SCOUTING THE RED RAIDERS

Texas Tech is 9-10 on the season and 1-9 in the Big 12 Conference. It is coming off of its only conference win of the season, defeating Oklahoma 3-0 on Wednesday. The Red Raiders began the season with eight straight wins, but followed that with a 10-match losing streak. Kelly Johnson leads Tech attack. She is leading the Big 12 Conference with a 5.62 kills per game average and has a 5.34 kills per game averages in Big 12 matches. Johnson has a .272 hitting percentage on the season and adds 0.40 aces per game, 2.76 digs per game and 0.47 blocks per game. Nancy Todd is in her first year as the Tech head coach after spending the previous eight years as the Red Raiders associate head coach.

THE MU-TTU SERIES

Texas Tech holds an 11-5 lead in the all-time series between the two teams. All five of Mizzou's wins have come since 2000, after Susan and Wayne Kreklow took over at MU. The Tigers have won five of the last six meetings, with the only loss coming last year in the matchup in Lubbock. Earlier this season, Missouri knocked off Tech in a 3-0 (30-13, 30-26, 30-22) sweep in Columbia.

A LOOK BACK

Mizzou moved to 8-0 at home this season with a 3-0 (31-29, 30-27, 30-25) victory over Colorado Wednesday at the Hearnes Center. Freshman Jessica Vander Kooi had her third double-double of the year with 10 kills and 11 digs to lead the Tigers. She hit .381 and added four block assists in the match.

The Tigers held the advantage in game one until CU took a lead at 15-14 lead with a 6-0 run. The Tigers responded, taking back the lead. The game remained tight before Mizzou came away with the 31-29 win.

Missouri trailed late in game two, 27-22, but closed the with an 8-0 run to take the game away from the Buffaloes.

Missouri again fell behind to Colorado in game three, trailing 17-20 before a 3-0 run tied the score at 20. MU quickly took the lead in the game and held on for the game three win to close out the match.

Freshman Nicole Wilson was again strong at the net, recording two solo blocks and six block assists. She also had a .417 hitting percentage. With her 12 digs, Sara Parks reached double-digits in digs for the eight time in the Tigers' 10 Big 12 matches. Lindsey Noll joined Vander Kooi with 10 kills to lead the team.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Practice: Practices for MU Volleyball are open to the media. Times and locations of practices vary throughout the season. Please contact Josh Murray to confirm the practice schedule if you wish to attend.

Interview Policy: Players and coaches are available for interviews before and after practice. They will not conduct interviews on gamedays until after the match. All interview requests must be made through Josh Murray, preferably with 24 hours notice.

A BIG START IN THE BIG 12

Halfway through the conference schedule, the Tigers are 8-2 in Big 12 play, matching the best ever start for Mizzou in the Big 12 Conference. The 2000 team also started 8-2, but lost its next two matches. The 1982 team holds the school record for the best start to the conference season, starting 9-2 when MU was part of the old Big Eight Conference. That year MU finished the year with a 9-3 record in the conference.

PULLING RANK

Mizzou returned to the Top 25 this week after a five week absence. MU is No. 24 in the latest USA Today/AVCA Coaches' poll released on Monday.

The Tigers began the season ranked No. 21 and had climbed to as high as No. 18.

Three other Big 12 Conference teams are in the top 25. Kansas State is No. 8, while Nebraska fell to No. 11 and Texas A&M is No. 21.

MU also continues to receive votes in the Volleyball Magazine poll. The Tigers have been among the other receiving votes in each poll this year.

NOT IN OUR HOUSE

With its win over Colorado on Wednesday, Mizzou remained perfect at home, moving to 8-0 at the Hearn Center this season. That start matches the start last year's team had, winning its first eight matches before losing its ninth home contest of the year. The best home start ever for MU is 9-0, which has happened twice. The 2000 team, the first year that Susan and Wayne Kreklow were at MU, and the 1980 team each started the year 9-0. The Tigers next home match is on Nov. 1 against Texas A&M.

FRESHMAN ORIENTATION

A pair of freshman have already had an impact for the Tigers. Jessica Vander Kooi and Nicole Wilson have seen significant playing time this season and helped the Tigers to its 15-4 record. Vander Kooi had a career-high 21 kills along with 11 digs for her second double-double of the year in MU's match against Kansas State. Wilson had a career-high in solo blocks (2) and block assists (9) in the match against the Wildcats.

Vander Kooi has started every match for Mizzou this season and is averaging 1.86 kills, 2.52 digs and 0.91 blocks per game. She had her first career double-double of the year against Kansas with 12 kills and 16 digs. Vander Kooi also recorded a double-double (10 kills, 11 digs) against Colorado on Wednesday.

Wilson averages 1.96 kills and 1.30 blocks per game. She led Mizzou against Oklahoma with a .857 hitting percentage. She had eight kills, two solo blocks and five block assists against the Aggies. Last Wednesday, Wilson had two solo blocks and six block assists along with a .471 hitting percentage against Colorado.

