Missouri Tigers (44-10, 11-7 Big 12)

No. 5 Seed | Ranked: No. 8/14 | RPI: 10

at the 2010 Big 12 Championship

May 14-16, 2010 | ASA Hall of Fame Stadium | Oklahoma City, Okla.

With the regular season now complete, the Missouri softball team looks towards the postseason, which will begin with the 2010 Big 12 Championship. The three-day, single-elimination tournament begins on Friday, May 14 and runs through Sunday, May 16, with all games played at the ASA Hall of Fame Stadium in Oklahoma City, Okla.

The Tigers enter this season's tournament as the No. 5 seed after posting an 11-7 record in Big 12 play this season. They'll take on No. 4 seed Oklahoma State in first round action on Saturday, May 15, at 2 p.m. CT. Should the Tigers win and advance, they'll play in the semifinals at 7:30 p.m. that same day. The Championship will take place Sunday at Noon and will be televised nationally on Fox Sports Net.

This is the 15th annual Big 12 Softball Championship, making it the longest running championship in Big 12 history. However, the softball championship's run will end at 15 seasons, as this is the last year for the event.

MISSOURI VS. OKLAHOMA STATE

The Tigers come into this opening round matchup hoping to get revenge on the Cowgirls, who swept Missouri in a two-game set in Columbia earlier this season. After overcoming an early 3-0 MU lead for an 8-3 win in game one, Oklahoma State took the sweep with a 1-0 pitcher's duel victory in game two to complete the sweep.

The Cowgirls come into the tournament as the No. 4 seed, after finishing the regular season with a 43-13 overall record and 12-6 in Big 12 play. Oklahoma State came out red-hot to start the season, and reached a ranking as high as No. 7 in the USA Today/NFCA in the midst of their 17-game winning streak, which ran from March 20 through April 20. However, the Cowgirls have sputtered as of late, as they are 4-6 in their last 10 games. Their offense has struggled in those games, averaging just 1.9 runs per game.

They've scored one run or less in eight of the 10 games. The only two times they scored more than one run were in 4-0 and 8-0 wins over Nebraska a few weeks back.

Oklahoma State ranks eighth in the conference in team batting average (.280) but comes in at second in team earned run average (2.04). The two main Cowgirl pitchers are Kat Espinosa, who is 19-5 with a 1.53 ERA and a .198 opponent batting average, and Anna Whiddon, who is 21-7 with a 2.21 ERA and a conference-best six saves. The two have combined for 13 shutouts this season.

Mariah Gerhart is tied for second in the league with 22 stolen bases and is third with 48 runs scored. Julie Ward leads the conference in doubles (20) and is third with 52 runs batted in, while coming in at eighth in slugging percentage (.667). As a team, the Cowgirls lead the Big 12 Conference with a .977 fielding percentage.

MISSOURI AT BIG 12'S

The Tigers are 24-20 all-time in the Big 12 Championship, dating back to the inception of the league in 1996. The Tigers have won the tournament twice - once in 1997 and once in 2009. Here is a breakdown of Mizzou vs. their conference opponents all-time at the Big 12 Championship.

- vs. Baylor - 4-2
- vs. Iowa State - 0-2
- vs. Kansas - 1-2
- vs. Nebraska - 2-4
- vs. Oklahoma - 3-4
- vs. Oklahoma State - 6-1
- vs. Texas - 2-2
- vs. Texas A&M - 3-2
- vs. Texas Tech - 3-1

Last season, Missouri knocked off Oklahoma State, Baylor and Oklahoma en route to their second Big 12

Tournament Championship in program history. They defeated OSU by a 10-0 run-rule final, slipped past Baylor by a 1-0 score and beat Oklahoma in the championship, 5-0. Chelsea Thomas was named MVP of the tournament, while Megan Christopher, Stacy Delaney and Rhea Taylor were all selected to the All-Tournament team..

In 1997, the tournament was formatted as a double-elimination event. The Tigers finished 4-1 in the tournament on their way to the first Big 12 Tournament Championship in school history. Mizzou defeated Baylor in the opening game by run-rule, 10-2. They then beat Oklahoma State by a 6-2 score, before losing to Oklahoma 2-0. The Tigers were able to get revenge, however, as they bounced back to eliminate Oklahoma 6-1 before defeating Oklahoma State 3-1 in the championship. The Tigers had four players make the all-tournament team, including Barb Wright, who was named as the tournament's Most Outstanding Player.

EIGHT NAMED TO ACADEMIC ALL-BIG 12 TEAM

The Big 12 Conference named 61 student-athletes to its 2010 Academic All-Big 12 Softball Team, as announced Wednesday afternoon by the league office. Of those 61, eight were from Missouri, the second-most by any team in the conference. Baylor led all teams with 10 selections.

Mizzou seniors Jana Hainey, Michaele Vock and Gina Schneider, juniors Marla Schweisberger and Abby Vock and sophomores Ashley Fleming, Chelsea Thomas and Kristin Nottelmann were all named to the Academic All-Big 12 First Team. The eight members from the 2010 squad tie for the second most in Missouri history. The 2006 team also had eight, while last year's program had 12 student-athletes selected.

