UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI 2003

Missouri Tigers (32-17, 13-10 Big 12) vs. Oklahoma Sooners (21-27, 9-15 Big 12)

Columbia, Mo. – Taylor Stadium (2,200) – Fri.-Sun., May 16-18, 2003

MISSOURI ENTERS FINAL WEEKEND WITH BIG 12 SEED IN DOUBT

The Missouri baseball team, which moved into fifth place in the Big 12 without even playing a conference game last week, plays its final games of the 2003 regular season this weekend in hopes of improving both its seed for the Phillips 66 Big 12 Tournament, as well as its chances of an NCAA Tournament bid.

The Tigers will make their attempt by facing an Oklahoma squad that has had an uncharacteristically tough season, yet is hot as of late (winners of seven of its last 10 games) and has also had Mizzou's number over the last three seasons (10-0 overall vs. Mizzou).

SOONER SERIES NOTES

Oklahoma leads the all-time series, 130-92, in a matchup that has been played since 1912, five years after the Sooner State's admission into the Union. Since the formation of the Big 12, Oklahoma has held a 15-4 advantage, including 5-3 in Columbia.

TIGERS HONOR SIMMONS WITH BRONZE BUST ON FRIDAY

On Friday at 5 p.m., before the start of the Oklahoma series, a bronze bust of Hall of Fame Head Coach John "Hi" Simmons will be unveiled on the concourse at the stadium that bears his name. Between 30 and 50 members of his former players, as well as three of his sons, will be in attendance.

Simmons, who passed away in 1995, coached at Mizzou from 1937-73, finishing with a record of 481-294-3. He led the Tigers to the 1954 NCAA title, had three other squads (1952, '58, '64) finish second, and in total brought six teams to the College World Series. He also skipped Mizzou to 11 conference championships.

The Lancaster, Mo., native coached 19 All-Americans, including nine first-team choices. A former president of the American Baseball Coaches Association, Simmons was inducted in the State of Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 1977, and is also a member of the ABCA Hall of Fame.

TIGERS TO HONOR TINGLER, BILICA BEFORE SATURDAY'S GAME

Prior to the start of Saturday's game, Head Coach Tim Jamieson and the Missouri baseball program will recognize its two seniors, centerfielder Jayce Tingler (Smithville, Mo.) and right-handed pitcher Brian Bilica (Jefferson City, Mo.), for their contributions to the program.

Tingler will finish his career as a four-year starter for the Tigers, mostly as their leadoff hitter. His next hit will break the school record he currently shares with former standout Ryan Fry (1995-98), and is in the top 10 in several other categories.

Bilica, a 27-year-old walk-on who made his Tiger debut this season, has provided invaluable leadership as the elder statesman of the team. He has seen action in four games, and didn't allow an earned run until this past Friday against Rockhurst.

BROSHUIS EARNS ACADEMIC ALL-DISTRICT PLAUDITS

Sophomore RHP Garrett Broshuis (Advance, Mo.) has been named to the 11-member Verizon® Academic All-District VII Baseball Team, as voted upon by members of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). As a member of the team, Broshuis' name now is forwarded onto the national ballot for consideration as an Academic All-American.

Broshuis holds a 3.92 cumulative grade-point average in psychology, and has posted a perfect 4.0 GPA last semester. He has twice been a member of both the Big 12 Conference Commissioner's Honor Roll and Student-Athlete Dean's List. A member of Mizzou's Student-Athlete Advisory Council, Broshuis attended the 2002 NCAA Leadership Conference in Orlando, Fla.

TIGERS RETIRE BRADLEY'S #15

Tiger two-sport legend Phil Bradley, who spent eight seasons in the Major Leagues following a brilliant collegiate career, had his No. 15 baseball jersey retired in a ceremony before the series finale vs. Texas A&M on April 26.

Bradley is the first Tiger baseball player to be so honored. His number will join former head coaches John "Hi" Simmons and Gene McArtor on the outfield wall of Simmons Field, as well as on a plaque hanging on the Taylor Stadium concourse.

"I was just blessed to be the first," Bradley said in remarks on the field prior to the game. "I was fortunate enough to play with some great teams at the University of Missouri."

