

MISSOURI

2024-25 WOMEN'S BASKETBALL POSTGAMEGAME NOTES

  @MIZZOUWBB

 /MIZZOUWBB

 WWW.MUTIGERS.COM

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

- The game marked No. 1,500 in the history of Missouri women's basketball
- Angelique Ngalakulondi reached double figures scoring for the first time in her Mizzou career, logging 14 points on 6-of-9 shooting
- Ngalakulondi added six rebounds, a season high
- Abbey Schreake tied a career-high with five three-pointers made, reached previously on Feb. 22, 2024 at Florida
- The contest marks the fifth time in Schreake's career that she has surpassed 15 points in a single game
- Ashton Judd blocked a pair of shots, matching her career-best which was set against Vanderbilt on Feb. 2, 2023
- Tionna Herron recorded her first career points as a Tiger in her Missouri debut following a bucket in the second quarter
- Mizzou's five blocks was its most in a game this season
- Mizzou shot 7-of-15 from long range, good for its best percentage (46.7) in a game this season