TIGERS MOVE UP ONE AGAIN

Though they dropped a game last week, Mizzou's 3-1 record in the last week of the regular season was good enough to bump them up a spot in the USA Today/NFCA poll for the third consecutive week. Three weeks ago, Missouri moved from No. 11 to No. 10, last week from No. 10 to No. 9, and this week from No. 9 to No. 8. The Tigers received 499 points this week, five more than No. 9 Georgia. Arizona State fell from No. 7 to No. 10 after a 1-2 week, allowing the Tigers to move up a spot.

HEAD COACH
EHREN EARLEYWINE
Fourth Season at MU
Mizzou: 181-63 (.742)
Overall: 329-118 (.736)
2007 Big 12 Coach of the Year

In three years, Tiger Head Coach Ehren Earleywine has guided the Missouri softball team to a Big 12 Conference title, back-to-back NCAA Regional Tournament crowns, an NCAA Super Regional victory over the No. 1 ranked program in the nation and the program's first Women's College World Series (WCWS) trip in 15 seasons. Batting averages, ERA's and fielding percentages have all improved dramatically, while Tiger players are earning national recognition on a now annual basis. Missouri's top-ranked softball squad has Earleywine to credit for its rise to national prominence.

Named Missouri's head coach in August of 2006, Earleywine's rapid success was rewarded with a contract extension which will have the Tiger skipper coaching through the 2013 campaign. In his three years at Missouri, Earleywine has managed a 137-53 record, amassing the second most wins of the Tiger's eight all-time softball coaches and becoming the fastest Missouri softball coach to reach 100 victories. Since beginning his head coaching career in 2003 at Georgia Tech, Earleywine has turned in a 72 percent winning percentage, good enough for 13th best of active Division I coaches, and is averaging 47 wins per season. He is the fifth fastest coach to reach 100 wins in NCAA Division I softball history.

Missouri's 2009 softball season will likely be recorded as the best in the program's 35 year history. A year in which the Tigers managed a program-high 50 wins, claimed the Big 12 crown for the first time since 1997, knocked off No. 1 seeded UCLA in their second-ever best-of-three NCAA Super Regional appearance, advanced to the WCWS for just the fourth time in program history, were honored with two All-Americans for the first time in eight years and finished the season with the squads' highest ever end of year ranking, eighth. For their part, Missouri's coaching staff was named the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) Midwest Staff of the Year.

In just three years, the 2007 Big 12 Coach of the Year, became the first Missouri softball coach to lead his squad to back-to-back NCAA Regional titles, doing so in 2008 and again at home in Columbia, Mo., in 2009. Since taking the reins, Missouri's batting averages have increased 32 points, while the team ERA has dropped from a 3.23 in 2007 to a 1.47 in 2009, the Tigers' best end of the year ERA since 1998. Averaging .313 on the year, Missouri's bats were hotter in 2009 than they had been since 1997, with six women hitting above .300 and two batting above .400 on the year. Combining for 333 RBI in 2009, it marked Missouri's highest total in program history. With Earleywine at the helm, the Tigers have stolen a total of 367 bases and managed an 82 percent success rate on stolen bags since 2007.

In addition to the success Missouri has seen on the field, Earleywine's squad has received record marks in the classroom, finishing the 2008 campaign with a combined 3.36 grade-point average, the highest GPA since the creation of the program in 1975.

Prior to his career at Missouri, Earleywine spent five seasons at Georgia Tech, of which he served as head coach for the final three. Earleywine's teams made five consecutive appearances in the NCAA Regional Tournament, finishing runner-up on three occasions. The Ramblin' Wreck claimed Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) regular season and tournament titles in 2005 and to his credit, Earleywine was named the 2005 ACC Coach of the Year. Earleywine is a graduate of Jefferson City High School and is married to Linn, Mo., native Lisa. The two have two children, six-year old son Connor and four-year old daughter, Duran.

In the ESPN.com/USA Today poll, Missouri ranked in at No. 14 for the second straight week. The Tigers sit just seven points back behind California, who jumped Mizzou into the No. 13 spot this week.

SLUGGERS BATTLING FOR TOP SPOT

The Missouri home run hitters are battling for the most home runs on the club with the end of the season closing in. Through May 9, Marla Schweisberger has connected with nine to lead the team. Fleming sits in second with eight, while Rhea Taylor, who is usually known for her slapping, has come out of nowhere to move into second on the team with seven, joining Nicole Hudson who hit her seventh against WIU. Since April 13, Taylor has connected on five home runs to raise her total. Coming into this season, Taylor had just five career home runs in her first two seasons combined. Catherine Lee, who hit 22 home runs in her first two seasons at Georgia State, has come on strong as of late and now has six home runs in her first season as a Tiger.

IN THE CLUTCH

While many teams may struggle in what is considered the "clutch" situations, the Tigers have thrived in them this season. With runners on base this season, Missouri as a team is hitting .317. With the bases loaded they are doing even better, as they are hitting .438. When there are runners in scoring position, Mizzou buckles down, as the team is hitting .326 in those situations. When Missouri has a runner on third and less than two outs, that runner is brought home over 64% of the time. To compare, Mizzou opponents score in that situation just 41% of the time.