One of the most decorated athletes in Missouri annals, Bradley lettered in football at Missouri from 1977-81, and in baseball in 1979-81. A native of Macomb, Ill., Bradley starred as an outfielder on Missouri teams which won the 1980 Big Eight championship and advanced to the 1980 and 1981 NCAA Tournaments. Bradley was All-Big Eight, All-District and All-America in 1981, when he hit .457. Bradley was also the 1980 Big Eight Tournament MVP when Mizzou won the championship. He held school records for career walks and on-base percentage and held five school records when he graduated.

Bradley was drafted by the Seattle Mariners and played with them through 1987. He was named to the 1985 American League All-Star Team and hit a career-high 26 home runs that season. He also played with the Philadelphia Phillies, the Baltimore Orioles and the Chicago White Sox, and played briefly in Japan.

On the gridiron, Bradley quarterbacked the Tigers to three bowl games (1978 and 1980 Liberties and the 1979 Hall of Fame). He was a three-time Big Eight Conference "Offensive Player of the Year" and set the conference total offense record with 6,459 yards. He holds eight Missouri records for passing and total offense, and played in two all-star games, the Hula and Japan Bowls, after his senior season.

Broshuis and sophomore Travis Wendte (Moore, Okla.) also were named to the 2003 Baseball Academic All-Big 12 Team earlier this week.

TINGLER FEATURED IN BASEBALL AMERICA AS HE NEARS RECORDS

Senior CF Jayce Tingler (Smithville, Mo.) is featured in the current issue of Baseball America, which hit newsstands last week. Chicago Cubs pitching phenom Mark Prior is on the cover.

Tingler, an all-Big 12 candidate, is close to several Tiger career records. His next hit will give him 266, passing Ryan Fry (1995-98) as Mizzou's all-time hit king. In addition, Tingler's 162 career walks are just three away from breaking the record held by Matt Nivens (1994-97). Finally, Tingler needs to score six runs to pass Fry's 223 as Mizzou's career leader in that category.

For a closer look at season and career records involving this year's Tigers, refer to page 6.

TIGER TURNAROUND

It's safe to say (and Baseball America has) that Missouri is one of college baseball's biggest surprises this season. Picked ninth by the league's coaches before the start of the season, the Tigers have played well enough to secure a berth in the Big 12 Tournament with several weekends to spare, and are poised for their first upper-division finish in the league for the first time since 1998.

With three games left to play in the regular season, plus at least two games in the Big 12 Tournament to follow, the Tigers have made the list of the best turnaround jobs in school history (see box at right).

BRICKTOWN WILL BE TIGERTOWN THIS MONTH

With its win on Saturday against No. 13 Texas A&M, coupled with Texas Tech's pair of losses against Nebraska over the weekend, Mizzou has clinched a berth in the 2003 Phillips 66 Big 12 Conference Baseball Tournament. It will mark the Tigers' first visit to Oklahoma City since 2000. This year's tournament will take place at SBC Bricktown Ballpark from May 21-25.

RANK-AND-FILE

Although Mizzou is not ranked in any of the four major baseball polls, the Tigers are still receiving recognition by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers of America. The week of April 21 found the Tigers ranked in all four major polls; this season is the first time the Tigers have had such national recognition since the 1997 preseason.

For a more detailed look at Mizzou's poll position this year, consult the box at the bottom of page 3.

TINGLER DRIVES THE TRAIN

Senior OF Jayce Tingle (Smithville, Mo.) continues to prove himself as one of the Big 12's best leadoff hitters, yet he is also helping the Tigers in a way that would be expected of someone hitting lower in the order. In addition to leading the Tigers with 60 runs scored – which is not surprising from his position in the leadoff spot – he is also second on the team with 44 RBI.

Tingle, who led the prestigious Cape Cod League in on-base percentage last summer, also hit his first career homer, at Southeast Missouri on March 11. He leads the squad and is second in the Big 12 with a .413 batting average, and boasts an impressive .534 on-base percentage – which leads the Big 12 – thanks to his league-leading 42 walks.

KINSLER HAS STELLAR WEEK, SERIES IN OKLAHOMA

Tiger junior SS Ian Kinsler (Tucson, Ariz.) had an impressive weekend to cap a great week, as Kinsler went 10-for-12 (.833) in Stillwater, with four doubles, a triple, two homers, and eight RBI and runs apiece. He hit his first homer of the week during Mizzou's thrilling 11-10, bottom-of-the-ninth comeback win against Southeast Missouri State. He raised his average in Big 12 play to a team-leading .397, which ranks him sixth in the league. Overall, Kinsler is batting .350 with five homers and 37 RBI.

