

2025 MISSOURI FOOTBALL

POSTGAME NOTES VS. LOUISIANA – SEPT. 13, 2025

TEAM

- Head Coach Eli Drinkwitz moved into fifth place alone on the all-time wins list in program history with his 41st victory.
- Mizzou is 24-5 over its last 29 games, equaling the second-most wins over a 29-game span in program history. Missouri also went 24-5 from the start of the 2013 season until the third game of the 2015 season, and 25-2-2 from the beginning of the 1960 campaign to the eighth game of the 1962 season.
- It was the first meeting all-time between Louisiana and Missouri on the gridiron with Mizzou taking the 52-10 victory.
- Missouri's home winning streak reached 13 games, matching the fifth best streak in the nation with Boise State.
- Mizzou improved to 8-1 when ranked exactly 25th in the AP Poll.
- The Tigers have notched 22 consecutive wins in non-SEC games on Faurot Field.
- With 52 points, MU has compiled its most points in a three-game span (155) to embark on a season under Coach Drinkwitz.
- With its 52-point victory, Missouri's scoring margin sits at +108 marking the largest differential through three games since the Tigers were 111 points clear of the competition in 2008.
- Mizzou racked up 52 points, bringing its three-game total to 155 - the highest total since compiling 173 points in 2008.
- The win marked Missouri's 30th win in home games since 2020, tying the Tigers for second in the SEC in the category with Georgia.
- 38 points scored by the Tigers in the first half is the most first-half points since Sept. 18, 2021, when Mizzou tallied 38 points in the first half against SEMO.
- The Tigers have tallied over 500 yards of offense for the third-straight game, the last time that feat was accomplished was the first three weeks of the 2018 season.
- Louisiana received their largest score disparity in a loss since 2018 when they took a 56-14 road defeat at No. 1 Alabama.
- Missouri secured its second consecutive game with 40+ minutes of possession time, totaling 42:51. The Tigers had 40:27 against Kansas, Sept. 6, 2025.

OFFENSE

- As a team, Missouri ran for over 400 yards for the first time since piling up 433 yards against Tennessee in 2017
- Running back Ahmad Hardy totaled a career-best 250 yards on 22 carries and three touchdowns through three quarters.

- Hardy's day was good for seventh most in program history in a single game, including the second most by a Tiger since they joined the SEC.
- Hardy moved into a tie for fifth in program history with seven other Tigers, securing his third consecutive 100-yard game in Black & Gold. Hardy also became the seventh Tiger to eclipse 250 yards in a single game.
- Hardy became the 16th Tiger to score a rushing touchdown in three consecutive games to start the season. The last player to do so was quarterback Brady Cook in 2023 and 2024. Additionally, it is the eighth consecutive game the sophomore has reached the endzone, dating back to Nov. 2 2024 against Marshall when he played for Louisiana Monroe.
- In addition, Hardy has rushed for over 100 yards in five-straight contests and nine of the last 10 games dating back to last season.
- Hardy's 250 total yards on the day rank first among NCAA FBS backs this season in a single game. The previous high was Cam Cook of Jacksonville State with 195 yards versus Liberty.
- Running Back Marquise Davis recorded a career-best 113 rushing yards and a touchdown on 20 carries, marking the true freshman's second touchdown of the season.
- Hardy and Davis each reached 100 yards, marking the second straight game the Tigers have had a duo enter triple digits. MU has never done so in consecutive games.
- Wide receiver Marquis Johnson caught 2 balls for 18 yards and a touchdown
- Johnson secured his second touchdown of the season and sixth of his career.
- Quarterback Beau Pribula accumulated 174 passing yards (15-of-22), three touchdowns (two passing, one rushing) and a rating of 155.5.
- Pribula connected on 76 consecutive passes without an interception to begin the season.
- Pribula became the first Tiger with seven passing touchdowns and three rushing touchdowns in the first three games of a season. Additionally, he is the first in Black & Gold since Drew Lock in 2017 to throw seven touchdowns in the first three games of the season.
- Pribula became the seventh Tiger to throw at least two touchdown passes in three consecutive games to start the season. The last quarterback to do so was Connor Bazalak in 2021.
- Running back Jamal Roberts hauled in a career-long 39 yard catch for his first career receiving touchdown.
- Wide receiver Kevin Coleman Jr. nabbed a team-high eight catches on eight targets in the win, totaling 84 yards. He has now recorded at least six receptions in every game this season.
- Tight end Jordon Harris hauled in a career-long 20 yard reception. The grab also equaled a career day in total receiving yards.
- Wide receiver Shaun Terry II hauled in his first career reception in the third quarter, good for nine yards.
- Running back Brendon Haygood saw his first action of the season as a true freshman, totaling four carries for 12 yards.
- True freshman quarterback Matt Zollers entered the game in the second half, finishing with two completions for five yards and a rating of 121.0.

DEFENSE

- As a team, Missouri held Louisiana to just four passing yards, the fewest by a team playing the Tigers since Oklahoma in 1976 (0 yards).
- Defensive end Zion Young picked up a pair of tackles for loss, matching a career-best achieved twice previously, with one coming during his time at Michigan State and the other in the Black & Gold (Oct. 19, 2024 vs. Auburn).
- Linebacker Khalil Jacobs wrapped up the Louisiana quarterback to secure his first sack of the season and third of his career.

- Defensive end Damon Wilson II tallied his third sack of the season in the third quarter, bringing his career total to 6.5.
- Linebacker Josiah Trotter matched his career high in tackles for loss with 2.0.
- Mizzou held Louisiana's to 1-11 on third down conversions, marking the second time this season the Tigers have limited a team to one third-down conversion. The team restricted Central Arkansas to 1-13, Aug. 28, 2025. Prior to this season, Missouri's last time achieving the feat was against Buffalo (1-12), Sept. 7, 2024.
- Tigers earning their first tackles of the season: Jason Dowell (2), Nick DeLoach Jr. (2), Daeden Hopkins (1), Elias Williams (1), Nate Johnson (1), Sterling Webb (1)

SPECIAL TEAMS

- Kicker Robert Meyer finished 1-2 in field goals, nailing a 22-yard attempt.
- Jude James and Xavier Loyd each had a tackle on special teams.
- Freshman kick returner DaMarion Fowlkes returned his first-career kickoff for 22 yards.
