU 41, #25 NEBRASKA 6

OCT. 6, 2007 • FAUROT FIELD/MEMORIAL STADIUM • COLUMBIA, MO. • (70,049)

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) — Chase Daniel turned 21 a few minutes after No. 17 Missouri polished off a late-night victory over No. 25 Nebraska. His performance was one long birthday celebration.

Daniel passed for a career-best 401 yards and ran for two scores and the Tigers got a big game from their suspect defense in a 41-6 victory over No 25 Nebraska.

"We played our 'A' game in a lot of facets," Daniel said. "If our defense plays like that week-in and week-out and we keep scoring, the sky's the limit."

Nebraska, which entered the game averaging 36 points, was held without a touchdown for the first time since a 31-3 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 13, 2004. Missouri's four nonconference opponents averaged 25 points, leading to anticipation of a high-scoring affair that never materialized.

"I was so proud," coach Gary Pinkel said. "It was as complete a game as we've played in a long time."

The Cornhuskers were outgained 606-297. Quarterback Sam Keller, who was 25-for-43 with 223 yards and one interception, felt responsible.

"Extremely disappointing," Keller said. "It's a horrible, horrible feeling, and I put all the blame on myself."

Daniel was 33-for-47 and also was Missouri's rushing leader with 72 yards on 11 carries. Chase Coffman and Danario Alexander each caught a touchdown pass to help the Tigers (5-0, 1-0 Big 12) beat Nebraska decisively at home for the third straight time and go to 5-0 for a second straight season.

Pinkel is 2-15 against ranked opponents in seven seasons, both victories coming at home over Nebraska. The Cornhuskers were ranked 10th when Missouri ended a 24-game losing streak in the series with a 41-24 victory in 2003, and Missouri won by the same score in 2005.

A game viewed as a key early Big 12 North matchup attracted a crowd of 70,049, Missouri's first sellout since the Nebraska game in 2003 with most fans clad in yellow for a so-called "Gold Rush" game. The Tigers had a ball and even scored a touchdown off a fake field goal early in the fourth quarter.

"I wish it was like that every game," Daniel said. "It was an unbelievable atmosphere, unlike anything I've ever been in."

The crowd was the largest at Mizzou since 1984, when 70,915 packed Faurot Field on Sept. 26 that year to see Notre Dame take on the Tigers.

Missouri put away Nebraska (4-2, 1-1) without leading rusher Tony Temple, who sprained his right ankle in the first half. Temple had one catch for 20 yards and three carries for minus-2 yards.

Marlon Lucky had 123 yards rushing and receiving for Nebraska, held to a pair of first-half field goals by Alex Henery. Nebraska had won eight in a row against Big 12 North opponents.

"It's not our standard of football," coach Bill Callahan said. "We just couldn't get off the field on third down and we didn't convert on third down."

Missouri led 14-0 in the first quarter and 20-6 at the half, a big change from last year's 34-20 loss at Lincoln, Neb., in which the Tigers trailed 27-3 in the second quarter. Nebraska capitalized on a pair of early interceptions off Daniel in that game.

Daniel set the tone from the start on Saturday, going 12-for-14 for 127 yards while leading Missouri to touchdowns on its first two drives. One of the incompletions came on a dropped ball.

2007 GAME RECAPS

GAME #6 • #6 OKLAHOMA 41, #11 MIZZOU 31

OCT. 13, 2007 • GAYLORD FAMILY/MEMORIAL STADIUM • NORMAN, OKLA. • (85,041)

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) — Mizzou went toe-to-toe on the road with the 6th-ranked team in the nation, holding a 24-23 lead early in the 4th quarter, before the homestanding Sooners took advantage of key Tiger mistakes to hold on for a hardfought 41-31 over the 11th-ranked visitors.

The Tigers showed great resiliency all night long in the hostile environment of 85,041 in attendance, and clawed back from a 23-10 deficit in the 3rd quarter, to take a 24-23 lead into the last period.

The lead was regained with help from both sides of the ball, as the offense first scored on a 10-yard end-around by WR Jeremy Maclin (his 2nd rushing TD of the night) with 4:41 left in the 3rd, followed by TB Jimmy Jackson's 4-yard plunge with 1:30 remaining. The latter possession was set up when the Sooners' Juaquin Iglesias fumbled a kick-off return, giving the ball back to the Tigers.

Leading 24-23 in the 4th, Mizzou had a golden opportunity slip out of its hands, literally, when SS Pig Brown couldn't hold onto a potential interception in MU's endzone on an errant ball thrown by OU quarterback Sam Bradford. The drop proved costly, as Bradford regrouped and led the Sooners the remaining 33 yards needed to regain the lead, at 29-24 with 12:26 left.

Mizzou signal caller Chase Daniel, who would end the night 37-of-47 passing for 361 yards with 1 TD and 2 INTs, was ready to lead another drive downfield, but on the ensuing possession, a fumbled exchange with Maclin spelled doom, as OU's Curtis Lofton alertly scooped the ball up at the Tiger 12-yardline and rambled into the endzone for a quick score that pushed the Sooner lead to 35-24 with 11:40 left.

