No. 16 Missouri Tigers (5-3) vs. Kent State Golden Flashes (2-3)

Sunday, Dec. 5 :: 1 p.m. CT :: Hearnes Center

Fresh off a 3-1 trip to the Northeast Duals in Albany, N.Y. last weekend, the No. 16 Missouri Tigers return home this weekend to take on the Kent State Golden Flashes in front of the hometown crowd at the Hearnes Center. The first match is scheduled to start at 1 p.m. CT.

SCOUTING KENT STATE

Guided by eighth year head coach Jim Andrassy, the Golden Flashes come into the dual sporting a 2-3 record against an extremely tough schedule. The team's two victories have come against Chattanooga and North Carolina, while they've lost to No. 14 Iowa State, No. 10 Virginia Tech and No. 24 Virginia. Though unranked in the NWCA/USA Today Coaches Poll, the Golden Flashes are tied for 12th according to Intermat and ranked 15th according to WIN Magazine.

Five of the projected starters for this weekend are ranked in the top-25, highlighted by Dustin Kilgore, the No. 1 ranked 197-pounder in the country. Kilgore is 13-0 on the season, and has scored bonus points in nine of his victories. The junior All-American has won 35 straight dual meets dating back to January of 2009. Nic Bedelyon, Kent State's 125 pounder, is ranked fifth in the country and comes in with a 9-0 record. Bedelyon has registered bonus points six times this season, which includes a technical fall victory over No. 10 Jarrod Garnett of Virginia Tech. Bedelyon will go up against Mizzou's Alan Waters, ranked 11th, in one of the most anticipated matches of the day. Also in the rankings for KSU are Matt Cathell, No. 20 at 157 pounds, Ross Tice, the 24th ranked 165 pounder and heavyweight Brendan Barlow, who is No. 12.

Missouri and Kent State have faced off three other times, with the Tigers taking all three victories. The last meeting came in 2006, with the Tigers pulling off a 22-15 victory. This will be the first time these two teams have met in Columbia, as each of the previous three matches came at neutral sites

For more information, or to order tickets in advance, call 1-800-CAT-PAWS.

WHAT'S NEXT

Missouri hits the road next weekend for their first of two consecutive weekends in the state of Indiana. The Tigers will head to West Lafayette, Ind. to take on the No. 23 Purdue Boilermakers. Action gets started at 11 a.m. CT, and the dual will air live on the Big Ten Network.

WATERS' EARLY IMPACT

When Alan Waters came to Mizzou, people knew the Tigers were going to finally have that top grappler at the 125 pound mark that they've longed for. However, no one probably expected the true freshman to have this big of an impact this early. The four-time state champion has put together a 18-0 record in his first month of collegiate action, as he's won all four dual matches he's wrestled in while capturing two tournament titles, winning at the Lindenwood Open and the Central Missouri Open. Two weekends ago he defeated No. 21 Steve Bonanno of Hofstra by a 2-1 decision and No. 10 Jason Lara of Oregon State by a 3-2 score. Last weekend, at the Northeast Duals, Waters had a perfect 4-0 day, scoring four decisions to improve to 18-0 overall and 8-0 in duals. After starting the season unranked, Waters is now up to as high as No. 11 in the country in the major polls.

TIGERS WIN THREE AT NORTHEAST DUALS

The 16th ranked Mizzou wrestling team (5-3) picked up three wins in four matches at the Journeymen/ASICS Northeast Duals, held in Albany, N.Y. on Saturday. Missouri knocked off American by a 23-15 to open the day, and after a loss to No. 24 Rutgers by a 19-16 score, bounced back to defeat No. 11 Lehigh, 21-10, and Maryland, 18-12. Freshman Alan Waters (125), sophomore Nathan McCormick (133) and senior Todd Schavrien (141) combined to go 12-0 in their matches, helping the Tigers jump out to early leads in each of the duals.

