QUICK PITCHES

46 • Mizzou has blasted its way to success this season, pummeling 46 home runs in 2015. That is already the 10th-most homers in a single season in school history. The Tigers' 1.39 home runs per game ranks third in the SEC behind Auburn and Tennessee.

7 • Currently No. 21/21, the Tigers have been ranked in the Top 25 in both the USA Today/NCFA poll and ESPN.com/USA poll every week for the past seven seasons. Mizzou has been a Top 25 squad since June 10, 2008. That's 2,496 consecutive days.

8 • Mizzou stayed at No. 8 this week in the latest RPI rankings that came out on April 6. The Tigers have already faced seven teams in the RPI Top-25, with wins over No. 3 Auburn, No. 12 Arizona, No. 15 Tennessee and No. 25 Georgia. All nine of MU's losses on the year are to RPI Top-25 teams.

22 • Junior Sami Fagan currently boasts a 22-game on-base streak, which is the longest of her career. Fagan is one of three Tigers to put together an on-base streak of 15 games or more this season (Roth-20, Crane-15).

6 • Mizzou has 57 hits off of left-handed pitchers in 169 plate appearances, and MU is 6-0 this year vs. lefties. The team's .337 batting average against southpaws ranks third in the SEC, behind only Auburn and Georgia.

TIGERS ON THE PROWL...

- Hit go-ahead, two-run HR in Game 1 win over No. 9 Georgia
- Team-leading 41 RBI, which ranks 10th in the SEC

20 • Amanda Sanchez • FR • 3B
- Went 8-for-21 in last seven games at the dish - .381
- Hit 4 homers in those 8 games, including a two-run HR in Game 2 vs. Georgia
- Drove in 4 runs vs. Illinois and 3 more vs. Auburn in consecutive games
- Has manufactured 2 different 8-game hit streaks in 2015

21 • Jordan Zolman • SO • DP
- Has 7 hits and 6 RBI in just 22 at-bats this season
- Smacked a game-tying, pinch-hit RBI single to tie the score in the 7th inning of Game 3 against Georgia
- Went 3-for-5 in 2 games during series vs. #8 Auburn
- Had 3-run HR (1st of her career) in B7 of game #3 vs. Auburn to close MU to within 10-8

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Please direct all home game credential requests to R.J. Layton of Mizzou Strategic Communications, via e-mail at rjl43b@missouri.edu or by phone at 765-491-5348. Requests should be made 24 hours in advance of a contest or will possibly be denied. Media credentials are only issued to working members of the press.

INTERVIEW POLICY

The University of Missouri interview policy prohibits releasing a student-athlete's home phone number to members of the media without their consent. There are numerous opportunities for members of the media to interview the University of Missouri softball team. Every effort will be made to fill requests made by members of the working media.

INTERVIEWS

All interview requests must be made through R.J. Layton at (765) 491-5348. Requests will be scheduled based on student-athlete and/or coach availability. The softball team has scheduled practice hours on Monday-Friday in the afternoon at University Field, but time and location are subject to change.

POST-GAME PROCEDURES

Head Coach Ehren Earleywine and the Missouri softball team will be available following a brief cooling-off period after each game. Please submit your interview requests to R.J. Layton prior to the completion of the game.

CURRENT TIGER STORYLINES

NO FOOLIN', IT'S APRIL ALREADY

» With the calendar turning to April, that signifies a little over one month remaining in the 2015 regular season. Coach Ehren Earleywine's club has itself positioned in good shape for the stretch run, with a No. 8 RPI ranking currently, but they certainly look to improve on the 24-9 overall mark and 6-6 SEC record. Those efforts continue in a crucial home series against Mississippi State (RPI No. 22).

TAKE ME DOWN TO #BOMBCITY

» Ehren Earleywine's club might not be known as a bunch of mashers, but his Tigers have definitely found their power stroke of late. After hitting 8 home runs in their first 11 games combined, the Tigers have swatted 38 long balls in their last 22 games alone – including a school record-tying five bombs each in wins over Longwood and Illinois.