FANTASTIC FIFTH

The fifth inning has been the breakout frame for Missouri for much of this season, as they've scored 75 runs in fifth innings this year. Those 75 runs make up 21.7% of the team's overall total, and is the most scored by Mizzou this season in any inning. To add to that, the Tigers have limited opponents to just 17 runs in fifth innings, making the frame a pivotal time for Missouri to add to their leads or close the gap when trailing late in the ball game.

SHORTENING THE GAMES

Missouri has made it extremely difficult on teams trying to come back on them this season, as they are 35-0 in games that they lead after four innings of play. When they lead after five innings, the Tigers are 27-0, and when they lead after six innings they are 26-0. Between the fourth and seventh innings this season, the Tigers have outscored opponents by a 199-72 margin.

OVER BEFORE IT STARTS

When Missouri has taken the lead after the first inning this season, that usually spells doom for their opponents. Mizzou has entered the second inning with the lead 22 different times this season, and they've won all 22 games.

OFFENSIVE EXPLOSION

After struggling earlier in the year offensively, the Missouri offense has exploded as of late, so much so that they now lead the Big 12 for most runs per game this season at 6.39. In the team's last eight Big 12 games, the Tigers have scored 73 runs for an average of 9.13 per game. They've only scored less than five runs one time during that stretch, which came in a 5-2 loss to Nebraska. During Mizzou's current 19-game stretch that has them 17-2 overall, the Tigers have scored 146 times, totaling an average of 7.68 runs per game in those contests.

DOUBLE J

Missouri freshman Jenna Marston, who goes by the nickname of "JJ," is quickly climbing up the doubles charts in both Missouri history and Big 12 history. The freshman phenom has raced into second 16 different times this year, tying her for second-most among Big 12 batters. The 16 doubles are the third-most in a single season at Missouri, with Mary Babb holding the record with 19 during the 1995 season. The Big 12 record is held by OSU's Jaime Foutch, who hit 22 doubles in 1997.

TAYLOR TRACKER

Outside of the numerous records and achievements Rhea Taylor has set at Mizzou this season, the Buford, Ga., native is also flirting with some Big 12 records as well. Though she still has more than a season left in her career, Taylor is currently the conference's all-time leader in batting average, with a .415 career mark. Her six triples this season tie her for sixth-most in a season in Big 12 history, while her 13 career three-baggers move her into a tie for fourth most in a career in the conference. By this time next season, the speedster will be the conference's all-time leader in stolen bases, as she's just 23 shy of breaking Sharonda McDonald's record of 153 career stolen bases. McDonald played at Texas A&M from 2004-2007.

NOTTIE EYEING 20

Sophomore pitcher Kristin Nottelmann is closing in on her first career 20-win season, as her record currently stands at 18-6. If the righty can pick up two more wins before the end of the season, she'll become just the sixth Tiger pitcher since 2000 to pick up 20 or more wins in a single season, and the first to do so since Stacy Delaney, who went 20-4 in 2008.

SCHWEISBERGER EARNS ACADEMIC HONOR

Missouri junior Marla Schweisberger to the 2010 CoSIDA/ESPN the Magazine Academic All-District 7 Second Team for her work in the classroom. Schweisberger becomes the 16th Tiger to earn the award, and marks the fourth straight season that the Mizzou softball program has had a player selected.

Schweisberger, a psychology major, has put together a cumulative GPA of 3.30, and is one of 14 players from the Big 12 to be selected. She is also one of five Big 12 players to be selected to the District 7 Second Team. Schweisberger is hitting .281 on the season with nine home runs, most on the team, and 30 RBI. Her home run against Western Illinois on Wednesday moved her into a tie for 10th all-time at Missouri with 17 career homers.

FLEMING EARNS BIG 12, NATIONAL ACCOLADES

After putting up a batting average of .769 during the week of April 26-May 2, sophomore Ashley Fleming was rewarded for her outstanding performance by being named the Big 12 Player of the Week and the USA Softball National Player of the Week. It is the first career Big 12 weekly award for Fleming, and she becomes just the second Tiger to ever win the USA Softball award.

The sophomore out of Silex, Mo., finished the week with 10 hits in 13 at-bats, which included three doubles and two home runs. She also scored seven times and drove in eight runs, while going a perfect 3-for-3 in stolen bases. Her on-base percentage for the week was .789, and her slugging percentage was an astounding 1.462.

Fleming is the third Tiger to win a Big 12 Player of the Week award this season. Junior Catherine Lee won the award back on April 20, while sophomore Chelsea Thomas was named Big 12 Pitcher of the Week on March 2. Janessa Roening is the only other Tiger to be named USA Softball Player of the Week, which came back in 2005.

MIZZOU SPLITS LAST REGULAR SEASON SERIES

After dropping Saturday's game against Nebraska, the Missouri softball team fought back with a victory on Sunday to earn a split in the last series of the 2010 regular season. Missouri finishes the season with a 44-10 record and an 11-7 record in Big 12 play.

