RECENT SWINGS

• Mizzou concluded its exciting run in the Southeastern Conference Softball Tournament (May 9-11) with a runner-up finish at John Cropp Stadium, posting a 2-1 record in its first appearance in the event. The Tigers, seeded third, started with a five-inning, 8-0 win over No. 6-seeded Arkansas on Friday, May 9, before rain pushed the SEC semifinals to the final day of the tournament on Saturday, May 11. Mizzou took a 3-0 result from second-seeded Tennessee to advance to the SEC Tournament Championship, dropping a 10-4 result to top seed and third-ranked Florida.

• The Tigers wrapped up their first SEC tournament with three team members on the all-tournament team: senior pitcher Chelsea Thomas, senior catcher Jenna Marston and sophomore 1B Kelsea Roth.

• The Tigers took the regular season-ending series vs. No. 2 Tennessee with two exciting victories on May 4 and May 5, first from the arm of Thomas and then from the arm and bat of Hudson. Thomas threw the 11th no-hitter of her career to blank the Lady Vols, 2-0, in the initial game of the Saturday, May 4, doubleheader. It was then Hudson leading the way to clinch the series, pitching the complete game (6.0) and hitting two home runs for six RBI in the 12-8 victory over Tennessee on Sunday, May 5. The victory ended Mizzou's regular season (33-10) and SEC season (15-8), with the league finish good for third place.

COLUMBIA REGIONAL

• The Mizzou softball team was selected to serve as one of 16 NCAA Regional hosts, announced Sunday May 12, by the NCAA Division I Softball Selection Committee. The selection came as the fifth-straight season an NCAA Regional will be played at University Field in Columbia, Mo. Prior to head coach Ehren Earleywine taking over the Mizzou program in 2007, only two NCAA Regionals were hosted by the Tigers.

• The Tigers have an impressive 18-3 record in the NCAA Regional rounds under Earleywine's direction.

SCOUTING STONY BROOK

• Stony Brook enters the NCAA postseason with a 35-23 overall record and 10-8 mark in the American East Conference. The Seawolves are led offensively by sophomore infielder Bria Green, who has batted .355 this season with 18 doubles and seven home runs. The team leader in RBI is sophomore Shayla Giosia, who has driven in 35. Green trails her with 32 RBI.

• The Seawolves have stolen 34-of-45 (.756) bases in 2013, with Giosia leading the way with a 9-for-10 mark. In defense, Stony Brook has compiled a .970 fielding percentage with 52 errors in 58 games.

• Stony Brook has three pitchers who have logged at least 100.0 innings in the circle, with sophomore Allison Cukrov leading the staff with 186.2 innings pitched for a 15-14 record and 2.74 ERA. For the year, Cukrov has struck out 147 batters and issued 82 walks. Junior Christine Lucido (117.0 IP) has compiled a 2.08 ERA with a 12-2 record, while freshman Jane Salen (100.0 IP) has pitched to an 8-7 record with a 3.08 ERA.

• Hofstra is led by one of the top pitchers in the nation, senior Olivia Galati, who has thrown 307.0 of the Pride's 351.1 innings pitched this season. Galati has pitched to a 37-10 record with a 1.39 ERA, striking out 374 batters and issuing 29 walks.

SCOUTING OREGON STATE

• Oregon State (33-22, 8-16 Pac-12) enters the NCAA tournament dropping five of its last six games, including a three-game sweep dealt by No. 5 Oregon. The Beavers are led by freshman first baseman Natalie Hampton's .346 batting average and her team-best 15 home runs and 50 RBI. Hampton has slugged an outstanding .704 in 2013 and has an on-base percentage of .430. Senior outfielder Lea Cavestany is the next big bat for OSU, holding a .331 average with 10 home runs and 42 RBI.

• The Beavers have gone 49-for-66 (.742) in steal attempts this season, with senior shortstop Elizabeth Santana the biggest steal threat (9-for-11). In defense, OSU has compiled a .964 fielding percentage, committing 57 errors in 55 games.

• Two Oregon State pitchers have seen the bulk of the workload in 2013, with senior Marina Demore (168.2 IP) pitching to a 20-11 record and 3.03 ERA. Fellow senior Tina Andreana (127.1 IP) has compiled a 9-7 record with a 3.74 ERA.

