BIG 12 NORTH TITLE CHASE HEATS UP SATURDAY IN COLUMBIA

The #17/17 Missouri Tigers (4-0 overall) begin their quest for a Big 12 North Division championship this Saturday evening, when they play host to the #25/23 Nebraska Cornhuskers (4-1 overall, 1-0 in Big 12 play). Kick time for the nationally-televised ESPN game is set for 8:15 p.m. at Faurot Field/Memorial Stadium. A sellout is anticipated.

The Tigers are coming off a bye week after getting through the non-conference season unblemished for the 2nd straight season. Mizzou moved up to 17th in both major polls, from 20th, the previous week.

Nebraska, the defending Big 12 North champs, began their title defense last week by defeating Iowa State, 35-17, in Lincoln, Neb. The Cornhuskers are 1-0 on the road this season, with the win coming at Wake Forest (20-17) on Sept. 8th. Nebraska's only loss this year came at the hands of #1/2 USC (49-31), on Oct. 15th, in Lincoln.

#25/23 Nebraska at #17/17 Mizzou — Oct. 6, 2007

SELLOUT CROWD EXPECTED FOR BIG GAME

While the Tiger team had to maintain focus on its one-game-at-a-time mantra prior to this point, Saturday evening will represent the game that Mizzou fans have had circled ever since the 2007 schedule came out – the Nebraska game.

Nebraska is the defending Big 12 North Division champion, and Mizzou was picked to win the North in 2007 according to the Big 12 Pre-season media poll.

A sellout crowd is anticipated for Saturday night, as fewer than 200 reserved tickets remained available for purchase as of late last week. All general admission seats have been sold already.

The last time MU had a capacity crowd was back on Oct. 11, 2003, when a crowd of 68,349 saw the Tigers defeat 10th-ranked Nebraska, 41-24, in a game that broke a 24-game losing streak to the Huskers.

The last time that MU had more people at a game in Memorial Stadium/Faurot Field was in 1984, when 70,915 stopped by to see the Tigers play Notre Dame. That game stands as the 10th-largest crowd of alltime in Columbia, and is the last crowd to reach the 70,000 plateau.

MIZZOU LOOKS FOR "THREE-PEAT" OVER NU

Mizzou hopes for a repeat of the last 2 times that Nebraska has come calling on the Tigers' home lair of Faurot Field/Memorial Stadium – MU claimed victories in both 2003 and 2005 by the identical scores of 41-24. It's been almost 50 years since Mizzou beat NU 3 straight in Columbia.

The win in 2003 was of historical proportions for the program, as it broke a 24-game losing streak to Nebraska that dated back to 1978 when the Tigers had last beaten their conference brethren to the North. Sophomore QB Brad Smith led the way with 303 yards of total offense (180 passing, 123 rushing and 3 TDs) and he also caught a 47-yard throwback pass from WR Darius Outlaw for a 47-yard TD, and the Tigers converted on a 4th-quarter fake FG to overcome a 10-point 4th-quarter deficit. Mizzou outscored Nebraska 27-0 in the 4th quarter to pull away.

The last time the Huskers visited Columbia, Mizzou came away 41-24 winners yet again, thanks to the amazing Brad Smith, who became the first QB in NCAA Div. I-A history to rush and pass for 230 yards each in a game. Smith had 234 yards passing (1 TD) and ran for 246 yards (3 TDs) on the way to a career-high 480 yards of total offense.

There's no more Brad Smith, thankfully for Husker fans, so it's up to Chase Daniel and company to make it 3 straight over Nebraska in Columbia. Mizzou has not beaten Nebraska 3 straight times in Columbia since 1957 (W, 14-13), 1959 (W, 9-0) and 1961 (W, 10-0).

TIGERS LOOK TO CONTINUE PERFECT START

The Mizzou Tigers will look to continue their perfect start to the 2007 season and improve on their 4-0 record, as they play host to Nebraska Saturday evening at Faurot Field.

A win over Nebraska would give Mizzou its second straight season of at least a 5-0 start for the 1st time in school history, and only the 8th ever.

Here's a look at all of the previous seasons in which MU has started a season 5-0, with the 1st number in parentheses the start and the 2nd number the end record for the season...

- – 1899 (7-0 / 9-2) • – 1905 (5-0 / 5-4) • – 1960 (11-0 / 11-0)#
- – 1969 (5-0 / 9-2)# • – 1973 (6-0 / 8-4) • – 1981 (5-0 / 8-4)
- – 2006 (6-0 / 8-5) #–Won conference championship

MIZZOU REACHES HIGHEST POLL SPOT SINCE 1998

Mizzou climbed 3 spots, to 17th, in both major top-25 polls after sitting idle last weekend. The ranking represents the highest MU has been in the Associated Press poll under Head Coach Gary Pinkel, and the highest overall by the program since 1998, when Mizzou reached as high as 13th in mid-November of that season. Mizzou dropped its final 2 games of the regular season and fell out of the polls, before bouncing back to defeat 24th-ranked West Virginia in the Insight.com Bowl to end that year 8-4 overall and ranked 21st in the final A.P. poll.

A few notes about MU carrying a ranking into a game:

- – MU is 89-58-1 overall (60.5%) in its previous 148 games as a ranked team, including 4-3 alltime as the #17-ranked team in the AP poll. Here's a look at those games...