The Missouri Tigers' offense was stymied on Saturday, as they fell by a 5-2 score to the Nebraska Cornhuskers. The Huskers got on the board first with three straight hits to start the bottom half of the first inning, capped by a three-run home run to give Nebraska the 3-0 lead. Missouri got back in the game with a pair of two out runs in the top of the third. Rhea Taylor started the rally with a two out walk, and moved to second on her 36th stolen base of the season. Catherine Lee doubled into the gap to bring Taylor around to score, while Lee scored on a single by Jenna Marston, cutting the Husker lead to 3-2.

Nebraska got those two runs right back, however, capped by a two-run single by Gabby Banda. With one out, Guile singled for her second hit of the game, and advanced to third on Brooke Thomason's two out double, setting up Banda, who sent a 1-2 pitch back up the middle to put Nebraska up 5-2.

Jana Hainey took the loss for Missouri, dropping to 9-2 this season. She pitched just 3.2 innings, allowing seven hits and five runs. Taylor saw her hitting streak of 18 consecutive games snapped after she went 0-for-2 with two walks. Her streak concludes as the seventh-longest in Big 12 history.

Mizzou was able to rebound on Sunday with a 5-0 win in the regular season finale. Sophomore Kristin Nottelmann got the win, pitching her 10th complete game of the season by throwing seven scoreless innings. The righty allowed just three hits and struck out four.

The Missouri offense wasted no time getting on the board on Sunday, as they scored twice in the first inning. Rhea Taylor led off the game with her sixth triple of the season, while Jenna Marston drew a one-out walk to put two on. After Marston stole second, Nicole Hudson delivered a two-out single into right field to give Mizzou the early 2-0 lead. The Tigers were able to add on some insurance in the top of the seventh, getting three runs to extend their lead to 5-0.

TIGERS SWEEP NON-CONFERENCE FINALE

The Missouri Tigers closed out their non-conference schedule with a doubleheader sweep over Western Illinois on Wednesday, winning by scores of 5-1 and 7-1. Missouri improves to 42-9 on the season and finishes 33-3 in non-conference games.

In game one, the teams exchanged scoreless innings all the way to the fourth, when the Tigers were finally able to push three runs across the board. Nicole Hudson led off the inning with a double to the right field fence and advanced to third on a sacrifice bunt. Hudson would score on a double by Lindsey Muller, who roped a line drive over the right fielder's head, making it 1-0 Tigers. Gina Schneider followed by delivering a home run to straightaway center field, putting Missouri up 3-0. Senior Jana Hainey threw five scoreless innings for her ninth win of the season, improving her to 9-1 overall.

Game two started similarly to the first game, with both teams remaining scoreless through the first three innings. Just like the first game, Mizzou pushed across three runs in the top of the fourth to get that pivotal first lead of the game. Hudson drew a leadoff walk and two batters later Shana White singled up the middle while advancing on the throw into third, putting runners on second and third. After a strikeout, Schweisberger delivered a home run to dead center field, giving the Tigers the 3-0 lead. Schweisberger's ninth home run of the season puts her back on top as the team leader, and is a new season-high for the junior. Missouri picked up a pair of insurance runs in the top of the sixth to extend their lead to 6-1. In the seventh, Hudson blasted her seventh bomb of the season to lead off the frame and extend the Tiger lead to 7-1. Kristin Nottelmann went the distance to improve to 17-6 on the season. The sophomore allowed just one run on four hits while also striking out a pair.

MISSOURI WINS 40 AGAIN

For the fourth time in four years under head coach Ehren Earleywine, the Missouri softball team has once again won 40 games in a single season. The Tigers picked up win No. 40 in game one of the series against Baylor, securing the feat with a 9-2 victory. Since Earleywine arrived at Mizzou in 2007, the Tigers are 178-62 for a .742 winning percentage. Missouri was 40-24 in Earleywine's first year, 47-17 in 2008 and 50-12 last season.

TIGERS CLOSE HOME SCHEDULE WITH SWEEP

The Missouri Tigers finished out the home portion of the 2010 regular season schedule with a sweep over Big 12 opponent Baylor, winning by 9-2 and 11-6 scores.

In game one, Jana Hainey won her eighth game of the season, throwing five innings of five hit ball while allowing two runs. Missouri pushed across five runs in the bottom of the fourth to get on top for the first time on the day. Jenna Marston drew a one out walk and moved to second on Ashley Fleming's single. Marla Schweisberger then ripped a single down the left field line to score Marston for the first Mizzou run of the day. Nicole Hudson then followed with the biggest hit of the day for Missouri, a three-run home run to dead center field. The home run was her sixth of the season and put Missouri up 4-2. Later in the inning, Gina Schneider ripped a single off the pitcher and advanced to second on a wild pitch. She'd score on an RBI single by Abby Vock, making it 5-2.

Rhea Taylor led off the bottom of the fifth with a triple to right field. The lefty sent a 3-2 pitch over the right fielder's head and all the way to the wall, allowing her to advance all the way around to third while extending her hitting streak to 15 straight games. Taylor also had a 15-game streak last season, and ties her for the 11th longest streak in Big 12 history.

On Sunday, Missouri scored seven times in the fourth and fifth innings combined to separate themselves from the Lady Bears. Kristin Nottelmann improved to 16-6 overall with the win after allowing one earned run in 4.2 innings. The sophomore scattered five hits, walked just one and struck out four Baylor hitters.