» Mizzou now has 46 taters through 33 games, and the 1.39 home runs per game average currently ranks 3rd in the SEC behind only Auburn and Tennessee. The 46 home runs already ranks 10th all-time in school history for single-season home runs, and has put the team within reach of the single-season record of 82 set in 2005.

» Mizzou is 18-5 on the season when a Tiger hits a home run. Eleven different players on the roster have at least one dinger this season. Five of those 11 (Sanchez, Cousins, Bange, Harvey and Zolman) have all launched their first career HRs in 2015.

KELSEA LATELY

» Senior 1B Kelsea Roth has been on quite a tear recently, as she's worked her batting average all the way up to .311 from .167 just four weeks ago. In Roth's last 18 games over the last month, she is hitting a robust .409 (18-of-44), and has 21 RBI to go with 21 runs scored, while mashing 8 homers and drawing 15 walks.

» Most importantly, Roth has turned in arguably the two best at-bats of the season in that stretch. First, on March 11 against SEMO, with the Tigers trailing 1-0 in the bottom of the 7th, runners on 2nd and 3rd and two outs, she worked out of an 0-2 count to stroke a single through the left side to score both runners and give the Tigers a dramatic walk-off comeback 2-1 win.

» Then, this past weekend in G2 vs. #8 Auburn (March 28), Roth single-handedly erased a 4-3 Mizzou deficit in the bottom of the eighth as she swatted a walk-off two-run homer to center field to give MU a dramatic 5-4 comeback win, handing Auburn its first SEC loss of the season. Roth added a clutch home run that helped propel the Tigers' to a series-opening win over No. 9 Georgia last weekend.

» Roth, who is 6th all-time on the Mizzou career home runs chart, with 39, recently snapped a current 20-game reached safely streak. She has been an on-base machine, drawing 21 walks in 2015. Roth is one of seven Tigers with at least 10 free passes this season.

ROAD WARRIORS

» With three more road games in the books after the Georgia series, the Tigers spent seven out of the last eight weekends away from home. Mizzou has played just six home games thus far with a 4-2 record at University Field. The Tigers have played 27 of their first 33 games away from Columbia, Mo. Mizzou is 14-3 in games played at a neutral site.

» Being away from the friendly confines of University Field hasn't impacted Coach Ehren Earleywine's squad, as they are 20-7 overall away from home, including 6-4 in true road games. Mizzou has a road sweep at South Carolina four weekends ago to open SEC play (4-2 Sat./9-3 Sun./8-0 in 5 innings Mon.) and a single tourney win at #25 North Carolina State (13-3 in 5 innings) on its resume.

» This weekend's matchup with Mississippi State marks the fourth consecutive weekend that Mizzou has played a series against an opponent with a Top-25 RPI. The Bulldogs are ranked No. 22 in the latest RPI.

STRONG RPI

» In the latest release of the NCAA Softball RPI, Mizzou is ranked No. 8. The Tigers were No. 16 at the end of the last season. The Southeastern Conference has the highest conference RPI in the country. All nine of Mizzou's losses thus far have come to Top 25 RPI teams.

» Mizzou is set to play at least three more Top-25 RPI teams: No. 22 Mississippi State, No. 2 LSU and No. 1 Florida.

A PRODUCTIVE PAIR

» Juniors Emily Crane and Sami Fagan are positioned at second and third in the Tigers' lineup, protecting each other. The pair has been on fire lately as Fagan has a 20-game on-base streak and Crane boasts a 15-game on-base streak.

» In the last 20 games, Crane is batting a team-high .417 in the two-hole. She has 25 hits in that span, including nine doubles and her first career triple. With just under a season and a half left in her career, Crane currently holds the school record for career on-base percentage with a .454.

» Despite having a team-high 105 at-bats, Crane has struck out just five times this season. That is the lowest mark among Tigers who have played in at least 20 games. Meanwhile, the five-tool player has committed just one error in the last two seasons combined with 85 putouts in that stretch.

» Fagan has added power to her arsenal in 2015. After hitting just three home runs in her first two collegiate seasons, she has eight home runs already in the 2015 campaign. In the last 20 games, Fagan has 10 extra-base hits, 22 RBI and a .690 slugging percentage.