MU HISTORY AS THE #17 ASSOCIATED PRESS RANKED TEAM

DATE	MU RANK	OPP RANK	RESULT	SITE
9-13-1980	17	n/a	MU 47, New Mexico 16	Home
9-23-1978	17	n/a	MU 45, Mississippi 14	Home
10-23-1976	17	3	MU 34, Nebraska 24	Away
10-31-1970	17	n/a	Kansas State 17, MU 13	Away
9-30-1950	17	n/a	Clemson 34, MU 0	Home
11-15-1947	17	n/a	Oklahoma 21, MU 12	Home
11-8-1941	17	n/a	MU 26, New York Univ. 0	Away

- – Mizzou has been ranked higher than its current #17 spot only three times dating back to 1981. That year, MU began its season unranked, but stood ranked 13th in the A.P. poll after winning its first four games, then moved to 8th after reaching 5-0. The Tigers then dropped two straight games to fall out of the rankings, but ended the year ranked 19th after defeating Southern Miss in the 1981 Tangerine Bowl. The only other week in which MU has been ranked higher than its current #17 was the one week in 1998...

- – The last time that Mizzou entered a game as the higher-ranked team than Nebraska was in 1969, when the 7th-ranked Tigers claimed a 17-7 win over the 20th-ranked Cornhuskers, in Columbia...

- – The last time that Mizzou and Nebraska met when both teams were ranked was in 1998 in Lincoln, when #7 Nebraska held off #19 Mizzou by a 20-13 score. The last time that both teams met in Columbia as ranked teams, was in 1981, when #15 Nebraska squeaked out a 6-0 win over #19 Mizzou...

- – Mizzou spent 5 weeks during the 2006 season as a ranked team in the AP poll, peaking as high as 19th after starting 6-0. The Tigers went 3-2 in those games...

- – Mizzou is 5-1 playing at home under Gary Pinkel as a ranked team, going 1-0 in 2003, 1-0 in 2004, 2-1 in 2006 and 1-0 and counting in 2007, with the only loss coming to #19 Oklahoma last year, 26-10 (MU was ranked #23 for the game)...

- – Interestingly enough, Mizzou is 0-3 alltime when playing against the #25-ranked team in the AP poll, as Nebraska is this week. All 3 previous games came against Colorado, and all 3 were in Boulder, Colo., with MU dropping games by 41-12 (2005), 38-24 (2001) and 55-7 (1991) scores.

PINKEL CAN MAKE HISTORY SATURDAY

Mizzou Head Coach Gary Pinkel can make history this Saturday if his Tigers claim a victory over Nebraska.

A win for Pinkel would link him with Dan Devine as the only MU coaches to have two seasons where they started a season 5-0. Devine went 11-0 in 1960 and started 5-0 in 1969, and no Tiger coach before or after has started a season 5-0 or better more than once.

In 2006, Mizzou started 6-0 – matching the school's best start since 1973 – and ended 8-5 with an invite to the Sun Bowl.

Pinkel is already the 1st coach in MU history to notch three seasons of 4-0 starts, and is the 1st MU skipper to have 4-0 starts in consecutive seasons.

Pinkel's 2003 squad began the season 4-0 and ended with an 8-5 overall mark after reaching the Independence Bowl that season.

MORE RANKING BREAKDOWN HISTORY

Saturday will mark the 10th time overall that Mizzou and Nebraska have squared off with both teams carrying an A.P. top-25 ranking into the game. Nebraska has won 5-of-9 games in that situation, including 3 straight dating back to MU's last win, in 1976, when the 17th-ranked Tigers downed the 3rd-ranked Huskers, 34-24 in Lincoln. See the chart below for details.

Mizzou has played 51 games in its history where both teams carried an A.P. poll ranking into the game, and the Tigers are 16-35 in those instances (.314), and have lost 11 straight dating back to its last win in 1978, when 19th-ranked MU won at home vs. 20th-ranked Iowa State (W, 26-13).

MIZZOU IS 21-6 AT 'THE ZOU' SINCE 2003 SEASON

Since nicknaming Faurot Field/Memorial Stadium "The Zou" prior to the 2003 season, Gary Pinkel's Tigers have done a nice job of defending their home turf (FieldTurf surface, which was also installed prior to the '03 season, by coincidence).

Since 2003, the Tigers are an impressive 21-6 at home, good for a winning percentage of 77.8%. That breaks down to records of 6-0 in 2003, 3-3 in 2004, 4-2 in 2005, 6-1 in 2006 and 2-0 currently in 2007. Mizzou has won 11 of its last 12 at home dating back to midway through the 2005 season. The only loss in that stretch was a 26-10 setback in 2006 to #19 Oklahoma.

Here's a few statistics that really jump out as being decidedly in MU's favor over the last 9 home games (2006 season plus the 2007 season so far)...

TIGER OFFENSIVE ATTACK AMONG NATION'S MOST BALANCED

Spread offensive attacks such as Mizzou's aren't usually thought of as strong in the run game, but the Tigers, through 4 games, are showing they can do more than just throw the ball.

Mizzou enters Saturday's game against Nebraska ranked 26th in the NCAA in rushing (200.0 ypg), 6th in passing (344.2 ypg), 5th in total offense (544.2 ypg) and 12th in scoring (42.0 ppg).

The NCAA numbers show that MU is one of only 3 schools in the country to average both 300 yards passing and 200 yards rushing. Here's a quick look at the numbers...

MIZZOU-NEBRASKA SERIES

Mizzou and Nebraska have played 100 times previously, in a series that dates back to 1892. The only school Mizzou has played more than Nebraska is arch-rival Kansas, which, at 115 games played, is the nation's 2nd-most played rivalry game.

Nebraska holds a 63-34-3 lead in the series with Mizzou, with a lion's share of that overall advantage due to a stranglehold the Cornhuskers held over MU from 1979-2002 that saw Nebraska win 24 straight games.

Prior to that NU winning streak, the Mizzou-Nebraska series was a very competitive and fiercely fought rivalry, as going into the 1979 season, Nebraska held just a 37-32-3 overall lead.

