LEADING OFF...

Mizzou will conclude its five-game homestand on Wednesday as Southeast Missouri State visits Taylor Stadium at 6 p.m. The Tigers, who enter the game 16-14 on the year, will be looking to snap a five-game losing streak. SEMO is 12-18 on the season after falling to Southern Illinois, 8-5, on Tuesday night.

The game can be heard on KTGR 1580-AM in Columbia and KTGR.com. Live video will also be available through Mizzou All-Access on mutigers.com.

Two weeks ago in Cape Girardeau, Mo., the Redhawks defeated Missouri 3-2 on a walk-off home run by Daniel Schuh. The two teams split the series last season and the Tigers lead the all-time series 20-8 heading into Wednesday's contest.

This weekend, Missouri travels to Norman, Okla. to face Oklahoma in a three-game series opening at 7 p.m. on Friday.

PROJECTED PITCHING MATCHUP (Subject to change)[illegible]

2006 MIZZOU BASEBALL

QUICK HITS

- Sophomore Evan Frey's .407 batting average is third best in the Big 12 Conference. He has a four-game hitting streak in tact heading into Wednesday.
- Senior Zane Taylor is just one hit away from 200 career hits in his four years at Missouri. He is second on the team with a .348 batting average this season.
- Sophomore Jacob Priday has a seven-game hitting streak in tact heading into Wednesday, while sophomore Evan Frey carries a four-game streak into the game.
- Mizzou's team ERA of 3.40 is third-best in the Big 12 Conference.
- Freshman David Cales' ERA of 1.76 ranks third in the Big 12 Conference. Opponents are hitting just .172 against Cales, which is second best in the Big 12. He is also eighth in the conference with 18 strikeouts in Big 12 play.
- Senior Taylor Parker has recorded four saves in Big 12 play, which is tied for the lead in the conference. His five saves overall this year already places him in a tie for 11th in the Mizzou record books for saves in a season.
- Sophomore Jacob Priday's recorded hits 100th hit with Mizzou last Friday against Nebraska.
- With his 17 appearances this season, senior Taylor Parker has pitched in 91 games as a Tiger, which places him second in the Mizzou record books. Scott Black holds the record with 108 appearances on the mound.
- Junior Max Scherzer, who set a school record with 131 strikeouts last season, needs 10 strikeouts to reach the 200 career Ks.
- Junior Nathan Culp pitched his first shutout of his career in a 3-0 win over Kansas on March 31. It was the first complete game by a Mizzou pitcher since Max Scherzer went the distance against Nebraska last May in Lincoln.

- With its sweep over Texas A&M, Mizzou has swept its Big 12 opening series in each of the past two seasons.
- MU Head Coach Tim Jamieson is 20 wins away from his 400th career-win, with a record of 380-273-2. The 380 wins are the third most in Missouri history.

MIZZOU'S PROJECTED STARTING PITCHER

John Thies (So. LHP): 1-0, 4.35 ERA, 10.1 IP, 13 K

Sophomore John Thies is slated to make his first career start at Mizzou on Wednesday. Thies has pitched in seven games out of the bullpen for the Tigers this season. He is 1-0 on the year, as he recorded the win against Kennesaw State on Feb. 11 with 2.0 innings pitched in relief. He was on the mound for 3.2 innings in the first meeting with Southeast Missouri State, his longest outing of the season. He struck out a season-high five batters against SEMO, allowing just one run on two hits.

SCOUTING THE REDHAWKS

Southeast Missouri State fell to Southern Illinois on Tuesday night to drop to 12-18 on the season. The Redhawks are coming off a weekend series with Jacksonville State, in which they dropped two of three games.

Two weeks ago, Southeast defeated Missouri 3-2 to start a four-game winning streak, which included a three-game sweep over Murray State.

On the season, SEMO has a team batting average of .238 and the Redhawks pitching staff has an ERA of 5.21.

Mark Hogan is in his 12th season at Southeast Missouri State, compiling a record of 344-283.

MU-SEMO SERIES HISTORY

Missouri has won 20 of the 28 games played between the Tigers and Redhawks. Two weeks ago, SEMO defeated Mizzou 3-2 on a walk-off home run in the bottom of the ninth.

