LEADING OFF...

- Mizzou is set for another mid-week non-conference doubleheader Wednesday at Southeast Missouri State. The Tigers lead the all-time series over the Redhawks, 27-3. In the teams' last meeting, Mizzou claimed a doubleheader sweep over SEMO in Columbia, Missouri, a season ago (April 18, 2017).
- The Tigers have been victorious in 17 consecutive matchups against the Redhawks. Their last loss occurred on April 20, 2000, in a neutral site game in St. Louis, Missouri. Mizzou and SEMO haven't squared off in Cape Girardeau, Missouri, since April 2, 2003, as the Tigers produced a pair of run-rule victories.
- Mizzou looks to get back to its winning ways this week, as they enter Wednesday's doubleheader losers in seven of its past eight games played. The Tigers tallied a win in their recent three-game series at Mizzou Softball Stadium this past weekend (March 16-18) against No. 20 Mississippi State.
- In its 10th matchup against a nationally ranked opponent already this year, Mizzou recorded a 7-3 victory over the Bulldogs this past Saturday. It marked the Tigers' first top-25 and Southeastern Conference triumph this season.
- Madi Norman was fantastic in the circle in Mizzou's victory over Mississippi State, as she allowed only one earned run over a complete game effort. It was Norman's third complete game win this season, joining her previous accomplishments against Florida Atlantic (Feb. 17) and Southeastern Louisiana (March 2).
- The Tiger offense exploded for an SEC season-high 12 hits in their victory. Overall, Mizzou has now produced nine 10-plus hit games this year.
- Kolby Romaine delivered the big blow against the Bulldogs last Saturday, as her three RBI bases-clearing double started the Tigers' scoring. The Chino Hills, California, native paced Mizzou in hitting over its three-game series against Mississippi State with a robust .571 average (4-for-7, 2 2B, 3 RBI).
- Danielle Baumgartner continued to shine in conference action with an impressive performance in Sunday's series finale. The Tiger right hander allowed one earned run on three hits over 3.2 total innings. In two appearances in SEC play, the Mexico, Missouri, native has given up only one earned run over 5.2 innings of work.

MIZZOU CHECKS-IN AT NO. 23 IN FIRST NCAA RPI RANKINGS

- ▼ The NCAA released its first edition of the 2018 Softball RPI rankings Monday (March 19) and Mizzou checked-in at No. 23 overall.
- ▼ The Tigers' top 25 placement is largely due to possessing the nation's No. 1 ranked strength of schedule. Through 31 games played this season, Mizzou has squared off against 12 top 25 RPI teams and 16 matchups against top 50 RPI opponents.
- ▼ Mizzou's top RPI victories thus far are against No. 18 Mississippi State (March 17), No. 43 Wisconsin (Feb. 24) and No. 46 BYU (Feb. 22).
- ▼ The Tigers have regularly competed well versus the nation's elite, including close contests against No. 3 UCLA, No. 5 Tennessee, No. 16 Oregon State, No. 18 Mississippi State and No. 24 Oklahoma State.
- ▼ To no one's surprise, the deeply talented Southeastern Conference holds the nation's top conference RPI. All 13 SEC programs are ranked top 35 RPI in the country, including three top 10 teams and seven top 20 clubs.

TIGERS TALLY FIRST SEC & RANKED WIN THIS YEAR

- ▼ Mizzou ended its then six-game losing streak on Saturday, March 17, with a 7-3 victory over No. 20 Mississippi State. The Tigers' triumph over the Bulldogs marked their first top 25 ranked win this season.
- ▼ Madi Norman was fantastic in the circle, tossing a complete game and allowing only one earned run. It was her third complete game win in the circle this season, joining her previous accomplishments on Feb. 17 against Florida Atlantic and March 2 versus Southeastern Louisiana.
- ▼ The Tiger offense broke through against Bulldogs pitching, led by Kolby Romaine and Rylee Pierce's multi-hit efforts at the plate. Overall, Mizzou knocked out 12 hits, marking its most hits in an SEC game this season (six total contests).
- ▼ Entering this week's action, Mizzou has now produced nine 10-plus hit games this year. Its 12 hits against Mississippi State were the team's most since Feb. 22 against BYU.