Mizzou has managed to split the last 4 games with Nebraska, winning consecutive games in Columbia by identical 41-24 scores in both 2003 and 2005. Mizzou will be looking for its 3rd straight win over Nebraska in Columbia, something that the Tigers haven't achieved since 1957, 1959 and 1961.

Overall in Columbia, Nebraska holds a 27-18-1 advantage in the series history, but the Husker lead is slimmer in games played at Mizzou's Memorial Stadium (NU leads, 21-17-1).

LAST YEAR IN LINCOLN: NEBRASKA 34, MIZZOU 20

In a late-season battle for the upper hand in the Big 12 North Division, homestanding Nebraska jumped out to a 27-3 2nd-quarter lead, and held off Mizzou for a 34-20 win on Homecoming.

Mizzou came into the game with hopes of taking over sole possession of 1st place in the North, and was looking for its first win in Lincoln since 1978. Things looked promising early, as the Tigers forced a Husker fumble near midfield on Nebraska's opening possession, but MU couldn't manage a first down, and had to punt the ball away.

The Huskers responded by scoring on three straight possessions, including a field goal and a pair of touchdowns – with the last TD coming after a Tiger interception on MU's 22 yardline – to take a 17-0 lead early in the 2nd quarter.

Mizzou's high-powered offense, which was held in check early on (16 yards in its first 11 plays, with 3 punts and 1 interception), eventually got untracked and put together a 70-yard drive that ended in a Jeff Wolfert FG to cut it to 17-3. After a Husker punt, Mizzou was driving with the ball at midfield, but a 2nd interception of MU's Chase Daniel (with both coming on tipped passes), and subsequent return to the Tiger 17 yardline set up Nebraska for another short drive that they converted into a TD for a 24-3 lead.

Forced to play catch-up from there, the Tigers did their best to stage a rally, but the hole was too deep. PK Jeff Wolfert did his part and more, as he connected on an MU road-record 54-yard FG at the 2nd quarter gun to make it 27-6 at halftime. Wolfert's kick was the longest ever by a Husker opponent at Nebraska's Memorial Stadium, and tied for the 2nd-longest kick in Mizzou history.

The Tigers scored first after the break on a 6-yard TD pass from Daniel to TE Martin Rucker, which cut the score to 27-13. On Nebraska's next possession, Mizzou's defense had the Huskers backed up with a 3rd-down-and-11 on the NU 32-yardline, but couldn't get off the field, as Nebraska threw a screen pass to TB Marlon Lucky that went for 26 yards and a 1st down. The Huskers ended the drive with a short TD run to begin the 4th period that made it 34-13 and effectively iced the game.

Third down was a key stat on the day, as Nebraska converted on 11-of-17 attempts, including three with 11 or more yards to go. Conversely, the Tiger offense couldn't stay on the field long enough to stage a comeback, as they could convert only 3-of-13 3rd-down tries.

#25/23 Nebraska at #17/17 Mizzou — Oct. 6, 2007

Daniel threw for 244 yards and 2 TDs on the day, and TB Tony Temple had a nice day on the ground, as he gained 99 yards on 18 attempts, but the balanced Husker offensive attack was too much to overcome. Nebraska had 419 yards of total offense on the day, including 236 in the air and 183 more on the ground.

Turnovers also proved crucial, as Nebraska converted both of MU's tipped interceptions in the 1st half into 14 points, while MU forced 2 Nebraska fumbles on the day, but couldn't turn them into points.

TIGERS LEAD THE NATION IN 3RD-DOWN CONVERSIONS

The latest NCAA stats show that Missouri enters this weekend's games atop the nation's rankings in 3rd-down efficiency, converting a nation-best 57.1% (36-of-63).

As noted previously, 3rd down played a key role in Nebraska's victory over Mizzou last season in Lincoln, as the Huskers converted on 11-of-17 3rd-down tries (64.7%), including 3 conversions of at least 11 yards to go. Conversely, the Tigers succeeded on just 3-of-13 tries (23.1%), as the offense couldn't stay on the field, nor could the defense get off the field, in what was eventually a 34-20 Nebraska victory.

TIGERS 2ND NATIONALLY IN FEWEST PENALTY YARDS

One of Head Coach Gary Pinkel's tried and true lines has to do with Missouri beating Missouri, and how penalties and mistakes do just that. So far in 2007, his Tigers have done a good job of not beating themselves with penalties, as MU ranks 2nd in the nation in fewest penalty yards per game, with just 29.2 yards averaged.

Through 4 games, MU has been flagged 20 times for a grand total of 117 yards.

OFFENSE CLICKING ALONG AT PROLIFIC PACE

We'll have many things in this set of notes that trumpet the great things Mizzou's offense has done this year, but one thing uncovered through research by the crack staff shows that the 168 points scored in MU's 1st 4 games this season is the most ever by a Tiger team.

Here's a quick look at the points scored breakdown over the years...

MOST MU POINTS SCORED IN 1ST 4 GAMES OF A SEASON

YEAR	PTS.	RECORD
2007	168	4-0
2005	151	2-2
1981	151	3-1

MORE ABOUT OFFENSIVE BALANCE

After being held to just 70 yards rushing in the season opener against Illinois (359 passing for 429 total on the day), the Tiger offense has hit its stride, as it has recorded 3 straight games of 300-yards passing/200-yards rushing. Here's a quick look...

OPP.	MU RUSH	MU PASS	MU TOTAL OFF.

Western Michigan	272	347	619
Illinois State	240	341	581
Last 3 Games Avg.	243.3	339.3	582.7

The only other time in school history MU has had 3 straight games of at least 200 yds. rushing/300 yds. passing was in 1969, when the Tigers did the trick in consecutive games against Oklahoma (247 rush/312 pass), Iowa State (228 rush/317 pass) and Kansas (344 rush/307 pass).

