#ZOUNOTES - STATS YOU NEED TO KNOW

- ▼ ZERO: Last Saturday vs. UT Martin, Mizzou committed zero turnovers. That marks first time since 2014 that Mizzou went turnover-free in a season opener. That year, Mizzou had zero turnovers in a 38-18 win over South Dakota State en-route to winning its second consecutive SEC East title.
- ▼ FOUR: Mizzou committed just four penalties in the season-opener last week vs. UT Martin. That is the fewest penalties (4-for-45) for Mizzou in a season opener since 2013, when Mizzou was whistled twice against Murray State for just 20 yards in a 58-14 home win.
- ▼ FOUR (again): Four different Tigers recorded their first career starts: DE Nate Anderson, DE Chris Turner, DT Walter Palmore and S Khalil Oliver (he also made eight starts in his career at Oregon).
- ▼ 14: 14 true freshman made their debuts for Mizzou: RB Tyler Badie, LB Nick Bolton, DB Tyrone Collins, OL Xavier Delgado, WR Dominic Gicinto, DL Jatorian Hansford, DL Trajan Jeffcoat, WR Jalen Knox, LB Gerald Nathan Jr., TE Daniel Parker Jr., OL Mike Ruth, WR Kam Scott, WR Khari Thompson, and DB Jarvis Ware.
- ▼ 8,984: Career passing yards for senior QB Drew Lock. Last Saturday vs. UT Martin, Lock threw for 289 yards and four scores, moving past Mizzou legend Brad Smith for second on Mizzou's all-time career passing yardage list. Lock has a ways to go (3,531 yards) to catch all-time Mizzou passing leader Chase Daniel, who had 12,515 yards from 2005-08. Lock moved his career passing TD mark to 75 last week, also second to Daniel, who had 101.