MIZZOU TAKES TWO AT QUAD MEET

The No. 11 Missouri wrestling team opened the home portion of their 2010-11 dual schedule with a quad meet that featured Lindenwood, Hofstra and No. 17 Oregon State. The Tigers finished the day with a 2-1 record, knocking off their first two opponents before dropping their last dual.

Missouri's day got started with their in-state foe, Lindenwood, who ranks as high as No. 8 in the NAIA rankings. The Tigers took care of business, winning 41-0 for the program's first shutout since Mizzou shutout Maryland by a 47-0 score in 2004-05.

The Tigers then took on the Hofstra Pride, who is receiving votes in the latest NWCA/USA Today Coaches Poll. The Tigers got several big wins late in the match, winning at 184, 197 and heavyweight to pull out the 19-15 victory.

The last dual of the day pitted the Tigers up against No. 17 Oregon State. The Beavers jumped out big early, winning four of the first six matches and picked up some big wins late to hold off the surging Tigers, as OSU won 19-13.

HAYNES, MELLON WIN AT OPEN

The Missouri wrestling team sent 23 wrestlers to the 2010 Kaufman/Brand Open in Omaha, Neb., on Saturday, and six Tigers returned to Columbia with hardware. Sophomore Brent Haynes and freshman Devin Mellon led the charge, with each claiming first place in their respective classes. Weston Keleher placed second at the 184 elite, Drake Houdashelt took third in 157 amateur, and Johnny Eblen (184 amateur) and Clarence Neely (184 elite) each took sixth.

Haynes swept through the 197 pound elite bracket in dominating fashion, pinning four of his five opponents while scoring a technical fall on the other. His fastest pin came in 1:41, and his 15-0 tech. fall win came in 2:51. In the finals, Haynes pinned Minnesota's Joe Nord in just 2:05.

In the heavyweight amateur bracket, Mellon rallied off four decisions in five matches to claim the title. He opened with wins of 7-3 and 7-4, and after getting credit for a fall due to disqualification, he then beat Kyle Slifka of Iowa State by a 5-3 score before winning the championship by a 3-1 score in sudden victory overtime.

TIGERS TAKE ALL 10 TITLES AT CMU OPEN

The Missouri wrestling team put on an unbelievable show at the annual University of Central Missouri Open, as Mizzou grapplers claimed first place in all 10 weight classes during the all-day event. In total, 21 Tigers earned medals.

Alan Waters (125), Nathan McCormick (133), Cody Farinella (141), Brandon Wiest (149), Drake Houdashelt (157), Nick Gregoris (165), Dorian Henderson (174), Mike Larson (184), Brent Haynes (197) and Dom Bradley (HWT) each took first place in their respective weight classes.

Luke Cherep (133), Simon Kitzis (141), Austin Lindsay (157), Jordan Gagliano (165), Patrick Wright (174) and Clarence Neely (184) each took third place. Nick Hucke (149) placed fourth, Todd Porter (174), Johnny Eblen (184) and Tyler Perry (HWT) each claimed fifth, and Eric Wilson (133) took sixth.

MIZZOU FALLS TO ILLINOIS, 18-13

The No. 11 Missouri Tigers wrestling team dropped their season-opening match to the No. 10 Illinois Fighting Illini by an 18-13 final. The Tigers fell behind 12-3 at the midway point and couldn't overcome the deficit late.

True freshman Alan Waters picked up where he left off last weekend at Lindenwood, as he opened the meet with an 8-3 decision over Logan Arlis to improve his record to 6-0 on the season.

Zach Toal, a redshirt freshman, pulled the Tigers within six with a 10-4 decision over Conrad Polz. Toal scored takedowns in each of the first two periods before going off in the third, as he picked up another pair of takedowns and an escape to go along with his riding time point.

Junior Dorian Henderson secured the only bonus points of the evening, as he took down Tony Dallago four times to go with a nearfall as he coasted to a 13-5 victory.

