WHAT'S HAPPENIN'?

After a two-week break from competition, the Northern Illinois University women's basketball team will return to the court Sunday, December 14 when it takes on Missouri at Mizzou Arena in Columbia. Tip off is slated for 2 p.m.

HOOPS FOR SOUPS

Next Wednesday Dec. 17, the NIU women's basketball team will host SIU Edwardsville at the NIU Convocation Center and will be holding a Hoops for Soups promotion, allowing all fans with canned goods $1 admission to the game. For all $1 tickets sold at the game, Head Coach Kathi Bennett will donate 50-cents to Hope Haven DeKalb to benefit homeless families in DeKalb County. All canned food items will be donated to the Salvation Army. Tipoff will be at 7 p.m.

LAST TIME OUT

The Huskies gave thanks in Las Vegas, Nev. as they played in the Lady Rebel Round-up hosted by UNLV. NIU opened the tournament November 29 against defending Summit League Champion South Dakota State, whom the Huskies played last year in Brookings, S.D. Defensively, NIU played its best game of the season as it limited the Jackrabbits to a season-low 55 points on the afternoon and forced 13 turnovers. The Huskies fell to SDSU in the opener, 55-42.

Northern Illinois University rebounded the next day, however, as the offense and defense combined for a 20-point victory over Delaware State, 79-59. The Huskies would go on to shoot a season-high 54-percent from the field as they converted 27-of-50 shots taken, as well as 21-of-30 free throws attempted. Five different Huskies scored in double-digits with Amanda Corral leading the way at 18 points.

SCOUTING THE TIGERS

Missouri is off to a 7-2 start this season and is a flawless 6-0 at home in Mizzou Arena. MU has only played one road game this season, playing at Bradley on Dec. 6 and falling to the Braves, 76-64. The Tigers have rebounded after the loss with two-straight wins having defeated Saint Louis, 74-50, on Dec. 8 and Colorado 53-50, on Dec. 12.

Sophomore post player Jordan Frericks has been the Tigers top player offensively and defensively through the first nine games with 13.9 points and 10.4 rebounds per game. She's also accounted for 13 blocks and 21 steals this season. Mizzou has had little problems with ball movement this season as they are averaging 14.7 assists per game with five players having accounted for over 20 helpers this season. The Tigers have taken 212 shots behind the three-point line this season (23.6/G) and are shooting .335 as a unit. Morgan Eye has been the top shooter beyond the arc with her .388 clip (26-for-67) and 9.6 points per game average.

WELCOME BACK WEEK

During preseason practices in October, NIU senior guard Amanda Corral broke a bone in her non-shooting hand and was forced to get surgery. Originally expected to take the court this week, Corral returned three weeks early at Eastern Illinois and accounted 24-points in her return. She would combine for 26 points in Las Vegas to average 16.7 points in her return week. The Hobart, Ind., native also shot over 61-percent from the field (19-for-31) and was 7-of-11 (.636) from behind the three-point line while averaging a block a game.

FIVE TIMES THE FUN

For the first time this season and third time this calendar year, the NIU women's basketball recorded a balanced effort on its scoring tally as five different players scored 10-or-more points. Junior Amanda Corral paced the way with 18 points while freshman Renee Sladek scored 15. Seniors Jenna Thorp (12) and Danny Pulliam (10) also reached the plateau, while sophomore Ally Lehman (13) rounded it out. Freshman Kelly Smith was one-point shy of giving NIU six players in double figures. The Huskies last had five players score in double figures Feb. 22, 2014 against Central Michigan.

FINDING HER SHOT

Redshirt senior Danny Pulliam opened the season with a rough patch of shooting, including an 0-for-9 start behind the three-point line. At the Lady Rebel Round-up two weeks ago, Pulliam was 5-for-9 (.555) from the field, including a 2-for-4 clip from beyond the arc. Versus Delaware State in the tournament finale, she reached 10 points for the first time this season, making 3-for-6 shots from the field and 2-for-4 from the free throw line.