That bit of disaster put the Tigers in a big hole, and forced to abandon the run altogether, Oklahoma sat back in pass defense, and forced the Tigers to punt on their next possession after gaining one first down.

After the Tiger defense forced a punt, Daniel was intercepted on a tipped pass near the sideline, and OU converted by driving only 24 yards for a game-icing TD, on TB Chris Brown's 3rd TD of the game.

Mizzou wouldn't die easily, though, as Daniel led an 80-yard TD drive that culminated in a 5-yard TD pass to TE Martin Rucker to account for the final score.

A year after Oklahoma scored all 26 points in a 26-10 win over Mizzou in Columbia off of Tiger turnovers and drive-extending penalties, the Sooners once again capitalized on MU miscues to win for a second straight year. In all, Mizzou committed four turnovers on the night in Norman — three interceptions and one fumble — that Oklahoma converted into 21 key points.

The Tigers, looking for the schools' first win in Norman since 1966, did their part in forcing a pair of Sooner fumbles that MU converted into 14 points, but the 4th-quarter mistakes proved to be too costly to overcome.

Mizzou outgained Oklahoma on the night by a total offense margin of 418-to-384. The Tigers gained nearly 135 more yards than Oklahoma was allowing coming into the game, and its defense held the Sooners nearly 100 yards below their season average coming in — OU came into the game ranked 11th in both total defense (283.33 ypg) and total offense (482.17 ypg).

Maclin was an offensive star on the night in defeat, as he gained 189 all-purpose yards, including 104 on kickoff returns (one of which he returned 56 yards, representing the longest KOR for MU since 2002). He also ran 4 times for 32 yards and 2 TDs, while catching 5 passes for 53 yards.

TE Chase Coffman led all receivers on the night with 10 catches for 102 yards — both career high totals.

GAME #7 • #15 MIZZOU 41, #22 TEXAS TECH 10

OCT. 20, 2007 • FAUROT FIELD/MEMORIAL STADIUM • COLUMBIA, MO. • (63,396)

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) — Chase Daniel led the Missouri offense in the Tigers' most well-rounded effort of the season.

Missouri's improving defense intercepted Graham Harrell four times, returning one for a score, while throttling the nation's top offense in a 41-10 victory over No. 22 Texas Tech on Saturday.

Texas Tech forced Missouri, minus injured Tony Temple to run the ball, and the Tigers did so with great success. They gained 212 yards on the ground and Daniel had 210 yards passing on only 19 attempts, both season lows.

Backup tailback Jimmy Jackson had 59 yards and three touchdowns on 12 carries. Freshman Derrick Washington added 66 yards on nine carries for Missouri (6-1, 2-1 Big 12), which rebounded from a 10-point loss at Oklahoma last week and is 2-1 during a three-game stretch against ranked opponents.

"A game like that against such a good team, and the damage they can do in seconds, I'm very proud of our team," coach Gary Pinkel said.

Temple missed his second straight game with an ankle injury, adding a bruise to a sprain in practice on Wednesday. Missouri still won for the 13th time in 14 home games.

The scoring total was by far a season low for Texas Tech (6-2, 2-2), which entered the game first in points (50) and yards (582) per game. Missouri scored on its first four possessions of the second half to top its 40-point average, though the game didn't come close to fulfilling expectations of a points-fest featuring two of the most prolific passers in the country.

Texas Tech entered the rankings last week after a 35-7 victory over Texas A&M. The high point for the Red Raiders Saturday was a 68-yard touchdown pass from Harrell to Edward Britton in the second quarter that cut Missouri's lead to 10-7. Harrell, who entered the game with 31 TD passes and only three interceptions, was 44-for-69 for 397 yards and wasn't helped by several drops.

The attempts were a season high and the yardage was second-lowest of the year and fewest against a major college opponent.

Texas Tech had 388 yards total offense, 101 yards fewer than the previous low against Iowa State.

Texas Tech was stopped in its first four attempts on fourth down against Missouri, which surrendered 41 points against Oklahoma. The Red Raiders finished 3-for-6 on fourth down.

Texas Tech's Michael Crabtree, who leads the nation in receiving and scoring with 17 touchdowns, had 10 catches for 76 yards to set an NCAA freshman record of 1,320 yards with four games plus a bowl appearance to go. He entered the game needing 22 yards to surpass the mark set by USC's Mike Williams in 2002, but was held out of the end zone for the second straight week.

Missouri kept it on the ground for the most part against a defense designed to stop the passing game. Daniel completed 14 passes, including a 57-yard touchdown to Jeremy Maclin in the fourth quarter.

Texas Tech was shut out in the first quarter for the second straight game, trailing 10-0, although the Red Raiders' defense kept it close. The lone touchdown came on a 38-yard interception return by Stryker Sulak on a ball tipped high in the air, and Missouri had to settle for a 21-yard field goal later in the quarter after a drive that fizzled at the 1.

Texas Tech ended its drought on a TD connection from Harrell to Britton with 6:39 left in the second quarter, but Missouri answered with its first offensive touchdown only 1:39 later on Jackson's 1-yard run for a 17-7 lead.