Fellow junior Dom Bradley closed out the evening with a 3-0 victory over Patrick Walker. After a scoreless first, Bradley escaped in the second after choosing down, and took Walker down 47 seconds into the third period.

THREE TAKE TITLES AT LINDENWOOD

While several Tigers were competing at the annual Black and Gold wrestle-off's on Oct. 30, the rest of the team was getting their first taste of action this season at the Lindenwood Open. Three Mizzou grapplers, freshman Alan Waters, junior Danny Gonsor and sophomore Nick Gregoris took first place in their class, while nine Tigers in all secured medals on the day.

Waters entered the 125 pound class as the No. 2 seed, and coasted through the first two rounds with back-to-back pins, putting Paul Myers (UN-SIUE) on his back in 1:33 and defeating Ben Seglin (WC) in 1:12. After a 4-1 decision and a 6-0 decision to advance to the finals, Waters pinned No. 4 seed Paulie Hansen (MVC) in 1:00 to take the crown.

At 157 pounds, Gonsor was the top-ranked seed in his class and lived up to the hype, as he dominated his five matches on his way to the title. Gonsor, a transfer from the University of Virginia, pinned his first three opponents, taking out Kyle Dooley (UN-ILL) in 4:14, Josh Ballard (MCK) in 1:52 and Josh Mccoy (MMI) in 0:53 to advance to the semifinals. From there, he picked up a 15-0 technical fall victory over No. 4 seed Jake Johnson (LU) to move on to the championship, where he dropped No. 2 seed Jackson Morse (UN-ILL) by a 17-0 score for his second straight technical fall victory, earning him the title.

Nick Gregoris, who entered the tournament unseeded at 165 pounds, took first place with an impressive showing. After pinning his first opponent, Zack Long (MVC) in 1:11, Gregoris then

TIGERS RETURN THREE NCAA QUALIFIERS

The 2010-11 Missouri wrestling team will return three of their six NCAA qualifiers from last season. Senior Todd Schavrien, junior Dorian Henderson and sophomore Brent Haynes each qualified for nationals last year.

Schavrien made his second straight NCAA appearance last year, qualifying at 141 pounds. After dropping his opening match against No. 1 seeded Kyle Dake, Schavrien bounced back with two straight wins before being eliminated by the No. 3 seed from Minnesota, Michael Thorn.

Henderson moved down to 174 pounds last year and earned his second straight bid to nationals, where he went 2-2 with a 3-2 win over Bucknell's Shane Riccio and an 11-3 major decision over conference opponent Ryan Burk from Iowa State.

Haynes qualified for nationals as a redshirt freshman at 197 pounds, and put together three victories before being eliminated. He opened up with an 18-6 major decision over Eric Schuth from Ohio, abd bounced back from a tough loss with an 8-2 win over Richard Starks of Army and an 11-0 major decision over Ohio State's Cody Magrum.

NEW FACES

Of the 41 grapplers on the 2010-11 Missouri wrestling squad, 16 are new to the Tiger program this season. The 2010-11 class was ranked as the 11th-best incoming class by InterMat, with freshmen Alan Waters, Drake Houdashelt and Simon Kitzis rankings in the top 100 individually. The 13 freshmen are joined by three transfers - junior Danny Gonsor (Virginia), sophomore Mike Larson (Cal State University Bakersfield) and sophomore Clarence Neely (Meramec). Both Gonsor and Larson qualified for the NCAA Championships last season.

BACK-TO-BACK ALL-AMERICANS

In Missouri wrestling's 64 years, nine Tigers have earned back-to-back All-America honors. Thirty Tigers have collected 46 honors with 13 earning two or more accolades, but only Dave Young (1981-82), Shaon Fry (1993-94), Scott Barker (2002-03), Ben Askren (2004-07), Tyler McCormick (2006-07), Nicholas Marable (2008-09), Maxwell Askren (2008-10), Raymond Jordan (2008-09) and Mark Ellis (2009-10) managed top eight finishes in consecutive years.
