GRAND VIEW OPEN

— NOTABLE FINISHES —

Freshman KORBIN SHEPHERD (Fresh/Soph 133) claimed his second consecutive weight title, dominatng his way through the bracket. Four of his five matches ended in bonus-point wins, including pins in 1:14 and 1:46. He also recorded two technical falls, both of which were 16-0 shutouts.

Redshirt freshman SEAN HARMAN (Open 174) also took home his second weight title of the season in Iowa. Harman's 5-0 day included two decisions where he gave up two or less points. He won his weight class by medial forfeit.

Redshirt sophomore JACK FLYNN (Open 197) opened his 2021-22 campaign with a weight title, taking out the bracket with two bonus-point victories and a shutout. Flynn logged a fall (2:27) and a 13-1 major decision en route to a tightly won, 10-9 final against Grand View's Owen Braungardt .

Also placing were JESSE CASSATT (3rd place, Fresh/Soph 184), STEVEN KOLCHEFF (4th place, Fresh/Soph 285), ERIC LOVELACE (4th place, Open 133), and SETH NITZEL (3rd place, Open 285)

— HARMAN CRACKS TOP-25 FOR SECOND CONSECUTIVE WEEK —

After beginning his season 8-0 in open competition, Sean Harman comes in ranked No. 25 at 174 pounds, according to WrestleStat. Harman, who was ranked No. 24 in WrestleStat's preseason list, sits in the top-25 for consecutive polls for the second time in his career (MR, weeks 7-8, 2021). He finished the 2020-22 season at No. 24.

— KOLCHEFF WINS PINS BATTLE AGAIN —

Kolcheff led the Tigers' contingent in pins for the second week in a row, recording three falls in a combined 3:35. As a team, Missouri recorded 12 pins with freshman JONATHAN WERTZ (2), Shepherd (2), Cassatt (2), JEREMY JAKOWITSCH (1), Flynn (1) and Lovelace (1) also contributing.

— PERFECT TIGERS —

After two open tournaments, Shepherd (9-0), Harman (10-0) both remain undefeaded. Flynn (4-0) also hasn't lost a match, but did not compete in Mizzou's first open of the season.