TIME OF POSSESSION DOES NOT COMPUTE

Conventional football wisdom holds, for the most part, that the team that holds the advantage in time of possession usually wins more than they lose.

That old adage is definitely not the case for Mizzou this season, as the Tigers have raced to a 4-0 start despite being outpossessed by an average of over 5 minutes per game thus far (32:59 for opponents on average, to MU's average of 26:54).

One fact that really blows the time of possession belief to bits is this fact: The quarter in which MU has the lowest average time of possession this season is the 2nd quarter, at just 5:36 per game. Guess which quarter MU has scored the most points in this season? Survey says – the 2nd quarter, with 71 points (an average of 17.8 pts. thru 4 games). In spite of opponents holding the ball for a whopping average of 9:23 in the 2nd quarter so far, they have scored only 17 total points in 4 games (4.3 avg.).

DON'T BLINK OR YOU'LL MISS MIZZOU'S QUICK STRIKE OFFENSE

As mentioned above, the Tiger offense has shown its quick-strike nature often thus far this season, as its average scoring drive in 24 offensive scores thus far has been just 2:05.

Against Western Michigan, the Tigers struck quickly and often on the way to a 52-24 win. Every one of their 1st 7 scoring drives took 2:24 or less, including amazing back-to-back drives in the 2nd quarter that traveled 86 yards (TD) and 70 yards (TD) in just 1:04 and 0:52 seconds, respectively.

The game did end with the reserves methodically marching downfield in rather un-Mizzou-like fashion, grinding out a 14-play, 94-yard TD drive that took 5:18. Even with that 5:18 drive, the per-game average for MU's scoring drive against WMU was a mere 1:54. If that long drive is backed out of the equation, the other 7 scoring drives averaged only 1:25!!

As per the chart below, of Mizzou's 19 offensive TD drives thus far, 15 have taken just 2:50 or less, including 9 in the last 2 games (6 vs. Western Michigan, 3 vs. Illinois State).

Mizzou's defense took some lumps from the peanut gallery after its first two games, when it allowed 435 yards to Illinois and 534 yards to Ole Miss to begin the season.

The Tigers have made improvements statistically each of the last 2 outings, keeping both Western Michigan and Illinois State to under 400 yards apiece. The big plays have come down markedly, as MU allowed only 2 plays of 20 yards or more in each of the last 2 games, compared to 7 of 20 or more by both Illinois and Ole Miss.

Here's a look at some game-by-game numbers for the Tiger defense thus far in 2007:

PINKEL NABS 41ST WIN AT MIZZOU LAST TIME OUT

Mizzou Head Coach Gary Pinkel is in his 7th season at MU and touts a career record of 114-72-3 (61.1%).

Pinkel, who has led MU to a combined record of 32-21 over the past 5 seasons, and to bowl games in 2003, 2005 and 2006, has a 7-year record in Columbia of 41-35 (54.0%). Dating back to the 2005 Independence Bowl win over Steve Spurrier and South Carolina, Pinkel has won 13 of his last 18 games overall.

MU's 38-17 win last time out over Illinois State gave Pinkel his 41st MU win, moving him into 4th alltime on the coaching wins list at MU. Here's a quick look at the top 6...

MIZZOU COACHING WINS LEADERS

Coach	Wins	# Seasons (Years)	Record	Pct.	# Bowls
Don Faurot	101	19 (1935-42, 46-56)	101-79-10	.558	4
Dan Devine	93	13 (1958-70)	93-37-7	.704	6
Warren Powers	46	7 (1978-84)	46-33-3	.580	5
Gary Pinkel	41	7 (2001-Present)	41-35	.540	3
Gwinn Henry	40	9 (1923-31)	40-28-9	.578	1
Al Onofrio	38	7 (1971-77)	38-41	.481	2

Pinkel is in a select group of Mizzou coaches that includes College Football Hall of Famers Don Faurot and Dan Devine, as well as Warren Powers, to be the only coaches to have an MU record of above .500 (with at least one full season coached) dating all the way back to 1935.

The 2006 season got off to an historic start for Pinkel and his Tigers, as he led MU to its first 6-0 start since 1973, and its first 7-1 start to a season since 1969. He was awarded with a new five-year contract late in the year that will keep him on the Tiger sidelines through the 2011 season. The new deal trumped the old contract that was set to expire after the 2008 campaign.

Pinkel has led MU to 3 bowl games, and if his Tigers can reach a 4th in 2007, he would join Faurot (4 bowls), Devine (6 bowls), and Powers (5 bowls) as the only coaches to guide MU to 4 bowl games. After beating Nebraska (41-24 in 2005) for the 2nd time in 3 years, Pinkel became the first MU coach since Onofrio to defeat NU twice.

Pinkel has guided Mizzou to 3 winning seasons (8-5 in 2003, 7-5 in 2005, 8-5 in 2006), with those representing 3 of MU's 5 winning campaigns dating back to the 1983 season.

RUCKER LEADS ALL OF NCAA'S TIGHT ENDS IN RECEPTIONS & YARDAGE PER GAME

All-American candidate TE Martin Rucker bypassed the NFL draft after his junior year, in order to come back to help lead his team to great things in 2007, and also to help improve his draft status for next year. Through 4 games, his decision appears to have been an extremely good one, as Rucker has played like a man among children, as he leads all of the nation's tight ends with his per-game average of 7.25 receptions and 82.50 yards per game (29 receptions, 330 yards, 1 TD). He also ranks 14th nationally – among all position players – with his 7.25 catches per game.