STELLAR SENIOR CLASS

Mizzou's senior class - redshirt senior Chelsea Thomas, Rachel Hay, Nicole Hudson, Princess Krebs, Jenna Marston and Lindsey Muller - have put together one of the most prolific five-year stretches in collegiate softball. The run began with Thomas' freshman season in 2009, in which the Tigers went 50-12 and advanced to the program's third Women's College World Series appearance and first under Earleywine. Thomas redshirted after pitching a small portion of the 2010 season and was joined by Hay, Hudson, Krebs, Marston and Muller for another WCWS appearance (51-13). The group helped Mizzou to a 53-10 record and third-straight trip to Oklahoma City for the WCWS in 2011. The Tigers compiled a 47-17 record en route to the program's fifth consecutive NCAA Super Regional in 2012. In their final collegiate seasons, Mizzou's seniors have led the squad to a 35-11 record. The Tigers have been amongst the nation's best in winning percentage of the last five years, as illustrated by the chart to the right.

NCAA RPI

Mizzou currently holds a No. 7 RPI (ratings percentage index) from the NCAA (May 13). The squad received a No. 5 ranking in the initial NCAA RPI of the 2013 season, released March 25. Last season, the Tigers began with a No. 15 RPI ranking.

MIZZOU MILESTONES - REWRITING THE RECORD BOOKS

- Chelsea Thomas became Mizzou's all-time winningest pitcher with her performance in the 6-1 win at LSU (April 19), her 103rd career victory. She surpassed the 30-year old record of 102 set by Teresa Wilson from 1980-83. She earned win No. 109 in the 3-0 win vs. No. 4 Tennessee (May 11).
- Thomas also has the most strikeouts in Mizzou history, with 1,147 to her credit. Her total is the top mark by more than 200 strikeouts.
- Thomas is in the all-time top 5 of the following Mizzou pitching categories: career appearances (fourth, 155), complete games (third, 93), innings pitched (third, 897.0) and shutouts (third, 44).
- For season records at MU, Thomas is tops in both season strikeouts and season wins. Her marks of 397 (2011) and 306 (2012) strikeouts are the two largest totals in school history. Thomas' 32 victories in 2011 is tied with Wilson's stellar campaign in 1981.
- Jenna Marston and Nicole Hudson have made the mark in Mizzou's offensive record books, ranking fifth and seventh in all-time hits, respectively. Marston (226) and Hudson (205) are two of just nine Tigers to reach 200 hits for their careers.
- Marston additionally has moved into the school's top 10 for career at-bats, where she currently ranks sixth all-time with 677. Hudson stands just outside the top 10 with 638.
- Hudson and Marston are in a tight race to be Mizzou's all-time walks leader by season's end. Hudson is currently Mizzou's all-time leader with 140 walks after recording 41 so far in 2013, while Marston follows at 132 with 23 this season. Marston originally surpassed former standout Jen Bruck's former No. 1 mark of 115 (2005-08) with her 116th walk in the fifth inning of Mizzou's 12-0 (5) win at Ole Miss on March 17.
- Hudson's season total of 41 walks, a career best, currently ranks tied for third all-time. The program record of 46 was set by Marston last season.
- Both Marston and Hudson are in the top 5 all-time at Mizzou for career doubles, led by Marston's 53, second-most all-time. Nicole Hudson is fourth all-time with 47. The program record belongs to Michaela Minner (2005-09), who hit 56.
- Hudson ranks fifth all-time with 171 career RBI. Marston sits just outside the top 10 with 115 RBI in her career. Mary Babb (1994-97) is No. 1 with 199.
- Hudson hit her 40th home run at Missouri State (April 3), making her the fifth Tiger to hit 40 or more in her career. She currently is second all-time with 45 long balls, with Jenn Bruck (2005-08) holding the all-time No. 1 mark of 47.
- Marston ranks second all-time at Mizzou with 191 runs scored, while Hudson ranks seventh with 149. Three-time All-American Rhea Taylor (2008-11) is No. 1 in school history with 234.