CONFERENCE CALL

Missouri leads the Big 12 Conference is hitting percentage on the season with a .267 mark. Mizzou also leads the conference with a 2.27 aces per game average as three Tigers are at the top of the Big 12 in aces per game. Shen Danru leads the conference with a 0.57 averaged followed by Lindsey Hunter who is third in the conference with a 0.45 average and Juliana Godoi who is fourth with an average of 0.44. Hunter, who led the Big 12 in assists per game last season, is again on the top of the list this year with a 12.39 average.

THE STREAK IS OVER

Missouri picked up its biggest win in recent memory and one of the biggest in the program's history. After trailing Nebraska 0-2 at the intermission, Mizzou rallied to win the next three games and defeat the No. 8 Huskers in Lincoln on Oct. 15. The win was the first for the Tigers over Nebraska since 1982, snapping a sting of 44 consecutive losses. It was the first Missouri win in Lincoln since 1977 and only the third ever win for MU over the Cornhuskers. For Nebraska, it was only its second loss in the Big 12 Conference since 2000. Defense led the Tigers to the win as they recorded a season-high 106 digs as three different players had at least 20 digs led by Juliana Godoi's 22.

THAT'S A LOT OF 'POINT MIZZOU'

Missouri's win over Texas on Oct. 11 was not like a normal three-game sweep. In game three the Hearn Center crowd heard Public Address Announcer Mark Edwards shout "Point Mizzou" a few extra times. Mizzou won the game by a score of 42-40, in what was the longest game in Missouri volleyball history. MU's three-game point total of 102 is also the second highest point total ever scored in a three-game match in NCAA history. The record is 105 scored by Arizona State over Arizona in 2002. Twice before, the Tigers have been involved in games that have reached 40 points, both coming in the NCAA Tournament. In 2001, Mizzou lost game two of their NCAA Tournament match against Illinois 38-40. Then last year in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, MU defeated Northwestern by a 40-38 score in game four to win the match.

ACES WILD

MU leads the Big 12 Conference in aces with an 2.27 per game and hold spots near the top of the Big 12 standing for aces per game. Danru averages 0.57 aces per game to lead the conference, while Hunter is third in the Big 12 (0.45) and Juliana Godoi is fourth (0.44). Missouri tied a Utah Classic tournament record on Sept. 5 by recording 12 service aces, while holding Utah Valley State to just one. Jessica Vander Kooi led Mizzou with five aces in the match. The Tigers tied a school record for aces in a three-game match with 17 in their season-opening match against Montana State.

THE KREK-LOW DOWN

Missouri Head Coach Susan Kreklow's winning percentage of .809 is the best among active coaches with at least five years of coaching experience. Kreklow is also second in total wins among active coaches with 539 in her career. These numbers reflect her records as the head coach of the Missouri and Columbia College women's volleyball teams. She also coached the Columbia College men's team for three seasons. When those are added in, she has a combined record of 594-140.

SHEN-ANIGANS

Shen Danru was named the Big 12 Conference Player of the Week on Sept. 29 after averaging 5.14 kills and 4.14 digs per game in the Tigers' two matches the previous week. Danru had a double-double in both matches. In the win over Nebraska on Oct. 15, she had 22 kills and 20 digs to lead the Tigers. She has recorded a double-double in nine matches this season and in six of MU's 10 Big 12 Conference matches. She leads the Tigers in kills per game (4.07), digs per game (3.34) and aces per game (0.57). Her 0.57 aces per game continues to lead the Big 12 Conference. Danru was named to the All-Tournament team in all three of Missouri's fall tournaments to open the year. It did not take long for Danru to make an impact for the Tigers last year as she led the team in kills, attacks, aces, aces per game, digs and digs per game.

RECORD SETTER

Lindsey Hunter became the single season record holder for assists at Mizzou last season by recording 1,690 as a freshman. Hunter led the Big 12 Conference and was second in the nation with a 14.08 assists per game average. She was an honorable mention selection to both the All-Central Region team and the All-Big 12 Conference team. Hunter had at least 25 assists in every match in which she started. She recorded a then-career-high 64 assists against Northwestern in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, but topped that mark with 69 assists against Northern Iowa in round two. She was second on the team in double-doubles last year and averaged 2.18 digs per game. Hunter was named to the All-Tournament team in the first two of the tournaments this season. In the season opening Quality Inn Tiger Invitational, she was named the tournament MVP after averaging 13.00 assists per game. She then averaged 11.56 assists per game at the Utah Classic to earn an All-Tournament spot. She currently leads the Big 12 Conference with a 12.39 assists per game average.

A BIT ABOUT BOYD

Lisa Boyd is second on the team with a .312 hitting percentage. She hit at least .330 in five of Missouri's first six matches this year. She had a career-high .667 mark against Toledo in the Tiger Invitational. Boyd hit .375 in the three matches at the Utah Classic and has a career-high 12 kills to lead the team against Utah Valley State. She had 10 kills and a .429 hitting percentage against Utah in the final match of the tournament. For the season, Boyd has a 2.26 kills per game average. Boyd had 11 kills and hit .421 against Oklahoma.