STORY LINES

- ▼ THE MATCHUP: Mizzou Football, fresh off of a dominant 51-14 season-opening win over UT Martin in week one, returns home Saturday (Sept. 8) for a nonconference tilt against Wyoming. The game is set to air on ESPNU with Dave Lamont, Anthony Becht and Rocky Boiman on the call. Mizzou is looking to move to 2-0 on the year, which would mark the first time since 2015 that the Tigers would have won their first two games of a season.
- ▼ ALL-TIME SERIES WITH THE COWBOYS: Saturday will mark the first all-time meeting between Mizzou and Wyoming. The last time Mizzou played a Mountain West Conference foe was in 2010 when the Tigers rallied to defeat San Diego State, 27-24, on what became to be known as the 'Moe Miracle' in the final minute of play. Wideout T.J. Moe took a short four-yard pass deep in his own territory and made a couple of men miss to break a 68-yard gain down the home sideline to put Mizzou on top, 27-24, with 51 seconds left to earn the win.
- ▼ STILL ROLLING: After Mizzou's season-opening win over UT Martin, Barry Odom's team has now won its last seven regular season games and is 7-1 in its last eight games overall. In the last seven regular season games (excluding the bowl game), Mizzou is averaging 51.3 points per game. Coach Odom is one of just eight FBS head coaches to win at least seven of their last eight regular season games. Below is the list:
 - Lincoln Riley (Oklahoma): 8-0
 - Scott Frost (UCF/Nebraska): 8-0 (all eight wins at UCF)
 - Ed Orgeron (LSU): 7-1
 - Dabo Swinney (Clemson): 7-1
 - Kirby Smart (Georgia): 7-1
 - Urban Meyer (Ohio State): 7-1
 - Barry Odom (Mizzou): 7-1
- ▼ Mizzou has scored 45 points or more in all seven of those wins.
- ▼ LOCKED IN OVER LAST EIGHT: As mentioned above, Mizzou is riding high as of late, winning seven of its last eight games. In those eight games, there has been one common theme: the elite-level play of senior QB Drew Lock. In that span, Lock's numbers have looked as impressive as any other quarterback in college football. Below is a snapshot:
 - Record: 7-1
 - 154-for-244 (63.1%)
 - 2,530 yards (316.3 per game)
 - 31 touchdowns
 - 6 interceptions
 - 187.22 rating
- ▼ In last Saturday's win over UT Martin, Lock was tremendous and put up video game numbers despite playing in just one series in the second half. Lock completed 19-of-25 passes for 289 yards and four TDs. Lock led eight drives last Saturday and Mizzou scored on seven of those (six TDs). The only drive that he led that Mizzou did not score on began with 1:31 remaining in the first half as the Tigers elected to let time expire.
- ▼ LOCK MOVES INTO SECOND IN MIZZOU HISTORY: After passing for 289 yards on 19 completions last week (15.2 ypc.), senior QB Drew Lock moved his career passing yard total to 8,984, which is second in Mizzou history, passing Mizzou legend Brad Smith in the process. Lock threw for 4 touchdowns in the game, marking the ninth time in his career he has thrown for 4+ touchdowns in the same game.
- ▼ Lock registered his 24th career game with over 200 yards passing against UT Martin. Lock now only trails Chase Daniel in the category, who has the most such games in Mizzou history, with 38.
- ▼ Lock's passer rating on the day was a stellar 225.9, which is the sixth-best mark for a single game in Mizzou history.
- ▼ DISCIPLINE. DISCIPLINE. DISCIPLINE: While it was easy to come away impressed with Mizzou's game following last Saturday's win, most likely overlooked was a key part of the game that Mizzou was very impressive in: discipline. Mizzou committed just four penalties (4-for-45) in the win, the fewest penalties in a season opener since 2013. That year, Mizzou was whistled twice against Murray State for just 20 yards in a 58-14 home win. Staying on the topic of discipline, Mizzou also did a great job protecting the ball Saturday, finishing without a turnover in a season opener for the first time since 2014. Those two areas - penalties and ball security - have been points of emphasis for head coach Barry Odom and his veteran team has seemed to get the message early in 2018.
- ▼ EMAN WITH CAREER DAY: Senior WR Emanuel Hall went for 171 receiving yards against the Skyhawks, which set a new career high. Hall's previous high came against Georgia a season ago (10/14/17) when he had 141 yards.
- ▼ Hall registered his seventh career 100+ yard game against UT Martin. Hall had five such games a season ago, and last accomplished the feat against Arkansas (11/24/17), when he went for 111 yards on just two catches.
- ▼ Hall also had two touchdowns against the Skyhawks. It was the fourth time in his career that Hall grabbed multiple receiving touchdowns in the same game.
- ▼ Over his last nine games (he missed the majority of the Texas Bowl with a tweaked hamstring), Hall has arguably been the nation's most dynamic deep threat, catching 32 passes for a whopping 884 yards. That is good for an incredible 27.6 yards per catch. Nine of his last 10 TD grabs have been from 31 yards or longer with a 46.1 average.

STORY LINES

➤ FRESHMEN WRs MAKE NOISE: While Mizzou returns a handful of veteran wideouts this season, the team's true freshmen at the position showed plenty of promise in the last week's opener vs. UT Martin. The trio of Kam Scott, Dominic Gicinto and Jalen Knox combined for 117 yards on five catches (23.4 avg.) and a score. Scott scored on a 70-yard strike after he high-pointed a ball and raced to the end zone during Mizzou's first possession of the second half. He became the first Mizzou player to score a TD on his first collegiate catch since legendary TE Chase Coffman did so in 2005.

➤ In all, Mizzou had 10 different players catch a pass during week one as Lock and the Mizzou QBs spread the ball around the field as the Tigers once again look to be loaded at the WR spot.