FEEL THE RHYTHM

While she was shooting well in Las Vegas over Thanksgiving, Danny Pulliam was also passing well versus the Hornets. The Indianapolis, Ind., native accounted for seven assists in the contest, a season-high that put her one shy of tying her career high set her freshman year in 2011. Pulliam has dished 23 assists (3.8 APG) with 11 turnovers (1.8 TPG) for a 2.1 assist/turnover ratio.

CONGRATULATIONS ARE IN ORDER

Redshirt junior Lacia Gorman recorded her first career field goals and free throws at the Lady Rebel Round-up. Against South Dakota State, Gorman made her first career basket as she sunk a three-point field goal with 7:08 left in the second half and followed that up with a pair of free throws against Delaware State. The junior has had a long road to the court at NIU, transferring from Wisconsin during the 2012-13 season. The Fort Wayne, Ind., native sat out as a redshirt that season and missed last year with an achilles injury.

HUSKIES ON THE RUN

NIU was not afraid to play on the run when it had its chances last time out against Delaware State, outscoring the Hornets, 18-7. Subsequently, that figure also contributed to the Huskies outscoring Delaware State after turnovers, 21-8.

BOX SCORE FILLER

Ally Lehman has been one of NIU's top all-around players since her arrival last season and this season has been no exception. She's led the Huskies in rebounding in five-of-six games this year, averaging 8.2 per game - including a clip of 9.3 over the last four games. Scoring, Lehman is registering 9.3 points per game while she is NIU's second-best distributor with 3.5 assists per game

SLADEK'S BIG DAY

Versus Delaware State in the Lady Rebel Round-up finale, freshman Renee Sladek accounted for a season-high 15 points on five baskets from the post and a 5-for-6 clip at the free throw line. The Merrill, Wis., native's effort bested her 14-point night at UIC on November 17. Sladek is averaging 7.8 points per outing.

SOLID WEEKEND UNDER THE CIRCUMSTANCES

Redshirt senior Jenna Thorp did not travel with NIU on Thanksgiving day to Las Vegas. The Hinckley, Ill., native stayed behind that Thursday, as she was bridesmaid in a wedding on that Friday. Catching a red-eye flight to Las Vegas from Midway Airport on the day of NIU's opener against SDSU, Thorp played 27 minutes off the bench, adding six points and four boards despite a 1.5 hour delay in her flight arrival. On a full night's rest, Thorp recorded 12 points, six rebounds and three assists versus the Hornets.

STILL IN DOUBLE-DIGITS

Freshman Kelly Smith has only known life at NIU as a double-digit scorer through six games as a Huskie with her current 10.2 point average. After scoring 17 points in the season-opener against Illinois State, Smith has gone on to score 10-or-more points in three other games this season, including 12 against South Dakota State in Las Vegas.

FRESHMEN MAKE HISTORY

The NIU women's basketball program has had a lot of great players in its program over years: six All-Americans, two players with 2,000 career points, 27 with 1,000 points and 15 NIU Hall of Famers. Over the last two games, freshmen Renee Sladek and Kelly Smith have combined for a feat never accomplished by any other Huskie in the NCAA era (1982-83): leading their team in scoring in the first two games of the season. Smith scored 17 versus Illinois State while Sladek scored 14 at UIC three days later as both led NIU in points in the respective game. It was the first time since 1982 that a single freshman or a pair of freshmen combined to lead their team in scoring in the first two games of the season.

IT'S AN INSTINCT

Freshman Kelly Smith has a knack for getting to the ball on the offensive side of the floor as she has accounted for a team-best 14 boards on the offensive glass. Senior Jenna Thorp is second on the squad with nine offensive rebounds.

AHEAD OF THE GAME

Through the first six games, the Huskies are on the plus side of the assists and turnovers battle this year as they've distributed 74 assists to 68 turnovers this season. NIU's opponents have committed 97 turnovers while only distributing 69 assists.

DEFENSE IS A HUSKIE GAME

Last season, the NIU Huskies were ranked second in the MAC in scoring defense with an average of 64.0 points allowed per game, the second-fewest in the conference behind only regular season champion Bowling Green. Since Head Coach Kathi Bennett arrived in 2010, the Huskies have finished the year no lower than fifth in the MAC's final scoring defense rankings.