Marston finished the day 3-for-3 with two RBI and two runs. Fleming went 1-for-2 at the plate with a pair of runs and three RBI. Lee also went 1-for-2, scoring twice and bringing home two. Both Fleming and Lee hit two-run home runs in the fourth inning. Taylor extended her hitting streak to 16 games with a single in the first. Missouri finishes the regular season with a 26-3 record at home.

MISSOURI BEATS CMU IN MAKEUP GAME

Missouri fought past an upset-minded Central Methodist squad on their way to a 5-0 win on Thursday evening. Sophomore Kristin Nottelmann picked up win number 15 on the season, and had taken a no-hitter into the seventh inning. Just one out shy of her second no-hitter of the season, the bid was disrupted with a two-out single in the final inning. Nottelmann allowed just the one hit and two walks, while striking out 11.

Junior Rhea Taylor went 2-for-3 with a run scored in the game, extending her hitting streak to 14 straight games. She also continued her streak of nine streak multi-hit games, increasing her batting average to .462 on the season. Freshman Nicole Hudson busted the game wide-open with her bases-clearing, three-run double in the fifth. Junior Megan Christopher belted a solo home run in the bottom of the sixth, her third of the year, to close out the scoring and make it 5-0 Tigers.

TAYLOR BREAKS RUNS RECORD

Junior Rhea Taylor broke her second school record of the year last Wednesday against Iowa State, when she scored three times in the doubleheader to set the all-time runs mark at Missouri. She now has 170 career runs, beating out Mary Babb's record of 164, which had stood since 1997.

TIGERS SWEEP IOWA STATE IN SLUGFEST

On a windy, blustery day in Ames, Iowa that saw 11 home runs between the two Big 12 teams, the No. 10 Missouri Tigers earned a doubleheader sweep over the Iowa State Cyclones, winning by scores of 12-6 and 14-9. The two teams combined for 41 runs on 49 hits in the wild doubleheader.

Missouri rallied in game one, as they were down 6-5 with one out in the top of the seventh before scoring seven times in the inning. Rhea Taylor went 3-for-5 at the plate with two home runs, one a grand slam, and five driven in. Taylor becomes the first Tiger this season to hit two home runs in a single game. Ashley Fleming went a perfect 3-for-3 at the plate, while also driving in three runs. Marla Schweisberger picked up a pair of hits, including a two-run home run, while Jenna Marston doubled twice and scored twice.

The Tiger offense continued rolling into game two, as they scored 14 runs on 15 hits in the win. The Tiger bats stayed red-hot in game two, as they picked up five runs on five hits in the first inning. Taylor picked up a hit for the 13th straight game with an infield single, while Lee did the same thing, giving the Tigers two on and nobody out. Marston followed with a home run to right-center field for her fourth blast of her freshman campaign.

Iowa State made it a game, however, with a six-run bottom of the sixth to make it 11-9. The Cyclones picked up six hits and took advantage of two Tiger errors to avoid the run-rule and get themselves back in the contest.

Missouri gave themselves some breathing room with a three-run seventh, pushing their lead to 14-9. Schweisberger doubled in Marston, who led off the inning with a double, to drive home one run. Fleming scored on a groundout, and Jaydee Young, pinch running for Schweisberger, came home on a wild pitch. Jana Hainey picked up her second save of the season with 1.1 innings of hitless ball.

MISSOURI SPLITS IN COLLEGE STATION

The Missouri softball team split their two-game series with the Texas A&M Aggies down in College Station, Texas, as the Tigers took game one 14-1 in five innings before falling 6-5 on Sunday.

The softball team scored early and often on Saturday, hitting a season-best five home runs and scoring a season-high 14 runs on their way to an impressive 14-1 win over No. 22 Texas A&M in five innings to open the pivotal series. The 14 Tiger runs came on 10 hits, and extended the Missouri winning streak to nine in a row. Junior Rhea Taylor extended her hitting streak to 10 games with a 2-for-4 day at the plate which included two runs and three driven in – all coming on her fifth home run of the season. Freshman Lindsey Muller added a three-run blast of her own in her only at-bat. Missouri also got home runs off the bat of juniors Catherine Lee and Marla Schweisberger, along with sophomore Ashley Fleming.

The Tigers went for the sweep on Sunday and they put together a late-rally in the seventh inning, but it wasn't enough as they dropped the finale against No. 22 Texas A&M by a 6-5 final. Down 5-1 in the seventh, Marla Schweisberger hit her second home run of the weekend and seventh of the season with a runner on and no one out, cutting the lead to 5-3. Taylor then followed with an infield single right back to the pitcher, beating the throw in a close play at first and bringing the tying run to the plate. After a pop-out, Marston roped a double into the gap, plating Taylor and cutting the lead to 5-4. A few batters later, Kathryn Poet singled into left field to score Marston and even the score at 5-5.

However, the Aggies were able to push one more run across in the bottom half of the inning for the win. Hainey got the first two outs relatively easily, getting a fly out and a foul out. Back-to-back two out walks set up the winning single by Rhiannon Kliesing, ending the Tigers' chance of sending the game to extras and completing the comeback.