FUN TOURNAMENT RUN

Mizzou's offense performed admirably in its first appearance in the SEC Tournament, batting .317 as a team with four batters hitting better than .400 in their trips to John Cropp Stadium in Lexington, Ky. Freshman 2B Emily Crane and junior OF Mackenzie Sykes batted 5-for-10 (.500) in the tournament, while senior catcher Jenna Marston hit 5-for-11 (.455) at the plate. Sophomore 1B Kelsea Roth had the biggest impact, hitting a home run in each game.

THE MARSTON MACHINE

Senior catcher Jenna Marston has been on fire for Mizzou over the last three weeks (since the 2-1 win over UK on April 26), batting 20-for-41 (.488) with 12 runs scored and nine RBI. Seven of Marston's hits have gone for doubles, and she has struck out a team-low two times over that time span. She has also gone a perfect 3-for-3 in steal attempts.

CAN'T PSYCH OUT SYKES!

Junior OF Mackenzie Sykes had herself a day in Mizzou's five-inning, 8-0 win over No. 21 Arkansas to start the SEC Tournament, batting 3-for-3 with two runs scored and three RBI. The incredible part was her hits: a single, a triple and a double to give her a 2.000 slugging percentage for the game.

SENSATIONAL SENIOR DAY

• It was a big day for senior Nicole Hudson, who hit two home runs for a career-high six RBI and pitched the complete game (6.0) in the six-inning, 12-8 win over Tennessee on May 5 at University Field. The senior's second long ball of the day was a grand slam in the bottom of the second inning, the second hit of a 2-for-3 batting performance. Senior catcher Rachel Hay got into the home run-hitting action, as well, launching a two-run shot in the bottom of third inning.

• Following the game, seniors Hay, Hudson, Princess Krebs, Lindsey Muller, Jenna Marston and Chelsea Thomas were honored in the team's Senior Day ceremony. Senior student managers Nikki D'Aurelio, Matt Guemmer and Lance McMahon were also recognized for their contributions to the Mizzou softball program.

ANOTHER NO-HITTER FOR THOMAS

• The story of May 4 was Thomas, who no-hit the SEC's top batting team, Tennessee, who entered the contest with a .344 team average. Including combined no-hitters, the effort against the big swinging Lady Vols was Thomas' 14th career no-hit pitching performance. Her strong outing was her first complete game no-hitter (11 total) since blanking Oklahoma State last season (May 11, 2012) with 12 strikeouts in a 4-0 win.

• The effort earned Thomas her fifth SEC Pitcher of the Week award (May 6), the 17th conference honor of her career. With the recognition, Thomas became just the second conference pitcher to earn five weekly awards in a single season. The Tiger standout joined former Tennessee ace Monica Abbott, who earned five honors in 2005. Thomas finished the regular season leading all SEC players in weekly awards, as well as cementing her lead over the rest of the conference's pitchers. Three league pitchers finished with two honors apiece.

NO WALKS? NO PROBLEM!

Senior pitcher Chelsea Thomas issued zero walks in the 3-0 win over No. 4 Tennessee on May 11 at the SEC Tournament, striking out nine Lady Vols. She had previously walked no batters in the 6-1 win at No. 11 LSU (April 19). For her career, she's completed this feat 39 times out of 142 starts. Mizzou holds an outstanding 35-3 record (one no-decision) in those starts, holding its opponents to less than one run per game (0.90). In those 39 outings, opposing batters average 0.42 hits per inning against the senior Tiger. Thomas is pitching "zero-walk starts" in roughly one out of every four starts in her career.

CLEAR THE BASES

• Senior Nicole Hudson's grand slam in the win over No. 2 Tennessee on May 5 was the second of her career. Her first came for all of Mizzou's RBI on March 31, 2012, vs. Baylor, a 4-2 win. Hudson's grand slam against the Lady Vols contributed to a career-high six RBI day at the ballpark.

• Sophomore 1B Kelsea Roth hit her second grand slam of the season in the first inning of Mizzou's six-inning, 10-2 win over South Carolina (March 29). The blast, her ninth home run of the season, opened the scoring for the game.