NIU is currently allowing 56.0 points per game through its first two games, the fourth fewest amongst MAC teams who've played multiple games this season. Ohio paces the conference with a 48.5 points allowed average through two games.

DOUBLE DUTY

In order to maximize the Huskies' experience on the court, redshirt senior Jenna Thorp has been playing as a guard for the Huskies and will likely remain there until the Huskies have players return from injury.

REBOUNDING AT A PREMIUM

Senior Jenna Thorp completed a career-year on the boards last year, averaging 5.4 rebounds per game for the Huskies, surpassing her best average of 4.8 during the 2012-13 season. Offensive boards proved to be the key to Thorps increased productivity as she averaged 1.9 rebounds off the offensive glass last season, compared to 1.4 in her previous two seasons.

GOOD TO HAVE HER BACK

Senior Danny Pulliam completed her first full season last season since her freshman year in 2010-11 as she played in all 30 games with 27 starts. In 2011-12 and in 2012-13, Pulliam suffered season ending leg injuries that required two separate microfracture surgeries (the same type of surgery that has tampered Greg Oden's career). Pulliam averaged a career-best 9.1 points and 2.9 assists per game to lead the team in helpers.

NIU SOARS WITH LATEST GSR SCORE

The NIU women's basketball team recorded the highest NCAA Graduation Success Rate (GSR) in the department amongst the Huskies revenue generating sports, scoring in the 92nd percentile. That means an average of 13-of-14 scholarship players graduate from the program with degree over their four years at NIU. The national average for women's basketball is 69 percent.

NEXT UP

NIU will play its final home game of 2014 this Wednesday when it hosts SIU Edwardsville at the NIU Convocation Center. Tipoff is set for 7 p.m. Central. The Huskies will be holding its Hoops for Soups promotion that night, giving $1 admission to all fans who bring canned goods to the game. 50-cents for every ticket sold will be donated to Hope Haven DeKalb by Head Coach Kathi Bennett.

DID YOU KNOW...

Coach Bennett is the only active female coach in the country who's father coached in the NCAA Men's Final Four (Wisconsin, 2000).

BENNETT'S FIVE CORNERSTONES

- Passion
- Servanthood
- Unity
- Humility
- Thankfulness

Kathi Bennett, a veteran collegiate head coach who has guided three programs to eight NCAA Tournaments and five conference championships while posting a career winning percentage of .574 (341-253), begins her fifth season in charge of NIU in 2014-15. Through four seasons, Bennett owns a 45-76 record with the Huskies, including three wins the Mid-American Conference Tournament and a quarterfinal appearance in 2012.

Last season, the Huskies finished the season as the MAC's No. 2 defense behind regular season champion Bowling Green as NIU only allowed 64.0 points per game. Bennett coached teams at NIU have ranked in the top-five in the Mid-American Conference the last four years in scoring defense.

The Huskies also earned two victories over Missouri Valley Conference teams, defeating in-state rivals Bradley (63-60) and Illinois State (57-52). Against Central Michigan on Feb. 22, one of Bennett's first recruits to NIU, Amanda Corral, surpassed the 1,000-point mark becoming the 28th player in school history to accomplish the feat.

NIU would go on to the second round of the MAC Tournament last season, defeating Eastern Michigan 81-76 in overtime to advance to Cleveland for the second time in the last three seasons.

Bennett, who earned her 300th career win with NIU to join her father, legendary coach Dick Bennett, on the 300-career-win list, came to NIU after two seasons as an assistant coach at Wisconsin, where she coached the Badgers' defense and was instrumental in UW making its first NCAA Tournament appearance in eight years in 2010. Wisconsin finished tied for third in the league and led the Big Ten in scoring defense in 2010 after ranking 10th in the league in that category prior to her arrival.