LEE NAMED BIG 12 PLAYER OF THE WEEK

After a huge week that saw her hit .727 over a five-game span, junior Catherine Lee was rewarded with her first-ever Big 12 Player of the Week award, earning the honor for the week of April 20.

Lee, in her first year as a Tiger after spending the last two years at Georgia State, went 8-for-11 over the course of the week, collecting three doubles, driving home seven runs and scoring twice. Lee put up an on-base percentage of .688 and a slugging percentage of 1.000, while also going 2-for-2 in stolen bases. Lee is the second Tiger to earn a Big 12 weekly award this season. Sophomore pitcher Chelsea Thomas was named Pitcher of the Week back on March 2.

TIGERS BEAT CMU, 7-1

A day after setting a new career-high in strikeouts, sophomore pitcher Kristin Nottelmann came out on Thursday and did it again. The righty struck out a career-best 10 batters on Wednesday against Missouri S&T on the way to her first career no-hitter, but on Thursday Nottelmann struck out 13 hitters as the Tigers defeated Central Methodist by a 7-1 score.

Senior Gina Schneider led the offense with a grand slam, her fourth home run of the season, while juniors Rhea Taylor and Catherine Lee continued their hot streaks. Taylor went 2-for 3 with a run and a stolen base, while Lee ripped her third home run of the season and drove in three.

DAY OF FIRSTS CAPS SWEEP

It was a day of firsts for the No. 11 Missouri softball team, who improved to 34-8 on the season following a split-doubleheader sweep over Evansville and Missouri S&T. Senior Michael Vock hit her first career home run, doing so in walk-off fashion, to lift the Tigers over Evansville, 8-0 in five innings, while sophomore Kristin Nottelmann stymied the Missouri S&T batters for five innings with a career high 10 strikeouts, as she picked up her first career no-hitter in Mizzou's second 8-0 win of the day. Freshman Ashlie Ortega picked up her first career hit as a Tiger when she roped a double into the left-center field gap.

MIZZOU STUMBLES AGAINST LONGHORNS

The Missouri softball once again struggled offensively while Texas showed why they are one of the top offensive teams in the nation as the Tigers drop both games of a two-game set, losing 5-2 and 10-2.

Freshman Jenna Marston finished 4-for-6 on the weekend, accounting for four of Missouri's seven hits in the two games. Sophomore Ashley Fleming added her fifth home run of the year in game one. Sophomore Kristin Nottelmann took the loss in both games, falling to 8-6 this season.

TIGERS SWEEP JAYHAWKS

The No. 7 Missouri Tigers used a come-from-behind, walk-off victory over Kansas in a game one before pummeling the Jayhawks by a 10-2 final in six innings in game two. The wins improved Missouri's record to 27-6 on the season, and evened up their conference record at 3-3.

After struggling offensively for the past several games, the Tigers found themselves in a 4-2 hole in the bottom of the seventh inning. Junior Rhea Taylor got the inning started with a leadoff single through the right side. She would advance to second on a wild pitch before sophomore Ashley Fleming walked, putting runners on first and second with no outs. With a 1-2 count, freshman Jenna Marston crushed an opposite field home run deep over the left field wall, giving the Tigers the 5-4 win in dramatic walk-off fashion. Sophomore Kristin Nottelmann picked up her eighth win of the season, throwing a complete game with five strikeouts.

The dramatic game one victory seemed to light a fire under the Tigers, as they belted out 10 runs on nine hits in the second game. In the fourth, freshman Nicole Hudson got the offense going with a leadoff double. After Hudson was pinch-run for by freshman Princess Krebs, junior Shana White reached on a sac bunt and an error by the third baseman, advancing Krebs to third. Junior Lisa Simmons was called in to pinch hit, and she blasted her first career home run to deep right-center field to put the Tigers up 4-2. Simmons finished 2-for-3 with the four RBI and a run scored. Fleming and Hudson also collected two hits each, with Fleming driving in one run and Hudson two. Senior Jana Hainey (3-0) pitched four innings of relief, allowing just one run while striking out and walking one.

TAYLOR FINALIST FOR PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Junior Rhea Taylor has been selected as one of 25 finalists for the 2010 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year, as announced Tuesday by the American Softball Association (ASA) of America.

The award, considered the most prestigious honor in all of Division I women's softball, is designed to recognize outstanding athletic achievement by female collegiate softball players across the country.

This season, Taylor is hitting .425, the third best in the Big 12, with two home runs and 14 runs batted in this season. She's also scored 26 runs, has ripped seven doubles, tripled once, and has stolen 18 bases in 19 attempts. Earlier this season, Taylor stole her 111th career base to set a new school record, breaking Julie Link's record that stood since 1989. Taylor is the first Top 25 finalist from Mizzou since Amanda Renth was selected back in 2007.

MIZZOU COMPLETES SWEEP OF TECH

The Missouri softball team capped off a perfect 5-0 week with a sweep over conference opponent Texas Tech, knocking off the Red Raiders by scores of 3-1 and 5-2.

In game one, Jana Hainey put together her best outing of the season, as she went 5.1 innings while allowing just one run on six hits, walking one and striking out five. The five K's and 5.1 innings pitched are both season-bests for the southpaw.