SANCHEZ PROVING TO BE NCAA & SEC ELITE HITTER

- ▼ Redshirt junior 3B Amanda Sanchez (West Covina, California) returned to the Tigers lineup at the Kajikawa Classic (Feb. 9-11) after missing almost all of the 2017 season due to injury. Coach Fogue was clearly happy to see her powerful bat back in action, as she posted a team-leading seven hits and two doubles.
- ▼ Sanchez struck quickly in Mizzou's true season-opening doubleheader (Feb. 9) with back to back three-hit performances against UTEP and CSUN. It marked her 40th and 41st career multi-hit games at Mizzou.
- ▼ At the Michele Smith Invitational (Feb. 16-18), the Tiger third baseman was virtually unstoppable at the plate. She hit .579 (11-for-19) with seven runs scored, three doubles, two home runs and five RBI. Additionally, she posted an incredible 1.053 SLG% and .625 OBP (1.678 OPS).
- ▼ At the Mary Nutter Classic (Feb. 22-25), Sanchez once again delivered video game statistics with a .556 (10-for-18) average, three runs scored, two home runs and six RBIs. She recorded multi-hit efforts in four of six games played, including her fourth three-hit performance on the young season.
- ▼ At the Mizzou Tournament (March 2-4), Sanchez received the "Barry Bonds treatment" at the plate and was routinely pitched around. Overall, the Tiger third baseman was walked an incredible 10 times (nearly half her plate appearances). She showed incredible focus and ability in her at bats when she was pitched to, hitting .636 (7-for-11) with eight runs scored, three doubles, two home runs and seven RBI.
- ▼ Entering this week's action (March 19-25), Sanchez ranks top 10 in the SEC in OBP (.613 // 1st), AVG (.481 // 2nd), SLG% (.848 // 4th), total bases (67 // T-4th), home runs (7 // T-6th), hits (38 // T-7th) and doubles (8 // T-7th)

KESSINGER CRACKS RECORD BOOK WITH 14-GAME HITTING STREAK

- ▼ Sophomore RF Cayla Kessinger (Saugus, Calif.) concluded her 2017 first-year campaign as one of the Tigers' hottest hitters. In fact, she hit safely in her final 10 games a year ago with two multi-hit games and five doubles.
- ▼ The lefty-swinging Tiger carried that momentum into the team's 2018 season-opening stretch at the Kajikawa Classic (Feb. 9-11). Over five games played, Kessinger hit .400 with three runs, one double and two RBI.
- ▼ Kessinger hit safely in her opening four games in Tempe, Ariz., extending her hitting streak to 14 consecutive games dating back to the conclusion of the 2017 campaign. Her good fortunes unfortunately ran out with an 0-for-2 performance against Oregon State in the Tigers' Kajikawa Classic finale.
- ▼ Overall, Kessinger's 14-game hitting streak ranked T-7th longest in program history. Over that impressive stretch, she totaled four multi-hit games with six doubles and four RBI.

Over the 44 years of its existence, Mizzou Softball has proven itself as a Women's College World Series-level program. Beginning in 2017, the Tigers have a facility that matches the excellence of the team.

The $17.5 million Mizzou Softball Stadium is the latest jewel within the Mizzou Athletics Sports Park and has ample amenities for fans and players alike. Featuring over 700 chairback seats — nearly 10 times the total of its predecessor, University Field — along with bleachers and a spacious outfield berm, the stadium can easily accommodate 2,500 fans.

Fans entering the stadium are greeted by a beautiful brick façade, complemented by a Centria paneling system. The stadium offers beautiful views whether sitting in the infield seating, or atop the berm area. LED lit 'Mizzou Tigers' signage hangs from the press level, and an LED-lit lantern piece sets atop the facility's main elevator.

A "full-view" concourse allows fans to not miss a pitch while visiting one of two concession stands or the on-site Tiger Team Store. The concourse is located beneath a spacious elevated press box, which features dedicated broadcast and radio booths, space for working press and game management, and a Club Suite.

Fans will also appreciate the brand-new video board; with over 300 square feet of LED display, it is much larger than the previous board at University Field.

The new field's dimensions are 200 feet at the foul lines and 220 feet at center field. A 10-foot, crushed-brick warning track separates the six-foot wall from an expansive outfield of lush Kentucky Bluegrass, carefully tended by Jerry Cummings and the Mizzou Sports Turf staff. The DuraEdge infield lays atop a drainage system built to USGA specs.

Both teams are protected from the elements by bench-heated dugouts, and have access to bullpens down their respective foul lines, and batting cages underneath the stands. In addition, six dedicated TV-camera wells allow for easy production of SEC Network telecasts.

The Tigers' home-team suite is located directly behind the third-base dugout, and includes, besides 32 lockers, amenities such as a mud room, equipment-storage area and coaches meeting room.

One of the premier collegiate softball events comes to Mizzou Softball Stadium in 2018, as the Tigers will host the annual Southeastern Conference Tournament from May 8-12. It will mark Mizzou's first time ever hosting the SEC Tournament and only the second conference tournament ever to be held in Columbia, Mo. (1980 Big Eight Tournament). Big events are nothing new for the Tigers program however, as Mizzou has served as the host for nine NCAA Regionals and four NCAA Super Regionals since 2005.