➤ CONSISTENCY AT QB: With senior QB Drew Lock starting the 2018 season opener, he's now started the last three season openers. That continues a long string of consistency at the QB position for Mizzou. In fact, dating back to 2002, Mizzou has had just six different QBs start week one over the last 17 seasons. Since the start of this decade, Mizzou has had just four week one starters - the fewest in the nation during that span. Below is a look at what has become one of the nation's most consistent and high-performing QB streaks:

Mizzou Week One Starter

2002: Brad Smith

2003: Brad Smith

2004: Brad Smith

2005: Brad Smith

2006: Chase Daniel

2007: Chase Daniel

2008: Chase Daniel

2009: Blaine Gabbert

2010: Blaine Gabbert

2011: James Franklin

2012: James Franklin

2013: James Franklin

2014: Maty Mauk

2015: Maty Mauk

2016: Drew Lock

2017: Drew Lock

2018: Drew Lock

➤ Those six QBs have helped Mizzou remain one of college football's most consistent programs since 2002. Mizzou is 126-80 in that span (.612 winning percentage) and four of those six QBs - Daniel, Lock, Smith, Franklin - rank first through fourth on Mizzou's all-time career passing lists, making the last 17 seasons arguably the greatest stretch of QBs in program history. Mizzou has averaged nearly eight wins per season in that span.

➤ TALENTED YOUTH: Mizzou Football, despite returning 49 lettermen and 17 starters from last year's roster, is still one of the nation's youngest teams. In fact, with 63.7 percent of its roster as freshmen of sophomores, Mizzou is the nation's 26th-youngest team and the second-youngest in the SEC, trailing only Georgia (67.4 percent). Below is a breakdown:

➤ TIME OF POSSESSION CHANGE?: After week one, Mizzou appears to have a different mindset on time of possession under first-year offensive coordinator Derek Dooley. Last year, Mizzou ranked 129th nationally (that's second to last), holding the ball for just more than 25 minutes per game. In game one this season, Mizzou possessed the ball for 33:17 and only 24 teams in the nation held the ball longer than that during week one.

➤ LOADED AT LINEBACKER: Mizzou Football returns all three of its starting linebackers from a season ago in seniors Terez Hall (weakside) and Brandon Lee (strongside) and junior Cale Garrett (middle). Mizzou is the only school in the SEC East to bring back all three starting linebackers from a season ago. The trio combined to make 232 tackles last year (26 percent of the team's total). Garrett led Mizzou with 105 stops last year while Hall finished second on the team with 85 and graded as the top Mizzou player all season at any position according to ProFootballFocus.com. Lee totaled 42 stops to rank sixth on the team.

➤ With Garrett and Hall returning, it marks the first time since 2015 that Mizzou has brought back each of its leading tacklers from a year ago. That year, it was Michael Scherer and Kentrell Brothers who ended up leading the nation in tackles by the end of his senior season.

➤ In week one, the trio did not disappoint as Garrett led all Mizzou players with eight stops and a QB hurry while Hall added six tackles and a sack. Lee pitched in a tackle as well.

➤ TBJ RETURNS: Mizzou DT Terry Beckner, Jr., a former No. 1 recruit nationally, turned down a chance to go the NFL last season and returned to Mizzou for his senior year. After suffering a pair of season-ending knee injuries during his first two seasons, Beckner completed a full 13-game slate a year ago and finally was able to look like the No. 1 player that he was tabbed as coming out of high school. Beckner posted very productive numbers for an interior lineman, including career-highs in tackles (38), tackles for loss (11.0), sacks (7.0), quarterback pressures (5), and also made a huge highlight-reel interception on the goal line at Vanderbilt that he returned 49 yards that helped seal Mizzou's bowl-clinching win in November. He had a big three-game stretch versus Idaho, UConn and Florida that helped serve notice he was all the way back physically. He made a season-best six tackles versus Idaho, with two sacks, and followed the next week at UConn with four stops, 2.5 TFLs with one sack and one pass break up. Beckner closed the productive stretch against Florida by making five tackles, including 2.0 TFLs with one sack and one quarterback pressure. Beckner figures to be the next in a long line of Mizzou defensive linemen selected in the NFL Draft next spring. He had one solo stop in the opener and drew double teams nearly all game.