Junior Rhea Taylor went a perfect 3-for-3 at the plate with three runs scored, moving her into third place all-time with 153 career runs. Freshman Jenna Marston finished the day 2-for-3 at the plate with an RBI, while junior Catherine Lee drove in two while picking up a double.

On Sunday, sophomore Kristin Nottelmann earned her 11th win of the season, as she pitched 3.1 innings of scoreless ball out of the bullpen while allowing just two hits. Senior Gina Schneider powered the offense with a three run blast in the third inning, her third home run and 14th driven in this season. Junior Rhea Taylor went 2-for-4 with two runs scored, while also stealing two bases.

OFFENSE SPUTTERS AGAINST OKLAHOMA STATE

The Missouri softball team had their Big 12 home opening weekend spoiled by the No. 15 Oklahoma State Cowgirls, as OSU pulled off a sweep of the Tigers, winning 8-3 and 1-0.

Game one, which started on Friday, resumed play Saturday afternoon. After beginning the fourth inning on Friday, the game was suspended due to heavy rains in the area. Play continued Saturday at Noon CT, with the two squads tied at 3-3.

It was all Cowgirls when play resumed, as they scored five runs over the last three innings to pick up the 8-3 win. After a hit and an error in the fifth, a one out, two-run double put Oklahoma State on top for the first time in the game, moving ahead with a 5-3 lead. In game two, Missouri was limited to zero runs on just three hits, and the lone Cowgirl run held up, giving OSU the sweep. The Tigers had a chance to score in the second, as they loaded the bases with two outs, but a strikeout ended the inning and the threat. The Cowgirls scored in the top of the fourth, after getting back-to-back one out doubles.

TAYLOR BREAKS STOLEN BASE RECORD

In the first inning of game two against SLU on Wednesday, March 31, following a leadoff walk, junior Rhea Taylor stole second base on the first pitch for her 111th career steal, breaking the school record in just two-and-a-half years. Former Tiger Julie Link held the old record since 1989. After stealing a school-record 57 bases her freshman year, Taylor swiped 36 more her sophomore year. So far this season she has 18 stolen bases. Taylor has been thrown out only eight times in her career, giving her a lifetime stolen base percentage of 93.3%.

TIGERS SPLIT BIG 12 OPENER

In the conference opener against No. 12 Oklahoma, Missouri earned a hard-fought split on the road, rallying in game one for an 11-5 win before dropping the finale by a 9-0 score.

In game one, the Sooners jumped out to a 5-0 lead after three innings of play, getting three unearned runs in the bottom of the second and tacking on two more with a two-run home run in the bottom of the third to take the early lead.

Mizzou's offense came alive in the fourth, though, highlighted by junior Catherine Lee's two-out, three-run blast to dead center field. With two outs in the inning, Marla Schweisberger kick-started the rally with a single through the left side, and freshman Nicole Hudson drew a walk. With a 1-1 count, Lee send a ball through the swirling 27 mile per hour winds to cut the Sooner lead to 5-3. In the sixth, the wheels came off the wagon for the Sooners, as the Tigers collected eight runs on five hits and three errors in the top half of the inning.

Freshman Lindsay Muller pitched two innings of relief, allowing just one hit while facing the minimum, as she picked up her third win of the season. Lee and Fleming both finished the day going 1-for-3 at the plate with a home run and three batted in. Michael Vock went 2-for-2, scoring once and driving home an RBI.

Missouri managed just one hit in the finale on Sunday. Sophomore Kristin Nottelmann took the loss for Missouri.

THOMAS K'S CAREER HIGH

Sophomore pitcher Chelsea Thomas struck out a new career high 14 batters on Saturday against Illinois State. The righty from Iowa used her 14 strike outs to propel her to her ninth win of the season, improving her record to 9-1. Ten of Thomas' first 14 outs were recorded via the strikeout. Thomas' previous career high was 12, which she achieved against then-No. 2 Alabama in her second start of the season. The 14 strikeouts are tied for the most in a seven inning game by a Missouri pitcher since 2004. In 2008, Stacy Delaney struck out 14 against Boston University, while Erin Kalka achieved the same feat in 2004 against Stephen F. Austin. Kalka struck out the most batters a game after sitting down an astonishing 25 hitters in a 14-inning marathon against Oklahoma State, also in 2004.

THOMAS BRINGS HOME TWO AWARDS

For her efforts at the NFCA Leadoff Classic, sophomore pitcher Chelsea Thomas was named the NFCA Leadoff Classic Most Valuable Pitcher and the Big 12 Pitcher of the Week. This is the first time this season that a Tiger softball player has won a Big 12 weekly award, and is the second career honor for Thomas. Thomas went 3-0 on the weekend, which includes wins against No. 4 Michigan and No. 18 UL-Lafayette. The right-hander struck out 26 batters and walked just one on her way to a tournament ERA of 2.67. She threw two complete games over the weekend, beating Michigan 2-1 in eight innings and ULL 11-6. She also earned the win against Radford, as she pitched six innings of relief while fanning seven and walking none. Thomas' lone walk of the tournament came in the second inning against Michigan. Since then, she has posted 19 straight walkless innings.