It's hard to imagine a tight end playing more inspired ball right now, as Rucker has been a beast every time he's touched the ball – we're hyperbolizing a little here, probably, but it's hard to remember a time when he was brought down by any less than 3 people on a play when he's touched the ball this season.

Rucker, who was voted a team co-captain by his teammates this off-season, caught 53 passes for 511 yards and 5 TDs a year ago. He entered his senior season (after bypassing the NFL Draft) already holding the MU career records for TEs in receptions (119) and yardage (1,341).

Rucker opened the 2007 season by catching a then-career-high 10 passes against Illinois for 86 yards. He also rushed twice for 11 yards. He followed by making 4 catches for 58 yards and 1 TD at Ole Miss, on a 40-yard catch-and-run where he broke one tackle about 10 yards from scrimmage and raced the rest of the way for the score to cap a key 93-yard drive and put MU up, 21-0. He's coming off a career-best outing against Western Michigan that saw him catch 11 passes for 115 yards.

Rucker is the younger brother of Mike Rucker, who was an All-American defensive lineman at Nebraska and is a standout with the NFL's Carolina Panthers. His father, Martin Sr., also has a very public job, as he is a State Representative in the Missouri House of Representatives, for District 29.

NCAA'S TOP ALL-PURPOSE MAN IS MIZZOU'S JEREMY MACLIN

Redshirt freshman WR Jeremy Maclin was a highly-touted recruit in 2006 who figured to be a big part of the Tiger offense a year ago, before suffering a season-ending knee injury during summer drills prior to last season.

It's only taken 4 games into his Tiger career to show that he's fully recovered, and for MU fans to start looking for #9 jerseys in the Tiger Team Store at Memorial Stadium, as Maclin has been next-to-unbelievable thus far for Mizzou, as he enters Saturday's game against Nebraska leading the nation in all-purpose yardage, at 230.2 yards per game.

In fact, Maclin is the only player in the nation currently to have 100 yards in each of the 4 all-purpose categories: rushing (122 yds.), receiving (244), punt returns (200) and kickoff returns (355). In the latest NCAA rankings, of the top 100 players ranked in the all-purpose category, only 10 others even have double figures in all 4 categories.

Maclin is coming off a 238-yard outing against Illinois State, in which he scored on a 64-yard punt return for a TD and also on an 8-yard pass on offense. In all, Maclin had a team-best 5 catches for 53 yards (1 TD), 1 rush for 22 yds., 4 punt returns for 84 yds. (1 TD) and 3 kickoff returns for 82 yards (with a long of 38 yds.).

His 4th-quarter punt return for a TD against Illinois State gave him 2 for the season, and that already ties him for the MU season and career records – only 4 others alltime at Mizzou have returned 2 punts for TDs. He was named the Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week for his big day.

Prior to that, Maclin had a career-high 275-yard all-purpose outing against Western Michigan – the 5th-highest single-game total in MU history. On the day, Maclin had 7 receptions for a career-high 96 yards and 1 TD, he rushed 6 times for 52 yards and 1 TD, had 2 punt returns for 31 yards and returned 5 kickoffs for 96 yards.

While it's very early in the season still, Maclin is on pace for 2,762 all-purpose yards so far, which would obliterate the MU single-season record of 1,621 set in 1998 by former MU All-American, Devin West.

He currently ranks 3rd in the Big 12 and 12th in the NCAA with his punt return average of 16.67 yards.

Maclin is currently 2nd on the team with 21 receptions, 1st in scoring (36 points), 2nd in rushing (122 yards) and 3rd in receiving yards (244).

DANIEL LEADING THE WAY FOR MIZZOU'S HIGH-FLYING OFFENSE

There can't be many QBs in the nation playing at a higher level than Tiger signal caller Chase Daniel, who currently ranks 5th in the nation in total offense (356.75 ypg) and 23rd nationally in passing efficiency (148.31 rating).

Daniel helped lead the way to Mizzou's 619-yard outing against Western Michigan, as he tallied 388 yards of offense, including 328 yards passing (2 TDs) and 60 yards rushing (1 TD). He completed 27-of-46 passes, but he did have his string of consecutive attempts without an interception broken up when he was picked off in the 2nd quarter – ending his string at a Big 12-record 254, just 17 shy of the NCAA record of 271.

The 300-yard passing game was the 6th consecutive for Daniel, dating back to last year, as he ended the 2006 season by throwing for 310 yards at Iowa State, 356 against Kansas, and 330 vs. Oregon State, while adding a career-high 359 yards in 2007 against Illinois, followed by the 330-yard output at Ole Miss.

The 300-yard string came to an end, but just barely, last time out, as Daniel threw for 294 yards before ending his day against Illinois State. In all, he completed 21-of-34 passes for 294 yards and the 3 TDs, while throwing 2 uncharacteristic INTs.

Daniel had a scintillating night at Ole Miss, where he tied his own MU single-game record by tossing 5 TDs (all coming in a span of just 16:07), as he helped lead the Tigers to an important 38-25 road win.

For the night, Daniel completed 31-of-43 passes for 330 yards and the 5 TDs, and he also ran for 55 yards on 11 attempts, giving him a career-best 385 yards of total offense against the Rebels.

After a scoreless 1st quarter by both teams, Daniel erupted in the 2nd quarter to throw TD passes on all 4 of MUs possessions, including hitting WR Will Franklin (10 yds.) on the 1st play of the quarter, and TE Chase Coffman (7 yds.) on the last play of the quarter. In between, he hit Franklin for a 40-yard scoring strike, and teamed with TE Martin Rucker on a 40-yard catch-and-run TD. It was the 1st time in MU history a QB has thrown for 4 TDs in a quarter.