WALK (OFF) LIKE A MAN

Junior LF Ryan Rallo (Chesterfield, Mo.) hit a two-run homer to left field – his second of the game – with two out and two strikes in the bottom of the ninth to lead the Tigers to a thrilling 11-10 win over Southeast Missouri State last Wednesday at Taylor Stadium. It is the first walk-off homer for Mizzou (30-15) since Mick Weiss also deposited a shot into the Tiger bullpen against Iowa State in 2001. Rallo is now tied for the team lead with eight homers; he also has 36 RBI and is hitting .307.

JOHNSON BREAKS OUT THE WOOD

Junior OF Kyle Johnson (Omaha, Neb.) hit his fourth homer of the season on April 29 at T.R. Hughes Ballpark, yet what was notable about the shot was not simply that he had hit Mizzou's last two homers at the time. The blast was hit with a wooden bat – just the second in the four-year history of the Wood-Bat Classic. Junior OF/DH Lee Laskowski (Clayton, Mo.) hit the first as a freshman in 2001.

For a more detailed look at MU's home runs this year, refer to the list on page 11.

HOW SWEEP IT IS

The Tigers recently completed a 13-game winning streak, which is the team's longest since the 1988 Mizzou squad also won 13 in a row. Included in that string are sweeps of Big 12 rivals Kansas, Kansas State and Texas Tech (two games). Some notes:

- ♦ It marks the first time in the Big 12 era (1997-present) that Mizzou has swept three conference opponents in the same season, let alone consecutively;
- ♦ The nine straight league wins (with the opening game of the Nebraska series capping the streak) are the most since the 1996 Big Eight regular-season champions won nine league games in a row;
- ♦ Just as that 1996 squad went from worst-to-first from the 1995 season to win the final Big Eight regular season title, this year's squad is trying to flip-flop its ninth-place standing (out of 10 Big 12 teams) from last year.

BIG 12 COACHES PICK MIZZOU NINTH

Defending NCAA champion Texas was the overwhelming favorite to capture the 2003 Big 12 baseball title in a preseason vote by the conference's 10 head diamond coaches, while Missouri was picked to finish ninth.

The Longhorns received nine of the 10 first place votes (coaches were not allowed to vote for their own teams) while Oklahoma captured the other top spot prediction. The Sooners nailed down third place among the prognosticators with 61 total points behind Baylor with 62. Texas registered a "perfect" score of 81 points among the baseball mentors.

The predicted 2003 order was not greatly different from 2002's final standings when the Longhorns notched first, NU and Tech tied for second, Oklahoma finished fourth, Baylor, Kansas State and Oklahoma State tied for fifth, and Texas A&M was eighth, and Kansas 10th. The Tigers, who finished ninth last year with a 24-29 record overall, were 9-16 in the league.

CONSISTENT PRODUCTION

Of the seven hitters in the Tiger lineup averaging the required 2.5 plate appearances a game to qualify for NCAA statistics, five of them – Jayce Tingler (Smithville, Mo.), Ian Kinsler (Tucson, Ariz.), Zane Taylor (Kirksville, Mo.), and Ryan Rallo (Chesterfield, Mo.) – are hitting above .300 this season. The other two, Cody Ehlers (Stillwater, Okla.) and Jeremy Hernandez (Aptos, Calif.), are batting .292 and .291, respectively. Ehlers has recovered from an extremely slow start to the season – he was hitting just .189 heading into the Big 12 home opener against Kansas on March 21 – and is hitting .351 (third on the team) in Big 12 games.

FLANDERS IS MOST VALUABLE

Another reason for the success of the Tigers has been the production of junior C Brad Flanders (Smithville, Mo.), who was a teammate of Tingler's at Smithville High School north of Kansas City.

Originally signed by Mizzou to help manage a young pitching staff, Flanders has also provided plenty of pop in his bat. He currently is second on the team with his .354 batting average, and four weeks ago hit homers against SMS and Baylor to give him a team-high-tying six this year. In addition, his guidance behind the plate is one of many reasons Mizzou's team ERA has dropped to 4.96 from 7.09 a year ago.