SLAMMIN' SANCHEZ

» In Amanda Sanchez's 26th career game, Earleywine decided to move the freshman phenom into the clean up spot in the lineup against Illinois. Sanchez capitalized, crushing two home runs in the same game for the first time in her career as Mizzou routed border rival Illinois, 17-5.

» Sanchez has since settled down in that role over the last eight games. She is batting .379 (11-for-29) in the span, collecting a team-high 11 RBI and 23 total bases. Sanchez has hit four of her nine home runs in the clean up spot and has a .793 slugging percentage since making the switch.

» Meanwhile, the savvy freshman has recorded 58 assists and committed just four errors while holding down the hot corner at third base, cementing herself as a likely four-year starter.

» In the Tigers' final two games against Georgia that resulted in a pair of losses by two runs or less, Sanchez provided a bright spot offensively. She smacked three hits, including a two-run home run that kept her team within striking distance in Game 2.

MEMORABLE MOMENTS OF 2015...

» Kelsea Roth vs. Auburn (W, 5-4; March 28) - When Auburn plated a run in the top of the seventh, Mizzou responded in style as Roth belted a walk-off two-run home run over the CF wall to even the series.

» Amanda Sanchez vs. Illinois (W, 17-5; March 25) - The freshman pummeled two home runs in the same game for the first time in her career, recording in four RBI in the Tigers' rout over their border rival.

» Sami Fagan at Tennessee (W, 9-8; March 21) - After being down 8-2 at one point, Mizzou erased an 8-5 deficit when Fagan roped a bases-clearing, 3-RBI double to knot the score and propel the Tigers to a victory

» Emily Crane at N.C. State (W, 13-3; March 15) - Went 4-for-4 at the plate with four hits, including two doubles, and tied the school record for runs scored in a single game with four.

» Kirsten Mack vs. Longwood (W, 12-4; March 14) - Mack hit two home runs in the same game for the first time in her career, going 3-for-3 with three RBI at the dish

» Paige Lowary, at South Carolina (W, 4-2; March 7) - Lowary pitched her 1st collegiate complete game, allowing just 4 hits and no earned runs to a potent USC lineup in the opening game of the 3-game sweep.

» Paige Bange vs. SEMO (W, 10-1; March 11) - Recorded first career hit in style, launching her first career home run well over the left field wall for a solo shot.

» Tori Finucane at South Carolina (W, 8-0; March 9) - Finucane tossed a complete-game, shut-out and limited the Gamecocks to just two hits and one walk.

» Kirsten Mack at South Carolina (W, 4-2; March 7) - With the score knotted at 2-2 in the 5th, Mack unloaded on her third home run of the season, a go-ahead, two-run jack proved to be the decisive at bat of the game.

» Amanda Sanchez at South Carolina (W, 9-3; March 8) - With the bases loaded in the top of the first, Sanchez smacked her first career grand slam to give Mizzou a comfortable advantage.

» Amanda Sanchez, vs. Penn State (W, 11-7; Feb. 27) - The freshman went 3-for-5, including an eighth-inning home run to help the Tigers complete a wild comeback win after trailing 5-0 thru 2 innings & 6-4 thru 6 innings.

» Sami Fagan, vs. South Dakota State (W, 13-0; Feb. 15) - Went 2-for-4 at the plate with a career-high 5 RBI and two home runs in the same game for the first time in her career.

» Emily Crane, vs. UT-Chattanooga (W, 6-1; Feb. 13) - Recorded 3 RBI with a 2-for-3 effort at the dish. With Mizzou leading just 2-1, Crane broke the game open behind a two-out RBI knock.

DID YOU KNOW?

Three-time First Team All-American Chelsea Thomas (2009-13) finished her Mizzou career with 17 weekly conference honors. That total includes five in 2013, which was her final season as a Tiger, but first in the SEC. Her five recognitions not only led the conference handily (three other SEC pitchers had two), but it tied the conference record for weekly awards in a single season (matching Tennessee's Monica Abbott, 2005).