LUCKY NO. 2?

The No. 2 is looking as if it has become a lucky number as of late for the Missouri program. In Mizzou's last two three-game sets against the No. 2 team in the country, the Tigers have been able to take two out of three - on the road, no less. Last year, MU took two of three against the UCLA Bruins in Los Angeles, Calif., at the NCAA Super Regional, advancing Missouri to their fourth Women's College World Series in program history. To open the 2010 season, Missouri took two out of three against the No. 2 Alabama Crimson Tide in Tuscaloosa, Ala. On top of that, both of Mizzou's game three victories came at the hands of a five inning mercy rule. The Tigers beat UCLA in game three last year by a 9-1 final, while beating Alabama 9-0 in the rubber match of this year's series. Missouri also split a doubleheader with No. 2 Arizona earlier this season, also on the road, to improve their record to 5-3 in their last eight games against the nation's No. 2 squad.

TWO NAMED TO TOP-50 WATCH LIST

Missouri junior outfielder Rhea Taylor (Buford, Ga.) and sophomore pitcher Chelsea Thomas (Pleasantville, Iowa) have been selected to the prestigious Top 50 Watch List for the 2010 USA Softball College Player of the Year Award, according to the Amateur Softball Association of America (ASA). The award, now in its ninth season, is designed to recognize outstanding athletic achievement by female collegiate softball players throughout the nation. The 2010 list is made up of 50 players, representing 35 schools and 14 NCAA Division I conferences. Included in the list are 27 seniors, 17 juniors and six sophomores. The ASA will announce their 25 finalists for the award on April 7. A player doesn't have to appear on the Top 50 preseason list to make the Top 25 finalist list, but the winner will be chosen from the list of 25 finalists.

FOUR SIGN FOR 2010-11 SEASON

The nationally-ranked Missouri softball team signed four women to the fall 2010 roster. Brianna Corwin, Taylor Duplechain, Maddison Ruggeberg and Mackenzie Sykes have all committed to the Missouri softball team and will begin their collegiate careers in the fall of 2010.

Brianna Corwin | Kansas City, Mo.

Corwin, a catcher on the Platte County High School softball squad, was a three-time conference, district, region and state first team selection. Notching a career best .521 batting average and .699 slugging percentage her senior campaign, Corwin helped the Pirates to a fourth place finish at the Missouri State Championships, earning Conference, District and Regional Titles in 2009. As a junior, Corwin and her teammates finished first in the conference, district, region and state. In four years, Corwin stole 108 bases and scored 118 runs.

Taylor Duplechain | Pearland, Texas

As a senior at Glenda Dawson High School, Duplechain, an outfielder, led the district with a .562 average. One year prior, she led the district in stolen bases, 19, and managed a .666 batting average. In 2006, Duplechain was named to the 14-and-under USSA All-World Team. A member of the Lady Eagle track team, Duplechain finished fourth in the 4x200 at the Texas State Track Meet and took first at the district meet in the 4x100, 4x200 and 4x400. For her work on the track, Duplechain was awarded All-Brazoria County accolades.

Maddison Ruggeberg | Davenport, Iowa

The starting shortstop on the West High School softball squad, Ruggeberg and her teammates qualified for the state championships in 2006 and 2008. The right handed hitter earned all-conference honors in 2008, notching a .477 batting average, .521 on base percentage and .640 slugging percentage. In 2009, Ruggeberg was named a 2009 All-American on the 18-and-under Colorado Sparkler softball team. A member of the Falcon varsity basketball team, Ruggeberg was the starting point guard.

Mackenzie Sykes | Blue Springs, Mo.

A four-time all-district honoree, two-time all-area honoree and 2008 first-team all state selection, Sykes managed 137 hits during her four year career at Blue Springs High School. In 2008, the Wildcat softball squad claimed the state title, finishing the season with a spotless 31-0 record. Sykes, a third baseman, notched a .357 batting average, scored 102 runs, recorded 73 RBI and stole 51 bases.

BRADLEY NAMED VOLUNTEER ASST.

Missouri softball Head Coach Ehren Earleywine has tabbed former Tiger standout and MLB All-Star Phil Bradley as a volunteer assistant coach for the 2009-10 campaign. Bradley will assist in all aspects of the game, however his emphasis will lie in assisting Earleywine as hitting coach, as well as working with Missouri's outfielders. A two-sport athlete, Bradley spent time on the diamond playing as an outfielder on Missouri's baseball team. He was awarded All-Big Eight, All-District and All-America honors in 1981 while hitting .457 on the season. Additionally, Bradley was named the 1980 Big Eight Tournament MVP after helping the Tigers to the conference title. Bradley holds school records for career walks and on-base percentage. After graduation, Bradley was selected in the MLB draft by Seattle and played with the Mariners through 1987. Bradley was named to the 1985 All-Star Team and posted career-highs with 26 home runs and 88 runs batted in that season. During his major league career, he also played with the Philadelphia Phillies, Baltimore Orioles and Chicago White Sox. Currently, Bradley is the Special Assistant to the Executive Director for the Major League Baseball Players Association.