Flanders was named the Most Valuable Player of the ULM Holiday Inn/Citgo Classic the weekend of Feb. 22-23. Flanders batted .615 (8-for-13) in Mizzou's three games with a pair of homers, four doubles, five RBI and five runs scored.

NUMBER 1 IN YOUR SCORECARD...

While it's obvious that this year's team is not the same as last year's, it is still literally true. A total of 19 players are seeing their first game action as Tigers: nine are true freshmen, three are redshirt freshmen, and seven are transfers from two- or four-year colleges.

Of those 19, four (Flanders, Kinsler, Taylor and Hernandez) are position starters, with another five (Garrett, Roberson, Williams, Johnson and Boone) seeing significant platoon or reserve roles. Three (Hill, Admire and Shipman) have cracked the mid-week pitching rotation, with another pair (Stallings, Parker) playing significant relief roles.

TIGERS IN THE NCAA STATS

The Tigers' 8.9 runs per game not only leads the Big 12 – it also ranks Mizzou seventh in the nation through last weekend's games. In addition, MU's team .319 batting average ranks at No. 30 in the country; it is the third-best mark in the league.

Individually, senior Jayce Tingler (Smithville, Mo.) is ranked No. 27 in the nation with his .413 batting average. Two other statistical categories that Tingler leads in the Big 12 – walks and on-base percentage – are not tracked by the NCAA until the season is completed.

MIZZOU SCORES RECORD-BREAKING TOTAL VS. BAYLOR

Before a regional television audience on FOX Sports Net, Mizzou broke out the bats at Baylor Ballpark and beat the top-20 Bears on April 19, 23-18, to snap a season-long four-game losing streak.

The 23 runs were the most by a Missouri ballclub against a Big 12 Conference opponent. In addition, it marked the most runs in a conference game since 1996, when Mizzou beat Oklahoma State, 24-23, in the final season of the Big Eight.

The school record for runs against a conference opponent is 27, set by the 1956 club against Big Seven foe Nebraska.

POWER SURGE

Mizzou went through a six-game homerless stretch in late March, yet the Tigers have slowly started to increase their power numbers of late.

Junior SS Ian Kinsler (Tucson, Ariz.)

hit his second solo shot of the season last Tuesday vs. SMS, and junior C Brad Flanders (Smithville, Mo.) joined junior OF Ryan Rallo (Chesterfield, Mo.) and junior 1B Cody Ehlers (Stillwater, Okla.) for the team lead with his fifth homer later in that same game. All three players then homered in the Baylor series, along with junior OF/DH Kyle Johnson (Omaha, Neb.), who bashed his second grand slam of the season in the first inning of MU's 23-18 Saturday win. Johnson has since hit two other homers in the last week and a half, and Rallo hit a pair – including a walk-off homer – on Wednesday vs. Southeast Missouri State. Kinsler added two in Sunday's game at Oklahoma State after sandwiching one between Rallo's pair vs. SEMO.

Missouri has 41 homers this season with six games to play, compared to 44 last year.

GARRETT FILLS IN FOR KINSLER

When Ian Kinsler injured his foot in the final inning of the Texas series on March 16, freshman SS Adam Garrett (Sikeston, Mo.) was pressed into duty, and filled Kinsler's shoes quite well.

In the nine games he was in the starting lineup – Kinsler returned to active duty at short on April 4 against Texas Tech – Garrett batted a team-leading .621 (18-for-29). He also boasted a Tiger-best .714 on-base percentage over that stretch. For the season, Garrett is batting .457 with a double and 10 RBI.

TIGERS 36TH TO 1,800 WINS

With its 11-4 win against Northern Iowa on Feb. 23, Missouri became the 36th program in NCAA history to amass 1,800 wins. Mizzou's record through 106-plus seasons of baseball is 1,838-1,185-19 (.607).

TAYLOR BIG 12 PLAYER OF WEEK

Freshman 3B Zane Taylor (Kirksville, Mo.) was named the Phillips 66 Big 12 Conference Baseball Player of the Week in voting by a select panel of media covering Big 12 baseball for games played from Mar. 25-31.

Taylor is the first Tiger to be so honored since Mick Weiss and Lee Laskowski were tabbed in back-to-back weeks in mid-April of last season. For the season, Taylor is batting .312 with a homer and 34 RBI.