WESTMINSTER, 1994
2007 BIG 12 COACH OF THE YEAR
2011 BIG 12 COACH OF THE YEAR
393-131 (.750) AT MIZZOU | 539-186 (.743) CAREER

Mizzou Softball has become one of the top programs in the nation, and is a perennial contender to reach the Women's College World Series under the direction of Head Coach Ehren Earleywine, a mid-Missouri native who enters his ninth year leading the charge for the Tigers. With a career winning percentage of .743 (539-186) over 12 seasons), Earleywine is truly among the top coaches in the nation. He is the 13th-winningest coach in NCAA Division I history entering this season, according to winning percentage.

Mizzou enjoyed a proud softball tradition before Earleywine took over in 2007, but he's clearly since taken the Tigers to the next level. In the seven seasons before Earleywine's arrival, Mizzou averaged 32.0 wins per season (2000-06). The Tigers have averaged 46.1 wins per season in Earleywine's eight seasons in the dugout. Earleywine has built the Tigers by striving for excellence in all phases of the game. Shut-down pitching, consistent fielding and explosive offense have been constants during his tenure in Columbia. In his eight seasons at the helm of the Missouri softball program, the Tigers have made three Women's College World Series appearances, recorded the first three 50-win seasons in school history and have advanced to six NCAA Super Regionals. These accomplishments have come while building an incredible .752 winning percentage to rank as one of the winningest programs in the nation since 2007.

Mizzou Softball has competed at the highest level during Earleywine's time leading the Tigers, including the capture of two of the programs' seven all-time conference championships. As part of a stellar 50-12 overall record in 2009, Mizzou won the 2009 Big 12 Conference Tournament. The Tigers followed that up with a Big 12 Regular Season Championship in 2011, posting a stout 53-10 overall record. In Mizzou's first season of Southeastern Conference action in 2013, Earleywine's squad left an immediate impression. The Tigers placed third in the league's regular season standings before finishing as runners-up at the SEC Tournament.

Earleywine's teams have been ranked in the Top 10 for six straight seasons, including as high as No. 3 in the nation during a three-week run in 2010. Mizzou has finished as a Top 10 team in the polls three times under Earleywine's leadership.

Big offense led to success in Earleywine's first season in 2007, in which he took a team that posted just 26 wins and had a losing record the year before and turned them into a 40-win squad that finished the year with a regional bid and a Top 20 national ranking.

Named Missouri's head coach in August of 2006, Earleywine's model for winning was rewarded with a seven-year contract extension on Aug. 31, 2011, making him the first Olympic coach in Missouri history to receive an extension greater than five years. In his eight seasons at Missouri, Earleywine has managed a record of 369-122 and became the fastest Missouri softball coach to reach 300 victories. Since beginning his head coaching career in 2003 at Georgia Tech, Earleywine has turned in a .744 winning percentage, the 11th-best amongst active Division I coaches. He was the fifth fastest coach to reach 100 wins in NCAA Division I softball history.

In eight seasons, the three-time conference coach of the year has become the first Missouri softball coach to lead his squad to six-straight NCAA Regional titles, doing so on the road in 2008 and again at home in Columbia, Mo., from 2009-13. In fact, Mizzou was one of only three schools in the country from 2008-13 to win six-straight regional titles. The Tigers were joined by Arizona State and Florida in achieving that feat.

Since Earleywine took the reins, Missouri's batting averages have been on the rise, which includes a .313 mark in 2009, a .304 mark in 2013 and a .310 rate in 2014, while the team ERA has been on the decline, highlighted by 2011's 1.40 mark, the Tiger's best end of the year ERA since 1998.

In addition to the success Missouri has seen on the field, Earleywine's squad has received exemplary marks in the classroom. Mizzou posted a 994 NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) for the 2011-12 academic year, the second highest mark for an SEC softball program, and they followed by ranking third in the SEC in figures for the latest report (May, 2014). In 2011, Missouri led the Big 12 with a 997 APR rate for the softball team, while 10 Tigers were named to the Academic All-Big 12 list, the most in the league. They followed that up with eight in 2012.