• In back-to-back games of the Georgia Tech doubleheader (March 23), a Tiger hit a grand slam. In the five-inning, 8-0 win to start the day, sophomore 3B Angela Randazzo hit her grand slam during the six-run second inning. The blast was her third home run of the season. Senior Rachel Hay's grand slam, her second home run of the season, came in Mizzou's six-run second inning of the five-inning, 16-0 victory in the second game.

• Roth hit Mizzou's first grand slam of the 2013 season came in the five-inning, 13-1 victory over Maryland (Feb. 21). The four-run shot helped power a nine-run second inning that distanced the Tigers from the Terrapins. Coincidentally, Roth was previously the last Mizzou player to hit a grand slam in 2012. Her second-to-last long ball of her seven-home run freshman campaign cleared the bases at Iowa State on April 28.

2013 SEC PITCHER OF THE YEAR - CHELSEA THOMAS

Thomas took home the 2013 SEC Pitcher of the Year on May 7. A two-time All-American, Thomas also earned Big 12 Pitcher of the Year awards in 2011 and 2012. She was the winningest pitcher in league games in 2013, claiming 13 SEC regular season wins. Thomas finished the conference season with top marks in conference strikeouts (117) and conference opposing batting average (.176). Thomas additionally received a First Team All-SEC nod to add to her two First Team All-Big 12 honors (2011, 2012). She was also recognized to the All-SEC Defensive Team.

2013 SEC SCHOLAR-ATHLETE OF THE YEAR - JENNA MARSTON

Marston has compiled a 3.99 cumulative GPA as an industrial engineering major in her time at the University of Missouri. She earned Capital One First Team Academic All-America recognition as a junior in 2012 and has been an academic all-district pick three times in her career. She posted a team-best .371 batting average in SEC action that ranked ninth in the conference. Her .489 on-base percentage was good for third-best in the league, and her eight conference doubles tied for No. 2 in the SEC. At catcher, Marston recorded an astute .985 fielding percentage with four runners caught stealing. Her First Team All-SEC honor at catcher now stands with two All-Big 12 recognitions at shortstop (2010, 2011).

WAIT - HOW MANY?

Mizzou recorded 19 hits in its six-inning, 12-4 win at Western Illinois in the second game of the May 1 doubleheader. The total stands as the Tigers' top hitting output of the 2013 season and also ranked third all-time in the Mizzou record books.

HUDSON JOINS MARSTON IN 'THE 200 CLUB'

With her two hits in Mizzou's six-inning, 12-4 win in game two of the Western Illinois doubleheader, senior Nicole Hudson became just the ninth player in Tiger softball history reach 200 career hits. She joined fellow senior Jenna Marston in the group, with Marston ranking fifth all-time with her 217 hits. Hudson stands in ninth currently with 200.

WE'LL HAVE WHAT MARSTON IS HAVING

• Senior catcher Jenna Marston put on a hitting clinic in Mizzou's doubleheader sweep at Western Illinois (10-5, 12-4 [6]) on May 1, batting 6-for-9 (.667) overall. The extremely impressive portion of her day came in the second game, in which Marston set a career-high with a 4-for-5 performance at the plate. Her four hits in the six-inning, 12-4 win over the Leathernecks included two doubles. Marston became just the second Tiger to record a four-hit game this season, with the first belong to senior Lindsey Muller's 4-for-4 outing at UCSB (W, 12-1) on Feb. 17.

• Sophomore SS Corrin Genovese led an impressive showing of the Tigers' bats in the two wins over Western Illinois, hitting 5-for-7 (.714) at the plate in the doubleheader. Sophomore 3B Angela Randazzo and junior OF Mackenzie Sykes both put on 4-for-7 (.571) showings, with Sykes batting a perfect 3-for-3 in the second game.

HUDSON DOES IT AGAIN

Mizzou faced a 1-0 deficit heading into the seventh inning of its April 26 game at No. 19 Kentucky, but senior Nicole Hudson helped the Tigers take care of that, poking an RBI single out to left field to bring in the tying run. After a fruitless eighth, Hudson launched her 13th home run of the season in the ninth inning to give Mizzou the go-ahead run that resulted in the final score of 2-1.