A native of Stevens Point, Wis., Bennett is the sister of University of Virginia head men's basketball coach Tony Bennett; her father won 316 games as a collegiate coach at Washington State, Wisconsin, UW-Green Bay and UW-Stevens Point. Kathi played collegiately at both Stevens Point and Green Bay and earned her bachelor's degree from UW-Green Bay in 1986.

DeKALB - The NIU women's basketball team defeated in-state rival Illinois State in the season-opener Friday night, 55-51, as the Huskies carried a pus eight rebounding margin. NIU captured its first season opening win since 2009 as freshman Kelly Smith (Hartland, Wis./Arrowhead) led all-scorers in the game with 17 points.

The Huskies have taken the last two against ISU as they won the last meeting on Dec. 5, 2013, 57-52. NIU had never won two in a row against the Redbirds until this evening's victory.

Since 2007-08, no NIU freshman had ever led the Huskies in scoring in the season-opener or scored at least 10 points.

"It was a great team win for us tonight. I thought we did a great job of staying together as a team and sticking to our game plan. We really showed a lot of mental toughness towards the end as well," said Head Coach Kathi Bennett.

"We realized after our exhibition game that when things get tough, we need to stay together, no matter what's going on, and I think that message got across because I really believe that helped us get the win tonight. There was a lot of confidence and faith in each other in our huddles during timeouts down the stretch and it felt good," Bennett closed.

The teams traded blows for the opening eight minutes of the contest as NIU and ISU were knotted, 10-10, at the second media timeout with 11:59 remaining.

A jump shot by sophomore Ally Lehman (Nineveh, Ind./Indian Creek) with 10:59 remaining in the first half gave the Huskies their final lead of the game, 12-10. The shot started a 15-4 run for the Huskies over the next five and half minutes of play to put NIU on top, 25-14, with 5:30 left.

At halftime, Smith had already accumulated 10 points, going 3-for-7 from the field and 4-of-4 from the free throw line in 17 minutes. Jenna Thorp (Hinckley, Ill./Hinckley-Big Rock) and Lehman each contributed seven points in the first half as well.

Free throws were crucial for the Huskies in the contest as they went 16-for-22 at the charity stripe, making eight attempts each in the first and second half. Both teams accounted for 30 defensive rebounds in the contest. However, NIU worked the offensive glass as it outrebounded the Redbirds, 14-6, which led to 11 second chance points for the Huskies. ISU climbed back within three points of NIU with 4:24 as Katy Winge hit a jumper, 43-40. 12 seconds later, Smith made the only three-point shot of the game for NIU as it brought momentum back in the Huskies favor at 46-40.

When the Redbirds brought the game to within one point with 3:19 left in the second half, Thorp drove the ball from in front of the Huskie bench to the paint to convert a layup and put NIU back on top by three, 49-46. Lehman iced it for the Huskies with two free throws to increase the Huskie lead to seven, 53-46, with just over a minute left.

Lehman closed the game with 11 points, eight rebounds and game-best five assists in a career-high 36 minutes. Thorp's effort on the evening included a team best shooting percentage, 5-of-9 (.555), with 13 points, six boards and three steals. Freshman Renee Sladek (Merrill, Wis./Merrill) had rebounds as well.

Winge led all ISU scorers with 12 points in the contest. The Redbirds committed 15 turnovers to the Huskies nine.

CHICAGO - After leading halfway through the first period, the NIU (1-1) women's basketball team played a well fought game at UIC (2-0) but lost to the Flames, 61-47. Freshman Renee Sladek (Merrill, Wis./Merrill) finished with 14 points and four rebounds in the effort to lead the Huskies in scoring. UIC's Ruvanna Campbell had 15 points, 23 boards and eight assists.

NIU finished the night 14-of-18 from the free throw line, marking the second-straight game the Huskies have made at least 10 free throws.

"UIC is an incredibly talented and athletic team and they shot the ball very well. They did a great job of getting the rebounds or the putbacks tonight," said Head Coach Kathi Bennett. "If we could've made a few more shots in the first half, it would've put more pressure on (UIC) and it might've been a different game."