Last season, the two teams split the season series, each winning on its home field. Prior to last year, MU had won the four previous meetings.

LAST MEETING VS. SEMO

For the second-consecutive season, Missouri dropped a game at Southeast Missouri State on a walk-off home run. Last year it was Ernie Bracamonte's homer in the 10th inning that gave SEMO the win. On March 29, Daniel Schuh connected for a one-out home run in the bottom of the ninth inning to give the Redhawks the 3-2 victory.

The loss was the first road loss of the season for the Tigers, who entered the game 7-0 on the road.

Mizzou was kept scoreless for the first six innings, before scoring a pair of runs in the top of the seventh. SEMO led 1-0 after six when senior Derek Chambers led off the seventh with a double and freshman David Cales followed with a walk. Two batters later, junior Gary Arndt drove in the Tigers' their first run, as Chambers scored on a single by Arndt.

Later in the seventh, with the bases loaded and two outs, senior Zane Taylor drew a walk, allowing Cales to score the go-ahead run.

Southeast Missouri State tied the game with a run in the eighth inning, as Phillip Riley singled to drive in Omar Padilla, who had walked to open the inning. Schuh then gave the Redhawks the win with his first home run of the season in the ninth.

The first hit for SEMO did not come until the bottom of the fifth inning, as Riley led off with a double. With two outs in the inning, the Redhawks' Robby Moore singled to drive in Riley with the game's first run. Prior to the fifth inning, Mizzou pitchers had faced just one over the minimum, as a walk in the second inning was the Redhawks' only baserunner through the first four innings.

Sophomore John Thies struck out five batters, the most for him as a Tiger, in 3.2 innings on the mound. He allowed just one run on two hits.

ON TAP

This weekend, MU will travel to Norman, Okla. for a Big 12 series against Oklahoma. The three-game set will get underway at 7 p.m. on Friday and continue with games at 3 p.m. on Saturday and 1 p.m. on Sunday.

Saturday's game will be broadcast on FSN.

Following the trip to Norman, the Tigers will take on Saint Louis next Wednesday in the annual "Wood Bat Classic" in O'Fallon, Mo. at 6:30.

Mizzou will return to Taylor Stadium on April 21-22 for a three-game series with Oklahoma State.

LAST TIME OUT

Missouri was swept at home for the first time since the 2002 season as Nebraska took three wins over the Tigers last weekend.

In Friday's series opener, Mizzou jumped out to a 3-0 lead after the first three innings, but the Cornhuskers scored the next six runs to defeat the Tigers, 6-3. Junior Hunter Mense had a double and a triple for MU as he drove in two of the Tigers' three runs and scored the other.

The Husker took game two of the series by scoring three runs in the top of the 13th inning to take a 5-2 win. MU had scored a run in the bottom of the eighth to tie the game at two. Neither team would score again until the 13th inning. It was the longest game of the season for MU and the Tigers are now 1-1 in extra inning games this year.

Missouri had a 5-1 lead in Sunday's series finale, before the Huskers scored the next 11 runs, including an eight-run sixth inning in which all eight runs came with two outs, on their way to the 13-7 win.

MIZZOU IN THE POLLS

Mizzou received its highest ever preseason ranking, when Baseball America picked the Tigers No. 10 in its poll. It marked only the second time MU had appeared in the preseason poll and the first since it was No. 19 in 1983. Missouri was No. 21 in the final Baseball America poll last year.

See page 2 for a complete listing of the current polls.

CULP SHUTS DOWN JAYHAWKS

Missouri junior lefty Nathan Culp was named the Big 12 Conference Co-Pitcher of the Week on April 4 after he pitched a complete-game three-hit shutout against Kansas the previous Friday.

Culp faced the minimum through 7.2 innings, as the only two baserunners to reach up to that point were erased on double plays.

He struck out five and walked just one, picking up his team-leading sixth win of the season, which is second most in the Big 12.

Culp did record a seven-inning shutout over North Dakota State in 2005 in a game that was called after seven innings due to a run rule in effect.