SKY IS THE LIMIT

As previously mentioned, senior Nicole Hudson and sophomore 1B Kelsea Roth have both smacked 15 home runs thus far in 2013. The two big swingers easily surpassed their 2012 (61 games) totals in long balls, during which both recorded seven apiece. Hudson has blasted 45 four-baggers in her career, while Roth has hit 22. Joining them in the home run spree are sophomore 3B Angela Randazzo with eight and junior OF Mackenzie Sykes with seven. The previous season-best for both Randazzo and Sykes was two.

EHREN EARLEYWINE

Head Coach | Seventh Season

In just six seasons, Tiger Head Coach Ehren Earleywine has led the Missouri softball program to almost unheard-of levels of success in such a short amount of time. In his first season, he took a team that posted just 26 wins and had a losing record the year before and turned them into a 40-win squad that finished the year with a regional bid and a top-20 national ranking. After 2007, Earleywine led the program to an even more success on the national stage, as his Missouri squads have captured five regional championships in a row, two Big 12 titles, the first three 50-win seasons in Missouri history and three Women's College World Series appearances, making him the first Tiger coach ever to earn consecutive berths to the pinnacle of college softball. Batting averages, ERA's and fielding percentages have all improved dramatically, while Tiger players are earning national recognition on a now annual basis. Missouri's top-ranked softball squad has Earleywine to credit for its rise to national prominence.

Named Missouri's head coach in August of 2006, Earleywine's rapid success was rewarded a seven year contract extension on August 31, 2011, making him the first Olympic coach in Missouri history to receive an extension greater than five years. In his six seasons at Missouri, Earleywine has managed a record of 288-90, amassing the second most wins of the Tiger's eight all-time softball coaches and becoming the fastest Missouri softball coach to reach 200 victories. Since beginning his head coaching career in 2003 at Georgia Tech, Earleywine has turned in a .750 winning percentage, the eighth-best amongst active Division I coaches, and is averaging 48 wins per season. He is the fifth fastest coach to reach 100 wins in NCAA Division I softball history.

As successful as the 2009 campaign was, somehow the 2010 Missouri softball season topped it. While that may not have been a surprise when you looked at the team going into the season, Missouri definitely shocked plenty of people after what happened in the middle of the season. At the end of March, Missouri was flying high, sitting at No. 3 in the country and considered a legitimate contender to win the Women's College World Series. However, word then broke of a season-ending injury to ace pitcher Chelsea Thomas, and suddenly Missouri became an afterthought. What people seemed to forget, however, is that this was an Ehren Earleywine coached team, and they wouldn't be allowed to roll over and die without a fight.

After a brief adjustment period in early April, the Tigers finally got it all together. They ended the season with 51 wins, breaking the school record mark of 50 set the previous year. They hosted the regional round for the second straight year, where they used a seventh inning comeback over Creighton and two straight wins over Illinois to capture their third consecutive regional championship. Then, Missouri played host to the NCAA Super Regional round for the first time in school history, sweeping the Oregon Ducks in two games to move on to their second straight and fifth overall Women's College World Series. Missouri had their fourth All-American awarded under Earleywine, and finished the year ranked No. 8, tying for the highest end of the year ranking in program history. For their work, Earleywine and his staff were selected as the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) Midwest Staff of the Year for the second consecutive season.

In 2011, the Tigers once again entered the season with incredible expectations, and again they lived up to the hype, inching ever closer to their goal of a national championship. They broke the school record for wins for the third straight season, finishing with a record of 53-10. During the middle of the season, they won 24 straight games, a school record as well. They captured their first regular season Big 12 Championship since 1997 after finishing the year at 15-3 in league play. For the third straight year, Columbia played host to the NCAA Regional round, where the Tigers captured their fourth consecutive regional title despite falling into the loser's bracket on the first day of action. Missouri hosted Washington for the NCAA Super Regionals the following week, the second straight year the Tigers have hosted Supers, and swept the Huskies in two games to advance to their third straight Women's College World Series. Missouri won their first WCWS game since 1991, defeating rival Oklahoma by a 4-1 score to eliminate the Sooners. Despite losing a 13 inning heartbreaker later that night to end their season, the Tigers finished the year with a 53-10 record and a No. 6 national ranking, the highest finish ever for the Missouri softball program. Redshirt sophomore Chelsea Thomas was one of three finalists for USA Softball's Player of the Year award and was named Big 12 Pitcher of the Year after leading the nation in ERA, while the squad also had three All-Americans and six All-Big 12 selections.