In the 2nd quarter alone, Daniel was 12-of-17 passing for 177 yards and the 4 TDs, good for a stout QB rating of 235.7. On the 1st drive of the 3rd quarter, Daniel's only pass attempt was good for a 37-yard TD to WR Greg Bracey, and when adding that pass to the 2nd quarter, Daniel's QB rating jumped to 263.8 (13-of-18, 214 yds., 5 TDs, 0 INTs).

Daniel completed 37-of-54 passes for a career-high 359 yards in the 2007 opener against Illinois, while throwing 3 TDs with no interceptions as Mizzou claimed a hardfought 40-34 win in St. Louis, Mo. His TD passes were for 1-yard to TE Chase Coffman (on 4th-and-goal in the 1st quarter), for 2-yards to WR Will Franklin (with just :20 seconds before halftime) and for 25 yards to WR Jeremy Maclin (3rd quarter).

Last season, Daniel smashed numerous season records that former QB great Brad Smith and others held, including passing yards (3,527 – almost 1,100 more than the old record of 2,436 by Jeff Handy in 1992), passing TDs (28), TDs responsible for (32) and total offense (3,906). Daniel ranked 5th in the NCAA in total offense with his per-game average of 300.5 ypg – that was the highest a Tiger has rated in total offense nationally since Bob Steuber finished 3rd in 1942.

Daniel, in his first year as a starter in 2006, led MU to its first 6-0 start since 1973, and an 8-win season for only the 10th time in school history.

TONY THE TIGER RUNNING GRRRRREATTT IN 2007

Senior TB Tony Temple entered the 2007 season as the Big 12's leading returning rusher, as he turned in a 1,063-yard season a year ago, which ranked as the 8th-best total in MU single-season history.

Expectations were high for Temple, especially after finishing the 2006 season on a huge upswing, as he gashed Oregon State to the tune of an MU bowl-record 194 rushing yards and 2 TDs in the 2006 Brut Sun Bowl. He was actually selected the game's MVP prior to having it taken away as the Beavers staged a last-second come-from-behind drive to win the game.

The Kansas City, Mo., native had a rough debut in 2007, as he was held to just 33 yards on 17 carries against Illinois (1.9 avg.), while the Tigers were limited to just 70 yards net rushing on the day.

Temple was bound and determined to break out in week #2 at Ole Miss, and he did just that, as he ran for 123 yards on 17 carries, good for a salty per-carry average of 7.2 yards. He had runs of 33 yards and 26 yards to help the cause for an MU offense that rolled up 559 yards on the night.

He followed by just missing the 100-yard mark in game #3 against Western Michigan, carrying 16 times for 96 yards and 2 TDs (his 1st rushing TDs of the season), and then went for 101 yards on 18 carries (1 TD) last time out against Illinois State. Temple also caught his 1st career TD pass, on an 11-yard swing play from QB Chase Daniel that he took in for the score.

Called the catalyst to the Tiger offense by QB Chase Daniel, Temple played in only 1 game as a true freshman in 2004 before being hurt after carrying the ball 6 times in game #8 at Nebraska. An appeal for reinstatement of another year could be filed by Mizzou with the NCAA following the 2007 season.

In his seventh year directing the Missouri Tiger football program, Head Coach Gary Pinkel has built a solid foundation that has Mizzou pointed toward an exciting future.

While Pinkel himself would say that the program is still a work in progress, numerous accomplishments can be pointed to that already tell a nice success story. Mizzou enjoyed an exciting 2006 campaign that saw them win eight regular-season games for just the 10th time in school history, and the Tigers' appearance in the Brut Sun Bowl marked MU's third bowl game in the past four seasons – the first time in 25 years that Mizzou has had three bowls in four years.

Mizzou caught the attention of the national football community in 2006, as the Tigers got out to a scintillating 6-0 start, the first time since 1973 that MU had won its first six games. Mizzou was ranked for much of the season and had its name mentioned on the cover of Sports Illustrated and had its program prominently featured in other national publications such as USA Today and The New York Times. Exposure to the program has never been higher, as a record-tying nine of MU's 13 games were televised in 2006.

His success has led to an increased commitment to his program from the University, as Pinkel was awarded with a new five-year contract last November that will keep him on the Tiger sidelines through the 2011 season. With winning seasons in 2003 (8-5), 2005 (7-5) and 2006 (8-5), Pinkel is the first MU coach to achieve three winning seasons since Warren Powers.

Pinkel and his program successfully built on the momentum created from a thrilling 38-31 win over South Carolina in the 2005 Independence Bowl that saw his Tigers overcome a 21-point deficit. The landmark win marked the largest come-from-behind win in school history, and it gave Mizzou only its second bowl win in the last 24 years.

In the last five seasons, Pinkel has led the Tigers to a mark of 32-21 overall.

Pinkel now has led Mizzou to three bowl games, and that puts him in select company, as he joins Don Faurot, Dan Devine, Al Onforio, and Warren Powers as the only coaches to guide MU to three bowl games. After beating Nebraska (41-24 on Oct. 22nd) for the 2nd time in three years, Pinkel became the first MU coach since Al

Onofrio to defeat the Huskers twice.

His seven-year Mizzou record stands at 41-35, and in 17 years, his record is 114-72-3 overall. The win over Nebraska in 2005 was the 100th of his head coaching career. His 41 wins at Mizzou is now 4th-most on the school's career coaching victories list.

After taking over a program that had fallen on hard times in 2001, Pinkel had increased success in each of his first three seasons, improving from four wins in 2001 to five wins in 2002, to the 2003 squad which went 8-5 and made the school's third bowl appearance since 1983.