This year, Culp has walked just five batters in 61.0 innings pitched and has 38 strikeouts. His next win will be the 20th of his career, as he currently stands 19-9 as a Tiger.

CHASING .400

Sophomore Evan Frey leads the Tigers with a .407 batting average, which is third best in the Big 12 Conference. He has had a hit in all but three games in which he has played this season.

He had an 11-game hitting streak snapped, as he went 0-for-2 against SEMO on March 29. During the streak, Frey hit .463, drove in nine runs, had two triples and a double.

He had five multi-hit games during the streak, including four games in which he has three hits.

The 11-game hitting streak is a career best for Frey and ties the longest streak by a Tigers this season. He currently has a four-game streak in tact.

TGI-PRIDAY

Sophomore Jacob Priday leads the Tigers with three home runs this year after a team-best nine homers last season. He carries a seven-game hitting streak into Wednesday's game, the longest active streak for MU.

On Friday, Feb. 24, sophomore Jacob Priday turned in a 5-for-6 performance to help lead Mizzou to a 14-5 win over then-No. 1 Florida. It was Priday's second career five-hit game.

Ironically, his second career five-hit game came nearly a year to the day after his first. He was 5-for-6 against Navy on Feb. 25, 2005, driving in four runs and scoring four times.

On Feb. 24, 2006, Priday was again 5-for-6, driving in three runs and scoring twice.

For the weekend at the Pepsi Baseball Classic, Priday was 7-for-12 (.583), with three doubles and four RBI, earning him a spot on the All-Tournament Team.

On March 14, Priday was named the Big 12 Conference Player of the Week, after he hit .533 with two home runs and 11 RBI in the four games the previous week.

Priday was 3-for-4 and drove in a career-high six runs in the Tigers 22-2 win over Purdue in the second game of the three-game series.

TAYLOR MADE HITTING

Senior Zane Taylor has had a hit in all but five games for the Tigers this season and is second on the squad with .348 batting average.

He had an 11-game hitting streak snapped with an 0-for-3 outing in the series finale against Wisconsin-Milwaukee on March 5. Taylor's career-long hitting streak was a 13-game streak coming in 2004.

After opening the year with a 0-3 outing in the season opener against East Tennessee State, Taylor had a hit in each of the next 11 games, including eight games in which he has had multiple hits.

MAX TRAX

Injuries have forced All-American Max Scherzer to miss three starts this season, including starts in each of the first two weekend's of Big 12 action.

In his first appearance of the year under the Taylor Stadium lights, he struck out nine batters in five innings pitched and recorded the win, his third in as many starts.

Scherzer was named the Big 12 Conference Pitcher of the Week on Feb. 28 after leading the Tigers to a victory over No. 1 Florida on Feb. 24.

In the win against Florida, he struck out eight in seven innings, allowing just one run on only three hits to record his second victory in a many starts.

Scherzer, who was the Big 12 Conference Pitcher of the Year and a second team All-American last year has already begun to receive honors this year.

Scherzer was named a first team preseason All-American by all major collegiate baseball publications.

He has also been named to the watch lists for the Roger Clemens Award, which is awarded to the nation's top pitcher. Scherzer was one of 10 semifinalists for the Clemens Awards in 2005.

Scherzer is also on the Wallace Award watch list, which recognizes the nation's top player and is another award he was a semifinalists for last season.

Last season, he led the Big 12 with 131 strikeouts and a 1.82 ERA. The 131 strikeouts is a new school record, passing John Dettmer's 127 K's in 1991.

He spent last summer with Team USA, where he had pitches clocked as high as 99 miles per hour.

MENSE NAMED TO PRESEASON ALL-AMERICAN TEAMS

Junior Hunter Mense was named to preseason All-American teams by Baseball America and the National Collegiate Baseball Writers' Association.

He also was named to the watch list for the Wallace Award, which is given to the nation's top college baseball player.

Last year, he was a second team All-Big 12 Conference selection after hitting .327 on the year, which was second best on the team.

Mense was also second on the squad in runs scored (62) and stolen bases (10) and was third in hits (67) and slugging percentage (.473).