Last season, the Tigers said goodbye to the most successful class in school history, and welcomed in 10 freshmen, completely revamping the face of the program. While anyone around the program would say it was a disappointing year, making it clear all season that they were "reloading" and not "rebuilding," the Tigers still finished one win away from going to their fourth consecutive Women's College World Series, falling in the final game of the best-of-three Super Regional series to LSU.

Missou also finished second in the Big 12, going 17-7 in league play. Thomas was again named Big 12 Pitcher of the Year for the second straight season, becoming the second pitcher in conference history to do so, while freshman Corrin Genovese earned the program's second consecutive Defensive Player of the Year Award. Ashley Fleming earned All-America honors for the second time in her career, while the Tiger staff was named NFCA Midwest Region Staff of the Year for the third time in four years.

In six seasons, the two-time Big 12 Coach of the Year has become the first Missouri softball coach to lead his squad to five straight NCAA Regional titles, doing so in 2008 and again at home in Columbia, Mo., from 2009-12. Since taking the reins, Missouri's batting averages have been on the rise, which includes a .313 mark in 2009, while the team ERA has been on the decline, highlighted by 2011's 1.40 mark, the Tiger's best end of the year ERA since 1998. The 2011 team set a new program best with 539 strikeouts, more than 100 more than the previous record set in 2004. With Earleywine at the helm, the Tigers have stolen a total of 683 bases and managed an 83 percent success rate on stolen bags since 2007.

In addition to the success Missouri has seen on the field, Earleywine's squad has received record marks in the classroom, finishing the 2008 campaign with a combined 3.36 grade-point average, the highest GPA since the creation of the program in 1975. In 2011, Missouri led the Big 12 with a 997 APR rate for the softball team, while 10 Tigers were named to the Academic All-Big 12 list, the most in the league. They followed that up with eight in 2012, and went on to have three Academic All-Americans crowned in Fleming, Thomas and Jenna Marston, tying the program record for most in a year, set in 1991.

Prior to his career at Missouri, Earleywine spent five seasons at Georgia Tech, of which he served as head coach for the final three. Earleywine's teams made five consecutive appearances in the NCAA Regional Tournament, finishing runner-up on three occasions. The Ramblin' Wreck claimed Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) regular season and tournament titles in 2005 and to his credit, Earleywine was named the 2005 ACC Coach of the Year.

A 1994 graduate of Westminster College, Earleywine played baseball at Missouri State University (formerly Southwest Missouri State) for one year before transferring to the Fulton, Mo., school for the remainder of his collegiate career. Earleywine served as an assistant coach at Westminster through the 1997 campaign under the guidance of former Major League Baseball outfielder and former Tiger, Phil Bradley, then took the reigns as head coach until 1999. Following his time at Westminster, Earleywine was named assistant baseball coach at Texas A&M-Corpus Christi in 2000, remaining there until 2002 before taking the Head Assistant Coaching position at Georgia Tech.

A standout in men's major fastpitch softball, Earleywine was a four-time member of Team USA (2000, 2001, 2002, 2003) including being named captain for his final two seasons with the national team. In 2002, Team USA captured its first-ever gold medal in the Pan Am Qualifier, where Earleywine hit .429. During his career, Earleywine collected four medals, one gold, two silver and one bronze. At the 2003 Pan Am Games, hosted by the Dominican Republic, Earleywine helped lead Team USA to a silver medal, doing so again in the 1999 Pan Am Games held in Winnipeg, Canada. Earleywine and his team earned bronze in Valencia, Venezuela, at the 1998 Pan Am Qualifier.

A six-time American Softball Association (ASA) All-American, Earleywine was an All-World selection in 1999 by the International Softball Congress (ISC). As a member of the Decatur Pride, Earleywine's team earned the ASA Softball National Championship title in 1999 taking World Championship honors in 2001 with the ISC.

Earleywine is a graduate of Jefferson City High School and is married to Linn, Mo., native Lisa. The two have two children, son, Connor and daughter, Duran.