2007 GAME RECAPS

GAME #1 • MIZZOU 40, ILLINOIS 34

SEPT. 1, 2007 • EDWARD JONES DOME • ST. LOUIS, MO. • (62, 352)

ST. LOUIS (AP) - Chase Daniel threw three touchdown passes, Pig Brown intercepted a pass at the 1 with 51 seconds to play, and Missouri held off Illinois 40-34 in both teams' season opener at the Edward Jones Dome in St. Louis, Mo.

The Tigers (1-0) scored on a 100-yard fumble return and a 66-yard punt return and were up 37-13 late in the third quarter.

Illinois redshirt freshman quarterback Eddie McGee - in the game after starter Juice Williams left after a blow to the head in the second quarter - scored from 16 yards with 4:08 to play in the third quarter to cut the margin to 17.

After Missouri's Danario Alexander fumbled on a double-reverse, McGee hit Kyle Hudson on a 41-yard scoring pass on the next play. The Illini got within three early in the fourth quarter after Daniel fumbled deep in his own territory. Rashard Mendenhall scored from the 4 two plays later to make it 37-34.

Missouri went ahead 40-34 on Jeff Wolfert's 32-yard field goal with 8:32 to play, then held on.

The Illini had one final shot, taking over at their 30 with 2:51 to play and driving to the Missouri 22. But Brown leaped high to intercept Brown's pass, and Missouri ran out the clock to claim its third straight win over Illinois in St. Louis, matching previous wins in 2002 and 2003.

McGee was 17-for-31 for 257 yards and a touchdown, but lost two fumbles and was intercepted twice. One of the fumbles came when McGee was inches from scoring on a quarterback draw in the second quarter. Missouri safety Pig Brown scooped up the ball and ran 100 yards the other way — tying an NCAA record in the process for longest fumble return.

Daniel was 37-for-54 for a career-high 359 yards and threw touchdown passes of 1 yard to Chase Coffman in the first quarter, 2 yards to Will Franklin in the second quarter and 25 yards to Jeremy Maclin in the third quarter.

Maclin also scored on a 66-yard punt return that put Missouri up 37-13 with 6:11 to play in the third quarter, before the Illini began the comeback.

Martin Rucker caught 10 passes for 86 yards for Missouri, and Alexander had nine catches for 82 yards, before dislocating his left wrist while being tackled on a key 33-yard reception in the fourth quarter that extended a crucial drive for the Tigers. Team officials said after the game they hoped to have Alexander back in time for the Nebraska game in Columbia on Oct. 5th.

Illinois rushed for 174 yards, led by Daniel Dufrane's 58 yards on six carries. Mendenhall had 42 yards and scored on runs of 25 and 4 yards.

Williams was scrambling near the sideline early in the second quarter when he appeared to take a helmet-to-helmet hit from Missouri cornerback Hardy Ricks. Ricks was playing despite suffering a dislocated shoulder just weeks prior in pre-season camp.

The Illini said Williams was held out for the remainder of the game as a precaution. He was 6-for-9 for 59 yards and rushed six times for 15 yards.

Both teams made the most of the opportunities presented them, as Illinois scored 20 of its points off Tiger miscues, including six on a blocked punt returned for a touchdown, and 14 more after recovering MU fumbles on the Tiger 5-yardline and 41-yardline.

Mizzou countered by scoring 16 points off of three Illini fumbles, with another seven coming on Maclin's punt return score — only the third non-blocked punt return for a touchdown at Missouri since 1990.

GAME #2 • MIZZOU 38, OLE MISS 25

SEPT. 8, 2007 • VAUGHT-HEMINGWAY STADIUM • OXFORD, MISS. • (50,897)

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) - Chase Daniel had 332 yards in total offense, and Missouri got a dominant effort from its defense in a 34-7 victory over Mississippi to move to 2-0 on the season.

Daniel ran for a 3-yard score and had a 20-yard touchdown pass in a strong follow-up to his first career start when he threw a school-record five touchdown passes against Division I-AA Murray State. Saturday's effort came against tougher competition, with Daniel going 24-for-40 for 243 yards and rushing for 89 yards on 13 carries.

Mississippi (1-1) managed just 162 total yards, and Mizzou's defense forced Rebel quarterback Brent Schaeffer into throwing three interceptions. The Rebels were outgained 169-7 in the first quarter and surrendered 471 yards overall.

Missouri (2-0) scored on three of its first four drives in the first half and the first two possessions of the second half. The Tigers are 2-0 for the first time since 2003, after getting upset by New Mexico and Troy the previous two seasons.

Mississippi's lone score came after a turnover gave the Rebels possession in Missouri territory for the only time. Marcus Woods fumbled a punt return, and Charles Clark recovered at the 40. Two plays later, Schaeffer threw a 30-yard touchdown pass to Marshay Green with 1:50 left in the first half to cut the gap to 17-7.

Daniel accounted for all 80 yards on the Tigers' opening drive, going 6-for-6 for 50 yards and rushing four times for 30 yards. He busted a 25-yard run off a fake handoff and scored on a 3-yard run.

A 24-yard pass from Daniel to William Franklin set up a 22-yard field goal by Jeff Wolfert, and a punt downed at the 2 ended up giving Missouri favorable field position on a 43-yard drive capped by Woods' 1-yard run for a 17-0 lead.

Brad Ekwerekwu caught a 20-yard touchdown pass to cap Missouri's first drive of the second half, and backup quarterback Brandon Coleman had an 8-yard scoring run in the fourth quarter.

BenJarvus Green-Ellis had 69 yards on 16 carries for Mississippi, which had 240 yards rushing in its opening victory over Memphis.