TAKING DOWN NO. 1

Mizzou defeated No. 1 Florida on Feb. 24 in Gainesville, Fla. 14-5, knocking off a No. 1 team for the first time since it defeated then-No. 1 Texas, 8-0 on May 1, 2004.

The win over Texas was actually the second-straight victory over UT for the Tigers, who recorded a 4-1 win the night before.

In the win over the Gators, Missouri pounded out a season-high 22 hits, the most since it recorded 26 hits against Navy (2/25/05).

Sophomore Jacob Priday was 5-for-6 against UF, and the top two in the Tiger lineup (Trevor Helms and Zane Taylor) were a combined 8-for-11. Helms 4-for-6 and Taylor finished 4-for-5.

Junior Max Scherzer kept Florida in check all night, striking out eight in seven innings pitched. He allowed one run on just three hits to the top-ranked Gators.

Mizzou led 14-1 before UF scored two runs in the bottom of the eighth and added a pair of runs in the ninth inning.

MIZZOU WELL REPRESENTED ON TEAM USA

Mizzou Head Coach Tim Jamieson was selected to serve as an assistant coach on the USA Baseball National Team last summer and was joined by two of his Tiger players.

Juniors Max Scherzer and Hunter Mense were also selected to the squad, marking the first Team USA selections for MU since 1991.

The National Team went 16-4 over the summer, playing games in Japan and Taiwan, along with hosting teams from around the world stateside.

Scherzer made four appearances, including two starts, and was 2-1 for Team USA with a 2.70 ERA and 24 strikeouts in 20 innings of work.

Mense made the team after a very impressive showing at the trials. He played in 17 games for Team USA, hitting .259 with a home run, two triples and two doubles.

TIGERS SELECTED THIRD IN THE BIG 12 PRESEASON POLL

The Big 12 Conference Baseball Coaches selected Missouri to finish third in the conference this season, according to the preseason poll. The Tigers received 66 points, including one first-place vote.

Texas (56-16 in 2005), the defending National Champion, has been selected to win the conference crown, garnering 79 total points in voting with nine points for first place, eight for second, seven for third, etc. Coaches were not allowed to vote for their own teams.

KINSLER DEBUTS RANGERS

Former Missouri Tiger Ian Kinsler made his first major league appearance on opening day this season with the Texas Rangers.

Kinsler, who played at Missouri in 2003 and hit .325 for the Tigers, has been named the starting second baseman for the Rangers.

His first career major league hit came off Curt Schilling of the Boston Red Sox on opening day.

He homered last Thursday against Detroit and as of Tuesday, was hitting .450.

Kinsler was a 17th round draft pick by Texas in 2003.

TIGERS ARE THREE FOR THREE

Mizzou is one of just two teams in the Big 12 Conference that has advanced to the NCAA Tournament in each of the last three seasons.

Texas, the defending National Champions, is the only other team out of the powerful Big 12 Conference to reach the postseason in the last three years.

HE STOOD TALL

He Stood Tall is the story of former Mizzou coach John "Hi" Simmons as told by the men who knew him best.

Dozens of players from the 1930s to the 1960s share their stories about their former coach in the recently released book.

There are also chapters dedicated to Simmons' theories about the game, his colorful vocabulary and his enduring legacy at the University.

To order the book, visit mutigers.com or call 913-219-0338. The book can also be purchased at the Tiger Team Store.

All proceeds from the book sales will go the Tiger Bullpen, benefiting Mizzou Baseball.

HEAD COACH TIM JAMIESON NEW ORLEANS, '81 12TH YEAR AT MIZZOU (380-276-2)

The third-winningest coach in Mizzou Baseball history, Tim Jamieson is in his 12th season as the head coach of the Tigers, making him the second-longest tenured coach in the Big 12 Conference. Jamieson's 380 career wins rank behind only legendary MU coaches John "Hi" Simmons and Gene McArtor, both of whom have their numbers retired.

A native of Columbia, Jamieson grew up attending Tiger games. After his playing days at the University of New Orleans, he spent six seasons on the UNO coaching staff before returning to Columbia in 1988. He spent six seasons as an assistant coach under McArtor before becoming the head coach following the 1994 season.