BARRY ODOM

In just his second year as a head coach, University of Missouri's own Barry Odom put together one of the more remarkable seasons in school history, when his 2017 Tigers achieved a seven-win season and earned the program's first bowl game since 2014. Mizzou closed the regular season as one of the nation's hottest teams, thanks to a six-game win streak that culminated in a thrilling road win at Arkansas. That win moved Mizzou to 7-5 marking an amazing in-season turnaround that saw MU rebound from a 1-5 start on the year.

Odom's team earned an invitation to the 2017 Academy Sports + Outdoor Texas Bowl for its effort, and while the end result of the bowl game didn't go Mizzou's way, the appearance certainly represented an important step in the right direction for the program. Coming off a 4-8 season in 2016, Mizzou was picked to finish dead last in the seven-team Southeastern Conference Eastern Division by the pre-season pundits, but the Tigers defied the prognosticators as they ended tied for third at 4-4 in league play – becoming the first SEC team to ever start 0-4 in conference play and finish 4-4.

Odom became the first Mizzou coach to make a bowl game in his second year at MU since Warren Powers did so in each of his first two seasons in 1978 and 1979. The 2017 Texas Bowl marked the seventh post season classic of his coaching or playing career – he's 2-3 as a coach, and went 1-1 as a player for former Coach Larry Smith.

A longtime fixture at Mizzou, Odom, 41, is guiding a program he has been immersed in at every level for some 16 years – including six in an administrative capacity (2003-08), six as a coach (2009-11, 2015-17) and four as a highly-successful student-athlete (1996-99). His two-year mark stands at 12-14 overall – the last time an MU coach had a better 26-game start to his career was in 1978-80 when Warren Powers was 17-9 through the same number of games.

The 2016 season was Odom's first as Mizzou's head coach, and came after he had spent the previous four seasons as a defensive coordinator, including three at Memphis (2012-14) and one at Missouri (2015), where his units were considered among the nation's best.

Highly-respected among his coaching peers for his integrity and for his championship vision, Odom worked through a rebuilding year in 2016 that saw Mizzou win four games. The Tigers closed the season out in strong fashion, with wins in two of their final three games - with both coming against bowl teams in Arkansas and Vanderbilt.

Odom was named the 32nd head football coach in program history in December of 2015, and his undeniable passion for Mizzou, coupled with his strong track record of success at each level of his career, pointed to him being the right man to lead the Tigers into the future in the nation's toughest conference.

In 2015, Odom turned in an outstanding season as first-year defensive coordinator for Mizzou under coach Gary Pinkel (who retired after that season), as his Tigers ranked ninth nationally in total defense, allowing just 302.0 yards per game. Since the NCAA began tracking defensive statistics in 1978, that marked the first time in MU history that Mizzou had produced a top-10 defense. Odom's defense was also ranked seventh nationally in scoring defense (16.2 avg.), seventh in pass defense (169.2 avg.) and second in tackles for loss (8.8 avg.).

Prior to that, Odom became one of the more highly sought-after coordinators in the country due to three stellar years directing Memphis' defense from 2012-14. His 2014 defense was a key component of Memphis' 10-3 season, as his unit finished the regular season ranked fifth nationally in scoring defense (17.1 avg.) and 22nd in total defense (343.3 avg.). That marked an impressive incremental improvement under Odom's watch, as Memphis ranked 117th nationally in total defense the season prior to his arrival. In his first season at Memphis, the defense improved to 50th nationally (383.6 avg.), followed by a jump to 39th in 2013 (370.7 avg.). Memphis earned a share of the 2014 American Athletic Conference title, giving them a conference championship for the first time since 1971.

Odom, a Maysville, Okla., native played at Mizzou and starred as a linebacker from 1996-99. He ended his playing career with 362 tackles, which still ranks as seventh-most in school history. Odom was a captain for his senior year of 1999, and was a key figure on the Missouri teams which reached bowl games in 1997 and 1998, ending a 14-year postseason drought for Tiger fans.