2007 GAME RECAPS

GAME #3 • MIZZOU 52, WESTERN MICHIGAN 24

SEPT. 16, 2006 • UNIVERSITY STADIUM • ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. • (27,806)

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Jeremy Maclin racked up 275 total yards and scored two touchdowns and Tony Temple add two TDs to lead Missouri to a 52-24 win over Western Michigan in Mizzou's 2007 home opener.

Chase Daniel threw for two touchdowns and ran for a third, completing 27 of 46 passes for 328 yards for Missouri.

As it did in season-opening victories against Illinois and Mississippi, Missouri (3-0) built a big first-half lead - going up 31-3 on the Broncos (0-3) - before withstanding a second-half comeback that briefly cut the lead to 14.

But the Tigers' defense stopped Western Michigan when it counted, including a fourth-and-goal from the 6 midway through the fourth quarter.

Missouri wasted little time at the outset, with Maclin catching a 24-yard touchdown pass from Daniel to cap a 6-play, 72-yard opening drive.

The Tigers extended the lead to 14-0 on a 1-yard touchdown run by Temple - Missouri's first rushing score of the season. Linebacker Brock Christopher's interception set up the 46-yard scoring drive, which also featured a 39-yard scramble by Daniel before he was knocked out of bounds at the 1.

The run was a career long for Daniel, who added a 35-yard run for a score in the fourth quarter.

Daniel entered the game with a chance to set the Division I record for consecutive passes without an interception, having thrown 235 in a row without a pick, a streak dating back to a Nov. 4, 2006 game against Nebraska.

He extended the mark with his first 20 passes Saturday before Western Michigan's Anthony Gebhart picked off Daniel with 3:31 remaining in the second quarter. That play preserved the national mark of 271 set by Trent Dilfer at Fresno State.

Maclin added his second touchdown early in the second quarter with a 17-yard run on a direct snap to the receiver, who was lined up in the shotgun.

Maclin caught seven passes for 96 yards, rushed six times for 52 yards, returned five kickoffs for 96 yards and returned two punts for 31 yards. His 275 all-purpose yards ranked as the 5th-most in MU single-game history.

Maclin nearly had another long score on a third-quarter kickoff, but ran into the back of a blocker and had to settle for a 29-yard return. And his 23-yard punt return in the third quarter deep into Western Michigan territory set up Temple's second rushing touchdown to make it 38-10.

Tommy Saunders caught a 25-yard TD pass from Daniel just before halftime, and backup quarterback Chase Patton completed the Tigers' scoring with an 18-yard run with 1:33 remaining.

Mark Bonds had a 9-yard touchdown run and Branden Ledbetter added a 27-yard scoring reception for Western Michigan, both in the fourth quarter. Ledbetter's score allowed the Broncos to cut the lead to 38-24 before Daniel ran for a 35-yard touchdown.

2007 GAME RECAPS

GAME #4 • #25 MIZZOU 38, ILLINOIS STATE 17
SEPT. 22, 2007 • FAUROT FIELD • COLUMBIA, MO. • (56,137)

A dominant second-half performance buoyed Mizzou to a 31-6 win over the Ohio Bobcats, and a perfect 4-0 start for just the sixth time in the last 82 seasons (since 1925).

The MU defense, which allowed 157 yards of offense in the 1st half, shut down Ohio after intermission, allowing only 31 total yards in the 2nd half (with 37 coming on its final possession before an MU interception ended the game). The Tiger offense chipped in adequately, despite 3 turnovers in the game, outgaining the Bobcats 211-to-31 in the 2nd half, and 428-to-188 in total on the day.

The Tiger defense, ranked 2nd in the nation coming into the game, got challenged early, as Ohio forced a turnover on MU's game-opening possession and took over on the Tiger 41-yardline. The Bobcats mustered only 20 yards, however, and had a 38-yard field goal attempt blocked by LB Marcus Bacon to end the threat.

The Tiger offense responded 3 plays later, when QB Chase Daniel hit a wide-open WR Will Franklin down the left sideline for a 68-yard TD pass — the longest pass play since 2000 at MU — to give Mizzou the lead, 7-0.

The Bobcats wouldn't go away, however, as they strung together a 7-play, 80-yard TD drive midway through the 2nd quarter to close to within one point, at 7-6. The extra point was blocked by DL Lorenzo Williams and DE Xzavie Jackson, though, to preserve the lead.

That block seemed to swing momentum for the homestanding Tigers, as the offense answered with an 11-play, 75-yard TD drive that ended with Daniel's 2nd TD pass to Franklin (from 11 yards) with 5:26 left in the half to make it 14-6.

After a quick 3-and-out forced by MU's defense to open the 3rd quarter, the Tiger offense scored on its first two possessions — on a career-long 44-yard field goal by PK Jeff Wolfert and a 5-yard TD run by Daniel — to extend the lead to 24-6 with 6:38 left in the period.

The TD drive covered only 28 yards and was set up by Williams' fumble recovery after CB Darnell Terrell crashed from the corner to force an errant option pitch by Ohio QB Austen Everson that Williams pounced on.

In four 3rd-quarter possessions by Ohio, the Tiger defense held the Bobcats to -13 yards on 14 total plays, while the MU offense totaled 102 yards in the same 15 minutes.

TB Jimmy Jackson capped the scoring with a 2-yard run (his first of the season) with 3:13 left in the game to account for the final score. Ohio drove 37 yards on its final drive, only to have Bacon grab his 2nd interception of the season. He returned his pickoff 48 yards before being dragged down.

Bacon led all Tigers, with 9 tackles, while Daniel totaled 302 yards of total offense, including 258 passing and 44 rushing. Franklin led all receivers with 99 yards receiving on 4 catches, and TB Tony Temple had a team-high 60 yards rushing on 15 attempts.