NIU struck first blood as Sladek converted a layup and was fouled on the way up, adding one more point from the free throw line. After UIC went on a 9-0 run, the Huskies went on 10-3 run of its own to take a 13-12 lead with 10:54 remaining in the first half.

The Flames ended the first half with a shooting percentage of .467, converting 14-of-30 shots taken to lead after the opening period, 30-22. NIU was 5-of-6 from the free throw line and worked UIC for nine personal fouls in the half, as well as eight turnovers. Sladek finished the half with nine points and three rebounds, going 3-for-4 from the field.

UIC came out as the aggressor in the second half, building a 19-point lead with 8:37 left in the stanza. The Huskies didn't hang their heads down however as they battled back to within nine points after the final media timeout with 3:16 left as Kelly Smith (Hartland, Wis./Arrowhead) and Danny Pulliam (Indianapolis, Ind./Pike) each hit two free throws after a foul and a technical foul, followed by an Ally Lehman (Nineveh, Ind./Indian Creek) layup for a six-point swing on the same possession.

Sladek led NIU with 14 points as she was 5-for-8 from the field and 4-for-5 from the free throw line. Smith followed in Sladek's double-figure footsteps as she finished with 10 points, including two baskets from behind the arc. Pulliam and Jenna Thorp (Hinckley, Ill./Hinckley-Big Rock) led the Huskies in rebounds with five apiece.

Off the bench, Amber Gray (Mukwonago, Wis./Mukwonago) was 3-for-4 from the field with a career-high six points, grabbing two rebounds and distributing two assists, also a career-high, in 21 minutes.

As a team, the Flames were 25-for-55 (.436) shooting with four three-point field goals and nine free throws. While only six different players scored for UIC, four those players scored 10-or-more points led by Campbell's 15.

DeKALB - With stalwart defense and hot shooting in the second half, the NIU women's basketball team outscored the Valparaiso women's basketball team, 35-27, led by sophomore Ally Lehman's 18 points. The Huskies (1-2) would lead to the Crusaders (2-1) however, 65-50.

Lehman (Nineveh, Ind./Indian Creek) led all scorers with a career-high 22 points as she finished 10-of-23 from the field, including an 8-for-15 (.533) second half. She also pulled down eight rebounds and recorded three steals. Valpo's Lexi Miller scored 17 points, going 4-for-5 behind the three-point line.

While the Huskie defense was up to the task with their +15 turnover and +7 steal margins, it was Valparaiso who was tougher from the field. Shooting 45-percent in the game, the Crusaders were even better behind the three-point line as they finished the contest 11-for-18 (.611) beyond the arc.

Of the nine Crusaders who appeared in the game, six of them made a shot from behind the arc. Miller made four shots from behind the arc while Dani Franklin made three.

The NIU defense only allowed Valpo to convert 7-of-22 shots in the second stanza, while it converted 15 of its own baskets in front of the team bench. As a unit, the Huskies took advantage of the Crusaders' mistakes as they outscored Valpo on turnovers, 21-0, redeeming themselves as they scored on 50-percent of their opportunities.

The game marked the NIU debut of point guard Lacia Gorman (Fort Wayne, Ind./Wayne), who has sat out the last two seasons after transferring from Wisconsin in 2012-13 and suffering a season-ending injury last season. Gorman played 10 minutes off the bench with one assist.

"We played really good basketball in the second half, I wish we would've played our first half like that. We had a lot of ground to make up after the first half," said Head Coach Kathi Bennett, "but when we go to Eastern Illinois next week, and we learn from our mistakes and things change, then (our first half) was worth it tonight."

EIU's Sabina Oroszova and Erica Brown shared the scoring lead with 16 points apiece. Brown was an impressive 7-of-9 from the field while Oroszova made seven baskets at the charity stripe.

SDSU's Chynna Stevens and Kerri Young led the Jackrabbits in scoring with 13 and 12 points, respectively. The Jacks turned the ball over nine times in the second period.

One year to the day was the last time NIU won by 20-or-more points on the road or in a neutral site as the Huskies defeated Lamar in the Aggie Hotel Encanto Thanksgiving Classic in Las Cruces, N.M., 79-52.