Success followed Odom's career path at each future stop after his playing days. After earning his undergraduate degree in December of 1999, he served as an intern with Mizzou's Tiger Scholarship Fund while he worked on his Master's in Education from the University of Missouri (which he would earn in May of 2004). He returned to his home state of Oklahoma in July of that year to serve as an assistant football coach for his alma mater Ada High School, which finished that season as runners-up for a state title.

Odom was quickly back in his adopted hometown of Columbia, Mo., the next spring, as he took over as head coach at Rock Bridge High School. He quickly built the Bruins into a power, as they went 6-4 in 2001, and won a conference championship. He followed with an 8-4 campaign in 2002 that saw Rock Bridge reach the semifinals of the state championship playoffs.

Running a college program became a focal point next, and Odom began that path by joining the Mizzou football staff, first as an administrative graduate assistant for Pinkel in 2003. He spent the 2004 and 2005 seasons as Pinkel's director of recruiting as the staff assembled a core group which would help lead Mizzou to consecutive Big 12 Conference North Division titles in 2007 and 2008 which consisted of 12-win and 10-win seasons, respectively.

SHOW ME

THE $98M FUTURE OF #TheZOU

▼ The University of Missouri Board of Curators unanimously voted on Aug. 25, 2017, to approve construction of Mizzou Athletics' $98 million south end zone facility at Faurot Field/Memorial Stadium. This project will provide state-of-the-art training facilities for Mizzou Football, create additional premium seating opportunities and game-day enhancements for all Tiger fans to enjoy, and bring new jobs to Columbia.

▼ The Board of Curators' total approved project budget is $98 million; to consist of campus infrastructure funds totaling $800,000, long-term debt financing not to exceed $57 million and private gifts covering the remainder of the project costs.

▼ The Tigers' new football operations area will include team and staff locker rooms, an enhanced sports medicine facility featuring a Hydrotherapy area with recovery pools, Hydroworx and lap pools, a weight room, nutrition oasis and equipment room, as well as team and position meeting rooms, and coaches offices. A grand lobby entrance at field level showcasing Mizzou's proud football tradition will greet visitors, and a recruiting lounge will allow the Tigers' staff to host recruits

- ▼ Since the athletics department received its first pledge toward the new facility last September, the generosity of 42 individuals, coupled with A.D. Jim Sterk's visionary leadership, has generated more than $50 million in pledges over the last 11 months to help this game-changing project come to fruition. Construction of the nearly 200,000-square foot facility, which includes more than 150,000 square feet of enclosed space, began early in 2018 with the demolition of the stadium's south end zone grandstands, and be completed ahead of the 2019 campaign.
- ▼ Memorial Stadium's capacity, will be around 65,000 when the largest capital project in Mizzou Athletics history is complete, according to school officials.
- ▼ Coach Odom: "Missouri is making a bold statement with today's announcement and I am confident that it not only will pay big dividends in recruiting, but it will help improve our game-day atmosphere throughout the stadium," he added. "I can't wait to get the shovels in the ground and get going. I am thankful to lead the Mizzou Football program and represent our University and State, and am pleased we have undertaken a project of this stature.

LUXURY SEATING

- ▼ 16 Suites
- ▼ 750-person field-level club
- ▼ 1,254-seat indoor club
- ▼ General seating area for 1,324 fans
- ▼ A full kitchen will also be constructed in the facility to service the new premium areas, and new video boards will further enhance the Mizzou game-day experience.
- ▼ AD Jim Sterk: "Our goal is to build one of college football's premier facilities for our student-athletes and coaches to utilize on a daily basis, and we are confident that we can achieve that within the project's budget and scope," he added. "When this facility is completed, not only will it be an incredible asset in recruiting, but our expectations are that it will enhance the game-day environment for our fans at Memorial Stadium, too."