During his time leading the Tigers, Missouri has been a force to reckon with in the Big 12 Conference and nationally; recording at least 30 wins in nine of the last 10 seasons. Missouri has advanced to the NCAA Tournament four times under Jamieson, including each of the last three seasons. MU is one of just two Big 12 Conference teams that have advanced to the last three NCAA Tournaments, with Texas being the other.

Under Jamieson, Missouri has had five student-athletes named All-America and eight have earned Freshman All-American accolades. Jamieson has seen 32 of his players selected in the Major League Baseball Draft during his 11 years leading MU.

His teams have also succeeded in the classroom, as eight Academic All-Americans have played under Jamieson and 51 Tigers have earned Academic All-Conference recognition since 1995.

Jamieson was chosen to serve as an assistant coach for Team USA last summer, helping the National Team to a 16-4 record as they traveled to Japan and Taiwan, in addition to playing games in the states. He was accompanied by Missouri players Max Scherzer and Hunter Mense on Team USA, the first National Team representatives for MU since 1991.

Jamieson took over the reins of the Tigers when McArtor, whose 733 wins is the most in school history, retired from coaching after the 1994 season.

In just his second season at the helm, Jamieson led the Tigers to 1996 Big Eight Conference crown, as Missouri went 39-19 and 20-8 in the Big Eight after being projected to finish seventh in the conference by most publications. Jamieson was named the Big Eight Conference Coach of the Year that season.

That year the Tigers climbed as high as 17th in the national polls, marking the first time they had been ranked since 1991, and advanced to the NCAA Midwest Regional. In winning the regular season race, Mizzou became the first school other than Oklahoma State and Oklahoma to claim the conference title in 16 years.

Jamieson would lead the Tigers to 30-win seasons in each of the next five seasons as they would make a pair of trips to the Big 12 Tournament semifinals during that stretch.

In 2003, the Tigers finished fourth in the Big 12 Conference and received a bid to the NCAA Regionals, the first of three-consecutive trips to the postseason. Mizzou compiled a record of 36-22 on the year and at one point were ranked as high as No. 19 in the nation by Collegiate Baseball and finished the year ranked 12th in the nation in scoring.

Another 30-win season and a second-straight trip to the NCAA Regionals highlighted the 2004 campaign, as the Tigers finished with 38 wins, the most since the 1996 season. Missouri claimed series victories over Texas, Nebraska and Oklahoma State and reached the championship game of the Big 12 Tournament in Arlington, Texas.

Missouri surpassed that win total last season, by reaching the 40-win mark for the first time under Jamieson and for the first time since 1991. MU finished fourth in the Big 12 regular season for the second time in three years and advanced to the semifinals of the conference tournament before advancing to their third-consecutive NCAA Tournament. It was the 17th trip to the NCAA Tournament in school history and the fourth under Jamieson. The Tigers finished ranked No. 21 in the nation by Baseball America.

Success was also part of Jamieson's time away from MU. He was a member of three NCAA Tournament clubs and was selected to the 1980 All-NCAA South Regional Team as a standout catcher at New Orleans from 1978-81. He was named the team's most valuable player after his senior season, as he hit .300 with eight home runs and 68 RBI, in leading the Privateers to the NCAA Midwest Regional.

After his playing days, he spent six seasons as an assistant coach at UNO where he was instrumental in guiding the Privateers to four NCAA Regional appearances (1984, 1985, 1987, 1988) and a spot in the 1984 College World Series in Omaha, Neb.

MU roots run deep in his family as his father, Dick Jamieson was a former offensive coordinator under football coach Al Onofrio. The elder Jamieson also spent several years in the National Football League. His brother, Jeff, is a graduate of Missouri's School of Law and his sister, Judi, also attended MU.

Jamieson received his bachelor's and master's degrees in business administration from New Orleans.

A graduate of Rock Bridge High (Columbia), Jamieson is married to the former Cindy Thornton (RBHS, '77) of Columbia, Mo. They are the parents of two sons, Mickey (8) and Ty (7).
